HOME MISSIONS.

One Hundred and Seventh Annual Report.

The Board of Home Missions presents its one hundred and seventh Annual Report to the General Assembly.

During the year the following missionaries have ceased from their earthly labors and entered into rest and reward:

Rev. John J. Hall.....	Providence, Rhode Island.
Rev. Alonzo Harlan.....	Clarksville, Arkansas.
Rev. William D. Kidd.....	Stirling City, California.
Rev. John Chase Lord.....	Farmington, New Mexico.

Let the Church record their names with gratitude and appreciation.

The Rev. Donald McDonald, D. D., for many years our honored and beloved synodical missionary for Kentucky, resigned his office in September for the purpose of accepting the superintendency of mission work in the Presbytery of Pittsburgh. Very soon after entering on that work he was called home. The Board desires thus to put on record its testimony to his devotion, fidelity and efficiency in all the years of his service.

FINANCES.

While the effects of the panic have been felt by us, as by benevolent organizations generally, there is much cause for thanksgiving in the large total received by the Board, the gross amount being $1,073,971.76. This is the largest sum ever reported to the Assembly by this Board. There has been some advance along nearly every line, the receipts from legacies showing the largest increase, aggregating $230,373.55. The churches have advanced only $2,843.45.

The real advance is somewhat greater than these figures show, because the Synod of Kansas has kept its home mission offerings for its own support, and the Presbyteries of Portland and Los Angeles—the largest on the Pacific Coast—taking care of their own work, send as a consequence small amounts to this Board. Even so it bears no proper proportion to the increase of our obligations.

The growth of the work has however entailed larger expense than in any previous year. The new departments, which by direction of the General Assembly have been added to our work, have increased our budget by much over one hundred thousand dollars. Indeed in the last ten years the cost of our work, including that in the islands, has reached an increase of two hundred thousand dollars. The advance in gifts has not kept pace with these new responsibilities. The result was that last year we were obliged for the first time in a decade to report a deficiency in the treasury. It amounted approximately to forty-eight thousand dollars. Our total debt as of April first was $66,611.18. The Board, however, presents a clean balance sheet because it has used a reserve fund which had been created for such emergencies to meet its obligations. It begins the new year therefore unembarrassed by debt.

But it suffers another embarrassment. The estimates of need from the various departments exceed the probable income of the coming year by nearly two hundred thousand dollars. How to bridge the chasm has given the Board much serious concern. Two courses were open. One was to make appropriations approximately according to request and face the certainty that the end of the fiscal year would bring its reprisals. The other was to scale down our appropriations to approximately our expected income. In view of our promise to the Church to incur no large debt, the Board resolved upon the latter course. It will bring much disappointment to the entire work. It will bring especial hardship to presbyterial work and to the new plan of pastor-evangelist. But we are sure that the presbyteries which shall suffer by this serious reduction will approve the business judgment that thus guards us from large obligations we would be unable to meet. If the progress of the year shall give us unexpected returns we will rejoice to advance in the work as rapidly as those returns shall justify.

In the meantime the stern necessity will not be wholly a disaster if it shall arouse the Church to her duty,—if it shall give her a vision of the meaning of home missions to-day, and shall say to her in commanding tones, there is much land yet to be possessed, new and nation-trying problems yet to be solved; and only a vastly deeper consecration and vastly larger service can save the country or the Church from perils not to be measured in terms of dollars and from the loss of worldwide opportunities, to fail in which will be to be false to the Master's commission.

HOME MISSIONS COUNCIL.

One of the most important events of the year was the organization last spring of a Home Missions Council. Its constituents are representatives of seventeen national home mission Boards and Societies. Its aim is the evangelization of America by counsel, cooperation and, so far as practicable, the federation of home mission efforts. Under its auspices an interdenominational campaign was conducted during January, February and March. Our Presbyterian Home Board entered heartily into the plans and loyally supported the effort. The meetings in the various cities visited gathered members of all the Protestant churches and in many places exerted a profound influence for a completer union of home mission effort. The cities reached were Brooklyn, Hartford, Buffalo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Nashville, St. Louis and Omaha. The meetings held in each city extended over parts of two days. Among the subjects treated were the following: "Today's Outstanding Problems of Home Missions"; "The Unity of the Church in its Mission to America"; "A Christianized America—For Nation Building"; "A Christianized America—For World Redemption"; "The Backward Peoples"; "Our Expanding Frontiers"; "The Immigrating and Emigrating Peoples"; "The Church and Its Resources—the Men and the Means"; "City Evangelization"; "The Church and the Labor Movement".

It is hoped that this Council will be able to devise means whereby the overlapping of missionary effort will be greatly reduced, if not wholly eliminated. Plans are in contemplation for extending to all the constituent bodies of the Council some such arrangement as now obtains between Presbyterian and Congregational Home Mission Boards by which conferences on the field, and where necessary at headquarters, shall secure not only comity but cooperation. The result of the plan alluded to may be stated thus: During the year four cases of alleged violations of comity have come to the attention of the two Boards. All of them were adjusted harmoniously on the field. In one of these cases a division of the state was agreed upon by which similar occasions will be avoided in the future.

ADVISORY COUNCIL.

Another important event of the year occurred in November when representatives of the self-supporting synods met in our assembly room for conference with the officers of our Board, in accordance with the direction of the Assembly, and organized an Advisory Council, to the end that there might be more definite cooperation with the Home Board and a coordination of effort for the great national work. The Council is to consist of one delegate from each of the self-supporting synods and three delegates from the Board of Home Missions.

Two days were spent in the most earnest and brotherly discussion. Plans were considered for advance movements in the synods and in the Board, a report of which will be made to the Assembly by the Advisory Council.

This Council will work for the unity of the great home mission cause; will keep the Board in close and sympathetic touch with the work in every self-supporting synod; will help to extend self-support to other synods; and will unite all the home mission forces for the solution of various home mission problems in the respective states and for the more effective conduct of the national work. Not in many years has a forward step been taken which seems to the Board to promise better things for the cause of American evangelism.

DIFFUSION OF INFORMATION.

Much effort on the part of the Board this year has been expended to utilize the knowledge which the people already have. More effective systems of church finance are desired in all our territory. The Board has maintained a special representative throughout the year working in the interests of more effective church finance. The Rev. A. F. McGarrah, last year and the year before fulfilling a special commission under the Board, has this year been devoting his whole time and strength to this effort. The best methods discovered—not alone in our Church but throughout the country—have been utilized, and by sympathetic conferences with church officers adaptations have been made to local needs. Testimonials as to the value of this effort have been emphatic in their endorsement. The field for such effort is so wide that it seems even yet almost untouched. Few churches have in operation a well-ordered system of handling their moneys; and until such conditions are taken vigorously in hand home missions in all its phases,—indeed the very life of the church itself,—must lag or languish.

Yet the people do not know enough of the widespread need and opportunity. Extensions have been made during the year in the presentation of facts and appeals through literature and otherwise.

The modification of plans made by several of the self-supporting synods, noted in their various annual reports, has opened a broader field for education and inspiration. Cooperation under various methods in the interests of home missions is now possible in all parts of the country.

In November and December important series of conferences were held in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, under the direction of the presbyteries. A member of the Board's official staff accompanied the leaders of the presbyteries and synods. Special emphasis was laid upon the message and the methods presented by Mr. McGarrah. Interest was aroused, and the way was opened for further personal effort there on his part. Earlier in the fiscal year his efforts were claimed by the Synod of Kansas, with whom the Board eagerly cooperated in putting plans of self-support into operation.

As last year, important conferences were held in the South and Southwest with home mission committeemen and pastor-evangelists. The development of more effective methods has been very marked in that territory. A great amount of literature has been distributed, resulting in a commensurate broadening of acquaintance with the work of the whole Church throughout the country. These educational efforts have been specially valuable in this territory, since a large proportion of the membership there was included in the former Cumberland denomination.

Grateful recognition is made of the fuller service rendered by the home mission committees in the contributing presbyteries. More constant communication has been established between them and the Board. They have been increasingly zealous in reaching churches for home mission contributions. The number of non-contributing churches has been markedly decreased owing largely to their effort. Several of these committees have showed special interest in putting their churches in immediate touch with the literature supplies of the Board. Yet fuller cooperation of home mission committees is eagerly solicited.

Some three hundred churches and publishing agencies are reached each week with a letter, conveying "Home Mission Paragraphs", available for reproduction in church folders and otherwise. The Board will gladly extend this service to a broader field.

A member of our official staff is a member of the Board of Managers of the Young People's Missionary Movement, which is increasingly effective in the interests of home missionary education. This movement is controlled by the various missionary boards of the country.

The Board calls special attention to the need in many presbyteries for a more complete coordination of home mission interests. The rapid development of new phases of the work has naturally called into being new agencies to meet exigencies. These calls have become so numerous that many presbyteries maintain three and four distinct home mission committees. The interests designed to be fostered by these committees are all important; none should be neglected. But efficient administration cannot be maintained under a system which segregates intimately allied interests. None of them receives its proper emphasis and each is embarrassed by an unnecessary tendency to conflict and friction, as unnecessary as it is embarrassing. The Board is eager to cooperate to the fullest in correcting these conditions.

Conferences have been held already in a few presbyteries in the interests of a more complete coordination of forces, and new opportunities will be improved whenever offered. Each phase of home missionary work needs the fullest sympathy and help of all the rest. The Board seeks to keep in touch with the methods being adopted by progressive presbyteries and is glad to pass on suggestion of improvement wherever the conditions prompt.

The general resumé of the past year in the four large territorial divisions of the Board's field in the states is outlined by the respective field secretaries as follows:

DISTRICT OF THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST.

For this section the Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D. D., LL. D., presents the following statement:

In the District of the South and Southwest there are nine synods, to wit: Alabama, in which is included the Presbytery of Florida; Arkansas; Kansas; Kentucky; Mississippi; Missouri; Oklahoma; Tennessee, which embraces our work in Georgia and North Carolina; and Texas, which includes our work in Louisiana.

During the year the Synod of Kansas has assumed entire self-support, taking care not only of its missionary pastors but its pastor-evangelists as well. The agreement is that the treasurer of the Board of Home Missions shall be its treasurer and that the relationship between the synod and the field secretary for the district shall be continued.

The home mission committee of the Synod of Missouri early in the year determined to make an effort to put into the treasury of the Board for evangelization this year the same amount of money that it was asking from the Board for that purpose. At the meeting of the synod in October this action of the committee was most heartily approved and an average of one dollar per member for home mission evangelization was fixed as the standard for the synod. It is the sincere hope of the leaders of the Church in this synod that it will not draw anything more from the Home Board than it contributes to it and that it will henceforth become a source of income to the Board rather than a beneficiary. The desire of the synod, so far as that desire has been expressed, is to maintain its present relationship to the Board, using the treasurer of the Board as its treasurer and passing its applications for aid through the Board just as at present, so that the utmost cordiality and sympathy may continue between the synod and the Board.

Because of the wide extent of territory covered by the district and the importance of making synodical meetings count for most, the synods in the district have by agreement adjusted the time for their meetings so that it is possible for Board representatives to spend the entire session of each meeting of the synod with it, giving opportunity to meet home mission committees, pastor-evangelists and missionaries, and time for perfecting plans for carrying on the work within the limits of the synod. The importance of the synod in this district, therefore, to the Board is becoming more and more apparent. In addition the Synods of Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas at their meetings last fall directed their home mission committees to meet before applications for aid were made to the Home Board to consider the entire need in the synod and adjust the requests made by the presbyteries so that the whole territory would be better supplied. The committee of the Synod of Oklahoma met the middle of January with the pastor-evangelists and field secretary, canvassed the whole situation, and studied with care the entire field. Similar meetings, attended by Mr. McAfee as well, were held in Fort Worth, Texas, and Nashville, Tennessee, the last days of February and the first of March. It was the judgment of all who attended that such meetings were most important and should be held regularly.

In these nine synods there are sixty-seven presbyteries and one hundred fifty-five thousand communicants. Thirty-seven pastor-evangelists have been at work during the past year, or part of the past year, in the district. By an agreement between these pastor-evangelists and the field secretary, a blank form has been prepared upon which they submit monthly reports to the field secretary, from which it is clear that they have done a work which could not have been done without them. Where an efficient pastor-evangelist has been employed the results are manifest in better organization, in fewer vacant churches, in increased offerings and in the general efficiency of the work of the presbytery.

Dr. Duncan was re-elected synodical missionary by the Synod of Tennessee at its meeting last fall, and through his persistent and painstaking efforts the debt on our Atlanta church has been lifted. Dr. Hill was elected by the Synod of Missouri at its last meeting as synodical missionary for another year for that synod. During the year Dr. McDonald, the synodical missionary of the Synod of Kentucky, resigned his work to take up similar work in the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, but shortly afterward he passed from his labor to his reward. Arrangements have been made to care for the work done by him in Kentucky. Dr. Calhoun has divided his time between the office of evangelistic superintendent and the pastorate of the church at Maryville, Tennessee. He has rendered valuable assistance to presbyterial home mission committees and has stimulated the work of evangelism throughout the district.

The churches in the district are very largely in communities of two thousand and less but, as the young people are gradually gravitating from these rural communities into the cities, the importance of maintaining our work here is apparent. Rural deliveries and the location of high schools in every county town and the improvement of district schools makes it imperative that the ministry for these localities shall be of a high grade, if we maintain our hold upon these young people who are the promise of the future Church. While the immediate returns may not be encouraging, nevertheless when it is considered that the bulk of our ministry as well as officers of our city churches comes from these localities, the importance of these fields is manifest. However it is difficult to organize and carry forward any comprehensive and effective plan for work where preaching services are held only once or twice a month, and any estimate which may be put upon the returns from this district must be made with this condition of things in view. Nevertheless, the books of the treasurer of the Board indicate that the offerings for this year for home mission evangelization from these scattered communities will be the largest in the history of the district.

Litigation growing out of the union of the two Churches has been in process for almost two years and has continued to disturb and demoralize our forces in all the district, except the Synods of Kansas and Oklahoma. Church houses and manses have been neglected and repairs are greatly needed. Communities have been divided and it has been exceedingly difficult to do aggressive and systematic work. The Supreme Courts of the states of Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky and Texas have rendered decisions declaring the union between the two Churches constitutional and giving the property to that part of the Church which accepted the decision of the Church courts and entered into the union. It is hoped that these decisions will quiet the disturbance and make possible a more aggressive and systematic effort in the years to come.

The general condition of the work even in the face of the difficulties to which reference has been made is encouraging. There is better organization in the presbyteries and synods, a closer fellowship between the two Churches united now into one, and a better understanding of the relationship between home mission committees and the Board, with a well defined idea of the responsibility of the one and the rules of the other. Evangelistic meetings have been held throughout the synods in the district that have resulted most encouragingly and many additions have been made to the Church.

homa makes these two states exceedingly important for us as a Church. In the last year the population of Texas has grown not less than half a million, while the growth of the new State of Oklahoma has been phenomenal. The union of the two Churches in these two synods has given us a strong and active constituency, and support given to these synods now will mean very large interests for the Kingdom of God and the Presbyterian Church in all the years to come. The rapid development of the South, such as we see in Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama, prophesies a large influx of population in the immediate future, and it is ecclesiastical statesmanship for us to plant our cause most firmly in these rapidly developing centers.

The foreign population and our obligation to it has become a problem in this district during the past year. Bohemian settlements have been formed in parts of western Texas and the way is now open for a fruitful ministry upon the part of our own Church. Foreigners, such as Hungarians, Spaniards and Greeks, have been found in large numbers in such centers as St. Louis, St. Joseph and Kansas City, Missouri. Some effort has been made by the Presbytery of St. Louis in the Synod of Missouri, in connection with the Presbytery of Alton in the Synod of Illinois, to minister to the needs of the Hungarians in the two cities of St. Louis, Missouri, and East St. Louis, Illinois.

The presbyteries in this district, especially in Texas, are necessarily very large in their territory. The churches composing the presbytery are greatly scattered and are in rural and rapidly developing communities. This condition of things will make the pastor-evangelist a pressing necessity in the district for years to come, and it is the hope of the brethren of the field that a larger force of these evangelists may be put under commission. It seems utterly impossible to compass such a territory as the Presbytery of Amarillo, in the Synod of Texas, which embraces fifty-two counties—in all of which the population is rapidly increasing,—with one pastor-evangelist for the presbytery. In these new communities that are springing up it will be easy to plant a church at this time. To let the opportunity pass will be to make it necessary to spend a larger amount of energy and a larger amount of money to do the same work later which can be done easily now.

The relationship between the pastor-evangelist, synodical missionaries, evangelistic superintendent and the field secretary has been of the most cordial kind during the year, and the field secretary expresses in this report his appreciation of the continued cooperation upon the part of the home mission committees of the synods and presbyteries with these public servants of the Church, without which cooperation the development of this important district would have been seriously retarded.

DISTRICT OF THE NORTHWEST.

For this section the Rev. Robert N. Adams, D. D., presents the following statement:

In reviewing the work accomplished in the great home mission field of the northwestern district during the past year, I cannot attempt more than to touch upon the high places of success and the low places (if any) of defeat.

It is gratifying, however, to report that we have not suffered any signal defeat, and that there has been a gradual advance all along the line, though our financial showing may not come up to our expectation. There are sufficient reasons for this, the most important among them being a short crop, the usual check to business matters in a presidential election year, together with the effect of business depression in the East. We hope, however, not to fall below the advance in offerings we made last year.

EVANGELISTIC DEPARTMENT.

The work of this department presents many features that are encouraging, and assures us that when the department has been thoroughly organized, manned and equipped, the work of home evangelization will mark a more rapid advance than has ever yet been made.

The evangelistic work is preeminent since it enters into, vitalizes and develops all other departments of the Church, and when complete in its organization it will secure a simultaneous campaign throughout the entire country.

THE LUMBER CAMP DEPARTMENT.

This department has just been received under care of the Board of Home Missions.

The field is located in the northern part of Minnesota and is divided between the Presbyteries of Adams, Duluth and Red River; and is composed of forty-seven logging and lumber camps averaging about eighty men to the camp, which with the settlers and transients makes approximately five thousand men.

This important field is served by the Rev. F. E. Higgins, (known as the Sky Pilot of the lumberjacks), John Sornberger, a Presbyterian, and Fred. W. Davis of the Baptist Church, who are experienced in the work. Mr. Higgins has charge and directs the movements of his coloborers. These three men preach on an average twenty-five times a month. Since January first there have been twenty-one definite conversions and hundreds of others have promised to live Christian lives.

Mr. Higgins forwarded to the Board of Home Missions during February and March three hundred and eight dollars which he collected in the camps where he has personally conducted services.

This is a period of railroad construction in that region and the Great Northern has a new line running north to Warroad; the Northern Pacific has one from Brainerd to the international boundary; the Duluth and Rainy River runs north also to the international boundary, and the Minneapolis, Deer River and Rainy Lake road has now thirty miles in operation and is stretching north to the Canadian line which it will soon reach.

This very important and purely missionary work should be furnished with more men to reach the needy and lost ones—a description of whose deplorable condition may not here be attempted. It ought to be sufficient to arouse the friends of this lumber camp work, to say that there are yet three hundred camps in Minnesota employing about fifteen thousand men who have not been reached by the gospel.

PASTOR-EVANGELISTS.

There are now under commission twenty-three pastor-evangelists in the northwestern district, eight of whom (one for each presbytery) are serving in Minnesota, at an average cost to the Board per man of nine hundred dollars per annum and expenses.

MINNESOTA.

During the past year the eight pastor-evangelists above mentioned have been in continuous service in their respective presbyteries and have conducted forty series of evangelistic meetings; preached 1457 sermons; baptized twenty-two infants and forty-one adults. They report 296 conversions and 188 additions on profession of faith and twenty-nine by letter. They have organized five churches, erected twelve houses of worship, served 182 churches and opened seventeen new preaching stations. They have collected and sent to the Board $1750.09, this being $631.00 in excess of their traveling expenses.

They received from the Board as salaries $6866.45 and their traveling expenses have amounted to $1118.56,—an average for each of less than eleven dollars per month.

In consequence of severe weather and unusually deep snows the evangelistic features of their work have been very much interfered with, hence the results have not been so great as last year.

The Synod of Minnesota made self-support the goal for her semi-centennial year, proposing to raise for evangelization and mission school work an amount equal to that drawn from the Board; and when the complete statement of offerings is announced, notwithstanding the fact that the fields yielded only about one-half the usual harvest last year, we believe the goal will be reached.

NEBRASKA.

The Synod of Nebraska under the leadership of the Rev. W. H. Kearns, D. D., has made gratifying progress during the past year.

The synod employs five pastor-evangelists at an average cost to the Board per man of $1040 and expenses. They have organized five churches during the year.

Dr. Kearns says: "Three of our six presbyteries have had the services of a pastor-evangelist, viz.: Hastings, Kearney and Omaha; and one, Box Butte, has a Sabbath-school missionary and pastor-evangelist combined."

One cheering feature of Dr. Kearns' report is that fourteen churches in that synod during the year reached self-support, and more encouraging still that twenty-four churches, by regrouping and by securing larger subscriptions from the fields, largely reduced their applications for aid. These reductions have been brought about through the faithfulness of the home mission committees and the work of the pastor-evangelists. Thus, by attaining self-support and asking less than the previous year, these churches have released more than three thousand dollars for advance work, of which only sixteen hundred dollars is asked by this synod for the coming year. This shows that the Synod of Nebraska is awake to its responsibility in the matter of extending the Kingdom within its bounds.

Dr. Kearns also states that the home mission committee of synod by a unanimous resolution asked the Board to deal with presbyteries only through this committee, and that in case of emergency (if it became necessary for any presbytery to apply for funds) such application should be endorsed by synod's committee; also, that if the Board finds it necessary to reduce amounts asked, such reduction should be pro rata or proportionate to the amount asked.

The committee also recommended that action be taken by presbyteries requiring all home mission churches to raise and forward to the Board the full amount of their apportionment before their applications will be considered by presbytery.

Nebraska, like the other three states comprising the north-western district, is filling rapidly with immigrants, and this creates a constantly increasing demand upon the attention and care of the Church.

NORTH DAKOTA.

North Dakota is still attracting the attention of investors and settlers.

The irrigation projects planned and in process of development by the Government will add immensely to the value of agricultural lands, while railroad companies, always on the alert for profitable extensions and construction of new lines, are developing interests which make the state a study for future business operators of all classes.

The large ranching interests, whether of sheep, cattle or horses, are giving way to the incoming tide of tillers of the soil, and diversified farming will presently be the largest source of income within the state. Dr. Brown says that during the past year some portions of the state have suffered from a lack of moisture and some other parts from unusual hail storms which have devastated the crops of regions they visited, so that church finances as well as other business interests have suffered greatly; and the meeting of synod's home mission committee on the ninth of March revealed the fact that the reductions made last year in the schedules could not be repeated this year as touching old work.

The advance in giving last year amounted to about one hundred and fifty per cent over the previous year, but in view of hail and drought referred to, together with the political conditions of the country, their efforts will not be crowned with a very great advance; yet it is sincerely believed that the synod will be found to have held its own financially. The increased amount added to the schedules by the home mission committees this year is very largely for new work; and yet the committees will fall far short of meeting the calls for help in these rapidly developing regions of the state. Dr. Brown adds:

"Although the conditions have not been favorable for great progress, there have been churches organized, houses of worship built and dedicated, and these wide fields are calling more loudly than ever for the ministrations of the gospel."

We are hopeful that the coming year will develop better things and that we shall soon see the synod measure up in all branches of the work as it should.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

The situation in South Dakota differs very little from that of North Dakota, except that in South Dakota the immigration is larger.

Dr. Carson reporting for that synod says, "The opening of a large Indian Reservation to homesteaders, and that to be followed by a larger one some time during this calendar year, will induce many settlers to locate upon these reservations, the larger part of which is in the Presbyteries of Central Dakota and Black Hills."

Continuing his report, Dr. Carson also says, "There are some new communities in Aberdeen Presbytery of a more than usual stable character, that need the attention and care of our Church."

Further he says, "Among our churches, while probably as many have engaged in special evangelistic work, more has been accomplished in a larger way by union meetings conducted by independent evangelists."

Most of our home mission churches have advanced toward self-support and many have also advanced in benevolent contributions. "The synod needs to-day a score at least of suitable ministers."

It is evident that, concerning the problem of the lack of means and men to supply the vacant fields, to advance into new territory and to occupy and develop strategic points, the pastor-evangelist affords the only solution.

Dr. Carson further reports that during the year eight churches were organized, four churches attained self-support, twenty churches asked less than the previous year, five new church buildings were erected, and five new manses were built. The net increase in churches is very little but there has been a decided increase in the number of communicants.

The Presbyterian Church has been somewhat weakened in South Dakota by the loss of seven churches with about three hundred communicants who have gone out to form a German synod. They were faithful and conscientious contributors to our beneficent work and will be very greatly missed. Four Bohemian churches also are joining in a move for a presbytery of their own.

This synod has three pastor-evangelists whose work during the past winter has been unusually trying on account of stormy weather and deep snows. A unique field is that of the Dakota (Indian) Presbytery in charge of the Rev. John P. Williamson, D. D., who has long led these people and to whom more detailed reference has been made in this report under the Indian Department.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN DISTRICT.

For this section the Rev. Robert M. Donaldson, D. D., presents the following statement:

Fifty years ago the advance guard of our Church pitched its tents in the Rockies. The years are packed with enterprise, fidelity and fruitfulness. From this center the work soon spread over the territory now comprising this district, covering almost the entire area of seven mountain states.

The year just closing bears the marks of progress. Four new presbyteries were formed, and the preliminary steps taken toward a new synod. These divisions are in no case the result of strife, but are in the interest of economy and efficiency. For many years distance and expense have been prohibitive for the majority of the workers.

Aside from pastors and missionaries, our twenty-one presbyteries are served by three synodical missionaries and seven pastor-evangelists. Inadequate as this force is, it must now be reduced. Many new churches and manses were built this year. New organizations were effected at strategic points, where no other Protestant body is at work. Comity, from our point of view, has become a law which we dare not transgress. Not all denominations take so high ground, but the sentiment grows, and eventually must prevail. We have secured larger local support, and increased offerings to the Board. Many churches and presbyteries have made heroic progress towards self-support. New fields are open. New machinery is installed. A new spirit of service prevails. Never before has there been such a prospect for success in the mountain region. Faith, hope and experience command us to go forward with God. Retrenchment actually impoverishes the present and imperils the future.

SYNOD OF COLORADO.

Half a century of work in Colorado has witnessed many triumphs of the gospel. Noble men and women have labored, and the Church of to-day is entering into their labors. With perplexing problems ever present the work has gone steadily forward. The shifting population of mining regions opened great fields for service, but left little in the way of permanent results. The camp problem abides while the people move on. The Mexican problem has been present from the first. From year to year there is little evidence of achievement; but there are individuals and communities where the triumph of the gospel is strikingly illustrated.

Immigration presses itself upon the attention of the Church. Its claims must be considered seriously. It is estimated that Colorado alone has two hundred thousand foreign population,—more than three times as many as all her Protestant church members. The Woman's Synodical Society determined to enter this open door, and maintains a helpful mission among the Italians of Denver. But the Church itself cannot neglect this responsibility without peril.

Several missionary institutes have been held in churches and presbyteries, where the financial and spiritual interests of the Kingdom were considered, and where the personal obligations of the Christian were frankly discussed. Financial losses due to a killing frost and a dry season hindered several fields from attaining self-support. Heretofore there has been but one presbytery in Wyoming. Workers residing in the eastern and northern part of the state, in order to attend the meeting of their own presbytery, were dependent upon railroad lines that took them through portions of Montana, South Dakota, Nebraska and Colorado en route. It was neither economical nor reasonable. The new Presbytery of Sheridan was formed by the last synod, and is entrusted with the responsibility of developing that new field.

SYNOD OF MONTANA.

More miles of railroad were built in Montana in 1908 than in any other state. The fact furnishes material evidence of the far-reaching plans of commerce, as well as of the imperative obligation of the Church. In the main these lines open regions formerly inaccessible. As a consequence the state is filling rapidly with a desirable and prosperous constituency. It is the Church's opportunity. Two pastor-evangelists have rendered faithful and fruitful service, for which the people have given generous support. New towns have sprung up as if by magic. In some of the best of these, ours is the only organized Church. Reservations opening to settlement, and the completion of irrigation systems, together with the development of dry farming and orchard tracts insure a continued growth, and an increasing obligation.

Montana has always moved along conservative lines. The members of the churches give generous local support, and the presbyteries conform to the conditions of missionary aid more closely than is usual in dependent regions. Every church in the synod becomes self-supporting before its membership reaches one hundred.

SYNOD OF NEW MEXICO.

A large part of the Mexican and Indian work of our Church is within the bounds of this synod. Dealing with both these people we are going up against the dwarfing and pauperizing influences of centuries of Catholicism. Their missions are hoary with age, but the lives and conditions of the people are unimproved. It has recently been said of the Indians that they are loyal to two creeds. Holding fast to their heathen rites and ceremonies, they at the same time give allegiance to the spectacular element in Catholicism which makes its appeal to the barbarian. That the difference is apparent to the Indians themselves is shown by the remark of a chief who visited one of our missions. He said, "I must go back and tell my people what I have seen among the Pimas. They have a peaceful and quiet look that my people do not have. It must be their religion." The great need of this work is trained evangelists who can meet the awakening tribes, and lead them to accept Jesus Christ.

The American leaders in this synod are aggressive and painstaking. They are careful students of conditions, and are trying to make theory and practice square with the demands of the times. The Church in this region is the modern Samaritan. The world's invalids are laid at their door, that they may receive the inspiration and recreation of the dry climate. It imposes an additional burden on our workers, drawing on their finances as well as their sympathies, while it adds nothing to their support and growth. They have sought relief by establishing a Sanatorium at Albuquerque, which should be generously endowed by the wealthy constituency of our Church.

SYNOD OF UTAH.

Prior to 1894 the Synod of Utah included Montana in addition to its present area consisting of Utah and southern Idaho. Rapid development of new fields in Idaho demands closer oversight. At the last meeting of the synod, a new presbytery was formed in Idaho, with Twin Falls as its center. The old Presbytery of Utah was divided into three presbyteries, namely: Ogden, Salt Lake and Southern Utah. An overture to the Assembly was unanimously supported, asking for the erection of two synods, Utah and Idaho.

The great problem of Utah is still unsolved, but the morning light seems breaking upon it. Mormonism is sin—no more, no less. The Mormon needs Christ more than he needs criticism. Those who have been saved were saved by the power of Christ, not by the power of argument, nor by a revelation of the hideous doctrines of the Mormon Church. There is no other name by which they may be saved. More than ever, the Presbyterian Church must give itself to the preaching of the gospel of Christ. If the gospel is "the power of God unto salvation," it must be the burden of our story in Utah. Among our workers the conviction is growing that the Lord's money could be put to no better use than to send one of our sanest and strongest gospel preachers through Utah, to bring to its people the plain and simple story of the love of God, and His saving power revealed in His divine Son. The most encouraging work done in many years was the summer work, with tent and gospel singer. It reached many who will not enter a church. Similar work is projected for the coming summer. There should be not less than two companies at work in southern Utah.

Great changes have been wrought in public and private life in Utah. Potent forces have been working quietly, as a leaven, to transform the domestic and social life of the state. Temperance has developed an unexpected strength, as opposed to the invested interests of the Mormon organization. Presbyterianism, with its allied forces of Church and school, has demonstrated both fidelity and power. But this very demonstration requires that we modernize and equip our schools, and that we wage an aggressive spiritual campaign, from the vantage points already gained.

PACIFIC COAST DISTRICT.

For this section the Rev. William S. Holt, D. D., presents the following statement:

In Los Angeles Presbytery the movement toward self-support has been consummated and that presbytery is shouldering its own work. It is also planning larger things for the work of home missions within its bounds.

Riverside Presbytery has been practically self-supporting for two years, for without any vote on the matter last year it sent the Board more money than it drew for all its mission work and this year at the fall meeting, by unanimous vote, determined to go on with the same effort.

San José Presbytery, by unanimous vote at its fall meeting, decided that it too would become practically self-supporting by sending to the Board of Home Missions at least as much money as is drawn from the treasury for home mission work.

In Oakland Presbytery the home mission committee recommended the treasurer to send the Board twenty-five hundred dollars which was three hundred dollars more than the amount appropriated to it for the current year.

These movements show the progress of the churches toward accepting their own responsibility and the movement will spread until the synod shall be actually a self-supporting synod.

The Presbytery of San Francisco is having a new and much needed forward movement; it began a little more than a year ago when the home mission committee was quick to see the need of opening a new work because of the new conditions following the earthquake. Many people who had been living within the district destroyed by the earthquake and fire were forced to seek new homes. The movement naturally had been toward the suburbs and there sprang up within the limits of the city extensive suburbs with thousands of people, in which there were no Protestant churches. Two of these suburbs were occupied, church buildings erected and one church organized in 1907.

Then the pastor-evangelist, who had led in this work, the Rev. Lynn T. White, was invited to the pastorate of the self-supporting church at San Rafael in Benicia Presbytery, and accepted it leaving his charge to the Rev. G. A. Blair, of Portland, Oregon, who had been elected to fill the vacancy. Under his work four new churches have been organized, one new church building erected and another one planned which is in process of completion. One was in what is called the San Bruno district. The work was begun as an effort to reach the Jews but, not succeeding, it was taken hold of by the home mission committee and a church organization formed under the name "University Mound". It has a pastor and is prospering. The other new movements are Richmond, where a new building was dedicated this fall and a pastor has been secured; Glenside, where there is being erected a building, still under the care of the pastor-evangelist; and the St. James church, the foundation for which was begun by Mr. White and the organization completed under Mr. Blair, and for which a pastor has been secured.

In this forward movement the home mission committee has had the backing of the Board of Home Missions. It is indicative of the new opportunities that are opening in that great city and of the desire to make use of them as rapidly as possible for the progress of the Kingdom of God. The work of the last year and a half augurs well for the future of our Church in San Francisco.

Nevada Presbytery, which includes the whole State of Nevada and a generous slice of eastern California, is the youngest presbytery of the synod. It is but a year old and a very attractive field for those not afraid of hard work. We have fifteen organized churches in the presbytery, one of which, Bishop, is in the State of California. Of the others, Carson City, Goldfield and Tonapah are self-supporting while all the rest are dependent upon the Board of Home Missions; but Elko, after thirty-eight years, has reached the point where it is not willing to receive help longer.

Reno is an interesting center. It is the capital of the state, has twenty thousand people, is surrounded by a splendid agricultural district within the limits of irrigated lands and has a large stock-raising region also tributary to it. It is the seat of the State University and naturally gathers much of the culture of that great state. The mining camps have attracted thousands of men, among whom are some of the brightest in the United States, college bred, who have been anxious to "try their luck" in the West.

Our Church is called upon to advance if we are going to do our part in the work of the state. We have gone back into Virginia City, that old mining camp out of which many millions of dollars have been taken. For years we left it, but another Church was there and the people did not suffer; then that Church withdrew and our people were anxious to have us come back, so we have again taken up work there with considerable promise. So many things have to be brought from a distance, and the demand of the mines is so great that living in Nevada is high. Hence there is a need for larger salaries than in some states in order to meet these expenses and make it possible for a missionary to maintain himself. Through the help of the Sunday-school missionary and the pastor-evangelist who has gone into the new camps to do what he could for them, and our synodical missionary, we have the field well in hand.

Nevada has a great future and that Church is acting wisely which uses the present for laying strong foundations on which the future shall be built.

SYNOD OF OREGON.

The Presbytery of Portland has consummated its purpose to reach self-support and, as the originator of the plan on the Pacific Coast, is maintaining its position. Under a strong home mission committee, all parts of the presbytery are carefully organized and with the aid of the Sunday-school missionary, who is also pastor-evangelist, close watch is kept over the outlying districts. This presbytery has given more for home missions this past year than ever before in its history.

In southern and eastern Oregon there are forward movements of great interest.

The Government has completed its irrigation plan in Umatilla County whereby eighteen thousand acres of government land have been opened to settlers. The unit here is forty acres and the requirements are that a family must settle upon and use the land, paying to the Government in ten annual instalments the entire amount expended in the irrigation scheme, thus giving a perpetual water right to the owner of the soil. It can be readily seen that there will be hundreds of families on this eighteen-thousand acre tract in a very short time. At present there is but one church on the tract, while we have a small plant adjacent to it which we hope to extend.

The Pendleton Presbytery has also reached further down toward the south and occupied newer territory, organizing two new churches. It has also made its first attempt in the Hood River district at the extreme western end of the presbytery and has planted a flourishing church in the wondrous fruit region of the Hood River valley. In this presbytery there remains yet very much land to be possessed. The Indian work here is worthy of special note.

The Grande Ronde Presbytery, for the first time in several years, has every field within its bounds well manned. The missionaries are an earnest, devoted set of men and are taking hold of their work with fine spirit and it is moving forward satisfactorily.

In the western section of Southern Oregon Presbytery there is developing rapidly in Klamath County a scheme for irrigation that will open thousands of acres of land for cultivation. A healthy climate, good soil and bounteous water supply should fill this district with good American settlers who will make homes in this splendid land of promise. We have three churches, one at Klamath Falls which has become self-supporting; the other two, fifteen and twenty-five miles respectively distant to the southeast. Lake County, in the same presbytery, is beginning to attract attention. A great portion of this county belongs to a company which has just been putting it on the market in tracts of from ten to one hundred and sixty acres, and with each tract is given a city lot. This has been advertised in the East and men are turning their attention that way to make homes in a region which has been left alone too long.

SYNOD OF WASHINGTON

There is a new movement throughout this entire state. The Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad is building through the state to Puget Sound, the North Bank Railroad into Portland. Along the North Bank River from Pasco and along these two lines, settlements are now rapidly springing up, with great need for church work. A visit to one of them not long ago showed a center surrounded by vast resources, to which a thousand people are tributary and in which last year, as vouched for by a resident, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars paid the drink bill. There were seventeen saloons in the town and no church of any sort at work. An occasional visit by a minister has been given, but nothing permanent has yet been done.

In Spokane Presbytery, the new settlements along the Columbia River and the rapid growth of the city of Spokane are making large demands upon the Board. With its help new churches are being organized in Spokane which will speedily come to self-support. For our work throughout the eastern part of the state, Spokane is strategically located. What can sometimes be done is illustrated by one of its churches organized through the help of the Board, the entire salary of whose missionary was paid by the Board the first year. After four years of hard work by the pastor, by unanimous vote, the church passed to self-support, and the same year more than doubled the offering to the Board of Home Missions, relieving the Board of a grant of three hundred dollars, advanced the pastor's salary two hundred dollars, provided three hundred dollars for music, and then took action this year looking toward raising four hundred dollars for home missions. That is a five-year history of a home mission plant in that great city.

Wenatchee Presbytery, also in the eastern Washington country, is making rapid development. Irrigation schemes, fertile soil, land well adapted to fruit growing and easy access to railroads are inducing rapid settlement. Our Church is seizing its opportunity and pushing its work as rapidly as possible. Central Washington Presbytery, which includes Yakima Valley and is now crossed by two railroads, affords new field for work. The newly organized work along the Columbia River is large and increasing and the presbytery in this territory has its hands full with the work that lies before it. The other portions of the state are making progress and are eager to meet the full measure of their responsibility.

Washington has received a large influx of population. It is estimated now to number more than a million people and we need to be alert for the coming multitudes.

In general, the whole outlook in the Pacific Coast district is encouraging. There is a spirit of independence and of progress and we who are in the service face the future with eager anticipation.

The resumé of the past year in the Departments of Church and Labor, and of Immigration, is outlined as follows by the Rev. Charles Stelzle, their superintendent:

DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH AND LABOR.

The department having long since passed its experimental stage, it has settled down to a systematized and organized movement. For three or four years certain lines of effort have been pushed with considerable vigor. Among these are noon-day shop meeting campaigns in the larger cities; workingmen's mass meetings in theaters and halls on every Sunday afternoon during the winter; a labor press bureau through which the department speaks every week to ten million working-people through a syndicate of three hundred and fifty labor papers; the exchange of fraternal delegates between central labor unions and ministers' associations; labor conferences in which employer and employee are gotten together for the purpose of discussing upon a Christian basis the industrial problem; the giving of series of lectures in theological seminaries, colleges and universities on the peculiar problems in which the department is interested, and the establishment of a clearing-house and a statistical bureau through which city mission work is being reduced to a science.

The correspondence course in applied Christianity has added a special course of study for town and country ministers with a view to meeting the newer conditions which the changes in industrial life and the coming of the immigrant have brought. The observance of Labor Sunday is becoming of increasing importance both to the Church and to Labor.

The superintendent of the department recently spent five weeks in leading European countries studying social and religious conditions among working-people and learning how the more aggressive Churches abroad are meeting these problems. At their own request he met with special committees, appointed by the General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church in Scotland, England and Ireland to establish departments similar to the one inaugurated in our own Church, and told them of what is being done in America through our Department of Church and Labor.

The Rev. Warren H. Wilson, Ph. D., has been appointed assistant superintendent of the department. Already he has demonstrated his capacity for the work to which he has been called. In the many new features which are to be developed during the coming year, he will have an important part.

IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT.

The immigration problem as it confronts the Church is of such vast importance that the department felt justified, during the first year of its existence, in spending much time in a very thorough study of the situation. Our survey of the field was comprehensive enough to permit us to set up a program which, we believe, will permit us to render an important service both to the Church and to the immigrant.

As New York City presents so great an opportunity, and as New York Presbytery has entered into the closest relationship with the Board with regard to the work on Manhattan Island (the superintendent of the department being also the superintendent of the presbytery's work among foreigners) the department made a careful study of the religious and sociological conditions among the foreigners on Manhattan Island. This study was so elaborate and comprehensive that it is conceded we have the most up-to-date facts obtainable. Our charts and statistics have been utilized by the New York State Commission for the Study of the Immigrant Problem, by the Russell Sage Foundation Fund, by the Young Women's Christian Association workers, by the workers connected with the Charity Organization Society of New York, and by a number of university men who have come to us for material in connection with the work of obtaining their degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Our office is prepared to make a similar study for any city in the country and will then outline a plan and a policy with reference to future work among immigrants as it has done for the Presbytery of New York. A number of ministers and churches have requested the Department of Immigration to investigate their fields, the result of which investigation has determined the character of the work in their communities.

Four important conferences were held during the year, an entire day being given to work among each of the following nationalities: Hungarian, Italian, Ruthenian and Jewish. Experts in work among these peoples were invited to give the department the benefit of their experience, and they in turn received suggestions for their respective fields.

Our work among the Ruthenians has been steadily pushed forward. A number of days were spent with the workers among this interesting nationality and, after carefully considering the various aspects of the situation, it was determined to establish a Ruthenian Presbyterian Church. "The Brief Statement of the Westminster Confession of Faith" was unanimously accepted and committees are now translating into Ruthenian the Brief Statement, the Shorter Catechism and the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. A weekly paper is also being published by the Ruthenians. The Rev. John Bodrug, who has been appointed General Missionary among the Ruthenians in the United States of America, has visited points throughout the country, assisting in the organization of a number of important enterprises. These people are ready for a movement which will be in greater harmony with their newly acquired American spirit and patriotism than is the Church of the fatherland. The opportunity is presented to us to give them such a Church.

The last General Assembly commissioned the Board of Home Missions to inaugurate a national work for the evangelization of the Jews. Because of peculiar difficulties it was felt that, before the Board should attempt to outline a program for the Church, it was best to become familiar with the entire problem. This was done through a personal visit to and a study of the most successful Jewish enterprises in Europe and in America, and the Board is now ready to inaugurate the work, which will be conducted by the Rev. Louis Meyer, associate editor of the Missionary Review. Mr. Meyer's experience in such work for a number of years gives good promise of success. During the coming summer he will give his time to presenting the cause of Jewish evangelization to churches and summer conventions and in the fall will inaugurate local work in some favorable center. The support for this must come from people interested in it as a special fund. As soon as the Church is ready to support the Board in this aspect of its work, the Department of Immigration will push with vigor the national movements among the Jews, the Ruthenians, the Hungarians and the Italians, which have already been set up and which simply await the funds for their enlargement. Other nationalities will also be provided for as opportunity offers.

A series of immigration studies with reference to these nationalities are being prepared and a number of leaflets have been translated into foreign languages for general distribution.

The Board spent, during the past year, $25,098.50 for its work in this department, and missionaries have been commissioned to carry on work in many languages and dialects, but in most cases the support given these men has been totally inadequate to meet the situation.

INDIAN DEPARTMENT.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, the Board on November 12th, 1908, constituted the Department of Indian Missions, and elected as superintendent the Rev. Thomas Clinton Moffett who had proved his fitness for this position by his labors during the two preceding years as the Board's special representative in behalf of the Indians. We submit herewith his report of the Indian Department:

The increasing interest manifested in the Indians by the Government, and the new policy which is being carried into effect in dealing with them, is matched by a quickening within the Church and larger efforts for their evangelization and Christian nurture. The Board has adopted a plan for developing Indian work which is more systematic, farsighted, and promising of larger results. The authority given by the Assembly to the Board to make appropriations directly for the Indian missions in the different districts, insures a better proportioned development and greater efficiency. The decision as to the appropriations for the various tribes, and the general conduct of the work, have been undertaken by the Board after consultation with home mission committees, and the location of missionaries has still remained in the hands of the presbyteries.

The Indians number almost an even three hundred thousand according to the statistics of the Government, with an additional thirty-three thousand of the natives of Alaska, including Esquimos. Our missions and schools, not including those among the Alaskans, are located in sixteen states, and minister to forty-three tribal divisions. The significance and wide influence of this work is not indicated by figures, as the Indians are slow to leave their old rites and break with native customs and religious ceremonies, even when the Christian faith is the controlling force in their communities. Yet one hundred and one organized churches and thirty-seven mission stations are manned by sixty-three ordained ministers and fifty-five helpers and interpreters under commission of the Board. In these organized congregations there are reported 6,232 communicants, and 5,600 Sabbath-school members. This represents a constituency estimated at sixteen thousand adherents.

The mission schools for the Indians maintained by the Woman's Board are a most important factor, especially for the training of native workers. Only twelve of these schools are now carried on, with sixty-four teachers and helpers, and having a total enrolment of six hundred and seventy-one pupils. A more advanced course of instruction, with emphasis upon Bible training and Christian doctrine in systematic form, is greatly needed for the equipping of Indian ministers and evangelists to supply the native churches and instruct the untutored tribes to whom the gospel has never been proclaimed.

Five territorial divisions have been designated with a view to greater efficiency of administration and for an advance in the work to broader scope, larger efforts for neglected tribes, and increasing self-dependence in financial support. The conditions and progress in the fields may be considered under five districts.

THE FAR NORTH-WEST.

(Including Northern California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah and Wyoming.)

For the ten thousand scattered Indians of California dwelling north of Tehachapi Pass, most of them landless and homeless, a strong plea has gone up during the past year. Mr. Otto Kelsey has carried on investigations for the Government which have revealed a deplorable state of poverty and neglect among these bands and tribes among the forests and back from the coast. The Rev. George L. Spining, D. D., has earnestly espoused their cause, and both in California and in the eastern states has aroused public sentiment for the relieving of their distress. Missions are very inadequately supplied, and our own Church supports only three women field workers among the Hoopa, Digger and Shasta tribes. Ordained ministers and evangelists are needed in connection with the labors of these devoted Bible readers and field matrons. The newest church is that of Chico, where thirty-one Indians were enrolled as charter members. If religious need and destitution have any appeal to Christians of our country, these neglected thousands of California Indians certainly afford opportunity for missionary effort and evangelization which will not long be unimproved.

The work among the Spokane and Puyallup Indians has been quickened by the coming of the Rev. Edward A. Renich with energy and devotion. A recent graduate of Auburn Theological Seminary, he purposes earnest and permanent labors for these tribes. The Umatilla Reservation under the care of the Rev. James M. Cornelison and of the native pastor, the Rev. Edward J. Connor, exemplifies the progressive and influential type of mission, where the Church is a vital power. The annual convention or encampment is a series of evangelistic services of deepest interest and fruitage. The missionaries from this field attended the Zayante Conference at Mt. Hermon, California, last summer and were leaders in counsel in that important gathering.

The Nez Perces missions have again set the example of enlisting the recruits of the Church as recruiters for the ranks, by sending out evangelists and native helpers to carry the gospel to the tribes. Every summer it has been the custom for a little band of Nez Perce pastors and students to go over the mountains and through the forests for the winning of heathen Indians to Christ. A campaign was planned this year, extending into several states, and the Rev. James Hayes visited a number of new stations, and also attended the Zayante Conference.

The return of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Foster to the Shevuits at Shem, Utah, and the plans of the Woman's Board to place a field matron among the Shoshones at Duck Valley on the borders of Utah and Nevada, are gratifying provisions for these needy people whom the Nez Perce pastors first evangelized.

The Rev. James Dickson labors faithfully at Fort Hall, Idaho, among the Bannocks, and the field so long cared for by Miss A. J. Frost, still unable to return on account of sickness, is in good hands. As Mr. Dickson is a Nez Perce, the interesting instance is here shown of an Indian preaching to people of his own race through an interpreter,—the two tribes speaking entirely different languages.

The work among the Arapahoes of Wyoming has been carried on in connection with the preaching for the white population under the care of the Rev. Charles T. McCampbell, and a missionary for this Indian field is now urgently needed.

THE MIDDLE NORTH-WEST.

(Including the Dakotas, Montana, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Nebraska.)

The annual convention of the representatives of the Congregational and Presbyterian missions is the great event of the year among the Sioux, and the gathering at Standing Rock, South Dakota, in August of this year was the high-water mark of interest. About four thousand Indians were present, and for six days the convention continued its sessions in the Dakota tongue. The Rev. Isaac Renville narrated the early efforts made to introduce Christianity among these Indians west of the Missouri River, when he was forbidden to cross the stream to preach to these heathen who now—as elders and members of the church—gathered in such numbers to testify their faith. Progress is being made each year in the work among the Sioux, and it is anticipated that some larger missionary work for other tribes can soon be undertaken by the Dakota converts and evangelists.

On the Pine Ridge Reservation the work is difficult, and splendid service has been rendered by the missionary and his native helpers. The Young Men's Christian Association has been established and is proving a valuable aid. Small log buildings for the use of the Associations are erected adjoining the house of worship, and the long winter evenings find the young men enjoying Christian companionship and literary and social entertainment under the Association's auspices.

The Sioux missions in Montana have been blessed during the year under the ministry of the Rev. E. J. Lindsey and his native helpers. The allotment of land, the opening of the reservation and the setting apart of the town site of Poplar is of special import as our mission work has to be readjusted to these changed conditions.

The Dakota missions under the general direction of the Rev. John Williamson, D. D., comprise thirty-one organized churches under the care of twenty-one pastors and evangelists, with a communicant membership of 1,565. It is a gratifying fruitage of the labors of many years among these Indians that some five thousand Sioux are now Presbyterian adherents. The Board expends annually between seven and eight thousand dollars upon salaries and the maintenance of buildings in this Dakota work.

The field matrons among the Kickapoo and the Sac Indians have found the work difficult and trying, unaided by ministerial oversight or counsel, and from this direction, as well as from other fields, has been received the request for pastoral care and preaching services.

The Omaha mission, eighty miles north of Omaha, is well equipped since the coming of the Rev. George A. Beith and Mrs. Beith, who, with the assistance of Dr. Susan La Flesche Picotte, and Miss Sarah H. Chapin, the field matron, are placing this work upon a better basis and greater efficiency. Recently the attendance upon services has improved, and some of the Indians who had been led into the strange rites of the "mescal cult" appear to be returning to the true faith, and to their Christian duties.

OKLAHOMA AND KANSAS.

Our missions to the Cherokees and Choctaws were influential and numerous decades ago. The shifting relations of the civilized tribes, the allotting of lands, the alienation of many of the full-bloods and their dissatisfaction with the white man's rule, have created an anomalous condition resulting in injury and loss to missionary effort. The past year has given opportunity to evolve a better plan of administering this work, and there is hope for the recovery of the fields, and a substantial undertaking for the hundred thousand Indians of the state. The Rev. A. B. Johnson has been reinstated among his beloved Choctaws, and with his colaborers is bringing better conditions. A number of congregations which were under the Cumberland General Assembly are suffering for lack of oversight and financial aid. It is hoped that with interest and care all may be included in the reunited Church.

The Cherokee work is dependent upon the labors of the teachers under the Woman's Board, at Dwight, Elm Springs, and Park Hill schools. Over five thousand full-blood Cherokees—Indians for whom we have special responsibility—live apart in communities separate from the Whites, and no Presbyterian preaching is provided for them. A move has been made to supply this need in the securing of Mr. A. S. Thornton as printer and assistant to the Rev. Frederick L. Schaub, superintendent of "Old Dwight". Literature is being prepared for distribution among these Indians, who are familiar with the Cherokee syllabary, and the placing of a missionary among these communities as soon as his salary can be provided has been approved.

The recent uprising and outlawry of the Creek Indians and mixed-bloods, under the leadership of Crazy Snake, has revealed the urgent need of missionary work. Our Creek and Seminole missions include six congregations with a membership of one hundred and forty-three, and Sabbath-school enrolment of one hundred and fifteen. The Snake band has been uncared for by any religious body; and the cost to the Government and the State in the loss of lives and property, with the insecurity of community and domestic peace, might have been saved by Christian missions and counsels to these disappointed and suffering Indians.

The Mary Gregory Memorial School at Anadarko continues its excellent service for pupils of five tribes. The organization of a church in the school has proven advantageous, and the superintendent, the Rev. S. V. Fait, is a true pastor to his congregation.

THE SOUTHWEST.

(Including Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and Southern California.)

The record of the labors of our ten ordained missionaries in this district has been mainly of patient, plodding work, laying foundations and building near the sub-structure, as healthenism and superstition of ages still hold sway. The Navajos, Mohaves, the Lagunas, Camp McDowell Apaches, Papagos, and Southern Utes represent primitive conditions not as yet to any large degree elevated to the standards of Christianity. The slow moving of this apparently inert mass has been more evident in recent years. The power of the Indian Shaman, the respect for the medicine-rites, and the religious superstitions and fears are dissolving, as the purer faith and the freedom of Christian privilege have been proclaimed.

Among the Pimas and Maricopas, Christianity is dominant. The Rev. Charles H. Cook, D. D., and his associates in this service have enjoyed another year of privilege,—not with large ingatherings, but with growth in Christian character and intelligence among the seven congregations to which they minister. The annual camp-meeting is a source of quickening as well as of profit and pleasure.

The Rev. Clarence H. Ellis, M. D., has served congregations speaking three different languages, Pima, Maricopa and Mohave; in his ministry to both the bodies and souls of his parishioners, and in his travels of many miles over the reservations, his labors could scarcely be paralleled for variety.

The Papago mission has been well equipped with the beautiful chapel and manse, to which has now been added the William H. Elliott Home, a memorial gift for the use of the native helper. Decided improvement in the village life of these Indians has been noted since the Rev. and Mrs. Frazier S. Herndon came among them. The membership has been recently increased following special services at which Dr. Cook and Evangelist Dixon preached.

The medical missionary to the Navajos at Ganado, James D. Kennedy, M. D., has been greatly encouraged as the opportunities have opened far beyond expectations among the Indians of a tribe held back by superstitions and the power of the medicine men. Many are seeking his medical and surgical aid, and a hospital appears indispensable. Among these Indians four stations are now established, each with its resident missionary, and the difficult task of acquiring the language is engaging the best efforts of all on the field. The latest addition to this faithful company is the Rev. George T. Needels, who came to Jewett, New Mexico, in February and enters upon his difficult work with earnest purpose.

The attractive stone chapel at the Ganado mission was completed in mid-winter, so that Christmas service could be held in this the first Protestant house of worship erected for this large tribe of twenty-eight thousand Indians. Many friends of the work have contributed generously to this chapel.

At the Mohave mission, a new manse was completed and occupied during the winter, and the Rev. Alfred C. and Mrs. Edgar have been gladdened by encouragements in a work as difficult and trying as any in America. The Mohaves will yet be won from their old ways and degradation, and patience will have its reward in trophies of redemption from this long neglected and most needy tribe of Indians.

The pastor-evangelist, the Rev. F. C. Reid, has rendered important service in relation to Arizona Indian missions, and throughout the two territories of the Southwest the Rev. John R. Gass, D. D., the synodical missionary, has been alert to the interests of the Indian work, and has labored devotedly.

THE EAST.

New York State includes all of the Indians east of the Mississippi River for whom our Church is at work, and among four of the divisions of the Iroquois we have members who are a credit,—earnest, true Christians. One thousand of these Seneca, Cayuga, Onondaga and Tuscarora Indians are Presbyterian adherents. The Rev. Morton F. Trippe, D. D., has completed twenty-eight years of service on these mission fields, and continues his long trips over four reservations. His care of eight congregations and preaching stations evidences his consecration and unflagging interest. During the year the Rev. J. Emory Fisher received the testimony of the affection and esteem in which he is held by the Indians on the Cattaraugus Reservation, in the honors which were accorded him in the celebrating of his seventieth birthday.

Increasing correspondence and multiplying requests for information from friends of the Indian work and from the fields have made heavy demands upon the time spent by the superintendent at the office. Addresses have been given before many congregations, missionary societies and clubs, with a manifest interest in the Indian missions of the Board, and with substantial responses in gifts for special objects. About ten thousand dollars is now provided in special gifts for the salaries of missionaries and native helpers.

Institutes and district conventions of missionaries and friends of the Indian are proving a valuable feature in developing interest in this work, and the department is fostering these helpful gatherings for counsel and inspiration. During the year the Zayante Conference at Mt. Hermon, California; the Southwest Indian Conference at Flagstaff, Arizona; the Dakota Annual Convention at Standing Rock; the Umatilla Conference in Oregon, and the mission encampments among the Pimas in Arizona; the Nez Perces in Idaho, and the Pine Ridge Sioux in South Dakota have been helpful and gratifying in results.

ALASKA.

The work at Saxman is essentially among the natives. It is suitable that the leader should be the Rev. Edward Marsden, himself a native and therefore the better able to understand his people. In the early spring, when the fishing interests take the people from their homes, Mr. Marsden follows them with his launch, especially equipped and given to him for this purpose.

Among the fields visited are Port Stewart, Cape Camaano, Loring, Ketchikan and Kasaan. At the first of these there was in May and June a gathering of five hundred, of chiefly Tsimpshaan, Thlinget and Hydah tribes, together with some white traders and fishermen, some Japanese and a few of other races. Port Stewart is thirty-eight miles to the north of Saxman. Cape Camaano is twenty miles to the northwest of Saxman—also a fishing camp with a population in June of two hundred. Loring is twenty-four miles north of Saxman and has the largest salmon cannery and hatchery in that part of Alaska. From the first of June until the middle of October the population does not fall below three hundred and fifty, including men of six nationalities.

Last spring the Presbytery of Alaska urged upon the Board the placing of a separate missionary at Ketchikan, but it has seemed wise to leave that as an outpost of Mr. Marsden's field.

The work at Kasaan was continued under Mr. Marsden's supervision with the assistance of Mr. Henry Haldane, who was appointed for that service in January, 1908. The special event of the year has been the completing of a house of worship here for the Hydah people. Mr. Marsden spent several days with them and by example and instruction led them in the building of the chapel. They all worked loyally, and the dedication of the completed building the first Sabbath of December, free from indebtedness, was a time of rejoicing. Some equipment which we would count essential in churches in the states was lacking. Nevertheless the house of God had been built and the people had done it themselves. Their leader says: "I like to see these people learn to enjoy themselves in a good way. Before that they used to like dancing and they used to go fishing on Sunday, and they open their stores on Sunday. Now they all quit that."

As an illustration of how the natives appreciate the opportunities that present themselves on any missionary field, note the following division of Mr. Haldane's time: "On Monday my own study time; on Tuesday singing practice; on Wednesday Christian Endeavor prayer-meeting; on Thursday choir practice; on Friday magic lantern service; on Saturday my own study time; on Sunday we have our services."

And so, under the direction of the more experienced and better trained missionaries, one after another the Alaskan Christians are learning to lead their own people into paths of truth and light.

At Klawock the Rev. David Waggoner remains in charge, with the oversight of the three out-stations of Howkan, Klinquan and Shakan. As before, he is assisted at these stations by native helpers,—the Messrs. Samuel G. Davis, John Brown and William Benson. We regret that up to the hour of going to press the report of the year's work has not been received.

At Wrangell the Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Clark have continued their enthusiastic and self-sacrificing work in behalf of both Americans and natives. Although needing a vacation and given leave of absence from the field, their appreciation of the need held them at their post that the winter might not lack in the special exercises that mean there even more than to churches in the states. In connection with the Christmas services as well as in preparation for them the work was very heavy, the missionary having eighty meetings in thirty days. Nevertheless it paid, and this is the result: "The Indians have cast aside all their old customs and declare now that they are fully for the Lord." Yet "they are weak and easily upset. The elders and the deacons need the prayers of God's people."

The result of the special services following the first of January was the organization of the First (native) Church with seven elders and four deacons, "who are taking hold beautifully."

Pastoral work here as elsewhere in Alaska is peculiarly trying because the people scatter to their fishing camps at regular intervals.

In addition to the newly organized Indian church there is the white church, organized years ago. Only a few of the members now live at Wrangell, some of them having gone to different parts of Alaska seeking employment; but there is a Sabbath school with good attendance, and so far as the white population is concerned the hope of the church is in it.

With Wrangell has been associated the work at Petersburg, and Mr. Clark has been assisted by the native helper, William Wells, as last year.

The work at Juneau in both our churches has been prospered although the year has not been without its problems. Mr. Holford began the year in charge of the Northern Light (white) Church but was obliged to be away for some time because of the serious condition of his eyes. During his absence the work was carried by the Rev. L. F. Jones, for many years the pastor of our Indian church in Juneau and whose field includes also the Indian work at Douglas, three miles distant.

Among the natives there was the oft-repeated winter struggle to secure permission to indulge in doubtful forms of amusement, rendered all the more dangerous by the presence of vicious white men. Through the firmness and tactfulness of our missionary, right finally prevailed, the attendance at the services has been good and there is evidence of advance in the Christian life. Although it is said that there are no more difficult fields in all Alaska than Douglas and Juneau, yet results are manifest and the improvement has been noted not merely in church life, but in home life as well. In Juneau peace and concord prevail and at Douglas contention and drunkenness have been much lessened.

At Hoonah the year opened with the Rev. M. J. Caldwell on the field. He was followed by the Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Whipkey, who came from Teller and Council on the western coast of Alaska, where Mr. Whipkey had been laboring under the Board for three years. Because of the custom of the natives to scatter for the fishing in the summer, it was not possible for the work to start in its full strength until autumn.

The past winter witnessed a sad lapse on the part of the native Christians here, as the temptations of old customs was too strong to be resisted and a whole month was spent in an old-time potlatch with its degrading orgies. Yet light has followed darkness and there has been evidence of renewed interest in church services and in Christian living.

The following from one of the missionary's reports shows the practical program by which he and his wife are winning the whole population of the village to the church:

"To-night we expect to entertain in our home about thirty of the old people of the town. Then to-morrow Mrs. Whipkey is expecting some twenty girls. Wednesday we have our prayer-meeting. Thursday evening we will entertain the young men of the town, and Friday evening some of the young married people. All this means work, not only to get ready for them but cleaning up after they are gone. These natives have nothing to do in the winter time and no entertainment of any kind that is helpful. We hope to get them interested in the church by taking an interest in their social life."

To the two white churches—white and native—at Sitka there went last summer the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene E. Bromley, their marriage having occurred after Mr. Bromley's graduation from McCormick Theological Seminary in May. Well recommended for the work, they have taken hold with enthusiasm and are proving helpful missionaries. A practical proof of their ministry is in the fact that the amount locally subscribed for the minister's salary has considerably exceeded the amount suggested. The average attendance has increased in the native church from a little more than one hundred to almost two hundred, showing that the acquaintance resulting from the added months' service is proving a factor of added power. Here as in some other places in Alaska illicit sale of intoxicating liquors has proved a temptation too strong for some of our native members. Here, however, the arm of the law was successfully invoked and the accused saloon keeper was heavily fined. It is hoped the offense will not be repeated.

The Industrial and Training School here under the Woman's Board is doing excellent service and fuller mention is made of it in the Woman's Board report on a later page.

At Haines the Rev. and Mrs. A. F. McLean are upon the field as heretofore, in constant labors for the natives in both church and hospital. Having no launch to follow the natives who go from Haines, as from elsewhere in Alaska, on their summer fishing expeditions, Mr. McLean last summer kept the church open for Sabbath morning and evening services, inviting the people to return to Haines Saturday evening. This suggestion was largely followed, the attendance at Haines being better than Mr. McLean had ever been able to gather at any of the fishing camps in other years. The development of government and private industries in the region of Haines brought last summer to that section a large number of white men. This new element was an incentive to the preaching of the gospel in English at the Sunday evening services, which were well attended.

One of the events of the summer on this field was the installation of a gasoline lighting plant in the church, the congregation meeting the expense out of their evening offerings.

The difficulty of passing on spiritual truths by means of an interpreter, handicapped both by the poverty of the native tongue and his own lack of spiritual experience, is one of the problems which Mr. McLean has to face. In order to be sure that his talks to the people are understood he has allowed them to speak when he has finished preaching, the interpreter telling him what the people say.

Mr. McLean writes:

"The year has been full of encouragement mingled with discouragements, and yet when we know that the forces of evil are strong and the people with whom we labor are weak, we must not lose hope, but labor all the harder. The attendance at all the services this year has been very encouraging and those who have been constant in their Christian life are stronger in their faith than a year ago. Drunkenness and the vicious white men are the worst enemies of our people, and the sooner they learn to realize this fact the sooner they will advance.

"The hospital has been a great blessing the past year and has relieved much suffering and opened many opportunities to the hearts of the people."

The report of a year ago mentioned the water plant secured to Klukwan through the kindness of friends in the states. The year just ended has seen the work finished and there is now no other field in Alaska whose water supply is as good as that at Klukwan. The recent action of the Government in appointing a physician to travel from place to place to examine and prescribe for the sick is much appreciated by our workers among the natives. Mr. Fred R. Falconer who with Mrs. Falconer has been at Klukwan for seven years, writes that the government doctor reached Klukwan unannounced, so that his inspection found the field in its usual condition, while others "having been warned in advance, had had opportunity to clean up." Notwithstanding this, his verdict placed Klukwan second,—if not first,—of all the fields under his care in cleanliness. Much of the credit for this is due to our missionaries and their home.

As is usual each year, Mr. McLean, the Haines pastor, visited Klukwan soon after the holiday season for the purpose of administering the sacraments and of giving counsel and encouragement. On this last visit eight couples were united in Christian marriage,—a fact whose significance appears when it is known that they were surrounded by their grown families,—the ceremony meaning more therefore as a stand for Christian principles than as merely a necessary compliance with civil law.

A new feature here has been in connection with the school, a night school having been held three times a week. The third session is on Friday evening, when the Bible is the text book. Apparently much good is resulting.

A proof of the earnestness of these people is shown in their missionary offering at Christmas time. This consisted of various treasures,—one the costume of a warrior who parted from it as from something which reminded him of the old life, and as wishing literally to obey the injunction, "Forgetting the things which are behind." This and the other curios were given by the Klukwan people to be sold in the interest of work among the Jews, thus making connection between the recent converts in the far Northwest and the people of the ancient chosen race.

Skagway is still a comparatively new town in the country between southern and northern Alaska, where the population is constantly changing, the purpose of the people being the search not for spiritual but for material gain. The Rev. and Mrs. George E. Good are here as last year.

A handicap unappreciated in the states is the extreme cold. At Skagway the recent winter has been even more intense than usual. The water mains were frozen for weeks. Because of this possibility fire insurance cannot be secured. Each man must watch his own property. For a month our missionary rose hourly every night to be sure that our church and manse were safe. The severe cold has of course had some influence upon the services. Nevertheless they were continued, and with encouragement. The most promising phase of the work seems to be the Sabbath school which, until the winter set in, numbered as many attendants as the preaching services. A good superintendent and a competent force of teachers render it the more effective.

Our missionaries minister not only through the church services but in practical, helpful ways through the week. A reading room has been opened especially for the men who pass through Skagway to and from the interior.

Since the opening of the year the Rev. James H. Condit, known to the Board through his labors at Juneau from 1901 to 1904, accepted the earnest call of the Board to take charge of our field centering at Fairbanks. At no small sacrifice he and his family went from the Third Church of Sioux City, Iowa, to a work of no small difficulty. A peculiarly heavy financial deficit embarrassed the enterprise. Under Mr. Condit's leadership, seconded ably by the officers of the church, plans were laid for a systematic campaign which should result finally in the cancelling of all indebtedness. The variety of people to be reached by our missionary's ministrations is suggested in this statement of his own: "The great majority of those who come here are above the average in intelligence, and the rough clothes of a miner often cover a man who is college bred. As before in Alaska, I find that it requires careful preparation to meet the intellectual requirements of my congregation." To those who have not followed the development of interior Alaska, the intelligence and culture found there, and the excellent school facilities—including high school work—would be a surprise. There is a neat church building and comfortable manse, without which the work could not be carried on.

The outlying regions are populous, with nine little towns, each of which has tributary country with adjacent creeks, each with its outfit and crew of men, some with their families. The population of the region is estimated at four thousand. There are saloons in all the principal camps, but not a single missionary of any denomination. Although our Presbyterian Church has heretofore furnished a man for these camps, and although our Board has been using every effort to secure a worker for this most needy field, it has been unsuccessful in its search. In connection with his busy life as a city pastor, Mr. Condit is conducting occasional services at the most accessible camps, but what is such work in the face of such need?

Cordova is one of the newest of Alaska's towns. Begun only last summer and having at one time five thousand men, there was reported a winter population of twelve hundred. It was anticipated that by the close of the present fiscal year the camp would again have not less than five thousand. The development of this section is due largely to the special copper industry and to the railroad built by the Guggenheim-Morgan-Havemeyer syndicate, who have a large plant at Cordova. Last summer they constructed fifty-two miles of standard gauge road with full equipment of rolling stock, and plans are made to push it this summer several hundred miles further. With a fine harbor and fine town site some are prophesying that this new coast city, with railroad connections with the interior, will be hereafter the key to interior Alaska. There was no Protestant work there save that conducted by the Episcopal Church when the Rev. S. Hall Young, D. D., long known for his efforts in Alaskan pioneering, entered the field last fall. At the writing of this report it has not been possible to receive word from him of the winter's work. Meantime the outlook is full of promise.

The year at Barrow has been marked by a change of missionaries, the Rev. Samuel R. Spriggs returning to the states by a perilous journey of many miles in an open boat through a sea filled with threatening ice. He and Mrs. Spriggs and their little son were kept safely through all dangers and have been continuing their ministry in behalf of Alaska since their return by speaking as engagements offered. On their way out they met the Rev. H. R. Marsh, M. D., whose devotion to this solitary field led him and his family to go back. But, although there were so many things that might have been said, the exigencies of the voyage forbade more than simply a passing greeting as Dr. Marsh went in to the isolated station with its long cold winter. The only word received since their arrival bears earnest witness to the excellence of the service of the Spriggs during the four years of Dr. Marsh's absence. Mr. Spriggs did all that was possible in his ministry for the bodies of the natives. The return of an equipped physician, however, carries its special blessing.

Dr. Marsh writes that the medical work is requiring much thought. Five cases of typhoid fever were demanding his best and he was longing for a hospital. Within a month he had at least ten cases that would have been greatly benefitted by hospital care.

The children who can talk English are in a Sabbath school conducted by Mrs. Marsh on Sunday afternoons, when she reads and explains Bible stories to them, as they lack sufficient command of English to prepare lessons. An average of two hundred at church services, and gifts for home missions of furs to the value of two hundred eighty-eight dollars testify to the earnestness and depth of the character of these,—our fellow Christians on the Arctic coast.

PORTO RICO.

The year has been one of steady, wholesome progress. A review of the nine years of our work presents cause for gratitude and rejoicing. Indeed the years of American occupation have borne fruit in many directions. Better roads, better sanitation and better chances for popular education have given a new appearance to the Island. But the most marked of all signs of progress is represented by the cause of evangelical missions. There are, under the care of the various Protestant denominations, perhaps six hundred places where the gospel is preached to eager congregations. There are scores of young Porto Ricans studying for the ministry. There are probably more than ten thousand Protestant Christians who are rejoicing in deliverance from the bondage of an effete Romanism. There is church and school property aggregating in value several hundreds of thousands of dollars, showing the stability of the evangelical work. There are three religious papers giving to the people intelligence of Christian truth, and there are several hospitals and dispensaries relieving the physical suffering for which, under the old regime, little provision had been made.

No wonder the superintendent of one of the educational districts recently in a railway train said loud enough for all to hear, "The Bible is the real hope of Porto Rico,—more than liberty, more than prosperity, more even than education; for there can be no real liberty nor prosperity that are not founded on the teachings of that Book. Hence education to be truly profitable must include the teachings of the Bible. I am superintendent of a large school work; I am establishing a public library in my town, and doing various other things;—but my best work is as superintendent of a Sabbath school."

The year's history on our fields is herewith presented:

The work at San Juan divides naturally into two parts,—the English and the Spanish.

San Juan, as the capital of the Island, has a large American colony, and it was to interest these resident Americans that the English work was begun. In a foreign land it is easy to slip away from the responsibilities of church support, or even of church attendance. Many who at home attend church regularly, realizing—though vaguely perhaps—what church life means for a community, cannot be counted upon for any support in the enervating life of the tropics. For this reason, though the American colony is large, the attendance on the church service is comparatively small; the further fact that, of the many Americans who come to the Island, very few expect to remain long, makes the church unable to approach anything like self-support.

To the Hugh O'Neill Memorial building, already completed for the use of our churches and the mission school under the Woman's Board, there has been added a mirador, giving the teachers equipment far more suitable, and because of which they will be able the better to carry on their work. We now have therefore a fine building on a central street containing in addition to the church itself two school rooms and a teachers' home.

The church is used by both the English church and the Spanish church,—the second Presbyterian Church of San Juan, which hold regular Sunday services besides Sunday school and prayer-meeting and all show an increase in attendance.

After six years of loyal service on this field in charge of both churches the Rev. Robert McLean was compelled for family reasons to accept a call to his former church in Oregon. He left the work in May. He was succeeded in June by the Rev. Edward A. Odell, who was called from Lares and who is pushing the work with earnestness.

An interesting out-station under Mr. Odell's care is Toa Alta, a town about eighteen miles from San Juan. This is regularly ministered to by Tomas V. Martinez, formerly a Roman Catholic priest, but now an earnest preacher of the gospel. Services are conducted in a rented room, which has been made into the semblance of a chapel by the generosity of a member of the congregation. In a land where time does not count for much, a bell to notify the people of the hour of service is almost a necessity. This need has recently been met by Mr. John H. Converse, to whom other Porto Rican missions are indebted for similar equipment.

Our oldest station on the Island is at Santurce, a suburb of San Juan. Our church here has prospered under the ministry of the Rev. Frank S. Gloeckner, who took charge of the work in May, 1908, upon Mr. McLean's return to the states. The membership of the church is about three hundred, and the value of the nine years of gospel teaching is apparent in the Christian life of these people, and especially in the fact that six natives constitute the session. They are a strong body of men and prove their faith by their diligence in personal service. One of them superintends the Sunday school, others the cottage prayer-meetings held in different localities nearly every night in the week. Monthly services are also held in six different wards of the town.

Mr. Gloeckner holds services also at Cangrejo Arriba about five miles away. The congregation there has outgrown the room and the people themselves are endeavoring to raise money enough to build a chapel. The carpenter members of the Santurce congregation have promised to give their services, and the hope is that the chapel will not cost more than two hundred dollars. The people wish to use their chapel also as a day-school, and offer to help pay a teacher. They have very limited resources but they hope to get one of the Porto Rican teachers who will be willing to live with them for the small support they can offer. The incidental expenses of this mission as well as the others are met by the Santurce church.

The Presbyterian Hospital under the Woman's Board still carries on its beneficent work. Its staff includes Miss Jennie Ordway, superintendent; E. Raymond Hildreth, M. D., resident physician; Miss Jane E. Dunaway, M. D., assistant physician; four American nurses and a matron. There are also fifteen Porto Rican student nurses. Our hospital was the first in Porto Rico to establish a training school for native nurses. The value of this part of the service commends itself increasingly to the people of the Island, while the medical and surgical work of the hospital is spoken of in the highest terms not only by Spanish physicians but by the army and navy surgeons stationed in San Juan.

The total number treated during the past year was about nine thousand. Fuller mention of this hospital and the schools will be found in the report of the Woman's Board.

Corozal is a town of about twelve hundred, in the mountains west of San Juan, and our work there is well established. We have a good church building which seats over two hundred. The church is centrally located and an audience can always be summoned by the ringing of the bell. The membership is about one hundred and fifty.

The Rev. H. T. Jason has been pastor here since 1902 and has gathered together a body of earnest Christian people. The service of song is made an important part of the church life, and the missionary feels that many of his members have been drawn into the church by its power. A notable instance is that of a family who lived next door to the church. Before they knew it they found themselves humming the tunes they so frequently heard, and eventually the man and his wife and three children were baptized.

Mr. Jason ministers also to Naranjito, a village of about a thousand inhabitants, reached by a bridle trail of nine miles across the mountains. The church there was organized in 1905 and two of its young men have already enlisted for its gospel ministry. A chapel is much needed.

The Isabela field is situated near the northwest corner of the Island and is one of the most over-crowded districts. A church bell ringing anywhere could be heard by two thousand people, all living within two miles of the church.

From a point near our out-station Jobos, sixty country homes can be counted, and many more are hidden among the hills and palm trees. About eight by eighteen miles in extent, the district contains about twenty-five thousand people, of whom twenty-three thousand live in the country.

The present missionary, the Rev. Edwin A. McDonald, came to this field in 1906, having had previous Spanish work in Mexico. There has been steady growth in the past three years, and in the three churches of Isabela, Quebradillas and Jobos there is now a roll of one hundred and eight accredited members, who have proved their profession by their works. At Isabela we have a fine church building and a good manse. Mr. McDonald and his two native helpers, Luis Sanchez and José Martinez, hold weekly meetings at eleven preaching places. About five hundred people attend these services regularly and half as many more occasionally. The work reaches indirectly many more than those who attend the meetings, for many are visited in their homes, as on other fields, and the missionary always has his saddle bags full of portions of the Scriptures in Spanish and good gospel tracts, which are distributed by the thousand, are eagerly received, and for the most part carefully read.

Aguadilla is a coast town, twenty-three miles north of Mayagüez, of eight thousand, situated in a district whose population numbers at least thirty thousand. In the city we have a good church building seating about four hundred, with a manse adjoining. The Rev. John Wythe Lewis took up the work last fall after the retirement of the Rev. Leland H. Tracy. He holds an English service for the few American residents. The Spanish services are well attended both on Sundays and week-days. With four helpers, Juan B. Soto, Jacinto Roque, Carlos Barrios and Alfredo Archilla, and a Bible reader—Isabel Sales, Mr. Lewis ministers to eleven out-stations. One of the most interesting of these is Malesa Alta, six miles from Aguadilla, where we have an organized church and the people contributed liberally toward the erection of their chapel. Two services a week are held here and one of the sons of this church is studying in our Training School in Mayagüez.

Medical dispensary work is being carried on at Aguadilla and Isabela by Miss Jane Harris, M. D. Though not commissioned by the Board, she is giving her services freely as a medical missionary. The Woman's Board has also here a flourishing school with eight grades and four teachers.

San Sebastian is a little town of fifteen hundred, beautifully situated in the hill country eighteen miles from Aguadilla, but with little opportunity for employment, and the people are very poor. The Rev. E. S. Lheureux went there in 1903, and in 1906 a church was organized which has been steadily growing in numbers and influence. Since the purchase three years ago of the building now used as chapel and manse, there has been a change in the attitude of the people. They realize that the missionary has come to stay and the work appears to them to have more stability.

Mr. Lheureux preaches also at four out-stations,—Goacio, Collaso, Guajataca and Sonador. In the first town a devout woman, Mrs. Trinidad Dominguez, helped by bringing in her neighbors and by offering land on which to build the chapel. Later, she became the teacher in a school conducted in the chapel, and she has now forty pupils receiving instruction in the ordinary studies and in the Word of God.

Lares is seven and a half miles farther up in the hills and has a population of about two thousand. Served by Mr. Odell for about two years it was left vacant by his call to San Juan, since which time the Board has been unable to find a minister for the field. Under the direction of Mr. Lheureux services have been held regularly by José A. Lopez, a native Porto Rican. It is the center of a thickly settled district and, although without a resident missionary pastor, one out-station is reached with weekly services. The Woman's Board has at Lares a school with two American missionary teachers. It is hoped that the promise made to the people may soon be fulfilled and a missionary sent them.

Añasco is a town of three thousand in a fertile sugar country about six miles from Mayagüez. The district has a population of twenty-five thousand and embraces the towns of Añasco and Rincon, and the surrounding country with its ten barrios. Work is carried on in the town and in six of these barrios, a native helper, Antonio Rodriguez, and Mrs. Juana R. de Foucaud, a Bible reader, assisting the pastor. The Rev. Arnold Smith has been faithfully serving this field under the great disadvantage of having no church building and no home. A church and a manse for Añasco are of the greatest importance to the work there.

The event of the year in this field was the erection at Rincon of a chapel seating about two hundred, built partly by the gifts of the Presbyterian Church of Oneida, New York, and equipped with an organ through the kindness of the church at Seneca Falls, New York. About a thousand people are reached monthly through the preaching stations of this field.

The great market day in Añasco, as elsewhere, is Sunday. Hundreds of people gather there to buy and sell. The missionary says, "This market has afforded us a wonderful opportunity to preach the gospel to people who might not otherwise hear it. Tracts are distributed, a short service is held and all are invited to the church."

Mayagüez is the seaport of the western end of the Island, a city of eighteen thousand surrounded by a municipal district of thirty-eight thousand inhabitants. This center of Protestantism continues to be as interesting as it is promising. Our work in the city divides into four departments.

The church work is of course the first, and that around which the others are grouped. In 1900 was organized the first church in Mayagüez, known as the Central Church, and which now reports a membership of more than five hundred. After three years of struggle a fine edifice was erected at a cost of about ten thousand dollars. The Rev. Judson L. Underwood, for a number of years in charge of this church, and also of the Training School, came north last September for a year of rest and study. His work in his absence is carried by the Rev. James A. McAllister who conducts an English service each Wednesday evening in addition to the regular services of the Spanish Church. He is assisted here by two native helpers, Victoriano M. Fernandez and Diego Rodriguez Nater, and also by a Bible reader, Lucia B. de Branizar.

The second church organized—La Marina—is now more than a year old, located by the seashore in an entirely different part of the city. There one of our faithful helpers, the Rev. Pedro Gil conducts regular services with encouraging attendance. A Bible reader, Gregoria Molina, is also employed here. The work still extending, a chapel in the eastern part of the city—called Balboa—became a necessity.

The next important phase of the Mayagüez work is the educational. The two schools of the Woman's Board—the one at La Marina and the Colegio Americano—are both full. The latter has long been an established institution. Only recently have we acquired the large building which now houses both the Colegio Americano and the Training School. Our mission property covers an entire block on the best street of the city, and is conservatively worth fifty thousand dollars. Adjoining the church is the large building on whose second floor the Colegio Americano finds abundant and attractive accommodations; on the first floor the Training School finds convenient quarters for recitation rooms and dormitory. During the year about twenty-five students have been in attendance, and for the most part have done faithful work. Last summer nine were employed on as many different fields where they labored under the supervision of our missionaries. Such vacation opportunity and the many mission stations around the city give the students a chance for that practical training whose lack is often deplored in more ambitious institutions.

The workers in the Training School during the past year have been Arturo Salguero, Evaristo Lugo and Miss Ina F. Scott, in connection with Mr. McAllister, Mr. Harris and Mr. Gil, who teach there in addition to their pastoral and other missionary work.

The third feature of the Mayagüez mission—scarce second in importance and in manifest results—is the medical. Willis W. Creswell, M. D., maintains this ministry to the afflicted bodies and souls that crowd his daily clinics. As many as a hundred a day frequently claim his services, some of them walking many miles to reach this door of hope. Religious exercises mark the beginning of each day's work.

Dr. Creswell is ably seconded by a Porto Rico Christian, Mr. Sandalio Delgado, an expert pharmacist. The dispensary is a part of our large property here and during the year alterations have been made, affording comfortable house accommodations for the physician.

Clinics are also held in Cabo Rojo, eight miles away with a population of thirty-five hundred; in Lajas, fifteen miles away with a population of eighteen hundred; and in Palmarajo, three miles farther. Thus widely extended is this blessed ministry of healing.

The fourth department of this mission is the publishing plant. A small building at the rear of the church holds the equipment. Here La Vos Evangelica, the Spanish paper of the mission, sends out its weekly messages, a light of intelligence and of gospel truth and service, into many a dark home.

That so large a work should be carried on by so few American missionaries and their native helpers is evidence at once of economy of administration, and the over-burdening of those engaged in the extended and exacting service.

The evangelistic work in the district of Mayagüez includes four churches,—one at Homogueros; another at Rosario; another at Maricao, a most interesting field up in the mountains, eighteen miles from the city, and another at Cabo Rojo.

The Rev. Federico Garcia Davila took charge of Maricao last September. A church of fourteen members has been organized. The town is in the midst of a rich coffee region and bids fair to become the center of a widespread work. Already services have been opened in several of the large coffee plantations where people gather, eager to hear the new message. With Maricao is grouped Las Marias, another mountain town. Mr. Lheureux of San Sebastian had this station as part of his field, but rivers to be crossed made it difficult of access. Our permanence here is evidenced by the purchase during the year of a small building for a chapel. Here also is a large region, comprising a population of twenty thousand, most of whom are readily reached by the messenger of Christ. The density of population in Porto Rico makes it easy to gather an audience anywhere.

The most important church in this district, outside of the city of Mayagüez, is at Cabo Rojo eight miles away. Mr. McAllister, in addition to his work in the Training School and in the church at Mayagüez, conducts services regularly here in our new church building situated on one of the best streets in the town. Some of the leading citizens are identifying themselves with the church which has over eighty members and has given eight candidates for the ministry. Gonzales Nuin is the native resident helper. The missionary and the helpers in this district reach regularly a large number of out-stations.

Palmajero, reached by Dr. Creswell in his clinics, is a rural region, thickly settled. It is notable for the fact that there is established an Institute of Agriculture and Arts, presided over by a member of our Lajas church, Juan Cancio. Himself a well-to-do farmer, he felt that the youth of Porto Rico should be trained in the most effective methods of agriculture. Purposing to do all in his power to secure this advantage for them, he has succeeded in establishing this Institute which is now aided by the Government. With equal interest in spiritual affairs he has done all in his power to open the way for our work. Last year he himself gave a lot and built for our services a chapel seating about one hundred and fifty.

Twelve miles southeast of Mayagüez is San German, a town of about seven thousand. As a result of the establishing of our equipment there—including the church building seating four hundred and costing four thousand dollars, and manse costing about twenty-five hundred dollars—the church is growing steadily and developing in every way. In the eyes of the people the idea of permanence adds attractiveness and influence. They have a good Sunday school, an enthusiastic Christian Endeavor Society, a boys' club, a catechism service, and three Sunday schools held in different parts of the town.

The Rev. J. Will Harris is pastor of this field and—with his native assistants, Emilio Castillo, José A. Martinez, José Velez Segarra, Celso Calderon, and a Bible reader, Mrs. Josefa Martinez,—conducts services in twenty out-stations throughout an extensive district. The organized churches are at San German, La Pica, Sabana Grande and Lajas.

This review of the Porto Rican field makes manifest the need of more church buildings and chapels and the necessity for steady advance.

CUBA.

Last summer the Congregational Home Missionary Society offered the conduct of its missionary work in the Island of Cuba to this Board. This was done in the conviction that efficiency and economy of administration could thus be secured. The Board after careful deliberation accepted this additional burden in the same conviction.

A few stations formerly supported by both Boards are now to be grouped together, thus economizing men and money. The additional burden will not be large, and the demonstration of the spirit of federation thus revealed will in these days of federation, we are sure, be very pleasant tidings to the Church.

The Rev. J. Milton Greene, D. D., has continued as our superintendent in Cuba. We present from him the following resumé of the past year there:

With one quarter of the population of Cuba contiguous to our twenty-seven centers of preaching, twenty-four Sabbath schools and four day-schools, and having these various fields entirely to ourselves save at the three most populous points, a grand opportunity is presented to our mission. Another feature of advantage is the fact that, with the two exceptions of Sancti Spiritus and Cabaiguan, all our work lies in the three western provinces of the Island, thus promoting facility of communication and reducing traveling expenses to a minimum.

In and immediately adjacent to Havana we have nine preaching stations and Sabbath schools, two organized churches and one day and boarding school. By the recent transfer to us of the work heretofore conducted by the Congregational Home Missionary Society, four organized churches are added to our list, situated respectively in Guanabacoa, Matanzas, San Antonio de los Baños, and Guanajay, also the San Francisco mission in Havana. The total membership of these churches is approximately two hundred and fifty.

This report is being prepared just after the closing of two grand horticultural exhibitions held in Havana and the awarding of prizes for the best specimens of citrous fruits, vegetables, fibrous plants, textures, and so forth, and a most notable feature in these displays has been that nearly all of them are the product of American intelligence and enterprise. The Cubans have expressed themselves as amazed at the variety and quality of these products and have gained a new idea of the wondrous possibilities presented in their native soil and climate.

All this may well suggest to us what is passing also in the moral and spiritual sphere owing to the presence among this people of devoted men and women whose only ideal and aim are to open for them God's long-closed Book and to put them in possession of its priceless benefits for the building of individual character, the purification of domestic life and the establishment of civic righteousness.

It would be gratifying could we report any signs of a growing evangelical spirit on the part of the ancestral Church in Cuba, but thus far we have looked in vain to find it. Their immense wealth, their social prestige, and their ecclesiastical ingenuity are tirelessly employed to offset our influence while they industriously continue to propagate the deadly errors which are the soul of their system. Not a few of the priests preach good ethical discourses, but the effect of these is neutralized by their lives and in their teaching no trace is found of salvation from sin through the blood of Christ and the work of the Holy Spirit.

Strange as it may seem, Romanism in Cuba is a blend of Unitarianism with Mariolatry, and both are fostered by a well nigh frenzied institutional pride and conceit which consider ecclesiastical affiliation as synonymous with and inseparable from a genuine patriotism, so that very many look askance upon one who espouses the evangelical faith as being "off color" politically.

In many places the priests have brightened up their churches, introduced pews, improved the grounds and established Sunday schools with prizes for attendance,—all this as the result of our presence; but in connection with these things they have redoubled their efforts in the establishment of neighborhood day-schools, in admonishing, persuading and threatening the people, using for this purpose deceitful teaching, denial of burial in consecrated ground, social ostracism and excommunication.

Such is our environment so far as a considerable part of the Cuban people are concerned, but we have our Galilee as well as our Judea, and we have our "common people" as well as our Pharisaical chief priests and scribes. So it is that many a Nicodemus, a centurion, a Lydia, and not a few Samaritans are found waiting for the light and eagerly welcoming it.

The past year has been one of social unrest, political excitement, industrial prostration and widespread lawlessness. Intensified desecration of the Sabbath, open gambling, demoralizing public spectacles, cock-fights, and wild, godless pleasure-seeking were never so much in evidence as during this transitional period. But while all this has saddened us and at times tempted us to discouragement, it has furnished a test of the hold which the gospel has upon our people and demonstrated to what extent a God-fearing spirit exists among them. Considering our field as a whole the result has been most gratifying, for while the number of hopeful conversions has been less than in some former years, attendance upon our services has suffered very little if at all, interest in the study of God's Word has steadily grown, and enthusiasm for the extension of the gospel was never more marked.

In Havana the Central Church, with its five out-stations under the care of Dr. Greene, aided by the Rev. Francisco Castro and the Rev. Gregorio F. Martinez, has encountered the bitter opposition of the Romish clergy along the lines indicated above. They have belted our places of worship with schools; they have gone in person or sent sisters of charity from house to house; they have introduced spies into our chapels and branded our workers as the incarnation of all heresy and mischief; but in spite of it all, scores and hundreds of new faces have been seen at our services and especially at our beautiful new church whose architectural impressiveness and homelike atmosphere prove an irresistible charm to many a passer-by. What has been aimed at has been a simple, illustrative, expository and spiritual setting forth of gospel truth to young and old as a guide and help in daily life and in all human relations. And in very many cases our hearts have been gladdened by the fruit of all this as seen in transformed, purified, robust and aggressive Christian character, which abandons false ideas, loose maxims and hurtful, traditional customs in accord with divine teaching.

At Regla the Rev. Antonio Mazzorana has continued his effective work, infusing among the brethren a spirit of genuine mutual helpfulness, developing a practical philanthropy toward the outlying neighborhood, training the young in divine truth and service, and encouraging a spirit of fraternal affection which has given to this church a very marked unity and solidarity and won it the respect and admiration of those without.

Mr. Mazzorana is also in charge of the San Francisco chapel where the preaching services and Sabbath school are being attended by increasing numbers.

At Guanabacoa, five miles east of Havana, we have a very important suburb and a long-established work under the pastoral care of the Rev. H. B. Someillan. This good brother, though Cuban by birth, was educated in the states, is thoroughly imbued with the gospel spirit and is easily the most effective preacher among all our native brethren. He will be of great service to us for evangelistic work among the outlying congregations.

At Bejucal, fifteen miles south of Havana, we have an organized church and a fine field. Services are maintained during the week as we are able by sending to them alternately the Rev. Evaristo P. Collazo of Güira and some brother from Havana, but their great need is a resident pastor.

Going west from Havana a distance of thirty miles we reach Güira de Melena, one of the most prosperous cities of the Island. The work here under Mr. Collazo's care is in a flourishing condition, with a constantly increasing attendance at both the preaching services and Sabbath school. Weekly neighborhood services are also held and an auxiliary Sabbath school in a remote part of the city.

San Cristobal, sixty miles west of Havana, is grouped with Artemisa, Cayajobos and Carlota under the faithful ministry of the Rev. José Lopez, who is second to none of our workers in his faithfulness and efficiency both as an instructive, earnest preacher and an untiring pastor. Marked and continued growth are noticeable on all these fields except Artemisa which seems to be a very center both of blind fanaticism and godless abandon. Here too the great need is of a resident pastor and Sabbath services.

Ten miles north of Güira is the important city of San Antonio de los Baños where the pastor is the Rev. Bernardino Domas. This field has come to us from the Congregational Church and presents great possibilities under wise direction.

The same may be said of Guanajay, twelve miles north of Artemisa and forty miles west of Havana. This city has always been regarded as one of the most fanatical, but the pastor, the Rev. José Fortuny, a converted Esculapian priest, has after four years of faithful labor gathered a church of over a hundred members and won the respect of all who know him. This is another of our new fields.

Continuing west from Guanajay, at a distance of sixty-five miles from Havana, we reach Bahía Honda, which is grouped with Buenaventura three miles distant, under the care of Mr. Jesus Hernandez, a licentiate of our presbytery and a young man of rare ability and consecration. He has but recently begun his work in the face of most bitter opposition from the local priest, but his sterling character and tactful, loving treatment of the people are rapidly winning their confidence and inclining them to listen to his messages of life and salvation. No darker spot, morally considered, exists in Cuba than this region and we ask the special prayers of our friends at home for this good brother.

Returning now to Havana and going southeast we come at a distance of forty miles to Güines which is grouped with San José de las Lajas, ten miles distant, under the care of the Rev. A. Waldo Stevenson, who also holds occasional services at an intermediate point called La Loma. This whole region has been leavened with gospel truth and influence by the untiring labors of the pastor and as a result of the work carried on now for over six years in our day-school under the most efficient direction of Miss Beulah L. Wilson. No one can look into this school of eighty pupils and scan the faces of the half dozen or more young men and women who will graduate at the end of this year, without feeling sure that such schools at all our centers of work are the missing links in our missionary activities and that they, more than any other agency, would enable us to solve the problems that confront us. A great majority of these pupils also attend regularly the Sabbath school and nearly all the larger of them are professed Christians.

Eighteen miles farther toward the southeast brings us to Nueva Paz which, with San Nicolas, about half the distance, is under the care of the Rev. Hubert G. Smith, who is most efficiently aided at the second point by an elder, Mr. Ricardo Viamontes, a licentiate of the presbytery. At both these points the work has greatly flourished during the past year and this in spite of six months' absence on the part of the pastor and his family. So firmly established and so well trained were the brethren there and so faithful and efficient were the officers of the church that the pastor returned to find the audiences larger than when he left. Ground has been secured for a church building, and when this report is printed the edifice will be nearing completion,—the third in our mission. By a special arrangement the Board will cooperate with the brethren for its construction, paying only what otherwise it would cost them for five years to rent a building. Under Miss Mary M. Coy a splendid day school of sixty pupils is being carried on with such help as Mr. Smith can give.

Next to Havana our largest center of operations is Matanzas, a city of fifty thousand inhabitants, sixty miles east of the capital. Here we have a church of about eighty members in a ward of the city which numbers some four thousand. Three other missions are represented but are so located in different districts of the city that there is no competition. In spite of fierce and ceaseless opposition on the part of a fanatical priesthood the Rev. E. P. Herrick, the pastor, has for seven years labored kindly and tactfully until now, with God's blessing, we have a stable and prosperous church which is recognized as one of the permanent and most influential institutions for the moral and spiritual uplifting of the masses. A flourishing Sabbath school and Christian Endeavor Society are doing a great work for the young. The two pressing needs are a day-school and a church building.

Our two remaining centers are Sancti Spiritus and Cabaiguan, where the Rev. Herbert S. Harris is pastor, being aided at the second point by Elder Gomez, who is also a licentiate of the presbytery. After seven years of efficient organization and pastoral oversight we have here at the center the largest church in our presbytery, situated in a field which comprises twenty-five thousand inhabitants and where no other mission is represented. The work is carried on from the main chapel, centrally located, but with very insufficient accommodations for the services, and includes three other points at which weekly preaching services and Sabbath schools are held. Two of these are in Sancti Spiritus itself and the third at Cabaiguan, fifteen miles distant, where we have a separate church organization of about forty members. In all, six preaching services are held weekly and four Sabbath schools.

Another most important feature is the day-school with its seventy pupils who daily receive wholesome Christian instruction and many of whom have declared their faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour. At least seven of the young men have dedicated their lives to active Christian work, of whom six are now pursuing their preparatory studies in the United States or Mexico. At nearly every communion service new members and candidates are received.

In closing this report we cannot sufficiently express our appreciation of the important work being done by our Woman's Board in the three day-schools above referred to, and in the fourth established in Havana during the last year and most successfully conducted by Miss Martha Bell Hunter, aided by her sister, Miss Annie Hunter. Here are being educated some forty girls, many of whom are from the best Cuban families, and the foundations have been laid for what should do in Cuba that which our Mayagüez school is doing in Porto Rico, and our three boarding-schools in Mexico, where in twenty-five years over twelve hundred girls have been thoroughly trained intellectually and imbued with the spirit of the gospel. The pivotal work in these Romish countries is educational.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

It is the purpose of this department to furnish literature and methods to stimulate and educate our churches to larger giving. Its work has been steadily growing as the increase in literature published and the financial results prove.

The total receipts from the sales of literature from April, 1908, to April, 1909, are $8,685.85. This sum represents $2,104.09 received from the sales of publications of the Board of Home Missions, $559.91 from the rentals of slides, and $6,021.85 from the sales of literature of the Woman's Board of Home Missions. The total increase in the receipts of the joint department is $1,547.83.

To set forth the needs of the work our Board has issued 1,758,250 copies of leaflets containing 6,749,975 pages, which have been sent out together with 358,455 collection envelopes. The publications issued and paid for jointly by our two Boards number 83,425 copies, containing 2,386,000 pages. These figures include the Prayer Calendar for 1909 of which there have been sold twenty-five hundred copies more than of any previous issue.

The plan for supplying leaflets on the monthly topics for general distribution in churches, which has been continued for several years, is increasingly and profitably useful. Especially appointed representatives in 1,353 churches have been monthly receiving and distributing seventy-eight thousand copies of leaflets among their members during the past year. A careful inquiry into the use of these has helped us to retain on our lists only the churches in which they are appreciated.

The Boards' Committee on the Distribution of Literature has transferred to our office about 2,181 orders for literature and collection envelopes which have been sent to churches at the time for the taking of annual offerings. In addition to these we have received more special requests for helps on different phases of the home mission enterprise.

In connection with our department we have a circulating library from which many volumes have been loaned during the year to aid in the development of topics for which there is a lack of literature in leaflet form.

Our stereopticon lecture department also shows a gratifying increase in service, the slides having been exhibited about four hundred and thirty times. The favorable comments voluntarily offered by those using the slides encourage us to make larger plans for their future. One clergyman writes, "I am returning the slides on 'Making Americans'. The lecture was largely attended, and all manifested a great interest in it and the facts presented. The offering received amounted to over one hundred and twenty-five dollars, which greatly pleased us all." Another assures us, "The value of these lantern exhibitions for proving the worth of missions and their achievements cannot be measured. Several spoke of this after the lecture last evening."

Because of the expense of transportation small congregations in rural sections distant from headquarters have been unable to use the slides; in order to accommodate these it is our plan to place lectures in the offices of all of our field secretaries, and in addition to urge slide itineraries according to a scheme now ready. It is hoped these methods will facilitate the usefulness of the slides and increase financial returns from them.

It is necessary these days for our Mission Boards to cope with the interesting printed matter in attractive type freely distributed on all phases of secular concern. Some of our leading church workers have kindly advised us what sort of home mission literature is acceptable to their members, and it is the desire and aim of this department to supply only readable matter in such quantities as are actually needed. We wish to combine a spirit of generosity with economy that shall give good service to the churches and at the same time guard the pocket-book of the Board.

Every Presbyterian should annually receive information regarding the needs and work of home missions, and our department—which is the only base of supplies—is ready and willing to furnish it.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

Last autumn Mr. Von Ogden Vogt retired from our Young People's Department, and Miss M. Josephine Petrie again became its sole secretary. We herewith present her report of the past year's work, which has been approved by our Board of Home Missions:

The annual statements of the Young People's Department show a constant growth which cannot be tabulated in any pages of statistics, but a department which brings to the treasury over one hundred and seven thousand dollars from Sunday schools and the various organizations of young people must be a busy place every day in the year. Mission bands and young women's missionary societies are auxiliary to the Woman's Board and their offerings, which are a part of the above total, amounted this year to $25,911.27, and are designated for mission school work. The total contributions from all other young people's organizations and from Sunday schools are equally divided between the Board and the Woman's Board.

It is not the province of this department to organize or reorganize societies of young people, but to guide those already organized in their study and giving for the work of home missions. There are constant changes among these organizations which affect our work more or less, according to the methods of leaders.

The work of the department is varied and the details innumerable, as the record suggests; but the relative importance of these details depends upon the view-point and, as last year the Standing Committee of Home Missions referred only to study class work, we note this first.

HOME MISSION STUDY CLASSES.

The announcement leaflet issued in the fall recommended three books for study, "Aliens or Americans?" "The Challenge of the City" and "The Frontier", with "Pioneers" as the junior book. Thanks are due the Rev. Willis L. Gelston for aid in the distribution of these announcements. The department tries to keep in touch with each class throughout the course of six or eight lessons. Helps for leaders, registration blanks and report blanks have been furnished, and we have felt indebted to Dr. Phraner who materially aided our study by revising his "Centennial Review" of the Board. A copy of this booklet was presented to each class studying "The Frontier". This newest topic has proved very popular and we have more than doubled the number of study classes, most of them organized within the past five months.

In reply to the frequent question, "Do you find the study classes add to the contributions for home missions?" we can only reply, "The future will demonstrate." The reports from classes are on file and may be inspected. Recruits for missionary societies have been found in encouraging numbers, and in several cities and towns a mission among the foreign-speaking people has been opened as a result of the study of "Aliens". We quote from one report in regard to offerings: "At our fifth session the class expressed a desire to contribute toward the work of which we had studied, and at the next meeting the sealed envelopes were opened and the sum of thirteen dollars counted." The results of such study can not be computed in dollars and cents, but knowledge of the work should beget a spirit of service, and definite knowledge of the magnitude of home mission problems must develop a desire to give, even to the giving of self. The literature department has furnished young people's societies about five thousand copies of the four text books, and over one thousand copies of "The Call of the Waters"; also forty-four of the five dollar reference libraries.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Although efforts toward securing a more frequent and systematic presentation of home missions in the Sunday schools have been continued, no general success can be reported. The various methods adopted have been given from time to time in "Notes" from this department in THE ASSEMBLY HERALD and HOME MISSION MONTHLY.

In September a general letter signed by the secretaries of the Sunday-school departments of the Home and Foreign Boards was sent to all superintendents. This letter announced the available helps for the presentation of the work of missions, and the special programs which would be issued during the year. In these days of much advertising, attractive and novel programs and coin receptacles are demanded; therefore a vast amount of thought must be given to their preparation, to the announcements sent through the mails and denominational publications, and to the large correspondence which follows. Many Sunday schools take no other offering for home missions and this constituency demands a special program, while a limited number of schools make much of the occasion and add the special offering to their regular gifts for the work. Nevertheless the department questions the wisdom of urging the many special programs upon Sunday-school superintendents, and would recommend that there be some agreement between the Boards in the matter of advertising.

Samples or announcements of the two programs were sent to the ten thousand Sunday-school superintendents, to the chairmen of the home mission committees in the presbyteries, and to many others. As a result, under six hundred orders were received for each. Ninety thousand copies of the program on the work of the Indian Training School, Tucson, Arizona,—for Thanksgiving,—were furnished, and seventy-five thousand for the general work of the Board,—“the Sabbath nearest Washington’s birthday”.

Sunday-school secretaries have been appointed in twelve presbyterial societies whose duty it shall be to keep informed of all printed matter for Sunday schools and especially to urge the observance of the two Sabbaths recommended by General Assembly for the special offerings for home missions. In reporting her year’s efforts one of the secretaries writes: “We have prayed every inch of this advance.” The cooperation of these secretaries and of the field secretaries from the West and South has been of special value along this line. A decided advance is evident in the number of missionary committees appointed, and in the number of letters from the chairmen of these committees soliciting special information and definite objects for their gifts.

This is the department of our church life where sowing seeds of systematic and proportionate giving and sending should bear the richest fruit in future years.

The first report of the present secretary of this department (1898-99) gave from Sunday schools $36,146.46. The total this year is $47,845.30.

OTHER PROGRAMS.

The programs for Christian Endeavor Societies have been more popular than ever, and the mailing list of regular subscribers is always increasing. Editions of from seven to ten thousand have been furnished on the following topics: “Alaska for Christ”, “The Home Mission Schoolhouse and What it Does”, “The Cry of the City”, “A Million a Year: Our Immigrants”, “Present Day Pioneers”; also a list of good home mission books for the March meeting. It is interesting to note that leaders of meetings are depending less on the full helps from us, asking rather for suggestions which they may develop.

MORE PRINTED MATTER.

Our Field Letters hold a place of their own, and the mailing lists include addresses of secretaries of other denominational Boards who have asked for the full file of each edition of letters and programs. All contributors are sent copies of the letter reporting the work in the field for which their offering is designated, many copies are sent for distribution by the presbyterial secretaries, and many used by leaders of young people's societies and Sunday schools for their current mission news. These printed letters to the number of thirty thousand were furnished this year from the Alaskan, Indian, New Mexican, Mormon, Mountain and Porto Rican fields; and, in addition, over five thousand duplicated letters from missionaries supported by local or small groups of societies. Thousands of letters of a personal character have been duplicated and sent out to secretaries, study class leaders, and others.

CONFERENCES AND RALLIES.

Gatherings of the young people during July and August are growing in number, and many "institutes" are held in the large cities during the winter months. These conferences are for the purpose of developing missionary leaders in young people's societies and Sunday schools. Thousands of the announcements issued by Mr. Gelston for the Presbyterian conferences and by the Young People's Missionary Movement for the general conferences in the East, West, and South, have been sent by this department to our constituency, and also many personal invitations. Study class teachers have been supplied, speakers furnished and attendance in person whenever possible. Literature has also been furnished in quantity and for exhibition. All Presbyterian delegates have heard from this department several times during the year. In short, all known opportunities for correspondence or personal contact with our Presbyterian young people have been used.

FRATERNAL RELATIONS.

The spirit of cooperation between this department, the Educational and Sunday-school departments of the Foreign Board, and the Young People's Department in the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work has always been most cordial. Announcements of various kinds have been sent jointly in the effort to avoid confusion in the minds of our young people, while definitely instructing them as to where they should apply for aid in their missionary work. Our relations with the Young People's Missionary Movement have also been of mutual benefit, and the correspondence with young people's secretaries of other denominational Boards has increased considerably.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

For the last six months a large falling off in receipts from Sunday schools and young people's societies has seemed inevitable, due to three causes. The first two mean no diminution in home mission interest and gifts, and the "objects" are those recommended by the Board. (1) Synodical self-support has, in a number of synods, called for the contributions we have heretofore reported.

(2) The growing work among foreign-speaking people, for which funds are administered locally. We recognize the local needs, but as the Board has assumed heavy responsibilities for this work, and commissions workers in response to requests from presbyteries as fast as the money is provided and the worker can be found, we long for the cooperation of our young people which has always been so dependable. Much of the old work must be continued, and a sudden withdrawal or change of pledges after the appropriations of the year have been made, seriously cripples the work, and this could not be anticipated at the beginning of the year.

(3) The third cause is a grave one, and for this we need the cooperation of pastors as far as it comes within our sphere. In several of the presbyteries we have been notified that pledges made by the junior and senior Christian Endeavor Societies for the support of Christian Endeavor district, state and foreign field secretaries have been to the limit of their ability to give. The officers of the United Society of Christian Endeavor have always urged loyalty to the denominational work and would not encourage the system. The reports for this year warrant another reference to these facts. The offerings from several societies have been sent to the Boards of other denominations at the direction of "new pastors". We would again sound a loud call for loyalty first to the denominational obligations. It can not be expected that our financial report will increase if the interest of the young people is diverted from the regular work of the Boards.

Returning to the report of 1898-99 we find $45 106.47 the contributions from all young people's organizations. The record for this year stands $58,568.65.

SPECIAL OBJECTS.

The average contribution from each society is small—probably about five dollars from the Christian Endeavor and other young people's societies, and a smaller percentage from the children's organizations, and maintaining these pledges for the regular work requires careful nurturing. All theories to the contrary, the most satisfactory method has proved to be the "special object"—a field, station, salary of a missionary, scholarship, or shares in the medical work or general work of a mission school. Through this method a number of young people's societies can be grouped, dividing the amount required into shares sufficient to cover it and proportionate to the membership.

Pledges for the specific work are secured by the presbyterial young people's secretary who reports to this office; then definite information along the line of letters, leaflets, and so forth is furnished regularly from the department to the contributor, except in a few presbyteries where the young people's secretary chooses to distribute the material. About the same number of salaries have been provided this year as last,—thirty-five salaries of missionary pastors and teachers,—and the number of scholarships and shares remains about the same. Scholarship letters are furnished by the Associate Secretary of the Woman's Board to all scholarship holders.

Junior societies have shown a marked advance in enthusiasm and gifts for their "special"—the children's ward of our hospital in Porto Rico—and more intermediates are heard from with gifts for their own missionary. While not increasing numerically, these children's organizations are assuming larger obligations for our work, and their enthusiasm should be contagious.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SECRETARIES.

The faithful service of the new synodical secretaries has strengthened the work of the year. In addition to the representatives from Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi, we have welcomed seven new synodical secretaries and many in the presbyteries, making a total of three hundred. Every presbyterial in Texas has elected a young people's secretary, and a number of others have been added to the list because of the rearrangement or addition of former Cumberland presbyteries. Of the number twenty-two are for juniors, or juniors and bands, and twelve for Sunday schools. The partnership with this consecrated company of young women is invaluable. Through their intimate acquaintance with their constituency and close touch with this office, the secretary can practically feel the pulse of each local organization.

Another chapter of our history is ended, and already the pages are opened for a new record. We again plead for the earnest cooperation of pastors, parents and all Christian workers in this campaign for the loyalty of our Presbyterian young people to the cause of home missions.

Respectfully submitted,

M. JOSEPHINE PETRIE,
Secretary.

WOMAN'S BOARD.

The following report from the Woman's Board has been received and approved:

In presenting the thirtieth annual report of the Woman's Board of Home Missions much must be left unsaid, because much of the effort put forth in gathering funds is volunteer service on the part of the individual workers, too modest to tell of their work, but without which the Board itself would not exist. The same is true of the efforts of individual missionaries whose lives are made up not of the great things done in Christ's name, but of every day living in His name, and who by their ministry to the poor, the deluded, the sin sick, and the ignorant, are building for eternity.

The report, however, naturally divides itself into three parts, namely, the organization, the administration, and the field.

For more than twenty-five years the dominating force in all three of these departments has been our beloved president, Mrs. Darwin R. James. Filled with the spirit of true patriotism, she has led Presbyterian women in their home mission work, with a deep conviction that the specific work assigned these women was vital to the evangelization of America. Her sympathies have been broad, her convictions deep, her outlook far-reaching. She withdrew from active work in the middle of the year, because she felt she could no longer bear the heavy burden of leadership. We miss her but rejoice that she has given so many years of service for the Master, and recognize that the women of the Church are so thoroughly organized in the thirty-three synodical societies that the responsibility for the organization can now be shared.

Mrs. Fred Smith Bennett, who had served the Board as young people's secretary, and later as vice-president from New Jersey, was appointed acting president.

The work will continue with increasing efficiency, because the women of the Church see the need for their work, feel their responsibility, and count their service a joyous one.

THE ORGANIZATION.

Many new women's societies have been organized during the year, but perhaps none have shown a greater earnestness than those among the Choctaw churches in Oklahoma, where there are four new societies. Everywhere there is a desire to know about the work, and then in a systematic way to gather the funds.

To this end societies have assumed special objects in the way of teachers' salaries, scholarships, shares in the school or hospital work, and in building and repair funds, while all have been urged to contribute to the general fund from which all emergencies and deficiencies must be provided.

The Westminster Guild, through its one hundred eighty-six chapters, and fourteen circles, contributes to the support of the hospital for natives at Haines, Alaska. These young women have three courses of study each year, one on home missions, one on foreign missions, and one on the Bible. Their gifts, which are gathered through the chapters assuming a number of shares at two dollars each, are divided equally between home and foreign missions.

The special object for mission bands is the support of the Industrial Training School at Sitka, Alaska. The number of bands enrolled is seven hundred eleven.

The Cradle Roll Tens are a new effort to secure the gift of ten cents each in behalf of the little people under six years of age, arranged in groups of ten. Nearly one hundred such groups have been reported to us, and their money is to be used for the support of kindergarten work among the children of foreign-speaking people.

The Sunday before Thanksgiving, the day set apart on which the mission school work shall be presented in the Sabbath schools, was observed by an increasing number of schools. The special object for the school work among the Pima and Papago Indians at Tucson was deservedly popular.

Our field secretaries. Miss Julia Fraser and Miss Edith Hughes have been in the field constantly, and no efforts on their part have been spared to organize, educate and stimulate societies.

Mrs. Flora D. Palmer presented her resignation as field secretary early in the year, but she is ever ready to respond to calls for special work, and has assisted in the presbyterial meetings.

Miss Hays, Miss Newcomb and Miss Jackson have presented the work in many places from the standpoint of missionaries, and Mrs. M. B. Lee, Mrs. D. F. Diefenderfer, and Miss V. May White have rendered efficient service at presbyterial meetings and in auxiliary societies.

Study classes. The topic, the frontier, recommended for home mission study classes this year has been an especially strong one, and there has been a decided increase in the number of study classes. The book generally used by women's societies was "The Call of the Waters", by Miss Katharine R. Crowell, while the children have studied "The Pioneers", by the same author. The theme deals with pioneer efforts to make America a Christian nation, and the need for continued effort becomes apparent as the frontier, having reached the Pacific Coast, comes eastward through the exceptional peoples, through new communities made possible by the opening up of Indian reservations, through the vast desert made inhabitable by various irrigation projects, and through the South and Southwest where trainload after trainload of people are seeking new homes. But this is not all! The growth of cities, the problem of assimilating the great mass of foreigners, all these and more are spheres for home mission endeavor, and the study class will help the people to see it. As the theme and text-book are both interdenominational, the result will be united effort.

The Council of Women for Home Missions. In December the Council of Women for Home Missions was organized, in which nine women's Boards are united.

The object of the organization is to secure cooperation along the following lines:

- 1st. Home mission summer conferences.
- 2nd. Home mission study classes in schools and colleges, and in conferences other than those arranged by women's missionary societies.
- 3rd. Interdenominational textbooks for home mission study classes.
- 4th. Interdenominational day of prayer.
- 5th. Interdenominational literature.
- 6th. Cooperation at home.
- 7th. Comity on the field.

Already this organization is bearing fruit, and home missions will have a more definite part in all summer conferences, and in college work through the assistance of the Young Women's Christian Associations. A beginning is made in home mission literature by issuing "Home Mission Handicraft", a series of ten "Ideas for Work and Play for Mission Bands and Juniors."

THE ADMINISTRATION.

The administration is vested in such vice-presidents as reside in New York City and vicinity, together with the Advisory Committee, an elected body of representative women and the executive officers. Regular meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays, and the Ways and Means Committee on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, except in July and August.

Some idea of the amount of business transacted can be gained from the fact that nearly five hundred separate motions, in addition to the work planned at the spring conference, came up for consideration. After having been acted upon by the Woman's Board, all items dealing with the expenditure of money, or matters of policy in the school work, are subject to the approval of the Board of Home Missions.

Special items. "Equal quarterly payments in whole dollars for pledged work" has been emphasized throughout the year, with the end in view of equalizing more nearly the receipts of the four quarters, and so relieving the Board of the necessity of borrowing money to pay the missionaries promptly each month. The efforts have produced gratifying results, but will be still further emphasized the coming year.

General fund. Because of increased expenses on the field, particularly in the boarding schools, a special appeal was sent to auxiliary societies late in the year asking for a special contribution to the general fund. Because of this appeal, and of the fact that societies consider the gift of one year the pledge of the next, we are able to report an advance in receipts even in a year of financial stress.

Boxes. Societies have supplied Christmas gifts, or money for a Christmas treat, for the children in all our mission schools, and boxes of clothing for the pupils, as well as needed supplies in the way of bedding, linen, rag carpets, and so forth, for teachers' homes and boarding schools. No appeal is made for second hand clothing, except in a few instances, and no credit is given for money expended either for freight or material.

They have also supplemented the salaries of home missionaries by gifts of boxes and household supplies. In a few cases money has been sent in lieu of boxes, and has proven a great help. Here, again, no credit on the books of either the Board or the Woman's Board is given for money expended on freight or material. Gifts in money, for missionaries, are credited only as special donations.

Literature. The Literature Department has had a year of unusual prosperity. The growth in study classes has increased the sale of textbooks and helps, while there has been a constant demand for leaflets concerning both the field and the organization. The Prayer Calendar has found unusual favor. Thirty new leaflets and twenty-five reprints have been issued, and the number of pages printed was 3,347,700. As the literature of the Woman's Board is nearly all sold at cost, and much of it consists of leaflets which sell at from one to five cents each, our receipts of $6,021.85 show something of the volume of business.

HOME MISSION MONTHLY.

The Home Mission Monthly has continued the medium by which those who contribute to the work have been kept in touch with the work on the field through the topic of the month, and whereby messages from the office have gone to the constituency at home.

Notwithstanding the financial depression, which has affected many papers, we again report an increase in the subscription list. The editor so carefully looks after the details of publishing that nearly every year a goodly sum has been contributed to the general work. This year has been an exception in this respect, however, but, although no money has been passed into the treasury, the nucleus of a fund is in hand with which it is proposed next year to erect one of the new buildings at Sitka.

Over Sea and Land does not show a gain in subscriptions, but is meeting a need in helping to educate the children of the Church.

THE FIELD.

But the work of our organization is simply that funds may be gathered to support the missionary school work that has been committed to the women of the Church. To this end meetings are planned, sacrifices of time and money are made, literature is used, gifts are gathered. It would be impossible to tell of all our mission stations which are reported in detail by the Rev. Robert M. Craig, superintendent of the School Department, but we call attention to some matters of importance on each field.

In the Alaskan field we have continued to pay the salaries of the ministers in Southeastern Alaska, and of the missionary physician at Point Barrow. The visits of Mr. Craig and Miss Fraser, the field secretary of the Woman's Board for the Pacific Coast, have made clear to all the necessity of providing better equipment for the Industrial and Training School at Sitka. It is not just to subject missionary workers to undue risks on account of poor buildings, neither can the best work be done for the children with inadequate equipment. Accordingly, it is proposed when the money is secured to erect new buildings, plain but substantial, and so continue this work which has already done so much for the younger generation but with such equipment as will render more fruitful the efforts put forth.

Among the Indians we have twenty-one stations. The work has continued with few changes. The new buildings for the Industrial and Training School for Pima and Papago Indians at Tucson, Arizona, have been completed, and were formally dedicated February sixteenth. The work among the Digger Indians formerly located at Fall River Mills, in California, has been transferred to McArthur about ten miles away. Sufficient money has been contributed or pledged to begin work among the Duck Valley Indians in Idaho. Some changes in the personnel of the workers have made new problems, but all this Indian work is helping to make Christian Indians, who in turn make good citizens.

In the New Mexican field there are three boarding schools and twenty plaza schools. No new stations have been opened, but the Mary E. James School for Mexican boys has double the attendance it had last year, and it—with the Allison School, under one management, at Santa Fe—will prove a force for righteousness. At the last communion twelve boys and girls, all pupils, confessed Christ.

There has been much sickness in the Menaul School at Albuquerque this year, but the superintendent, matrons and teachers have stood nobly by the work. As the result of special services and personal work, fifteen students have united with the church.

In the Mormon field new problems are arising. The mission day schools have without doubt been instrumental in raising a standard which has led to the establishment of a good public school system in many towns. Good buildings have been erected, and where such schools are carried on with efficient teachers, and where the church work is provided for by a resident pastor, it is possible to close the mission day schools, with the hope of opening new work in fields where there are no good public schools, and where the evangelistic work is not cared for. Accordingly the schools at Hyrum, Smithfield and Parowan have been closed and the teachers transferred to other points. Panguitch, Ferron and Fairview have each been strengthened by an additional teacher.

We have four academies in Utah, and these are the only secondary schools in the state having dormitories; they are increasingly important. A new dormitory was completed at New Jersey Academy at Logan during the year and the funds are in hand for the erection of a new dormitory for Wasatch Academy, at Mt. Pleasant. Enlargement, with provision for a larger number of boys, is the great need in this field.

In the Mountain field there are ten boarding schools, three academies, twenty-four day-schools, eleven Bible readers' stations, and we pay the salaries of four ministers. There are large opportunities for service. Our school at Marshall, North Carolina, with the exception of the kindergarten work, has been discontinued but the people are supporting a public school. Pease House, the little girls' home in connection with the Asheville schools, has been opened and not only provides for the little girls, many of them orphans, who could not be accommodated in the Home Industrial, but furnishes a model school for the Training Department of the Normal and Collegiate Institute. Mossop Memorial School, Huntsville, Tennessee, through the generosity of Mrs. Butler, now accommodates thirty girls, and every pupil in the school has made a public confession of faith. Brown Memorial School, Mt. Vernon, Kentucky, under new management, takes front rank as an educational institution, and Langdon Home gives Christian home training to eighteen girls.

No new schools have been opened, but the value of all the school work is greatly appreciated.

A unique feature of the mountain work is that in connection with nearly every station there is a woman's missionary society and a mission band, each helping to support the regular work of the Woman's Board.

Work will be begun at Gladstone, Missouri, in the Ozark Mountains, April 1, 1909, by the appointment of two Bible readers.

In Cuba there are four schools. The school in Havana has been strengthened by the addition of a second American teacher, and two native teachers.

Funds are in hand for the erection of a school building and teachers' home at Güines, Cuba. The summer offering of 1908 was sufficient to purchase the land, while Pennsylvania Synodical Society furnished the money for the building as a twenty-fifth anniversary offering. It will be known as the "Kate P. Bryan Memorial".

In Porto Rico we have six schools, and the hospital at San Juan. The new school at San German, taught by a Porto Rican teacher, is meeting a need.

The Presbyterian Hospital is doing a great work in ministering to the Porto Ricans, both rich and poor, for there are pay patients as well as charity, and to Americans as well, who need hospital care.

In the work among foreign-speaking people there has been some advance, but not so much as the needs warrant. Money not only is necessary for this work, but it is impossible to find the kind of missionary workers required.

A national missionary training school, with departments where both American and foreign workers may be trained for Christian work among foreign-speaking people, is our greatest need.

Bible readers have been commissioned among the Italians in New York City and Brooklyn; in Jersey City and Montclair, New Jersey; Denver, Colorado; Bristol, Pennsylvania; and a worker among the Slavs in Kansas City, Kansas, in addition to those listed last year. With the beginning of the year, April 1, 1909, the Woman's Board will appropriate for work among foreign-speaking people an amount equal to five per cent. of what it receives from women's societies.

Freedmen's work. In addition to the regular work there are supported in whole or in part among the Freedmen, by means of funds contributed by women's societies, but administered through the Board for Freedmen, seventy-five teachers in boarding schools, sixteen teachers in academies, and forty-five teachers in parochial schools.

SUMMARY.

In all the schools of the Woman's Board the Bible is used as a textbook. Memory work, and daily recitations, with texts, are a part of the regular program. In the boarding schools the girls are taught practical industrial work, as cooking, sewing, and general housekeeping. The boys assist with the house work in boys' schools, and in addition are taught farming, carpentry and other industries. Both boys and girls are taught the elements of hygiene in connection with physiology.

The importance of Christian living is emphasized, and in many of the schools special evangelistic services have been held, with the result that many have begun the Christian life. The influence of these schools is far-reaching, entering the homes and transforming communities.

Presbyterian women have reason to thank God for the opportunities for service given through the work done by our home mission teachers, and count it all seed sowing in the Master's name.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

Our total receipts from all sources, exclusive of $75,076.63 collected for and remitted to the Freedmen's Board, and inclusive of amounts contributed for Permanent and Annuity funds, etc., were $465,136.14.

Our receipts available for current work were $427,036.99; while on the other hand our expenses, inclusive of $18,913.65 paid missionaries of the Board of Home Missions, were $460,206.38, leaving a deficit on current work account of $33,169.39. While there was a slight advance in receipts over last year, they did not keep pace with expenditures on the field. The increasing response to the need for work among foreign-speaking people, and the claims of special building funds have, in some cases, lessened the contributions for the regular work. The pressure brought to bear upon young people's societies to support synodical work had resulted in some unfulfilled pledges. The division of Sunday-school money has served to diminish receipts available for current work. Expenditures have been increased by a slight advance in the salaries of the teachers in some of the day-schools, changes in other teachers, making increased traveling expenses and increased cost of maintenance of boarding schools, and in some unusual repairs.

The deficit of $33,169.39 is assumed by the Woman's Board and special effort will be made to secure funds to cancel the debt before July, 1909.

Such is the record of the year in dollars and cents, but no words can record the measure of sacrifice in time and money that has made this aggregate of money possible, neither can words record the faithful service of the missionaries on the field, or measure the harvest of their seed sowing.

In God's name the work was done, in His name the seed was sown, and His be the glory.

Respectfully submitted,

ELLA A. BOOLE,
Secretary.

CONCLUSION.

Closing this review of the year's work the following observations are pertinent.

First. The sphere of our service is wider and more varied year by year. No longer merely a question of new stations to be opened and new churches established,—it is the work of Christianizing our civilization; it is to help to solve racial and social problems introduced by our immense foreign immigration; to help to further economic relations and to improve social and moral conditions; to advance Christian education where the lack of it threatens the morals of new and old communities; to recover and prove again the power of direct evangelism which in every age has been the life of the Church; and generally to try to meet every new phase of danger to the higher life of the nation with means adapted to its social, moral and religious uplifting.

Second. This expansion of home mission obligations opens ever new and vast possibilities. What if we could reach our foreigners by effective educational and evangelizing agencies? What if we could really carry the social message of Jesus and the spiritual appeal of Jesus into every workshop? What if we could kindle revival fires in every Presbytery—in every community? What if we had leadership to arrest the tendencies to the worship of mammon in our cities, and to carry higher ideals of life and old-fashioned standards of family religion into careless and godless rural communities? What, in a word, if we could meet every foe of truth and goodness with that gospel which in its varied adaptations is the power of God?

Third. But for a work so varied and complex, and beckoning with such inspiring possibilities our resources of men and money are wholly inadequate. The Church of Christ is asleep to her greatest national opportunity. She does not measure the signs of the times. She has not sounded the depths of the phrase, "America for Christ." If she had, her young men would be girding for the conflict. If she had, money would flow like water. When the nation was in peril of its unity, life and treasure were cheap. When the higher life of the people is in danger and so the stability of all our institutions, should the spirit of sacrifice be less prompt or hearty?

Mr. Titus B. Meigs, for many years a valued member of the Board and chairman of the Finance Committee, on account of ill health was obliged last November to present his resignation, which was accepted with regret.

SYNODICAL SELF-SUPPORT AND SUSTENTATION— 1908-1909.

SYNOD OF ILLINOIS.

Special work among immigrants of foreign speech has been conducted to a greater extent than hitherto. In the Presbytery of Chicago there are an Italian church and mission, two Bohemian missions, one Chinese mission, one Slavic, one Persian, two German and Scandinavian, and one mixed Scandinavian, Irish and Jewish mission. These have a membership of 630, of whom ninety-five were received during the year. There has been an average attendance of 869 at the services and an enrolment of 1,902 in the Sabbath schools. The Synodical Committee has continued to sustain the Italian mission at Ladd, in connection with the Congregationalists, who pay one-third of the salary of the missionary, Mr. A. Martignetti, for his services at Spring Valley. After spending a month upon the field under the direction of the Superintendent, the Rev. T. S. Bagranoff, a Bulgarian minister, accepted appointment as missionary at Madison and Granite City. Services in the Bulgarian language were held in the Presbyterian churches at both places, and night schools were opened, the tuition fees being sufficient to pay the rentals and contingent expenses. The work progressed favorably during the winter, but in March the industrial depression led to the closing of the manufacturing establishments, and many of the Bulgarians were reduced to extreme want. Mr. Bagranoff was untiring in his efforts for the relief of his countrymen, collecting funds, and using his own means to provide food for the starving. He also succeeded in securing employment elsewhere for many needy ones. As the result of his faithful service in the emergency, our missionary has won the confidence of the entire community, and Mrs. Bagranoff has been engaged by the public school authorities to teach the Bulgarians and those of other nationalities, who were crowding the primary departments in their desire to learn the English language. In spite of the special difficulties, the work has been prospered spiritually, and a number of Bulgarians have been received into the membership of the Presbyterian churches of Madison and Granite City. It is proposed to establish a Hungarian mission at East St. Louis, in connection with a mission to be sustained by the Board of Home Missions in St. Louis, but circumstances have delayed its organization.

The work of the year may be summarized as follows: The Presbyterian and Synodical Committees have aided in sustaining 146 churches and twelve missions, employing 102 ordained ministers and eight other workers, the assisted churches have 10,345 members, of whom 1,057 have been received by profession of faith, and 480 by certificate. The Sabbath-school membership is 15,144. The assisted churches raised $55,790 for their own support, and $7,576 for beneficence. Twelve missions among foreign-speaking immigrants are conducted in nine languages.

THOMAS D. LOGAN,

Chairman of the Committee on Home Missions.

SYNOD OF INDIANA.

During the past year the Synod of Indiana, at the request of the Board of Home Missions in New York and after conferences between its Home Mission Committee and the secretaries of the Board, unanimously determined so to modify its operations as to enter into new and closer relations with the Board. The essential features of the Indiana plan remain undisturbed, viz. (1) That each presbytery distributes its own mission funds to its own needy churches. (2) That a certain fixed proportion of the receipts be sent to the Synodical Committee, and from the fund so provided, grants are made to the needy presbyteries and for the prosecution of the general mission work of the state. The new feature now adopted makes the Board at New York a party in the division of the contributions received from the churches. It was agreed by the synod that each presbytery shall not expend more than seventy-five per cent. of its home mission receipts upon its own field, but shall send twenty-five per cent. to the synodical home mission treasurer. He retains fifteen per cent. of the total contributions from the churches for the state work, and sends ten per cent. to the Board in New York. The Synod moreover designates each year the maximum amount per member it requires for the state work, and agrees that whatever is received from the home mission offerings of the churches in excess of that amount shall be sent entire to the Board.

Besides the contributions from the churches, the synod receives annually the proceeds of the Yandes Funds. These funds were created by the gifts of Mr. Daniel W. Yandes and Mr. Simon Yandes of Indianapolis, both now deceased, by whose generosity the extent and influence of the home mission work in the state is every year greatly augmented. Among other things the salary and expenses of our synodical missionary, the Rev. Dr. George Knox, is met from these funds.

A gift of one thousand dollars from Mrs. Caroline Brown, of New Albany, and a bequest of the same amount from Mrs. Elizabeth A. Remley, of Crawfordville, both received during the year, have enabled the Synodical Committee to extend aid in special cases where it was urgently needed.

The receipts for the year, as reported by Dr. W. H. McCaughey, the retiring chairman of synod's committee, were as follows:

From the churches of synod for home mission work.....	$13,184.35
Income from the Yandes Funds	2,655.00
From the special gifts above referred to	2,000.00
To this, add contributions sent directly to the Board	1,445.35
And amounts sent to the Woman's Home Mission Board.	10,449.30

Besides this, our synodical superintendent, Dr. Knox, secured considerable sums for church building purposes, and also a gift of a lot in Indianapolis from Mr. George B. Yandes, which in due time will be converted into available funds for synodical use.

JOHN P. HALE,

Chairman of the Home Mission Committee...

SYNOD OF IOWA.

Some changes in the home mission conditions have come through the erection of the German Presbyteries of Galena, George and Waukon by the Assembly of 1908. Churches in several synods beside Iowa were thus gathered into presbyteries which are now jurisdictionally connected with Iowa Synod; but as to home mission matters, they are related to the Board of Home Missions in New York. Just what effect this will have on our receipts and disbursements is not yet entirely manifest.

The attempt of the Iowa Board, initiated in October, 1907, to connect its work more closely with the general work by directing that ten per cent. of all contributions should be sent to the New York treasury, has been generally satisfactory, although it has somewhat reduced the fund available for use in Iowa. During the year ending in October, 1908, there was sent to the New York Board a total of $1,773.63, nearly all of which was a clear advance over the gifts from Iowa churches in the previous year.

In October, 1908, the Board, with the approval of synod, decided that for the current year the effort should be to secure from congregational offerings—no others are used for this Board's work—the sum of twenty thousand dollars. Of the contributions, ten per cent. as heretofore shall go to New York. In case more than twenty thousand dollars shall be secured, the surplus shall be divided equally between the two Boards.

For the year ending in October, 1908, not including individual gifts, the total contributions from Iowa to home missions was as follows:

Churches, to the Iowa Board	$15,906.22
Churches, to New York Board	1,773.63
Interest on Permanent Fund and so forth.....	710.21
		$18,390.06
Women's Societies	$9,639.14
Young Women's Societies, and Bands.....	242.12
Sunday-schools	728.16
Y. P. S. C. E., Senior, Junior, and so forth.....	1,369.56
		$11,978 98

During a part of the year now closing, a Bohemian missionary has been employed by this Board and the Board of Sabbath-school Work. The latter declines to continue its assistance in his support, and the Iowa Board will undertake to maintain him in the field. The work is difficult, and for the present unresponsive; but it is felt that there is a positive duty in this direction; and it is hoped that results will soon appear to gladden the hearts of the workers.

By the segregation of the German churches of this and other synods into their own presbyteries, and the action of the Assembly in connection therewith, the Iowa Board releases to the New York Board all supervision of the German work, as to its maintenance or development.

An important and encouraging part of the work of the past few years has been in connection with missions in some of the growing cities, and in the main the results have abundantly justified the wisdom of emphasis on this sort of work, even at a heavy initial expenditure. Notably has this been the case in Ottumwa, Waterloo and Cedar Rapids, where strong churches have been thus secured.

E. B. NEWCOMB,

President of the Board of Iowa Presbyterian Home Missions.

SYNOD OF KANSAS.

This is the first annual report to the General Assembly from Kansas as a self-supporting synod. During the year 1906-1907, the Home Board appropriated to the Synod of Kansas $7,600 more than the Presbyterians of the State contributed during the same time for home mission evangelism. With the conviction that we were able to pay our own home mission bills, and thus relieve the Board of this heavy drain upon its treasury, in October, 1907, the synod voted to assume self-support April 1, 1908. To enable us to do this, the Board consented to reserve for our future use all contributions sent in between October first and March thirty-first, and at the same time to meet the grants for this period and to pay the salaries of our pastor-evangelists for the additional months of April and May.

In the presence of the financial stringency, we began our new enterprise. We started with $6,900 in the treasury. We have paid all our obligations promptly during the year and have on hand with which to begin the new year $7,544.99. From our treasury, ninety-seven churches and stations have been assisted, sixty ministers have received part of their salaries and our five pastor-evangelists have been supported.

Simplicity of organization and operation has always been sought. The Permanent Committee on Synodical Home Missions is composed of the chairmen of the home mission committees of the presbyteries. These men know their own sections thoroughly and thus the Committee as a whole is in personal touch with the needs and possibilities of the synod. Mr. H. C. Olin has been the efficient treasurer of the home mission fund. Rev. Walter M. Irwin, the secretary of the Committee, has largely looked after the administrative department of the movement.

Synodical unity has been effective from the beginning. There is but one fund. Every dollar, to be used for Kansas home mission evangelism, is sent directly to the treasurer. At the same time, there is the closest presbyterial oversight. In loyalty to the synod as a whole, each presbytery is expected to raise its just share for the synodical fund. Each presbytery passes upon the applications of its own churches and careful business methods are adopted to get the largest returns from the money expended.

Grants are made to the churches, to assist them in their subscriptions to pay a minister a reasonable salary. Every needy church is to receive proper assistance, but only after it gives a reason for its existence and a proof of faithful effort. Each assisted church is expected to send a quarterly report to the chairman of the Home Mission Committee, as an exhibit of the work accomplished and a statement of the faithfulness with which it is meeting its financial obligations.

During this first year, it has been necessary to circulate much literature. "Some Questions and Answers for Kansas Presbyterians," "The Home Mission Bulletin," and "The League of 2000" were largely and effectively used by the pastors all over the synod.

The complete budget for the coming year will call for the expenditure of almost $18,000, and the churches are again asked to contribute at the rate of sixty dollars per one hundred members to this fund. A surprisingly large number of churches reached this basis this year. Another notable fact is that the churches of fifty members or less—the ones that are raising all they possibly can for local support and that are losing year by year their best families by removal to the larger churches—are the ones that are often giving the largest amount per capita to our fund.

The Synodical Committee is very hopeful concerning the future. It is no longer, "Ought we and can we?" It is now, "We can, and we will do it better." We have passed the crisis of initiation and organization. We have entered upon the years of splendid progress and achievement.

WALTER M. IRWIN,

Secretary of the Permanent Committee on Synodical Home Missions.

SYNOD OF MICHIGAN.

With each year a larger and clearer vision of duty and opportunity is given the Synod of Michigan regarding its home mission work. This is one of the truly home mission states, the problem constantly increasing in difficulty by the addition of almost a hundred a day of the foreign born. Yet such facts are inspirational, and result in larger appropriations being made each year. Several new churches have been recently organized, and two received from other denominations. The average salary of missionaries has been increased more than fifty dollars over the average of last year. At three points special work is being done among people of foreign speech: two in Detroit Presbytery for Italians and Hungarians, and one in Lake Superior Presbytery for the first named nationality. Five missionaries are employed in such work. In Detroit we are just completing the new Italian church, and church house, at an expense of more than twelve thousand dollars. Here a very interesting work is going on in religion, education and domestic science, also a free circulating library is provided.

Besides a Superintendent and two assistants laboring in the synod we have had seventy missionaries at work during the year, including ten students. The average salary being $690, not including manses. We expect to report before the close of the year that no ordained man has been commissioned for less than $750. The home mission committee is also paying the salary of the students' pastor at the State University. There are 541,000 foreign born citizens in our state, 26,000 of them being illiterate voters. Detroit contains 107,272 foreigners, 6,720 being unable to read or write. Our future policy has as one of its purposes a larger ministry to this class of people.

W. T. JAQUSS,

Chairman Permanent Committee of Home Missions.

SYNOD OF NEW JERSEY.

The twenty-second year of synodical home missions in New Jersey, which ended September thirtieth, 1908, was marked by much the largest increase in receipts ever attained. The increase was $3,340.43 and the total $24,104.25. This was the splendid response of the presbyteries and churches to the growing needs of the work as presented to them at the outset of the year through synod and its committee. It was accomplished largely through the activity and loyalty of the Presbyterian chairmen and pastors. It demonstrates the hold which the work has upon the Presbyterians of the state and their quick recognition of the need.

The occasion for the increased call lay almost entirely in the extension of work among people of foreign speech, and about one-half the total amount was expended in that work.

In all aid was given for work in 108 fields, of which eighty-one were fully organized churches and twenty-seven were missions; in these seventy-two ordained ministers and eighteen lay-workers were employed. Almost five hundred persons were added upon profession of faith and the total membership reached was nearly six thousand, with Sunday schools aggregating nearly eight thousand.

That a spirit of self-help and liberality is found in many of the aided fields is evinced by the fact that these churches raised about fifty thousand dollars for their own uses and gave nearly six thousands dollars to the beneficences of the Church at large. Six churches attained self-support during the year, and in fifteen cases the amount of aid was reduced, frequently at the suggestion of the aided churches themselves.

Four new churches were organized and work was begun at other points. The smaller country churches seem generally to have had all they could do, (and sometimes more than they could do,) to hold their own. Two presbyteries have united to secure a presbyterial evangelist particularly to aid such churches.

Work among the colored people shows some improvement but is inadequate in amount to the need.

There are in the synod twenty German churches of which two-thirds are self-supporting; about twenty Italian churches and missions, all aided either locally or from synod's fund; three Magyar churches and two missions, all provided with buildings, but requiring aid; services are held for Syrians and Armenians at two points each; and during the year a congregation of Ruthenians, previously Roman Catholics of the Greek rite, have been counseled and aided.

The mission work carried on by synod within the state is supplemented by work of presbyteries and local churches of almost equal cost, so that New Jersey is earnestly seeking to provide for her own; but at the same time the synod continues to give still larger amounts for home missions beyond her own borders, and is glad to cooperate with the other synods and the Home Mission Board in the great common work.

SAMUEL McLANAHAN,
Chairman of Committee on Synodical Home Missions.

SYNOD OF NEW YORK.

The Synod of New York has been greatly blessed in caring for its home mission work during the past year.

Because of financial conditions, the year has been a peculiarly trying one, yet "His promises are sure" and have been fulfilled to us in a generous measure.

It is a pleasure to bear testimony to the untiring zeal of the officers and members of the committee having this work in charge, which has been such an important factor in accomplishing the year's work.

G. P. CONARD,
Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Synodical Missions.

SYNOD OF OHIO.

The Synodical Committee reporting for the eleventh consecutive year of Ohio home missions under the unity plan is able to make a gratifying showing of progress. The problems presenting themselves in the prosecution of the work are increased in kinds, numbers and proportions. Happily there has been some increase in the material both of men and money in meeting them, though it must be confessed wholly inadequate to our responsibilities and opportunities. The work goes and grows. $76,974.33, exclusive of legacies and special gifts, represents the offering for home missions in the Synod of Ohio for the year ending September thirtieth, 1908. Of this sum the Board received $30,235 and our presbyterial and synodical treasures were given $46,739. Out of the latter sum grants of aid were made to 175 home mission churches and forty-three mission or preaching stations. Eight new churches were organized three of them being self-supporting. 141 ordained ministers together with thirty-six other workers were employed. There were 1369 additions to these home mission churches, of whom 740 came upon confession of faith. The churches aided gave $11,602 for beneficence and $89,071 for self-support.

We are painfully aware of the meagerness of our efforts to meet the needs of our foreign-speaking peoples. There are four German churches, two Hungarian organizations, one Italian, two Magyar and one Slav church together with five additional missions for the different nationalities. The work suffers most from the lack of suitably prepared workers.

Synod has three special representatives. Rev. Walter H. Houston, the superintendent, and his two assistants are efficient in a gratifying degree. Synod moreover directed that the missionary work done in our bounds by the Sabbath-school Board be placed under the direction of the Home Missions Committee. The number of vacancies in our bounds has been reduced about one-half. The seventeen prebyteries reporting all show fewer vacancies than one year ago.

For a better oversight of the work the synod has been divided into five home mission districts, a representative to be placed in each as funds will permit.

Our relations with the Home Board have been most cordial—could not have been more so. In the effort to realize greater unity in the presentation and prosecution of the home mission enterprise we agreed that the Home Board should receive a sum equal to twenty per cent. of our regular church home mission offerings. The utmost energies of synod and of the Board are pledged in pushing our one great enterprise among the churches.

While we of Ohio boast no startling accomplishments, there are not wanting evidences of real progress.

GEORGE E. DAVIES,
Chairman of Home Missions Committee.

SYNOD OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The last Annual Report of the Synodical Home Mission Committee to the synod shows that, including three of our largest presbyteries which support their own work, we employ in the state by the aid of mission funds a total of two hundred ministers and missionaries; that there are two hundred and sixty-four churches and missions which receive aid; that during the year there were 2,719 additions to membership; that the total Sunday-school membership is 22,440; and that the total expended for synodical and presbyterial missions was $90,598.

Comparing the number of pastors and stated supplies employed in the synod with the number of ministers in our mission fields, we find that about one minister in four in our state serves a home mission church. Comparing the number of our churches with those helped by mission funds, we find that one church in every five is a home mission church. We find that the membership of the home mission churches of the synod exceeds by two thousand the total membership of the two Synods of North and South Dakota. Twenty years ago less than $25,000 annually were expended in home mission effort in the synod, but last year more than five times that amount was expended. The sense of responsibility imposed by the synod upon the synod by the plan of self-support has done much to promote this growth in home mission interest.

In some of our presbyteries presbyterial evangelists are being employed with good results in reviving old churches which had lost all signs of life, and in stimulating vacant churches to the point of calling pastors. One of these evangelists in a small presbytery, who is sustained in part by mission funds, reports that during the last year he has administered the Lord's Supper in many vacant churches and received two hundred and thirty persons on confession of their faith, fifty-eight of whom were baptized. This is one of the most hopeful features of our work and indicates that it is worth while to give attention to the weak and needy churches.

On account of the development of new coal fields, the building of new railroads and trolley lines, and the consequent springing up of new towns, we have had many demands upon us for funds in aid of new churches, and the indications are that the coming year will witness the starting of many more such enterprises.

But our work among the foreign-speaking peoples is the work that continues to press upon us most heavily. Pennsylvania is one of the most unique foreign mission fields in the world, as the foreigners are sweeping in upon us by the thousands from all quarters of the globe. For several years a number of our presbyteries have been doing colporteur and educational work among these people, and this work is beginning to tell in the organization here and there of a church for those of foreign speech. The Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia have a large amount of this work to do, and they are doing it at great expense, without drawing upon synod's fund, while a number of the other presbyteries are aided in this work by the synod's Committee. The Presbytery of Pittsburgh is now engaged in a special effort to raise a fund of $50,000 in aid of its foreign work. It is a notable fact that during the past year while the receipts for synodical home missions amounted to $27,651, the various presbyteries report an additional amount of $117,423, raised and spent within their own bounds. This large increase of funds for presbyterial purposes is owing largely to the efforts to evangelize the foreign population in local settlements. The growth of interest in presbyterial home missions has unquestionably had its influence in reducing the receipts for the general work of the synod carried on by our Committee.

In spite of the constantly increasing demands upon us in support of our own work, the synod has maintained its loyal support of the Home Board and will continue to do so.

In behalf of the Synodical Home Mission Committee,

GEORGE S. CHAMBERS, Chairman.

J. M. MCJUNKIN, Secretary.
Synodical Missions and Sustentation.

SYNOD OF WISCONSIN.

The year closing March 31, 1909, has been a memorable one in the home mission work in Wisconsin because of our having attained complete self-support. The efforts of the preceding five years naturally culminated in our assuming, on November first, 1908, the support of our synodical superintendent, whose salary up to that time had been carried by the Home Board.

The progress made by our churches seems marvellous as we look back to the conditions existing in 1901-2 when we contributed only $2,610.11 for "Evangelization in Wisconsin", and drew out from the treasury of the Home Board $12,152.

After deciding upon self-support, for the first five months we raised a banking fund of $4,783.35, and since that time the contributions have been as follows:

1904-5.....	10,148.65
1905-6.....	11,105.87
1906-7.....	11,613.14
1907-8.....	14,226.52
1908-9.....	13,390.33

This last year shows a falling off in the receipts to the amount of $836.19, but perhaps too long a step forward was taken the preceding year when the contributions increased from $11,613.14 to $14,226.52. Then too, local conditions in some of our churches in part account for the decrease. But taken as a whole the above figures give a very creditable showing for the Wisconsin Presbyterians. And best of all has been the spiritual effect of the movement upon our churches.

Instead of being crushed by our burdens, we have been uplifted. We have entered into the joy of service, and found a closer fellowship than otherwise we could have found with the great Head of the Church. And the consciousness that He has thus far helped us and blessed our feeble efforts is in itself a strong inspiration for more and better work as we now seek to meet the demands of the hour and lay hold of the present opportunities in this rapidly developing state.

Our expenses last year exceeded our receipts by $147.39, yet notwithstanding this, we enter upon the new year with a banking fund of $1,962.68, which, although not a large sum, is more than we have had some years.

We have been greatly favored in having had from the beginning of our self-support movement the efficient services of the Rev. L. C. Smith, D. D., who had held the office of synodical superintendent, and also, for a large portion of the time, of the Rev. James S. Wilson, who has served as assistant superintendent. During the past year we have had three excellent men laboring as presbyterial evangelists, or pastors at large, the Revs. C. J. McConnell, Moses Breeze, and C. A. Adams.

As everywhere throughout the Church, the women of our state are doing a noble work. They have expended something over $3,500 upon home mission work within our bounds during the year, exclusive of what the Church is doing through the synod's committee, making the total amount over seventeen thousand dollars. The women alone are now putting more money into the home mission work than the entire Church did seven years ago.

The contributions for this year have averaged seventy-two and eight-tenths cents per member exclusive of what the women have done, or counting their expenditures ninety-one and eight-tenths cents.

New churches have been organized at Draper, Exland, Couderay, Radisson, Winter and Edivold. The Messiah church of Milwaukee has been disbanded.

The prospects for the future are bright. We have plenty of hard work before us, and plenty of opportunities to accomplish something in determining the religious future of Wisconsin.

HOWARD A. TALBOT,
Chairman of Synod's Home Mission Committee.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Home Board submits its financial statements in full faith that the Assembly and the Church will rejoice that, although the receipts and expenditures have been by far the largest in its history, the deficit of last year has been increased by only $18,893.45. The total deficit at the close of the year's business, therefore, covering those of the two years ending March 31st, 1909, stands at $66,611.18.

It will be subject for still further rejoicing and congratulation that by the use of a part of the reserve this deficit has been completely wiped out, the Board believing it to be more in harmony with good business procedure to show a decreased reserve and a clean balance sheet, than to retain the reserve intact, and report a debt.

It will be recalled that this reserve was set up in 1905 by the use of a part of a very large legacy which came to the Board near the close of that year's business, after all obligations had been provided for to the end of the fiscal year. The reserve was established with a double purpose in view, first, to use the income therefrom as a partial offset against interest paid upon loans during the summer months, and, second, to provide for just such emergencies as have been upon the Board during the last two years.

When the Assembly added to the obligations of the Board, through the great amount of home mission work coming with the Cumberland union, and by committing to its care the evangelistic work in home mission synods, it did not, at the same time, provide the large added income absolutely necessary. This, taken together with the financial stress which has been upon the country during the same period, has prevented the Board from meeting fully its obligations from current receipts, and it is indeed a matter of congratulation that the reserve is available, and makes possible the beginning of the new year, bright with its prospects of business improvement, with all obligations provided for.

Besides the new work referred to above, other departments have been added by direction of the General Assembly, such as the Church and Labor Department, the Immigration Department, and the Department of Indian Missions. All these must be taken into consideration in order to a proper estimate of the present financial responsibilities of the Board.

A study of the Comparative Statement below, will be illuminating from many points of view, particularly so in that although showing a very large total increase ($84,686.52) that increase is more than accounted for by the gain in legacies ($88,721.07). For, while the churches show a small gain ($2,843.45) societies and individuals more than offset it by a large falling off.

It is only fair to say, in this connection, that during the year the Presbyteries of Portland and Los Angeles, and the Synod of Kansas, have conducted their own Home Mission operations, thus using, within their own bounds, a total of approximately $6,700, which, in the year closing March 31st. 1908, came to the Board.

It would seem to be time for the Church to consider whether, with the immense home and foreign missionary problems upon its hands within the borders of our own country, a more concerted and energetic movement should not be made to bring up the contributions to Home Missions from live sources. By no means reduce the contributions for work abroad, but bring up those for the work in the homeland. We submit that, with foreigners pouring in at the average rate of over one million per year, we have a home-foreign problem which requires, and must have far larger help from all sources than has hitherto been forthcoming.

This is a matter which the Assembly, and especially its Executive Commission, must consider with the greatest care, in fairness to all interests concerned.

The receipts through the woman's department of the Board for school work, show a slight increase. In addition to the amount shown by this comparative statement, there has been collected, through the Woman's Auxiliary Societies, as indicated in the statement of total receipts on page 269 the sum of $75,076.63 which sum passed through these offices to the Treasury of the Board for Freedmen in Pittsburgh.

The net income on the Presbyterian Building and No. 5 West 20th Street, adjoining, shows a slight decrease, but it is gratifyng to report that, beginning May 1st, the Presbyterian Building will show the largest earnings in its history. The large store and loft space which has been vacant for a considerable period, is all now well rented on long time leases, and the office vacancies in the building are exceedingly few. Including the rentals of the 7th and 8th floors (occupied by the owners, the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions) the gross rental value now figures approximately $160,000.00.

It is interesting to recall, in this connection, that the building, which, when it was constructed, was supposed by some to be so far outside of the business section that the growth of the City would not overtake it for scores of years, is now, after thirteen years of existence, nearly one mile within what is conceded to be the center of the city, from a business standpoint.

The Board is paying annuities from contributions toward the building mortgage at the rate of 4%, upon a sum total of $134,375.00.

Permanent and Annuity funds have been increased during the year in the sum of $72,600.00.

A still serious feature of the work of the Board is the necessity of conducting its operations upon borrowed capital for approximately eleven months of the year. This year the Board has been paying interest at the rate of 4% upon over $300,000 of loans, in order that our missionaries and teachers may not be subject to financial limitations on account of the tardy receipt of salaries. There has, therefore, been paid out in interest, on this account, during the year, the sum of $8,966.78. This amount, if expended in salaries of missionaries, at the average rate appropriated by the Board, would have put into the field twenty-six missionaries.

The overwhelming rate at which remittances come to the office of the Treasurer during the three weeks preceding the close of the books, as shown below, indicates that very many churches and societies are still pursuing the unfortunate habit of holding funds gathered during the year until the very last. This tendency should be corrected and offerings should be sent immediately.

The percentages above are based upon the receipts for current work alone. Figuring them upon the basis of the total amount of cash actually received aggregating $1,386,595.75 and which total includes the receipts for current work, permanent funds, Freedmen, Sundry Boards, etc., they are as follows:

Expense of administration	4.26
Disbursements, not administrative	37
Cost of communicating information, including disbursements directed by the General Assembly	1.90
	6.53

NOTE.—The cost of operating the Woman's department, $35,588.83 has been deducted from the gross receipts of the Woman's Board before figuring these percentages, thereby placing this Board on the same basis with other Boards receiving money from Woman's Boards.

Upon page 312 will be found a combined statement full of interest for those who are especially concerned with the country-wide work of home missions, as carried on by the Board and the self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries.

Respectfully submitted,

HARVEY C. OLIN,
Treasurer.

For the convenience of those intending to make gifts of money or property to the Board, by will, the following forms are given:

BEQUESTS.

The Board is incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York. The corporate name to be used is: "The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give, devise and bequeath unto "The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," incorporated April 19, 1872, by Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, the sum of.....Dollars, to be expended for the appropriate objects of said corporation.

FORM OF RESIDUARY CLAUSE.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my real and personal estate I devise and bequeath unto "The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," incorporated April 19, 1872, by Act of the Legislature of the State of New York.

FORM OF DEVISE.

(Real Estate.)

I give and devise unto "The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," incorporated April 19, 1872, by Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, all that certain (here insert description if convenient) with the appurtenances in fee simple, for the use, benefit and behoof of said Board forever.

NOTE.—If it be desired to bequeath a sum "to be added to the General Permanent Fund of the Board, the income only to be used for the appropriate objects of said corporation," or if it be desired to designate a sum "to be separately invested and to be known as the..... Fund, the income only to be used," etc., it can be so stated.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions respectfully reports that it has examined the One Hundred Seventh Annual Report of the Board of Home Missions: and also the Thirtieth Annual Report of the Woman's Board.

In both these reports, before the story is begun of the great work of the year, mention is made of the laying down their work by some of the faithful workers. Rev. Donald McDonald, D. D., for many years the synodical missionary of Kentucky; Rev. John Hall in Rhode Island; Rev. Alonzo Harlan in Arkansas; Rev. William D. Kidd in California and Rev. John Chase Lord in New Mexico have ceased from their labors and entered into rest, during the past year.

Mrs. Darwin R. James, for twenty-five years president of the Woman's Board, has been compelled to resign by serious illness.

Though their names do not appear in these reports, the General Assembly could not meet in Colorado without recalling the name of Dr. Sheldon Jackson, the great home missionary, and of Dr. Kirkwood, the synodical superintendent of this state for years, both of whom have died during this year.

It meets our sense of the fitness of things that when we begin to recount the events of the year, we should think of the men and women who have labored and prayed and died for the progress of the Kingdom, for men are more important than money in the work of the Kingdom of Christ.

The total number of missionaries who have labored in the vast field under the care of the Board during the past year was 1,435, of whom 59 were Cuban, Porto Rican, Mexican and Indian helpers. There were 447 missionary teachers.

As the fruit of their labor, the Lord added to the churches 7,135 members by confession of faith and 4,645 by certificates of membership in other churches. Ninety-three new churches were organized; seventy-two new edifices were erected; and one hundred ten churches reached the Honor Roll of self-support.

The Board received from all sources last year the sum of $1,073,-971.76. This is the largest sum ever reported to the Assembly by this Board.

Nevertheless with such a report of work done and blessings received, the Board announces that for the coming year the needs exceed the probable income by two hundred thousand dollars, and that it has been necessary to deny requests and cut down appropriations to the point of bitter disappointment to the entire work. New fields must wait: enlargement must be postponed: opportunities must be refused: appeals must be denied.

They must wait? For what? For God to open the doors? No, there was never such an open door for any people. For consecrated workers to be found? No,—in a land where every avenue promises financial reward, there are men and women who for the sake of Christ and the world's need, are ready to endure self-sacrifice and hardship to preach the gospel. They must wait? For encouraging results to follow the labors of the missionaries? No! you heard the report. For what, then, must they wait?

They must wait until the members of the Church are willing to give of their abundance to the cause of saving the country and the Church. Some of the rich members of the Church count themselves stewards of God, and give worthy and noble gifts. Some of the poor give conscientiously and steadily according to their ability. But in a land where the average man enjoys luxuries known nowhere else on earth, and spends more money than the average man in any nation, they wait, and while they wait the tide of immigration pours in, threatening the stability of our institutions; increasing the perils of our Christian life; and multiplying the difficulties that confront our churches. While they wait, God is testing this nation. It is as if He had grown weary of our delay, and had shaken the ends of the earth into our lap. New towns spring up in an incredibly short time; but the story has grown familiar, and we have lost the sense of responsibility that moved the Church a generation ago to seek to establish a Christian civilization on these western plains.

You thought that the time would soon come when there would be no home mission work to be done in these western states. Some of us even thought that time had already come. You have seen the vast prairies that are yet but dotted with specks of towns on their almost limitless surface. You know of the mighty irrigation plans by which whole territories of garden lands are almost as if they had been created afresh. You forgot Alaska and Cuba and Porto Rico. You forgot that there are three hundred thousand Indians still alive, and that the Presbyterian Church has missions in sixteen states and among forty-three tribal divisions; and that there are sixty-three ordained ministers and fifty-five helpers preaching in one hundred and one organized churches and thirty-seven mission stations. And while we were forgetting and growing lax in the performance of our duty, we suddenly awoke to the fact that the back door of the world had been left open, and there had come in millions of men and women who have settled down as our literal neighbors, and who need to be taught the alphabet of Christian truth and life.

American life, social, political, religious,—in family, in state, in church,—never confronted such opportunities; never felt the strain of such temptations; never was balanced in such scales; never stood on the peak of destiny, as it does this day. The solution of all our problems is in the gospel of Jesus Christ and nowhere else.

“Therefore, thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, and to fear Him,—

For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of valleys and hills:

A land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig trees, pomegranates, a land of oil olive, and honey,—

A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness: thou shalt not lack anything in it: a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayst dig brass.

When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

Beware, that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments and his statutes, which I command thee this day,—

Lest, when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied,—

Then thy heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage

And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God, for it is He that giveth thee power to get wealth: that He may establish his covenant, which He sware unto thy fathers as it is this day.

And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God and walk after other gods, and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish.

As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God."

The Report of the Board is in your hands. It would be profitable to this Assembly if the whole of it could be read to you, and if the missionaries could tell in detail of their work and their success. The wonderful work among the men of the lumber camps, the progress among the Indians, the obscure and commonplace but heroic and faithful work of the men and women who toil in the small towns and villages,—these are the history of the year, and these are the things that would thrill our souls and make us more loyal and faithful in our appointed places.

Your committee presents the following recommendations:

1. That the record of the Board be approved.
2. That the following persons be re-elected:

Ministers.

Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, D. D.
 Rev. Lyman W. Allen, D. D.
 Rev. Wilson Phraner, D. D.
 Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, D. D.
 Rev. C. E. Hays, D. D.

Laymen.

Frank L. Babbott,
 Thomas H. Perrin.

3. That on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day an offering be taken in the Sabbath schools for mission school work, and on the Sabbath nearest Washington's Birthday, for the work of evangelization.

4. That the Church be asked for eight hundred thousand dollars and that of this sum not less than three hundred twenty-five thousand dollars be raised by the churches in their congregational offerings.

5. That the work of the Woman's Board be recognized and heartily approved, and that we express our congratulations at the immediate large success which has attended their efforts to raise the deficit incurred during the past year.

6. That the efforts of the Board through its departments of Church and Labor and Immigration be commended for the work done among the foreign-speaking people and the beginning of the work among the Jews.

7. That the action of the Assembly of 1906 be re-affirmed in which it is recommended that wherever practical the offices of Sabbath-school missionary and pastor-evangelist be combined in one man.

8. That the Board of Home Missions is directed to take over and carry on the work heretofore done by the Permanent Committee on Christian Work among Seamen and Soldiers. The Board may in its discretion, but subject always to its oversight and direction, commit the immediate management of such work to any body of experienced men that it may appoint, who will serve without expense to the Board. The said Permanent Committee, upon transferring to the said Board all its property and effects and placing in the possession of said Board all its data and records relating to its work, shall be discontinued.

9. That the Board of Home Missions shall have the power to take title, for use in home mission work, to church properties in Cuba, Porto Rico, the Panama Zone, Alaska, and also in continental United States, which may be given or devised to it, or which it may purchase with funds specially contributed for such purpose.

10. That the Board of Home Missions shall be the agency of the Church in obtaining data concerning her relations to the immigrant and the labor problems. Its departments of Immigration and of Church and Labor shall, in so far as may be practicable, upon the application of any local church, presbytery or synod, study such problems in the locality to which the application relates, outline plans for local work, and aid in making such work efficient.

11. That the Board of Home Missions shall include in its annual reports to the General Assembly the amounts contributed for presbyterial and synodical home mission work, and the amounts contributed for the general work of home missions. The amounts contributed for presbyterial home mission work shall include what is expended by individual churches in supporting local mission work, which amounts such churches shall duly report to their respective presbyteries. The contributions to presbyterial and synodical home mission work shall be annually reported to the Home Mission Board by the respective pres-byteries and synods, and that Board shall include the amounts so reported in its Annual Report to the General Assembly, in such form that the contributions for presbyterial, synodical and general home mission work may be stated in separate columns; and the stated clerk of the General Assembly shall publish a summary thereof, by presbyteries and synods, annually in the Minutes of the General Assembly.

12. That the Board of Home Missions shall transfer to its field secretaries, as soon as may be deemed expedient, so much of the work heretofore done by its synodical missionaries as in the judgment of the Board it should continue to carry on, and shall discontinue the services of all its synodical missionaries at such time as in the judgment of the Board and of the synods affected, such discontinuance will not seriously injure the work.

13. That the final schedule be abandoned and that, after requiring a detailed estimate of the need of the presbytery as is now done, the Board make the lump appropriation as at present. Then leave to the presbytery the duty of recommending each particular church for such an amount as it may think best, the presbytery taking care that the total amount of its recommendations during the fiscal year shall not exceed the amount appropriated. Where the amount recommended by the presbytery for a particular church exceeds the amount which in the judgment of the Board should be paid to that church, then correspondence shall be had with a view to securing agreement as to the grant to be made, and in any and every case the final decision must be with the Board as responsible to the General Assembly.

14. Whereas, during recent years there has been great progress in synodical self-support, which it is desirable to encourage and promote, and

Whereas, in the missionary synods there is a growing tendency to presbyterial self-support on the part of the stronger presbyteries, which should be so directed as to hasten rather than retard synodical organization for home missions, and

Whereas, the variety and importance of home mission problems now pressing upon the Board and upon the synods demand some concerted effort for their solution, so that all the agencies engaged in this work may more fully meet their increasing opportunities and responsibilities, and

Whereas, only by some comprehensive plan can the unity and magnitude of the great home mission cause be impressed upon the Church;

Therefore, Resolved, that the Executive Commission be directed in such conference with the Advisory Council as both bodies may think desirable, to take into consideration the whole cause of home missions in all its relations and bearings, and to report to the next General Assembly some plan by which greater simplicity, efficiency and unity may be secured.

WILLIAM L. McEWAN, Chairman.

CHARTER.

CHARTER GRANTED BY THE STATE OF NEW YORK, APRIL 12TH, 1862.
LAWS OF 1862, CHAPTER 187.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE PRESBY-TERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

PASSED APRIL 12TH, 1862—CHAPTER 187.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—Walter Lowrie, Gardner Spring, William W. Phillips, George Potts, William Barnard, John D. Wells, Nathan L. Rice, Robert L. Stuart, Lebbeus B. Ward, Robert Carter, John C. Lowrie, citizens of the State of New York, and such others as they may associate with themselves, are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic forever, by the name of The Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for the purpose of establishing and conducting Christian Missions among the unevangelized or Pagan nations, and the general diffusion of Christianity; and by that name they and their successors and associates shall be capable of taking by purchase, grant, devise or otherwise, holding, conveying, or otherwise disposing of any real or personal estate for the purposes of the said corporation, but which estate within this State shall not at any time exceed the annual income of twenty thousand dollars.

SECTION 2.—The said corporation shall possess the general powers, rights and privileges, and be subject to liabilities and provisions contained in the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes, so far as the same is applicable, and also subject to the provisions of chapter three hundred and sixty of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty.

SECTION 3.—This Act shall take effect immediately.

LAWS OF 1894, CHAPTER 326.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN OF THE LAWS OF EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA," AND TO REGULATE THE NUMBER OF TRUSTEES.

BECAME A LAW APRIL 19TH, 1894, WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE GOVERNOR; PASSED, THREE-FIFTHS BEING PRESENT.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—Section three of chapter one hundred and eighty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America," is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2.—"The management and disposition of the affairs and property of the said Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall be vested in twenty-one Trustees, who shall be appointed from time to time by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for such terms as the Assembly may determine. But the number of such Trustees may be increased or decreased at any time by the said General Assembly, and in case of an increase the additional Trustees shall be appointed by such General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; provided, however, that the members of the Board as at present constituted shall continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed by the General Assembly. Not less than eleven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing officers, making by-laws, or for holding any special meeting; but for all other purposes, and at stated meetings, five shall be a quorum."

SECTION 3.—This Act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN OF THE LAWS OF EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA," AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIX OF THE LAWS OF EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FOUR.

BECAME A LAW MARCH 15TH, 1900, WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE GOVERNOR; PASSED, A MAJORITY BEING PRESENT.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—Section three of chapter one hundred and eighty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An act to incorporate the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," as amended by chapter three hundred and twenty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-four, is further amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 2.—"The management and disposition of the affairs and property of the said Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall be vested in twenty-one Trustees, who shall be appointed from time to time by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for such terms as the Assembly may determine. But the number of such Trustees may be increased or decreased at any time by said General Assembly, and in case of an increase the additional Trustees shall be appointed by such General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; provided, however, that the members of the Board, as at present constituted, shall continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed by the General Assembly. Not less than eleven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing officers, making by-laws, or for holding any special meeting, but for all other purposes, and at stated meetings, five shall be a quorum. All the business of the said corporation shall be conducted by the Board under and subject to the direction of the said General Assembly, so far as such direction shall be in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and of the United States of America."

SECTION 3.—This Act shall take effect immediately.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Seventy-second Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions and the manuscript volume of its Minutes for the year ending April 30, 1909, were presented to the General Assembly in session at Denver, Colorado, May, 1909, and were referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The Committee presented its Report to the General Assembly, which was adopted. The Report, condensed, and recommendations submitted, is herewith presented:

At the outset we recall to the attention of the Assembly the loss to the great cause of world evangelization in the death of that great Christian statesman, the veteran Secretary of the Board, Dr. Francis Field Ellinwood, who for twenty-seven years brought breadth of vision, keenness of judgment and genuine sympathy with the difficulties incurred by the workers at the front, never surpassed in the history of the Board. We would also note the death of Mr. Darwin R. James, for twenty years a faithful member of the Board and for some time its efficient Vice-President; and of the Rev. Dwight E. Potter, the zealous Secretary of the Western District.

Along with these serious losses in the working force at home, we record the death of the following missionaries on the field: Mrs. Fred H. Hope, of West Africa; Mrs. E. C. Lobenstine, Mrs. John Wherry and Mrs. W. L. Berst, all of China; the Rev. R. H. Sidebotham, of Korea, and Mrs. William Calderwood, of North India. Most notable in the list was Dr. Calvin W. Mateer, who for forty-eight years achieved as few men have done in the work of emancipating the great middle Kingdom of China by prodigious labors in evangelization, in education and in translation of the Word of God.

"For all Thy saints who from their labors rest
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed."

Nearly nineteen centuries ago the Apostle Paul, in writing to a group of Christian disciples, stated that there were still some at that time who knew not the name of God, and added, "I say this to your shame." What would Paul write to the Christian Church of the twentieth century, with millions upon millions still in this darkness of death, after nineteen hundred years of professed allegiance to the Christ who commanded us to be witnesses unto the uttermost parts of the earth?

First, let us note the work here at home in connection with the task of sending the messenger. Within recent years a new era has come upon us in the lines of a systematic development of methods to inform and inspire the Church at home. Conventions, forward movements, special campaigns, special course of study, new features of organization, the awakening of the laymen—all tell of a better day on this side of the task to be performed. Men are coming to realize as never before that the same brains, the same enterprise, the same energy, the same largeness of plan must mark the work of the Kingdom of Christ as now mark the undertakings of men in the realm of commerce and statesmanship. In Illinois this year, Mr. H. P. Crowell has offered to finance a campaign to reach every church member of the Synod in behalf of this cause. Every such special effort conduces to develop a spiritual quickening among the members of the Church.

This cultural endeavor has resulted in the bringing of a larger sum to be laid upon the altar this year than in any year preceding. More than eighty churches have risen to the Omaha standard of $5 per member. The total offerings this year amounted to $1,487,160. Of this the Women's Boards brought $460,730—also reaching the climax of their giving. The Board was enabled to meet its budget for the year and to decrease the deficit of former years by $65,000. In the face of this cheering outlook, the Board proposes a budget for this year which will allow some slight increase in the working force of missionaries, about five per cent. increase for native workers, and some additional provision for the children of the missionaries. It provides nothing for additional residences, though many are greatly needed.

It has been truly said that this Board involves the departments of all the other Boards, for it has the stupendous task of maintaining a Christian Church in its varied work in whatever land may be occupied. We note these departments, without dwelling upon them: First, the Evangelistic; second, the Medical; third, the Educational; fourth, the work of Translation and Publication, and fifth, the Industrial Schools. In general, it may be said that in most of the countries where our schools are planted they are overcrowded.

Some years ago it was the frequent custom to give inducements to boys to attend, but now the schools are generally self-supporting, because parents are ready to pay the required fee in order to secure the desired education.

As we turn to study the present status of affairs in the various lands to which we are sending our representatives, we note at the beginning the work nearest at hand in Mexico, in Central and South America. Latin America presents some difficult problems more or less familiar to all. Adverse climatic conditions in many places, direct opposition of the Church of Rome, at times meagre results from unflagging endeavors, would naturally lead some discouraged souls to cry, "How long, O Lord?" Yet there are signs of a better day. Mexico has the earnest of a deeper spiritual experience, which we trust may spread to the other Spanish-speaking countries. Efficient schools must continue to be multiplied in these fields, as perhaps the most efficient instruments for enduring progress.

We cross to the Mediterranean and touch the land lying under Syrian skies, where the clouds of Turkish revolution are still black and foreboding. We thank God that our own missionaries have escaped the sword of the fanatical Mohammedan, and at the same time express our deepest sorrow and sympathy in view of the horrors which have recently increased the martyr-host in that empire. In Persia, which like Turkey is writhing out of the intense struggle into the experiment of constitutional possibilities, our own witnesses for Christian civilization have been in the thick of the fight. We are proud of their Christian patriotism and undaunted zeal in behalf of the peoples for whose spiritual and civil welfare they have proved ready to lay down their lives. The fiercest foe of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the Mohammedan world. As civil liberty opens the way to religious liberty and freedom of speech, the rumblings of the tottering structure will be heard wherever the muezzin call now summons to prayer.

From the Levant we turn to Africa, which is stretching out its hands unto God. In our West Africa Mission every Church and forty-one schools are self-supporting and Church membership is rapidly increasing.

In recent years the missionaries have been constrained to co-operate with every effort made to better existing conditions. The story of the atrocities still permitted by governments called Christian is known to every student of the world's current life. Recently two Presbyterian missionaries of the Southern Church have been involved in a suit for libel before the Belgian Court in the Congo Free State. We are glad to note that our Government's representative is keeping a strict and sympathetic watch of the situation, which demands the prayers of every Christian of the world who believes in righteousness upon the earth.

Passing to the far East, we find India stirred by two great influences. The Hindu peoples in that land are filled with a somewhat turbulent unrest, due to the appreciation of the fact that other Asiatic peoples are surpassing them in the race for self-government. It cannot be denied that these revolutionary tendencies are somewhat due to the seed-planting of the Gospel of Christ, whose fruitage is ever a growing place in the earth for liberty and all its fullest blessings in the life of the individual and the State. Therefore we rejoice to report that in the midst of this movement among the Hindu peoples an unprecedented work of grace is going on. The mighty Spirit of the living God has wrought a deep and lasting transformation in the lives of thousands of Indian Christians, and other thousands are realizing the unescapable conviction of the truth of the Gospel which follows such a work of grace. The striking characteristic of that movement is a deeper cleansing and a consecrated devotion to a life of prayer, which seems for the past four years to increase in its intensity with the passage of time.

Our survey bends down to the edge of the equator as we turn to study the report from Siam and the Laos country. Here, too, God has bared His arm with power. The Presbyterian Church is responsible for the evangelization of that entire country, since in the providence of God the field is practically left to us.

The Hon. Hamilton King, our Minister from the United States to the kingdom of Siam, made the statement to visitors in Bangkok that the one man recognized as having the greatest influence in the kingdom, outside of the royal family, is a Presbyterian missionary, Dr. Eugene P. Dunlap. It was through his personal influence, with the Court on the one hand and with the people on the other, that this sane and strong man secured the abolition of legalized gambling in the entire kingdom, excepting the one province in which the city of Bangkok is located.

The captain of one of the ships plying from Singapore to Hong Kong was speaking slightly to some of the passengers of missionaries in general. Too often this is the habit of these officials. The profanity that came naturally in his speech was an index to his character. One of the passengers asked, "Captain, how many missionaries have you met personally?" Then his countenance changed and in glowing terms he described a journey which Dr. McGilvary, of the Laos country, had made with him. He declared that the good Doctor was a glorious exception to the general rule of missionaries, but upon being pressed further he was compelled to admit that this was the only missionary he had ever actually known. Let the casual globe trotter take note.

When we turn to China the story is an amazing one. It has been said, and not denied by any one familiar with the facts, that China has witnessed a greater revolution in the last five years than it had known in the previous 5,000 years. Since the Boxer uprising the transformation is almost unbelievable. China has learned that its best friend in the world is our American Republic, whose great Christian statesman, John Hay, prevented its disintegration, and whose fine spirit of Christian justice, evidenced in returning the unused part of the Boxer indemnity, have both won the confidence and gratitude of the people. The promise of progress in the Christian propaganda was never so bright as now. During this year the great revival which has swept up into Manchuria from Korea has come into Northern China under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Goforth, a Presbyterian missionary from the Church of Canada.

Japan presents an interesting and critical situation. The rationalistic wave of a decade and more ago is being supplanted by a return to an evangelistic emphasis. This year Japan will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the coming of Christianity to its shores, and it is to be celebrated by a great evangelistic campaign which is to extend through the empire. A deepening prayer life has been God's preparation for this campaign. Not long ago the Japanese Christians were of the opinion that they have reached the place for autonomy in their work, and there was a danger that the desire for autonomy would affect their concern for evangelization. But the missionaries are wisely adjusting themselves to the situation, and the outlook is hopeful for steady progress toward Christianizing the nation.

The most thrilling story of the spread of the Gospel in Asia is told in the little hermit kingdom of Korea. This year they celebrate the first quarter centennial of the beginnings of Christian service in that country. No twenty-five years in the history of Christian Missions since the days of the Apostles can equal the actual record of numbers saved and of approach to self-support. The calibre of the Christians may be estimated by the fact that recently one village voted to sell their rice and live on millet until the next harvest. It would be as if this Assembly voted to substitute corn bread for our wheat loaf, in order to give the amount thus saved for the spread of the Gospel.

One more point of observation arrests our attention in the Philippine Islands. Whatever men may think as to whether we ought to have gone, or whether we ought to stay, there is only one thing to say about what we are doing while we are there. The Philippines bid fair to outstrip even Korea ere its quarter century is reached. In ten years we have a Church membership of 10,000 souls, and indications are bright for increasing progress in every phase of the work.

As we touch our own shores in returning from the Orient, we find that it has sent to us some of its people. On both of our coasts we now have established Mission Stations for work among these Orientals, and they are proving the right to be by the harvest of good coming out of their service.

Such is a sweeping glimpse of the field to-day as it waits for the Word of God, to know whom is life eternal. But as we read the story of the beginnings of the work, beginnings still after nineteen centuries of Christian history, and as we think of the hundreds of millions who have never had the first opportunity even to know of the Saviour of the world, shall we not hear our God speaking to us to-day to go forward in the task?

Shall we not respond to His call? Shall we not rise to the gigantic past with a new consecration—rise to the privilege with a great and splendid vision of His eager readiness to take us and use us to His glory? Shall we not rise to the opportunity with a heroic and undaunted faith in His omnipotent power to lift the whole round world by the golden chains of His redeeming love, until it is bound about the very throne of God?

"He is sounding forth his trumpet
Which shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men
Before His judgment seat.
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him,
Be jubilant, my feet;
Our God is marching on!"

Your Committee would offer the following

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Resolved, That we find the records of the Board to be accurately and attractively kept, and that they are approved.
2. Resolved, That the Rev. W. R. Richards, D.D., the Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., the Rev. John Fox, D.D., the Rev. E. E. Morris, D.D., the Rev. Charles Erdman, D.D., Mr. W. P. Stevenson and Mr. Scott Foster, whose terms of office expire, be re-elected in the class of 1909-12 and the election of Mr. Louis H. Severance in the same class be confirmed.
3. Resolved, That the Assembly expresses its hearty appreciation of the faithful services of the officers and members of the Board, who have brought it to the first place among the missionary agencies on this continent, and to the place of being recognized throughout the Mission world as unsurpassed in its wise and sympathetic administration of its affairs.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly reiterates the appreciation expressed by many former Assemblies regarding the remarkable devotion and continued success with which the Women's Boards and Societies are conducting their splendid work for Foreign Missions, especially during the year just past, in which their receipts exceeded those of any previous year by the sum of $39,611.

5. Resolved, That since two honored and beloved missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, stationed in the Kasai District of the Congo, the Rev. William H. Morrison (white) and the Rev. W. H. Sheppard (Africo-American), are about to be brought to trial before the Belgian Court in the Congo Free State on a charge of libeling a Belgian rubber company, and since the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., now in session, has appealed to President Taft and the State Department in their behalf, and it is reported that our Government will be represented at the trial, this Assembly hereby joins in the request to our Government to protect Drs. Morrison and Sheppard by seeing that they have a fair trial and a just verdict.

6. Resolved, That in view of the awakened interest and activity of the men of the Church in world-wide evangelization, manifest in the Laymen's Missionary Movement and other related efforts, such as the Every Member Campaign in Illinois, we would cordially commend these movements, and call upon all the men in our Church to join the growing ranks of Christian laymen who are marshaling for world conquest under the Cross of Christ.

7. Resolved, That we commend the work of the Westminster Guild as a new endeavor to develop an intelligent spirit of Missions among the special class of young women who are being interested in this movement.

8. Resolved, That in accord with the recommendations of former Assemblies for several years, the well-established custom be continued of requesting the Sunday-schools for a special offering for Foreign Missions at Christmas, and both Sunday-schools and churches for an Easter offering.

9. Resolved, That, in order to have our young people come to an adequate knowledge of the subject of the world's need of the Gospel, and the responsibility of the Church to meet that need, every Sunday-school provide adequate missionary education for all departments, taking advantage of the admirable helps presented by the Board.

10. Resolved, That we appeal to the whole Church, pastors, Sessions and people, to awake to the vision of the imperative need of the whole world for the knowledge of the only Saviour.

and to enter into a more earnest campaign of prayer, of stewardship and of service, that our Divine Lord may see of the travail of His soul and be satisfied.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, March 31, 1871, to September 30, 1908.

Born June 20, 1826.

Died September 30, 1908.

INTRODUCTION
TO THE SEVENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS
OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A.

The Board of Foreign Missions herewith presents its Seventy-second Annual Report to the General Assembly.

The portrait of Dr. Francis Field Ellinwood on the front-piece of the report records the fact that the Board has been called upon to mourn the loss of its beloved Secretary Emeritus, and reminds us of one whose life has been woven into the very fibre of missionary history. Until the very day of his death he continued his interest. With Christian character ever strengthening and intellectual acumen unabated, he watched the progress of the work, and when no longer able to take an active part he sustained it by his constant prayer. He died September 30, 1908, but to those who were privileged to know him he will ever be their inspiration and guide.

The spiritual results of the year have been the best in the history of the Board. The difficulty of obtaining complete reports from the Missions has been felt as in former years, so that the growth of the work numerically must be in part estimated. Ten thousand communicant members were added on the mission field last year; this year there have been approximately 14,409. These are but the first fruits of what will probably be an ever-increasing harvest. India, China, Africa and the Philippines report that there are signs of the coming of a wave of spiritual blessing like that which has already passed over Korea. Elat, in the African Mission, reports on a recent Sunday a congregation of 2,187 and a collection of 257 marks. Corresponding to the interest abroad, and not unlikely as a reflex of it, there has been a manifest awakening at home. The Laymen's Missionary Movement is carrying on its work with accelerated momentum and increasing power. The Churches of Canada have been roused as never before by a great Interdenominational Convention held in Toronto, and plans are now being projected for a Laymen's Campaign in the United States which is to touch the churches' life at the most strategic points. Powerful and helpful men's gatherings have also been held at Birmingham, under the auspices of the Southern Presbyterian Church, and at Boston, Mass., conducted by the Laymen's Mission, in which our Church gladly co-operated.

The work of the Board in the home field has been pushed with vigor and success. Special stress has been laid upon the need of systematic giving, and in the Eastern District a determined effort has been made to lift the Board's debt of last year. This attempt was born in the heart of the Chairman of the Pennsylvania Synod's Committee on Foreign Missions, and was heartily accepted by the Chairmen of the other Synods of the Eastern District. The Home Department of the Board and the Eastern District Secretary organized a well-equipped campaign and the result has been a substantial reduction in the deficit.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

In addition to this special effort for the deficit, the Eastern District has carried out plans for awakening and conserving the interest on the lines emphasized by the Forward Movement from the first. Aiming to have every member obey the will of the head of the Church to "go," either personally or potentially, by having a share by gift and prayer in the support of the Parish Abroad, campaigns of information and inspiration have been conducted through 297 churches, in fifteen Presbyteries. In this visitation, returned missionaries have co-operated effectively with the Secretary in charge of the district. The plan adopted last year by the Foreign Missions Committee of the Synod of Ohio, of having a returned missionary serve as its representative among the churches, under the immediate supervision of the Foreign Missions Committee of one Presbytery after another which arranged for such service, has this past year been pursued not only in Ohio, but likewise in the Synods of New York and Pennsylvania. With the co-operation of the Presbyterian Committees, a classification of the churches has been made, with a card catalogue showing the condition of the missionary interest in every church, both as to the organization and contributions. There are thirty-three whose Foreign Missions contributions average $5 or more per member, twenty-three of $4, thirty-six of $3, eighteen of $2.

The Leaders' Conference, which has been held for several years at Pocono, Pa., having reached the limit of accommodations available there, is transferred to Mt. Gretna, Pa., where this year's session is to be held, August 31 to September 5. At this conference special attention will be given to the laymen's part, as well as to mission study and the interest in Sunday-schools.

THE CENTRAL DISTRICT.

In the Central District the Omaha standard of $5 per member has been the gleam that has been followed. Those who have questioned the practicability of attaining this goal must modify their opinion, in the face of what has been achieved. The fact is that in many places this new standard has not only been attained, but is furnishing a new apologetic. It has been proved both practical and practicable. It is not only capable of being attained, but its attainment has been most successful in accomplishing the real object of church existence and organization. More than half a hundred churches have already enrolled themselves as having attained the standard. Others have set the standard before them for attainment and are steadily working up to the goal. Whole Presbyteries and Synods are at work under the leadership of laymen and ministers trying to urge this high aim. Not the least result of this effort has been the manifest revivification of many of the churches. In almost every case the churches report great spiritual delight and quickening. At times it has meant the salvation of the churches as truly as the salvation of the heathen world. It has enlarged their hearts and minds for all Home Missionary problems and obligations, it has brought great joy to the hearts of pastors and people.

THE WESTERN DISTRICT.

The Western District has not been able to give a complete report. Early in the year this district and the Church at large were called upon to suffer a grievous loss in the death of Rev. Dwight E. Potter, the efficient Secretary of the Pacific Coast. Overtaken by disease which had long threatened him, he worked as best he could until his strength failed, and then fell asleep with a prayer for the work he left upon his lips. His place has not yet been filled, but the work he planned has been carried forward by those who were associated with him. In Los Angeles a special effort was put forth under the leadership of the churches to reach a minimum of $5 per member. In connection with the campaign Dr. Halsey visited the Coast, as did also the Korean missionaries, who have been carrying on the special effort to meet the crisis in Korea. By this plan there has been little interruption in Mr. Potter's work, and there is a very real sense in which, though he has gone, his voice is not silent.

THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

The Southern District reports as follows: On account of the fact that much of the country is new, and because of the shifting of policy and pastoral changes, there have been peculiar difficulties in this part of the field. In spite of this, however, there are encouraging signs. There has been keen interest manifested since the meeting of Synods last Fall. The people are showing more interest at Presbytery, and reports of Committees are less formal and more pointed and practical. Pastors and churches are taking more pains to inform the members and to stimulate them to larger giving. The pastors, Sessions, ladies' missionary societies and Sunday-school superintendents are appointing regular members and are presenting carefully prepared programs for missionary meetings. The spirit of Missions is taking hold of the men in our congregations, and they are giving their time and service more freely than ever before. Summer conventions were held at Lebanon, Tenn., July 27 to 30, and at Marshall, Mo., August 19 and 20. An emphasis has been laid upon the following four points: (1) Educational. The formation of Mission Study Classes, and the distribution of literature. (2) Prayer Offerings. The formation of prayer circles in the local churches, to the end that these circles might become living sources of vitalizing spiritual power, and constant support of Missions and missionaries. About 50 per cent. of the Presbyterial Chairmen are now banded together in a prayer circle. (3) An Offering of Life. Pastors have been asked to preach on this subject and call for recruits. A number of young people have volunteered, and the Southern District hopes to be able to furnish within the next few years its quota of foreign missionaries. (4) Financial Offerings. The subscription method and the taking of separate subscriptions for Foreign Missions, possibly in weekly, monthly or quarterly installments, has been and is being urged before pastors, Sessions and Presbyteries. Upon the whole, while there are some discouraging things, such as the continued agitation of the Union question, litigation over proper division of congregation and communities, the wilful ignorance upon the part of thousands of our people, there are hopeful and encouraging signs, and we take courage and look forward to the new year with renewed energy and enthusiasm.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

The Study Class work of the Educational Department shows a marked increase during the past year. The total number of study classes for the whole last year was 1,200. This year there have been 1,005 classes during eight months—a change in the working year preventing a full report. In neither case do the figures represent all the work being done in the Presbyterian Church, since there are always many classes which do not send in reports. Still less do figures indicate the steady increase in the quality of the work done. Probably in no department of religious education has there been such careful study and application of the principles of pedagogy.

The Department has co-operated in the conference of the Young People's Department of the Presbyterian Church at Lake Winona in July, 1908, as well as in the usual interdenominational conferences at Silver Bay and elsewhere. Normal Classes have been personally conducted in several cities, in addition to briefer visits.

Two Foreign Missions text-books have been issued for the study class work among young people during the past season, instead of one as formerly—"The Moslem World," by Dr. S. M. Zwemer, and "The Why and How of Foreign Missions," by Dr. A. J. Brown. A pamphlet has been issued to accompany the latter, showing how its material can be presented at missionary meetings in a semi-dramatic form. Besides the usual carefully prepared helps for leaders which accompany the text-books, a booklet of nearly 150 pages has been published on the pedagogy of the study class. A text-book for a grade previously unprovided for is shortly expected from the press, "Servants of the King," by Mr. R. E. Speer, a series of biographical sketches written for young people from sixteen to eighteen.

Dr. Sailer has also taken up correspondence with those who are at the head of our educational work on the field, in order to aid them in obtaining the latest and best information as to method in planning their work. Much is hoped from this plan in enabling our schools to do the best and most efficient work at this hour of the great educational crisis now facing our Missions.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

In the Sunday-school Department encouraging advances have been made. Numerous conferences with Sunday-school workers have been held in the Eastern, Southern and Central Districts. The emphasis has been upon practical methods of missionary education, upon prayer and systematic giving and upon missionary service as a life-work for Sunday-school scholars. The result has been that many schools have undertaken definite missionary instruction, appointing missionary committees. In Lincoln, Neb., an interdenominational movement has been organized for the promotion of systematic missionary education in the local Sunday-schools.

In numerous Presbyteries the Chairman of the Foreign Missions Committee has assigned to one member of his Committee the responsibility of developing Missions in the Sunday-schools, and with such persons the Sunday-school Department of the Board is co-operating.

A very appreciable advance has been made in the number of schools using the special Christmas and Easter programs issued by the Board, and the contributions in consequence have increased accordingly. To these schools the "Station Plan" of giving is being presented, and its manifest advantages are being widely recognized, resulting in the adoption of this plan by an ever-increasing number. Special effort has also been made to get in touch with the non-contributing schools, with very gratifying results.

A new stereopticon lecture for Sunday-school use, entitled "Into All the World," was published last Fall and is in constant demand.

MISSIONARY PUBLICATIONS.

Besides the dissemination of information through special literature, the Board has sought to reach the churches through the Assembly Herald and All the World; this latter being a quarterly magazine generously provided for under the auspices of the Forward Movement Committee, and mailed free to those who contribute $5 a year for the Foreign Mission work of the Presbyterian Church; also through the women's magazines, Woman's Work and Over Sea and Land. The Missionary Record has been discontinued.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

At the beginning of the year the Board faced a particularly heavy responsibility. Not only did it have a larger budget to raise than heretofore (the original appropriations May 1, 1908, and those added during the year were $1,483,729.68), but in addition it was compelled to provide for the deficit of $170,731.55. Undaunted, however, by this task, the churches have been called to meet the responsibility, and while the result has not been to wipe out the deficit entirely, it has been such as to be a cause of profound gratitude to us all. The income for the year applicable on the appropriations was $1,487,160.77, as compared with $1,314,213.51 from the same sources the year before. We close the year with all obligations met and $65,250.55 paid on the deficit. In trying to discover the cause of this splendid increase on the part of the churches, it does not seem unfair to attribute a good deal of it to the manifest awakening on the part of the men and the steady growth of the habit of systematic giving. It would not be right, however, in speaking of the men's work, to fail to mention the fact that in all the six of the Women's Boards of our Church there has been a substantial increase; the sum total of their offerings being $460,730.16, as compared with $429,199.62 the year previous.

Taking the situation as it exists into account, it would seem that the financial outlook of the Board is distinctly brighter than it was a year ago, and the conditions of the country seem to be more favorable to enlarged giving than at that time. The Board has, therefore, increased the budget for the year 1910, fixing it at $1,235,000, to provide for the needed salaries of the missionaries, for home administration and for the increase of children's allowances. This will also provide for sending out a few new missionaries to fill the more urgent places made vacant by death and resignation. Under the above budget there is only provision of a 5 per cent. increase for additional native work. This is very small, considering the tremendous opportunity that is opening and the strong appeal which is coming to us from the different Missions to strengthen and enlarge the native work, and it provides nothing for residence or other necessary property requirements. It has also been found necessary to increase the children's allowance, as the added cost of living in these days has made it practically impossible to supply the needs.

It should be stated again that in the above provision no account has been taken of the requests for new property, which amounted in round numbers this past year to $660,448 in all the Missions. This can only be provided, as during the last year, by special funds given for these specific purposes.

THE MISSIONS.

The reports of the various Missions need not be recounted here in detail, as they are contained on the following pages. Several facts of very great significance, however, should be given. Mention should be made, first, of the almost universal report that has come from the different fields of increased interest and spiritual growth. The story of Korea does not need recounting; it has become known throughout the Christian world.

The Philippine Mission reports 10,000 adult communicants in the Presbyterian Church and 40,000 members of Protestant Churches.

Africa recounts a story of remarkable ingathering, and there are beginning to be reports of revivals from China and from India. In addition to the numerical ingathering, one should not fail to mention the growth in self-support that is being manifested from many of our Missions. In Africa practically all the churches are self-sustaining.

There are, however, other signs which are none the less pronounced, although a little harder to define. The most significant thing from the foreign field the past year has been the tremendous upheaval governmentally in the attempted establishment of the constitutional monarchies. While this report is going to press, the whole world is being stirred by the revolutions in Turkey and Persia. In the kind Providence of God, none of our regular missionary force has been involved in the massacres that have taken place. It would seem that in the coming of the new civilization and the breaking up of the old ice-bound rivers of political life, we could not avoid the devastation that so often marks the freshets of the Spring. The report from our missionaries in these disturbed lands is one long cry for help in order to meet the opportunities which these changing conditions present to them.

EDINBURGH CONFERENCE.

As last year we looked back and reported the centenary missionary conference and all that it meant as signifying the new spirit of church unity and advance along missionary lines, so this year our faces have been turned forward to the World's Missionary Conference which will be held in Edinburgh in the month of June, 1910. From the Prospectus of the Conference the following is of interest:

The twentieth century has opened a new and fateful chapter in the history of the world. The rapid progress in the unification of the world is one of the most startling features of our modern life. The problem of the relations of the different races to one another threatens to dwarf all other problems of the century. Some common ground on which men may meet in the spirit of brotherhood must be found if the world is to be saved from disastrous conflict, and the Christian Church is called to accomplish this tremendous task through the assertion of the unity of mankind in Jesus Christ.

The contact of the East and West is, at the same time, giving rise to a ferment of ideas in the world of human thought. It is hardly possible that the hoary civilizations of Asia should be subjected to the inrush of new ideas without an intellectual upheaval comparable to the movement that shook the life of Europe at the Renaissance, and possibly surpassing it in the far-reaching influence of its effects. Such a period of living mental activity at once affords an exceptional opportunity for the rapid spread of Christian ideas, and constitutes a peril that will make severe demands on the courage and faith of the Christian Church.

Of no less significance from the Christian point of view is the awakening of a new national spirit among non-Christian peoples. If enlightened and quickened by a true vision of Christ, this new spirit may be the means of regenerating the national life; while, on the other hand, if Christ should seem in the eyes of these peoples to be Western only, it may build up barriers that may exclude His Gospel from these lands for centuries.

While the new situation thus overwhelms us with a sense of crisis, it at the same time opens to faith the inspiring prospect of the completion of the body of Christ through the ingathering of the nations, and of a richer understanding of the Son of Man when sons of men among every people have found themselves in Him.

In the presence of so urgent an opportunity, the old motives impelling us to missionary effort gain an added strength. Our experience of the mercy of God in Christ, the command of our Lord, the crying need of the world, the love of Christ, these things still constrain us.

The magnitude of the issues at stake calls for conference. Among different branches of the Church there is a growing recognition of their obligation to the non-Christian world, and a deepening consciousness of the community of the task before them. The attempt must be to see the task as a whole, to question fearlessly the adequacy of existing efforts and methods, and to inquire earnestly how we may most worthily discharge our responsibilities. In our consideration of the problems that have to be solved, there is much that we can learn from one another. The experience painfully gained in one mission field will shed light upon the difficulties that are being met with in another.

In these circumstances there is large significance in the World Missionary Conference to be held in Edinburgh, June 14-24, 1910. About 1,200 of the most eminent Christian leaders of the world will be present, and the whole extraordinary situation will be studied anew. The purpose is not so much to congratulate ourselves on the achievements of the past as to consider defects and failures, and earnestly and prayerfully attempt to adjust our work and methods to the imperative needs of the hour. We commend the Conference to the special prayers of the Assembly and the Church.

MISSIONARY TOURS.

In September, 1909, there will be celebrated in Korea the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Korea Mission. Provision has been made through the generosity of a friend of the Korea Mission for one of the Secretaries to be present at that anniversary, and Dr. Brown will leave for Korea about August 1, to be gone for four and a half months. He will also be able to hold conferences with the missionaries in China and Japan, and take up with them some of the questions that are pressing for solution. In addition to this, the insistent appeal of the missionaries in South America for a Secretarial visit has been answered, and Mr. Speer will be away from the 5th of May until November, visiting all of the South American fields. As this is the first Secretarial visit to these fields, we are looking forward with great anticipation to the benefit which it will be to the Missions.

NECROLOGY.

The following missionaries have died during the past year:

- Mrs. Fred. H. Hope, West Africa—Appointed April, 1907; died May 2, 1908.
- Mrs. E. C. Lobenstine, Kiang-an Mission—Appointed June, 1902; died June 5, 1908.
- Mrs. William Calderwood, Punjab Mission—Appointed February, 1863; died June 29, 1908.
- Mrs. John Wherry, North China Mission—Appointed May, 1864; died August 25, 1908.
- Dr. Calvin W. Mateer, East Shantung Mission—Appointed December, 1860; died September 28, 1908.
- Rev. R. H. Sidebotham, Korea Mission—Appointed December, 1898; died December 3, 1908.
- Mrs. W. L. Berst, Hunan Mission—Appointed March, 1905; died December 11, 1908.

The Board was also called upon to bear the loss of one who had not only been a member for many years, but also the Vice-President of the Board, namely, Hon. Darwin R. James. After a short illness Mr. James passed away suddenly on November 19, 1908. A quiet and retiring man, but forceful because of a judicial mind and a quiet faithfulness that led him to fill every responsibility with unflinching constancy.

ELECTIONS.

Mr. Warner Van Norden was elected Vice-President of the Board to succeed Mr. James, and Mr. Louis H. Severance was chosen to fill the vacancy in the Board; his election being subject to the action of the General Assembly. The Board would respectfully request the confirmation of Mr. Severance's election and the re-election of the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire with this meeting of the Assembly:

REV. W. R. RICHARDS, D.D.,	REV. CHARLES R. ERDMAN,
REV. CLELAND B. McAFEE, D.D.,	MR. LOUIS H. SEVERANCE,
REV. JOHN FOX, D.D.,	MR. W. P. STEVENSON,
REV. E. E. MORRIS,	MR. SCOTT FOSTER.

EUROPEAN WORK.

The General Assembly of 1907 directed the Board to report to the Assembly as to the feasibility of active co-operation with other Boards in apportioning the work in Europe, with a view to the maintenance of the established work and the organization of new work. In 1908 a partial investigation of the subject led to a request for another year in which to give the matter further consideration and investigation. The whole matter has been taken up and a careful study has been made by the Board's Committee on Policy and Methods in connection with the Council. The following has been the outcome of the investigation, which was approved by the Board:

The Committee had before it the reports of the General Assembly's Committee on Presbyterian Work in Europe presented to the last two General Assemblies, with the resolutions adopted by the General Assembly. It had before it also (1) the resolutions adopted by the Annual Conference of Mission Boards of the United States and Canada in January, 1908, with reference to Mission work in Russia, and (2) letters from the Rev. George B. Matthews, D.D., Secretary of the Presbyterian Alliance; Rev. George Milne Rae, D.D., Convener of the Continental Committee of the United Free Church of Scotland; the Rev. Benjamin Bell and the Rev. James Mellis, Joint Conveners of the Intercourse Committee of the English Presbyterian Church; the Rev. J. D. Dickie, D.D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Berlin; Prof. G. Luzzi, of Florence, one of the foremost men of the Waldensian Church; the Rev. James T. Webster, Scotch Presbyterian minister in Budapest, Hungary; and the Rev. S. W. Beach, for some years minister among the students in Paris; (3) a paper by the Rev. F. Cisar, of Klubok, Moravia, on the Los von Rom movement; and (4) letters from the Rev. Charles E. Edwards, of Lathrop, Mo., with reference to the Protestant Normal College at Czaslau, Bohemia, accompanied by letters from Prof. Clemen, President of the International Committee for the Promotion of the Evangelical Churches in Bohemia.

The reports of the General Assembly's Committee on Presbyterian work referred to three questions: (1) Should the Presbyterian Church establish Foreign Missions on the Continent of Europe? (2) Should the Presbyterian Church give aid to the Reformed Churches on the Continent? (3) What should be done for the religious care of American residents in Europe, and for the assistance of the English-speaking churches now established?

The General Assembly, in adopting the Report of the Committee on Presbyterian Work, voted "That our Foreign Mission Board be requested and directed to report to the Assembly as to the feasibility of active co-operation with other Boards in apportioning the work in Europe, with a view to the maintenance of established work and the organizing of new work" (Minutes, General Assembly, 1907), and voted, further, "That should the Foreign Board decide to undertake this work (the maintenance of English-speaking churches for American residents and travelers in Europe) before the next meeting of the Assembly, this Committee (the Committee on Presbyterian Work on the Continent) be discharged as no longer necessary" (Minutes, General Assembly, 1908).

Your Committee recommends the following action:

I. That it is inexpedient at the present time for the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. to establish Foreign Missions on the Continent of Europe for the following reasons:

(a) The Presbyterian Church has already more foreign missionary responsibilities than it is discharging.

(b) The primary responsibility for work in Europe rests upon the Evangelical Churches of Great Britain and the Continent, which have recognized this obligation and which in turn leave the vast work to be done on the western hemisphere to the American and Canadian Churches.

(c) The establishment of Foreign Missions in Europe by the American Churches is regarded by the Evangelical Churches on the Continent and Great Britain as an unwise and harmful policy.

II. But there is need of friendly help in behalf of the Reformed Churches on the Continent, and the Evangelical Churches of Great Britain and America should show a large sympathy for their brethren in the Continental countries. The Board, however, cannot make any provision for such help out of its wofully inadequate income; but it is cordially ready to receive and forward any special designated gifts for these churches and their work, provided that the agents to whom the money is to be sent and the objects of work to which it is to be devoted are officially authorized by the highest ecclesiastical courts of the Churches concerned, and approved by the General Secretary and Executive Committee of the Presbyterian Alliance. In acting thus for these interests, the Board could not assume any responsibility beyond that of accounting for the receipt of funds and transmitting them to the authorized agent.

III. With reference to the Churches in Europe for American travelers and residents, it appears to the Committee that it would be unfortunate if each denomination were to establish churches in the various cities of Europe, as would be the case if each body is to seek to care separately for its own members or to do the work in question single-handed. It seems to us that this important work should be in the hands of an interdenominational Committee, like the Committee on the Religious Needs of Anglo-American Communities on Mission Fields, appointed by the Annual Conference of Foreign Mission Boards of the United States and Canada, which establishes and maintains union churches in the port cities of Asia, or, if this is impracticable, that it should be looked after by the Committee on European Work of the Western Section of the Presbyterian Alliance, in co-operation with the Continental Committee of the United Free Church of Scotland, which already maintains more than a score of Presbyterian congregations for English-speaking people on the Continent.

The Board would also report that the Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., while spending an extended time on the Continent, improved the opportunity for personal investigation of this matter of the work on the Continent of Europe. Upon his return he spoke with unquestioned endorsement of the action which this Board herewith recommends to the General Assembly.

The last General Assembly, through its Committee on Bills and Overtures, to which was referred the Report of the World Alliance of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, called attention to the Board to the religious needs of the English-speaking residents in heathen lands and the necessity of providing for them.

The Assembly urged the Board to solicit special funds for the work from those who have commercial interests in Eastern countries and to endeavor to place ministers in the several cities. The Board is happy to report that the matter has been taken up by the Conference of Foreign Mission Boards in the United States and Canada, and that this work has been put under the care of a special Committee which is efficiently carrying on the work.

In closing this report, the Board of Foreign Missions feels called upon to express its deep sense of responsibility as it realizes not only the great favor of God in the past, but also the tremendous opportunity which is being opened for the future. It would call the Church to an awakened sense of its duty and remind it that there are certain crises which, if met, become tremendous factors in the forward movement toward the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom, but which, if neglected, can never be improved again.

“There is a tide in the affairs of men
Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries.
On such a full sea are we now afloat;
And we must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures.”

WEST AFRICA MISSION.

Once more we are able to report that the Government authorities and the missionaries are working hand in hand for the amelioration of the people of Africa.

In Congo Francais the Commissioner General of the colony has co-operated with the missionaries in restricting the sale of liquor to the native peoples. Officials in Spanish Guinea have shown themselves most friendly to the work of the Mission. In German Kameruns the Governor was so pleased with the work done by the boys in the carpentry class at the Elat Industrial School that he offered to furnish employment at once to any of the graduates of the school.

The admirable report for the year presented herewith was written by a missionary and needs no comment. It speaks for itself. We commend it to all who rejoice in the progress of the kingdom.

Every church is self-supporting. Forty-one village schools entirely self-supporting. Church membership, the roll of inquirers, and church attendance on the constant increase. It has been a phenomenal year for the West Africa Mission. We can only thank God and take courage.

A new Station has been opened at Metet largely through the generous gifts of the missionaries themselves. It is to be manned at present entirely by native Christians. The total offerings from the native Christians for the year, in gold, amount to $5,889, and that from poor Africa!

The West Africa Mission is 66 years old. It has to do with a coast people who bear the mark of the Spanish, the Portuguese, the Dutch, the German, the French and the English these 300 years, and with a forest people of a primitive simplicity.

The fruits of a Mission that has to do with a coast people and a forest people are not uniform. But they are growing. Up and down the seaboard from Kribi to Gaboon in the native manned churches they are growing, and far and wide in the forest they grow. "The best year"—calls little Hanje Church by the sea—"that ever I had!" and from Elat, that young Station furthest inland, on the 1st of November there rose to God from out of the forest a song of praise 1,600 strong.

Truly the spirit of God is abroad in this land. The missionary would share the joy of this knowledge with the Church at home. He writes his report, he fills in the statistics so wonderful in his eyes, and he strives to recreate in words the life that he sees. But the best of it he may not communicate, the vital touch with the thousands of beach people—the thousands of forest people—who have paused in their fishing and in their hunting—in their trading and in their carrying—to think about the things of God and who have fallen to shaping their lives anew. May God give body to the report which is here, that the Church at home may see "with the eyes of the heart" the canoes that come by the waterways, the caravans that pass by the highways, the long files that come by the lesser paths out of the forest to the Stations. May these, and the lads and the girls busy with their simple lessons and the tools of honest labor, and the woman who ponders under the eaves of her hut or questions the missionary as he rests there at the noon hour, speak promise to those who care for the souls of their brethren.

They bring gifts. This has not always been so. Not so long since the African Church was thought to be the most impoverished and helpless of Churches, impotent from the standpoint of self-support. Four years ago there was formed the first committee on self-support; to-day the fifteen churches and the forty-one village schools are virtually self-supporting.

Corisco, the island mother of the churches, with her 100 members, comes up from the sea with her $300.

After her there follow the coast churches, rising from their long case, and after these the young churches of the forest, until the youngest of these at Lolodorf, sitting in the church she has built to her new found Lord, gives out of her primitive circumstance $155. Twenty-four hundred dollars is the treasure gathered from the sea and the forest in the past year by the fifteen churches, and this is marvelous in the eyes of those who report it and who four years ago had little enough to report.

Back again by the waterways and by the paths in the forest go the evangelists sent by the African churches to alien and once hated tribes. Back again go the young teachers to the forty-one bark-built school-houses, which the townspeople have built that their children may surpass themselves in knowledge, and where in the remote places of the forest there are found those who buy that true bread.

In these days there begins to be a great business in industrial training. It is a far cry from the little girls at the Baraka school, who wash and sew and plant and reap, to Elat, where two white men direct the planting in the great clearing about the Station, and the sawing out of lumber in the pits, the building of houses and the construction of furniture, where the carpenter class and the tailor class, having swiftly passed from the experimental stage, have no apologies to make but many promises to offer, and from whom the Station has already received a substantial beginning of benefits. Now shall the ivories and the ebony, the red-wood, the mahogany, the rattan, the cocoa, the rubber, and the latent powers of the race and their energies that lie waste, now shall these be cultivated and shaped to uses that shall benefit the Mission materially, and that shall immeasurably bless the people in the power to earn an honest way.

So much of progress we report in a work that has been inadequately manned—not adequately manned at any point, and at some points so pitifully manned as to transmute the mere holding on into a formidable achievement. Five or six years ago, before the short term of service and the better health conditions were in force, such a year of enforced effort as this last would have scored its tragedies. This year the Mission has been happily free from serious illness resultant upon work, with the exception of the illness of Mrs. Adams, who suffered a severe attack of hæmoglobinuria and who is restored.

On May 2, after a short illness, Mrs. Hope was called to God, and the Mission was left to mourn the loss of one whose young life promised much to the Master's service. During her few months in Africa she had won a warm place in the hearts of her associates, and it had been confidently expected that she would become one of the most useful members of the Mission. But God's ways are not our ways. We still feel her loss too keenly for many words.

WEST AFRICA MISSION.

ANGOM: on Como River, about 50 miles east of Baraka; opened 1881, closed 1898; reopened 1907. Missionaries—Rev. John Wright and Mrs. Wright, Rev. F. D. P. Hickman.

BARAKA: on the Gaboon River, near the Equator, 10 miles from the sea; occupied as a Station, 1842; transferred from American Board, 1870. Missionaries—Mr. E. A. Ford and Mrs. Ford, Mrs. T. S. Ogden, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Mrs. A. C. Good.

BENITO: 77 miles north of Baraka; occupied as a Station, 1864. Missionaries—Rev. J. S. Cunningham and Mrs. Cunningham, Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Pinney.

BATANGA: 170 miles north of Baraka, on the coast; occupied as a Station, 1885. Missionaries—Mr. A. G. Adams and Mrs. Adams, J. E. Blunden, M.D., and Mrs. Blunden, Mr. C. H. Funk.

EFULEN: 45 miles east of Batanga, behind the coast belt, and 180 miles northeast of Baraka; occupied 1893. Missionaries—Dr. Silas F. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Dr. W. H. Lehman and Mrs. Lehman, Mr. Geo. Schwab and Mrs. Schwab, Rev. L. D. Heminger, Rev. W. C. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, Mr. Jacob A. Reis, Jr.

ELAT: 38 miles east of Efulen and 195 miles northeast of Baraka; occupied as a Station, 1895. Missionaries—Mrs. C. W. McCleary, Rev. A. N. Krug and Mrs. Krug, R. M. Johnston, M.D., and Mrs. Johnston, Rev. Wm. M. Dager and Mrs. Dager, Rev. M. Fraser, Mr. F. H. Hope and Mrs. Hope.

MACLEAN MEMORIAL STATION: at Lolodorf, headquarters of the German Government in the Ngumba country, 70 miles northeast of Batanga and 210 miles northeast of Baraka; occupied as a Station in 1897. Missionaries—Mr. R. B. Hummel and Mrs. Hummel, Rev. F. O. Emerson and Mrs. Emerson, Dr. H. L. Weber and Mrs. Weber, Mr. F. B. Guthrie.

METET: 73.5 miles northeast of Elat; opened 1909. Work carried on by natives.

RESIGNATIONS: R. M. Johnston, M.D., and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. T. S. Ogden.

DEATH: Mrs. F. H. Hope.

TRANSFERS: Dr. and Mrs. S. F. Johnson from Efulen to Angom; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lehman from Efulen to "MacLean"; Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Weber from "MacLean" to Efulen; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schwab from Efulen to Elat; Mr. F. Guthrie from "MacLean" to Elat.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Mrs. W. M. Dager, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Lehman, Rev. Melvin Fraser, Mrs. Geo. Schwab, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Johnston.

ANGOM STATION.

Angom was opened two years ago after a closure of several years. This Station, situated on a branch of the Gaboon River, sixty-five miles from the coast, has easy access by waterways to a large territory and to tribes not yet corrupted by contact with the vices of civilization. The Fang people have exhibited during the past year an increasing interest and a spirit of helpfulness. From many little Macedonias on the riverways has come a call for help. But this has been a hard year at Angom Station. The force from January to June consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, and from September to November of Mr. Wright and Mr. Hickman. The river work and the Station are served by the launch "Dorothy," and she has been under repairs at Baraka a large part of the year. The missionary in charge of the launch is not a machinist, but he has all the air and all the duties of such during the months from June to November. It was a happy day for the members of Angom Station when the "Dorothy" "lived" again.

EVANGELISTIC.—During those months when the missionaries were at the Station all regular services were held. The meetings of the inquiry class were marked by an increased interest on the part of the boys and young men. Eight young men expressed their desire to become Christians. Communion services were held in the upper river villages. Robert Boardman, the blind Mpongwe catechist, came and went among the Fang villages throughout the year.

EDUCATIONAL.—Two terms of school were held, the first of three months with an enrollment of forty; the second of six weeks with an enrollment of thirty. All the school children were secured within a radius of fifteen miles of the Station. A petty war between two of the towns on the road leading to the interior prevented the children from coming to school from that direction. No French was taught in the school during the first term, but the second term fared better, for Baraka loaned this Station a young Mpongwe lad, trained in their school, who conducted a French department. The experience of the Station this year confirms that of the past and deepens the sense of dependence upon the launch as a means of working this great region of waterways.

BARAKA STATION.

Baraka Station has been established for over sixty years among one of the most intelligent and gentle of the West Coast tribes.

The force consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Ford for the first part of the year was increased in July by the arrival of Miss Mackenzie. One man at a Station cannot successfully maintain all the varied forms of work, but there has been encouraging progress along certain lines.

EVANGELISTIC.—Eighteen months ago Licentiate Ntuakero died of the sleeping sickness, leaving the Baraka Church without a pastor. This year the 118 church members, under the leadership of the evangelist Iguwi, have met to worship, have brought in of their little savings to the amount of $139, have gone about the villages speaking the word of God, unshepherded but not unblest. Four members have been added to the church. The church services have been conducted in the main by Iguwi, and to the missionaries has fallen the care of the catechumen classes, the teachers' class, the English and the French Bible classes. Of a Sunday afternoon thirty or more of the church members have held meetings in the villages assigned to their care. It is believed that the eight new members of the catechumen class are the fruits of these meetings. The women continue to hold weekly meetings in the villages.

The Woman's Missionary Society has studied this year the work of the different Boards of the Presbyterian Church, that they might gain some sort of simple knowledge of the duties and responsibilities of Christians. To this end material gathered in English is given to those of the women who are able to translate it into their own tongue, and many of them do this very creditably. The monthly offering has amounted this year to $20.

EDUCATIONAL.—Believing the supreme need of the tribes in this vicinity to be the education and the consecration of their young—that there may be men and women to take the place of those servants of God who have led their people in the past—the Station has concentrated on the school work every member of the force and has worked to this end, and the result has been gratifying. A more fixed and practical curriculum has been achieved, a more regular attendance has been enforced and a fee of 30 cents per month has been collected, no mean sum in the hands of a Mpongwe, nor in the hands of the Station, where it has amounted to $147.

The assistant teacher, a young Mpongwe and a Baraka schoolboy, has held the first place in the night class of the Government Normal school. He is a skillful and a helpful teacher. Among the thirty odd boys and the girls who have been in the school this year there should be some who will prove to be leaders and helpers of their people. Given continuity and the Baraka School will demonstrate with honor.

INDUSTRIAL.—The boys have been busy at a hundred necessary jobs overcoming the common African enemies—growth and decay—they have cut down and they have repaired. It has not been possible to give them technical industrial training. The girls have fared well. They have been thoroughly trained in cooking, sewing washing and ironing. Their skill along these lines has been profitable to the amount of $21.

RELATIONS TO THE GOVERNMENT.—These have continued to be cordial, the Lieutenant Governor giving practical evidence that he is ready to co-operate with the Mission in promoting the physical welfare of the people. Gentil, the Commissaire General of the colony, to whom the Station presented last year a petition on behalf of the restriction of the liquor traffic, has enacted decrees largely increasing the import duties and the internal revenue on liquor as well as the cost of a license to sell, and prohibiting the sale, the distribution or detention of spirits for trade throughout the greater portion of the colony.

BENITO STATION.

Benito Station was established forty-four years ago. Situated at the mouth of the Benito River, where few steamers call, it is perhaps the most isolated of the Stations in this Mission. The force this year has consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham—Mr. Cunningham having oversight of the coast churches from this point and conducting a theological class at the Station—and of Dr. and Mrs. Pinney, who have had charge of the school and medical work.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Benito district comprises six of the elder churches of the Mission. God, who has seen fit at this time to manifest His power in the work of self-support in this Mission, has signally distinguished the Benito district in this manifestation. And this not along the lines of least resistance. The Church at home cannot know with what wonder the Church on the field has seen the elders outrun their juniors in a race for which the juniors may be said to have trained from the start. One of these churches, whose contributions last year amounted to $28, comes in this year with a sum of $265. The report from the Benito district jingles with Spanish pesetas like a pocket full of money, and that sound is a more than material music in the ears of the Mission. God has added souls to these six churches—here a score, there twoscore, and in none less than ten. Many who were once Christians and who fell away are coming back in repentance. The three licentiates who are students in the theological class have shared with the native ministers in the care of this district. There is a fine tale of the minister of the church at Evunc, where there were no benches. He, with his elders, went into the forest and felled the timber for pews and now there is no lack. Coast personages do not commonly stoop to menial service, but Mbula Ngubi and his elders are followers of a Carpenter.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Spanish teacher is well under way and has a thriving school where so long for the lack of the one there was lack of the other. Fifty-six boys and forty-five girls are here busy at their books, their industries, their conformities to the law and order which are to make them new men and women. Many of these are the children and the grandchildren of Christians who were made to be what they are in this old Station.

INDUSTRIAL.—These children have planted cocoa trees and plantains, have gathered building material, and have sold palm-oil, palm-nuts and cocoa to the amount of $44. The girls have been taught to wash, iron, mend and sew.

MEDICAL.—Now the half of a doctor's time is at the service of the people who have suffered the lack of a physician's care throughout the history of the Station. They work their half man hard; 1,800 patients have received a sum of 3,300 treatments, and have paid for what they have received. The receipts for the year amounted to $290.

GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS.—The Spanish Government continues to look with favor upon a Mission which employs a Spanish teacher who never spares himself in the exercise of all courteous observance.

BATANGA STATION.

Batanga Station is the business centre of the Mission. Here is stationed the Treasurer and here are received all the provisions which make possible the Stations of the Kamerun interior and which must be repacked to loads and carried in on the backs of men. Caravans to the number of something over 1,000 men have been in and out of Batanga during this year. No adequate report can be made of the work entailed by the handling and the loading of such caravans.

The year opened with a force of five missionaries: Mr. and Mrs. Hummel, in charge of the educational work; Dr. and Mrs. Blunden, the doctor in charge of the medical work, and Mr. Hickman acting as Mission Treasurer. Early in the year Mr. Funk, the new German teacher, relieved Mr. Hummel, and later, on the return from furlough of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. Adams relieved Mr. Hickman. These missionaries thus released went to their appointed Stations.

EVANGELISTIC.—Two of the three churches in the Batanga district have the largest membership in the Mission. Kribi Church, with its membership of 269; Batanga Church, with 394, and Ubenji, with 109, have been under the care of native pastors. During this year there have been more suspensions than additions; yet there has been a vital life in these churches, particularly under Ndenga and Bodumba at Batanga, where thirty-nine members were received. The services everywhere have been well attended and there is a large record of infant baptisms. Self-support has made a gain of fifty per cent. this year, and the churches have been active in the employ of Bible readers and the support of out-stations. This active interest in the things of God is very appealing among a people who are yet feeble in their spiritual life and mistaken in their Christian conduct, and who deeply need the care of a white minister.

EDUCATIONAL.—The school with 132 pupils has had a good year. Ninety of these pupils are studying German, having advanced from the vernacular grades. Eight village schools are supported in the Batanga district. Of the 290 enrolled in these a third are girls.

Industrial work is lacking at this Station where the need of it is keenly felt.

MEDICAL.—The doctor reports the best year in his African experience. Over 2,400 cases have come under his care this year. The hospital, consisting of four wards, has been full; nineteen operations have been performed and during the greater part of the year the surgical ward has had patients waiting their turn for admission. Some of the patients have come from 100 miles distance.

A glimpse at one case will show to what extent the doctor must depend upon physical signs alone in order to make a diagnosis. In answer to questions from the doctor, the patient replied that as he was walking along the road one day he met a company of men, one of whom had thrown a leopard's whisker at him. This had struck him in the breast and ever since then he had been ill. Upon examination his complaint was found to be chronic bronchitis. When the doctor had given him relief he went back to his town rejoicing and marveling that the missionary doctor could cure a man even though he had been hit by a leopard's whisker.

Receipts for the year amount to more than $900, $500 of which were from white patients, who are numerous and important in this neighborhood.

EFULEN STATION.

Efulen, now in its fifteenth year, is the oldest of the interior Stations. For the first few months of this year the force consisted of Dr. and Mrs. Silas Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Schwab. Later Dr. and Mrs. Weber succeeded the Johnsons, who left on furlough. The Webers went back to their appointed Station when Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Johnston returned from a long inland itineration. In July Mrs. Schwab was sent home by the doctor's orders, and in that same month there arrived Dr. Lehman from America and Rev. Mr. Heminger from Elat.

EVANGELISTIC.—Efulen church life in the early part of the year was cold, but there came at last a quickening, the attendance at Sabbath services increased and inquirers came by the score. After the July Communion, Session examined over fifty persons desiring to pass from the first to the advanced company of inquirers. At the close of the year the church numbers 125 members, thirty-three of whom have been received during the twelve months.

There are on the roll of the two catechumen classes 518 names, which is an advance of 146 over last year. Of this number over 100 are in the advanced class. The work of these classes has, during the year, assumed a more definite form: after each Communion service, Session examines persons who have been for one year in good standing in the first class, and who desire to be advanced to the second. When Session has passed upon them favorably, they are publicly received into the advanced company. If at that time any one, either in that company or in the church, knows of anything inconsistent in the lives of these persons they are asked to state it, and the candidate is not advanced. At the last Communion three persons were refused advancement after they had been accepted by the session.

The church has placed evangelists at ten different villages as centres from which to work. This plan has commended itself as giving a more definite form to village evangelization and the work of itineration. There have not been men to work in these places continually, but the placing of men in a town, for a month at a time, has done much to start a work that will give the mother Church abundant scope for her efforts in the future. Four of these places are among the Ntum people and have proved to be hard fields and as yet unfruitful. Four neighborhoods, other than those to which evangelists have been sent, are coming to be centres of Christian work through the efforts of those of the towns-people who are Christians. In one of these the people have built a little chapel for their Sunday services. It is noteworthy that from districts where leading men have become Christians many men are coming as inquirers, while from other districts where the Christians are women the returns are in women and boys. The church is endeavoring to draw the men of the latter districts by sending to them some of her strongest men as evangelists. Small need to ask what the church has done with the surplus of her $139, when to the aid which she has given to the village schools is added the charge of evangelization.

The meetings among the women of Efulen district have been practically discontinued this year, with the exception of those held at the Station. The work among women is very dear to this Station, which has asked the Mission to make the following report to the Church at home:

"There are eighty women and girls in school and several hundred more in the villages about us, who very much need the help and care of a woman in town visitation. It is even more important now than in the earlier stages of the work that these girls have proper supervision, if we are to have Christian homes in the future. The neglect of this phase of the work must result in a telling weakness in the structure we are building."

The women of this region develop into a strong Christian type. "If women can be elders," said one of the Efulen elders, "I nominate Zamo."

EDUCATIONAL.—The school, with its enrollment of 260, has passed the best year in its history. The effort and the results have been intensive, rather than extensive. The continued labor of a German speaking teacher has formed and established the advanced work of the German school, which this year produced its first graduates. After a thorough examination in arithmetic, composition, grammar, sight reading and translation, geography and church history, three of the first class of six were graduated. These three young men are all members of Efulen Church, in good standing and of splendid character, of whom the Mission may be proud.

Six to eight town schools have had an average attendance of forty-five each. Three schools for women have been established in neighboring villages. These were in session for three afternoons of the week from 3 o'clock until 4.30—a time most convenient for the hard-working women. Many of the women brought their babies with them. A delightful picture this—the mother with the infant at her breast, struggling with the mysteries of the alphabet.

INDUSTRIAL.—Last year's rubber and this year's planting do well. The girls plant and sew and make their modest profits. The carpenter class of four apprentices, under a native instructor, has been immensely useful. A report of their earnings, which have covered their expenses, would underestimate by a great deal their value to the Station in economy of white men's time. Two of the boys promise to prove excellent workmen.

MEDICAL.—The medical work of this Station passed from hand to hand until in July it settled to continuity under the appointed physician. The record of treatments in the last five months is 1,900, and the receipts for the year, $485.

ELAT STATION.

Elat Station has closed its thirteenth year, a year of grace in our Lord. The force during the first part of the year consisted of Rev. M. Fraser, Mrs. McCleary, Dr. R. M. Johnston and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Hope. In April Mr. Fraser left for his furlough. Mr. Heminger then took charge of the church work until the arrival of Mr. Dager in July, when he went to his appointed Station. In May Mrs. Hope died. During the same month Mr. and Mrs. Krug arrived from America, and in June Dr. Johnston and family left for furlough. Shortly after this Mr. Guthrie returned from Lolodorf.

EVANGELISTIC.—The church has grown rapidly. Twenty-nine have been received into membership—the careful siftings of the hundreds who are believers. Five hundred ignorant of the Gospel have come for counsel about the way of life. The average attendance at Sunday services is over 800. Eight times during the year it has been over 1,000; and on November 1 there were 1,600 people present. The church was enlarged during the year to a total of 1,475 running feet of seats and on this Sunday in November there was an allowance of eleven inches to the individual. Very moving will be these statistics to those who read them with a sense of the primitive forest people of whom they are the sum. Some of these have come two days' journey to spend a Sunday at the Station. A guest house is at the service of women from a distance. Here they are visited by the Christian women, black and white, and learn new things of God.

The pastor has been free during a temporary suspension of his theological class to go about the villages among his people. This he has done as their guest, "eating their bread and salt," sitting with them under the eaves of their houses, sleeping many nights on their pole beds, until "the lives that they lived were his" and he could speak to them out of an intimate knowledge of their needs, of their conduct, and of their Lord.

In the dry season of May and June six companies of two native Christians went by as many paths on journeys of itineration. The sum of people to whom these twelve Christians spoke was 25,000. The caravan house which was completed six months ago on the Station grounds has lodged since then 4,100 passers-by, and under its shelter the evangelist in charge has preached to more than 8,000 people from a distance.

The village school-teachers are all Christians. They go out armed with the Word and they bring back their captives with them.

Thus by many courses the water of life flows out from the Station. That God has blessed this work the results would indicate, not only in that the church overflows of a Sunday, but in that the people are more willing to right the wrongs they have done their fellow-men; not only in that the Station reaches more people than ever before, but in that these are emerging into the light of the beauty of right living. Each of the twelve collections during the year has represented a contribution of a little more than a day's rations from every member of the audience.

EDUCATIONAL.—The school work has been on a growing scale. The school for men and boys, with an enrollment of 400, and that for women and girls, with an enrollment of 120, have had a very high average attendance and have paid in tuition to the amount of $237. One-third of the boys enrolled at the opening of the last term were graduates from the village schools, and have justified in their good average the trust laid upon the young lads who taught them.

Those of the scholars who have mastered the vernacular graduate into the German classes, where they receive a simple and practical knowledge of German. There are over ninety lads in the German classes. The classes in the vernacular are taught by the prospective village teachers, who are drilled in a normal class before the morning session. The forty boys who have received such instruction during the year have shown an encouraging degree of aptitude. Fifteen of these are now doing satisfactory work at the head of as many village schools from thirty to fifty miles distant from Elat. Many towns are ready to support schools, some at a distance of ninety miles, and to these outgoing Bulu boys will be given to bear the lamps of education and salvation.

Girls and women to the number of 120 have formed the largest girls' school in the history of the Mission. Many of the women have home duties; their education must not interfere with these, and they have carried double burdens.

INDUSTRIAL.—Industrial work under two equipped missionaries has made tremendous advances in the year. In the department of agriculture gardens of plantains, taro, cassava, corn, and peanuts were planted. These with pear, orange and pawpaw trees, will go far toward feeding the several hundred school-children next year. An experiment is being made with cocoa. A large swamp that menaced the health of the Station has been drained.

The tailor class, consisting of seven apprentices under a master tailor trained in the United Presbyterian Mission of the Scotch Church at Old Calabar, has been a success from its formation in April. Natives, traders and Government officials have entered more orders than the class has been able to fill. One hundred suits, fifty-nine shirts, seventeen dresses and innumerable non-descript garments have left the class with a profit of $88 in cash and $150 in material.

The carpenter class consists of nine apprentices. The Governor of the colony, who visited the Mission this year, was so pleased with the work of this class that he offered to employ all graduates. One of the two who had finished their apprenticeship went with him, the other chose to stay another year with the class. The course comprises the making of furniture of the native woods and of rattan, the working of ivory and ebony, and the building of houses.

The class has been unable to fill all the orders that have come in, and has made a profit in cash and in material of $350. To this should be added the immense service rendered by the class to the Station in building, with the aid of the school-boys, eleven houses and an addition to the church. The report from the industrial department, with its measurements, its tale of material, its account of the uses to which the building are designed, reads like the building of a town. In August four houses went up in smoke, and before the embers were gray the boys were off in the forest cutting timber for rebuilding.

Thus it will be seen that industrial training of the African has no apologies to make, and many benefits to confer, both to the Mission and to the race which is the reason of its being.

MEDICAL.—No medical report can be forthcoming from a Station which has been without a physician the greater part of the year; and no argument is needed to prove the need of one in such a settlement as Elat has come to be.

MACLEAN MEMORIAL STATION.

MacLean is the youngest of the three interior Stations, and is situated on one of the great highways by means of which the German Government is opening up the colony. In one day of the dry season, more than 500 carriers will pass this Station and rest in the palaver house, where a Christian will be telling wonderful things of God. Many tribes meet here, and in the secret places of the forest of this neighborhood there are communities of dwarfs.

The force at the beginning of this year consisted of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Weber and Rev. and Mrs. F. O. Emerson, who were joined in February by Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Hummel, and in May by Mr. F. B. Guthrie, who left for Elat in July.

EVANGELISTIC.—On the first Sunday of the year the Lolodorf Christians met in the church which they had built and for which they had paid. They rejoiced in a surplus of $5. In that bark building, with its leaf thatch, there have been held since then regular services, five of which were notable. At the Communion services and the service of dedication, there have been 900 people present, coming from a radius of thirty miles. Seventy-six of this audience are members of the church, thirty of whom were admitted this year; 100 more are in preparation for admission, members of the advanced inquiry class; 300 more are members of the second inquiry class, that class which deals with the beginnings of Christian living. The church has supported a work of native evangelization which has been conspicuously successful. Four members of the Ngumba tribe, three of whom are ministerial candidates, and one an elder, have gone their several ways of service among the Ngumba, among the Yaunde, among the Bulu and among the dwarfs. God has wonderfully blessed them all. One of these and his wife spent three months of the year among the dwarfs, living with them in their shelters, following them in their wanderings, and proving by the self-sacrifice of their lives the sincerity of their mission. Curiously enough, the men and the boys were less slow of heart than the women; they were glad to hear the Word and were unwilling to let their Ngumba missionaries go. "Many of the men begin to believe," says Ngbwa; but there has been no open confession. Yet there have been preliminary tests of Christian living; days of hunting when no hunting "medicine" was made; tentative childish ventures upon the tide of God's love.

The missionaries have spent some fifty nights in itineration. Companies of school-boys have been sent out over the week ends, and have spoken on a single trip to as many as 1,000 people. The palaver house is supplied with an evangelist supported by the church, and who shall say how far, and by what obscure paths, the news travels, or how many carriers ponder these things, and keep them in their hearts.

EDUCATIONAL.—The school has had an enrollment of 207, seventy-seven of whom are in the German grades. The advanced of the German classes have arrived at an intelligent reading of their Bibles in German—a far journey. The twenty-three members of the normal class have been contracted to a term of three years' study, followed by three years' teaching. The closing session of this class, of which many of the members were on their way to open village schools, was impressive, as the importance of their educational and evangelistic mission was laid upon them. That the lads are alive to these responsibilities is witnessed by their letters: "I rejoice greatly because many people come to service," writes one. "Two hundred and eight people were at meeting. We usually have more than that," writes another. Fifteen village schools are in session at this writing.

In May a girls' school was opened at the Station, and the second term closes with thirty-five in regular attendance.

In the "boys' town" of the Station, where in the past the boys have cooked and eaten individually and indiscreetly, there has been built a combination cooking and dining-house where the boys assemble at the stroke of a bell. At a signal they take their places and grace is said. To the physical benefit of well-cooked food is added the moral effect of decency and mannerliness.

INDUSTRIAL.—The industrial work has belonged to none, and has passed through the hands of all; it has not been planned, it has happened. The needs of the black and white people resident of the place have driven the industries. A shortage of food in the neighborhood has forced the work of the farm, which has yielded good returns in peanuts, corn, taro and fruits. About 300 rubber trees have been obtained from the seed and oil-palm trees have been planted on the boundaries. In a new clearing, rice has been planted, and plantains set out.

A class of four apprentices under a master carpenter from the Basle Mission at Duala was organized at the beginning of the year. These are contracted for three years without pay, and are required to buy their own tools. With the help of this class, there have been built a dwelling house, a palaver house, a refectory and several smaller houses.

Thus the class, young as it is and conceived primarily for the benefit of the people, has yet been of large material assistance to the Station.

MEDICAL.—The medical report is a record of 4,300 patients who have received treatment, and 2,800 who have received medical dressing. These have come from far and near in the forest, with the price of medicine—a chicken in a basket, eggs in a leaf bundle, a bunch of plantains in hand. Many operations, major and minor, have been performed. Here, as in the other hospitals of the Mission, morning prayers have been held and individual evangelistic work has been done.

GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS.—The Government Station at Lolodorf has passed during the year through the hands of five officials. From Ober-Lieutenant Achenbach, who died in February, to Herr Stoessel, the present incumbent, missionaries have received unvarying kindness. Ober-Lieutenant Achenbach was attended in his last illness by the Mission doctor. His young wife stayed at the Mission after his death, and was accompanied by the doctor on her way out from that country in which she was the only white woman not a missionary, and where she had come to be known by the black people as a friend.

FURTHER INLAND.

On January 24 there started out from Efulen a caravan of twenty people, two of whom were white. This was a company of Christians bound for a region some 200 miles inland. Of these travelers only Mr. W. C. Johnston and his wife did not carry burdens, the rest were laden. On the 13th of April the caravan returned, having covered hundreds of miles. By what forest ways they went—in what populous and obscure villages they camped—what burning words they spoke and to what thousands of people—it is not in the scope of this report to tell. Nor of the incidents by the way, nor of the evenings before the tent door, when the members of the caravan met together for counsel, when they gave account of their several adventures, and spoke to the missionary of the deep things of God which had opened up before them as they talked to the people by the way.

This expedition is the last and the most exhaustive of several such, which have covered the same territory, and is the expression of the conviction of the Board and of the Mission that God calls us inland.

The Board of Foreign Missions at its meeting February 15, 1909, passed the following resolution:

"The Board approved of the action of the West Africa Mission in re the purchase of the property for the new Station at Metet, as embodied in the following action of the Mission:

"The explorations recommended by the Mission at the last Mission meeting have been made. After spending more than two months in the Bene country the two members of the Committee designated for that work decided upon the site two miles east of Metet. The site has also been visited during the year by Mr. Dager. We have an option on a site including about 200 acres of ground for 200 Marks, the option running one year from April 1, 1908, to April 1, 1909.

"Your Committee would recommend:

"First—That we purchase the Metet site, the money being given by the members of the Mission.

"Second—That we ask the Board to authorize this purchase and accept this property as Mission property.

"Third—That a native force be placed on the site to open evangelistic and school work, this work to be supported by the Bulu churches.

"Fourth—That the present New Site Committee be discharged and a new Committee of three, including the Chairman of Mission Meeting, be appointed to supervise the work at the new Station during the year.

"Fifth—That buildings, including school and house for native helpers, be erected on the site. These buildings, including clearing, not to cost more than 300 Marks. This money to be given by the missionaries."

"Report and recommendations accepted by the Mission."

Metet is 73.5 miles northeast of Elat, and 100 miles northeast of Lolodorf. The country roundabout is as thickly settled as the average Bulu country. Some thirty-five miles north of Elat there is a rather marked line showing a different tribe of people. At this point you reach the "Beti," who speak a language that is akin to the Bulu. The differences are merely of dialect. These people extend north sixty or seventy miles to the Yeôndé country, and about the same distance east and west. On the east side up the Nlong River the people understand Bulu for more than a hundred miles from Metet.

Further inland is a people called the "Makai," whose language does not differ from the "Makuk" tribes about Lolodorf. The Makai are still cannibals. When the Committee visited these people a report was circulated that very recently three people had been killed and eaten.

The new Station of the West African Mission is in a needy field.

MISSIONS IN CHINA

MISSIONS IN CHINA.

The year has seen a continuance on an even vaster scale of the remarkable changes which have characterized recent years. National feeling is being intensified. Railways and telegraphs are being rapidly extended, there being already 3,746 miles of railway in operation and 1,622 miles under construction; while the telegraph system aggregates 34,000 miles.

The death of the Emperor and the Empress Dowager, the accession of the infant Emperor and the Prince Regent, and the dismissal of Yuan Shih Kai were startling in their suddenness and significance. Many had supposed that the death of the powerful Empress Dowager would result in an outbreak of revolutionary agitation looking to the overthrow of the Manchu Dynasty and the enthronement of a Chinese. Great excitement prevailed in many parts of the Empire and for a time rumors of trouble were rife. Scanty crops in the north and floods and typhoons in the south, bringing millions of people to the verge of famine, intensified the agitation, as the calamities were believed to be due to the displeasure of the gods. But no serious outbreak occurred and the new Government quickly became established. The fall of Yuan Shih Kai was a great disappointment to many friends of China, for while he was not lacking in faults, he was generally regarded not only as the ablest man in China, but as the real leader of the reform movement. It was feared that his dismissal might result in reactionary tendencies; but thus far the new Government appears to be disposed to be fairly progressive.

While there is some concern lest the new national feeling may in time affect the readiness of the people to respond to influences from the West, the year has been characterized on the whole by a marked willingness to hear the preaching of Christianity. It is true that the students of several Mission schools have shown a new spirit of insubordination; but firm and tactful treatment by the missionaries in charge has averted serious trouble, and in general our schools are fuller than ever before. As a rule, too, churches and hospitals have the widest possible opportunities, and our printing press at Shanghai finds it impossible to meet the ever-increasing demands upon it.

A gratifying feature of the situation is the manifest growth of the native Church, and with it the development of the spirit of self-support and self-government. There is now a well-established Chinese Church. It is yet small in proportion to the vastness of the population, but it is full of vigor and promise. It is rapidly coming to a sense of self-consciousness. This phase of the question is not without anxiety, for it involves problems of the relationship of the native Church to the foreign Mission which are delicate and occasionally embarrassing. However, the door of opportunity in China is now wide open to missionary influence, and it is increasingly evident that this is the time for the home Church to press its mission work to the very utmost, for no one knows how long the present unprecedented opportunity may continue.

At the Federation Meeting in Shantung a year ago, attention was called to the fact that there were Chinese Christians from many quarters in Vladivostock for whom there was no church provision. The Rev. George Cornwell, of our East Shantung Mission, and Elder Hiei Pao Kie went to Vladivostock to investigate and found quite a nucleus of believers. Mr. McMullan, a business man of Chefoo, generously offered to finance the undertaking. One of our pastors, Hwang Ping Fu, who has been for ten years in charge of one church, contemplates going to Vladivostock on this mission, though definite plans have not yet been completed. Another interesting fact is the organization of a missionary society by the Chinese Presbyterians of Shantung Province. They hope to send an evangelist to an unoccupied place in Chi-li Province, and they are manifesting considerable interest in this project.

The extraordinary intellectual awakening among the Chinese and the consequent demand for better facilities for higher education has led prominent men in Great Britain to form a "China Emergency Appeal Fund Committee," headed by Sir Robert Hart, the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of London. In America, the Committee on Reference and Counsel, representing all the Boards and Societies of Foreign Missions in the United States and Canada, recommended to the last Annual Conference of the Boards the formation of a special interdenominational committee for this country. The Conference unanimously adopted the recommendation and appointed as such committee the Committee on Reference and Counsel, together with twelve laymen to be appointed by the Committee. These laymen are being selected as this report goes to press.

The purpose of the Committee is to aid the Boards in bringing the extraordinary situation in China to the attention of the American people, to emphasize the need of more adequately equipped schools and colleges, and to assist in securing funds for this purpose, these funds to be paid directly to and to be administered by the Boards of Foreign Missions. The Committee will place strong emphasis upon the need of Christian as distinguished from purely secular education, and upon the importance of more adequately equipping the institutions that are already in existence before undertaking the development of new ones.

We bespeak from the whole Church special prayers for our missionaries in China at this time of emergency and crisis. They are able and wise men and women who are worthily representing the Presbyterian Church at the forefront of the battle. They need our co-operation on a far larger scale than it has yet been possible for the Board to give.

CENTRAL CHINA MISSION.

NINGPO: on the Ningpo River, 12 miles from the sea; 100 miles south of Shanghai; occupied as a Mission Station, 1845. Missionaries—Rev. J. E. Shoemaker and Mrs. Shoemaker, Rev. A. R. Kepler and Mrs. Kepler, Rev. Harrison K. Wright and Mrs. Wright, Miss Annie R. Morton, Miss Edith C. Dickie, Miss Lavinia M. Rolleston, Miss M. D. Morton, Miss Margaret B. Duncan.

SHANGHAI: on the Woosong River, 14 miles from the sea; occupied as a Mission Station, 1850. Missionaries—Rev. J. M. W. Farnham, D.D., and Mrs. Farnham, Rev. J. A. Silsby and Mrs. Silsby, Rev. G. F. Fitch, D.D., and Mrs. Fitch, Mr. Gilbert McIntosh and Mrs. McIntosh, Mr. C. W. Douglass and Mrs. Douglass, Rev. John M. Espey and Mrs. Espey, Rev. C. M. Myers and Mrs. Myers, Miss Mary Posey, Miss Mary Cogdal, Miss E. A. Lindholm, Miss Emma Silver.

HANGCHOW: the capital of Chekiang Province, at southern terminus of Grand Canal, 100 miles northwest of Shanghai; occupied as a Mission Station, 1859. Missionaries—Rev. J. H. Judson and Mrs. Judson, Rev. E. L. Mattox and Mrs. Mattox, Rev. C. D. Herriott and Mrs. Herriott, Rev. F. W. Bible and Mrs. Bible, Miss J. Ricketts, Mrs. M. E. Lyon, Miss Lois D. Lyon, Mr. Arthur W. March, Rev. Robert F. Fitch and Mrs. Fitch.

SOOCHOW: 70 miles west of Shanghai; occupied as a Mission Station, 1871. Missionaries—Rev. J. N. Hayes, D.D., and Mrs. Hayes, Rev. O. C. Crawford and Mrs. Crawford, Miss Mary Lattimore, Francis F. Cattell, M.D., Elizabeth Esther Anderson, M.D., Dr. Agnes M. Carothers.

RESIGNATIONS: Dr. Frances F. Cattell.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. F. W. Bible and Mrs. Bible, Miss Juniata Ricketts, Miss L. M. Rolleston, Rev. O. C. Crawford and Mrs. Crawford, Mr. Gilbert McIntosh and Mrs. McIntosh in Scotland.

The only changes in the Mission staff during the year have been the resignation of Dr. Cattell and her return to the United States on account of home duties, and the marriage of the Rev. J. M. Espey to Miss Mary L. Jenkins, and Mr. Myers to Miss Mary Macphail, both Miss Jenkins and Miss Macphail having been teachers in Miss Jewell's school at Shanghai. Dr. Agnes M. Carothers was sent out March 26 to take Dr. Cattell's place.

The most important problem of policy before the Mission during the year has been the reorganization of its educational work. The resources available were not sufficient to support all the institutions of the Mission adequately, and new conditions of transportation and co-operation among Missions seemed to make it unnecessary to maintain High Schools at all the Stations. It was accordingly decided to consolidate the Boys' School at Soochow and Ningpo with the Hangchow Christian College, and to pursue the same course with the Lowrie High School at the South Gate, Shanghai, unless the alumni of the school were prepared to take over its support. The Southern Presbyterians contemplated joining in the support of the Hangchow College, and it was agreed to unite also the Girls' Schools of the Mission in Hangchow, and to readjust also the Girls' Schools in Shanghai and Ningpo.

NINGPO STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—The corps of native workers has suffered still greater decrease, one native pastor having been deposed from the ministry for carrying on lawsuits in the name of the Church; and another, having been found untrustworthy and deceptive, was asked to resign. There is no greater need than the need of strong native men to care for the ten churches of the Ningpo field. The Zong-yu Church, whose pastor was asked to resign, is practically disbanded for the present. The Dzing-bu-deo Church, whose pastor was asked to resign, is struggling with the problem of the New England rural church. The most efficient third of its membership has migrated to Shanghai and Ningpo, where there are afforded greater opportunities than in the country for economic betterment. Many of the remaining church members are women, and live at such a distance that regular attendance is well-nigh impossible. Then, too, this church has its quota of cold, indifferent, and unworthy members, so that, out of a total membership of 105, there are only about thirty who are regular attendants.

The Yü-yiao Church continues to grow and prosper in a very encouraging way. It has now become entirely self-supporting, including the salary of the helper in an out-station. The congregations are becoming too large for the church, and plans are being worked out for enlarged accommodations. A special feature of this new growth is the large number of women and children who now attend the services. One neighborhood, some two miles distant, has secured a boat in which twenty or thirty women and children are rowed to church every Sabbath. Other churches also show signs of vigorous life, but there are still a few churches that are almost dead, chiefly for the lack of proper exercise of discipline.

In addition to the itineration of the missionaries, the Bible women have visited the homes and the out-stations.

During July, Mrs. Shoemaker gathered the Bible women in Yü-yiao for a month of study. "Their eagerness to learn," she writes, "and their gratitude for the instruction given, quite repaid one for the effort. Of the three women in our regular employ, two are over sixty years of age, and will not be able for very many more years of service. We are hoping for younger women to train, but thus far only two have been found that we think are suited for the work, and they are not as yet under special instruction. The need for a training school for women becomes more apparent each year."

It is also interesting to report an old Buddhist nun, seventy years of age, who has come of her own accord to learn about Christianity, and has been living for a month with the Bible women in Yü-yiao, who are teaching her the way of life. She is paying all her own expenses, and seems to be genuinely in earnest.

There are eighteen Sunday-schools in Ningpo, with forty-three officers and teachers and 975 scholars. The total number of communicants on the field is 1,107, of whom eighty-nine were added on examination during the year.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Day-schools.—The Station has six day-schools, with 114 pupils enrolled, and three boarding schools with 285 enrolled.

Of the Boys' Academy, Mr. Wright reports:

The actual number of boys in attendance has been slightly over forty, of whom six were day pupils. Since Chinese New Year only one or two have been from non-Christian families, and one of these has been admitted to the church after repeated application. On the whole, school government has been a far simpler problem this year than ever before; although the tendency to an average good deportment has not been stronger with a greater proportion of Christian boys, the greater ease of governing lies in the greater amenableness to discipline of Christian boys.

At Chinese New Year a class of six boys was graduated; one with partial courses only and he the only non-Christian in the class. Of the others, four received diplomas for the full Chinese course, and one, the son of a pastor, for the full Chinese and English course. These five boys have all decided to enter the ministry, and are now studying in Hangchow College with that end in view.

Of the Girls' Boarding School, Miss Duncan writes:

During the fall term there were forty-four boarders and eleven day pupils, a full attendance, I thought, at the time. But at Chinese New Year I had applications from several, and I began to plan, and found that I might, by converting my former bedroom and bathroom in the school building into a dormitory, accommodate a few more. So I took in six new boarders, making an attendance of fifty boarders and ten day pupils for the Spring term. But, alas! there are no more rooms to be converted into dormitories now; we have reached the limit of our capacity. And there are eight or ten new applicants for the coming Fall term, whom I should like very much to receive.

Two of the older girls have left this year to study medicine; one in Soochow and one in Nanking. Four girls in the school have been taken into the church, leaving seven inquirers, of whom three are from heathen families. One of the latter has had a hard fight at home in the Summer vacation, for her father is anxious to betroth her, having had several offers from men of wealth and position, but the girl remains steadfast in refusing her consent, for all of the men were heathen.

She has actually been in danger of her life, for on two occasions her father was so angry with her that he attempted to cut her throat.

Of the Anglo-Chinese Girls' School, Miss Morton reports :

The Anglo-Chinese Girls' School closed in July with an enrollment of twenty-eight Chinese girls (of whom eight are day pupils and twenty boarders), one Japanese, and nine foreign children.

At the beginning of the Chinese year a Miss Zia, one of the former pupils of the Ningpo Girls' School and who had been studying for about three years and a half in Tokyo, in the Joshi Gakuin, returned to Ningpo to assist in the Anglo-Chinese School, and has proven of invaluable assistance.

Twenty-four girls came to a three-months' Short Term School, at the end of which all were able to read in the Romanized. Forty women were enrolled in the Women's Class, the largest the Station has had, and they brought fifteen children with them. The class was in session twelve weeks. The four subjects were: New Testament, Old Testament, Chinese character, and Romanized writing, which, besides the regular morning and evening worship when singing was also taught, made them a busy day. The cooking and sweeping are also done by the women.

The Men's Class.—

There was a banner enrollment of thirty-three, of whom nineteen were inquirers or the sons of church members. Seven of the class, having attended previous sessions, received advanced instruction. The ages of the pupils ranged all the way from thirteen up to fifty-one, but, notwithstanding this disparity in age and the shortness of the session, all but five, who were very dull, were able to read when the class came to a close at the end of a month of tremendous mental strenuousness on the part of some.

There are now under the care of the Station six students in the Hangchow College looking forward to the ministry.

Conferences.—

The usual quarterly conferences of lay helpers were held during the year; once in Yü-yiao and twice in conjunction with the union conference of all missions in Ningpo. These union conferences, which have now been held for a number of years, are proving very helpful in drawing closer together the workers in the various denominations in the Ningpo field, and we trust are blazing the way to a federated church.

The annual Christian Endeavor Convention was held in Yü-yiao, attended by about 200 Christians, coming from nearly all our churches except Zōng-yü.

SHANGHAI STATION.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The report states :

Under this heading we have quite an advance to report—a new evangelist in an out-station where we have had a small work for some time, but no evangelist resident; a new out-station opened in which an evangelist has been placed from the beginning, and a new readiness on the part of the people to hear our message; these are all great encouragements.

Lowrie Memorial Church.—During the year there have been twenty-seven accessions to this church, including two restored to church fellowship; fourteen adults and five children have been baptized. The total membership is now 161, consisting of ninety-four men and sixty-seven women. One of the inquirers told with tears how people brought her rice or money, wanting her to say prayers to Buddha for them. She said she had no other way of supporting herself, and so she had been in the habit of saying these prayers, and also praying to the Lord for them. She said she told Him that He knew she needed the rice, and it would not be honest for her to take it unless she did what they paid her for, but added, "I tell the Lord He knows I don't believe in it, and I want Him to bless them." She has only recently begun to come for instruction, and says she will give it all up and trust the Lord. We surely do not realize what it means for some of these women to turn away from their old superstitions.

South Gate Church.—In our report last year we recorded the happy celebration of the sixtieth birthday of Mr. Taung, who for twenty-seven years had been the loved and honored pastor of this church. Just before Christmas this year he passed to his reward, a welcome release from years of suffering for him, but a loss to the whole Christian community of Shanghai, where his well-known uprightness of life gave weight to his faithful words as a preacher. He loved to preach, and during later years continued to fill his pulpit long after strength had failed for anything else, often rising from days of weakness and nights of pain to stand before his people on the Sabbath. The last year of his life was gladdened by knowing that a successor after his own heart had heeded the call of God and the church to take up the pastorate.

Mr. Li, who has grown up among us, holds the confidence and love of the people, and is the more endeared to them by the fact that he has turned from a successful business career, impelled by a deep consciousness of the love of God. He comes to a church that has been prepared for a new era in activity with 183 members, resident and non-resident, quite a number of whom are pupils in the schools.

We have a very flourishing Sunday-school at the South Gate Church with an attendance of 265.

We are glad also to tell of the success of the orphanage supported by Christians of the Lowrie Memorial Church and the South Gate Church and by other friends interested in the work. It is now in the second year of its operation and has taken in fifty little orphan boys. It is under the excellent management of Mr. Tsang Ding-yoong, whose varied activities are mentioned so frequently in this report. The older boys are learning to make wicker chairs and tables to contribute towards their support, and the energetic manager has several other schemes for industrial work, which we hope he will successfully carry out. The children attend church services and Sunday-school at the South Gate and show a remarkable knowledge of the Scriptures. All visitors to the orphanage come away full of enthusiasm about it, and they may well be so, for it is like an oasis in that walled city, a spot crowded with flowers and well-cared-for children. Their quarters are already too small for them and land has been bought some miles out of Shanghai, at Loong Hwo.

Seven women who began studying with Miss Silver two years ago are still working with her in the Bible school.

With a growing delight in the Word of God, their faithfulness to their study never fails. This year the New Testament study was the Life of Christ, based on a harmony of the Gospels. A thorough review and examination of the work done showed a remarkable familiarity with the incidents of the recorded life of our Lord. The study in the Old Testament was Genesis and Exodus; each student being required to give the contents of each chapter without questioning. Each woman in the school does all her own work and bears all her living expenses. The Mission provides only a teacher, giving the students rooms to live in.

In connection with the Bible school, Miss Silver has conducted special Autumn and Spring Bible classes for those who are not able to give their whole time to study. On account of her severe illness much of the care of the Autumn class had to be given over to a young Chinese teacher and the two Bible women, who showed how faithfully and competently they could carry on the month of study. The work was far from superficial, and a thorough understanding was gained of the deeper truths taught.

The Spring class was larger than the Autumn one, and was in some ways the most interesting ever held in the school. A half-dozen girls in their teens, some of whom knew how to read, gave a brightness to the class that stimulated every one. These girls long so to study more, and only the state of the family exchequer keeps them from entering some boarding school. Most of them are daughters of widows and must themselves help to earn their living by embroidering. To enter school involves the loss of their wages and an additional outlay for clothes and school fees. These girls became eager to have their mothers learn of Christ, and the women who are studying in the Bible school were happy to give one afternoon in the week to teaching the Bible in these homes, and through this means not only the mothers but neighbor girls have become interested and some have expressed a desire to confess Christ by uniting with the church.

Work has been conducted at the three out-stations of Tseu-phoo, Doo-ka-aung and Kau-jau. The Bible women have itinerated more than usual by themselves. Miss Silver reports:

Almost nine years ago, when she first went to Doo-ka-aung, she was pleased to learn that there was a school for girls, in charge of a woman. Wishing to make the acquaintance of this preceptress, Miss Silver and her Bible women called one evening as the pupils were leaving, and found her and a neighbor such intelligent and courteous women that it was lamp-lighting before they could get away. The interest roused they have tried to follow up by repeated visits, and though the teacher is stern and proud, they are not hopeless of her. Concerning the neighbor, Miss Silver continues: "She has rarely come in when we have been calling, . . . but this time I decided to call at her home after my talk with the teacher. What was my joy to see her come in early in our call, and from that time on until dark take all the conversation to herself. And if any others present made any remarks aside from the theme of salvation in Christ, she quickly reverted to it, for she had not forgotten the words of so long ago, although her training had led her to devote herself to the practices of Buddhism, in the lore of which she was far better informed than it is usual to find men or women. Later in the week I sent her a New Testament and invited her to the service on Sunday (to which she came, afterwards visiting in Miss Silver's own room). Nothing seemed so important to her as seeing clearly what was involved in accepting Christ. Never before have I realized so fully what it means to a conservative, well-read woman to cast aside the traditions of her forefathers, to unbelieve all that she has pinned her faith to and step out on to a few bare statements heard from the lips of an ignored barbarian. No physical miracle seems so marvelous as the working of the Spirit of God in the hearts of such. The palsy that had taken hold of her had driven her to worshipping the idols, and it seemed harder to risk what might come to her if she ceased these rites than anything else. Looking at the story of the man with the palsy who was brought to Jesus helped her to see that her sins were more to be dreaded than bodily ills, and as we finally knelt to pray my heart bounded with joy as she made her earnest plea for spiritual gifts alone."

Mr. Espey made a brief Spring tour in the Pootung field.

Here and there men are met who have heard something of Christ in Shanghai or from our native workers, but many are totally ignorant of the very meaning of the word Jesus.

EDUCATIONAL.—Eighty boys have been enrolled in the Lowrie High School. The report states:

Practically all the education in Chinese letters in this school is today supported by the money from these former pupils. Rumors from our Fall Mission meeting reached the alumni and made them uneasy about the future of the school. They feared a removal and were much dissatisfied. Finally at a conference between a committee appointed by the Mission and a committee from the Old Students' Association, the latter outlined plans looking toward the Association taking over still larger financial burdens and planning to raise the scholarship of the school, asking from the Mission only that the services and counsel of one foreigner be continued.

The brass band of the school has been in great demand. The Girls' Boarding School reports seventy pupils.

Six pupils joined the church this year, making a total of twenty-eight church members in the school, besides sixteen others who have not yet been admitted to the communion, but have gone before the session, confessing their faith in Christ and their desire to serve Him. The majority of the twenty-eight remaining pupils are quite small; nineteen of them are children of Christians.

Of the three pupils who finished the eight years' course and received their certificates in July, one has gone to Ningpo to teach in our Anglo-Chinese school for girls, and another is teaching in this school; the third is continuing her studies in the Shanghai Methodist Girls' School, which offers a twelve years' course of study.

Just when Miss Posey feared that her Kindergarten School might have to be given up through the removal to the United States of Mr. Yen, her most active supporter, who had been appointed private secretary to the Chinese Minister in Washington, another friend was raised up.

At the closing exercises in January (for the Chinese New Year holidays) a prominent Chinese gentleman was present, who had been educated in the United States, and expressed his enthusiasm over the fact of having at last a kindergarten for Chinese in Shanghai. His speech resulted in the forming of a new committee and increased contributions, which have enabled Miss Posey to continue the work through the year.

The wife of a prominent Shanghai business man, formerly a kindergarten teacher in Virginia, has taught the Normal Class from the school in her own home one afternoon a week. The Station carried on four day-schools, with 120 pupils.

LITERARY WORK.—Dr. Farnham has continued his work with the Chinese Tract Society, in addition to caring for the manuscripts and publishing them.

He has the editorial care of the Society's two monthly periodicals—the Chinese Sunday-school Child's Paper and the Chinese Illustrated News. During the year the Society printed 18 new works, making 240,570 copies, and equal to 5,496,780 pages. Of their popular standard works 39 were reprinted, making 291,850 copies, equal to 4,848,400 pages.

HANGCHOW STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—

During the year twenty-two have been received into the Hangchow Church by baptism, three by letter, and one under discipline restored, one dismissed, three have died. There have been times when as many as thirty have been before the session at one time, but it is not often that one is received on a first application; more often they are kept waiting many months.

At Zang-peh the work is more encouraging. This Station has been supplied from Hangchow; the pastor himself making frequent visits.

Mr. Judson has been in charge of the lower road district and made four trips, visiting in nearly all the Christian homes, preaching on the streets and distributing tracts. Through the close touch of one of our evangelists with the government school in his neighborhood, an invitation was given to Mr. Judson to give some experiments in physics in the schools. From this the idea spread, and invitations came in from schools at other Stations and one place where we have no work, which were gladly accepted. In these lectures, while no direct Gospel preaching could be done, yet proofs of God's existence, His design in creation, could be presented in a very striking way. Then, too, this line of work brings us, especially our native helpers, into touch with teachers and scholars, giving them prestige and influence.

Mr. Herriott has been in charge of the upper river district and made five trips, covering a period of 103 days, making fifty-two visits in the regular Stations, besides visiting many other cities, towns, and hamlets and covering a distance of some 5,000 li. In this field much of the traveling must be done on foot, occasionally relieved by mountain chairs, or bi-long, a sort of basket, in which one must sit with legs cramped and a backing only about a foot high.

EDUCATIONAL.—Thirty-five men attended the Training Class for a month, and eight women the Women's Class. The Station maintains but one day-school. In the Girls' Boarding School there have been thirty-two boarders. Miss Lyon has had to manage the school with an appropriation of only $175, and there have been other difficulties. She writes:

A word, in closing, about the spiritual life of the school. Satan has been working very strenuously to overthrow the work of the Spirit. Among the girls there are doubters, there are those who speak disparagingly of Christianity. A spirit of unrest from without has found its way into the school and makes doubly difficult the spiritual side of the work. Yet continued and growing emphasis has been placed upon this the most vital part of all.

Hangchow College.—Mr. Judson, after nearly thirty years' connection with the college, has resigned the presidency. Mr. Mattox was elected to fill the vacancy for one year. Mr. Fitch, on his return from furlough, was transferred from Ningpo to Hangchow, and has worked energetically in the interest of the college.

During the two semesters 157 students have been enrolled; the highest attendance being 136 and the average attendance about 125. Of the whole number eighty-two were either Christians or the children of Christian parents, and seventy-five from non-Christian homes. Several of these latter are applicants for baptism.

A notable feature in the year's work was the graduating of eleven students from the college in January. As this was the largest class that ever graduated in the history of the college, and as the Chinese are coming to appreciate more the meaning of graduation, it was decided to make a little more of the occasion than for the past few years. The exercises were held in the church, which was decorated with flags, banners and flowers. Three expect to study for the ministry. One was in the seminary for half a year.

Encouraging progress has been made toward the removal of the college to the beautiful new site acquired on Hangchow Bay. Over $15,000 has already been received, and nearly $20,000 more has been pledged.

GENERAL.—

At the Autumn festival, September 22, the opium pipes and trays, collected by order of the authorities, were piled in two great pyramids on the city hill, where, in the presence of mandarins, a large crowd of people and uniformed students with the banners of their schools, the torch was applied to these doomed instruments.

The cars now make their hourly run from the settlement to the river bank, just a short distance from the new college grounds, and will, in all probability, be extended to connect with Shanghai on the one side and Ningpo on the other in the near future.

The old examination halls, where for generations thousands of students have come up for their annual and ten thousands for their triennial examinations, have been torn down, and in their place a provincial normal school building, erected large enough to accommodate 500 pupils, was opened to the public early in March.

SOOCHOW STATION.

Apart from the Station work, a large country field is dependent upon the missionaries in Soochow, containing large populations almost unreached. Mr. Crawford writes:

Our farthest out-station at Kwong-foh is only sixty li from Soochow, but it is surprising that before it is reached there are some market towns that have never been touched before.

Believers and inquirers face many difficulties in the way of confession and service.

In the instance of a merchant at Dzön Nyin Gyao, who deals in incense, paper money, and other things necessary for idolatrous worship, it will mean the giving up of a successful business, but it is hoped that he will do so or make some change which will enable him to enter the church and become a Christian. Two or three others in the same place are quite interested; one young merchant especially so. At Tong Chu is another young merchant who fully understands and believes, but who is not quite ready to take a stand on the Sabbath question. One old man is a thorough believer, but still insists on clinging to one or two things which belong to the old idolatrous life.

There have been fifteen boarders in the Boys' Boarding School.

One boy, whose father is intensely anti-foreign, has had a hard time. The father has pasted a notice over his door saying that no one who studies a foreign language may cross his threshold. The son seems determined to be a Christian, in spite of the fact that the father has tried to beat the new ideas out of his head and compel him to worship his ancestors.

In the three day-schools there have been thirty-four pupils.
Tooker Memorial Hospital.—

The hospital was reopened after the Summer vacation on September 9. The Autumn months were pleasantly filled with work. A fair number of in-patients was received and the clinics were well attended. No very serious cases were received. The arrival of a co-laborer, Dr. Anderson, to help share the burden seemed to be the signal for increased responsibility, and in the following months many serious cases were treated in all departments of the work.

An old temple, not far from the hospital, was being torn down and a company of men and women were working there clearing away the débris. A large stone, which it afterwards took seven men to lift, fell over, crushing one of the women. She was brought to the hospital, but we found her injuries so severe that we despaired of her life. One femur was broken, the sternum and two ribs, besides many bruises. After doing what we could for her, she was carried to her home, not far away, as we did not think it best to risk her dying in the hospital, but the Lord spared her life. Several visits were made to her home, each time finding the splints and bandages entirely removed. She and her husband were famine refugees who had come down from the north the year before, and the house in which they lived with their three children was a tiny brick hut about six by eight feet in size, with no light but that which came from the door. The patient's bed was a pile of straw on some boards on the ground, and the replacing of the splints under the conditions was not an easy matter. Finding after a few days that she was not going to succumb to her injuries she was brought to the hospital again, where she remained several weeks and made a good recovery. The husband and wife are both very grateful for what was done for them and have attended church services quite frequently since that time, showing much interest in the Gospel.

Miss Murray, formerly of the Friends' Meeting in Nanking, carried on very efficient evangelistic work in the hospital until appointed by the Board to the Hunan Mission. The hospital had 135 in-patients, with an average stay of twenty-six days; there were 3,015 first visits to the dispensary, with a total list of 6,402 visits; 263 patients were seen on out-practice.

MISSION PRESS.

Business of all kinds in the Far East has been depressed to a degree rarely, if ever, equaled in the past. This has culminated during the past twelve months in disastrous failures among both foreigners and Chinese, and the depression does not seem to have even yet reached the turning point. This situation has been consequent largely on the widespread famines which have prevailed in various parts of the empire, and the disastrous floods which have destroyed so much property, thereby limiting the purchasing power of the people. Here in Shanghai the cost of living for the ordinary Chinese has advanced to an unheard-of degree, and wages have, for the most part, kept pace with the rise in the price of food.

The vacillations of exchange have also been a serious matter, many accounts being payable in gold, for whereas a dollar gold, in June, 1907, cost but one dollar and eighty-four cents Mexican, in June, 1908, it is worth two dollars and thirty cents Mexican.

Competition from native printing offices and book stores has been more keen than ever before, for while these multiplied rapidly and did a thriving business for a while, consequent on the craze for the new learning and the demand for educational works of all kinds, yet a reaction has set in, the work having been overdone, and many failures have taken place in consequence. Many of those which survive have been willing to take work at losing rates in order to keep their men and machines busy.

Notwithstanding all these difficulties we are pleased to be able to report a greater output than ever before, even if our finances are not in as good a condition as they sometimes have been.

HAINAN MISSION.

HISTORICAL SUMMARY.

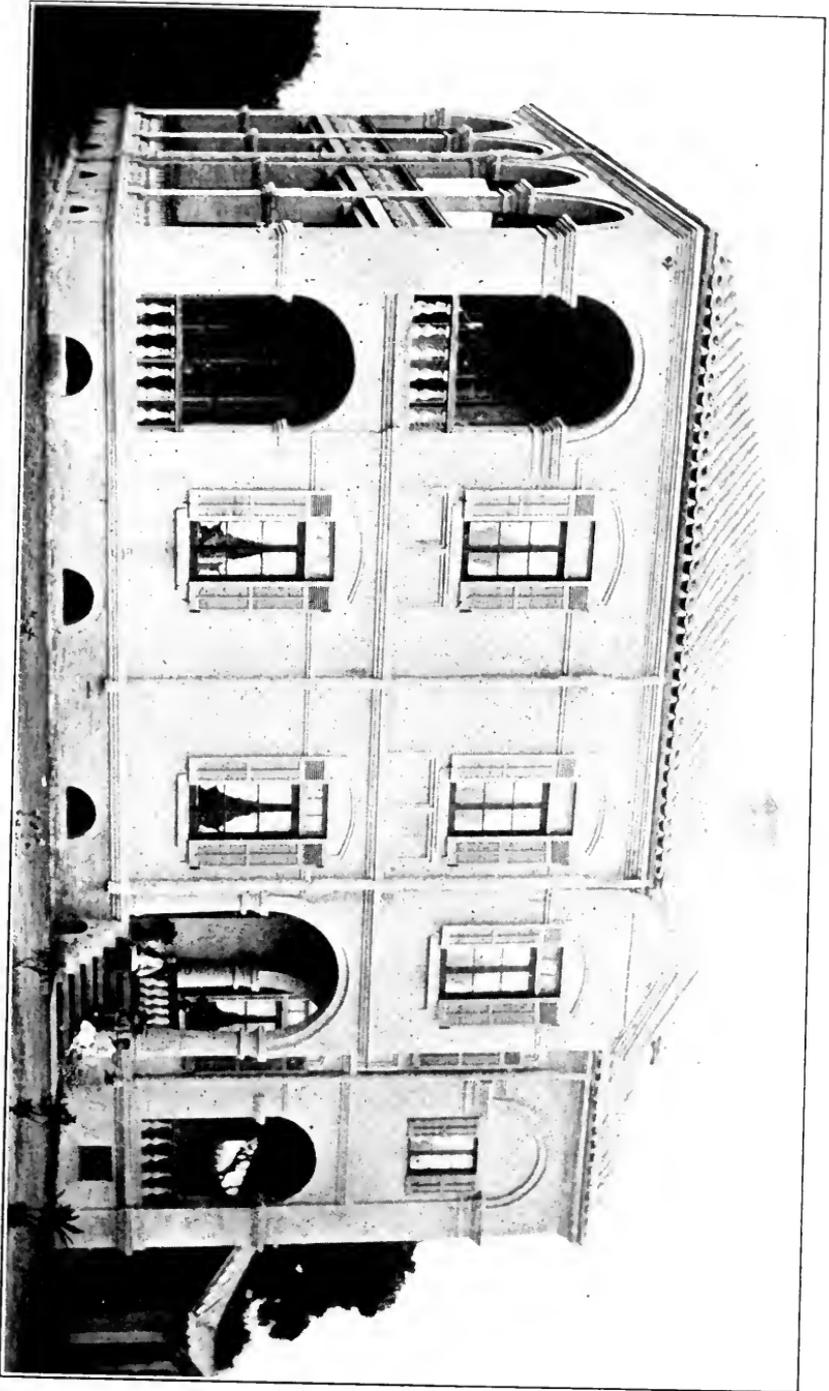

Two hundred and ninety miles southeast of Hong Kong lies Hainan, a large island off the southeast coast of China, from which it is separated by a straight about fifteen miles wide. It is in about the same latitude as Cuba, and has practically the same tropical climate. It is about 160 miles long and ninety miles wide, with an area of about 14,000 square miles. It is about twice the size of the State of New Jersey and comprises a prefecture of the Kwang Tung Province. Its population is approximately 2,500,000, and it was occupied by missionaries in 1885 and established as a Mission in 1893. No other missionaries except the French Roman Catholics are there. Post-office, Hoihow, China, via Hong Kong (Hoihow is the port, three miles from Kiungchow, and a part of the Station).

The missionary force of the Hainan Mission has remained unchanged during the past year, those on the field having been reinforced by the return from their furloughs of Dr. McCandliss and Dr. Lasell. To offset this, however, Mr. and Mrs. McClintock and Miss Montgomery started on their furloughs, so that when the medical work was strengthened the school and evangelistic work was interrupted.

Dr. Bryan has recovered his health, and as soon as he can be released from responsibilities which for the present keep him in the United States he will return to the field. The Mission reports the completion of buildings at Kiungchow, in connection with the Paxton and Pitkin Schools, and the beginning of the chapel at Hoihow and the doctor's residence at Kachek. While these buildings will not give a complete equipment, they will greatly facilitate and strengthen the work. The Mission is greatly indebted to the donors who have made these improvements possible. The Mission reports that, in spite of plague in one Station and cholera in another, the missionaries have been unusually well during the past year, and that there has been advance along all lines of work. There have been more catechumens and more converts than ever before, and more boys and girls applying for admission to the schools.

The Mission letter closes as follows:

We look back over the year and offer unto God our sacrifices of praise and thanksgiving, and we turn our eyes with even greater hopes and larger expectations to another year of service.

PITKIN MEMORIAL RESIDENCE, KIUNGCHOW, HAINAN, CHINA.

HAINAN MISSION.

KIUNGCHOW (including Hoihow): 3 miles from north coast of island; occupied as a Station in 1885. Missionaries—H. M. McCandliss, M.D., and Mrs. McCandliss, Miss Henrietta Montgomery, Rev. C. H. Newton and Mrs. Newton, Rev. W. M. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, Miss Alice H. Skinner, Rev. George D. Byers, Rev. David S. Tappan, Jr., and Dr. Herman Bryan, M.D.

NODOA: 60 miles southwest of Kiungchow; occupied as a Station in 1891. Missionaries—Rev. J. F. Kelly, M.D., and Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. M. R. Melrose, Rev. William J. Leverett and Rev. P. W. McClintock and Mrs. McClintock.

KACHEK: 60 miles south of Kiungchow; occupied as a Station in 1902. Missionaries—Rev. Frank P. Gilman and Mrs. Gilman, Miss Kate L. Schaeffer, S. L. Lasell, M.D.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. P. W. McClintock and Mrs. McClintock, Dr. H. M. McCandliss and Mrs. McCandliss, Miss Henrietta Montgomery, Dr. Herman Bryan.

KIUNGCHOW STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—In the evangelistic work of this Station there has been a steady growth of interest among the Christians. This has been manifested in the desire on the part of some to guard against the admission to membership of those whose fitness is in doubt. At the Communion services an effort has been made to prepare by special instruction the applicants for Baptism. At Kiungchow and Hoihow the last mid-winter Communion season was preceded by several days' instruction and Bible study. More than forty catechumens were on the lists during the year. Of these fifteen adults have been baptized and admitted to Communion at Kiungchow. At Hoihow ten persons were received on profession of their faith and two by letter.

Preaching services and Sunday-school have been held regularly at Hoihow and Kiungchow. The erection at Hoihow of a place of worship suitable to its needs has brought great joy. Dr. McCandliss received in America funds for the erection of a church building to seat 500 people. It is expected that the new church will be called "The Jeremiassen Memorial Church," in memory of Mr. C. C. Jeremiassen, the pioneer missionary to Hainan.

Itineration.—Mr. Campbell has two native colporteurs almost constantly in the field, and the native evangelist, Mr. Tang, has made various trips to the country. His most extended trip was to the Peninsula, where he traveled about fifty-six po (170 miles), going as far as Lui-chow City.

Out-stations and Chapels.—Lia-kha has been visited by Bible women and colporteurs throughout the year. During the first part of the year Colporteur Ui spent half of his time at Lia-kha and the other half at Ku-chiu. About the 1st of August, Lio Ci-teng, a Christian school teacher, was sent to Lia-kha, and since that time has conducted religious services at the chapel on Sundays. Last Communion two brothers from Lia-kha came out to Kiungchow and after examination were received into the church. These brothers have for some time wished to put away their idols, and have asked Mr. Campbell to assist in burning them.

At Ku-chiu a newly repaired shop has been rented for chapel work. Colporteur Iap Vun-fak has spent the greater part of his time in the Deng-ang Chapel and at Zi-ae. A chapel has been rented near the South Gate of Hoihow. Mr. Byers, the native evangelists, and the Bible women have used it in their street work. The Station has authorized the renting of a chapel at the West Gate of Kiungchow, but the house cannot conveniently be given over to the Mission till near the Chinese New Year.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Paxton Training School for Christian Workers.—There were about thirty boys enrolled each semester. They averaged younger in age than the students of the previous year. This was due in part to some of the older boys entering the Taotai's school, and in part to the policy of discouraging men over twenty years from entering.

A few of the boys in the upper classes are receiving instruction in English, for which there is still a considerable demand. If the study of English were open to all comers there might be a much larger roll of students. It is, however, the Mission's policy to build up the school on a reputation in general lines of instruction, rather than increase the attendance by making a specialty of English.

Last Winter three boys of the school united with the church. As these are boys who have been pupils for a number of years, they give a distinctly Christian tone to the school.

As indicating the ever-increasing demand the report says:

The Fall term of the present year was opened September 1 by Mr. Campbell. There are thirty-four enrolled at present, nineteen boarders and fifteen day pupils. The day scholars come from the street and the villages near the North Gate. We are glad to have more friendly relations with these people, who have hitherto been rather indifferent, if not hostile to our work.

Last year a call was made by the people of the Market for us to open a day-school in Lia-kha Chapel. Kiungchow Station considered the question and voted to open a day-school there. Lio Ci-teng, one of the teachers in the Paxton Training School, was sent to Lia-kha in August, to see what were the prospects for a school. He found ten or more pupils ready to enter and the school was opened September 1, with thirteen enrolled. More pupils are expected after the Chinese New Year, as some had already gone to other schools for the remainder of this year. It is the aim to make this school a feeder to the Paxton Training School.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Pitkin Girls' Boarding School.—The Girls' School has been in session nine and one-half months this past year and has been full to overflowing. There has been an average attendance of thirty pupils all the year. Four new pupils have been added this Fall, and there have been several applications for admittance besides.

In the Spring an epidemic of measles and whooping cough broke out, and more than one-half of the girls had either one or the other and some had both. Aside from this the health of the girls has been good. The older girls assist in the domestic work—keeping the rooms clean and in order, and also assisting in the kitchen work. Three of the older girls have assisted in teaching.

During the Summer vacation the girls stored their minds with Scripture verses; each one, from youngest to the oldest, learning at least one verse daily which was repeated at evening prayers. The older girls have been taking their turn in teaching the Sunday-school lesson to the class. One pupil has charge of the primary class.

One of the scholars, and also a former pupil who is now married, have united with the church during the year. Now all the older girls are members of the church, and some of the younger ones have asked for Baptism and will be ready for examination next Communion service. One of the girls admitted this Fall has already expressed her desire and intention of unbinding her feet.

There are some exceedingly bright, promising girls in the school—girls with fine minds and good dispositions. The Christian girls are faithful and earnest, and we are looking forward to their becoming powers of great blessing and usefulness to the women and girls of Hainan. There have been a great many visitors at the school during the year, among whom were the Taotai's wife and the magistrate and his family.

MEDICAL.—Hoihow Hospital.—In spite of the fact that Dr. McCandliss was absent on furlough and Dr. Bryan compelled to stop work because of his health, the medical work has gone right on. One hundred and sixty-one in-patients were cared for and there was an attendance of 4,535 at the dispensary. There were seventeen serious operations. Unfortunately the hospital work came to a standstill on March 7, the hospital remaining closed until August 19, somewhat less than half a year. Immediately upon being opened it filled up, and all the available rooms were occupied. The dispensary, too, was in great demand, the attendance in September being 1,436.

On October 6 the island was visited by a typhoon, and the hospital, in common with the whole city of Hoihow, was inundated from the sea. The swollen river, the high tide, and the wind backing up the water in the river made the water in the hospital premises about four feet deep. Considerable damage was done to the interior of the hospital. Two of the roofs were damaged, and the enclosing stone wall in front of the Mission property was broken down by the violence of the surf.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Of the Woman's Work the report says:

The past year has been one of great blessing among the Christian women of our Hoihow congregation. There has been little sickness, no deaths, and we feel that they are striving after a closer walk with God.

At our regular Communion services, beginning with the preceding Wednesday, an invitation was given to all who could to come for the four following days for study and instruction. Twenty were present, though it was a busy season and very hard for the women to leave their work.

As an eloquent illustration of the reality of the religious confession of Hainanese Christians the following is of interest:

One of our chosen ones has told us that she is gathering in the little loans she has made here and there, selling what she can, and making another gift of $100 to the church. She has but her day's work, when she goes to her daughters, who prepares from rice a sort of thick soup, which the mother sells from door to door and village to village, sitting to rest while her customers eat and seasoning each bowl with the Jesus doctrine. When asked what would be left to live on, she replied with a hearty laugh, and showing her horny hands, "If my eyes don't fail altogether, I can still work. I have bought my coffin, my grave clothes are made; what need of more?"

NODOA STATION.

CHURCH AND EVANGELISTIC.—There have been twenty-two persons added to the church this year. Four have been lost, making the total number of Christians now 149. These twenty-two have come from widely scattered regions.

The bi-monthly gatherings for catechumens before each communion have been held, and they have several times been all but swamped by the numbers.

The following account gives graphic proof of the eagerness of the people to hear the Gospel:

We escaped two great embarrassments, because one Communion had to be omitted owing to plague in Nodoa, and we delayed the opening of school in the Autumn for a week or two, so that we could have room for the September gathering; for at that time we elected an elder, and many of the Christians had to come to spend a night. We filled the dormitories of both schools and all other available space, including a part of the hospital. On Sunday morning the chapel overflowed, without the presence of the school. We have enrolled now ninety-three catechumens, sixty-one of them men and thirty-two women. Of the total, sixty-five were new names enrolled this year.

"The Red Motto."

A chapel has been rented at No-tia, and the compound proved to be the very one that Dr. Vanderburgh had tried to rent ten years before. On passing through the compound with some Christian friends, coming out the back door, and looking back they saw a red motto over the door. Red mottoes over the door and at the sides of the door are the commonest thing in China, but never with just such sentiments as this, "Holy Spirit, in light draw near." It surely expressed the desire of our hearts for that very spot, but we had never expected to see it over the door of a house that had sixteen idols, big and little, sitting together on a high table in the hall. It seemed almost like an omen or prophecy. Its being there was explained when we found that a tenant had had instruction some years ago by the Roman Catholic Fathers in Kiungchow. But the omen and prophecy was in our hearts, and when some weeks later about fifteen Christians met in the hall where the idols had been, and one after the other in short prayers asked for God's blessing on the place we then dedicated to Him, the prophecy was not only already in part fulfilled, but was becoming brighter and stronger as an earnest of things to come. On the day that the chapel was opened there were already twenty-two Christians in the region about No-tia, and twenty others in that region who had come to Nodoa for instruction and had been enrolled as catechumens.

The Work in the Out-stations.—Work has been carried on this year at Beng-liam, No-tia, Ham-hui, Tai-fong and Lim-ko City. From Dang-bai-khoi, twelve miles northeast of No-tia, came the twenty-two Christians, as mentioned above.

At Tai-fong there are two Christians and fourteen catechumens.

At and near Lim-ko City there are six Christians and fifteen catechumens. Lim-ko City is thirty-five miles from Nodoa, and there should be a permanent preaching place there.

Dr. Kelly has made eighteen trips to Nam-fong, to preach as well as to help the sick. Among the catechumens there are three men and twelve women who come from near Nam-fong, and three of the persons baptized were from that region. Preaching services have been held every Sunday by Dr. Kelly or Mr. Un.

A Foregleam of the Future.—Since no missionary has been able to do any itinerating, that work has fallen entirely to the Chinese. The four colporteurs spent two months at the Station for study, under the instruction of Mrs. Melrose and the Chinese assistant, and then started out, like the disciples, to spread the Evangel through the villages. Every two months they brought new people whom they had found, up to Nodoa for instruction. It was a truly interesting sight to watch them coming in Communion week with their recruits.

WOMAN'S EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The three Bible women have spent 126 days in country work, carrying the Gospel from house to house and village to village, as well as carrying on evangelistic work in the hospital.

Mrs. Kelly has held weekly prayer meetings for the women, with an average attendance of between fifty and sixty. The women are growing in grace and the knowledge of Christ. The Bible women have had a thorough course in the Old Testament as well as in the Life of Christ, and have shown great improvement in their powers of grasping the truth, and in imparting their knowledge to others. Often teachers and pupils have sat together in heavenly places as they studied the Word.

A Christian woman whose son went astray and broke nearly the whole Decalogue has said, "If I were not a Christian, I could not bear it. I would lie down and die of anger and grief. God is my refuge."

EDUCATIONAL.—Boys' Boarding School.—There has been an enrollment of eighty-eight boys, representing five of the languages of this polyglot region. Most of the teaching in the Middle School has been done in Mandarin. Three graduates of the school have done the teaching. One divides the mathematic classes this year with the superintendent, the second teaches geography, chemistry and other branches, while the third has the smaller boys, about thirty-five of them, under his complete charge in a room by themselves.

Commencement Scene.—

Since 1900 four young men have graduated from the Middle School, completing a course of study which is equal at least to a high school course in America. The last young man to graduate took his diploma at the end of the last school year and just before Mr. McClintock left for America. The local gentry by invitation attended the closing exercises. The graduating pupil delivered an oration and then the literati opened their eyes wider and wider as they listened to exhibition examinations in arithmetic and geography, in which small boys solved problems and answered questions about the rest of the earth which those worthy gentlemen were just beginning to get a smattering of themselves. They expressed their appreciation of Mr. McClintock's work a few days later on his leaving for America when they, as well as the school, presented him with silk scrolls and followed him with salvos of fire-crackers.

Girls Boarding School.—The girls' school has been of a mixed character this year. There has been an enrollment of thirty-five—eighteen boarders and seventeen day pupils. Of these day pupils eleven were small boys who were crowded out of the boys' school. Two of the Bible women have spent all of their spare time studying with the girls, and the superintendent has kept up a woman's Bible class for Bible women, teachers, and assistants' wives in connection with the school. Two of the girls have asked for Baptism during the year.

The Mary Henry Hospital.—

Last year bubonic plague scarcely visited the Nodoa region. This year rats have died right within the compound. We have been fortunate, however, in having proved the falsity of the legendary statement "that two Chinamen die for every dead rat," and have come through the three months' siege without the loss of any of our Christians here or in the villages, though many people died within a stone's throw of our compound. The hospital was closed and used as a residence for our native helpers, who took refuge therein from the dying rats. The dispensary was kept open, however, and received many calls from people far and near. The general summary for the year is as follows:

In-patients	150
Out-patients, attendance at clinic	9,370
Nam-fong clinic	301
Trips to villages	27
Trips to Nam-fong	18
Trips to Market, including the Yamen	48
Maternity cases	8
Surgical cases requiring anesthesia	20
Total	9,942

There were six deaths; three of the cases were brought to the hospital in a moribund condition.

The Watermelon Man.—The following story of a young man with "watermelons" will illustrate how far influence may quickly reach. This young man belongs to one of the leading families in the Market. Dr. Kelly was first called to his home, and found the patient in high fever and with two large tumorous abscesses—"watermelons" the people call them, and when a man begins to raise watermelons in his body it is said to be all over with him. He was superstitiously afraid of the hospital and insisted on the doctor coming to his house, which the doctor could not do. Reluctantly he consented to ride in a chair to and from the hospital, but not to stay. A few times he dared to stay over night, and then resumed his riding, but he quit coming before complete recovery. It was not many days, however, till Dr. Kelly was called to see him again in his home with another large watermelon cropped out and ready to "plug." The poor fellow could not have his own way if he would, so after a good scolding, another operation and over a month's treatment, during which time he took up his abode in the hospital, heard the Gospel, made good his recovery and the "watermelon" season was over with him. A doctor never had a more grateful patient after recovery. He began at once among his many friends to "drum up trade" for the hospital, spent days on the street preaching our doctrines and telling people that they were mistaken in their ideas of doing devil for sickness. Nearly every day he ushered the people into the hospital from the street, and never before, at least in the present doctor's experience here, was there such a rush on the Mary Henry Hospital. He is now a catechumen.

Six men were treated for the opium habit and five cured.

Breaking of Opposition.—Here is a sample story telling how opposition breaks away. The "big" and the "little" wife of a well-to-do man in a notoriously hostile community brought a dying child to the hospital. The "big" wife had four children, all sons, too, and all died mysteriously (?) after a few days high fever. The priests and the people all shook their heads and said, "The idol is doing them." For had not the grandfather been an inveterate gambler; that was not a sin, to be sure, but the grandfather had promised the idol a certain sum of money if he won. He lost, and not only failed to pay back the money, but took some of the idol's bangles off and gambled the proceeds. The idol was a particularly strong one and was very wrath, and said he would destroy the family. The "big" wife's prayers for a son were not answered. There was no son to carry on the name and worship the ancestors—a great calamity! And so the "big" wife was willing there should be a wife No. 2. A Limko woman, without any recommendation except that she gave promise of motherhood, very soon was picked up by the wayside. In due course the baby came, and a boy! Alas! it, too, sickened. Thousands of cash went in devil worship. All hope was gone and despair seized the family. Someone said, "Why not try the foreign doctor?" So the "big" and the "little" wife both came to the hospital, praying Dr. Kelly to heal the baby. The doctor shook his head. "Your baby is beyond my help. If you had come in time, it might have been saved. Other cases like it have recovered." The baby died. As the women lingered the Bible women talked doctrine. They came to the missionary's home with the Bible woman, and the missionary talked doctrine, too. The "big" wife began to see light and hope. She went home and brought her husband, and they have been up several Communion seasons as catechumens. The idol failed them, and now they propose to serve God. These people come from a region where opposition has been very strong.

The report closes to-night, and as the doctor made his rounds at the hospital he suddenly came upon Kim-wong, a Christian young man, on his knees, praying with his wife and new-born baby in the maternity ward—an example for all the heathen patients.

KACHEK STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—As yet there is no organized church, but the little band of Christians constitute what goes by the name of "church," presided over by Mr. Gilman, and holding Sunday service and Sunday-school and a mid-week prayer meeting. This is really the germ of the Kachek Church, which it is hoped will some day be a formal organization.

The evangelistic work in Kachek Station, aside from the work among women, consists principally of the services held each market day in the street chapel, where for two or three hours a changing crowd listens to the preaching. Here many from all parts of the eastern coast of Hainan have heard the Gospel. It has been especially popular since a new convert, Lee, began to preach and tell of his conversion. On each evening a Bible class has been held at the hospital chapel, first by Miss Schaeffer, and, after his return from furlough, by Dr. Lasell.

Work has been carried on in the country chapels as follows:

Doa-lou.—This chapel is at a market town about twelve miles from Kachek, on the road to Hoihow. In this chapel a service has been held on Sundays twice each month, with more or less regularity. It has usually been conducted by one of the helpers from Kachek.

Ui-hong.—This chapel is at the district city, about five miles from Kachek, where a small shop was rented at an expense of about $6 gold a year for a preaching place. Miss Schaeffer and Mr. Gilman have visited it several times, and the native helpers have gone frequently from Kachek for a few hours' work in this chapel.

No-lak.—This chapel is on the main street of one of the principal towns of the Vang-chiu District, about thirty miles south of Kachek. A Christian school teacher, Mr. Bang, formerly a helper of the Mission, has had a service here on Sundays throughout the year.

Lok-lah.—At this chapel our helper, Mr. Ngang, has held regular services on every Sunday throughout the year, and the thirty or more Christians with their families and friends have been very faithful in attendance. Lok-lah is in the extreme southwest of Hainan and is very difficult of access: Two visits have been made there, one by Miss Schaeffer and the other by Mr. Gilman. During the visit made by Mr. Gilman, he was not only able to give a course of Bible instruction in both the Old and New Testaments, but he reached there just at the time of the beginning of a persecution of the Christians, which he was able to head off by securing from the Magistrate of the district a proclamation which told the people of the rights of the Christians to teach and to preach without being molested.

EDUCATIONAL.—This is the fifth year that a school has been conducted in Kachek under the supervision of Mr. Gilman, and the number of scholars enrolled has been about thirty. Though smaller than some previous years, the attendance has been more regular. The school being composed mostly of former pupils and boys from Christian families, their progress has been highly satisfactory. There has been only one Chinese teacher employed. Two of the older pupils have done most of the teaching of geography and calisthenics, while the instruction in Bible and mathematics has been given by Mr. Gilman, and in English by Mrs. Gilman.

The school compound has been improved during the year by the erection of needed outbuildings and a wall at the back of the dormitory, where it took the place of a mosquito-breeding hedge. This improvement was made by the gift of Mr. H. B. McCormick, of Harrisburg, Pa., who has been an especial patron of the school.

Girls' Day-schools.—The girls' school in the lower Market, Kachek, has been in session three months with an attendance of thirteen. During the four weeks that Miss Schaeffer spent at Lok-lah, ten girls met with her for daily study. At Tin-tai village the girls' school started by Mr. Bang last year was taught by our Bible women for three weeks this summer. A training class of five women, known among us as "The Daughters' School," was held in the women's ward of the Kilborne Hospital during five months of the present year.

Hospital work at Kachek has been somewhat irregular for the past two years, owing to Dr. Lasell's absence and Dr. Bryan's transfer to Hoihow. After that time medical work was in the hands of the other missionaries and the Chinese assistant, who, faithful and reliable as he is, has not had training enabling him to do even proper dispensary work. In July of this year Dr. Lasell returned and the hospital and dispensary started to work again. Patients were waiting, and there has been sufficient work to keep the force moderately busy. Some twenty in-patients have been admitted, mostly from the Vang-chiu region, and among them have been a half dozen or so of women. The records kept by the assistant are very imperfect, but the statistics seem to be approximately: Out-patients, 2,400; in-patients, 20 (these all since July).

WOMAN'S WORK.—The two Bible women have made several visits to the country chapels, spending a month in the vicinity of No-lak, two weeks at Doa-lou, and one week in the district city of Ui-long. When at home in Kachek, they have worked faithfully visiting in the market and nearby villages and selling tracts and calendars. Everywhere there are opportunities for aggressive work, and the baptism of five women in the Station this year is a cause for rejoicing. One of these, Zeeto, of Lok-lah village, 170 miles away, after five months in the training class, returned to her home and immediately began to instruct the women and girls of her acquaintance.

Seeing Jesus.—Another of the women baptized is Mrs. Lee, the mother of Mr. Lee, who is himself a remarkable convert. Mrs. Lee is sixty-six years old, and before coming to Kachek, last Spring, she had never seen a foreign missionary, but the Saviour was no stranger to her, for she had learned of Him from her son in her own home. She unbound her feet, in obedience to a dream which she had after accepting the truth of the Gospel. After one of the Sunday meetings in Kachek, she said to one of the missionary ladies, "You have been speaking to-day of 'knowing Jesus': do you know that I have seen Him? I did not dare to tell my village sisters of this, lest they say of me that I had gone crazy, as they said of my son when he burned his fortune-telling books and destroyed the family idols when he was converted; but I had a vision of the Saviour one Sunday afternoon at home, while my son was out on the hillside praying. When he returned

I told Him of it, and he said, 'Let us kneel and praise Him for coming to our house.'"

HUNAN MISSION.

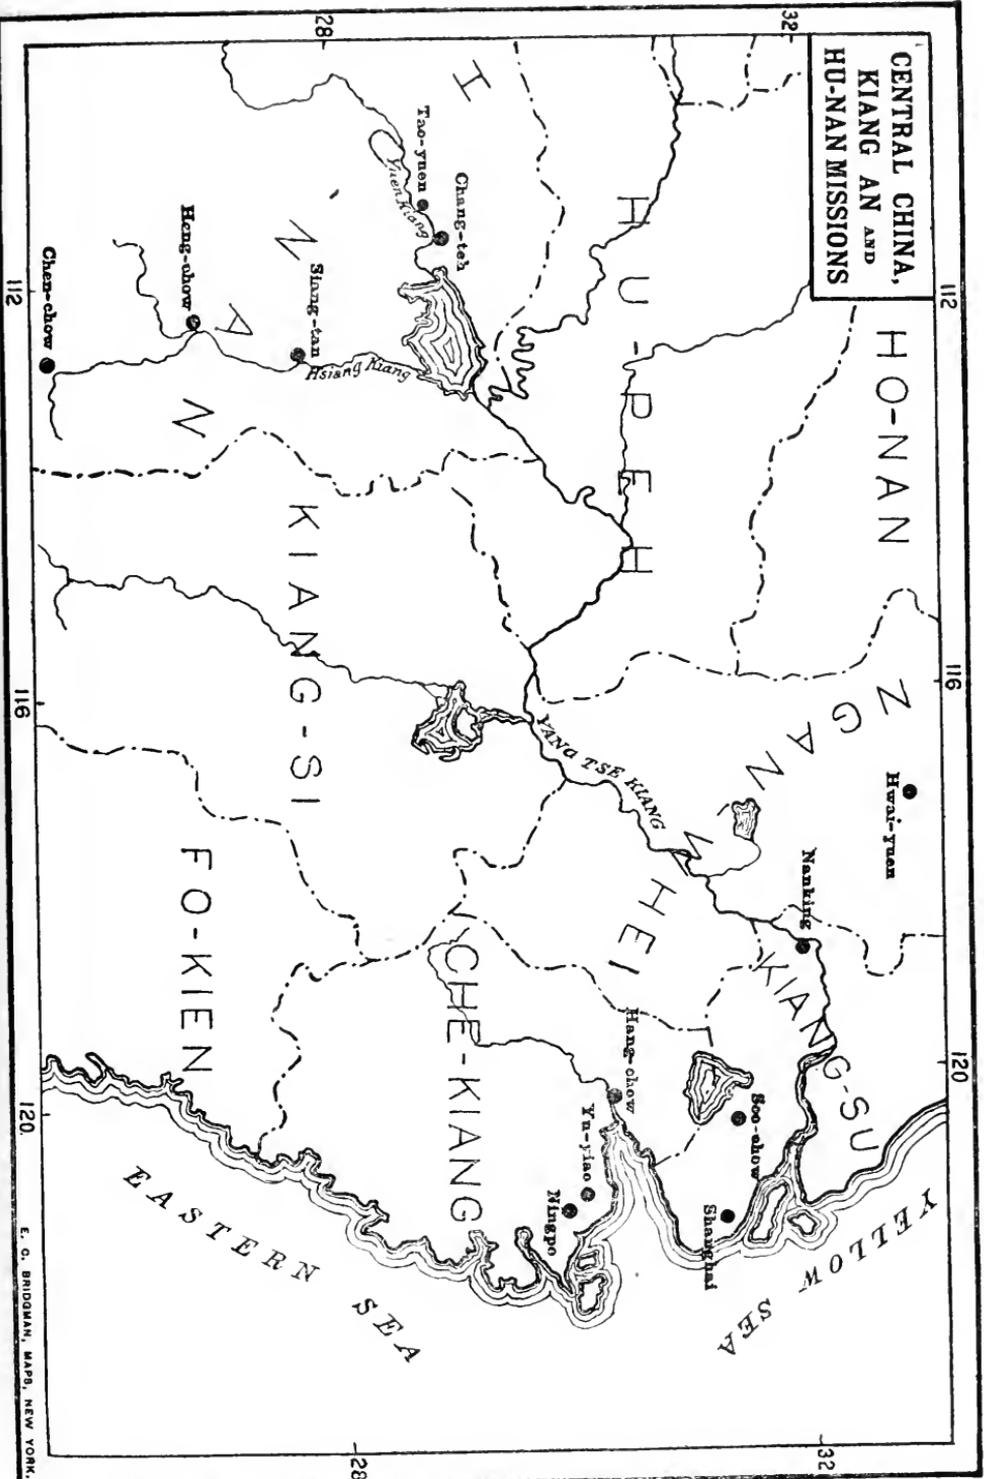

HISTORICAL SUMMARY.

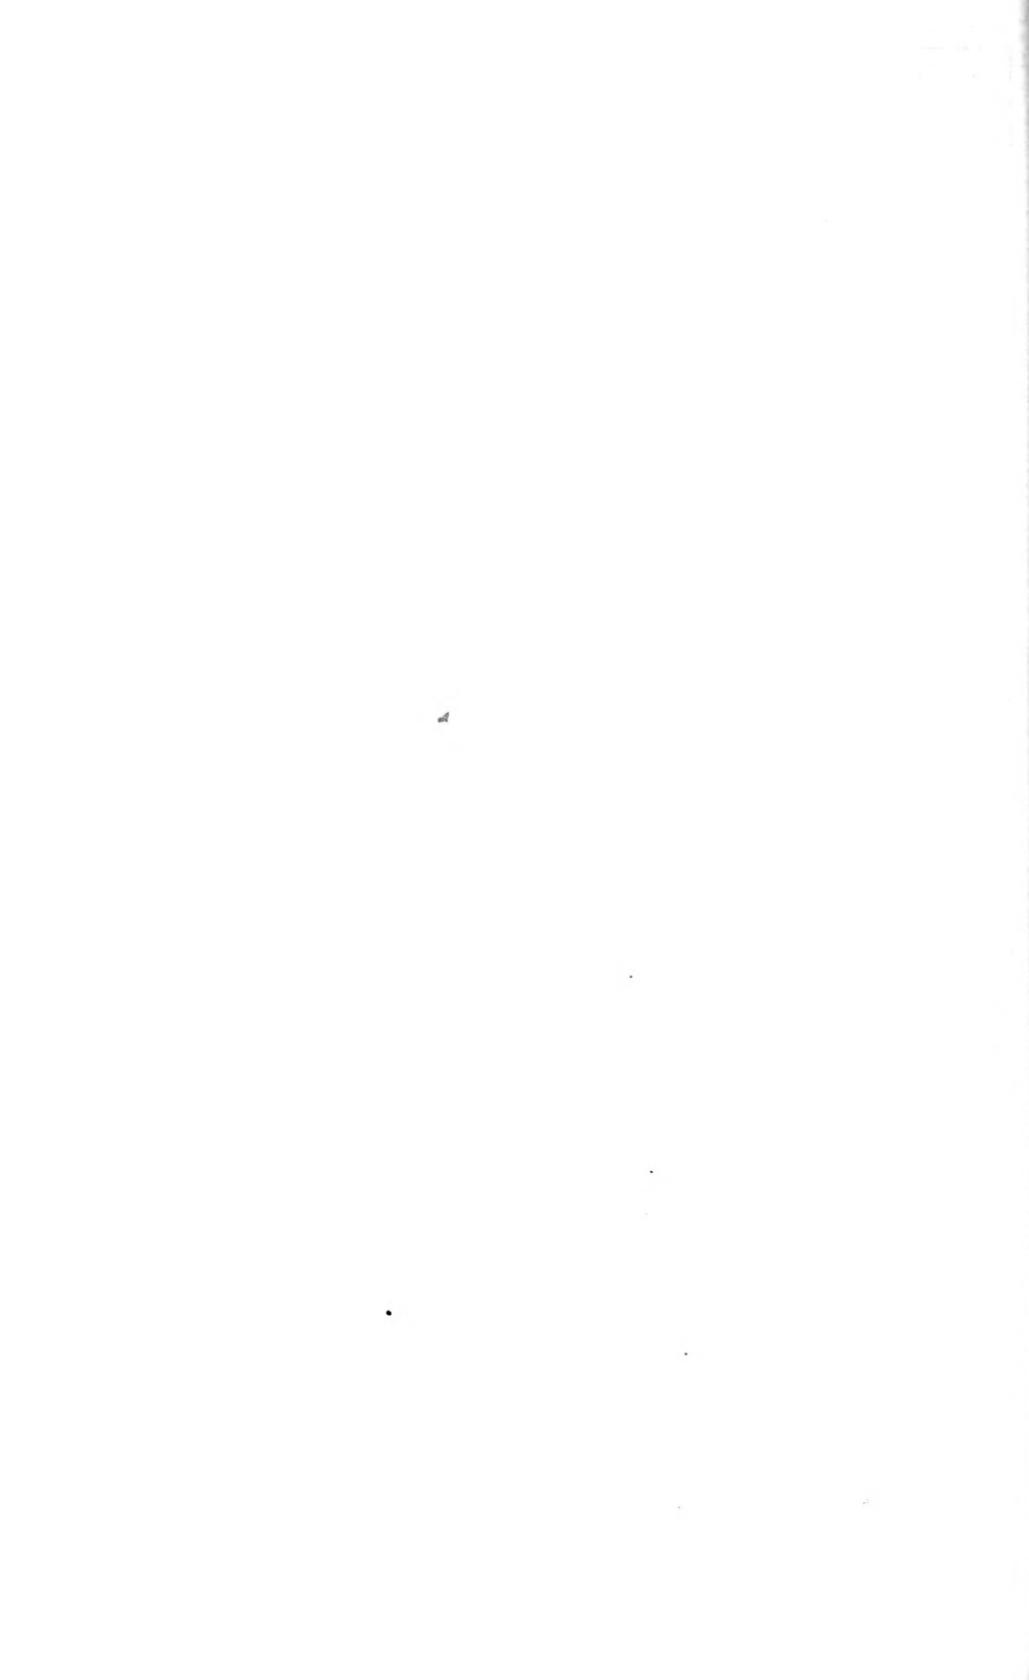

The Hunan Mission was founded in 1899 and is therefore but ten years old. During this period the work has expanded to such an extent that there are now upwards of thirty missionaries in its four Stations. The work extends from Chenchow on the extreme south of the Province, to Siangtan and Changteh on the north. During the past year the Mission has been severely tested and the shadows have fallen darkly upon it. Mrs. Derr, who was in the country caring for her invalid mother, was taken ill herself and had to cable for Mr. Derr to join her. Mrs. Berst, one of the choice spirits of the Mission, died on December 11, 1908, after a brief illness. A little child was taken both from the Preston and Jenkins' homes and Mr. Lingle was incapacitated for work for two months.

An additional problem had to be met because of the coincidence of so many furloughs falling due at the same time, those of the Tookers, Derrs, Logans, Gelwicks and Dr. Lewis all overlapping.

Fortunately, through the kindness of a friend, money was obtained so that Rev. E. F. Knickerbocker, formerly of the China Inland Mission, and who already has the language, is to start at once to fill in the gap until some of those on furlough return. Progress has been made in the school buildings at Siangtan and Changteh and houses have been provided for both Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Preston. Money is also in hand for Dr. Robertson's hospital at Hengchow, having been given through the kindness of the Woman's Board of New York. The building will soon be started and when Dr. Lewis returns from his furlough he will take with him some new equipment for the hospital at Chenchow, this money having been given by a friend.

CHANGTEH: About 125 miles northwest of Siangtan; occupied 1898; received under Presbyterian Board 1906. Missionaries—Rev. T. J. Preston and Mrs. Preston, Rev. Gilbert Lovell and Mrs. Lovell, Dr. O. T. Logan and Mrs. Logan, Dr. W. L. Berst and Mrs. Berst.

TAOEN: As an out-station about 120 miles northwest of Siangtan. Missionaries—Rev. G. F. Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins.

DEATH: Mrs. W. L. Berst.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. Geo. L. Gelwicks, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Derr, Dr. and Mrs. O. T. Logan, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Tooker, Dr. S. C. Lewis.

SIANGTAN STATION.

The familiar promise, "As thy day so shall thy strength be," has been fully verified in the days of the year just closed.

The members of Siangtan Station faced a new year's work with only half the working force of the preceding year, but the work has gone on with no interruption.

A regular weekly prayer meeting has been a source of much comfort and help, and a special Easter service, with bright new music from home, made a pleasant variation in the Sabbath afternoon union service.

In March Dr. Arthur Smith visited Siangtan, giving two delightful addresses in the church.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Church.—Sunday-school and church services have been held regularly every Sunday morning. Dr. Vanderburgh is Sunday-school Superintendent. The attendance has been very good throughout the year. At Christmas time an entertainment was given. The boys and girls of the schools made some beautiful decorations for the church and their songs and other exercises were given with a spirit that showed their appreciation of the meaning of the day.

The morning services have been conducted by Mr. Lingle, who has done most of the preaching. On the other days that he has been at the out-station Mr. Liu, the evangelist, or Mr. Wan, the hospital evangelist, has preached.

There are sixty-two on the roll of membership in regular standing. Thirteen have been received into the church in the last year. Two members have died.

The midweek prayer meeting has been held regularly under the charge of Dr. Vanderburgh. Many outsiders have attended these meetings, and we hope to reach some of our neighbors in this way.

Chapels.—The Fourteenth ward, or our city, chapel is the most important preaching place. Daily preaching is conducted there since Mr. Liu's arrival and the services are well attended. Mr. Liu preaches with characteristic Methodist earnestness.

The work in I Si Hoa is difficult. Mr. Chang, who was for so many years the chapel keeper and school-teacher in the city, is in charge of the chapel there. Ten scholars attend the day-school.

The work at I Kiau Wan is carried on by Mr. Li Sheng as chapel keeper and teacher. Mr. Li has made friends with the people and is an earnest preacher. He has a day-school of nine pupils.

A new out-station was added when, at the beginning of the year, Mr. Lingle opened a chapel at Kiang Che, a good-sized town on the main road to Pao Chin-fu, thirty-five li from Siangtan. Mr. Li, who has also had two years in the evangelistic class under Mr. Gelwicks, is in charge of this new chapel. A small place for preaching was rented without any trouble, and the people are friendly and hear the Gospel gladly.

EDUCATIONAL.—John D. Wells Boarding School for Boys.—Mr. and Mrs. Lingle were put in charge of the school in August, upon the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Lovell to Changteh. The school has suffered many changes of policy, changes of courses, and changes of people in charge, and has finally reverted to its originators, who are trying to change as little as possible the general policy and rules of the last incumbent.

There have been thirty-one enrollments this year. A number of the students hearing that Mr. Lovell was transferred to Changteh, supposing that the school would be closed, entered the Yale school in Changsha.

The religious life of the school has been encouraging, although only two boys have joined the church. A number have declared their intention of making an open profession of their faith in the near future. The morning's sermon is reported every Sunday evening.

The standard of scholarship has been much higher this term; the students are learning to really work at their studies. A literary society is helping them to learn to conduct meetings in a parliamentary way.

Mrs. Lingle writes:

The much desired funds for building have come this year, and we are very grateful to God, and to the donors, Mrs. Russell Sage, Mr. L. H. Severance and Mr. Post, who contributed several years ago. This money will enable us to finish the building as planned. There will be accommodation for nearly 100 boys. We are very thankful for increased facilities and opportunities, and hope and pray that this school, which has had so many ups and downs, may now be on the way to success, a power for good in preparing many for work for God in Hunan.

Sunny Side School for Girls.—In September Miss Kolfrat moved her girls' school from the city to the woman's ward of the hospital, where they have a comfortable temporary home while waiting for the completion of their new building. There are seventeen girls enrolled.

Miss Kolfrat writes:

Considering the interruptions because of sickness, the girls have made good progress in their studies and domestic work. The spirit of helpfulness and growth along the line of self-control has been very gratifying.

The report would not be complete without giving a tribute to the faithful service of Mrs. Wang, who has left us for her home in Shan Tung. During her husband's illness Mrs. Wang kept up her work even though urged to take a rest, and we shall miss her very much in the school.

Three of our girls expect to be baptized at our next Communion. Then all our original students will be baptized Christians. Our number is small, but the Lord has given us results that will tell for the up-building of His kingdom in Siangtan.

Day-schools.—The parish school has been under the care of Miss Kolfrat and Mrs. Vanderburgh. There are eleven regular scholars. This school has been supported by the church since the Chinese New Year.

Mrs. Liu, wife of the evangelist, has a school of twenty pupils in the Fourteenth ward chapel. Mrs. Liu is a graduate of the Kiukiang Methodist school and is a competent teacher. She has put new life into the school.

WOMAN'S WORK.—All the ladies of the Station have spent from four to six hours daily in the school-room, so, it can readily be seen that there has been very little time for regular woman's work. A great many guests have been received, and some calls made. From September to February Mrs. Lingle taught a class of women five days in the week, preparing them to do Bible woman's work, and a class of women in the Fourteenth ward for some months. Three women, upon whom much labor and many prayers have been spent, have been baptized. Two of them are doing earnest work for the Mission, and the third is letting her light shine brightly while it lasts, for it will soon be burned out.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Vanderburgh writes:

The work in the hospital has had, like all the other branches of the Station work, its lights and shadows throughout the past year.

We have missed very much the good help and counsel of Dr. and Mrs. Tooker in the work.

Mr. Wang, so long a teacher in the boys' school, was in the hospital with malignant malaria. He was twice at death's door, and is now only slowly regaining his strength. A change of climate was his only hope.

One of our best cases was a little lad of twelve years who was brought to us during the severe Winter weather, a little shadow of a boy. Hot water bags, a coal fire, enough to eat and careful nursing transformed him into the ruddy, happy little chap I met the other day on the street.

Mr. Wan, the hospital evangelist, has done very earnest and faithful work among the patients. He helps in the daily prayers in the chapel, and teaches at the bedside of all who are able to listen.

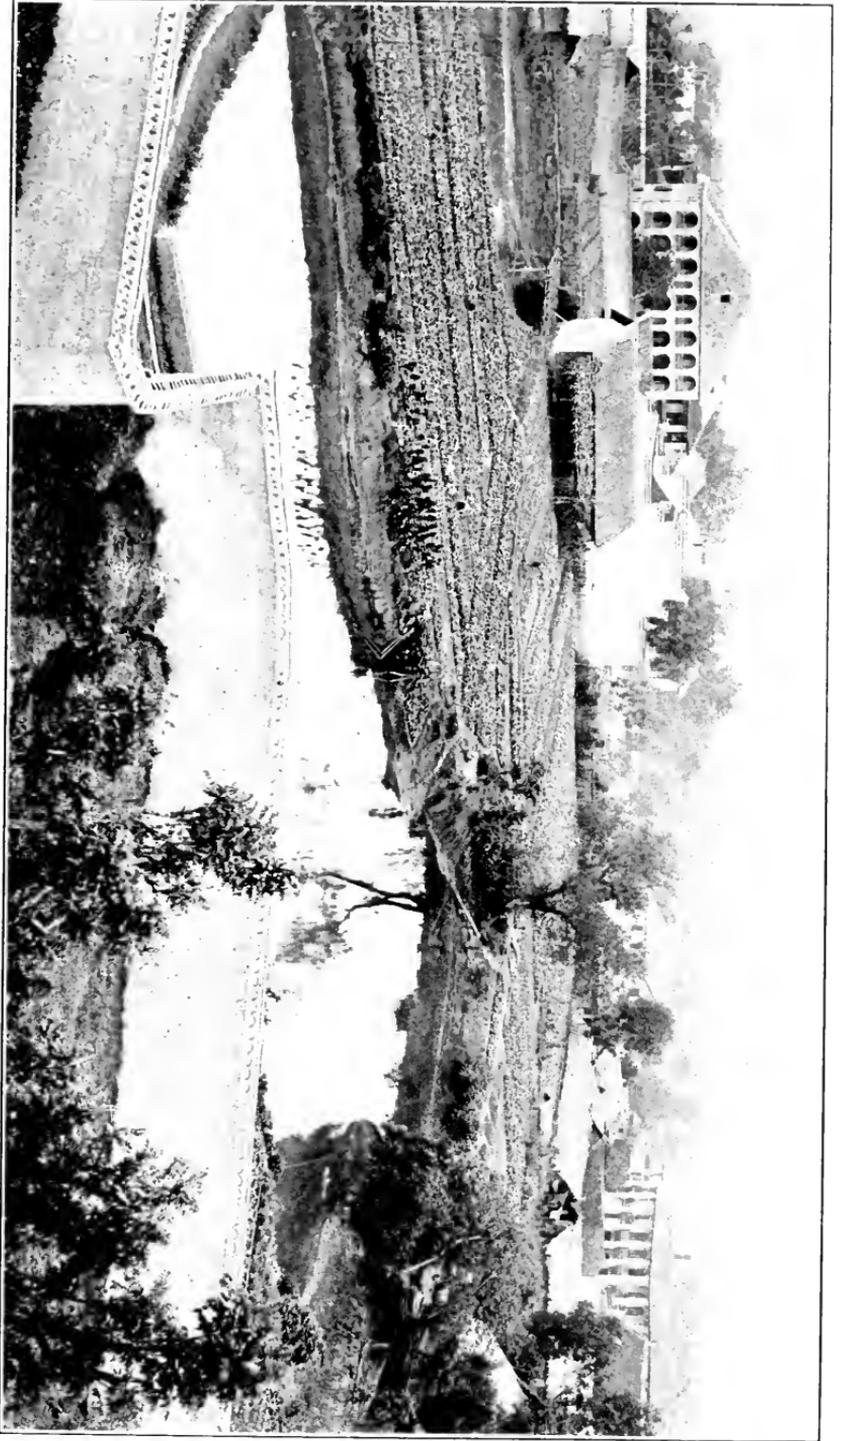

Some of the patients are carried out under the orange trees when the weather is warm, and, as a friend remarked, it makes a good picture to see the evangelist on a low stool by the side of the patients teaching them of Him "who healed all our diseases." There is one applicant for baptism, and three catechumens. Two medical students have been taught regularly during the year by Dr. Vanderburgh.

NATHANIEL TOOKER HOSPITAL, SANGTAN, HUNAN, CHINA.

HENGCHOW STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—Mr. Gelwicks writes:

The field consists of the city main chapel and street chapel with out-station chapels at two market towns, each ten miles from the city. A Chinese evangelist assists the missionary in this work. Three country itinerating circuits (situated southward, northward and westward from the city) consist of seven or eight principal preaching places to each circuit. An evangelist who resides in his field is in charge of each circuit, of which he makes a complete tour monthly, visiting the same towns on the same days of each month. The missionary also visits each of these circuits regularly. The goal that is being striven for is a self-sustaining and self-propagating church in each of these centres of a considerable rural population. Chapels have thus far been rented in nine towns. As the work develops, these circuits will require more supervision and consequently a larger force of workers. The idea is that when the believers of a place require more pastoral care than the circuit evangelist is able to give, they shall either alone or grouped with other places, provide in part at least the support of a preacher, and the Mission will supply the man. This will leave the evangelist free to devote more time to his remaining places or to enter new towns.

The work that is undertaken is the same in essence for both the city and the country. The work begins with distribution of literature and evangelistic preaching on the streets, at inns or in chapels. When a place has at least several persons who accept Christ as their personal Saviour, a Christian Endeavor Society may be organized for the purpose of growth in Christian life and experience in service. From this the next step is to regular Sabbath worship with preaching service, and mid-week prayer meeting. The Wednesday evening service at Hengchow is both a prayer and a Bible study meeting, at which the Bible study text-books of the Young Men's Christian Association are used, the church members studying daily the lessons of each week in their homes.

"The Good Seed."—The missionary was trudging along a byroad in the country, far from the city, and stopped to hand a tract to a very ordinary looking farmer working in his field. "Oh, I know you," said the man, "I saw you at —," naming the Mission residence of three years before. It is safe to believe that that seed fell into good soil.

The city numbers twenty-one baptized members, of whom three have received baptism since the last report. The membership at one country town is twelve, of whom six were baptized this year. At only one other place has anyone received baptism and there only one person. The total membership of the Station, therefore, is thirty-four, of whom ten represent this year's increase. The ideal that is steadfastly kept in view in receiving members is a church with which Christ shall be well pleased. When a place has ten baptized members, they are expected to be financially responsible for the local place of worship. As the city congregation continues to meet in the Mission's chapel, for which it pays us rent, it pays by subscription $12 Mexican annually for the rent of a country chapel. The surplus from the subscriptions is held in reserve for the time, when having twenty-five church members, the congregation shall also pay $5 per month towards their preacher's salary. In addition to the subscription, an offering is taken at each Sabbath service, which amounts to about $20 a year. Of this one-half is for local church expenses, three-tenths for Christian work or benevolence in China and two-tenths for Foreign Missions.

The report of the Evangelistic work would not be complete without mention being made of the Evangelist's Class.

Mission's Evangelistic Class.—The class assembled for its second year's work with eleven students from the five Stations of the Mission, as against six from three Stations last year. The men studied faithfully and their work without exception was creditable. Each student preached one evening a week at a chapel service, and once during his stay at North Gate chapel Sunday morning worship. At Chinese New Year the students made a systematic visitation, with distribution of calendars, of the immense number of boats that celebrate the feast in Hengchow. "Endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ" was the thought that was made the keynote of the course. Upon separation, each student received a prayer list containing the name of one fellow-student for each day, each name occurring three times a month. There has been no appropriation by the Board for this work, the expense being met from current funds.

EDUCATIONAL.—A day-school was opened in September at the Tao Heo Kai Chapel. The attendance has been very regular, averaging about thirteen for the year. Another day-school was opened in September at the North Gate Chapel, but changes in its location have made the attendance less regular. An average of about ten has been maintained. A beginning of a boys' boarding school has been started in a repaired native house which is to serve as school building until better quarters are provided.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Women's evangelistic services have been held weekly at each of the chapels and in the girls' school. The attendance has been very irregular, as the work is just beginning, but at least the ground has been prepared for a more satisfying work next year. During the past year we have had the joy of seeing our first Hengchow woman baptized and become a member of the church.

The girls' day-school of last year was made a boarding school, and proved much more satisfactory in every way. It began with four boarders and one day pupil, and closed with ten boarders and three day pupils. It has been a gratification to see the development in the girls in even so short a time. Contrary to all advice that had been received, older women were admitted along with the girls, yet there has been no reason to regret it.

MEDICAL.—As Dr. Robertson was giving his time to language study no dispensary has been opened; but 119 new cases were treated in addition to a great many return cases of which no account has been taken. He has also assisted Dr. Reeke of the London Mission in a number of operations.

CHENCHOW STATION.

The year has brought the Chenchow Station steady progress in all departments of the work. The hospital has been completed and was formally opened during the annual Bible Conference just after the Chinese New Year. The accessions to the church are a few more than last year, but more inquirers are reported. The boys' and girls' schools have had more pupils than ever before. On account of lack of funds the term had to be shortened, still most of the pupils finished the year's work. The daily preaching at Chenchow has been well attended and the woman's meetings continued to prosper.

EVANGELISTIC.—This Station is essentially an itinerating field, and presents a large opportunity for pioneering. In six counties our missionaries are the only representatives of the Gospel. In two more counties adjacent no Christian work is done at all. In one county the Wesleyans divide the work with us. From a human point of view, unless these eight and a half counties are evangelized by us, they will not be evangelized. A great responsibility is therefore ours. The field is large, the workers are few. Will we be enabled to enter the door of opportunity?

Organized Churches.—Of the organized churches the report says:

The Lin wu Church building, for which a special appropriation was given, has been completed, and meets a long-felt need. A plot of land was purchased adjoining the church, and rooms rebuilt for the evangelist and his family, and also for the visiting pastor. Eight were added to the church, and several interested inquirers were examined.

Kia Ho.—Li Pei Chi has been engaged as evangelist. Three persons were received on confession of faith and there were several inquirers. Both Kia Ho and Lin wu Churches have made a beginning in self-support, and while it has been small we hope that it is the opening of a new era for these churches.

Chenchow.—Two daily preaching services have been kept up, and are well attended. During the Fall and early Spring, when the country people were in to pay taxes, sometimes the chapel has been overflowing. Many have heard the Gospel for the first time at these meetings. Tracts and Gospels are sold at each service, and a reading room with books and newspapers has some attraction for the scholars and teachers of the city. The double Sabbath services have been kept up, one at the boys' school and the other at the street chapel. The great need here is a better building for a church so that the Sabbath services can be held where the crowds from the street will not interfere with the quiet necessary for worship. The custom of taking up an offering at the morning services has been instituted and the money so given is used to provide the running expenses of the chapel.

The Third Annual Bible Conference was well attended. The special feature was the desire on the part of those present to make a beginning in self-support, or rather in missionary work. At one of the meetings, where there was a mutual discussion of the problems of the field, they regretted that Kwei-Yang-chow had no evangelist and pledged $28 to send a man there at once. This was to be only the beginning. Committees were appointed for each of the churches at Lin wu and Kia Ho to get the whole body of believers interested in this project, and also the members at Hsing Ning were to be canvassed, the aim being to raise sufficient for the salary of the evangelist. The conference closed with the celebration of the Lord's Supper, at which time seven adults were baptized and also four children, and one school-boy was received into communion.

Out-stations.—At Lan San. Here there is a growing church that promises to outstrip any of the others in this field. Seven adults have been added and five children baptized.

Hsing Ning.—This church has prospered in spite of obstacles. Nine adults and one infant have been baptized. The chapel keeper keeps a day-school, in which the attendance has increased from six to twelve. Work has also been carried on at Yui Hsing and Kwei Yang Chow. This latter place is a large city only seventy li from Chenchow. Sen Pao Chen, the hospital evangelist, spent two months here and sold many tracts and portions of Scripture and reported some who were more or less interested in the Gospel. As a result of the Bible Conference, a man from our Lin wu Church, one of the first to be baptized in Hunan, was located here. He is a fine man for personal work and there is reason to believe that our work in Kwei Yang Chow will prosper under his leadership.

ITINERATING.—Three trips have been made to our southern field, seven to Hsing Ning, seven to Yui Hsing and six to Kwei Yang Chow. In addition to these more extended tours, regular visits have been made to the surrounding market towns and villages. Thousands of tracts and Gospels have been sold and much seed sown. The Lord of the harvest will in his own time give the increase.

WOMAN'S WORK.—The woman's meeting formerly held at the compound was transferred to the street chapel at Chinese New Year time and was marked by increased attendance and interest. Mrs. Locke and Mrs. Mitchell had charge of these meetings and were assisted by Mrs. Wang. One woman has been baptized, and there are several more who ought to be ready for baptism soon. Mrs. Mitchell has made many calls, and has entertained many callers at her home, sometimes as many as fifty in one day.

EDUCATIONAL.—Girls' School.—The girls' school opened November 12 and was held in the building formerly occupied by Dr. Lewis and the hospital. Mrs. Mitchell had charge of the school this year. Mrs. Wang did most of the teaching and has proven herself to be a good teacher and is so clean, careful and industrious that she has also been a good example for the girls. Some lessons have been given in sewing. Some of the girls are learning music. Mrs. Mitchell held prayers every day and spent half of Friday each week examining the girls. Eighteen girls have been enrolled, with an average attendance of fifteen. Eleven were boarders and seven were day-pupils. Two girls have requested to be baptized and doubtless will be received into the church soon. There were other applicants to be received into the school, but on account of the cramped quarters and limited funds they had to be declined. For the benefit of the day-scholars the school will be continued through the Summer.

Day-schools have been maintained at Kia Ho with ten pupils; at Hsing Ning with eleven boys and one girl, and at Chenchow with nine pupils. Mr. Loa, the teacher, is a Chinese B.A. This school keeps us in touch with the Ma Teo si section of the city, where our work in Chenchow began.

Chenchow Boys' Boarding School.—In the Spring term there were twenty boarders and two day-pupils, who finished the year's work. All but four of the pupils came from Christian homes, and three are Christians of the third generation. During the year two united with the church, making seven pupils in all that are communicant church members. Six of the older boys earned a part of their expenses by manual work leveling the hospital compound. Ko Chong yao, who finished the course, has been sent to Nanking to finish his education. Dr. Garritt reports that he is doing excellent work and we hope that he will soon be fitted to instruct his own people. The present home of the school is a remodeled mud brick building at the back of our residence compound. A little red paint and plenty of lime have made the building look quite respectable, but it is overcrowded.

MEDICAL.—Excepting Edith Mitchell's case of whooping cough and Alan Locke's case of chicken-pox, the health of the members of the Station has been good, for which we are all very thankful. The medical work has been somewhat curtailed owing to the construction of the hospital, which was begun early in June, 1907, and completed in January, 1908. While the exchange was very low and the appropriation, $3,000 gold, brought only about $5,600 Mex., yet the hospital has been built within the appropriation. During two months of the time in which it has been in operation there was a daily average attendance of twenty-seven patients. Owing to lack of suitable room, only twelve in-patients were received and only four major operations performed. Although there is a decrease in the number of patients during the year, there was an increase in the field receipts, and with a gift of $20 from Mr. Scholes, of the Wesleyan Mission, they netted $110 Mex. Fully half of these receipts have been obtained from the sale of quinine and cough medicine alone. Fortunately, money for the equipment is forthcoming. With plenty of room and better facilities we hope to have a larger report in the future.

The following is the account of the opening of the new building:

The hospital was completed by Chinese New Year. We felt that in opening the hospital appropriate exercises would be appreciated by the Chinese and give the hospital a better standing in their eyes. Invitations were sent to the Governor at Chang sha and the Tao T'ai at Hengchow, to let them know of the work being done here. Two days before the day set for our opening exercises, February 19, word came that an official with the rank of Chi fu was sent to represent the Governor, and the official with the rank of Chih hsien was sent to represent the Tao T'ai at the opening exercises of the hospital. Both the Governor and Tao T'ai, together with the Chenchow official, issued proclamations setting forth the object of the hospital, and expressing their hearty approval and purpose to protect it. Early on the day of opening, the military official sent guards and decorative flags. On the preceding day the gentry and merchants had sent a beautiful banner with appropriate inscriptions, together with lanterns and many other congratulatory gifts. It was about 10 A. M. on February 19 that the guests began to arrive and it was a magnificent sight to behold the officials and gentry, arrayed in their gay robes, making their way into the decorated waiting-rooms, amidst a tremendous din of firecrackers on the outside, and music within provided by buglers of the military camp. The exercises, simple and impressive, were as follows: A few words of welcome by the resident physician in charge. Singing of "All people that on earth do dwell." Reading of Scripture and prayer by our evangelist, Mr. Wang. Singing, "The Great Physician." Three addresses of commendation by the representatives of the Governor and Tao T'ai and by the Chenchow official. The chief addresses of the day by Mr. Locke and Mr. Han, telling the object of the hospital. A few words of congratulation by Mr. Scholes. Singing, "God save the Emperor," and the benediction pronounced by Mr. Mitchell.

After the exercises, photographs were taken, and the officials and gentry together with all the foreigners, including our two guests from Hengchow, Mr. Crabb and Dr. Robertson, sat down to an excellent banquet prepared by the ladies of the Station. There were twenty-five guests. After replenishing the inner man, they all proceeded to the inspection of the hospital, and there were many words of praise. The representatives of the Governor and Tao T'ai said they would give flourishing reports on their return. On the three following days feasts were given to the merchants, teachers and many other friends of the hospital. We feel that the advertising of the hospital and the reputation it gained from such an opening more than repaid the time and expense involved. We trust it may ever be a valued institution in alleviating the ills of all who enter its walls and point many to the great Consoler of all the needy.

New patients, 640; treatments, 3,600; in-patients, 12; major operations, 4; outcalls, 21; field receipts, $110 Mexican.

CHANGTEH STATION.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Mr. and Mrs. Preston have had charge of this work. In the prosecution of this department of the work emphasis has been laid upon the instructions given in the last commands of Christ to teach, preach and witness. Under these three heads the report is as follows:

1. Teaching.—For the men's Bible class we have followed the International Sunday-school lessons. Since the first of the year there has been a helpful continuity in the studies, all the lessons being taken from the Gospel of John. An effort has been made to divide the women into classes, one of which, composed of those able to read to some extent, has studied the Catechism. Another class is composed of those who are regular attendants but not able to read, while provision has also been made for those whose presence is more or less irregular. The plan has not been without success, and frequently the women and girls constitute fully one-half of the audience. A class of young girls, the majority of whom are students in the day-school, is held at the same time. One of our women is in Hankow studying to be a Bible woman. During the Fall a class of instruction in singing—an art in which most of our Chinese churches have room for improvement—was conducted every Saturday evening.

Two members of our church, one the hospital evangelist and the other a young student, attended the lay evangelist class at Hengchow during the first three months of the year and returned with evidence of substantial benefit therefrom. These students are continuing a course of study, the younger taking Christian Evidences, while the other, in connection with the evangelist at the Station, is studying the book of Daniel.

2. Preaching.—All the regular services of the church have been kept up. Last Fall our Chinese church contributed to the renovation of two shop fronts of our new property for a street chapel, which, in addition to the two nights at our other chapel, has enabled us to have street-chapel preaching every evening in the week, save Wednesday, on which night is held our weekly prayer meeting. These services have usually been attended by crowds, and while, to use a Scriptural figure, much of the soil seems to have had wayside, stony and thorny qualities, now and again we find that the seed did lodge in prepared ground. Since our last report to the Mission ten members have been received into the church and two infants baptized. In this connection it may be mentioned that we have lost two members by death.

3. Witnessing.—Nothing extended need be said on this subject, though we have striven to make our church one that witnessed to the power of the Gospel. Four of our members are definitely engaged in Christian work, and we believe that a much larger number daily bear testimony by word and conduct to the reality of changed lives.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—

1. Girls' Day-school.—The day-school for girls, which has been in successful operation for several years, has had a very encouraging session. School opened with an enrollment of fifteen. The attendance rapidly increased until the enrollment reached thirty-five, and as only two scholars dropped out, the average attendance was thirty-three. There are eight large girls who hope to attend the Teh Shan Girls' Boarding School next year. Twenty-two foreign style desks have been added to the school equipment during the year. The school-girls have with encouraging regularity attended the Sunday services at the chapel, and have been formed into a class for Bible instruction at the close of the morning service.

2. Teh Shan Boarding Schools.—Mr. and Mrs. Lovell have continued in charge of this work. For the larger interests of our work, chiefly owing to the difficulty of securing land to expand our evangelistic and medical work in the city, it was decided to establish the girls' and boys' boarding schools at Teh Shan, and transfer the place purchased last year to the evangelistic work. Accordingly a piece of property adjoining the boys' school ground was purchased, and, on arrival last Fall, the first work of Mr. Lovell was to superintend the building of a wall around the entire compound, which was completed by the first of the year. The plan comprises the entire separation of the buildings, a wall and a residence coming between the two schools. Work on the two main buildings is now progressing, though in the case of the boys' school the funds on hand will permit the erection of only one wing. The first spade of soil preparatory to commencing work on the girls' school was turned March 21, and at the time of this Mission meeting the building is up to the second story, with every prospect for having it finished and ready for opening in the Fall. During the past year six of the girls from this Station have attended school at other places, and there is every reason to believe that there will be a creditable attendance from the opening day. Unfortunately sufficient funds for the entire building are lacking, but the one wing will be erected during the Summer with the intention of also opening this school in the Fall. During the Winter and Spring, while building operations have been going on, Mr. Lovell has preached to the workmen and, in addition, conducted a class for teaching the Chinese character and the principles of Christianity to those who attended. As no other Mission is doing, or planning to do, educational work in our city, or this immediate section of Hunan, the prospects before the two schools as to attendance and the helpful service to the young of our prefecture are bright with promise. These two schools, when completed and in successful operation, will make real what has long been the desire and the need of this Station.

3. Medical Work.—Mrs. Logan has acted as drug clerk, hospital accountant and nurse-in-charge; also in several instances taking full responsibility in midwifery cases outside the hospital. That such services are appreciated is shown by the fact that the husband of one of the patients made the hospital a present of $30 in recognition of the service rendered. She has nursed three cases of illness among foreigners during the year.

Dr. Pao has returned from the London Mission Medical School at Hankow, where he graduated last February with a fine record, both as to scholarship and morals. In response to an invitation from the Medical School, the Station granted Dr. Logan permission to give instruction in the school, and for this purpose he spent the month of April in Hankow delivering a course of lectures to the students. During his absence Dr. Pao did most of the medical work, and proved himself both capable and trustworthy. Under direction he has done a number of serious operations with judgment and deftness, and is fast proving himself a valuable member of the medical staff. Two young men from this Station are still at the Medical School, and good reports are given of their character and work. The medical fees have been increased in accordance with the principle of making the work as nearly self-supporting as possible. Several substantial subscriptions from well-to-do Chinese have been received, and it is hoped that more and more the aid of this class may be enlisted.

The patients in the hospital have been from many parts of Hunan, and a number have also come from Hupeh, Kueichow and Szechuan. Those from a distance have almost invariably come by recommendation from former patients.

One man came from the western part of Hunan after having spent 200,000 cash trying to heal his jaw that could not possibly be cured without the removal of a large piece of dead bone. The people have shown an increased willingness to submit to the necessary surgical operations. The fact that they have to pay 1,000 cash for ether seems to impress their minds that they are securing a privilege in the anesthetic, rather than that the mysterious drug is being used to secure physical control over them.

There have been many instances of gratitude among the people. A poor woman, who said when she came that she had not called a Chinese doctor, because she was too poor, brought a present of beef that represented as much as she could possibly save out of a month's wages. All efforts to make her take back the gift were unavailing, and it was necessary to capitulate, or seriously offend her. The beggars at the poorhouse, many of whom are patients and regular attendants at the church services, presented a pair of scrolls that are appreciated more than any other present received since coming to China.

Mr. Ts'en, the hospital evangelist, gives practically all his time to the instruction of patients. He spent three months in the theological class at Hengchow with decided benefit in zeal and knowledge.

The statistics for the year are as follows:

In-patients	194
Out-patients, new	3,878
Out-patients, old	3,985
	8,057
Visits to out-patients	184
Operations	346
Field receipts	Mex. $765.82

WORK AT TAO YUEN.

Tao Yuen, which was formerly a separate Station, is now carried on as an out-station with Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins in charge. They report as follows:

THE EVANGELISTIC WORK has had a steady growth. During the year we have had two faithful members enter the church, a son and his mother. There has been quite an addition to the inquirers' class, now numbering twenty-four. We have been disappointed in regard to some of the adherents, as we had expected more of them to join the church. They have not completed the required work for membership. We believe they should have a knowledge of the faith that is in them before becoming members of the church.

We have made three itinerating trips with a view to establishing out-stations, and have had an evangelist or colporteur selling books and Bibles and preaching in the country villages the greater part of the year. The results of this work have been gratifying as we have sold during the year over 7,000 tracts, portions and Bibles and we will soon establish four out-stations with a prospect of others as soon as we have the workers to see after the work properly.

We have a Sunday-school of seventy members. We have our regular Sunday and midweek services with street chapel every night. The chapel attendant sells books and preaches to the people during the day. We are planning soon to organize a Christian Endeavor Society.

The Church members and inquirers are raising money by Sunday contribution for the purchase of a piece of land on which to build a street chapel. In a few weeks they will have paid in full the total cost, 60,000 cash. It is about 30 x 60 feet, and located on a business street.

SCHOOLS.—The Boys' Day-school is not as full as last year, but the character of the boys and the class of work is much better. We have an enrollment of thirty-three, with an average attendance of twenty-five, and have raised the tuition from 1,200 to 2,000 cash a year. We are glad to note the faithfulness of these boys in attending the regular services, and the knowledge of the Bible they display. At 3.30 each day a service is held for the school.

The Day-school for Girls was opened the 16th of February with an enrollment of five pupils. It now has nine in regular attendance. An elderly gentleman who has been teaching heretofore in our boys' school is the teacher. Mrs. Jenkins also assists by teaching arithmetic and geography and examines the children on their work.

The work among the women and children the past year has been especially blessed, although we had no Bible woman. The attendance at all the services was good, and especially the evening services. Two women have given their hearts to God and one of them has been received into the Church. She is now studying daily under Mrs. Jenkins' direction, and is making wonderful progress for a woman over fifty years of age.

KIANG-AN MISSION.

NANKING: on the Yang-tse-Kiang, 90 miles from its mouth; occupied as a Mission Station, 1876. Missionaries—Rev. Charles Leaman and Mrs. Leaman, Rev. W. J. Drummond and Mrs. Drummond, Rev. J. C. Garritt, D.D., and Mrs. Garritt, Rev. J. E. Williams and Mrs. Williams, Miss E. E. Dresser, Miss M. A. Leaman, Miss Jane A. Hyde, Miss Grace Lucas, Rev. Alfred V. Gray and Mrs. Gray, Mrs. A. M. R. Jones.

HWAI-YUEN: 150 miles northwest of Nanking; occupied as a Mission Station, 1892. Missionaries—Rev. E. C. Lobenstine and Mrs. Lobenstine, Rev. D. B. S. Morris, Rev. J. B. Cochran and Mrs. Cochran, Samuel Cochran, M.D., and Mrs. Cochran, Miss Rose Lobenstine, Miss Agnes Gordon Murdoch, M.D., Miss Mary Cole Murdoch, Miss Margaret Falconer Murdoch.

DEATH: Mrs. E. C. Lobenstine.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. J. B. Cochran and Mrs. Cochran, Samuel Cochran, M.D., and Mrs. Cochran, Rev. N. J. Drummond and Mrs. Drummond, Rev. J. E. Williams and Mrs. Williams, Miss E. E. Dresser.

On June 5, 1908, the Mission suffered the loss of one of its most useful and beloved members in the death of Mrs. Lobenstine, while on her way from Hwai Yuen to Kuling. The three Murdoch sisters were added at the end of the year. The absence on furlough of many members of the two Stations threw unusual burdens on those who remained.

NANKING STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—Churches.—Mr. Chen, instructor in the seminary, was elected elder of the First Church in Han-si-men.

Mr. Gray, pastor of the Grace Church, Hu-bu-giai, writes:

It is difficult for a pastor to adapt his services to small school-boys, well taught in the doctrine, and to men and women who come in off the streets, sometimes bringing their rice-bowls and chop-sticks, teapots, market baskets, and children with bells on their toes. Mrs. Jones says, "We never know what to expect at our church services, in addition to our boys. Perhaps a company of ladies in silks and jewels, a crowd of dirty children from the street, groups of common, big-footed women (sometimes with their sewing) make up our Sunday congregation. . . . My heart was deeply touched at the last examination of candidates for baptism when one of our boys from a heathen home asked to be baptized. Questioned as to why he wanted to be a Christian, he replied that he had wanted to be one ever since he studied about the resurrection of Lazarus. When questioned further as to why that affected him, he said that no one could get away from his sins, that everyone would be resurrected and brought to judgment, and he wanted his sins forgiven."

There have been four street chapels, some crowded in fair weather and others working with less interest. Mr. Leaman says:

The work of evangelization in the city has not been neglected, but our force is inadequate to the needs of our work in every way, and it has fallen far short in the evangelization of our large and important city. All the difficulties known at home in any city are here, and in addition there is no help from a Christian civilization ruling in it. In all the sham of the new civilization springing up heathen customs and life predominate in all classes, from the Governor-General down to the lowest beggar.

COUNTRY WORK.—

Tung-dzing.—At the last Communion there were two adults and two infants baptized. One of the elders and his wife brought forward a little heathen girl of about eleven who was to be the wife of their eldest son, and since it was thought best not to baptize her, she to be parents-in-law took vows upon themselves to bring her up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord and to use every effort to bring her to Christ. Thus before the church she was dedicated to the Lord.

Lih-Shui.—This has been the most encouraging of all the out-stations this year. At the Autumn session there were over 100 inquirers, thirty-six of whom showed a hopeful knowledge of "the doctrine," and ten were baptized. These were men, mostly the heads of families. Already they have some money ready for buying land for a church. They pay the rent for their chapel themselves. The evangelist and school teacher was elected elder, and two elderly men deacons.

One inquirer was so persecuted by his father and elder brother that they put a rope around his neck and nearly choked him to death, and then threatened to bury him alive; but he remained true, and the officers of the church effected a settlement and reconciliation.

Lih-Yang.—In January Mr. Tong succeeded in renting a former teashop in a good location for a drug store and dispensary with a chapel at the back. . . . The people have determined that the Gospel should not be preached in their city, and have threatened the owner of the house for renting it to foreigners. . . . Mr. Gray says that this city of some 30,000 people is the most openly wicked and idolatrous of any he has seen in China. As this report is being written the workers in Lih-Yang are under constant threats from the gentry.

The work has been carried on also in five or six other points in the country.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Miss Hyde writes:

One week was spent in visiting the district along the canal, which until the famine time had been difficult of access, owing to the unfriendliness of the people. Miss Dresser had been cordially received at that time, and they were none the less willing to hear on this occasion. In the Spring an attempt was made to penetrate farther up the canal, in order to connect with the other Stations of our district. On these two visits we reached over fifty villages, and preached the Gospel several hundred times. . . . We were the first foreign women to visit Du-han, and we arrived just before sunset, when the people were about to leave their work on the threshing field. It was a busy time, but quite a crowd of women came to offer welcome and to listen eagerly while Miss Dresser talked "doctrine," and later to learn the little prayer for forgiveness, salvation and cleansing, which is the first real prayer they know. After an hour or two they were persuaded to leave until we could prepare and eat supper, and then they crowded back for evening service until the little mud chapel was quite full of men and women listening to the old, old story. They left with reluctance at bedtime, after having kindly provided piles of fresh straw for us to sleep on. . . . The Woman's School, under Miss Dresser's care, has been a joy and blessing to them, and to each one who has had even the smallest share in helping in it. Averaging about a dozen—part of the term more—they worked hard and faithfully. All are Christians, though two or three are still enrolled as inquirers, but they will in all likelihood soon be received as members.

Street Visiting.—

Mrs. Jones, accompanied by a Bible woman and sometimes with only a house servant, has spent an hour and a half or two hours each Saturday morning visiting in the homes of her Hu-bu-giai neighbors, inviting them to the Sunday services, and teaching them of the one true God. She says, "From the house of reeds to the home of the wealthy, one can but feel that there is very great need for the true religion. In the damp, sunless, airless abodes how do they ever exist? At first all seemed alike to me, but gradually each house and occupant has taken on its own individuality, and, instead of thinking of the mass, I find myself wondering how that old lady is, or if that sick baby has recovered. With two exceptions all have been most friendly. The best in the house was usually offered us, not excepting their pipes. Friendships have been formed, and when Mr. Williams returns I hope for more time for this needy neighborhood. One day I had gone but a few yards beyond our compound when, stopping to talk to some neighbors, a company soon gathered, on the outer edge of which were two men of the teacher class. My broken Chinese sentences quite embarrassed me in their presence, and I also feared the people might not be understanding what I was so anxious for them to hear. So I handed one of the teachers a tract and invited him to read it aloud. Can you imagine a heathen teacher, standing in the midst of such a street company, reading to them the truths of the Gospel! And besides both he and his friend came to church services the next day."

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Girls' Boarding School.—Miss Leaman writes:

The opening of school last year was not easy, as word came to us about three weeks before that both of our men teachers had been gambling. After inquiring into the matter we felt very strongly that it was far better to have all the teaching done by the matron, the older girls and ourselves, rather than run any risk with teachers of whom we were not sure. Sending them off was hard, not simply because of the burden of work they left, but one had been in the school twelve years, and the other had been in our boys' school from a little boy. . . .

At the opening of school, the girl that came back to us to teach, leaving a ten-dollar a month position for the one with us at five, came with a gift of ten dollars. She had received so much from the school, she said, that she wanted to give a little as a token of her gratitude. . . .

The opportunities for Christian work are daily multiplying, and the openings are far beyond our strength, so we rejoice the more in every advance the girls make in preparation for definite Christian service. One day while on the way to a meeting we stopped to talk to a woman sitting at her door. The other women of the house gathered, and all listened attentively. When we left they said in tones full of longing and reproach. "Why don't you come often?"

This desire is not confined to the poor, as many instances this past year have proved. When Miss Davis left the Government school in which she taught for a time, two of the girls, influenced by her teachings, left and came to us, where Miss Davis kindly continued her classes with them. We had long talks with each of these girls, both from wealthy families. Each said that she believed the Gospel, and that her family not only did not oppose it, but were also willing to listen to it.

There are sixty boarders in the school, and twelve girls who have no home but the school.

The Union Normal School for girls in Nanking is going to prove a great blessing. There are at present no teachers set apart for this work; there is no building, and there is no money. But classes have been in session since the New Year. One from each Mission teaches a subject. This is a great saving of strength in preparation for classes. In fact, it would be impossible for one Mission, without increased force, to carry on of itself the different classes planned for.

Kindergarten.—Fifty little children are in the kindergarten and come morning and afternoon. Mrs. Gray writes:

It will be many a day before the happy faces in the Kindergarten at the end of the school year, when Miss Leaman gave the children a little spread, will be forgotten. She can still see the contented smiles on their chubby faces as they sat in their little chairs around their low tables, with hands clasped before them and eyes shut tight while they repeated their little blessing, before eating what seemed to their eyes a feast; and she can but contrast their joy with the rudeness of a little boys' club in a New England Settlement house, who when they scanned a spread set for them blurted out, "Is this all we're going to have?"

Union Christian College.—This college is maintained jointly by the Disciples and the Presbyterians. It is the hope soon to merge it in the Union University, which the Methodists will join.

The attendance has been larger. The enrollment reached more than 100 at both places, and the average attendance was more than ninety. At the beginning of last term we had more than 100 applicants for admission to the school. As we did not have the room we could not accept more than twenty-five of these. Fortunately this increased demand makes it easy for us to be more particular in choosing the class of students we wish to receive. . . .

This year closes the second year of the "Union" work, and we are more than pleased with the spirit of the school. There has not been a ripple on the surface even, indicating any friction of any kind, but on the contrary the fellowship has been most enjoyable and profitable. We believe that the experimental stage of the enterprise may be considered passed and we should plan for larger things.

During the year the religious interest in the school has been healthy and growing. There have been a number of applicants for admission to the Church. . . . The Christian element in the school is largely in the ascendancy.

Union Theological Seminary.—

Thirty-seven students were enrolled—eighteen from the Northern Presbyterian Missions and eighteen from the Southern Missions, and one from the Advent Mission, Nanking. There were fourteen in the seminary proper and twenty-three in the Bible training school.

The attendance upon lectures has been remarkable for its regularity. The young men have taken their work very seriously. Being strangers in Nanking, they have had next to nothing to distract their attention from their work, and have not been absent from lectures as much as one per cent. The result was satisfactory progress in their studies.

Early in the year the students arranged a plan of work among themselves, by which they were assigned in groups of two or more to places in the city under the care of the Northern Presbyterian Mission. This work was done on the Sabbath, and did not involve absence from the city on Saturday and Monday. A special feature of the evangelistic work consisted in the students going in groups in rotation to preach on Sabbath afternoons at the Fu-tong Chapel. This is on a busy, crowded, noisy street. The audiences were full.

The majority of the students do not speak the Mandarin dialect, and they, as a rule, show no disposition to learn it. Of those who do speak some forms of Mandarin, several have such marked local peculiarities of speech that they are almost as far from standard Mandarin as the Ningpo and Soochow men. Hopes are entertained of having Mandarin taught properly in the seminary to the students (and professors).

HWAI YUEN STATION.

During the absence of Dr. and Mrs. Cochran and the Rev. and Mrs. James Cochran on furlough, Dr. and Mrs. Tooker came from the Hunan Mission to keep the hospital open, and Mr. Thomas Carter, of Montclair, N. J., who was visiting the Station, gave what assistance he could. The Station now has an excellent staff of six men, graduates of the Shantung Union College, besides two Chinese doctors, a dispenser, son of a Nanking Bible woman, and Miss Ren, teacher in the Girls' School, who is the only Chinese woman worker.

EVANGELISTIC.—During the year the Station organized what is believed to be the first Christian Church in North An-Hwei with a membership of over sixty.

Our church services have been well attended. The morning service is planned primarily for Christians, and the effort is to make it a time for worship and for religious instruction. We have changed somewhat our order of service, introducing a larger choice of chants, and we are putting a little leaflet containing the service into the hands of all. . . .

Two years' trial of an order of service in which more part is taken by the congregation convinces us of the desirability of beautifying our service, and of emphasizing the element of worship, as well as that of instruction and exhortation. The prayer life of the average Christian greatly needs enriching, and we know of no better way of helping them to get at the riches of devotional thought in the Bible than by giving the Chinese Church some of the best prayers of the Church of the West, such as are found in our Prayer Book, and by the responsive reading of the Psalms at our church services. . . .

Baptisms.—The number baptized this year was sixteen adults and one infant. In addition to the above, two families who were unwilling to have their children baptized in infancy, because of those they know when they came to mature years had not been Christians, although given all the advantages of a Christian education, have brought their children to us and presented them publicly to the Lord, taking practically the same vows that the parents do who bring their children to be baptized. They preferred that their children should be baptized upon their own confession of sin and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and while we explained to them the significance of baptism, we did not feel like pressing the point too much, allowing them liberty in the matter. . . .

Our inquirer's pledge, which we allow to be taken only after a personal examination of each candidate, and which marks them definitely as under our care, is a real help; as is also the rule that no one shall, unless in very exceptional circumstances, be baptized for at least six months after he has taken the pledge.

The Sunday-school has used the Blakeslee Course with great success. The plan of the Station is to develop an institutional church in Hwai Yuen with work for men, a loan library, stereopticon lectures, mothers' meetings, sewing clubs, etc., etc.

COUNTRY WORK.—

There are at present regular Sunday services at three points: (1) At Meng Chen, a magistracy 150 li northwest of us on the Go River. (2) At I Tswen Gih, a market town on the same river forty li nearer Hwai Yuen. Though the number of Christians is small we have a good start there; it is the home of Mr. Djang. (3) At Geng Gia Tswen. This is our strongest out-station; it is sixty li southwest of Hwai Yuen. There are in addition one or two Sunday services each month at Feng Yang Fu, Miao Shan Pu, not far from the latter and at Yang Gia Djwang and at Tsai Gia Djwang. . . .

It is our hope that we can during the next few years man the unoccupied cities about us, Feng Yeng and Ling Hwai Gwan, Si Djou, Nan Hsu Djou, Bo Djou, Goyang and Shou Djou, similarly to Meng Chen. In each we desire to place at least two, and preferably three well-equipped men, college men if we can get them. One of these should be an evangelist free for country work, and in addition to him there should be a school teacher or a physician, or both. We believe that it will be wiser not to send one man alone to a Station of this kind, and feel that the work will be stronger and grow more rapidly and wholesomely by manning well a small number of these cities, than by manning imperfectly double the number. As the positions are open to great temptations, in view of the political relationships of the missionaries, we prefer to try for well-trained men only for these positions—that is, men trained by years of Christian teaching who give proof of being men of good judgment and of earnest spirit. The men should have a year at least in Hwai Yuen, under our close daily supervision, before being sent out at a distance for work among other Christians.

. . . It should be noted that these are all prefectural or magistracy cities in the centres of large country populations.

Two inquirers' classes for men of about fifty in each class and a class for women with a similar attendance have been held. Three classes for teaching the Romanized have been held, two for the men and one for the women, and they proved conclusive to Mr. Lobenstine, as he writes :

The average young farmer can, with a little encouragement and pains, learn in less than three months to read in the Romanized with some fluency and with understanding, and raises the question whether we should not require all but the very aged to read the Gospels, or a part of them, before admission to the Church. . . .

Itinerations for both foreigners and Chinese this year have been confined to our out-stations and to the country lying near them. But one or two long trips have been made into the region lying north and east of us. The field in which we already have centres have, however, been much more thoroughly worked than before, and by a plan now developed a part of the time of each of the evangelists, Swen, Li and Dju, will be spent each month in working a limited country field assigned them centering about one of the out-stations, while for the remainder they are free for itinerations into fields where as yet we have no foothold, and for city work in connection with the church and hospital. We are trying to get the men to work for individuals rather than for crowds, whenever they go to a new town or village; and hope soon to be able to make far more use of those who have been in-patients in the hospital than we have in the past.

Some of the most interesting experiences of the year have been the meetings held in connection with the taking down of the family idols in the homes of inquirers. Every one who takes the inquirer's pledge binds himself to remove the family idols, provided he is head of the family; but the old fear of the idol is so great that it requires the visit of some strong Christian to give them the necessary courage.

Mr. Swen has helped not a few families perform the dangerous task this past year. The entire family in each case gathered together for a special service. Hymns were sung, the family exhorted to obey the Supreme God and to fear none but Him, and prayer was offered. Special virtue was in each case felt to attach to the prayers, and only after it was offered was the necessary courage given. The idols, mostly of paper, were then torn down from the walls and doors and burned before the eyes of all.

We have come across three cases of what the Chinese consider to be demon possession this year. Quiet talk and prayer has in each case freed the diseased imagination of the possession, and of the fear thereof, and two have become inquirers. The belief is growing that the demons have no power over those who belong to Jesus Christ. Many, however, if not most of the Christians firmly believe that evil spirits exist, and that they enter into men now as really as in former years, and render them impotent to control their lives. The suicide at the Chinese New Year of the gateman of the Boys' School was a case in point. He was found kneeling in front of the range in the kitchen, a rope about his neck, in the exact spot where two others have in recent years similarly perished. The belief was general that he could not do otherwise. The spirit took possession of him and demanded his death, and he had to obey.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Boys' Boarding School.—Mr. Morris, in Mr. Cochran's absence, has had charge of the school, with the assistance of most competent Chinese men. The total enrollment of boys is fifty-five.

The boys have felt the spirit of restlessness and insubordination common to all the school-boys of China to-day, and there was one occasion where severe discipline had to be administered. The thorough way, however, in which the matter was dealt with by Mr. Morris and the Chinese teachers taught them a wholesome lesson, and has won the respect and confidence of the boys. Ten of them were baptized at the fall Communion service. The boys all greatly admire their teachers, and daily contact with men of so strong a type of Christianity is deeply influencing their lives.

The boys have themselves started a Y. M. C. A. which meets every Sunday after the morning service. It has now been in existence for about two years. The boys enjoy it greatly, and some of them are developing into right good speakers. It is always a problem how to keep the boys occupied on Sundays, and the same applies to other Christians as well. They read little, owing chiefly to the lack of interesting books, and to the fact that they have never learned to read for pleasure.

Girls' Boarding School.—

The total enrollment of the Girls' School for the year has been thirty, of which number twelve were boarders. This is a decided gain over last year. . . . The Chinese teacher, Miss Ren, a former pupil of the Nanking Girls' School, has done excellent work both in the classroom and out of it. . . . The task of getting satisfactory teachers for girls' schools is far more difficult than is the case in schools for boys, and we at Hwai Yuen find the task doubly hard, as we are far away from the large centres and travel is difficult.

Mothers' Meetings.—

In the past the meetings used to be greatly interrupted by the children which the mothers always had to bring with them, as they had no one to leave them with at home. So to help on the meetings a plan was started of having a play hour with the children during the time of the meeting. The mothers were skeptical of its utility and said their children would not leave them, but a sand-box and a little tact did wonders, and gave the women the best services they have ever had.

HOSPITAL.—The records of the hospital show that the number of dispensary patients has increased, also that they come from a territory represented by ninety-eight districts or other important cities in this and the bordering provinces, many from a distance of several hundred li; and this wide range of country bears abundant testimony to the good which the hospital has done in past years, and to the confidence which the people have in Dr. Cochran's skill. The increasing confidence in the foreigner and readiness, even eagerness, to be operated upon are encouraging signs.

The increase in the number of outcalls, in which are not included visits made on us in Hwai Yuen, is equally encouraging. More than half of them were made by Mrs. Tooker, and many more came to her home to consult her professionally, several submitting to operation, though the hospital has very poor accommodations for women. . . .

During the year 2,439 new patients have been treated in the dispensary and 5,659 who came for further treatment, making a total of 8,098 treatments. Of in-patients there were 104, most of them operative cases, and 49 outcalls. The total number of operations under an anæsthetic was 272, and without anæsthesia 42, giving a total of 314.

ROMAN CATHOLICS.—

During the year a Roman Catholic priest, Father Rouxel, has come to Hwai Yuen to live. He is a French Jesuit, and has charge of a large district between the Go and the Hwai Rivers. Before we entered Hwai Yuen the Catholics had acquired a piece of property there, as indemnity for the indignities done to a Father who had tried to get a foothold in Hwai Yuen and had been thrown out, barely escaping with his life. That was before Boxer year. Since then they have not felt it wise to occupy Hwai Yuen until this year, when, as Father Rouxel said, they "found the way prepared for them, and the spirit of the people greatly changed by our good work."

All the Catholic work in Kiang Su and An-Hwei provinces is carried on by the Jesuit order, under the direction of a Bishop resident in Shanghai, and in charge of the great Catholic settlement of Sikawei. Most of the priests are French, but there are a few Italian and English, and even American. Both Father Rouxel and the Father at Feng Yang Fu have been very friendly. We have exchanged calls several times, and have been able to be of some mutual service to one another. During Mrs. Lobenstine's illness they were most kind in sending some things for her they felt might be of use, and in the deep sympathy they showed in her suffering. We shall do our best to work together as those under the standards of one great Captain, and to keep peace between those who follow us and those who follow with them. That this will not be easy, every one familiar with the work in China knows; but we shall do our best to avoid friction, and if causes of friction do arise to settle them out of court by correspondence or conference with the Fathers themselves.

Thanks to the continued generous support of the Central Presbyterian Church of New York City, the Station has been able greatly to improve its property facilities, and through the generous contribution of Mr. William E. Lobenstine Hope Hospital has been built for the relief of the suffering.

NORTH CHINA MISSION.

Peking being the political centre of the Empire, the notable occurrences of the past year have profoundly affected it. The deaths of both the Emperor and Empress Dowager, the accession of the little child who became the new Emperor, the establishment of the Regency and the fall of Yuan Shih Kai were events of the first magnitude. Many disquieting rumors regarding trouble were in circulation, but none of them materialized, and the great transition was smoothly made. The new Government appears to be firmly established and peace continues.

The missionaries steadily prosecuted their work throughout the year, undismayed by rumors, and finding their work not at all interfered with except, of course, in so far as the excitement of the people sometimes preoccupied attention.

The death of Mrs. John Wherry, August 25, brought sorrow to all hearts. She had been in America for years on account of serious and prolonged ill health which forbade further residence on the field. She had become so frail that death was a release to her. Deep sympathy is felt for the stricken husband, whose sorrow is intensified by the fact that he was in Peking when his wife was taken from him in America.

PEKING STATION.

THE CHURCH.—The attendance at the Sunday services has been good, but the mid-week prayer meeting and Sunday-school have not been so well attended. The meetings in April, conducted by Mr. Goforth, of the Canadian Presbyterian Mission in Honan, were of great benefit, deepening the spiritual life of our people, and giving a greater desire for the salvation of souls.

Bitterness in the hearts of some of our Chinese leaders was a great hindrance to aggressive work, and is perhaps the reason why so few (only twenty-three) have been added to the city church this year. But we are glad to report that the difficulty has been cleared away, and that the elders and members are now earnestly working in harmony. The future looks brighter than for a long time.

The Church has supported a mission chapel at the village of Ch'ing He, six miles northwest of Peking, at a cost of $180 Mexican.

New property has been bought and it is planned to locate there a better equipped helper. This is an important though difficult field, as it is near the barracks of the northern division of the Imperial army. On Sundays the soldiers are off duty and come to the chapel in great numbers; many to scoff and make trouble, but there are a few faithful Christians among them. The commanding officer is strongly in sympathy with our work there. This mission is carried on entirely by Chinese without foreign help. The total contributions of the Chinese themselves for church expenses, benevolences, etc., amounts to $500 Mexican. Foreigners have given a like sum, so that $1,000 Mexican have been raised on the field.

Street Chapels.—At the cross-roads chapel there has been daily preaching by the helpers, and for several months after Chinese New Year services were held every night. These were attended by large numbers of men whose duties prevented their coming in the daytime; among these were shopkeepers, students, and police officers, as well as idle passers-by. They were attentive listeners and a few always remained for the prayer meeting and some found the truth.

Sunday afternoons Dr. Wherry led a more formal service, intended for those who could not or were not inclined to come to the church. The boys from Truth Hall also frequently spent Sunday afternoon assisting with the singing and testifying for Christ. Unfortunately, the An-Ting dispensary has been closed, thereby rendering useless one important factor of the street chapel work. Mr. Cunningham has spent a part of almost every day at this chapel; Dr. Martin has preached there several times a week, and the younger ordained missionaries have helped as opportunity offered. A bookstore has been opened by the chapel for the sale of Christian and educational books. It is the only store of this kind in the whole north city. It is managed by Chinese and is quite an attraction for the chapel services. The managers spend their leisure time in teaching such inquirers for the truth as may come in to listen.

At the Yen Tai Hsie Chie (Pipe Street) chapel the helpers have been assisted by the Theological Seminary students. Owing to his many duties as teacher in the seminary, Dr. Fenn has found but little time to superintend the chapel preaching. Another ordained missionary is greatly needed for this and other lines of evangelistic work. It is to be hoped that a better location can be procured for this chapel somewhere on a great street.

At Ch'i Shou Wei (Dow Chapel) regular services have been held, conducted by the helper, Mr. Li. On Sundays, Miss McCoy often assisted by teaching the women. Mr. Gleysteen has also spent some time preaching there. This is a difficult field to work on account of its location.

The Union Theological Seminary has been the centre of much aggressive evangelistic work. Regular services have been held, using a large classroom, which has been filled to overflowing. The fine new church building is now finished, however, and will become the home of a second church in the near future, as well as being useful for a seminary chapel. The services have been carried on by Dr. Fenn and his American Board colleague, Dr. Goodrich, Dean of the Seminary. Miss McCoy and Mrs. Goodrich have also helped Mrs. Fenn with the work among women and children.

COUNTRY FIELDS.—The north field, consisting of the centres Kao Li Ying and Huai Jou Hsien with the surrounding villages, has not been very extensively worked this year, owing to the absence of Mr. Gleysteen and the fact that one of the helpers was in the city attending the Theological Seminary. The people are very poor and illiterate, so that one method of propagating the Truth, viz.: by selling Gospels and tracts, meets with little success. But we trust that by aggressive, faithful work on our part and the blessing of God these people will yet be won to the Saviour.

The east field is more encouraging. Here five large towns have had services every Sunday, led usually by a helper, sometimes by Mr. Hicks, the missionary in charge. The markets have been faithfully visited by the helpers, who offered as their wares, Gospels and tracts explaining the Truth to the crowds that gather to see the strange sight of something being sold for what it cost or less. About 10,000 Gospels and 1,000 religious books have been sold this year. The colporteurs also do much visiting of villages. They are much more cordially received now than ever before.

During the Winter, three inquirers' classes were held. Two were conducted by Mr. Hicks, but the last one was managed entirely by the Chinese helpers themselves, the expenses being borne by the church members. In this field we have three evangelists and eight colporteurs, who are responsible for a parish of more than half a million people. All of these workers attended the Goforth meetings in the city and received a great spiritual uplift. Our great need is for more and better equipped Chinese evangelists and a greater zeal in personal work on the part of the Church members.

SCHOOLS.—The Union Theological Seminary this spring graduated its first class, twelve men. Of this number only a few belong to our Mission, however; the others are connected with the American Board and the London Mission.

The regular force of teachers consisted of Dr. Goodrich of the American Board Mission, Mr. Meech of the London Mission, Dr. Fenn and Dr. Wherry of our own Mission. Mrs. Goodrich also rendered good service in teaching. Both she and Mrs. Fenn have exercised a motherly care over the students. The men have worked diligently, not only in their studies but also in various forms of evangelistic activities, such as street chapel preaching, visiting acquaintances, welcoming strangers, and interesting and instructing the servants employed on the compound.

At the Union Medical College, Dr. Hall has done as much work as his pursuit of the Chinese language would permit. He attended faculty meetings and assisted during the last term in teaching a class in pharmacy.

We have had no representatives in the faculty of the Union College at T'ung-chou this year, although Dr. Wherry has held himself in readiness to teach if a class was formed in his department. Mr. Charles Corbett has since arrived to become our permanent representative there.

Truth Hall, our boys' academy, has had a good year. This is a fine school. Twenty-six boys have been enrolled in the academy, thirty-two in the intermediate grade, and twenty-seven in the day-school, making in all a total of eighty-five boys in the building. There has been an average attendance of seventy-five. The boys have done their work with great credit, some having made remarkable progress. Eight fine young men were graduated this year, most of whom will go on to college at T'ung-chou. One was only fifteen years old, the youngest boy who has ever finished the work of this school. At the graduating exercises each of the eight took part either in oration or debate. Several songs by the school showed their thorough musical training. Dr. W. A. P. Martin, founder of the school, presented the diplomas.

The spiritual temperature of the school was not high for a time, although marked progress in the Christian life was made by many. When the Goforth meetings were in progress the boys held back, seeming to have hardened themselves against the Spirit's power; but the day after Mr. Goforth left, at morning prayers a wave of confession and prayer swept over the school. One after another the boys rose and confessed their sins, begging the forgiveness of teachers and comrades for wrongs done. Since then a better spirit has prevailed.

Praise should be given to Mrs. Cunningham for achieving such splendid results. She taught more than four hours each day, and by her example and loving personal interest in each boy she has powerfully affected their lives. She has indeed been a mother to them. Praise must also be given to the Chinese teachers who have done their work so well, and have set before the students such an example of Christian manhood.

The boys' boarding school at Ma Fang in the east country field has had an enrollment of twelve. The wife of the helper is the teacher.

While good work has been done, the school cannot be properly developed until a teacher is obtained who can give full time to the work. As this is an important centre, a large school might be maintained if a well-equipped man could be placed in charge. In the north field at Huai Jou Hsien the girls' boarding school, also taught by a helper's wife, has had a good year in spite of a small attendance.

The city day-schools for boys and girls have been well attended and have done excellent work. There are two for boys and two for girls.

This year we have a kindergarten to report. Through the kindness of Mr. L. H. Severance, the entire east court at the Second Street compound has been fitted up for a kindergarten, with rooms for the girls' day-school, women's prayer meeting and study classes and industrial class. Miss McCoy was placed in charge. The school opened with thirty-five little tots. The school has proved to be a great success, benefiting both the little folks and their parents, who are thus led first to take an interest in the educational work of the Mission and then to study the Bible.

MEDICAL WORK.—An-Ting Hospital for Men has been closed, because both Dr. Hall and Dr. Dilley, being recent arrivals, were still engaged in language study. Both are making good progress, and Dr. Hall, who has been on the field a year longer than Dr. Dilley, will soon be able to open the hospital. Meantime he has given his spare time to the Medical College, while Dr. Dilley has spent the year at Paoting-fu, studying Chinese and attending to emergency cases during the absence of Dr. Lewis on furlough. He expects to open our dispensary in September.

In Douw Hospital for Women, 8,020 treatments have been given in daily clinics. There have been 64 in-patients, and Dr. Leonard has seen 150 patients in their homes. Thus a total of 8,234 treatments have been given, and at an average cost of 13c. Mexican each; $622.11 having been raised on the field and $480 having been granted by the Board. The Gospel has been faithfully presented to the patients as they awaited their turn in the anteroom.

Miss McKillican has assisted at the daily clinics and with operations, besides conducting daily prayers with the in-patients. In addition to her duties in the hospital, Dr. Leonard has taught in the Nurses' Training School and three times a week has crossed the city to give lectures in the newly opened Union Medical College for Women at the Methodist Mission.

WOMEN'S WORK.—Evangelistic work for women has been systematically carried on at both the Second Street compound and Drum Tower West. The attendance at the weekly women's prayer meetings and the Sunday classes has been very good and much interest has been manifested. Four inquirers' classes have been held at Second Street, at the close of one of which those who had completed the prescribed course of study were examined by Mr. Cunningham and received certificates. At the other compound a class was held at which eight received certificates.

In the country no work has been done for women. Lack of workers is the reason. Our helpers plead with tears for some one to teach their women, but no one can go.

STATION COLPORTEUR CLASS.—A new departure in union work was tried this year. Four out of the five Missions working in and around Peking united in giving the customary month's instruction to their colporteurs. Eighty-six men assembled at the Union Theological Seminary compound. They were divided into two classes. The "freshmen" numbered sixty-seven earnest, hungry men. It was very interesting to sit with these men, about the number or perhaps the grade the Master sent out nineteen hundred years ago to prepare His way and study the Gospel theme, the things pertaining to the kingdom. Teachers from the different Missions shared in the work of instruction. The added enthusiasm and broadening of view gained by this union effort will prove good and helpful to all.

LITERARY WORK.—Dr. Wherry has finished more than half of the section of the Old Testament assigned to him for translation into Wenli, the literary language of China. He also has to criticise and revise the work of the other members of the Committee.

It is hoped to produce an Old Testament, not only much more nearly literal, but also more agreeable to the eye and ear of the highly cultivated Chinese scholar than any now in existence. Dr. Wherry has also this year prepared a copy of the Old Testament in Mandarin, with the newly adopted terms for God and the Holy Spirit as approved by the Federation Council. In addition he has had a share in the preparation of the Sunday-school Lessons published quarterly by the North China Tract Society.

Dr. W. A. P. Martin, our senior missionary, has just completed his new book on comparative religion, entitled "Christianity and Other Creeds." This is intended to be a companion volume to the well-known "Evidences of Christianity," published by him more than fifty years ago and still recognized (according to the Centenary Conference) as a text-book second to no other. Dr. Martin has also translated the two Memorials of the Centenary Conference which were forwarded to the Throne conjointly by the Legations of Great Britain, Germany and the United States.

Dr. C. H. Fenn has completed his "Concordance of the Revised New Testament," a work of three years. It will be of inestimable value to Chinese Bible students. It is the first one to be published. Dr. Fenn has also revised his "Diatessaron."

Rev. A. M. Cunningham has composed or translated a number of new hymns, besides songs and choruses sung by the school-boys in Truth Hall, thus rendering great assistance to the work. The Gospel in song is an effective way of presenting the Truth and fixing it in the minds of the people.

Miss B. C. McCoy has translated many children's songs and games for use in the kindergarten. It is hoped that these will be published, in order that they may find a place in the kindergartens all over the Empire.

PAOTING-FU STATION.

The missionaries write that the year has been one of united longing for the manifestation of God's power.

Not that there has not been much to be thankful for, but, hearing of the Holy Spirit's work in Manchuria and Korea, we had fondly hoped for a like blessing. The members attending the regular services have increased and the people are reverent and attractive. The Sunday-school is well superintended by one of the teachers of the Boys' School, a young man who has a very large salary for giving his afternoons to teaching in a Government school in the city.

At the beginning of the year it was feared that the Boys' School must be closed, as no one had time to take charge of it, and the Chinese teachers, proving unsatisfactory, had been dismissed. Dr. Lowrie, however, in addition to his full quota of work, took charge himself, and new Chinese teachers developed who have kept doing better and growing in grace all the time. The school now numbers fifty-five and the Station is justly proud of it. The young man referred to above in connection with the Sunday-school gives, almost gratuitously, to our Boys' School as much time as he can spare from the Government school.

The Girls' School under Miss Newton has had a good year. The attendance has been larger than during any previous year. Five girls graduated in June. Three have been received into the church and seven others have applied for baptism. Many have shown development of character and growth in Christian experience. The grade of work is somewhat in advance of previous years, and a stricter system of marking has been introduced with good results. Two of the best pupils died during the year, witnessing a good confession. To one of them was vouchsafed one of those inexplicable experiences, hearing heavenly music and seeing a wondrous vision. Three girls from official families are numbered among the pupils, all enjoying their work and environment. These girls, as well as any other outsider, of course, pay the full cost of their education. The fee for the children of church members has been raised very considerably, but no objection has been made. Miss Newton writes:

Last year we recorded a manifest work of grace in the heart of Mrs. Chang, one of our teachers, in regard to making a voluntary restitution of money dishonestly gained many years before. This year Miss Li has done something similar, though with this great difference, that she was bearing not her own sins but the sins of others. In the settlement of indemnity claims after the Boxer year, many of the Church of England Mission, to which Miss Li's family belong, administered what they called justice with a high hand. Since that year the Anglican Church in that district has been cold and formal. Miss Li, with spiritual discernment, has felt convinced that one great reason for the unsatisfactory condition of the church was the unforgiving, resentful spirit shown by the Christians toward those who had wronged them. For years Miss Li has been carrying this burden, praying constantly to be shown how she could influence her father and brother to restore to these Boxers all that had been extorted by her family. The father and stepmother vigorously objected, but the brother felt his sister to be right, and agreed to sell his most valuable possession, some well-grown trees, which a foreigner agreed to buy for $100. Miss Li borrowed $70 from two friends, and adding to these sums what they had been able to save from their salaries, they went home this Summer, determined to restore to these astonished Boxers all that their family had received.

Mr. and Mrs. Killie have made many country trips to the four counties lying west and northwest of Paoting-fu. Had more native helpers been available possibly the other two counties in their care might also have been reached. This lack of suitable helpers every department of the work feels most keenly.

In Man Ch'eng County preaching and Sunday-school have been held every Sunday in the year, with an average attendance of thirty-five. The most encouraging feature is an awakening sense of responsibility in witnessing for Christ. Volunteer bands of men continue to visit and preach in the street chapel in the country town, while one of the converts, a reformed opium smoker, has developed into a trusted and happy preacher, and is now in charge of the Wan Hsien Street chapel. The new property purchased there has been a source of great satisfaction, and a regular service followed by Sunday-school is held every week. Mr. and Mrs. Killie with their Chinese helpers have held several classes for men and women here during the past year.

Mrs. Killie has conducted six women's classes and the number interested is constantly increasing. One of the counties in this field is very inaccessible and can be reached only on bad mountain roads. On their way to hold a class there, Mrs. Killie was pushed over a precipice by a pack-mule in their train, breaking a rib and bruising herself badly in the fall. As it was as difficult to go back as to go forward, they pushed on to their terminus, and, although suffering sadly, Mrs. Killie persevered in teaching a class of sixteen women while lying on her back. When managing alone was out of the question, she would call in her cook to assist her, as he was something of a student. As he could not, according to Chinese etiquette, look at the women, he sat on the door-sill with his back to the class and thus helped them learn to read. The women seemed greatly touched by Mrs. Killie's devotion. As a thank offering for spared life, Mr. and Mrs. Killie presented the Kuang Ch'ang people with enough ground to build a new chapel. This they hope to complete this Summer. Mr. Killie has given enjoyable and profitable talks with his magic lantern to both Chinese and foreigners in Peking, Shantung, and Paoting-fu during the year.

The work in the east and north fields has brought encouragement. Mr. and Mrs. Mather have given almost their entire time to it, and have found much to make them thank God and take courage. One hundred and eighty-five new villages have been visited by one or both, and chapels have been opened in five cities and three market towns. Mrs. Mather accompanied her husband whenever she could leave the Women's Hospital, where she has been helping Dr. Elizabeth Lewis by translating for her, and sometimes dispensing when Dr. Lewis was indisposed.

In the east field are seven helpers. Only one of these could really be considered efficient, though the others are earnest Christians faithfully doing their best. In Tsang T'sun the work is showing progress. The children there have always responded, and now after five years a village child who has been in Miss Newton's school is during her holidays trying to visit women who cannot come to the chapel and teach them at home. In Ku Ch'eng Mr. Mather had the unique experience of baptizing at one time four generations of one family. In An-Su Mr. and Mrs. Mather gave magic lantern exhibitions on the life and parables of Christ. As in Tsang T'sun, the children were perhaps the most ready to respond, and already three of the boys have been taken into the boys' boarding school. The boys from the surrounding country fields are considered very promising. The month of May Mr. and Mrs. Mather spent on the tortuous stream called a river which runs through our east field. They visited and sold books and tracts in sixty-three villages. Most of those village people had never heard of the Saviour. Wherever a school existed, Mr. Mather made a point of visiting it and endeavoring to establish friendly relations with the teacher. The markets have been attended and in two places regular Sunday services have been held. In three other places earnest Christians are stationed. This Summer five college students from Shantung and our own grown-up school boys, who have just graduated from Peking, are scattered over the country fields, superintended by Mr. Killie and Mr. Mather. Mr. Chou has also finished a special theological course at the Union Seminary, and promises to be most useful in the future.

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis were gladly welcomed back from furlough. Their return was a special joy to their sister, Dr. Elizabeth Lewis, who has suffered much from neurasthenia. All year she has had charge of the city dispensary, and since March, when Dr. Mackey had to go home, of the dispensary daily carried on in connection with the Hodge Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Mather has been her interpreter in the hospital and Miss Gowans in the city dispensary, but the time has almost come when she can dispense with a foreigner's help.

At the compound dispensary 3,905 patients have been seen during the year, and in the city dispensary 1,490. Officials' wives have freely called upon the women physicians to minister to them, and as a fee of almost $2 gold is asked for each visit, Dr. Elizabeth Lewis hopes in time to make these out-calls pay the running expenses of the hospital. Since Dr. Mackey's departure for her well-earned furlough, Dr. Dille, although supposed to have his time free for language study, has kindly assisted in operations where an anæsthetic was necessary.

Mr. Chapin helped with famine relief work in the Spring, and now takes a class in Sunday-school. Next year he hopes to speak Chinese as fluently as he did when he was four years old and left China with his parents for America.

Two of the Chinese helpers have been particularly useful. One, Mr. T'sui, in addition to considerable country work, conducts a weekly personal Workers' Band. The other helper, Mr. Li Pen Ken, our one elder, was loaned to Manchuria to follow Mr. Goforth's revival services there. He did this most acceptably. The Manchurian missionaries wrote of him that "he was the choice man of all China for the special work that was needed."

The street chapel work inside the city has been carried on under great difficulties. Dr. Lowrie, requiring to give so much of his time to the Boys' School, found it impossible to be there every afternoon, as formerly; but the need has made two of the Boys' School teachers volunteer their services and thus developed their usefulness.

The attendance on the whole has been equal to that of former years, a larger proportion of men of thought and position being found in the daily audiences. An occasional lecturer in the city "Popular Lecture Hall" was there heard to say, in speaking of Christianity, that it was useless to attempt to understand it without resorting to the exercise of prayer. As this is one of our most frequent themes in the chapel, we were glad to see it promulgated on a platform and to an audience so widely different from our own. Another interesting item was that one of the most hopeful inquirers in Mr. Killie's far-away field had first been touched by a prayer he had heard in the street chapel.

Once in six weeks the "He T'san Hui," or Union Council, meets in the pastor's house. Chinese and foreign teachers and evangelists give reports of their work since the preceding meeting and new measures are discussed.

The work for women in the city has gone on much as in former years. The daily dispensary has brought many within hearing of the Gospel and opened homes to visits.

It is now a rare thing for a foreign woman to be treated with anything but the greatest courtesy and cordiality; and what is better, the hunger for the Bread of Life is constantly growing more apparent. From homes where the women would not be allowed to attend a public service prayer to God daily ascends. Two women have been released from opium through God's help, and although some whose names were on the church roll have fallen into sin, we believe God's Spirit will bring them back.

The third Annual Rally was held in November. It was the best one of all.

The special theme was "Seeing the Face of Jesus," and our special hymn the well-known "Glory Song." From far and near the church members came. Eight men and six women came from Kuang Ch'ang, ninety miles away, and although some of their poor feet were frozen on their long tramp home, they still felt it well worth while. Mr. Killie said to the poor old grandmother who had suffered most, "You will never want to make that tramp again, I fear." "No matter what others do, God willing, I will walk again next year," was her brave reply. A large map, pointing out the great field for which we as a church are responsible, had a great effect upon the people. It was constantly alluded to, and underneath were the words, "The salvation of this territory depends on you and me." Many men who had not a great deal of money pledged time, a month, or a week, or so many market days, to go to some other place and tell what they knew. After the last session the women gathered together with the question, "What can we do?" Down they went on their knees, and before the meeting broke up they had chosen the most earnest of their number and asked her to go to Pai Kou He, the farthest away Station open in our field to the northeast. They promised to support her as far as lay in their power financially, and solemnly pledged themselves to pray daily that God would bless her work. Mrs. Ch'en is a very humble, ignorant, but consecrated woman who knows she is nothing, but God uses her. Once a month the Chinese women church members meet together to make their contributions and pray unitedly for her, and her own testimony is that since her friends all began to pray for her she has not known what homesickness or discouragement was. Please unite with us in our daily prayer that God will raise up more helpers for churches, chapels, hospitals, schools, and women's work, men and women full of the Holy Ghost and of faith; also for the deepening of the Christian life of those already at work.

SHUNTE-FU STATION.

The four years since the founding of Shunte-fu Station have had to be largely devoted to erecting buildings, studying language and laying foundations for the large future work that we expect to develop.

We cannot too earnestly express our gratitude to the Fifth Avenue Church of New York, and especially to Mrs. Hugh O'Neill and Mrs. Darlington, who have made it possible thus early to equip the Station. Their generous gifts have spared the workers many discouraging makeshifts and hastened the beginning of uninterrupted work along regular lines. The Women's Hospital, for which funds are available, and buildings for a boys' and a girls' school are yet to be constructed, but this Fall, with the completion of the house for Mr. Miller, every man will dwell under his own roof. A broad walk has been laid across the compound, and over it now is cast grateful shade from a row of trees which we planted. On this thoroughfare daily pass the evidences of the active work of the Station—inquirers from the east field, some aged and halting, to their classes in Mr. Miller's study; the school-boys, clean, erect, and alert, to Mrs. Hawley's singing class or to drill in the church court; and the half blind leading the blind to the dispensary clinic, while the hospital coolie hurries by, carrying his aged mother on his back, to the ~~same~~ destination.

There is now at least a portion of a missionary's time for each of the four lines of work. In addition to holding two Station classes, Mr. Miller made a trip to the east field and an exploratory trip into the Shansi Mountains. At the latter place he found the people in a pitiable condition. Much has been heard of the havoc of opium in Shansi, but here he saw it in all of its body and soul-destroying power. Men, women, and even young children were dulled by the drug to every interest in life save satisfying the craving for more opium. Needy as the field appeared to him, he found it too difficult of access to be worked from Shunte-fu at present, as we have four counties in our own immediate district.

As superintendent of the church, Mr. Miller has systematized and advanced the evangelistic work in every department. The attendance at the services has steadily increased, including some who were first interested by Dr. Whiting's faithful work in the little street chapel.

The church, situated at the intersection of the main roads leading into the busy suburb, is a strategic point for reaching wayfarers. The dedication of the church in December resulted not only in the consecration of the house to God, but of every heart in our little force to renewed service. The sermon and prayer by Dr. Lowrie were an inspiration that did not pass with the hearing, and sowed the seed in many hearts. At the Communion services, later in the year, five men and three women were received, especially precious as the first of the church at Shunte-fu. The lives of these people are known, and show a rooting and grounding in the truths faithfully presented by the pastor.

Concerning the work in the east field, if the church was expecting immediate results, the apportionment of this territory to us would not be viewed with unalloyed gratification.

Brother rises against brother and friend against friend, the disputants as a preliminary precaution assuming a fervent interest in the Gospel, that in the day of judgment the teacher's favor may fall on their side. Mothers and wives importune aid for the sons and brothers who, according to their version, have been imprisoned for righteousness' sake. The most promising inquirer has been practically convicted of being a thief, and another, asking for financial aid, sits down on the walk, opens his Bible, and devoutly reads, that he who passes may observe his piety. Since the founding of the Station these people have not ceased to importune aid in lawsuits, nor to offer their allegiance to the church in exchange for the foreigner's aid in their time of need. These things, however, simply prove anew the need of missionary work. Our Presbyterian missionaries in China have learned to be careful and thorough, and they are seldom deceived by the unworthy. The Gospel will yet change hearts here, as it has changed them elsewhere.

In addition to the duties of treasurer, Mr. Miller was assigned to the oversight of the construction of the fourth residence at Shunte-fu. This prevented the usual number of itinerating trips, but all other work was carried on as before.

Mr. Hawley was appointed in October to open a boys' school, some of the leading merchants having previously expressed a desire to have their sons enter it.

The main object was to secure and widen the interest in our work among the classes. The beginning was made in a room of the street chapel, and the result has far exceeded expectations. Forty bright boys at the close of the year's work attested the zeal and patience daily put into the enterprise. This success was achieved against many odds. The Chinese room, where heating and ventilation conflicted, a total lack of any place for recreation or even fresh air, save by traversing the intervening mile between the street chapel and the compound, and inadequate Chinese assistants were difficulties which had to be endured.

Mr. Hawley continued his language study during the year and completed the three years' course. Several trips with the helper were made to surrounding villages, where were found crowds of interested though curious listeners, and some books and tracts were sold.

The medical work has grown fully to justify the large, convenient Hugh O'Neil Memorial Hospital. In fact there were times when the main building, the Chinese wards, and the women's court were filled to overflowing. The increased confidence of the people has resulted in bringing a larger number of surgical cases.

There are still prejudices to overcome, as in the case of the man who preferred death to the amputation of his hand, because when entering the spirit world minus this useful member he would find himself the helpless target for persecution by the other shades. Every day brings cases interesting, amusing, pathetic, hopeless, and still others which justify a thousand times the expenditure of time and strength, and are in fact the saving element from despondency; for many come too late and only after suffering untold tortures from Chinese doctors.

The statistics given by Dr. Hamilton are as follows: Dispensary patients, new, 1,523; dispensary patients, old, 5,230—a total of 6,753; ward patients, 105; surgical operations under general anæsthetic, 63; surgical operations under local anæsthetic, 34—a total of 97; opium patients, 76.

Such time as remained from operations and clinics Dr. Hamilton has devoted to language study.

In this connection Mr. Li, the crippled evangelist, should be mentioned. His sunny, Christian spirit is a help to foreigners and Chinese. He cares for the little tubercular orphan, and is instant in season and out of season in furthering the work.

Miss Hicks' time has been divided between language study and women's work. Four short country trips were made and one class was held at the compound. Ten women, few of whom had ever left their native village, made the long journey to Shunte-fu and literally opened their eyes to strange new sights. They studied diligently for ten days, and however the seed may have rooted, they could not have returned the same ignorant, unthinking, untouched souls that they came.

A Mohammedan woman in the suburb offered a room, and weekly services were conducted by Miss Hicks and Mrs. Ma. Frequent visits were made to other homes, and we were grateful to find the same cordial welcome that was extended to us in early days when we were valuable as curiosities. There is practically no limit to the women's work, even as conducted from the compound, for the frequent days of worship at the temples bring hundreds of women to our very gates. Mrs. Ma, with her pleasant manner, tact and fervent desire to reach souls, is invaluable. The strengthening friendship with our near neighbors is largely due to her interpreting to them the real motive and purpose of our dwelling among them.

The wives have helped as far as household duties permitted.

Mrs. Miller has been organist at the church services, taught in the Sunday-school, led the weekly song service, and filled the breach in women's work when Miss Hicks and Mrs. Ma were absent. Mrs. Hawley has continued her sewing class and furthered her husband's efforts in making the boys' school a success. While continuing her language study as time and strength permitted, she also taught English twice a week for several months. Mrs. Hamilton studied with a teacher almost every day, but with one ear open to his instructions and the other to domestic sounds, there was the usual result attending divergent forces. Her Sunday-school class has grown in size and interest. The standard was raised by the addition of the younger boys from the school, but the scale of attainment still ranges from the child bent on keeping quiet her infant charge to the little miss who has risen to the dignity of asking doctrinal questions.

The Station greatly appreciated the gift of a piano through Miss Ward and Mrs. Armour. The instrument has been a source of pleasure to both foreigners and Chinese. It will be very useful in the work, for it greatly attracts the Chinese women.

The loss of Dr. Keator has been keenly felt.

What it has meant to us only those who knew her in times when devotion, untiring energy, and self-sacrificing zeal were needed can fully appreciate. Miss Hicks' marriage within the coming year will again deplete our forces and the women's work again be left without a head. But we know that her influence will still be exerted for the women of China. Reinforcements for these two vacancies are expected in the near future.

For the unbroken health of our little force we are most grateful to a loving Father's care. Every member of the working force is alive to the possibilities of the coming year as the best in our history. Our greatest encouragement is in the realization that ours have been special privileges and opportunities, and that in each heart is the resolve to use them to His glory.

EAST SHANTUNG MISSION.

TENG-CHOU: on the most northern point of the Shantung promontory, 60 miles south of Port Arthur, and 35 miles northwest of Chefoo; occupied 1861. Missionaries—Dr. W. F. Seymour and Mrs. Seymour, Rev. J. P. Irwin and Mrs. Irwin, Miss M. A. Snodgrass, and Mrs. Calvin Wight.

CHEFOO: an important port of call for North China steamers, on northern coast of Shantung Peninsula; occupied 1862. Missionaries—Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., and Mrs. Corbett, Rev. W. O. Elterich and Mrs. Elterich, Rev. George Cornwell and Mrs. Cornwell, Mrs. J. L. Nevius, Mrs. A. T. Mills, Mr. W. C. Booth and Mrs. Booth, Miss E. B. Cooper, M.D., Mr. M. Wells and Mrs. Wells, and Dr. Oscar F. Hills and Mrs. Hills.

TSING-TAU: the important German port and terminus of the new railroad to the Provincial Capital, on Kiaochau Bay, about 100 miles southwest of Chefoo; occupied 1898. Missionaries—Rev. L. J. Davies, D.D., and Mrs. Davies, Miss L. Vaughan, Rev. C. E. Scott and Mrs. Scott.

RESIGNATIONS: Rev. L. J. Davies, D.D., and Mrs. Davies.

TRANSFERS: Miss E. B. Cooper, M.D., from Chefoo to Teng-chou; Mr. M. Wells and Mrs. Wells from Chefoo to Tsing-tau.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Davies, Miss M. A. Snodgrass, Miss L. Vaughan, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Seymour.

TENG-CHOU STATION.

The health of Dr. and Mrs. Seymour and Miss Snodgrass has caused anxiety during the year. The two former managed to go on with their work till after Mission meeting, but they were obliged to return to America during the Winter. It is confidently expected that the rest and change will restore them to health, so that they can go back to the field at the expiration of their furlough. Miss Snodgrass' furlough had to be prolonged and she was at home all the year, but will be in China again by the time this report is published.

The death of the Rev. C. W. Mateer, D.D., who spent most of his long and active life in Mission service at this Station, removed a steadfast supporter of our Teng-chou work. Although for the past few years in Weih sien and continuously active with all his strenuous duties there as translator and educator, he ever remembered our work in tender sympathy and liberal support.

A year ago our boarding schools were closed on account of bubonic plague in this city and we were very anxious for a time.

Although there were about 200 deaths, very few of the Christians were attacked. The officials gave $120 Mexican, although but little was done by them to stamp out the disease. The people did practically nothing, did not clean up or make any effort to kill off the rats. There has been no return of the disease this year, however, and we have been enabled to continue our work without interruption.

We wish to acknowledge Miss Lachlow's kindness to the members of the Station during her sojourn here, and to express our thanks to her for assistance rendered in the work.

The work has gone on much the same as during the past years; yet in many lines there is manifestly a steady growth.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The City Church continues under the efficient services of its Chinese pastor, Mr. Lau; twenty-six have been added during the year. Some of the young people go out every Sunday for part of the day to preach in the villages near the city.

The Water City work has been under the care of Dr. and Mrs. Seymour. The Christians there have fitted up a building for school and religious services at a cost of $150 Mexican.

Last Winter the Christians conducted, with the help of the evangelist, an evening inquirers' class for two weeks. As a result of the work several have been admitted into the church. There are now ten men and two women in this Water City group. Their leader, Mr. Leu, is now in the Bible Training School in Chefoo. During the Winter he, with two or three others, plans to go on an evangelistic trip to the islands north of Teng-chou. They offer to give their time for twenty days and the use of their boats for the journey, and ask only a little help for their food. Being fishermen by trade, we hope they now become true fishermen of men and lead many to Christ. They maintain a weekly prayer meeting and Sunday evening services. Elder Li, the evangelist, and his family still reside in the street chapel and are doing steady and faithful work.

City Museum and Street Chapel.—In the museum and street chapel on the main city street the attendance reported for the year is 12,575. This work is largely seed-sowing, but it bears fruit later, both in the city and the country districts.

Country Work.—In our country field we have thirty out-stations or places where the Christians meet for worship, with 500 communicants. This work is under Mr. Irwin's care. Although it is scattered over parts of five or six counties, the large circuits are slowly filling in and are becoming better connected than in former years.

In the district south of Teng-chou City, a new church was organized this Spring with 108 members. This is the first church fully organized in this county of Perglai outside of Teng-chou City. Special services were held for a few days at that time which were very helpful. Monthly union meetings have been continued in this district and the attendance has been very good. Special meetings were held at Kin Rai, in the Lai Choofu field, for a week last Winter and the church was greatly strengthened. Dissensions were healed and thirty-three were added to the church.

The Ning Kia Church is also growing. A new out-station with a boys' school has been added in the district near Pastor Sens' home. The churches are all making efforts to call and support native pastors and the work for the most part is encouraging. Mr. Irwin visited all these out-stations during the year, most of them two or three times, holding special meetings, examining inquirers, conducting Communion services, etc. Mrs. Wight, with a Bible woman and helpers, also made a long visit through these districts.

We have only thirteen native evangelists and two colporteurs in all these large districts, including also the city work. One of the colporteurs is an elder in the Ning Kia Church who has devoted most of his time gratuitously to this work for several years. Some of the Christians and students also devote a little time each year to some form of evangelistic work. The evangelists for the most part are earnest and are doing faithful work, but are insufficient to reach all these thousands of villages and great markets.

The Care of the Churches.—During the year 104 have been added to the churches in the country and 26 in the city, making 130 in all, a larger number than during any former single year.

The care of the churches is no small task, but we are often encouraged by the life of some aged saint or little event in the work. At one remote out-station resides a woman ninety-eight years of age, whose son was for years a pastor in one of the Wei-hsien churches. Although nearly blind she is cheerful and steadfast in the faith. At Ning Kia an earnest Christian passed suddenly away, exclaiming as he fell dying: "Jesus has come! Elder Ning has come!" For years the wife of this old Elder Ning had stood against Christianity. This Spring we had the joy of baptizing her and her daughter-in-law and grandson's wife, three generations at once. Her great-grandson, the fourth generation in this family, is also to be baptized.

Growth of Our Work.—A few figures will show the progress of this Station.

In 1894 there were but 285 members in connection with all the Teng-chou work, including the three churches in Ping-tu. Now we have a membership of 783, exclusive of the three Ping-tu churches, which a few years ago with 195 members and eleven schools were all transferred to Tsing-tau Station. Many college students and others were also transferred to Wei-hsien and elsewhere. During these fourteen years 1,107 members have been added on confession of faith. This year we received 130 and since the Boxer uprising 647. There has been considerable increase in the amount of native contributions and for the most part the work has gone steadily forward, for which we thank God and take courage.

Woman's Work.—Miss Snodgrass has been missed in the women's work. The Bible women have been faithful and Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. Wight have done what visiting they could. The woman's prayer meeting is now held in the church and attendance has been very good. In the Spring special meetings for women were held with good results. The Christians manifest special interest. Some of the women have been quite active in Christian work, going out of their own accord to find people and bring them to church.

Sunday-school Work.—The Sunday-schools in the city have continued under Dr. Seymour's direction. During most of the year there are two divisions, the primary and adult schools meeting at different hours, as the church could not seat so many at once, there being often nearly 500.

Dr. Seymour has prepared the primary Sunday-school lessons, of which about 2,000 are used in the various places. Sunday-schools have also been conducted in most of the country out-stations and nearly 600 total attendance reported. Picture cards have been used to attract the children and with very good results. A few of the schools are quite well organized and the attendance very good, but a number are not yet what they ought to be. We hope to get more accomplished along these lines this coming year. The schools were all examined on the first half of the year's lessons this Fall, and their work graded and reported to Presbytery.

Special Evangelistic Work.—It was planned last year to make a special evangelistic effort to reach non-Christians in as many villages as possible.

Owing to so many other things on hand we fell short of our hopes, and yet considerable was accomplished, not only by the regular evangelists in their own districts, but special combined efforts were made in several districts by the students and leading Christians. In the district south of Teng-chou City, Mr. Hie, the evangelist there, with some other helpers and four of our High School boys, seven men in all, spent three weeks in special effort, visiting forty-seven villages and preaching to about 4,000 people. A similar campaign was made in the Lai Choo-fu field by the helpers and leaders there; four evangelists and some others preaching in fifty-five villages to over 3,000 hearers.

In all during the year our helpers have preached in about 500 villages and markets, and the Gospel has been heard by about 20,000 people in the country, besides the 12,575 who visited the museum and street chapel in the city. Many of these seemed glad to hear the truth, and we hope and pray that this seed-sowing will soon bear much fruit.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The Boys' High School is under Mr. and Mrs. Irwin's care. The attendance is twenty-three. There are also fourteen boys in the English School who take their Chinese and Western branches with the High School boys, making a total of thirty-seven. Last year six boys finished their course and three entered the second year of the Arts College at Wei-hsien. Five others are teaching in our day-schools.

The students continue their Y. M. C. A. work and conduct their own Sunday meetings. Some of them teach in the primary Sunday-school, and a number preach on the streets or in the villages. Most of the boys are Christians, six having united with the church this year. Our teachers, both graduates of the college, have done faithful work. Two more of the students have finished their course and expect to enter the Arts College at Wei-hsien next year, and three of the English pupils will enter the Anglo-Chinese School in Chefoo.

Girls' High School.—Mrs. Wight, who is in charge, writes:

It was a serious problem whether we should open the boarding school until we were certain there would be no recurrence of the plague. Finally it was decided to allow those to come whose parents could be quickly notified in case of danger and twenty-eight responded. There has been no plague, and now forty-three are in attendance and work is going on as usual.

The girls show earnest Christian activity. Every Sunday evening they gather in my sitting room and plan and pray for work and for absent classmates. Their "Win. One" prayer circle leaflet has been printed and used not only in Shantung, but even in Canada and Florida. Each girl has one Christian and one worker for whom she prays. The girls have taken active part in Sunday-school, in Christian Endeavor and woman's prayer meetings. This year we kept the anniversary of last year's revival, when so many had received such wonderful assurance of pardon. About one-third of the work of the school is done by Seniors. During the year a gift was received from the Madison Avenue Church of a stove and a boiler for the Girls' High School.

Day-schools.—In the city we have two schools for boys and one for girls, with a total of fifty-six boys and thirteen girls. The two boys' schools are under Mrs. Seymour's direction. The Sanpai Kio School of thirty-three pupils is well organized, being taught by Mr. Hu, a college graduate, and assisted by one of the young men from our Boys' High School. In the country we have thirteen schools for boys with 148 pupils and four for girls with forty-three pupils—in all fifteen schools for boys with 204 pupils and five for girls with fifty-six pupils.

These schools are under an experienced school inspector directed by Mr. Irwin, and most of them are doing very good work. Our greatest difficulty is to get efficient teachers trained in modern methods of teaching. Among our best teachers are our own Boys' High School graduates. One of these schools is entirely self-supporting. One school has sixteen pupils, six of whom were received into the church at one Communion season this year.

Teachers' Conference.—During the Summer vacation the Station held three weeks of conference and classwork with the evangelists and teachers. Some of the girls and boys from our High Schools also attended, making a class of about forty.

Dr. Hayes came to Teng-chou for this special work. He gave lectures on the theory and practice of teaching, on Hebrews, and the Life of Christ, three classes each day. Mr. Irwin had charge of the class and also taught a part of the Life of Christ, and conducted the conference discussions on practical themes regarding school work. Dr. Seymour gave them a course of lectures in practical physiology and hygiene, and Mrs. Wight and others also took part. These Summer classes greatly help and stimulate our teachers and helpers and enable them to do more efficient work.

MEDICAL WORK.—In hospital work there has been an advance in several ways, though the number of in-patients is a little less than last year.

The ward fixed up a year ago in the old college building has been used for several cases which would scarcely have been received at all without this clean ward with its clean beds. A number of difficult and important operations were performed. In all there were fifty-eight in-patients and 7,551 out-patients. Our medical assistant, Dr. Ho, went to the Yale Mission in Hunan, where he gets two or three times as much salary as here. Dr. Seymour has also conducted a nurses' class since last Spring, composed of four women and one man, two hours a week in physiology and nursing. This is important, for when these women are well trained as nurses there is a great work for them to do among their suffering sisters.

An evangelist preaches to those who come to the dispensary for treatment, and religious instruction is given to those who are in the hospital.

The Chinese Christians are growing in their sense of duty to propagate their own work. They plan more for themselves, take the lead better, and in a good spirit assume responsibilities they would not have thought of some years ago. They have largely increased their contributions. They are making efforts to call and support their own native pastors. These are hopeful signs.

The Station report closes:

We thank the Board for their many expressions of interest and sympathy in our work. We thank the home churches and friends for their prayers and support. We thank the Lord for the privilege of taking part in this important work; and we earnestly seek for it the sympathy and prayers of the home churches, and pray that the Lord will grant ever increasing blessings upon this large and needy field.

CHEFOO STATION.

The arrival of Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Hills in January to begin the long desired medical work was in answer to many prayers. The transfer of Mr. and Mrs. Wells to Tsing-tau, to fill the place of Mr. and Mrs. Davies, deprived Chefoo of the valuable services of Mrs. Wells in the city work, and, of course, Mr. Wells could not give as much time to that part of the Chefoo country field he had in charge.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Seventy thousand people attended the street chapel and museum during the year. At the Chinese New Year there were special days for women and children on which over 5,000 visitors attended.

The effects of the work at the chapel were noticeable in the increased friendliness in many places in the country where evangelistic work was carried on. A night school has been organized at the chapel, to get hold of the young people in the neighborhood. Rev. Tung teaches them science and gives them religious teaching. A number of women in the city near Temple Hill have been under instruction by Mrs. Corbett and the Bible woman, Mrs. Chang.

Special union evangelistic services were held in Chefoo during the Chinese New Year season, at which there are special opportunities for reaching the people. Dr. Corbett, Mr. Cornwell and Pastor Wang, of our church, together with bands of preachers and local native Christians, carried on an evangelistic campaign in the country districts within a radius of 100 miles from Chefoo. Two thousand six hundred villages were reached in this way and many thousands heard the Gospel message. Everywhere the people were friendly and listened with interest. An effort was also made to reach the coolies returning from South Africa.

Sunday services were opened in the former C. I. M. Chapel on the western outskirts of the town, in order to reach the people of that vicinity. Mr. Cornwell made two visits to Vladivostock, with a view to opening work among the 300,000 Chinese living in that region. A chapel has been opened and a preacher placed in charge. This work was inaugurated by the Federated Churches of Shantung.

A Chinese preacher and his wife have settled in a large non-Christian community in Dr. Corbett's field in order to reach the people there.

Pastoral Work.—

The clerical members of the Station shepherded the church in the city and the churches and groups of native Christians in the country districts. Steady progress is noticeable although there has not been as large an ingathering as formerly.

The debt on the Chefoo Church, amounting to $1,000 Mexican, was cleared off.

A new church building was erected at one of the out-stations by the church members at a cost of $700 Mexican.

Sunday-schools.—Dr. Elterich was placed in charge of the Temple Hill Sunday-school with its more than 200 members, and Mr. Booth released to organize a Sunday-school for non-Christian children on the streets of Chefoo.

The average attendance is 130. A great deal of good has been accomplished by this Sunday-school, as many homes have thus been opened to the Gospel message that had not been reached before, and an opportunity afforded for training our school-boys in Christian service.

The Sunday-school for women and girls under Mrs. Corbett's charge was also well attended. Throughout our country out-stations Sunday-schools were organized and supplied with lesson helps.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Attendance at the Anglo-Chinese School was 127 the first term, but at the close of the term a case of discipline led a large number of students to rebel and start an institution of their own. The attendance at our school fell to fifty, but is now gradually increasing again. The Station passed new regulations for the government and discipline of the school, and there is a marked change for the better in the deportment of the students.

The students' Y. M. C. A. has been well attended. Practically all of the older Christian students teach Sunday-school classes. Many sessions were held which all the Christian students attended, also quite a number who are not yet church members. The non-Christian students have been more or less reached by personal efforts on the part of the principal, Mr. Booth.

The Chefoo High School has had an attendance of over eighty boys, of whom fifty were boarders. As the regular dormitories were inadequate to accommodate so many, a number of outbuildings on another compound had to be made use of. Plans are being made to secure more land and buildings. The tuition fees have been better paid than usual.

One case of small-pox caused concern, but there were no further cases, and the health of the school has been very good. Efficient work was done by both teachers and students. Three boys entered the Arts College at Wei-hsien this Spring, and seventeen are getting ready for the entrance examinations.

Mrs. Corbett's school had an attendance of fifty.

The school was handicapped by lack of good teachers, the most efficient one having gone to Peking to complete her education. Plans are being made for the training of kindergartners in connection with the school.

The School for the Deaf, of which Mrs. A. Mills is principal, assisted by Miss A. E. Carter, closed its first decade as a separate work in February. The plant is valued at $15,000 Mexican, and is free from debt.

In the boys' department there are twenty pupils. Four of the oldest were recently placed in good positions. Two of them are learning to set type in a Christian printing establishment in Chefoo.

A department for girls was opened in September, 1907, under the care of Miss Carter. She is assisted by two young women who are graduates from the Teng-chou Girls' High School, and are in training for teaching the deaf. There are now girls in this department of whom one is not only deaf but also blind. A number of applications had to be refused as there were not a sufficient number of scholarships in the school, and the parents or guardians were unable to pay the full fees.

The twenty-seven pupils represent seven provinces in China, and one pupil comes from Korea. The Methodist Mission in Pyeng Yang, Korea, has selected a man and his wife from among their native Christians for the purpose of coming to the Deaf School to acquire training, and later to open a school for deaf Korean boys and girls in a school to be supported by the Methodist Mission.

A noteworthy attempt is now being made to present the need and importance of schools for the deaf to the Chinese Government. Mrs. Mills is visiting Peking, Paoting-fu, Hankow and other leading cities for this purpose. She has given practical demonstration that the deaf can be taught to the President of the Board of Education at Peking and to a number of other prominent officials, among them the Viceroy of Chili. As a result plans have been made to open a school for the deaf at Paoting-fu, and a teacher trained in the school at Chefoo, together with one of the older deaf boys, will be placed in charge. It is hoped that schools for the deaf will be gradually opened in all the provinces of China.

Plans are being made to secure an endowment for the school of $25,000 gold, and a number of gifts towards it have already been given or promised. It was requested that part of the endowment be known as "The Phoebe Hinsdale Brown Memorial"; as Mrs. Brown, mother of one of the donors, was the mother of Dr. S. R. Brown, whom she dedicated to foreign mission work before any Board of Foreign Missions was formed in America. She herself taught the deaf three years in New York before coming to China.

Training Classes.—Several training classes were held. One was opened in the Spring to train women for Christian work.

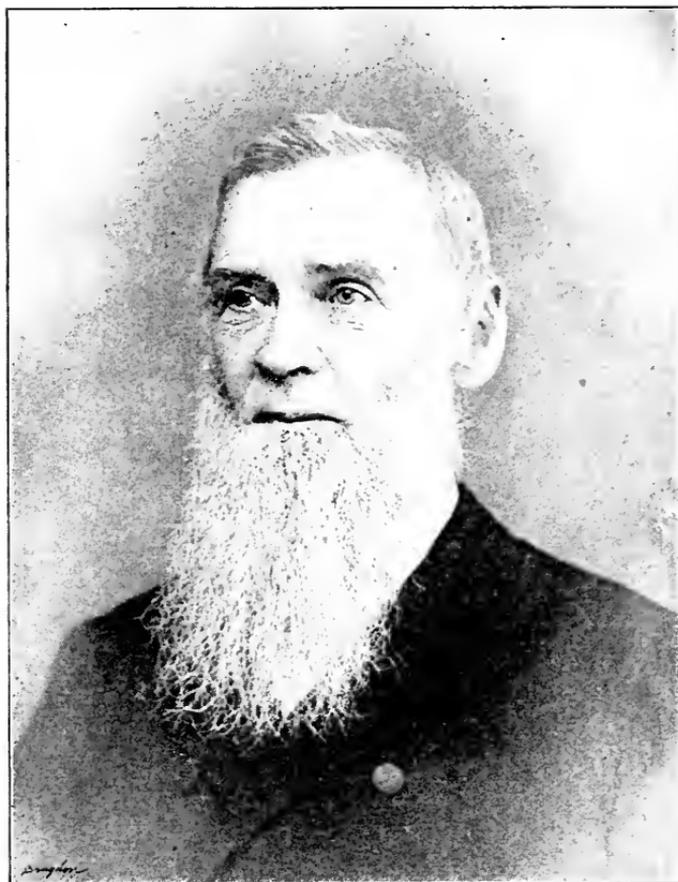

Ten attended the class, which was five months in session. It was under the charge of Mrs. J. McMullan and Pastor Wang. Mrs. McMullan generously provided the means to carry on this class, which required an outlay of $300 Mexican. During the session Mrs. McMullan took the women out frequently to the villages on the outskirts of Chefoo for evangelistic work, and since their return home they have been doing good work in their districts.

In October a training class for men was opened on Temple Hill to fit them for Christian work.

Twenty-five selected men attended this class, which was in charge of Dr. Corbett and Mr. McMullan, the latter generously providing the funds. The estimated cost for carrying on the class and providing salaries between sessions when the members do evangelistic work will be about $1,400 Mexican a year. We are very grateful to Mr. and Mrs. McMullan for their generous assistance.

A Summer class was held for preachers and class leaders, in charge of Drs. Corbett and Elterich and Mr. Cornwell. About thirty men attended.

Mrs. Nevius had a class of sixteen in the Spring in Romanization and Bible study, and had another class of eighteen in the Fall. Mrs. Cornwell assists her in teaching the Life of Christ.

LITERARY WORK.—Mrs. Nevius is preparing a "Commentary on Galatians."

She has also Romanized a selection of the Psalms, and is at present Romanizing a "Treatise on Perseverance," "The Memoir of Rose Miller" and the "Story of the Swiss Boy." She expects to have another Gospel and perhaps two or more of the Epistles ready to be printed before long.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Hills took charge of the supplies for the dispensary and exercised a general supervision of the medical work. Dr. Chang attended the patients which came to the dispensary, the number being over 4,000. The building of a hospital is not being pressed while Dr. Hills is studying the language.

TSING-TAU STATION.

There have been many changes in the personnel. Miss Vaughan was absent on furlough all the year. Mr. and Mrs. Davies were obliged to return to America in April by the ill health of Mrs. Davies, and to the great regret of the Board and the Mission this valued family has resigned, as physicians felt that Mrs. Davies' health had become so impaired that further residence in China was out of the question for an indefinite period. The loss of such a strong and efficient missionary as Mr. Davies is a serious one. To fill this vacancy at Tsing-tau, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wells had to be transferred from their work in the Chefoo Station field. Dr. Effie B. Cooper was also gladly welcomed from Chefoo. The Tsing-tau Station field was considerably enlarged at the last annual meeting by the transfer to it of that part of the Chefoo out-station field which can be more conveniently worked from Tsing-tau.

It is a great satisfaction to report that, after weary years of waiting, property for a Mission compound of our own has been acquired. Rents are high in Tsing-tau and the houses that could be secured were not well adapted to mission uses. Those good friends of the cause, Mrs. Hugh O'Neil, of New York, and Mr. A. A. Hyde, of Wichita, Kansas, were the largest donors, and smaller but valued gifts were made by a few other friends. A good site has been secured, and one residence and a girls' school provided for. Two more residences are needed before the Station force can be grouped in the new and better location.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott have gotten on with language study so that they are able to assist in the Sunday-school and Mr. Scott has taken two trips into the country. The one in the Spring occupied two months, during which he and Mr. Wells went over the whole field under the care of the Station.

The Chinese brethren conducted special services in various parts of the district, often making use of the large tents which were taken from place to place. The missionaries took such parts as were assigned them by the native pastor in charge.

Dr. Cooper with her Bible women also attended these conferences, doing work among the Christian women. She also held five classes of from ten to fourteen days each for giving Bible instruction to the women in the country, besides one such class in Tsing-tau and the regular weekly meetings which she and Mrs. Wells have conducted.

Summer conferences were held at Sin-tan for the school teachers of the district and at Kaomi City for the evangelistic helpers.

The two boarding schools, one for boys at Meichin and one for girls at Ta-shin-tan, together with the twenty village primary schools aided by the Mission, have been visited and examined by the school inspector and Mr. Wells.

The pastoral oversight of the churches has been in the hands of four Chinese pastors, Revs. Han, Li, Djao and Swen, assisted by native evangelists. These evangelists have visited about a thousand villages where they have preached to the people on the streets, distributed tracts and sold copies of the Gospels.

A number of inquirers' classes were held in the Fall, and the evangelists assisted the pastors in this work.

WEI-HSIEN STATION.

CHANGES DURING THE YEAR.—The necessity of giving Tsining-chou some aid resulted in the transfer of Mr. Field to Tsining-chou. In October, Mr. and Mrs. Fitch returned from furlough to resume their usual work, and Mr. and Mrs. Chandler came to the College staff.

At the close of the year, in the very midst of annual meeting, the Nestor of the Station, the Rev. Calvin W. Mateer, D.D., LL.D., passed away. Some one writing of the missionaries who flourished in the early and middle decades of the nineteenth century has said, "There were giants in those days." Many of them were men of vast attainments, great brain power, keen insight, mighty faith, and prodigious industry. Of Dr. Mateer it could be truly said, he was one of the last of these giants. He did not belong to us, but to all China. The Chinese Church mourns him as deeply as do we; especially is this true of his old pupils. It was his constant prayer to be spared to complete the revision of the Mandarin version of the Bible, as he was chairman of the Committee on Revision. The New Testament had been completed and Genesis and thirty-four of the Psalms, when God bade him leave his task to others, and receive from his Master the crown of glory.

As to general conditions, without doubt the most serious is the shortage of crops. The rains of the year have been much below the average, and very irregular in distribution. Spots here and there have fair crops, but others are in the midst of famine conditions.

The Tsingtau Daily states that 34 of 108 counties of the province have very bad harvests. This means great suffering, many refugees, and we fear there will be many to starve before another harvest can be gathered. These conditions will, of course, affect our Christians' ability to give, or meet obligations already made, and so must constitute one of the financial difficulties of our Station the coming year. Along one or two rivers, a sudden flood in August washed away thirty villages, involving quite a number of Christians. Here Mr. Mateer has already given some private relief. As yet there is hardly sufficient data at hand to determine whether general famine relief will be needed; but we hope not.

EVANGELISTIC.—A total of 751 days has been spent in itinerating. Campaigns have been carried on in a number of places. Mr. Mateer, with a band of helpers, spent fifty days last Fall in meetings of this kind.

Part of the day was given to services, and then the Christians broke up into groups, with the helpers as leaders, and out to the surrounding villages and preached on the streets. Mr. Fitch did some work in which Christians and helpers united for village preaching previous to the revival. In all cases considerable numbers came, and almost without exception they were respectful and interested listeners. Numberless expressions of approval were heard on every hand.

As to results in actual conversions, they are not always immediate. The number uniting with the Church is smaller than it was two or three years ago. The Chinese are cautious about adopting a new way of thinking, and one occasionally hears that the memory of the Boxer year still lies heavy on some minds. However, careful inquiry shows that, while conditions vary, the disposition to listen, interestedly, is quite general. Marked readiness to hear is certainly an encouraging feature in the situation, and God's spirit is able to sweep all barriers away.

One church which was disbanded a few years ago has so far recovered spiritual tone as to warrant its reorganization. One young man of fine spirit was ordained by Presbytery to the ministry and settled over a charge. Two were licensed to preach and two others were received under the care of Presbytery.

There has been no serious friction between Christians and non-Christians during the year. There have been a few instances where the Christians have tried to have the pastor interfere under the cry of "persecution," but we have not done so, and after-results justified the hands-off policy. There has been one case of trouble with the Catholics, which would have been easily settled, had not a rather irascible foreign priest fomented trouble instead of pacifying it.

In the field of primary education, the schools have been increasing in numbers and in attendance. There are now 760 pupils in fifty-five schools. The relative help these schools receive from the Board has diminished from two-thirds to less than two-fifths. This is a fine showing. The Union Normal School at Chingchowfu is furnishing an increasing number of well-qualified teachers and they are improving the quality of work done in the schools.

The Girls' Primary Schools (boarding) are the same both in number of schools and of pupils as last year. Here again bad crops are a disturbing factor, preventing the opening of two more schools, and larger attendance in all schools.

Report is that this Fall will see many stepping out because of increase of expense. The patrons in our schools now must pay one-half of the teachers' wages, besides all incidentals, books, etc. In fact everything but one-half the salary, and 1,500 small cash (90 cents Mexican) per month for boarding pupils. Improvement is noted in the teaching methods in the girls' schools also. These schools have been under Mrs. Mateer's efficient care.

Mrs. Chalfant reports the Girls' High School in satisfactory condition.

Eleven girls were graduated in June, seven of whom were from the Wei-hsien field, three from East Shantung, and one from Tsinan-fu. Of the present attendance, thirteen out of sixty-two come from outside the Wei-hsien field. A number of the graduates are teaching in other Stations and Missions, showing that the school is of importance to our own and other Missions beyond the bounds of this Station. The education of women is growing in importance in the eyes of this people.

The Point Breeze Academy for Boys has had a good year.

Seventy pupils are all that can be accommodated with the present dormitory space. This Academy is the only road by which the sons of our Christian constituency of over 5,000 can reach the College. Not over twenty-eight new pupils can be received each year, or an average of one every other year from each of our country schools. Our Mission has not near the provision for boys of this grade that the other Mission of our Educational Union has, and we are threatened with the situation where Presbyterians can furnish less than half the number of pupils in the Union College classes because our educational scheme is weak at the middle school stage. Hence the problem of expansion is important. In this we are embarrassed at the outset by limitation of grounds. And the present location of the Academy is such that we cannot add to them.

The spiritual condition of the Academy gives great satisfaction. During the year, all boys who were not already Christians applied to be received into the Church.

The Academy has been enlarged from forty-five to seventy in four years without any additional demand on the Board, by increase in fees alone, a record which is very gratifying.

But a serious question enters here. This rise in fees is shearing off a larger proportion of the Christians from the hope of being able to get an education for their children, and this lower middle class is one with many promising sons, who would be of value to the church and society. It is true that it is impossible that all should be given higher education, but it is a question whether some scheme of scholarships should not be devised, whereby some bright boys from good families of the financially poorer should still be able to get a good education.

Managers of schools in all countries have their financial troubles and no foresight can anticipate drought, short crops and famine prices. Both our schools found themselves in serious embarrassment this year and they were threatened with forced closing long before the terms were ended. In these circumstances, we are specially grateful to the Point Breeze Church, of Pittsburgh, and to Mr. Edward B. Sturges, of Scranton, Pa., for coming to the rescue respectively of the Boys' Academy and the Girls' High School.

Miss Franz has had charge of the Women's Bible Institute during the year. She reports good work and an attendance of thirty.

The women have paid about half their food money. The purpose of this institute is to give more advanced instruction than can be given in inquirers' classes to promising women who have not had the benefit of educational advantages. The intention is to make them useful Christian workers in their own families and church, and also to furnish Bible women for the field. Some, however, wives of students, were not even Christians, and it is interesting to record several conversions among this number.

Of Bible classes for women in the country there have been nine, one conducted by Mrs. Mateer, the others by Miss Hawes.

The great benefit of such classes is too well known to need further reference. The women provided their own food. This means that the Christians are really interested in the spiritual uplift of their women.

In the Summer a large class for men, nearly sixty, was conducted at the Station. It was to help men of a grade that might hope to become Station leaders. For this class food was provided.

The Men's Hospital, under Dr. Roys, has had a year of gratifying progress. In-patients numbered 359. This class of patients yields more satisfactory results, medically, than do dispensary patients, and they are in touch with the Christian teaching long enough to get a more definite idea of what it is. There were fewer dispensary patients than last year.

Indeed dispensary patients have never rallied to the figures of pre-Boxer days. An important reason doubtless is that some native shops are selling foreign medicines and some of the proprietors of these claim to have foreign training. These shops are points of competition and their inferior results are an injury to the reputation of legitimate medical practice.

At the city dispensary Dr. Roys has been gathering something of a museum and, though it far from satisfies his ideals, it has attracted about 5,000 visitors during the six months it has been in operation. The city evangelist, an earnest man, has presented the Gospel to these hosts. His wife, also educated, has also done a good work among the women of that quarter. Even ladies of the exclusive wealthy families have invited her to call, and she has been able to give them the Gospel message.

The Woman's Hospital, under Dr. Bynon, has a record of over 4,000 dispensary patients, including those seen on itineraries. There have been 132 in-patients.

More ward room is needed. Much more might have been done if Dr. Bynon had not been so cramped for room. A number of trips to surrounding places were undertaken during the year. Word was sent out ahead, and the day appointed was spent in dispensing to all who came. On these trips a total of over 1,000 patients was seen. Many cases of interest in the Gospel have been noted among the patients in the hospital. There has been faithful preaching to all patients by the Bible woman.

Our hospitals have been in sad need of isolation wards for years. We are greatly indebted to the Minneapolis Presbyterian Society for a gift of $430 gold, which has made it possible to erect this much-needed ward. Dr. Roys has superintended erection. It is so located as to be available for either men or women, and is to be known as the Robert F. Sample Memorial Ward.

LITERARY WORK.—Several members of the Station have given some time to literary work.

Mrs. Crossette has published a translation of "Little Meg's Children," and is now engaged in the translation of Mrs. Prentiss' "Stepping Heavenward." Mrs. R. M. Mateer has brought out "Teddie's Button" in Chinese, and is engaged on a work upon "Organ Method," and also on a story, "The Browns at Mt. Hermon." Mr. Luce is working on "Studies on the Life of Christ." Mr. Chalfant's spare time has been busied with "Ancient Chinese Writing." Mrs. C. W. Mateer has published a Supplement to the Tunebook so long in use, also the second volume of her Abridged Arithmetic. She is now preparing a book on "Household Economy." And, of course, Dr. Mateer was engaged on the great work of translating the Old Testament.

TSINAN-FU STATION.

The return of Dr. and Mrs. Neal from furlough was gladly welcomed. Miss Mary M. Harding came with them and was at once united in marriage to the Rev. W. W. Johnston, an event of delightful interest to many. Dr. Charles F. Johnson has since returned from furlough, Mrs. Johnson remaining in America for a time with the children.

EVANGELISTIC.—City Work.—Dr. Hamilton is in charge of the East Suburb Church and co-superintendent of the Union Church of the South and West Suburbs. He has been assisted in preaching by other members of the Station and by some of the Chinese brethren.

The Church has the usual experience of the wheat and the tares, but the good predominates. Two young men, sons of Christians, have been guilty of dishonesty and other sins in connection with their position in the Post Office. They have lost lucrative posts, plunging those dependent upon them into sore distress.

While some have gone astray in the postal service, there are more than a dozen of our members in honorable Government employ, either in the Post Office or in educational or in medical work, who reflect credit upon the Church. Two of them act as superintendent and assistant superintendent of our Sunday-school. The general reputation of our Christian community in the East Suburb is good and we are steadily increasing in favor with our non-Christian neighbors. Present membership is seventy-six, of whom one-fourth are absent earning their living. One of these, away off in Si-chuan, West China, remembered us by providing that his life insurance of $1,000 Mexican should at his death go to the church for the establishment of an industrial school.

Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Boehne held a ten-day Summer class for the women of the neighborhood. It was fairly well attended.

The daughter of a minor military official secretly attended the class. Her brother is an inquirer at the Street Chapel and he helped her in her study. Another secret inquirer is a middle-aged woman, who attends the prayer meeting, coming from a distant quarter of the city.

The juvenile class of the Sunday-school continues under Mrs. Dodd's care. The children of Christians attend well.

Street Chapel.—The year in the Street Chapel has been the best ever recorded in Tsinan. Large and attentive audiences have assembled evening after evening all the year. Four men of very promising character have recently been received.

The union with the English Baptist Mission in street-chapel work still continues. That Mission contributes $40 a year, which is 5 per cent. on half the capital of the plant. They also share current expenses. On the Baptist side Mr. Harmon has been responsible for the Chapel work; on the Presbyterian side, Dr. Hamilton.

The Street Chapel preacher this year is a young man of the Baptist Church, who has just completed the theological course at Tsing-chou-fu. Christians from the city and country render valuable assistance. Notably is an energetic barber, Gung by name, who has talent for public address. He has made wonderful progress in the attainment of Christian truth since he came to us four years ago. Then, he could hardly read a word; now, he has a fair knowledge of Scripture history and especially the New Testament.

The Baptist Church now conducts daily preaching in the Museum connected with their Institutional work. They are also planning to acquire a preaching place in the West Suburb, a city of itself as to population and business.

Country Work.—In the country are five organized churches with a membership of 427. In connection with the unorganized work are 212 members. During the year have been added sixty-six, with fully as many catechumens.

In every town and village where the Gospel has been preached there is a much better hearing than in any former year. The total membership for the Station is now 715; received this year, sixty-eight.

Our whole country field has greatly suffered this year from lack of rain and a dreadful shortage of crops. A large section will show not more than one-third of the usual fruitage. This seriously affects the contributions of the Chinese Church. This is of small importance as compared with the basal fact that in some places we are face to face with a condition of semi-famine.

This shortage of crops predisposes the popular mind to other unsettling influences. Wild rumors fly with rapidity and never grow less. For several weeks, all West Shantung has been stirred with rumors that China is in difficulty with Germany. The popular imagination converted a recent washout of the German Railway into an act of belligerents; a powder magazine explosion far away was an attack of the Germans on Chefoo, and the local movements of the military quite beyond the knowledge of the masses was considered proof positive that war was in the air. All such conditions tend very seriously to frighten the incipient inquirer after Truth.

Again, in some parts of the field have been local disturbances that have caused anxiety. Dr. Hamilton speaks of some official underlings pouncing upon an inquirer when at Sunday service. There were faults on both sides, friction ensued, which resulted in loss of considerable money; and then when the missionary refused to press the case before the magistrate on behalf of the Christians, there was much soreness. Several other cases have been very trying.

Mr. Murray and Mr. Dodd report good attendance at the Sunday services, and among the most faithful attendants are a number of new seekers, including some promising men from villages where there has been no Christianity.

Triumphs for Christ may also be found among the women. It is surprising how some of them have come out and remained firm and have grown. In two of Mr. Murray's churches the women attend better than the men. Some of them have been severely tried by home persecution, dishonest dealings, and repeated sickness and death in the family. But they are bright with faith and hope. They are the Lord's own.

Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Boehne have been doing good work among the women. Miss Boehne reports holding classes in the country in eight different villages, besides doing much home visitation.

Station Classes for Bible Study.—These are held every year and are productive of much good. With a larger Christian constituency in the country, better material can be chosen. There are over twenty helpers in the country, none of whom have had a complete education, and but few of them able to take the course at Tsingchow-fu.

It is our custom to have these men come in Winter and Summer for Bible study. With them we have a number of other Christians and advanced inquirers. The daily study of Scripture for a month each time results in a blessing. We have seen the fruits of it already. All through July a class of fifty first-class men were here closely studying Scripture references on the Ten Commandments, together with a study of Isaiah. Two of the leaders spoke daily on selected texts with criticism of others. Messrs. Murray, Hamilton and Dodd all took part in the teaching. Mr. Murray expresses the opinion that this Bible study is his best work and productive of most good.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Clara Linton Hamilton Memorial Academy for Boys under Mr. and Mrs. Dodd reports a decided improvement in the efficiency of the native Faculty, the character of the work done, and the conduct and spirit of the student body.

Much is due to the efficient work of the head Chinese teacher, Mr. Chang Kwei Wen, who came to us from the Post Office at a great pecuniary loss to himself. We are sorry that the attendance has been so small, only twenty-nine.

The religious life of the boys has had a healthy growth. Increasing enthusiasm for evangelistic work has been shown in their Y. M. C. A. They supplied an out-station, sending one or two students each week, with a teacher, to spend Saturday evening and Sunday helping the Christians all they could.

Two other students entered the College at Wei-hsien, raising our present representation there to seven students, all of whom are making good progress. We hope to send several more students to the College and the Training School at Tsingchow-fu.

Primary Schools.—The school in the East Suburb, supported entirely by the native Church, has an enrollment of seventeen. An interesting feature of the school is that it is conducted in a Taoist Temple. Altogether there are twelve Primary Schools with an enrollment of 135 pupils. There are three country schools for girls, also introducing new methods. Two teachers are from our Wei-hsien High School. Mr. Murray writes:

What a marked difference of former years! I well remember the first girl that was brought from her country home to the Mission school, then a small affair. There was opposition and much talk. I saw the tears of the little girl on leaving home. But I also remember her perseverance, unbound feet and happy faith. On one occasion she had acute trouble with her eyes, and the doctor thought she would be blind. With bandaged eyes in a darkened room she was often heard cheerily singing. When asked how she could be so happy, she replied with some spirit in child-like confidence, "I won't be blind in Heaven." Now, after weary years of waiting, the Station is seeing the evidences of better treatment and education of our Christian girls and women. Two of our elders in the country erected good-sized buildings for the Girls' Schools and in other ways have shown their interest. When one school was closed for lack of a suitable teacher, one of the older girls, under advice of her pastor, began at home teaching her younger brothers and sisters. She is now entering the High School at Wei-hsien.

MEDICAL.—The Board deeply regrets that it has thus far been unable to find a woman physician to reopen the Louisa Boyd Hospital for Women while Dr. Neal's furlough closed the Men's Hospital.

The Dispensary for Women has been kept open. Miss Dai, a former assistant, has been able to treat many simple cases, 2,617 in all. We take pleasure in recording the faithful performance of duty of this Chinese woman under trying circumstances.

Last Fall, Governor Wu made a gift to the "Medical work in East Suburb" of $400 Mexican.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE MISSION PLANT.—The Station records its gratitude for donations of money for the purchase of land. Donations received are as follows, viz.:

	GOLD.	MEXICAN.
Mr. L. H. Severance, Cleveland, O.	$1,379.71	$3,000.00
Mr. L. H. Severance, Cleveland, O.	1,000.00	3,206.00
Rev. W. F. Hamilton, Washington, Pa., a bequest of several years' standing with the Board and under direction of his son William	500.00	1,096.75
Rev. W. B. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton, Tsinan	248.79	542.72
(Mr. Hamilton promises G. $151.21 more when needed—a total of G. $400.)
Rev. John Murray, Tsinan	750.00	1,720.50
Total paid to date	$3,896.50	$9,568.97

Tsinan-fu has always been a large and important city, the capital of the province. The city is now coming into even greater prominence. With new railroads, greater business, and Chinese education, better equipment is needed.

The securing of suitable adjacent land was deemed of first importance. Our scheme called for over eight English acres. We report that we have purchased over seven acres and that money is in hand for the other one.

Of the $4,500 for land and wall asked for last year, we have already received approximately $3,000.

We have also the $1,000 from Mr. Severance, referred to in preceding list, for the kindergarten and towards the Anglo-Chinese School or for the Girls' School, as future developments may show to be expedient. As far as the land is concerned, all that was contemplated in the scheme has been provided for, save the land for the English School.

ICHOU-FU STATION.

STATION TERRITORY.—Here is a small empire as large as the two States of Massachusetts and Delaware, its population probably equal to that of those two States, with Connecticut's thrown in. The field comprises the entire south-eastern part of the province. From the I River it stretches westward until it meets the more or less clearly defined boundary line of Yi-hsien and Tsining-chou Stations, thirty miles away, and eastward to the coast fifty-five miles. Northward it goes over river, mountain and plain to the Wei-hsien field, a clear reach of 100 miles. Southward from Ichou-fu the territory slants down to the provincial boundary, fifty miles away.

In all this territory we have had this year two missionary evangelists working. This Fall a third will be at work, except when busy in the Station with the schools. It is evident that even three men cannot cover this vast field. One-third of it is practically not worked. The northeastern quarter is too far from the Station for effective operations. The out-stations in this northeast territory, in order to give them anything approaching pastoral oversight, must be visited at least two or three times a year, at a great expenditure of time, energy and money. One of these out-stations, formerly one of our most prosperous ones, it has been possible to visit but once during the last two years.

STATION WORK.—Each missionary has been engaged in one or all of these four kinds of work: study, teaching, preaching, healing.

1. Study.—This work never ends, as study should be continued through life. The younger members of the Station have, of course, given their chief time to the language.

2. Teaching.—A Boys' Academy was organized last year. The missionaries write:

The school's founding was compulsory, even though no building, teacher, equipment, or support were visible. We were forced to proceed along the path of the plain pointings of God's Providence, trusting Him to care for His work. As to buildings, we were able to get along for a few months with two or three native house-rooms; when compelled later to move from these, fortunately others were found available. But during the eighteen months of the school's life, it has been compelled to move not less than three times, and the end is not yet.

To secure teachers, the evangelistic force was crippled. As for equipment, we have done without all but the absolutely indispensable—indispensable not from the standpoint of an American educator, but from that of the missionary long inured to letting crying needs go unmet and meeting only those whose outcry is the loudest. As regards financial support, we have lived from hand to mouth, but we closed the year out of debt, and with grateful hearts.

The first year of the Academy was a successful one, from an educational standpoint. At first under the charge of Messrs. Chalfant and Faris, and since January, of Mr. Faris alone, good work has been done by teachers and pupils. The first year eleven boys were in attendance, of whom three were graduated in January. Of these one is now teacher of the Boys' School in Yi-hsien, and one is attending the Normal School in Ching-chou-fu. There are at present ten students, and enough are in sight to make it seem certain that we shall have at least twenty, if we have money to care for them.

The Boys' Day-school continues to be conducted in two departments, according to the boys' ages. The two Chinese teachers have been busy, with an attendance of forty-one. Discipline has been good, and examinations show excellent work by instructors and pupils.

The Girls' Day-school, under Mrs. Fouts, has had another year to taxed accommodations. Enrollment was twenty-six, and further growth is checked until more room can be secured. Six of the girls are from the country, in spite of the lack of accommodations for boarding pupils; as in the case of the Boys' Academy, rooms properly belonging to other departments have been used for boarders.

Another Station school deserves mention.

Dr. Fleming and Mrs. Fouts, recognizing a need for further instruction of girls and young married women too old for the day-school, opened the "Women's Training School." Mrs. Fouts was placed in charge, and the school has had a successful seven-months' term, with an enrollment of six. The school is frankly an experiment, but it seems to be worth the time spent on it, and it is hoped that more than one of the young women may later be available as Bible women. The financial outlay has been nil, room and equipment having been loaned by the missionaries.

Country schools number nine, with sixty-eight pupils, most of whom are boys. The work on the whole has been as satisfactory as could have been expected, with the small salaries paid teachers, and the lack of sufficient supervision by an overworked missionary force.

The teaching of Western branches is but beginning in our out-station schools, though the patrons are eager for its introduction everywhere. As a means to the end desired, a three-weeks' Summer school was held at Ichou-fu, when ten teachers from the country were taught.

Two Bible Institutes have been held this year, one for women in December in charge of Dr. Fleming and Mrs. Fouts, when twenty-six women received instruction in the elements of the Gospel, and one in January-February for men, conducted by Messrs. Chalfant and Armstrong, at which fifty men were taught for two weeks. As in the past, those attending were given a small pittance of "cash," to help them with their "road money," their simple food while in the Station also being furnished.

The following is a summary of the students from our field in attendance on the various schools of the Mission during the year: Country schools, 68; Ichou-fu Girls' Day-school, 26; girls in Weih sien High School, 1; Women's Training School, 6; Boys' Day-school, 41; Ichou-fu Boys' Academy, 14; students in Ching-chou-fu Theological and Normal School, 7; total, 163.

Under the subject of education should be mentioned a little work in English undertaken early in the year. The new district magistrate asked the missionaries to teach English to his two sons. It was finally deemed wise to give them four hours a week for a time, the instruction being given by Mr. Faris and Dr. Fouts. Later, Messrs. Bergen and Chalfant took part of the work, and for some months the boys were given six hours a week. In all, over 100 hours' instruction was given these sons of the official.

3. Preaching.—Under this head are oversight of the organized churches, visiting and ministering to the scattered believers and inquirers, proclaiming the Word to the teeming multitudes of heathen, and superintendence of street preaching Stations and bookshops.

(a) Organized Churches.—The Ichou-fu field now has seven churches as compared with six two years ago.

The last is the Northeast Church of the county in which Ichou City is situated. It includes several villages, and has three elders, no two of whom live in the same town. Four of these churches, including that in Ichou-fu itself, are under the supervision of Mr. Chalfant, Mr. Armstrong caring for the other three. The three in Mr. Armstrong's field are from 75 to 100 miles distant from the Station—too far for effective supervision.

Ichou-fu Church is becoming stronger every year, the present membership being 130.

The attendance has been all that our little room could accommodate, and we anticipate that with the erection of the new building the congregations will increase rapidly. Ichou-fu furnishes an excellent opportunity for a strong church. Beside the regular Sunday and Wednesday services, a Sunday afternoon meeting for men has been held in the men's hospital and one for women in the chapel. The latter has been cared for by the foreign women of the Station.

The local church Sunday-school flourishes with an average attendance of 100. Mrs. Fouts' regular Bible class for women has been continued during most of the year.

As a part of the evangelistic work of the Station should be mentioned the organization of a Young Women's Christian Association with seventeen members. This was organized by Dr. Fleming and she has acted as advisory member at the weekly meetings, opening her home for its gatherings, and doing much to make it a real power for mental and spiritual uplift to the girls.

(b) Other Preaching Places.—In addition to the organized churches there are in country villages eighteen places of regular visitation.

In some of these, there is much to cheer the itinerant's heart. No startling results have been attained, but it is evident that the Gospel has a genuine hold on many of the people, and new inquirers are enrolled at nearly every visit. In the care of these scattered groups of Christians, and of the organized churches, the missionaries are assisted by nine Chinese "helpers" and three Bible women.

It is not always easy to tabulate results of mission work, but some figures may be helpful. The new inquirers enrolled number 65; inquirers examined, 120; received into church communion, 35. The total membership of the Church in the Ichou-fu field is now 571, as compared with 542 last year, 497 in 1907, and 303 nine years ago, a year before the Boxer war.

The value of books sold during the year is 168,000 small cash, the equivalent of perhaps $35 gold. The books given away were for the most part school books, of which the Ichou-fu boys' and girls' schools received to the value of 68,000 small cash ($15), and the country schools to the value of 5,000 small cash ($1). The books sold were nearly all religious in character, and sold at reduced prices. It is to be remembered in connection with the value of the books bought by the Chinese, that $1 gold in China is equivalent to about $25 in America, considering the wages of a common day laborer.

Preaching Chapels.—The four street chapels—at Ichou-fu, Chu-chow, Li-Djia-Djwang and I-shwei—have been open as formerly with a helper and a gate-keeper at each.

Associated with each of them, except at Ichou-fu, is a boys' school. In connection with the one at Chu-chow the branch dispensary has been continued, with a medical graduate in charge. There is also at Chu-chow a small Sunday-school. At Ichou-fu the daily preaching to the visitors attracted from the street by the singing has been continued, with regular preaching services. Numbers of books have been sold, and a few inquirers have been enrolled, one of whom has been baptized.

(d) Itinerating.—The superintendence of these country churches and preaching places has necessitated much travel by the clerical missionaries. Suitable vehicles cannot often be secured. For a part of this work, the wheelbarrow is preferable, and this is used, except when rain makes it impossible to use a barrow on the muddy roads. However, there are times when barrows are decidedly less convenient than mule-carts or mule-litters.

Many days' travel could be saved in a year's time could we use one of these vehicles, as is done rather generally in the northern Stations of the Mission. But in Ichou-fu there are no mule-litters, and hiring a cart is always difficult, especially when one is wanted very much! Indeed, there are times when it would be impossible for the missionaries to leave the Station, even were it a case of life and death.

While itinerating, opportunities have been embraced to attend markets and do open-air preaching, and, when the marketers would buy, to sell them New Testaments, Gospels or tracts. The clerical itineration of the year totals 187 days, during which time 6,000 li (1,800 miles) were covered. Medical itineration included, the total number of days is 216.

Work at Yi-hsien.—The active clerical members of the Station force have done what they could to help the over-worked Yi-hsien missionaries, Mr. Chalfant spending nineteen days on a trip to that Station, and Mr. Armstrong thirteen days.

4. Healing.—The medical work of the Station has had another successful year. Dr. Fouts, having completed the required language course, has given his entire time to the men's dispensary and hospital and to the Station treasurership.

The figures for the year, including those at the Chu-chow branch dispensary, are as follows: Dispensary patients, new, 9,785; return visits, 6,299; seen on itineration, 223; professional visits in homes, 38; hospital in-patients, 282; making a total of 16,627.

Men's Medical Work.—

The attendance at the Ichou-fu dispensary has been reduced by the introduction of a gate fee. This step was made imperative by the utter disproportion between the number of patients and the funds and time at our command. The change has been beneficial, enabling us to do our work more thoroughly and affording a prospect of closing the year without debt.

An effort to increase the field receipts has met with a measure of success. About 1,000,000 small cash has been received from fees, sales and contributions. Deducting from this the gate fees, which amount to about 275,000 small cash, we have left about 725,000 small cash, a sum considerably larger than the 600,000 small cash we received last year. Conditions are such, however, that it will be some time before we can make the work entirely self-supporting, much as we should like to do so.

On the hospital or in-patient side, there is a gratifying increase in numbers, due chiefly to the fact that the foreign physician has had more time for oversight.

Evangelistic Work in Hospital.—

None have been received into the Church from the hospital this year, but a number have become inquirers. The usual daily preaching by the native evangelist has been carried on, and also daily morning prayers in the hospital, with a far larger attendance of patients than last year. Informal meetings with the patients Sunday mornings, usually conducted by the foreign physician, have been well attended.

The work in the Chu-chow branch dispensary is more satisfactory this year than last. Dr. Djang Gwang Dien is now in charge and doing faithful work. The attendance is not so large as during the first few months of the work there, but remains large enough amply to justify the work.

Only four days have been spent in itineration during the year, in which 223 patients were seen.

The Women's Hospital and Dispensary, in charge of Dr. Fleming, reports: Dispensary patients, new, 3,366; return visits, 2,800; seen on itineration, 285; professional visits in homes, 50; hospital in-patients, 187; a total of 6,688.

The fine new hospital building was completed in September, 1907, and many attended the opening exercises. The new building gives needed room for a few lines of work somewhat outside of the regular medical work. For example, the Women's Training School occupied one large room during the year, and the teacher had her room in the hospital also, where her example was of benefit to the patients.

In November, Dr. Fleming spent twenty-five days itinerating, treating 281 patients on the trip, while at the Station she conducted daily prayers in the hospital chapel for all able to attend, beside offering prayer with the assistants before opening the dispensary each day.

The work done has compared favorably with that done in other years, the contributions being fair and the relations between physician and her helpers most pleasant. As much time as could be spared was spent in the wards, talking to the patients.

TSINING-CHOU STATION.

The working force has been smaller than usual during the past year.

Dr. and Mrs. Lyon left on furlough in May. Mr. and Mrs. Romig have been in charge of the Boys' Boarding School and the Girls' Day-school, and up to the Chinese New Year they were in charge of all the evangelistic work. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have been away on furlough; the Station is glad to welcome them back. Mr. Field and Mr. Eames were welcome additions. The former helped in the country work, taking charge of the Feng-hsien region. He has also taken charge of the Boys' School. Mr. Eames' time has been occupied by language study and in teaching English.

The Rev. R. M. Mateer came from Wei-hsien with a valuable helper and they, together with Pastor Chia, conducted a large class in February. Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton, of Tsinan, assisted in the Feng-hsien and Northwest fields during the Spring. We thank these friends who left the work in their own Stations to give us much needed help EVANGELISTIC.—Evangelistic work was started in the Fall by a series of meetings in four centres under arrangements made by Mr. Romig. Three Chinese pastors from the Wei-hsien field with Mr. Romig had charge of these meetings, which were well attended and most profitable.

Each person provided for his own food except millet gruel. In the Northwest field we had to stop in an inn a mile from the chapel. It was interesting to see the group of from fifty to seventy-five persons going back and forth across the fields to the meetings. Fathers and mothers became anxious for those of their families who were not converted. Earnest prayers were offered by the Christians and a total of seven years' time was contributed by the Christians and inquirers for preaching to their fellows. One old gentleman said that he wished to give all his remaining years to the Lord's work. In July, a week's meetings were held in the Feng-hsien field at the request of the Christians there. Mr. Field, Pastor Chia, Liu Heng Yu and Elder Liu Hsu Tseng all had a part in these meetings.

A large class for leaders of the various out-stations was opened after the Chinese New Year. Eighty men came from thirty centres and sixty villages. Messrs. R. M. Mateer, Romig and Field, together with Elder Teng and Pastor Chia, gave instruction to the class. Evangelistic services were held during the evenings. We regret that Mr. Mateer was ill during much of the time. His lectures, however, were given by Elder Teng, of Wei-hsien.

Woman's work consisted in the Station of the usual woman's weekly prayer meeting, the Sunday-school class, and a semi-weekly Bible class.

We are indebted to Mrs. Hamilton for the work done in the country districts. In the Spring she made a tour of the Southern and North-western fields where large classes were held. The women were eager for instruction. Several women contributed a week or more of time each to the Church and have been faithful in using that time in preaching in their own and neighboring villages.

The whole field has been covered twice in itineration. Eight hundred examinations of inquirers have been conducted and 160 adults baptized. There have been some persecutions which we hope will bear good fruit. The helpers spend the day at markets or villages, preaching and distributing tracts and portions of Scripture, and the evening at some centre, teaching the Christians and inquirers. The Word of God is taking root in many hearts.

A man of official rank came to the compound one Sunday to inquire about Christianity. Mr. Romig discussed Christian teachings with him and with some understanding the man bowed in prayer. Later he invited the missionary to meet some of the gentry of the city. The talk was on Christian topics. It was surprising how much general knowledge these men had of Christianity and how many had read the Scriptures. There are many such men in China: may the Holy Spirit lead them to Christ.

Though the year has been a hard one financially for the people, there have been native contributions to the amount of about $150 for evangelistic work.

There are now forty out-stations for regular religious services, an addition of twelve since last year. Among these is a large town, Nan-yang, on the Grand Canal, which has been opened by a young man who was converted in South Africa and who has been zealous since his return home in influencing others of his own town.

The Summer class for native evangelists was taught by Pastor Chia and Liu Heng Yu. The Tsining organized church has had a healthy growth, but no great advance. We rejoice in our enlarged chapel which some friends made possible by a timely gift.

The colporteurs have done good work. Fifteen thousand portions of Scripture have been sold in the cities and villages. The influence of this spread of the Gospel is difficult to estimate, but we feel sure that it will yield fruit. The Men's Sunday-school has been superintended by Dr. Lyon and is now in charge of Mr. Li, the leading teacher of the Boys' Boarding School. A good attendance has been maintained.

MEDICAL.—The Rose Bachman and Annie Hunter Memorial Hospitals were under the supervision of Dr. Lyon, Mrs. Lyon assisting in the work of the Hunter (Women's) Hospital, until their return to America on furlough in May. After that the work was in charge of Dr. Chia and his assistants. The Rose Bachman Hospital reports 16,688 treatments, 311 in-patients and 82 major and minor operations. The Hunter Memorial Hospital for Women shows the number of treatments to be 4,365; in-patients, 135; operations, 23. There is thus a total of dispensary cases for both hospitals of 21,053; in-patients, 446, and operations, 105, some of which were major operations.

SCHOOL WORK.—The Boys' Boarding School has continued on the self-help plan. There has been an average of forty-five students, three-fourths being in the self-help department. The fees from this department have amounted to $292 Mex., besides cash $109, a total of $401 for the year. One hundred and fifty-five thousand pages of tracts have been printed by the boys and many other kinds of work done. Special funds from a friend helped to meet the expenses of the school, which have not decreased since the famine year in Kiang-su.

A normal class of twelve was held during the Spring term, taught by the teachers of the Boys' School. Several of this class helped with Chinese branches in the Boys' School, thus paying for their board.

After Mr. Romig's resignation from the school at the close of the Spring term, Mr. Field took up that work. In September, he opened the school with thirty pupils in the High School and eight in the Normal class. A class of five will graduate from the High School at the next Chinese New Year.

Four new country schools have been opened during the year. The teachers of two of these schools have been pupils in the Tsining High School and are able to instruct in western branches.

The Girls' Day-school at Tsining has made its usual good progress with an attendance of twelve girls. The one farthest advanced has entered the Girls' High School at Wei-hsien.

We have many causes for gratitude. The field is open to the preaching of the Gospel and there is a large and interested body of inquirers. The number of baptisms has exceeded that of any other year. There has been growth on the part of the Christians. Many of them are ready and willing to give time to telling their fellows of Christ. The foreign evangelistic force of the Station is now stronger than it has been during the past few years, two men having been assigned to Tsining last year and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson having just returned from America. Though our Station is sixteen years old, we are still working with a very inadequate plant in school and evangelistic work. It is practically impossible for us to make any great advance in the still untouched and wide open field with the small number of native evangelists at our command.

YI-HSIEN STATION.

The year has been a trying one to the little group of missionaries at Yi-hsien. Uncertainty as to the future of the Station has caused the members of the Station great anxiety. Anticipated funds for new property had not developed, and it became a question whether it would be financially possible to maintain the Station at all. The little company, however, held on with splendid fidelity and courage. As the year closed, their faith was rewarded by the assurance that the Station was to be continued, while the generosity of the New York Woman's Board provided a residence. The outlook is, therefore, brighter, but the needs are still great.

Foundation laying is important in any structure. The first few years in all new Stations are of this kind. Much of the effort shows little, but it is nevertheless essential to the future results. Work this year, while possibly not of a kind to yield material for a stirring report, has still been of importance. Overcoming prejudices, winning friends, and in numerous ways attempting to get into touch with the people around us, are among the accomplishments of the year.

The force has been small, the equipment inadequate, but we have done the best we could. The churches, hospital, and schools are all prosperous, and the attitude of the people generally is friendly.

We are extremely grateful to Dr. and Mrs. William Hamilton for their visit in the Spring. Their untiring energy and valuable advice were a great help. Their opinions were most favorable regarding the openings in this entire region and the promising outlook in all departments of work.

Mr. William Chalfant also paid us a visit and helped us in many ways, frequently, too, writing us fully upon important questions about which we had consulted him.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Cunningham feels that the year's work affords cause for gratitude, not only because of the number of patients treated, but also because of the great number of people who have had the opportunity for the first time to hear the story of God's love.

Treatment of those who come seeking physical relief forms but one phase of our twofold mission. Aside from the one evangelist who gives several hours each day, every member of the staff assists in pointing all who come to the Cross as the only means of man's redemption.

Two classes that come are very pitiable—inoperable cancer and leprosy. Multitudes afflicted with the latter disease live northwest of us, and it is hoped in the near future that a special ward may be provided for these unfortunates. While no radical cure can yet be given them, their sufferings can be more or less relieved, their lives prolonged and made more tolerable, and above all they can be brought under the influence of the Gospel in ways now necessarily denied them.

Effort is being made to place the hospital, as far as possible, on a self-supporting basis. Whether this can be accomplished, the future only can tell, but we know that the Chinese spend much on native medicines and doctors, so there is no reason why all should be treated gratis. Our hospital will have a greater value by charging all who can afford it, just as the spiritual life of the native Church is healthier when members contribute according to their ability to its support.

During the year 11,124 patients were treated and thirty-seven calls came from outside.

EDUCATIONAL.—We have seven primary schools in and about Yi-hsien, including the one at Taierh-chwang and the two in the Station. Ninety boys and girls have attended.

A class for country school-teachers was held in February. Arithmetic and geography were taught by Mr. Yerkes, and doctrine by Mr. W. P. Chalfant. A similar class was held in August, during which Mr. Armstrong, of Ichou-fu, lent a helping hand.

The educational work in Yi-hsien itself is encouraging. During the first year of the Station, there were so few children willing to come that only one school with eight pupils was maintained. But before the Chinese New Year so many more wanted to come that a separate school for girls was opened, under the supervision of Miss Faris. The school started with eight pupils and the number increased till there were seventeen enrolled. The boys' school, under the care of Mr. Yerkes, has grown from three to ten. The room is so small and dark that it can hardly be dignified by the name of building. However, we are much pleased with the work done by the two little schools.

EVANGELISTIC.—Depleted force and financial uncertainty prevented much itineration, and no inquirers' class for men was held during the year. Four inquirers' classes were held for women.

Law-suits in some places have caused the work to suffer, but the Christians have learned a lesson, and in the future will understand that their pastor is not their lawyer and that they are subject to the law of their native land.

An effort has been made to instruct the helpers and country school-teachers so that they could do more and better work along evangelistic lines as well as teaching. Two classes with a total of thirty-five days were held with that aim in view.

During the year fifteen adults and five children were baptized.

These figures do not show our actual gain, as the Christians have grown in grace and there is a large number of catechumens, some of whom are prepared for baptism. Several districts have other inquirers that have not been enrolled as catechumens. These places have been visited and many expect to apply for examination in the Fall. One town in the above class has twenty men who are studying, four of whom have twice traveled over fifty li to attend Sunday services at Yi-hsien. One family alone purchased over 8,000 small cash worth of Bibles, hymn books and commentaries. The leader of this group is a Chinese doctor of good reputation and some means. All meet at his place for worship and his attitude toward Sunday is reported the best in either Teng or Yi-hsiens. All of our helpers have visited the town and report it the most remarkable opening they ever saw. We have five other centres that we are opening in a like manner, and if we had the men could find many open doors.

SHANTUNG PROTESTANT UNIVERSITY.

The annual report is not issued by the Field Board of Directors until the close of the College year, which is considerably after the Board's report must go to press.

The College at Wei-hsien has prospered during the year. Two hundred and forty-five students have matriculated, the largest number in its history. The work done by the students and teachers is steadily increasing in efficiency. More than nine-tenths of the students are Christians. Every member of the Senior class is a Christian, as in fact are all the students in the regular classes. The few non-Christians come to us as young men who have completed their Chinese education, and who are eager to acquire a knowledge of Western science. They come properly recommended to us by pastors and elders, as men of straight life, and without bad habits. Several among them are not far from the Kingdom.

A growing feature of our work is increasing inquiry as to terms of entrance to the College on the part of young men now attending Government institutions. These schools, not usually being equipped with qualified teachers, and almost destitute of discipline, have been disappointing in their results. We believe this is but a passing phase of these schools and that in the course of a decade great improvement will be made. But in any case there need be no conflict or competition between their schools and ours. The supreme aim of our College is to educate thoroughly young men who as pastors or laymen will prove able and devoted leaders in the Church; while in the Government the education will be strictly secular, if not anti-Christian.

The Church therefore should do all in its power to foster and develop this College, where an education is given which inspires respect on every hand, and which is permeated with Christianity from start to finish. Such a work carried on by the Church bears a most vital relation to evangelization of Shantung. It shows the governing classes that the Church stands for education of the highest order, for loyalty to native land, and obedience to the powers that be. It shows that the Church is developing young men who are useful, both to the Church itself and to the commonwealth.

If we desire to present the Gospel to the really serious consideration of the thoughtful and educated men of the Province, we cannot do so more wisely than by showing that Church and College are linked together in close co-operation for the salvation of men in the broadest sense. Our supporters at home should know the urgent importance of entering the widely open door offered by the present thirst for education on western lines.

The Theological Seminary and Normal School at the Baptist Station of Tsing-chou-fu has also had a good year. During the Spring term, the average attendance in all departments stands very near eighty-one Presbyterians to sixty-one Baptists; during the Fall term eighty-one Presbyterians to fifty-one Baptists.

In the Theological Seminary proper nine men finish the course this year. Six of these are Presbyterians and three Baptists. In the Collegiate Department thirteen men complete the course. Eleven of these are Presbyterians and two Baptists. Future classes will show a larger proportion of Baptist students.

The Rev. Watson M. Hayes, D.D., continues to be our representative on the Faculty. He was prostrated for a time by severe illness, but God graciously spared him to the work in which he is so useful. On his recovery, he plunged again into his accustomed activities, teaching, writing and translating. A Bible class of fifty members is a growing power for good.

More time has been given to literary work. Kellogg's "Handbook of Comparative Religions" was finally completed and published in August.

"Optics," Part I, after passing through several editions, has been entirely rewritten and brought in line with the most recent English and American text-books. This has been the most exacting literary work of the year. A new draft of "Apostolic History" has also been prepared (the first edition being exhausted), the work considerably enlarged, and the larger part of the MS. is now in the hands of the printer.

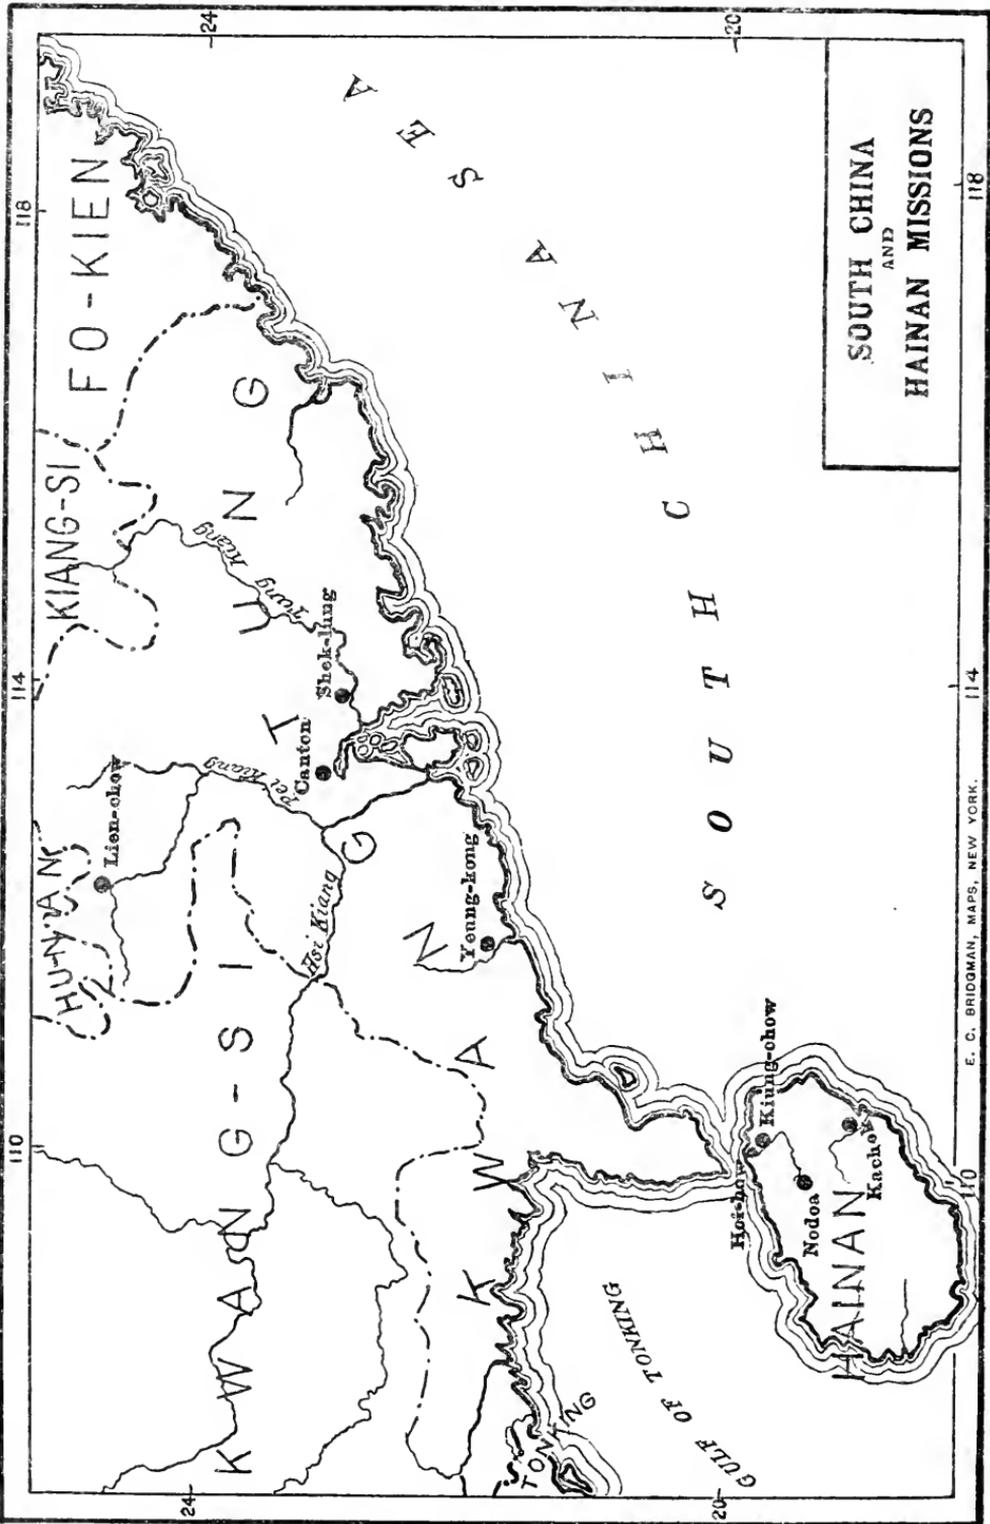

The new Medical College at Tsinan-fu is being given an excellent plant out of the special gift for this purpose received by the Baptist Mission. Dr. Charles Johnson, formerly of Ichou-fu, has been transferred to Tsinan-fu to join Dr. James B. Neal in the enlarged work which will hereafter include teaching and training medical students as well as conducting a large hospital and dispensary.

SOUTH CHINA AND HAINAN MISSIONS

THE SOUTH CHINA MISSION.

CANTON: capital of Province of Quangtung, on left branch of Choo-kiang River, about 70 miles from China Sea—a port city; occupied as a Station, 1845. Rev. H. V. Noyes, D.D., and Mrs. Noyes, Rev. A. A. Fulton, D.D., and Mrs. Fulton, Rev. Andrew Beattie, Ph.D., and Mrs. Beattie, Rev. J. J. Boggs and Mrs. Boggs, M.D., Rev. W. D. Noyes and Mrs. Noyes, P. J. Todd, M.D., and Mrs. Todd, E. C. Machle, M.D., Mrs. J. G. Kerr, Miss M. H. Noyes, Miss E. M. Butler, Miss M. W. Niles, M.D., Miss M. H. Fulton, M.D., Miss H. Lewis, Miss E. A. Churchill, Miss L. Durham, Miss L. R. Patton.

LIEN-CHOU: 125 miles northwest of Canton; occupied as a Station, 1800. Rev. Rees G. Edwards and Mrs. Edwards, Rev. J. S. Kunkle, Robert Ross, M.D., and Mrs. Ross, Miss Elda G. Patterson, Dr. Elizabeth Carper.

YEUNG KONG: about 112 miles southwest of Canton; occupied as a Station, 1886. Rev. G. W. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall, Rev. C. E. Patton, M.A., and Mrs. Patton, William H. Dobson, M.D., and Mrs. Dobson, Miss V. M. Wilcox, Rev. J. W. Creighton.

SHEK LUNG: Rev. A. J. Fisher and Mrs. Fisher, Harry N. Boyd, M.D., and Mrs. Boyd.

RESIGNATIONS: Dr. Andrew Beattie and Mrs. Beattie, Dr. Paul J. Todd and Mrs. Todd (nee Miss M. Strathie).

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Dr. and Mrs. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Dr. Niles, Dr. and Mrs. Beattie.

CANTON STATION.

The work of this large Station has continued to prosper. The absence on furlough of the Rev. Drs. A. A. Fulton and Andrew Beattie has necessarily affected the evangelistic work in which these two veteran missionaries have been so indefatigable.

We record with deep regret that Dr. and Mrs. Beattie have been obliged to resign. Dr. Beattie's health has caused anxiety for several years, and finally physicians advised his return to America. The Board joins many friends of the family and Mission in hope and prayer for full recovery.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—First and Third Churches in Canton, and work in the Districts of Kam Li, Shun Tak, Nam Hoi, San Ning, Hoi Ping and Yan Ping. Since the departure of Dr. Fulton and Dr. Beattie, Mr. W. D. Noyes has cared for these extensive fields as well as he could with his other work.

The statistics show that there has not been as large a number received as in some previous years. This is for various reasons:

(1) The restlessness of the people. The antagonism aroused by the British in policing the West River and the boycott against things Japanese tended to produce a general anti-foreign feeling that affected Christian work more or less.

(2) Atheistic or agnostic literature. Much of it comes from Japan, and the kinship of the two languages as written makes it more accessible than if this literature were introduced in some European tongue. The Chinese preachers frequently mention this as a menace to the progress of the Church.

(3) A better understanding of the aims of the Church in the minds of the people in general, hence they do not try to enter the Church to get in law-suits, and those who did so are leaving. In times past these men have been able to deceive the very elect by their professions.

(4) There is a movement on foot in the native Church to make entrance more difficult and the requirements of membership more rigid. This purifies and strengthens but perhaps limits numbers.

(5) Our grave lack of foreign missionaries properly to direct the work and do the intensive work that is now needed. The Chinese leaders, good as they are, have not reached the point where they are able to do the work as it ought to be done.

(6) Our field has been reduced during the year. The San Ui District, formerly in the bounds of this Station, has now been transferred to the Canadian Presbyterian Mission. This does not mean a lesser work, but one just as great or greater. We are attempting to enter new towns in the districts under our care. We withdraw from one section only to enter more thoroughly into another and to develop it to a higher state of efficiency.

Third Church, Canton.—Steady progress during the year. Associated are several chapels in two other districts. Outside the Little North Gate is Wan Chi Kong, a chapel on a main thoroughfare into the city, reaching many who pass by.

It is planned to hold the conference of preachers twice a year instead of once. The conference includes devotional meetings, discussions of the various problems, and planning for the future, much like the retreats of the ministers at home. In this field there are three self-supporting churches, in one of which there is a Chinese pastor. We strive to get the members to shoulder as much responsibility as possible, and there are few places that look to the Board for their whole support. These we are reducing in number as fast as possible.

Fa-ti Church, Canton (in care of Rev. J. J. Boggs).—This church is composed largely of the students in the High School, but more and more people are coming in from the villages around. The number of members is 141, of whom ten joined this year. There are three Sunday-schools connected with the church, one for men and two for women. In term time when the students are present the large church is full.

Evangelistic Work among Women.—Dr. Mary W. Niles and Miss Lucy Durham have been faithful in making evangelistic trips into the country—Nam Hoi, Shun Tak, and the four districts. They have exercised oversight over the Bible women and girls' schools in those regions, and exerted a most helpful influence by their visits.

Mrs. A. J. Fisher has made several trips of a week or more into the country from Shek Lung and had some very good meetings, though the time was short at each place.

In April the Christian women gathered into our school building for a week of study, twenty-two boarders and as many more from Shek Lung daily. The Sunday-school has gradually grown. The prayer meeting after the church service is one of our most helpful meetings. Tuesday meetings, well attended at the beginning of the year, fall off during the hot months and at the end of the year.

Miss E. A. Churchill has had marked improvement in her eight day-schools: 250 enrolled, an increase of sixty-five. Daily attendance has also increased.

Fees received amounted to $132.10, almost double those of last year. Opened a new Sunday-school at a day-school at the East Gate of the city, with forty pupils. In six weeks had 200 women and children in a little room, 20 by 15 feet. Another room ten feet longer was secured, which was packed with 250 before the hot weather came on. This neighborhood presents a splendid field for work. Regular weekly meetings in the chapel, together with visiting in the homes, have been continued during the year. Four Bible women have done good work. Sixteen women have received baptism in connection with my work. Meetings in day-schools, 176; in chapel, 36; in homes, 88; in Sunday-school, 38.

Mrs. W. D. Noyes has had charge of a Sunday-school of twenty-five children and twenty-five to sixty women. A day-school has been visited once-a week; two of the women have become Christians. Two Bible women have worked at Po Tai Shui and one in near-by villages. A choir of eight boys has been trained at the church. A new boys' school has been opened, and though it has been stoned several times it has had nineteen pupils.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The Fati schools, under the care of Mr. Boggs, Dr. Noyes and Mr. Noyes, have had a prosperous year and are responding as best they can to the new spirit which is leading the young men of China to seek a thorough education.

High School and Theological Seminary, Fati (in care of Rev. H. V. Noyes, D.D., Rev. J. J. Boggs and Rev. W. D. Noyes).—During the absence of Dr. Noyes on furlough the others had their hands more than full of work, but they were ably assisted by the four Chinese teachers who have done good and faithful work in all departments.

There have been eighty students in the high school, and twenty-eight in the theological, the building for the former department being full and the latter half full. This was in spite of the fact that we had anxious times on account of epidemics. A supposed case of plague in the school almost created a panic; at another time we had an outbreak of beri-beri that assumed serious proportions, while an epidemic of cholera with a dozen deaths in a neighboring institution gave good reason for watchfulness. We were mercifully spared and all the sick recovered. Some damage was suffered in the Summer from typhoon and flood. The students responded liberally to the appeals for help for those starving because of the flood.

The students have continued their evangelistic work in the surrounding villages.

True Light Seminary, for women and girls (in care of Miss H. Noyes, Miss E. M. Butler and Miss H. Lewis).—Miss Noyes and her associates have continued their arduous labors at the True Light Seminary, where a large number of girls have been under training and where considerable evangelistic work for women and children centres. The evangelistic awakening in China includes women as well as men and there is a greater demand than ever before for the education of girls. This old and well-established institution has, therefore, come into new prominence and the missionaries are very desirous of having its scope so enlarged that it will be able to meet the increasing demands upon it.

The increased desire for Western learning now felt in China gives crowded school-rooms and makes it impossible to receive all who apply. Enrolled: women's department, 78; normal class, 25; advanced class, 28; intermediate class, 62; primary class, 44; a total of 237.

Progress is made in self-support, many now paying all expenses. A former pupil returned from Rangoon this year and brought $100 to pay what was expended for her while here more than thirty years ago. Twenty of the students, thirteen women and seven girls, have united with the Church. Seven have commenced mission work as Bible women, five as teachers, and six have taken up the study of medicine. One of the teachers went to her home in a large city in the interior and opened a self-supporting school which has had good success. The contributions of teachers and students for the year were $248, given to different objects. The missionary society has supported three Bible women working in country villages. The Chinese teachers are two well-educated women and two men who give part of their time, and a graduate of the women's medical college, who lectures twice a week. Since the idea of educating the daughters of China has taken root in the minds of the people, the demand for trained teachers has become very insistent and work in this line seems most necessary.

Miss Lewis, since her return from furlough, has resumed work in the seminary and has had care of four day-schools for girls and chapels for women, with a total of 183 pupils. The work has been very encouraging and the attendance remarkably good.

Miss Butler's work has been mainly in the seminary, though she has had some new work in the normal school.

One day-school and one Bible woman have been under her care. The Pui Kei school for boys has been more prosperous than ever, with 110 pupils in attendance, till the heat of Summer made it necessary to send some to their homes.

MEDICAL WORK.—Canton General Hospital.—The organic relations which have so long existed between the Board and the Canton General Hospital have been severed. It is known to the Church that this hospital, founded by the great Dr. John G. Kerr, has been for many years owned and controlled by a local independent association known as the Canton Medical Missionary Society, which is composed of missionaries of various denominations represented in Canton, Consuls, European and American business men and Chinese. Our Board furnished the medical staff of the hospital and had charge of the evangelistic work. The Medical Missionary Society deemed it expedient to assume control and support of the medical staff as well as of the other expenses of the institution.

This, of course, affected our medical missionaries who were connected with the hospital. Dr. John M. Swan remains as Superintendent, having resigned his connection with the Board. Dr. Paul J. Todd has also resigned and has gone into private practice in Canton. He married during the year Miss Margaret Strathie. We are sorry to lose these excellent workers, but glad that Christian work in Canton has not lost them. Dr. Harry W. Boyd remains with the Mission and will probably have charge of the medical work at Shek Lung.

The students of the Medical College for Men in connection with the Canton General Hospital were so attached to Dr. Boyd that they left the college in a body, about sixty in number, and followed him to the Lafayette Compound, where he went for a time to assist Dr. Mary Fulton in the large medical work centring there. A Presbyterian medical college for men could thus have been easily continued, and it might have been regarded as the logical outcome of the medical school work begun by Dr. Kerr as early as 1865. In view, however, of the fact that the Canton Medical Missionary Society expects to continue its Medical College for Men, and that the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania is developing another medical college for men in Canton, the Board did not deem it expedient or a wise use of missionary force and money to maintain a third college. It was, therefore, agreed that Dr. Boyd should continue his instruction until the end of the college year, and that for the ensuing year the students were to be advised to return to the Canton Medical Missionary Society's College or to connect themselves with the College of the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Boyd held a dispensary once a week at the Fa-ti High School and Theological Seminary.

On Dr. Beattie's return to America, the work for lepers was assigned to Dr. Boyd.

The chapel has been repaired. The school for untainted children of lepers at Fa-ti has three adults and one child. The school for untainted children at the East Gate has eleven children. The older children make clothes for the younger and spend part of their time in making lace. Dr. Boyd has also superintended the Sunday-school at the First Church, of nearly 200, and conducted the Thursday night prayer meeting, and the Bible class for new converts.

Mrs. J. J. Boggs reopened her dispensary in January on the completion of the new building.

Besides the work among the women who come in on dispensing days, the blind Bible woman has gathered in children from the neighborhood daily to study, and on Sundays there is a Sunday-school for women and children. A day-school is maintained in a village about a mile away among an entirely heathen community, with a Sunday-school on Sunday afternoons for women and children, and small boys from a nearby heathen day-school. Many visits made in the homes were gladly and courteously received. Many calls are received from the heathen women in near-by villages as well as from a distance.

David Gregg Hospital for Women.—Dr. Mary Fulton has continued her strenuous labors which have been intensified by the marriage of Miss Strathie to Dr. Todd and the marriage of Dr. Isabella Mack to Mr. Patton of Yeung Kong. The superintendence of the David Gregg Hospital for Women and Children, the E. A. K. Hackett Medical College for Women, the Julia P. Turner Training School for Nurses and the Mary H. Perkins Memorial Maternity Wards make Dr. Fulton one of the busiest women in the world.

Damages from flood and typhoon had to be repaired, and two large buildings were for the first time since their erection repaired and repainted. A committee of Chinese was given the use of the grounds for a bazaar for the relief of the flood sufferers. This fair was in every way a success and a goodly sum was raised.

During the year, 4,125 cases were treated at the David Gregg Hospital, of which number 240 were in-patients; 448 visits were made in homes; 308 operations, major and minor, were performed; 721 teeth were extracted and 2 would-be suicides saved. At the annex dispensary 1,619 patients were seen, 37 visits to homes, 36 operations, and 109 teeth extracted.

Three women have given their entire time to teaching the Bible. Besides church, Sunday-school, and morning worship on the compound there is a Bible class Sunday evening, nurses' meeting, working women's meeting, men's prayer meeting, and C. E. All-day bedside instruction is given daily throughout the year. A mothers' meeting is conducted by Mrs. Boyd and a recent converts' meeting by Dr. Boyd. The Gospel is presented in all homes visited and tracts and books distributed. Some patients have been genuinely converted.

Dr. Fulton has finished translating two volumes of Penrose's Gynecology, 484 pages, Chinese. There is also in press a revision of "Nursing in Abdominal Surgery," "Answers to Prayer," and "The Roller Bandage."

The E. A. Hackett Medical College for Women.—There are thirty-seven young women pursuing the regular four years' course; five were entered irregularly; total, forty-two. Many new text-books permit raising the standard. There are twelve instructors, three being foreigners. The girls are from Foo-chow, Amoy, Hankow, Hainan and Honolulu, as well as from regions near. The college has recently graduated a class of seven. The occasion was a notable one. The Taotai (Mayor) of the city was present and made the following address:

The sixteenth of the twelfth moon of the Mo Shan Year being the day on which your esteemed college celebrates the occasion of your students completing their term of study, I, the Taotai, by order and on behalf of the Viceroy of the two Kwangs, attend this meeting to-day and deliver the following address:

In Western countries, medical colleges for men and women are equally held in high esteem. Formerly the Americans established a hospital for women in Canton called the Yan Tsai, and subsequently established the present college, and had gathered virtuous ladies and taught them the method of delivering the people of this world, which is a very good idea. All the ladies have used their utmost endeavors to learn, and have now succeeded in their study. From this time forward, they would make good use of their profession and be brilliant lights among the females, so as to comply with the excellent idea of a nation with whom we maintain a cordial relation, and at the same time realize the pleasure and hope of our Viceroy. May you female students all pluck up your courage. I also congratulate your esteemed college on its future career.

The young physicians thus started on their career were also addressed by Dr. Amos P. Wilder, American Consul-General at Canton, who said:

It is your part to show that medical training and the opportunity it gives for helping women and children do not war on womanly modesty and gentleness, but rather enrich the character and give it strength. Such a womanly equipment may clash with the traditions of those who count woman a toy or a slave, but it appeals to those who admire women of good mind and an intelligent, sympathetic and efficient interest in life. You thus have a double mission, not only to alleviate pain and restore strength, but to build up among the Chinese an ambition to educate their daughters, as well as their sons, and to open doors for full, rich life for Chinese women.

It is common to hear people say they favor and will support medical missions and missionary schools, but they have no sympathy with the preaching department of missions. You have lived with missionaries here and see the false reasoning. Medical missions and missionary schools are the fruits of Christian principles; if the latter are not preached there will be none of the former. You do not know any doctors working among the Chinese without fees who have not the Christian inspiration; you never heard of a foreigner coming to China and teaching for the love of it; only those come with the Christian motive power behind them.

The Julia P. Turner Training School for Nurses has been enlarged so there are nine young women in training.

There is a growing interest in the work and very soon in Chinese homes there will be a greater demand for trained women to care for the sick. Sixteen calls were responded to by those in the school. Two went a distance of 200 miles into the country and another 150. All are Christians except two who came recently and they are learning the Gospel message. Three completed the course this year.

The John G. Kerr Refuge for the Insane continues its great and beneficent work. Mrs. Kerr gives to it a large part of her time in loving consecration to the work which her husband bequeathed to her. Dr. C. C. Selden, the Christian physician in private practice in Canton to whom the Refuge owes so much, has not only given to the Hospital all the time and strength that his rather frail health has permitted, but he has brought out and is supporting Dr. John A. Hoffman as assistant.

The Refuge has had 311 inmates this year; sixty-six have been discharged cured and thirty improved. Twenty-three died. This has been a year of misfortune; flood and typhoon causing damage to extent of $600, and cholera carrying off some of the patients after an illness of a few hours. There have been weekly a Sunday preaching service, two prayer meetings, a Sunday-school, and an evening of Bible study. Two have become Christians.

School for the Blind (in charge of Miss Mary W. Niles, M.D., and Miss Lucy Durham).—Many friends of the blind have long been interested in the heroic efforts which Dr. Mary Niles has made to found and carry on a School for Blind Girls in Canton. While she has been a regular member of the Mission, and while the Board has made a small appropriation for the school, the main burden of maintenance has been carried by Dr. Niles personally. The Mission and Dr. Niles feel that the time has come when this School for the Blind should be brought into the same relation with our Mission work as our other institution in Canton, and this transfer is now being made to the satisfaction of all concerned. A larger and better site for the school has been secured and new buildings are now in process of erection. The school will continue as before under the superintendence of Dr. Niles, assisted by Miss Durham, and we commend it anew to the interest of the whole Church.

There has been a distinct advance in methods of teaching and a marked improvement in the health of the pupils. Certificates of graduation were given to some who had completed the course. The girls have done much out-door work, carrying earth and sand for filling and working in the garden. Building has been going on slowly, a residence for the missionaries is occupied, already tested by the terrible typhoon of July, and the brick work of the main building for the school is nearly done. There is no money to put up the other stories, the verandas, or the teachers' house, and the school will be crowded and unable to grow, but we believe the Lord will put it into the heart of some one to pity the blind of China and send means to care for them. There has been an average of thirty-one blind pupils. One who graduated in massage under Miss Strathie continued her studies under Dr. Niles and studied physical diagnosis. In vacation they did religious work in their villages. Eight girls joined the church during the year. The typhoon damaged the mat sheds that were in use as temporary quarters.

It is an interesting fact that this School for the Blind, the John G. Kerr Refuge for the Insane and the School for the Deaf and Dumb, the last in Chefoo, were all founded and are being maintained by Presbyterian missionaries. Our sympathies go out strongly to these institutions, which are deserving of a larger support than they have yet received.

Dr. Mary Niles has also given much time to translating.

Two volumes of the Obstetrics have been printed. Two volumes of the Practice are printed and the work on the third volume well advanced. The office practice was closed in January; up to that time, with the help of the native assistant, there had been 129 office calls and 30 calls in the country. At the Ha Fong Tsuen Dispensary, 810 patients were treated, under the care of Drs. Selden and Hoffman, most of the work being done by the native assistant, though the foreigners frequently assisted in the more difficult cases.

SHEK LUNG STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher continue their care of this important and growing field. Dr. and Mrs. Boyd are now to be associated with them. There is a large population easily accessible from Shek Lung, and a great opportunity for the development of a large work. During the year, Mr. Fisher had sole oversight of the sixteen chapels and five day-schools for boys of the East River field. The work is steadily growing.

Shek Lung Church has six chapels connected with it, in all of which preaching has been regularly carried on during the year. Forty-six have united on confession of faith.

The boys' school has had an attendance of thirty.

Look Laan Chapel is the banner chapel in point of numbers of baptism—sixty-eight were baptized this year. A beautiful new chapel has been erected at a cost of $1,500, without any aid from the Mission.

YEUNG KONG STATION.

The members of this Station have continued their devoted work. Mr. Patton returned from furlough during the year, bringing with him his bride, Miss Isabella Mack, M.D., of the Canton Station. Mr. and Mrs. Patton are devoting their special attention to the development of Ko-chou, one of the out-stations of Yeung Kong, which has become specially prominent and promising as a centre for a larger evangelistic work. It will remain an out-station, there being no thought of developing it into a separate centre. The work will be carried on by Chinese helpers under the superintendence of Mr. and Mrs. Patton, who will visit the field as often as circumstances will permit. Mr. Sheldon Parks, of Cleveland, Ohio, has generously placed at the disposal of the Board the sum of $2,000 gold for securing the necessary property at Ko-chou, this sum being composed of the gifts of several individuals and of the Catherine M. V. Holley legacy of $600.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—It may be of interest to note certain general conditions and special forces which have combined to make the year meager in visible results, yet rich in experience and full of promise for the future. Mr. Marshall writes:

1. The growing indifference to idolatry, sometimes taking the form of active iconoclasm, has been in itself an opportunity to point the way to the true God. The hostility which marked the early part of the year has disappeared, so that preachers, colporteurs, and Bible women report unusual opportunities to present the Gospel to willing hearers. To the Christians has come the opportunity to show faithfulness under testing. Two Christians have been murdered by robbers, seven members of Christian families carried away and held for ransom, while the wife of another brother is still in the hands of pirates. People in general are beginning to understand that the church offers its members no assistance in worldly matters. This does away with much misapprehension and causes the Gospel to be taken on its merits.

2. Independent forces are manifest both within and without the Church. There is a general spirit of restiveness among Christians, tending toward cutting loose from missionary control. In extreme cases of those who have failed to find in the church worldly advancement, there has been a turning against the Church and a repudiation of all connection with foreigners. Outside of the Church, in educational, industrial, commercial, and official matters, the Chinese are showing an increasing desire to rely upon their own resources. In consequence of all this, there is a call both within and without the Church for leadership, and it seems unfortunate that China has but few men prepared to seize the strategic moment. Especially do we feel the lack in our field, as our men are almost all young, inexperienced, and poorly equipped for leadership.

3. Strong spiritual forces are undoubtedly working. In Yeung Kong City especially we can not complain of stagnation, and the agitation is extending to other places. There is really a deep spirit of earnestness which sometimes expresses itself in crude and mistaken forms yet clearly indicates the strivings of new life. A characteristic result is the formation of several leagues for prayer, self-support, Sabbath-keeping, and preaching the Gospel. Such forces, if wisely directed, will result in wider evangelism and richer harvests.

Mr. Marshall spent the first part of the year in erecting a new church in Yeung Kong City. The congregation has now a commodious building situated on one of the principal streets. Its erection was made possible by the generous aid of the Second Presbyterian Church of Germantown, in supplementing the efforts of the local congregation.

The opening of this new house of worship was attended with great blessing. The presence of the Spirit was manifested in deep heart-searching and confession of sin followed by great joy and peace. As a result of this movement many are earnestly inquiring what are the possibilities of the Christian life; sluggish indifference has been broken; the congregations are larger and more attractive; a new era of evangelism has come; the members of the session are more alert and aggressive, and a new spirit of inquiry has arisen among people in general.

On account of pressure of work only three communion services have been held in each chapel. One hundred and two candidates have been examined, and out of this number twenty-five have been baptized. Death has claimed the unusual number of twenty-seven; two of whom were killed by robbers, most of the others being the victims of bubonic plague, which has been unusually virulent this year.

Special classes for helpers were held in February and July. Systematic study was made of the epistles of First John and Philippians with the purpose of strengthening the Christian motive and increasing the spiritual joy of all our helpers in their arduous work. On account of their isolation and the severe test that they must meet, we feel that they need these seasons for fellowship, conference and Bible study. Many members of the local congregation also attended these classes and much interest was manifested.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Three day-schools with a total enrollment of seventy pupils, are under Mr. Marshall's charge. The schools in Yeung Kong City and Fa chau are taught by first degree men, who have shown much interest in their work. A marked improvement is seen both in discipline and scholarship. Many promising lads are gathered into these schools, who ought to be given the advantages of higher education.

Part of Mr. Marshall's time has been given to instructing a theological class composed of three promising young men, whom we hope soon to be able to use in supplying vacant chapels. This class, with the women's training class and the future enlargement of the evangelistic work of the Yeung Kong section of our field, is made possible by the generosity of the Second Presbyterian Church of Germantown.

Boarding School for Girls.—This school is in care of Miss Wilcox, who writes:

The desire of my heart has been fulfilled in a flourishing girls' school of thirty-seven pupils, with a boarding department well started with twelve boarders. Many more are waiting to come as soon as we can accommodate them. The majority are unable to pay the full price of board, but give about what the expense of living at home would be. The opening of the school last Fall in a more central location and larger building proved to be quite an incentive and many new pupils were added to our roll.

Living in the city has brought me nearer to the Chinese and the oversight of the school has been exercised to better advantage. Our new teacher from the True Light Seminary in Canton is very popular. Several of the girls are from well-to-do families, but after hearing of Jesus at school they refuse to join in the idol and ancestral worship in their homes.

When visiting a village a few miles distant, I met two girls who desired to attend school. Their father was glad to have them do so, and they came with me. After a few days, the grandfather came in my absence and took them away. I inquired the reason, and learned that the parents had been informed that I would dig out the eyes of the girls, so I judge that they consider themselves very fortunate in rescuing their offspring when they did.

The industrial department for the boarding pupils was opened with the hearty concurrence of both pupils and parents. The older girls help in the kitchen, also in sweeping and cleaning. The sewing class has already completed a number of garments and helped in the making of shoes, while the smaller ones are learning to prepare the hemp thread ready for weaving.

At the weekly prayer meeting with the girls, as many as 20 outside women and children have attended. A class of three has begun lessons on the organ. I have also visited a number of villages and been with the Bible women to many homes in the city, where there has usually been a good opportunity to tell of the love of Jesus to the crowds who gather to see the foreigner.

After the series of meetings held in the winter, at which time many of our helpers developed a stronger desire to win souls, the inquirers' class increased to an average attendance of about 20. The Sunday-school class for girls has also grown in numbers, the usual attendance ranging from 30 to 40.

MEDICAL WORK.—Forman Memorial Hospital.—The hospital was reopened on Dr. Dobson's return from furlough. While he was in America many chronic cases accumulated awaiting his return. When opening day came, these cases began to fill up the wards.

There has been no native assistant since the hospital reopened. In his place one man and one woman have been partially trained as nurses. This arrangement has thrown more details on the physician. He has rarely left the hospital compound except to make professional calls or to attend service on Sunday.

Many more of the better class have been patients at the hospital. Professional calls have been made in many families of the well to do. Reputation has extended so that now patients come from long distances.

Dr. Dobson endeavors to carry on the work as cheaply as possible, the annual expenditure being only $400 gold, besides salary of foreign physician. Of this amount $100 is raised on the field. In spite of the meager sum mentioned, and the presence of only one physician, the increased work of the hospital has been successfully carried on. Dr. Dobson has seen every one of the 3,500 dispensary cases: has prescribed for an average of thirty ward patients twice daily; an average of over five operations twice weekly, every one of which has been done by him.

With a few exceptions, every tooth pulled and every wound dressed has been personally done. Anæsthetizing has been partially attended to by the druggist. City calls and office calls amount to nearly 1,000. Other duties are superintending the Sunday-school, and Treasurer of the Station. This report is being written at 4.30 A. M. In addition, it is a pleasure to conduct morning and evening prayers ten times a week.

Operations were performed as follows (under anæsthetic): Upon the eye, cataract, 25; others, 59; rectal, 36; hand, 10; skin, 28; tumors, 6; malignant tumors, 6; genito-urinary, 13; wounds, 2; bones, 12; hernia, 1; ear, 2; nose, 4; glands, 6; miscellaneous, 20.

Many kind friends in the United States have contributed to the repair fund. We have added a story to the employees' quarters, built two private wards for women, enlarged the gatehouse, and built a gate-man's lodge, repainted the wood work, and a lot of miscellaneous repairing. The water works have been enlarged and a water heating plant has been presented through the friends in Jersey City. The hospital has received five folding spring beds from one of the elders in Jersey City; also five quilts given by various aid societies through the efforts of Mrs. Bruce. We wish you could hear the thanks of the patients for these benefits.

Regarding the progress of the Gospel among the patients, we wish more definite results could be chronicled. Better attention has been given at prayers. Nearly every patient says he wishes us to come and preach the Gospel at his home. Recently one patient has entered the Church and four in-patients are now in the inquirer's class. I continually see former patients present at church services.

Out-patients: men, new, 608; returned, 943; women, new, 423; returned, 799. Office calls and visits at homes, 923. Patients in wards: men, 170; women, 66; a total of 236. Surgical operations: in operating room, 228; in dispensary, 28; total, 256. Teeth extracted, 41.

Evangelistic work among women in the hospital has been carried on as usual by Mrs. Dobson. A Bible woman talks to the dispensary patients a couple of hours every day, which means that about 500 women have heard the life-giving message during the year.

Class work in the wards has been very satisfactory, the aim having been to have Bible verses, commandments, Lord's Prayer and hymns memorized so as to never be forgotten by these poor ignorant people unable to read a word. A large number have read simple books and learned the Catechism.

During the latter part of the year a new Bible woman has lived on the place and given half her time to this work; also has accompanied a number of patients to home villages and talked to large numbers of people. Advance along this line will be the chief endeavor of the coming year. Bible lessons and talks on hygiene have been eagerly attended as often as I was able to give them.

Woo Ong Che, the itinerating Bible woman, has done excellent work in the country and reports the attitude of the people changing to friendliness and eagerness to hear her message.

Mrs. Marshall has devoted much time to the training class. Seven women were taught. Mrs. Marshall writes:

We had the joy of seeing two begin regular evangelistic work, one in the hospital, the other in the city and out-stations, though they still continue their studies. A third, who has studied for eighteen months without financial aid, has given several hours a week to work in the hospital wards, and promises to make a good helper. Only one other woman has been helped. She is the wife of a theological student, our policy being to give the wives of our helpers some education where it is possible.

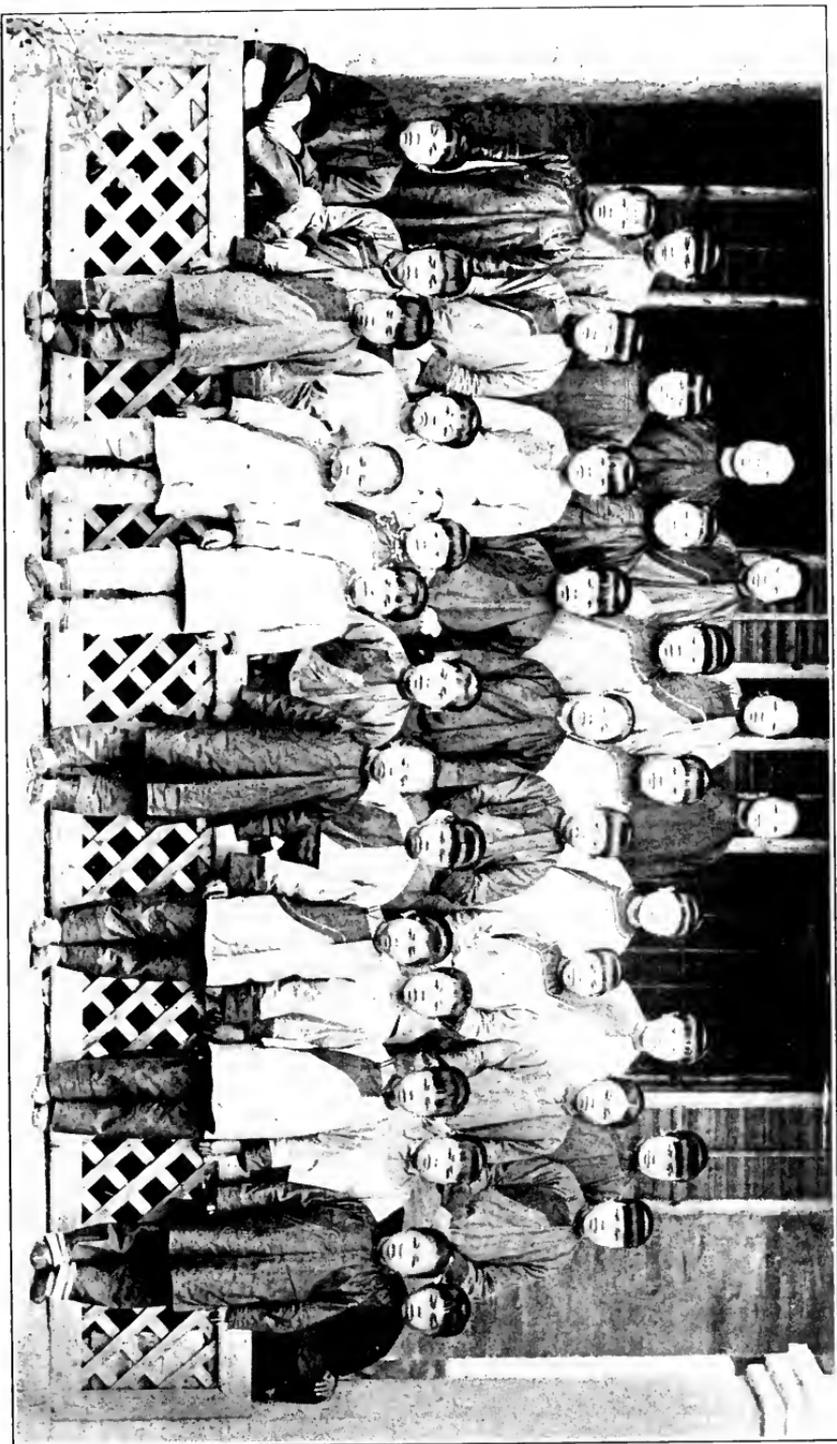

Less time than usual has been available for visiting. All of the Christian women within easy distance have been visited, also most of the inquirers, but many invitations from outsiders have had to be declined. Many callers have been entertained here, chiefly from the families of the gentry or official class.

The Bible woman under my charge has done good work in the city and neighboring villages, and the senior members of the training class have also done house-to-house work. A large number of non-Christian women hear the Gospel at the Sunday services, especially since the new chapel has been in use. Five women have been baptized here during the year and there is now a class of about twenty inquirers under instruction.

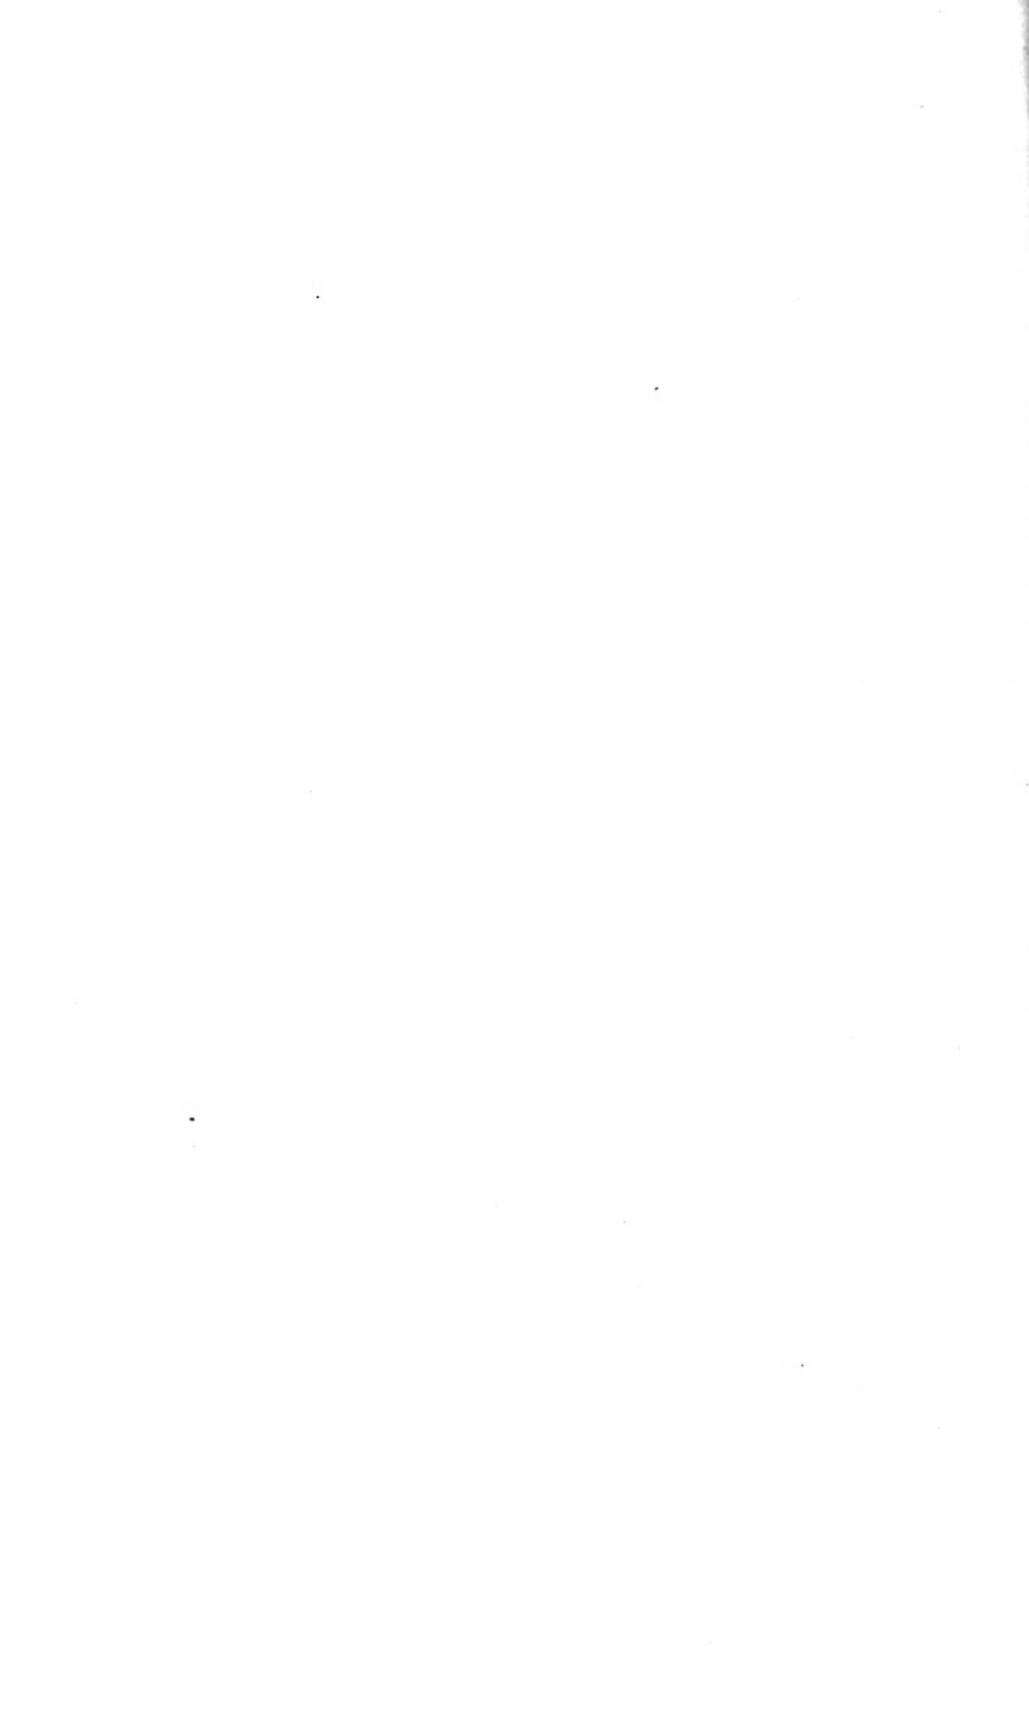

A number of women whose domestic duties will not permit them to study show a desire to learn to read, and my Sunday-school class now has an enrollment of fifteen women who can read the lesson, besides several who are used as teachers. Many others learn to read a single verse for the Thursday prayer meeting.

LIEN-CHOU STATION.

We trust that many in the home churches have been thinking and praying during the year for the heroic and devoted little company of missionaries who have reopened this Station, hallowed by the blood of martyrs. With no thought of themselves, they went back as soon as the authorities would permit the reoccupation of the Station. They are busily and happily at work erecting new buildings in place of those destroyed by the mob, gathering together the scattered Christians, and, as fast as the building operations permit, reorganizing the evangelistic and educational work of the Station. While some of the people have been suspicious, many have shown a kindly interest in the missionaries. The meetings are being largely attended and there appears to be no reason to anticipate further trouble. But the loneliness and isolation of this remote Station are great, and while the missionaries appear to be as safe as missionaries elsewhere in China, the peculiar circumstances call for special sympathy and prayer.

Although there have been armed clan fights in the villages in our immediate neighborhood, we are glad to report no open opposition was offered to us or to our work. It is undoubtedly true that many suffer our presence grudgingly. We feel that the most opposition is to be found in the small villages adjoining the Mission premises, and not so much from Lien Chou City nor the outlying districts. Lien Chou City is reserved but not openly opposing us; we are praying and working to remove this barrier. The outside districts, at present, are the most receptive. Most of the faithful church members are there, and the schools are filled from the same source; likewise a large percentage of the dispensary patients.

The officials have shown a friendly interest in all of our work. Inasmuch as the title to some portions of land had been in dispute, it was considered advisable to have the Mission property outlined publicly and, by invitation, all the officials and the elders of the village from whom the property was purchased were present to locate the boundary. None of the land needed for Mission purposes was disputed. The village elders were very urgent in their request that the sites of some ancient graves be not enclosed. For the sake of their good will and to show that we respect their burial places their request was granted.

BUILDING.—In addition to the buildings he put up last year, Mr. Edwards has completed the new boys' school, occupied in September, 1907; the church, occupied December, 1907; and residence No. 2, occupied January, 1908. In April, Dr. R. M. Ross began work on residence No. 3 and the Van Norden Memorial Hospital. Residence No. 3 was occupied in June, the hospital still being under construction. Much of the building material for the Brooks Memorial Hospital has been purchased. We are thankful that the work of rebuilding has gone on so rapidly and unhindered by the least opposition.

EVANGELISTIC.—Lien Chou.—As soon as the assembly room at the boys' school could be used, the church services were transferred to that room and it was not long before the place was crowded.

When the church was completed another move was made and the attendance has continued to increase, there being at times 500 or 600 people at the Sunday services. The number of applicants for admission has largely increased also. Of these seventeen have been received, the remainder being placed upon a special roll for further instruction.

The Sunday-school has been one of the most promising features of the work. From the time that the church was reopened to the close of the schools at the end of June, the average attendance has been over 200 and at times has reached

350. A weekly teachers' meeting has been held for preparing the teachers for the following Sunday.

The regular midweek prayer meeting and Christian Endeavor meeting have been held as in previous years. The attendance from outside the schools has not been large. Some of the older pupils have taken their turn as leaders with a greater degree of success than desirable in one respect, for the hour scarcely provides time in which to express themselves.

Sam Kong.—While Miss Patterson was at Sam Kong in charge of the girls' school, the interest in the church services was well sustained, but after the removal of the school at Lien Chou with but an occasional visit from the missionary the interest is not so manifest. There are a few faithful ones, but the majority do not take part in the work. Several persons have come before the Session, but none were yet ready to be admitted.

Kang Hau.—On account of the distance from Lien Chou and the demands on the time and energies at the home Station, this church has been greatly neglected. There has been no preacher located here. As there is no material from which to make elders it is planned to enroll the membership as part of the Lien Chou Church.

Evangelistic Itinerating.—Six preachers and colporteurs have given a part or the whole of their time to evangelistic work.

Lien Chou, Sam Kong, Paak Fu, Tsai Kong, Shek Kok, Tung Pei and the surrounding villages have been the field for evangelistic work. A week was spent at Paak Fu by Mr. Edwards and family. Tung Pei was visited and the chapel which had been closed from the time of the trouble was reopened. Later in the Spring Mr. Kunkle also spent a few days at Tung Pei.

Wong Pit Chin has continued her faithful work of visitation amongst the Christians and inquirers. Her health has not been good, but her willingness to work has been just as manifest as before.

Lok Neung, at Sam Kong, although hindered by family cares, has continued faithfully in her work of visitation there.

Many women have been callers at the homes. These have been entertained and their curiosity partially satisfied. Some are willing to listen and we have found a few really hungering hearts plainly stirred by the Spirit. The attendance of such at church services has given cause for encouragement. A "Month of Study" was given for women who wished to learn more of Christianity. The women were in daily attendance, living on the Mission compound. Instruction was given by Mrs. Edwards with the assistance of Miss Patterson and three Bible women. The results were so satisfactory that larger plans will be made for next year. This year fifteen women availed themselves of the opportunity. At the communion, at the close of the month, two of the women were received into the church.

Great opportunities have presented themselves in homes in the city and villages. The ladies of the station visited many homes and gave the Message. As a rule they were welcomed and many more invitations were received than could be accepted. Their open homes included the poorest as well as a few of the wealthy. It is evident that interest in Christianity on the part of women is much more general than in former years.

EDUCATIONAL.—Boys' Boarding School.—The school formerly held in a Chinese building in the neighboring village of Ho Chun was transferred to Sam Kong after the massacre. On the completion of the school building, it was opened again at Lien Chou. The enrollment was sixty boarding and day pupils. The highest class, in particular, has done good work.

The department of the school has been good. A very friendly interest has been shown toward Christianity by those in the school who come from non-Christian families. Of the pupils received into the Church one is from the Ins (an aboriginal race), a bright boy, who, we hope, will become an evangelist to his own people.

Girls' Boarding School.—Thirty-eight pupils have been enrolled during the year, six of whom were day pupils. Others had to be refused admittance as there was no room to receive more.

The first part of the year school was held in Sam Kong as in preceding years, but the latter part it was moved out to Lien Chou and crowded into a part of the house for single women.

However, in spite of cramped quarters and lack of well-trained Chinese teachers, progress has been more marked than in the preceding year. Lack of teachers has been in a measure remedied by having some of the work in connection with the boys' school. Thanks are due Mr. Kunkle for instruction in geography and map drawing.

Day-schools.—When the boarding school was moved from Sam Kong to Lien Chou, a day-school for girls was opened in Sam Kong, Mo Sz Nai, teacher. Twenty-seven pupils were enrolled, and the average attendance was excellent. The school has been a good evangelistic agency, as most of the children come from non-Christian homes, and the parents frequently come with the children to visit the school and sometimes with them to church service.

MEDICAL.—The medical work has not yet begun to be aggressively pushed, owing to the work of language study and of building. Dr. Carper's dispensary for women, which has been open an hour daily from January 1 to July 1, has had 500 patients. Plans for the Brooks Memorial Hospital have been made, some material bought and work of leveling the site begun.

The Van Norden Memorial Hospital is about completed and will probably be opened about Chinese New Year. The dispensary for men has been open daily and we have had cases from several distant districts. A few out-patients have been visited. The outlook for medical work is most encouraging.

MISSION IN GUATEMALA.

Guatemala has an area of 63,400 square miles, has a population variously estimated at 1,200,000 to 1,500,000, composed unequally of whites, Mestizos and Indians, the latter vastly predominating. The climate of this republic is for the most part salubrious. Our work is at Guatemala City, and at Quezaltenango, situated and occupied as follows:

GUATEMALA CITY: 60 miles from the sea port of San Jose; occupied 1882. Missionaries—Rev. and Mrs. William B. Allison, Dr. Mary E. Gregg. Out-station, San Augustin.

QUEZALTENANGO: 125 miles northwest from Guatemala City; occupied 1898. Missionaries—Rev. Walker E. McBath and Mrs. McBath.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Allison.

The work of the Guatemala Mission has gone successfully on this year, although somewhat retarded by the fact that of the five members of the Mission two have been on furlough in the United States and one has been laid aside from work because of illness. The force has, however, now been increased by the arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McBath of a little child and they are surely to be congratulated that in the midst of the isolation at Quezaltenango this new and personal joy has come to them.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Allison in the States, Dr. Mary Gregg, with such native aid as she could secure, has had to "stand" by and hold the "Missionary fort" at Guatemala City. That she has succeeded in her difficult task can be seen by reading the following word from Mr. Allison upon his return:

We are back at our post once more after a most delightful and most blessed furlough, greatly refreshed in body, mind and spirit and in the best of health. When our train pulled in a large number of our people were there to welcome us. I cannot tell you how it thrilled us to receive this welcome from these people who have been redeemed from terrible lives of sin and shame, but who are now new men and women in Christ Jesus. We have found our work in fine shape. Dr. Gregg is deserving of great credit. It is true that she has had the help of the representatives of the American and British and Foreign Bible Societies, but she has borne the responsibility.

Dr. Gregg has continued to receive her patients in her little house which serves as a hospital, and daily there have come to her those who being in need of bodily help went away not only benefited physically, but also with a new vision of what is meant by service in the name of Christ and a new desire to know more of that interpretation of religion which makes it not a matter of rites and ceremonies, of formality and fees, but rather of purity, righteousness and truth. Dr. Gregg has had to meet all the demands for help practically alone, with only such aid as could be gotten in an emergency. She needs a nurse who could also do evangelistic work, play the organ and be generally useful, and could some kind friend furnish the necessary money, this would be a splendid opportunity to "lend a hand at a strategic point."

Owing to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Allison have been on furlough, there has been no regular report from their field, but in a letter received since their return certain needs are made conspicuously clear.

In order to carry on this work we simply must have an advance all along the line. We do not feel that we can personally stand back of and meet the expenses for so many things as we have been doing heretofore, out of our own pockets. Our native helpers have not been receiving a living and their pay must be advanced or we can no longer hold them. The Board allowed us last year less than $1,500 (gold) for the carrying on all the native work, the boys' school, house rent, itineration, medical expenses, repairs, etc., etc. We are thankful for our salaries, but we do honestly feel that we should have at least twice $1,500 for the prosecution of the work of the Mission. Our force of native workers should be doubled at once. We are simply failing to do our plain duty because of lack of funds. Please look over the estimates of last year as a partial guide. I think that it should be distinctly taken into consideration that through our failure to push on and follow up our work we are losing some of our very best opportunities. Repeatedly the independent missionaries have come into the field and squatted down on work opened by us, but we were not in a position to say nay, as we were not properly looking after the work. Some people from the Baptist and also from the Methodist Church have been here and they are writing home and telling their people that the work here has not been properly looked after owing to lack of workers and that the opportunity is a great one to-day in Guatemala.

Such is the plea. A good friend of Missions once remarked, "You people send out men, but you do not give them proper tools. This is shortsighted." The difficulty, so far as Guatemala and the South American countries are concerned, is that it seems to be peculiarly hard to interest givers in these fields. Because Christianity in the form of Roman Catholicism has been there so long, one often hears the statement that they are not proper ground for missionary propaganda.

Could one spend half an hour in conversation with almost any one of our missionaries from these lands of "Baptized Paganism," he would no longer deceive himself in this way. If the place where immorality stalks abroad in the persons of debased and polluted representatives of religion, where worship and the sacraments are a matter of dollars and cents, where the purity of young womanhood is threatened at every street corner, is not a field for Missions, then there is no field anywhere in the world.

In letters from Mr. and Mrs. McBath, of Quezaltenango, in which they speak of their coming furlough, one recognizes how this blight threatens even the missionaries themselves. In one letter is this sentence :

I need to confess that we feel the need for a change on account of our spiritual condition. We have been so long under the deadening influence of constant contact with a mingled heathenism and indifference to all religion, with no Christian friends or companions near, that we feel ourselves no longer able to grapple with conditions here and must seek some place where we can be among those who will strengthen us.

This is the cry of a child of God for a breath of spiritual fresh air, and is all the more significant when read alongside of the following plea for advance in the Kingdom of God.

Oh, when we look about us and see the need of this dark land and so few to help us and so little with which to carry on the work, our hearts are well nigh crushed.

Yesterday Mr. McBath, baby and I started out in our little "runabout" to distribute some literature in a little town not so far distant from Quezaltenango, but along the road we met one of our believers, who, by the way, is new in the faith, but is active in the work by way of distributing tracts and holding personal conversation with his friends, and who was on his way to another little town. In our conversation with him he spoke of the necessity of a school for Indian boys and expressed the desire of giving some of his time to teaching if such a thing should come to pass in this city. He is a man of prominence as well as energetic in his work for the maintenance of his family, and we know that his words and life must have weight among his fellow-men. He did not know when he spoke to us of the need of a school, that he was voicing our own sentiments in the matter, which only made us to realize more and more the great need to work the works of God among this poor down-trodden people of Quezaltenango. We had just a few days before (after much prayer), in making out our estimates, asked for money for a school for Indian boys. So our faith was strengthened by this coincidence.

MISSIONS IN INDIA.

The work of the India Missions has advanced more encouragingly than ever throughout the year. Both in the Punjab and in the North India Missions the missionaries can baptize much larger numbers of the low caste people than they are as yet prepared to instruct. Without shirking responsibilities which seem to be clearly thrown upon them, they have nevertheless sought to pursue as conservative a course as possible. The situation in the two Missions is set forth sufficiently in the Station reports.

The general conditions in India have been more tranquil than the previous year. The Nationalistic Movement has continued, but under more temperate direction. There have been outrages attempted and some perpetrated against the British officials and other representatives of the Government, but for the most part these have been the outcome of the anarchistic spirit. One such young anarchist attempted the life of Sir Andrew Fraser, Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal and Moderator of the Church in India, and might have succeeded but for the failure of the first cartridge in his revolver to explode.

Influential men throughout the nation have preached patriotism. No more emphatic statement has been made than by the Nawab of Rampur, in his address to Sir John Hewett, Lieutenant-Governor at Aligarh in February, 1909. His Highness said:

We must not be anything but loyal, because we finally believe that the work of the Government of the great Empire has been placed by the inscrutable decree of Providence upon the broad shoulders of the British race, under whose protection we now live in peace and prosperity. To them was given the power of Government, of gradually guiding, persuading and leading the people of this country to the noble goal of civilization. We should not be blind to what the British have done in India in so short a time. From the highest peak of the Himalayas to Cape Comorin every city and village bears the evidence of their labor and courage. There would have been no roads, docks, harbors, and canals unless the Government had established them. In the last fifty years they have transformed India. Behold a network of some 28,000 miles of railway which carry 19,500,000 passengers and 44,000,000 tons of goods more or less every year. Railways have given to the population throughout India an impulse of activity which in no other way could have been communicated. Since the transfer of the Government of India to the Crown of England just fifty years ago Rs. 4,500,000,000 has been raised and spent on railways and canals alone, under the guarantee of the Secretary of State. If India is poor now with so many railways, which are the means of quick transfer and consequently a flourishing state of Indian trade, which is evidenced by the overcrowded goods and go-downs in every railway station as you pass, what must have been the poverty of India fifty years since? And yet no mention of the poverty of those days is made by the anti-British. Is it just or honest to blame the Government for those misfortunes which are beyond human control? Could any Government, past or present, have possibly mitigated those misfortunes to the extent that the present British Government has done? Look at the marvelous irrigation works! In the whole of India the British Government supervises and manages some 43,000 miles of canals, by which 20,000,000 acres of land are irrigated. No Government in the world can show a nobler record of what they have done for those whom they govern. Little is known of the famines which devastated India before the era of British rule, but the records of the terrible famine of 1769 are still extant. No language can fully describe the suffering caused by that famine, which cost Bengal one-third of its population. It is not difficult to imagine what the severity of the famines of pre-British rule must have been when the mitigating influences of railways and canals and the help of the British officials were absent. If such manifestations of disloyalty were shown in any other country to a Government having the power and resources of the British Government, they would not have met with such gentle preventive measures. But it must be distinctly understood that this forbearance is a sign of strength rather than of weakness, and if this display of disloyalty and anarchy continues, who can say but that even this benevolent Government will not be forced to take those strong measures which these so-called patriots so richly deserve? If the British rule, as the enemies of India would like, were to disappear from it, the horror and misery of the people would be indescribable. The fifty years that India has been directly under the Crown have brought to her many blessings. There is no department of life in which the people of this country have not prospered, and the promises made to you by Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, in the following passage have been fully carried out: "We hold ourselves bound to the natives of our Indian Empire by the same obligations of duty which belong to all our other subjects, and these obligations of duty by the blessings of Almighty God we shall faithfully and conscientiously fulfill. Firmly relying ourselves on the truth of Christianity and acknowledging with gratitude the solace of religion, we disclaim alike the right and the desire to impose our convictions on any of our subjects. We declare it to be our royal will and pleasure that none be in any wise favored, none molested or disquieted, by reason of their religious faith or observances, but that all shall enjoy alike the equal and impartial protection of the law; and we do strictly charge and enjoin all those who may be in authority under us that they abstain from all interference with the religious belief or worship of any of our subjects on the pain of our highest displeasure. And it is our further will that so far as it may be, our subjects of whatever race or creed be freely and impartially admitted to offices in our service, the duties of which they may be qualified by their education, ability and integrity, duly to discharge." Gentlemen, all the promises made by that gracious Sovereign are being strictly kept. Her commands have been implicitly obeyed by her servants. The most absolute and perfect toleration ever known in the history of the world has been practiced in India by the English, and the people of the country have been admitted to the highest offices, and in every possible branch of administration everything has been done, and it is being done, to give the people of this country the fullest benefit of civilization.

PUNJAB MISSION.

The field occupied by the Punjab Mission of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America comprises a territory extending from Saharanpur on the east to Lahore on the west, a distance of about 250 miles, and from the Himalaya Mountains on the north to an indefinite line on the south. Within these boundaries other Missions have undertaken a work, thus limiting the dimensions of the field.

The field thus delimited comprises an area of about 20,000 square miles. Lying on the border is much territory as yet unoccupied, into which occasional tours are made by the missionaries and their evangelists.

Within this territory there are eighty-eight towns and cities and 14,230 villages, comprising a population of 7,566,412. Considered from a religious standpoint the population may be thus divided:

Hindus.....	3,736,445
Moslems.....	2,923,835
Sikhs.....	882,783
Christians.....	23,349

Included in what is here designated "Hindu population" are 838,410 low caste people, of whom one-fourth are Chuhras and three-fourths Chamars.

The actual population of the Punjab Mission districts is 5,694,967.

To meet the evangelistic requirements of this field a missionary force is needed as follows:

Foreign missionaries and their wives.....	60
Single lady missionaries.....	120
Licentiate or ordained Indian ministers.....	120
Indian teachers and readers.....	1,200

This, it may be remarked, is a conservative estimate of the working force needed in this field.

The present force in the field, including those at home on furlough, is: 24 foreign missionaries, and their wives (18) = 42; 18 foreign single lady missionaries, not including five foreign lady teachers and two lay missionaries, besides 18 lady teachers employed in this country as teachers in Dehra, Saharanpur and Landour; 27 ordained Indian missionaries and ministers in Mission employ; 22 Indian licentiates; 515 male teachers and preachers; 63 Indian women as teachers.

This exhibit shows that in point of numbers our force of foreign missionaries must be increased nearly threefold. The Indian evangelistic force must be multiplied by three, and our teaching force must be increased fivefold.

EDUCATIONAL WORK OF THE MISSION.—

For Indian Christians there are two High Schools, one for boys and the other for girls; two Industrial and Orphan Schools, one for boys and the other for girls, both graded as middle schools; two Training Schools for village boys and girls, one for each sex, and sixteen primary village schools for village Christians. There is also a Woman's High School and College for Europeans and Eurasians at Landour, where Indian Christian girls may also be received.

For non-Christians there are now five High Schools and one middle school for boys. Connected with these are thirteen branch schools of the primary grade, three middle schools for girls and, separate from these, ten primary girls' schools. At the head of this system is the Forman Christian College for young men, affiliated with the Punjab University, to which young women may also be admitted.

In all there are two colleges, seven high schools which include all grades, four separate middle schools, twenty-three primary schools at central stations, and sixteen village schools.

The total enrollment at these schools in 1908 was as follows:

Forman Christian College.....	437
Woodstock High School and College.....	156
High Schools for Christians.....	282
High Schools for non-Christians.....	2,164
Middle Schools for Christians.....	214
Middle Schools for non-Christian boys.....	199
Middle Schools for non-Christian girls.....	361
Training Schools at Khanna and Ferozepur.....	35
Primary Schools in cities.....	1,426
Village Schools (in part).....	203
Total.....	5,432

The total cost of these schools in 1907 was Rs. 223,607.

The sources of income were:

Fees, board, etc.....	Rs. 107,572
Grants-in-aid.....	41,310
Other sources in field.....	33,115
Board's treasury.....	41,610

Education of Christians.—The duty of educating and training the Christians is felt to be supreme. It is to Christian schools that we look for trained men and women who will be able to lead their countrymen into an intelligent knowledge of the Scriptures and the doctrines of the Christian religion. Educated men and women are wanted for the work of the Indian Missions and Churches.

Such education, in the first instance, must necessarily be expensive. The constituency of the schools is small, and generally indigent. Accordingly the schools for 669 Christian boys and girls cost the very large sum of Rs. 103,840 annually. The fees for schooling and boarding bring in a revenue of Rs. 56,128. The Government grants-in-aid amount to Rs. 12,869. There are other revenues amounting to Rs. 3,199. This leaves a balance of Rs. 31,290 to be paid by the Mission treasurer. To this sum should be added the salaries of at least two married missionaries and eight single ladies which would be Rs. 17,200. Thus the total net cost of our schools for Christians is Rs. 48,490.

The average cost per pupil in these Christian schools, excluding the salaries of the missionary teachers, is Rs. 47/8. Including the salaries of missionaries the cost is Rs. 57/4.

The village school work of the Punjab Mission is the weak point in our educational scheme. Some sixteen or eighteen village schools are maintained in a desultory way. Another year will produce a better showing.

Education of non-Christians.—The extensive system of secular schools in the Punjab Mission grew out of the circumstances which surrounded the founders of the Mission. The school was then the only institution likely to strongly influence the minds of the better classes. Moreover, the influence of the great educationalist, Dr. Duff, set the pace for our Mission in the early years of our history. That we have done much and are still doing much in the way of overthrowing superstitions, promoting family and social reforms, introducing the desire for female education, etc., etc., cannot be denied. Some young men have been led to confess their faith in Christ and have brought strength and dignity to the Church. Thousands of young men are still being influenced in their characters and lives by our schools.

The schools for the education of non-Christian boys number five high schools, one middle school, and the Forman Christian College in Lahore. There are also thirteen primary schools connected with these high schools. The total attendance is 3,754, and the annual net cost to the Mission is Rs. 3,548. If to this we add the salaries of the missionaries, who spend most of their time in this work, the cost would be Rs. 18,118.

This does not seem to be too much to pay for the opportunity of educating 3,754 boys and men, most of whom will some day occupy important places in India's economic and intellectual life. It is true that the outcome in the way of conversions is small, but on the other hand every reform sect in India is busy with the school and college. We cannot but believe we have been rightly led in the past to establish these schools; and, if so, we should hold the vantage ground which education has won for us in our effort to evangelize the educated classes.

EVANGELISTIC WORK OF THE MISSION.—

It is generally conceded that wherever a chapel or hall can be secured it is best to preach in a stated place. There are six such chapels within the central stations of the Mission, two at Lahore, one at Ludhianna, one at Ferozepur Cantonment, one at Hoshiarpur, and one at Sabathu. Regular preaching services are carried on at Lahore and Ludhiana, within the chapel walls. At other places mentioned the chapels are used as reading rooms, while the preaching is usually done outside the building.

The total number of villages within the bounds of the field occupied by the Punjab Mission is 14,230. This field is composed of Station districts of indefinite limits. In some station districts the number of villages reported is far less than the actual number within station limits, being the villages within which they have organized their village work.

The Indian Christian community, now numbering several thousand souls, is scattered among more than 500 villages. Among these eighty centres of evangelistic work have been established. Eighteen churches and twenty-five congregations have been organized. Of the churches eleven have pastors or supplies.

The churches established within the bounds of the Punjab Mission number nineteen. Of these ten have pastors, the remaining nine have stated supplies. The total baptized community numbers 9,462. Adding the unbaptized adherents, which are 2,908, we have a total enrollment of 12,370. The greater portion of this community is resident in the villages, and for thousands there are no properly organized congregations or regular stated means of worship. The officers in these organized churches are: elders 51, and deacons 18. The number of Sunday-schools is 115, with 108 teachers, and a total membership of 4,266.

MEDICAL WORK OF THE MISSION.—

The Punjab missionary establishment comprises three hospitals for women and children: the Philadelphia Hospital at Ambala City, the Woman's Hospital at Ferozepur, and the Denny Hospital at Hoshiarpur. At each of these hospitals there is a dispensary. There is also a dispensary for women and children in Lahore, and a dispensary for all classes in the city of Ferozepur. A hospital and dispensary is conducted in connection with the Leper Asylum at Sabathu.

Connected with these institutions are two men and four lady physicians; one lady physician is working as principal of the Ludhiana Medical School.

The total attendance at the hospitals and dispensaries last year was as follows: in-patients 1,257, and out-patients 62,667.

The inmates of the two Leper Asylums at Sabathu and Ambala were 164. The Leper Asylums have been taken over by the Mission to Lepers, our responsibility being limited to the general superintendence of them and ministering to their spiritual needs.

LITERARY WORK.—

The Punjab Mission has always been distinguished for its activity in the production and publication of a vernacular literature. To it must be given the credit for the setting up of the first printing press in the Punjab. Its missionaries prepared the first translation of the New Testament and portions of the Old Testament Scriptures into the Punjabi language. They also prepared and published the first Grammar and Lexicon in the Punjabi language. They also undertook the first work of the Bible and Tract Societies, publishing in the Urdu, Hindi, Punjabi, Kashmiri, and Persian languages. They published the first newspaper in the Punjab, the Ludhiana Akhbar, and are now the publishers of the oldest vernacular weekly newspaper in the province, the Nur Afshan. For many years our book depot was the one source of supply for Northwest India. Twice was this depot destroyed by fire, and twice restored, largely through the benevolence of Christian men in civil and military employ.

The Nur Afshan is published in Persian Urdu. It is the only Christian newspaper in the Urdu language and Persian character published in the Punjab.

LUDHIANA STATION.

When the Mission was founded in the year 1834, the pioneer missionary, the late Rev. John C. Lowrie, D.D., selected the town of Ludhiana as the first point to be occupied. Ludhiana was at that time the frontier station and military cantonment of the East India Company. From this centre the work was extended.

Ludhiana has at present a population of 48,211 (Census 1901), and is the centre of a district containing 673,087 inhabitants. As to its religious complexion the Census report gives the following figures: Hindus, 269,000; Sikhs, 164,919; Moslems, 235,700; Jains, 2,532, and Christians, 946.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—High School.—Last year there were in all 139 boys in attendance. The number on the roll this year is ninety-seven, of whom eighty-one are boarders and sixteen day-scholars. Only one boy is a non-Christian.

The building up of Christian character is a principal object of this school.

The Jagraon Village Girls' School.—Jagraon is connected with the Ludhiana Station, but may be regarded as a Woman's Rural Mission to women. It is situated twenty-five miles west of Ludhiana, on the Ludhiana and Ferozepur Railway. It contains about 25,000 inhabitants. The Jagraon Tehsil contains 184,795 inhabitants.

The attendance last year was twenty-seven, of whom twenty-four were boarders. Six of the pupils are boys of five or six years. There are no non-Christian pupils. Besides their studies, the girls are taught to do all their own work—cooking, sweeping, washing their own clothes. They are also taught how to cut out and make their own clothes.

City Mission High School.—The religious influences of this school are many. In 1908, notwithstanding the closing of two branch schools, the enrollment was 407 in the main school and 70 in the branch school, making a total of 477.

Girls' Schools.—There are two schools, one for Hindus and the other for Moslems. The attendance last year was fifty. This year it is about the same. The teachers are all Christians, except two, one a Hindu and the other a Moslem.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—There are 864 villages in this district. There are sixty villages in which there are Christian residents. Summer schools are held for the workers and such Christian men and women as can be induced to attend. There are regular Church services held at three centres.

The chief response to the call of the Gospel has been made by the poor and despised low caste people. The number of baptisms reported this year is 200.

Zenana Work.—Mrs. Prem Das has visited regularly in twenty houses this year. Hundreds of women of the city have heard the Gospel. Many of the women have ceased to believe in idol worship, and two widows now pray to Christ after their early morning bath, instead of repeating the names of Rama and Krishna.

Miss Ghose works mostly among Mohammedans, and this year has regularly visited seventeen houses, in which she has taught thirty-one women and girls.

Miss Bannerjee has some very interesting and encouraging pupils, some of whom have told her that they believe in Christ.

Miss Jenks writes of the work in the Ludhiana District as follows:

Nine different centres were visited, together with many of the surrounding villages. The people are more friendly than formerly, and the district seems, as it has for a number of years recently, ripe for an ingathering from among the low caste people, if only we had more Indian evangelists and teachers working in these villages all the year round. A small school for Chuhra boys was kept open for several months, although several times broken up by Sadhus, who frightened the parents into believing their children would be carried off.

All the workers from the district attended the Summer School with their families, as well as many village Christians. For three weeks classes were taught for the different grades. Sixty-two adults, of whom thirteen were women, were in one or more of the classes.

SAHARANPUR STATION.

The city of Saharanpur is situated sixty miles east of Am-bala, on the North Western Railway. The city has a population, predominantly Mohammedan, numbering about 66,000. It is the chief city in a district possessing an area of about 2,228 square miles. The total population is 1,045,230.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The Industrial School and Orphanage has an enrollment of 115 pupils. The larger boys are taught some one of four trades: Carpentry, shoemaking, blacksmithing and tailoring. The smaller boys, and for part of the time the larger boys, are taught in the vernacular middle school connected with the institution.

We have designed and made an improved school-desk during the year, which has met with the approval of European School Inspectors.

A power flour-mill has been built and put up. We are able to turn out about eighty-two pounds of flour per hour, but if we had a larger engine we should be able to turn out three times as much. Three boys were granted journeymen's certificates.

The Saharanpur Theological Seminary was established in 1883 for the training of Indian Christian students for the ministry. Three students in the Senior Class passed the final examination and received diplomas or certificates. One went back to the Hoshiarpur District, and has, we are grieved to say, apostatized to Mohammedanism.

In the Training School at the end of the year there were ten students. Of these, eight passed and were given certificates. Six of them have since been employed in the Punjab and North India Missions; the other two joined the Junior Class of the Seminary in January, 1908. The total enrollment at that time was twenty-seven. Of these, three belong to other Missions than our own, eleven are connected with the North India Mission, and eight with the Punjab Mission.

These are small numbers, not enough to meet one-tenth part of our present need. But there is need for another class of workers. Realizing this, the Missions have recommended a plan which provides for two separate courses of study at different times of the year, one for licentiates and ordained ministers, such as have been trained in the Seminary heretofore, from October to February; another for village pastors from March to July. An attempt has been made to organize the students into an effective aggressive company. A large map of the district on a scale of one inch to the mile has been secured and hung up in a conspicuous place in the Seminary Hall, where it may be seen and studied both by students and teachers. The students are divided into parties of two each, and to each party a definite field is assigned, containing some eight or ten villages. Thus within a small area in the immediate vicinity of Saharanpur, covering some fifty or sixty miles, nearly every village has been visited, some of them three or four times a month. The result of this work is seen in a considerable number of inquirers, some of whom have been baptized, while many others are being prepared for baptism.

Mrs. Velte writes:

The Training School for the wives of students forms an important part of the work carried on in connection with the Seminary. Here it is that the women are daily gathered together and systematically instructed in Biblical knowledge and other studies, which are calculated to make them helpful co-workers with their husbands.

The work in this school is not carried on without numerous drawbacks. Each student, as a rule, has one baby or more, as the case may be, who employ their shining hours in crying, or tearing books, or snatching slate pencils, and generally making it their business in life to interrupt the studies of their maternal relatives and try to the utmost the patience of the teachers.

In arithmetic, every stage from learning to count and write figures up to the end of vulgar fractions has been taught. Roman Urdu, Persian Urdu, Hindi writing, geography from the maps, sanitation, common diseases and their remedies, needlework, dictation, singing, and a little English to three pupils, have formed the bulk of the curriculum.

A weekly Women's Presbyterian Missionary Society is held. The meeting is presided over by one of the members, and all take some part in the meeting.

District Work.—Mr. Velte reports:

I believe it was Emerson who said that America was only another word for opportunity. Considered from the missionary point of view, the same name may to-day be given to India. That word should be written in large letters over the Saharanpur District, and over the whole of the Punjab Mission field. About a month ago, Mr. Roy was making a tour through part of the district, when one day, while traveling slowly over a rough village road, he noticed a man running hard behind him. On his coming up with the cart, the man asked if he were a Padri Sahib, and on his receiving an answer in the affirmative said, "I want to become a Christian; won't you baptize me?" The carriage was stopped to examine this candidate so eager for baptism. A few questions brought out the fact that the man's knowledge of Christianity was almost nil. His chief motive was just this: "My father is a Christian; all my relations are Christians. I do not want to be the only one left out." And so he pleaded most earnestly to be baptized, promising that he would learn all a Christian ought to know, if we would only teach him. This is the opportunity of the mass-movement. The missionary who hesitates to receive such a candidate, or who would first put him on a long trial to test his motives, is likely to miss the opportunity. One of the most hopeful features of this movement is that it runs along the line of family relationships, and we are much less likely to meet with disappointment when baptizing a whole family than when baptizing a single individual.

During the last year, Lajpat Rai, in a lecture delivered at Allahabad, remarked that he would urge two things upon all Hindus who loved their country and wanted it to become a self-governing nation: (1) Not to send their children to Christian schools and colleges; for by attending such institutions they might become Christians, and so would be lost to the cause of India; (2) to take immediate steps to ameliorate the condition of the low castes of India, otherwise the missionaries would convert them to Christianity, and so a large number of people would be alienated from the Indian people. One regrets that there is so much in the present national movement that is anti-Christian; but it is well for us to note the two points where those who are hostile to Christianity think that the missionary's efforts must be specially resisted, and where, in their opinion, the missionary is likely to be most successful. Are they not the points where the emphasis needs to be placed in our present Mission policy? Let us strengthen every Mission school and college, no matter what the cost, and let us at the same time utilize the opportunity of the low caste movement to the fullest extent.

The work in the Saharanpur District is carried on from seven different centres. The total number of baptisms during the year was 188, of whom 134 were adults. There are Christians now in sixty villages, the total number being 736.

Central Girls' School.—This school is for both Hindu and Moslem girls. The attendance last year was seventy-one, but the average number present was only forty-five. They are all day-scholars. One little girl is a Christian. This school is the only agency for reaching the women and girls of Saharanpur.

SABATHU STATION.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Of the evangelistic work at Sabathu Dr. M. B. Carleton writes:

This work was carried on from three centres by the catechists and colporteurs located at these places. On certain days it is house-to-house and shop-to-shop personal work, and other days one or more villages are visited. On Thursday of each week we have bazaar preaching, when all the workers and voluntary helpers meet together with music and singing. In the evening, we have magic-lantern lectures and more personal work among the pilgrims and travelers who may be stopping over night in the best houses in the bazaar. At these times and places many handbills, tracts, and picture cards are distributed and some Bibles and books sold.

During the year there are many melas held in various places in this district.

MEDICAL WORK AND LEPER ASYLUM.—The number of inmates on the roll of the asylum is 141. Fifty of these were admitted this year, and six of them are Europeans and Eurasians. Morning and evening prayers have been held throughout the year, with a more extended service on Sunday conducted by the pastor. From twenty to twenty-five lepers need daily medical or surgical care. At any time, day or night, we are liable to be called out by the needs of the lepers. The Home for the untainted children of lepers gave shelter to seven boys and seven girls, a very bright and happy company of children, well worth the care bestowed upon them.

Nearly forty-five lepers attend school, and are learning to read the Bible. From the asylum four adults were received into the church by baptism.

The number of separate cases attending the dispensary and hospital was nearly 4,000; the number of visits was nearly 10,000; the in-door patients was 490, and the operations 277. More than half of these were operations requiring chloroform.

JULLUNDUR STATION.

The area of the Jullundur District is 2,061 square miles, with a population in 1901 of 1,050,161, of which 266,831 belong to the Kapurthala State. Of this total population, 421,452 are Hindus, 147,590 Sikhs and 479,104 Mohammedans. The Christian population is 1,713 as reported in 1901, but now 2,015. The Indian Christians now number four or five hundred.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Jullundur High School.—This school was established more than a half century ago, and for many years was the only school in the district. The advance in education is illustrated by the fact that besides a Government school there is a High School for Hindus and Mohammedans.

The attendance at the end of September was 299 in the main school and 136 in the branch school. This is a gain of ten pupils in the main school and six in the branch.

Schools for Non-Christian Girls.—There are three girls' schools. Miss Newton has also given lessons in all the schools in clay modeling, paper cutting, needlework, etc., after the fashion of the American schools. This special work has awakened the keenest interest.

The number of pupils enrolled is 151, which, with fifty-eight in thirty-four zenanas, makes a total of 209 women and girls under instruction. The Widows' School, with fourteen, had an average attendance of seven.

As to religious instruction, all pupils learn the Catechism; and all are taught the Sunday-school lesson for the week. There is an attempt to pursue a graded course of Scripture lessons, beginning with the Old Testament stories and ending with the New Testament. As to the importance of these schools, the ladies said:

They open up the best way to reach the girls and for most of them the school is the only way. Through the schools, we are able to reach the homes of the girls.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—

The evangelistic work at Jullundur is under the care of Dr. C. B. Newton. A new and promising centre was established at a large village called Pindori, the home of Faqir Chand, a young man baptized now nearly two years ago. He was brought to us here in Jullundur by old Nihala, a man who has appeared in previous reports and is going to appear again as a luminous figure. The dear old man never fails to go with me, if I tour in his neighborhood. He has a wide circle of acquaintances and relatives in scores of villages, and is universally respected among all classes and castes.

His influence and example led to the conversion of Faqir Chand, familiarly known as Faqiria. From the first Faqiria showed, together with a simple and amiable disposition, an earnest spirit, and like Andrew (John 1 : 41) sought to bring the members of his family to Christ.

LAHORE STATION.

In the year 1849 Lahore was occupied, the Rev. John Newton and Rev. Charles W. Forman being pioneers. Lahore is the capital of the Punjab and one of the most ancient cities in North India.

The area of the Lahore Station, including the city and the three Tehsils in the district occupied by the Mission Station, is 1,978 square miles. The population of this district is 870,419 including the city, which has 186,000 inhabitants. Of this population 538,400 are Moslems, 214,800 Hindus, and 112,119 Sikhs. The Christian population numbers about 5,100, of which 4,300 are Europeans and Eurasians.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The Forman Christian College.—There were 437 students on the roll the 15th of October, 1908. Of these 229 are Hindus, 145 Mohammedans, 24 Christians, 36 Sikhs, and three others. Of the Christian students, two are young women. The number on the roll at the same time last year was 401. The increase has been in the number of Hindus and Sikhs. There is a slight falling off in the number of Christians.

During the last year there have been evening prayers in Kennedy Hall, the hostel for Christian students. These have been taken in turn by the different professors who live in the vicinity of the college. It is felt that this is a step in advance. The Christian students have also engaged in some practical Christian work.

There has been a special attempt during the past year to develop the spirit of helpfulness among all the students of the college, Christian and non-Christian alike. The purpose which underlies this effort is not to substitute philanthropy for religion, but to hold up a life of service as a constituent part of true religion. It is believed that the student who hungers to serve his fellow-men will discover sooner or later that without the spirit of Him who "came not to be ministered unto, but to minister," such aspirations will never be adequately realized. In various ways they have tried to help others, some by teaching in night schools, others by giving talks on sanitation in their villages, and by trying to correct misconceptions regarding the plague measures of Government, others by establishing small loaning libraries, others by teaching their mothers and sisters how to read, others by playing the part of peacemakers and discouraging litigation, still others by working to establish primary schools in their villages, etc., etc.

The Rang Mahal High School.—This school was established immediately after the conquest of the Punjab in 1849. It is located in the heart of the walled city. The school building was originally an old palatial structure, which has been added to from time to time, but still needs extensive repairs and additions to meet the requirements of a modern High School.

The total attendance is 747. There are also four branch schools connected with the High School, with a total attendance of 462.

All other schools are either outside or soon to move outside the walls. The High School has the opportunity of working in a way similar to the settlement work of Western lands. The maintenance of this system keeps the Mission in the closest possible touch with the people in the city.

The great evangelistic influence of this school is to be sought (1) in the fact that some 800 families are thus kept in touch with the Christian influence of the school through the boys who attend school; (2) some hundreds of young men are being taught the spiritual and moral lessons of the Bible during every school-day in the year; (3) besides this there are always some boys confessedly interested in the way of salvation through Christ. One boy was baptized last year, and another boy was beaten by an uncle until an arm was broken because he refused to spit on the Bible. This boy has disappeared.

Girls' Schools for Non-Christians.—There are two schools, one for Hindus and the other for Moslems. Miss MacDonald reports:

These schools offer an excellent opportunity of reaching a large number of girls just at the age when they can be most easily impressed. On the roll of the Mohammedan school we have at present seventy girls, with an average attendance of forty-seven. I have had the privilege of teaching the older girls in a daily Bible class for nearly two years. With them in this Bible class meet more or less regularly several young married women, who used to be members of the school and now live near by. They come across the roofs and in through the windows, often bringing their babies on their hips. The rest of the school is made up of smaller girls from five to twelve years of age. Although they are all of good caste, there is when we first get them very little of Oriental splendor about them, but a great deal of Oriental dirt; and, for the most part, they are so shy and timid, and so utterly unaccustomed to forming even baby ideas, that they seem well-nigh a hopeless undertaking.

In the Hindu School we have 173 on the roll and an average attendance of 107. We follow the same plan of Bible teaching there as in the other school and with exactly the same result. The little Hindu girls are, as a rule, quicker and brighter than the Mohammedans, and therefore finish the work of the primary school, which is as far as we take them, at an earlier age. They also marry much younger than the Mohammedan girls; and that takes many of them away from us at twelve years of age, or younger. Last year, all the children in that school, above the infants, about fifty in all, committed to memory the Commandments, the Beatitudes, the Lord's Prayer, the Parables of the Prodigal Son and the Lost Sheep, the first six verses of John xv and many Bible verses, besides having a regular Scripture lesson every day.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—District Work.—The work of village evangelization is in charge of the Rev. G. L. Thakurdas. The following are extracts from his report:

In the field under my charge there are eighteen villages in which work has been carried on during the year. These may be grouped around seven centres. Three of these centres are at the Lahore Tehsil. Four preachers and teachers work this group of villages. There are two primary schools, with forty-six pupils. Several voluntary workers take part in preaching. The total baptisms in the Lahore District have been 284.

Zenana Work.—Miss MacDonald, of Lahore, writes:

All of my Saturdays I have devoted to zenana teaching. I have five very interesting pupils. They are all high class Mohammedan ladies and very delightful to have as friends as well as pupils. One of these women is a leader of reform among her own people; and, although she does not at all suspect it, she is showing her Christian teaching and working along Christian lines every day of her life. She edits a paper for Mohammedan women in the Urdu language, in which she gives suggestions to mothers and writes stories and poetry for children which have a decided Christian tone.

Woman's Village Work.—Miss Clara Thede, whose lonely life at Wagah, in the Lahore District, is most inspiring, tells of much calamity which overtook the villagers during the year.

It was almost impossible to work. Fever everywhere, and roads covered with water. Patients came, and I could attend to them and tell them of the good Physician who heals body and soul. Our joy was in the baptism of eight persons who joyfully came to Christ. First a young husband and wife, then an educated young man, who was longing to give himself to Christ; though disowned by his family and subject to much ill treatment, yet he rejoices in his Saviour.

In September, I got fever badly and had to come up to Dharmsala. I have not the records of the dispensary here, but there were about 5,000 in attendance.

MEDICAL WORK.—Mrs. Clark writes as follows:

Our dispensary during the past year has been thronged by large numbers of women from all classes and religions. Many are deeply interested in the Bible messages given. This year the new patients have been 4,704, and the whole number of patients 11,355, as against about 8,000 last year. This has made a daily average of forty-six. No startling cases of conversion have occurred, but we are glad to see an increasing inner circle of deeply interested women, who say that they accept Christ as their Saviour.

A Bible woman was obliged because of her health to give up most of her zenanas. The women from these houses followed her to the dispensary to hear the Word of truth there. One day when the teaching had been about a recent earthquake as a possible voice of God, a Mohammedan woman said: "What does it matter? Living or dying we belong to Jesus." Another time, after the Bible teacher had spoken of Christ as the one Saviour, a woman spoke up and said: "Friends, this is all true that she has been telling you. I am a Mohammedan, but there is no hope in Mohammedanism. Only Jesus Christ can save. Believe in Him," and with these impressive words she went suddenly away.

AMBALA STATION.

The portion of the Ambala District occupied by this Station is about forty miles in length and thirty-three miles broad, comprising 1,346 square miles. The entire civil district covers 2,019 square miles. The population of the Ambala District, occupied by the Punjab Mission, is 587,067, of which 530,000 inhabit the villages. The Cantonment population is about 23,000.

If the population just enumerated be divided on the basis of religion, we shall have the following: Hindus, 365,800; Sikhs, 42,009; Moslems, 175,080; Christians, 4,178.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—City High School.—The religious influences of this school include the following items: an opening service daily of Bible reading and prayer limited to fifteen minutes; Bible instruction daily in the lower classes for forty-five minutes, except Saturday, when it is thirty minutes; and in the upper classes a Bible lesson every other day. On Saturdays the Middle and High Departments are assembled for the Sunday-school lesson, at which time a Christian teacher addresses the classes assembled.

This school closed the year with a total enrollment of 530 pupils, of whom 398 attended the main school and 132 the three branches.

The Cantonment School for Non-Christian Boys.—Ranks as a middle school, of which Dr. Thackwell is superintendent. The enrollment is now 217.

The girls' schools in Ambala City are in the hands of Miss Pratt.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—There are fifty-eight villages in which there are resident Christians besides the workers.

The Rev. Asanand Rai, with a band of four workers, has visited 125 villages, some of them several times during the year. Twenty-nine persons were added to the church by baptism.

The Ambala Cantonment report contains the following notice of the death of the late Mrs. Calderwood:

It is with deep regret we have to record the death of our valued and highly esteemed co-worker, Mrs. Calderwood, who, after a faithful service of upwards of forty-seven years, passed into her heavenly rest on the 29th of June last. Those who were most intimately associated with her, her teachers and her schools and zenanas, as also her fellow missionaries, greatly miss her. She filled a large place in the Mission work in Ambala, and it will not be easy for any other to fill it just as she did. A willing, consecrated worker can no doubt be found, but it is not every one who can endure the exposure to the terrible heat of the summer months, in going back and forth to her work as she did, and make light of it, notwithstanding the advice of friends who tried to persuade her to go to the hills during the hottest summer months. She was so attached to her work that she never seemed to be happy away from it.

It will be well to preserve Mrs. Calderwood's views as to the importance of the work done by the zenana visitor.

What good can you do by visiting in houses of fanatical Mohammedans and bigoted Hindus? There are thousands of girls and women, from ten years and upward, who can only be reached by zenana visiting. When one remembers that in India, perhaps more than in most countries, "She who rocks the cradle rules the world," the great importance of reaching these girls and women will be readily understood, especially at such a time as the present, when there is a general feeling of unrest among the masses of this great Empire. Teaching in zenanas is a great boon to the women of India, and gives us an opportunity of instilling our ideas of the duties of wives and mothers into minds that otherwise could not be reached by us, or by anyone else.

MEDICAL WORK.—The Philadelphia Hospital for Women.—The dispensary is open four or five hours every day. The average daily attendance, as noted in the Government Report, is sixty-four to seventy-four patients, making a total attendance of 12,944. The visits for the year were about 23,000.

The hospital has thirty beds, but the average number of in-door patients is eighteen.

More than half of the patients in the hospital and at the dispensary come from the villages lying out in a radius of forty miles.

A few persons have been converted in this hospital, but they have usually been baptized elsewhere. As a result of the work in this hospital, the doors are open everywhere.

Leper Asylum.—The number of inmates at the end of the year is thirty, while once during the year it rose to thirty-three. It has been our privilege during the year to baptize twelve of the inmates of the men's asylum. In the women's asylum all are Christians.

DEHRA STATION.

The town of Dehra has a population of 24,000, which it owes to the presence of a military cantonment occupied by Gurkha soldiery. Here, too, are the civil courts and offices of the Forest Department. It is the source of supply for the neighboring Hill Stations of Mussoorie and Landour. The district has a population of 178,195.

Of the total of population 178,695 in the Dehra District, 148,275 are Hindus, 24,661 are Mohammedans, 755 are Sikhs, 2,743 Christians, and others 1,761.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Christian Girls' School.—This school has on its roll 134 pupils, of whom 129 are boarders. Among these are a few European and Eurasian girls. The school prepares its pupils not only for entrance to the university, but a few girls are prepared for the first arts examination in college. During Miss Donaldson's absence on furlough, Miss Woodside acted as principal. In reporting the work of the school, Miss Morris concludes:

Are these girls better equipped for their work as Christian women? Have they truer conceptions of right and wrong, larger faith, higher ideals of duty, more fellowship with God? We believe that they have, and our hearts fill with gratitude as we think of one and another who has grown in grace and in knowledge, of some who have passed from death to life, and of whole classes whose earnest response to spiritual things is a marked contrast to the indifference of the early part of the year.

Boys' High School.—

The scholars in this school represent the best classes of Indian society. These boys are kept under Christian influences. They are taught the main truths of the Bible. Their morals are moulded on Christian principles. When English officials want young men for almost any place in the Government service, they prefer to take Mission School boys. These schools prepare them to appreciate the Christian religion. Some of these boys profess themselves believers, though secret believers. A few have been able to openly confess their faith and have become prominent in the Church.

The number on the roll of this school has risen this year from 250 to 315.

Mrs. Emily Alexander and Mrs. Lilla Sircar visit together in thirty-nine houses, where they have thirty-eight pupils, and in the mohallas. These hearers enjoy listening to the Gospel story and join in singing bhajans.

HOSHYARPUR STATION.

The Hoshiyarpur Station was occupied in the year 1867. The suggestion to establish a Mission there was made by the late H. E. Perkins, Esq., then Deputy Commissioner at Hoshiyarpur, who on retiring from office, many years later, became a missionary of the Church Missionary Society.

The district of Hoshiyarpur is ninety-four miles long, with an average breadth of about twenty-five miles, containing an area of 2,232 square miles. There are in this district seventeen towns and 2,117 villages, containing a population in 1901 of 989,782. Divided as to religion, on the basis of the Census of 1901, the population would thus be described: Hindus, 603,740; Sikhs, 71,126; Jains, 1,137; Moslems, 312,958; Christians, 785. The number of the Indian Christians is now 2,816. There are in this district 19,075 faqirs or mendicants, of which 3,407 are Hindus, 15,075 Moslems and 593 Sikhs.

Girls' Orphanage.—There is accommodation for seventy inmates. Everything is plain and neat and clean. The object is to train the girls to habits that will fit them for the domestic life they will have to live as the wives of village workers and teachers. The school grades at present as an upper primary school. Indeed it is difficult to keep the girls beyond this stage, nor does it seem to be desirable to do so, owing to the demand for marriageable girls, while experience shows the desirability of marrying the average orphan girl at the age of sixteen or seventeen.

The number of girls on the roll was fifty-three, of whom twenty-six were orphans, eleven half-orphans, and sixteen girls with both parents alive, but too poor to send them to more expensive schools.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Dr. Chatterjee has divided the villages of his district into two classes: The villages which have a Christian community and those which are entirely non-Christian. In the whole district there are nine central stations, in each of which there is an evangelist or catechist, who has charge of a circle, and who is responsible for the evangelization of the villages within that circle and for the instruction of the inquirers and baptized members of the church within these bounds. The missionary makes periodical visits, and inspects the work of his evangelists and catechists, and examines those who have been taught by them.

The total Christian community in the Hoshiarpur District numbers 2,816. For these, four separate church organizations have been constituted by the Lahore Presbytery. Each church has its Board of Elders, and is ministered to by a Stated Supply. Services on Sundays, Sunday-schools, and prayer meetings are held in these places by five ordained and twelve unordained teachers and preachers. There are forty Sunday-schools, with a membership of 764. There were only four day-schools, with fifty-six boys on the roll. The contributions amounted last year to Rs. 261.

MEDICAL WORK.—The Denny Hospital.—Dr. Dora Chatterjee reports:

There have been fifteen maternity cases, all of whom came of their own accord, while formerly one had to go to their homes and, after much persuasion and loss of valuable time, perhaps bring them to the hospital. Most of the respectable people now have no objection to coming and staying in the hospital when necessary, and sometimes the younger Purdah ladies would like to come just for a change of air and scene. Out of a total of 192 in-patients, up to October 1, there were 109 Hindus, 49 Mohammedans, and 34 Christians.

The dispensary is kept open four hours a day. In these four hours an average of 175 have been treated daily. The number of new cases was 11,310.

FEROZEPUR STATION.

The area of the Ferozepur District is 4,302 square miles, comprising five Tehsils, in which are eight towns and 1,503 villages, with a total population of 956,657. On the basis of religion this population stands thus: Mohammedans, 447,615; Hindus, 279,094; Sikhs, 228,358; Jains, 1,090; Indian Christians, 500.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Girls' School.—This school had to be closed for some months owing to the inability of the Mission to secure a suitable Christian teacher. It was not until March that the school was reopened.

Miss Clark tells why it is so difficult to get Christian teachers.

The Hindus and Sikhs have discovered how much more desirable Christian teachers are than those who have not had Christian training. Here in Ferozepur, the head mistress of both the Arya and Sikh schools are Christians. In the house of a well-to-do Hindu pleader, another young Christian woman has been acting as governess for two motherless children. If we could offer equally large salaries we might have less difficulty in obtaining teachers. However, I have taken care to inquire and find that longer hours of work are required in these non-Christian schools than are usually required from our city workers.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—In the Ferozepur Station district there are 1,295 villages. The duty of carrying the Gospel to this multitude must of necessity involve great labor. A missionary could not profitably visit more than one village a day. At that rate the missionary would have to spend four years to pay a single visit to each one of these villages. But that would mean that he should travel every week-day in the year, which no European could do.

The work now undertaken centres around four towns, which are central in the Tehsils to which they belong. There are in the district twenty-one villages and towns in which there are Christian families. The village Christian population is 136, including the workers and their families.

The following is an extract from Dr. Newton's report:

There is a settlement of Chumars at Jalalabad, a town of some importance about twenty miles from Fazilka. The two communities claim each other as Biradari. There is kinship between the families. They of Jalalabad are well off. They make leather and much money. Now when certain baptisms had taken place at Fazilka the fact was soon noised abroad. The men of Jalalabad heard that certain of their Biradari had become Kiranis (a contemptuous term for Christians). The former were summoned to Jalalabad; a large gathering was assembled, a Panchayat (a sort of committee) was appointed to examine these Kiranis, and if they should not abjure their errors, to pronounce sentence upon them. Now when I was informed of this, though it was no more than was to be expected, I was much disturbed in my mind. It was necessary that some of us should be present to stand by these young Christians, now to be put on their trial. I had an engagement on that day, which made it impossible to be present. Three others, however, went and witnessed the proceedings. I was surprised when I learned afterwards that the expected opposition and the condemnation of the apostates to Christianity did not take place. Instead the assembly gave our men leave to speak, and paid quiet attention. The whole controversy ended in peace.

Miss Clark gives the following interesting incidents in her experience as a zenana visitor:

Of the thirteen houses in which I have taught for a longer or shorter period, all but three are Mohammedan. In one house there are three women who listen to the reading and teaching of the Bible with marked interest. Only one of them reads. The others hardly wait for the lesson to end before saying, "Now read to us from your book." The account of the sufferings and death of our Lord greatly moved them, and the old mother would say again and again with tears in her eyes, "This indeed is something worth listening to. This is the truth." She has spent many years teaching the Koran.

MEDICAL WORK.—City Dispensary.—Dr. Newton reports:

The number of new patients was 6,963; visits 10,676, many of the patients coming repeatedly for renewal of their prescriptions; surgical cases 435. Most of these were what would be called minor operations. The number of indoor patients was forty-one.

Last Summer I had a patient who had come from some distance. I brought him to my house, where, as the weather was warm, he preferred to lie on a charpoy on the veranda rather than inside. Some friends of his in the city used to bring him his food. This man was the mullah of a mosque, one with whom I had had several years' acquaintance. I was glad to have this opportunity of entertaining him at my own house, for it involved but little trouble and gave opportunity for intercourse and conversation. He read the Bible and other books which I gave him.

In a week he was well enough to return home. It was only a few days after he had left when there came another patient to the dispensary, who also had come from a distance and would fain stay for treatment. This man was not like my friend the mullah, but poor, illiterate and friendless. He had fever and an enlarged spleen—this latter a very common condition indeed. What could I do with him there but take him also to my house? I was the more encouraged to do this as the previous case had made a satisfactory recovery in so short a time. But this proved to be a very serious case. He gradually grew worse instead of better. I was nurse as well as doctor. Daily suitable food had to be thought of and provided, as well as medicine. For two hot months, June and July, I tended him, sleeping beside him at night out in the open air in front of the house. We read to him and prayed with him.

In June I had occasion to visit Fazilka, which is one of our sub-stations, and took my patient with me. I could not leave him behind. There, one day, in the presence of a number of men, who had come to spend a part of the day with us, some of whom were Christians, but the majority Hindus, he was baptized. We returned to Ferozepur, where by degrees, in spite of all we could do, my poor patient succumbed about the end of July. I had become much attached to him. It was unfeigned sorrow I felt when he died. It is strange how the very act of tending and serving a man draws out our sympathy and affection toward him.

The Woman's Hospital has been in charge of Dr. Maud Allen and, after she went on furlough, Dr. Marston.

The number of in-patients for the year was.....	233
The number of out-patients (new).....	6,291
The total number of visits for the year was.....	8,335

We have had encouragement from some of our in-patients. They listen very attentively to the Gospel taught or sung to them. A very attractive and lovable woman has been an in-patient several times during the year. She is from another city, and had been taught by the missionaries there. She has a heavy burden to bear—widowhood, poverty, an imbecile son (her only child), and her own poor health. She takes part in the daily work, as regularly as though she were a paid worker. She is a very sensible, intelligent woman. She is so interested in all that we do, that I can hardly realize she is not a Christian. She seems to be one in all but in name.

KASUR STATION.

Dr. C. W. Forman, on his return from furlough, took charge of the Kasur District.

Fifty-nine persons were baptized in Waltoha itself and forty-nine in Ghariyala, a village five miles distant, where the Christians now number about 100.

These baptisms took place under the following circumstances. We arranged to have a business meeting of all the workers of the district at Waltoha, in order that we might settle on suitable places for opening village schools, and also discuss other questions connected with the work. Our preachers came in from Puttee, Khem Karan, Ourara, Luliani, etc., and each was accompanied by some delegates from the Christian communities in these places. What began as a business meeting soon developed into a revival meeting. One of our preachers, Jiwan Khan of Khem Karan, who had recently returned from the conference at Sialkot, was the chief instrument used by the Spirit of God for this purpose. We were fortunate in having some good musicians in the party, and singing interspersed with remarks was kept up till one and two in the morning. Our only regret was that none of the ladies who had been so faithful in sowing the seed were present at the time of ingathering.

A Hindu Sadhu, who appeared on the scene unexpectedly, continued to attend our meetings, and finally after a few weeks' instruction was baptized in our church here last Sunday. He is a very intelligent young man, and bids fair to make a useful member of our community.

Other baptisms at Luliani, Khem Karan, Kalanjar, etc., makes the total for the year about 350.

KHANNA STATION.

The Training School for Village Boys at Khanna is under the care of Rev. E. P. Newton and Mrs. Newton. Mr. Newton reports as follows:

In the Boarding School there are twenty boys, of whom ten come from Jullundur and one from Ambala. The remainder belong to our own district. Some of these are now able to read well both Punjabi and Urdu. Indeed five may be said to have graduated and taken their degree in Punjabi, and have now, in addition to the Persian character, of which also they have a good knowledge, begun reading Roman Urdu. The test of proficiency is to require a boy to read his book upside down. If he is able to do this with sufficient fluency he is held to be ripe for graduation in that subject and is allowed to take up the next.

During the year a fair amount of cotton and woollen cloth has been woven, but we are very much hampered by the want of a suitable workshop. The three looms are now placed in two small cottages.

The Christian community in this district numbers 153, of whom forty-one are communicants. Nine adults and four children were baptized during the year. With many families we can keep in touch only by visiting them in their homes, as they are too scattered to be gathered into any one place for regular religious services.

LANDOUR STATION.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Woodstock College.—Within sight of the Dehra Girls' School and about fifteen miles distant, but some 4,000 feet higher up on the mountain side, is the Woodstock College and High School for European girls. It is located at Landour.

This institution was begun in 1854 as a ladies' seminary, under the auspices of the London Society for the Promotion of Female Education in the East, especially for Protestant girls.

The average number of students in attendance in 1908 was 147. The highest number attending at any one time was 156. The highest number of boarding students was 115.

The spiritual condition of the school has, on the whole, been satisfactory.

PHILLOUR AND RUPAR DISTRICTS.

Some years previous to the conquest of the Punjab by the English, the missionaries ventured to send their senior catechist, the late Rev. Golak Nath, to preach in Phillour. Two hours after his arrival he was seized by the Sikh soldiery, quartered in the fort, and thrown on his back on the ground. A millstone was placed on his chest to hold him down, until it should be decided what should be done with him. He was sent back to the east bank of the Sutlej River, and warned never to return. It is an interesting fact that the son of this man, the Rev. Henry Golak Nath, and his wife^s are the missionaries at Phillour, living within a short distance of the spot where his father narrowly escaped martyrdom. There are 750 villages in this field.

There are 386 villages in the Rupar field. In 125 of these there are Christians resident. The district has been divided into fifteen circles or divisions in which workers are located, and who visit the villages within their respective circles.

PRESBYTERIAL HOME MISSIONS.

The Lodiana and Lahore Presbyteries have maintained their Presbyterial missionary work, the former under Mr. Circar, and the latter under Mr. Talib-ud-din. The two home mission fields are located in the Ambala and Lahore Districts.

A CHRISTMAS GATHERING—HINDUS, MOHAMMEDANS, CHRISTIANS AND JAINS.

NORTH INDIA MISSION.

ALLAHABAD: capital of Northwest Provinces; at the junction of the Ganges and the Jumna, 506 miles northwest of Calcutta; Station begun 1836. Missionaries—Rev. J. J. Lucas, D.D., and Mrs. Lucas, Rev. Arthur H. Ewing, Ph.D., and Mrs. Ewing, Mr. Sam Higginbottom and Mrs. Higginbottom, Miss J. W. Tracy, Miss Mary P. Forman, Miss Mary Emma Robinson and Miss Nellie Binford, M.D., Rev. John F. Calcb. Teachers in Allahabad College—Mr. Preston H. Edwards, Mr. H. T. Avey and Mr. Carl Thompson, Jr.

ETAWAH: on the Jumna, 150 miles northwest of Allahabad; Station begun 1863. Missionaries—Rev. A. B. Allison and Mrs. Allison, Miss Emily N. Forman and Miss R. M. Cuthbertson, Rev. E. A. Enders and Mrs. Enders, Rev. Parm Sukh.

FATEHGARH-FURRUKHABAD: the former the civil station and the latter the native city. 160 miles northwest of Allahabad; Station begun 1844. Missionaries—Rev. C. H. Bandy and Mrs. Bandy, Rev. Ray C. Smith and Mrs. Smith, Miss Mary Fullerton, Miss M. J. Morrow, Miss Annie Young, M.D., Rev. Mohan Lal.

FATEHPUR: 70 miles northwest of Allahabad; Station begun 1853. Rev. Chas. H. Mattison and Mrs. Mattison.

JHANSI: 200 miles west of Allahabad; population, 52,000; Station begun 1886. Missionaries—Rev. James F. Holcomb and Mrs. Holcomb, Rev. Henry Forman and Mrs. Forman, and two lady assistants, Rev. Nahibakhsh, Rev. Dharm Singh.

MAINPURIE: on Jumna River, northwest of Allahabad; Station begun 1843. Missionaries—Rev. W. T. Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, Rev. John N. Forman and Mrs. Forman, and Rev. Edwin H. Kellogg and Mrs. Kellogg, Rev. Gulam Masih.

MORAR: capital of the native State of Gwalior, about 215 miles northwest of Allahabad; Station begun 1874. Rev. Sukh Pal.

ETAH: capital of Etah Province, about 240 miles northwest of Allahabad; Station begun 1900. Missionaries—Rev. A. G. McGaw and Mrs. McGaw, Rev. J. H. Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence.

LANDOUR: in district of Dehra Dun, some 400 miles northwest of Allahabad. Rev. J. S. Woodside and Mrs. Woodside.

CAWNPORE: about 120 miles northwest of Allahabad. Rev. S. M. Gillam and Mrs. Gillam.

RESIGNATIONS: Rev. A. B. Allison and Mrs. Allison, Miss R. M. Cuthbertson, Rev. Edwin H. Kellogg and Mrs. Kellogg, Rev. J. S. Woodside and Mrs. Woodside.

DEATH: Mrs. J. S. Woodside.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. A. H. Ewing, Ph.D., and Mrs. Ewing, Miss Jane Tracy, Mr. Preston H. Edwards, Miss Margaret

J. Morrow, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Woodside, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Enders, Rev. and Mrs. C. A. R. Janvier.

The Mission received no reinforcements during the year and lost Mr. and Mrs. Woodside, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg and Miss Cuthbertson. Mr. Woodside was the oldest member of the Mission—indeed, the oldest missionary of the Board in India, having been appointed in 1848. He and Mrs. Woodside returned to the United States, expecting to spend their last years in the home land. Mrs. Woodside died in Wooster, Ohio, February, 1909. Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg were obliged to return by the failure in health of Mr. Kellogg's mother and brother. Miss Cuthbertson also had to leave on account of long continued illness.

The work of the Mission has advanced steadily in spite of the smaller force.

ALLAHABAD STATION.

CHURCHES.—There were added to the Katra and Jumna Churches during the year twenty-four members. The Jumna Church has at last called a pastor, supported with the aid of the Presbytery. In the Sunday-schools of the two churches there are 635 pupils.

EVANGELISTIC.—Leaving out the city of Allahabad, with its 178,000 people, and the Home Mission field of the Presbytery which is in the Allahabad District, we as a Station and Mission are responsible for giving the Gospel to the people living in the Tehsils of Meja, Bara and Karchhana—the three Tehsils containing a population of 349,844.

There are two centres for reaching the villages, one at Sirsa, thirty miles south of Allahabad, where seventeen converts from Hinduism have been gathered during the past year and the second at Shivrangapur. There are 350,000 people in the district south of the Jumna to be evangelized by the Station.

Our centre of evangelistic work in Allahabad is the City Church, where five evenings of the week the doors are thrown open from 4 or 5 o'clock until 8, and during this time the Gospel is preached and conversations held with those who come in.

EDUCATIONAL.—Allahabad Christian College.—The college has grown steadily in influence and equipment. A gentleman from Knoxville, Tenn., gave $3,000 for the building of a hostel for non-Christian students, and the Bethany Church of Philadelphia, of which Mr. Wanamaker is a member, is providing $20,000 gold for the main college building, to be known as Bethany Jubilee Memorial Hall. The engineering department has met with more acceptance. An additional teacher has been added to it, and Mr. Avey writes:

The attitude in general of the public toward the engineering department is gradually but surely changing. Students are coming to the opinion, and are beginning to act upon it, that true Swadesi can best be promoted by making themselves able to develop the internal resources of the country. Students with this idea in mind are coming to us. When we say this we do not mean to say men who enter the engineering department are secessionists—far from it, but we do mean that men are joining us who look ahead to doing something toward the industrial development of India and making for themselves a living by other methods than by the traditional methods of their caste or ancestry. The present year finds us with five regular students against one in the first two years.

Mr. Edwards was at home during the year, but Mr. S. H. Werden, B.A., of Toronto, Canada, joined the staff. The attendance in the college department has been 165 and might have been 200 if there had been hostel accommodation. Of the work in the hostels Mr. Thompson writes:

Of the eighty students in the hostels, ten are Christians, twenty-three Mohammedans, and the remaining forty-seven Hindus. There are more of the latter Kayasthas than of any other caste. . . .

The students of all different castes and creeds live together and enjoy each other's companionship. A few cases of innocent "hazing" have been discovered. The Mohammedans have formed a Muslim Association, at the last social of which Christians and Hindus were also present and partook of the refreshments. The walls of caste were seen crumbling, and out of the ruins a new college spirit was born in the visions of many present.

Jumna Boys' High School.—

In attendance the school has again surpassed the previous record. The number enrolled in September was 541. As the number of pupils allowed in each class may not exceed thirty-three, seven out of twelve classes are divided into two sections. . . .

The growth of this school illustrates very clearly that it is almost impossible to plan too largely in educational matters in India at the present time. Four years ago, it seemed to be a rather enterprising thing to do to plan for 400 students. We are overflowed. . . . The Scriptures are regularly taught to every class in the school. . . . No one single agency used by missionaries is doing more to create the new India in which Christ shall be a dominant factor than our missionary educational system of which the high school is an important part.

Fifty of the boys are resident in the Christian Boys' Boarding House, of which Mr. Higginbottom, who is in charge, reports:

Progress has been made in self-help. No boy supported by a missionary or getting any scholarship can remain without doing some work. One boy cares for the lamps and so earns his way. From time to time, boys have worked in the kitchen, carried in eighteen tons of coal and 1,000 mounds of wheat. A garden is under regular cultivation, all work being done by the boys. Wood has been chopped and many other services demanded of the boys, all of which it is hoped will help to deepen in them a sense of responsibility and independence.

Mary Wanamaker Girls' High School.—

This school has had on its roll this year 120 Christian girls. They come from Christian homes scattered over the provinces and even from the central provinces, Bombay and Bengal. The fees from the parents increase from year to year, showing that the parents are willing to deny themselves to give their daughters an education, and in not a few cases it means a great deal of self-denial even in the way of food to be able to pay the fees for their daughters.

Katra Mission Boys' School.—

The Katra Mission School had on its roll the last year 103 pupils—Hindus, 39; Mohammedans, 57, and Christians, 7, besides 10 boys in the vernacular branch. The Bible and Catechism were taught to every class by three Christian teachers, while the missionary in charge opens the school with an exposition of a portion of Scripture and prayer, the service lasting nearly half an hour. The pupils ranging in ages from eight to twenty could be reached with the Gospel message in no other way, certainly in no such promising way as in the school.

MEDICAL.—In the Sara Seward Hospital and Dispensary, during the year ending October 7, 1908, there have been 8,154 new patients and 24,145 treatments. The hospital has twenty-two beds for in-patients, of whom there have been 206 during the year. These are the statistics for the year, but how little they tell of the relief of the 8,000 and more women and children who have visited the hospital, and how little they tell of the confidence won and the message spoken to them while waiting for treatment or while inmates of the hospital.

MISCELLANEOUS.—The Makhzan-i-Masihi, published on the 1st and 15th of every month, is for the upbuilding of the Indian Church. It goes to many Christians living in villages who know little of the work of the Church in other parts of India and in other lands. Through its pages they are kept in touch with the work of the missionary societies in India and throughout the world.

Mr. Avey has looked after the Blind Asylum, whose inmates have increased to sixty-one.

Of the Lepet Asylum Mr. Higginbottom writes:

The spirit of the Leper Asylum gives much cause for encouragement. When it was known that famine and consequent high prices were inevitable, the lepers themselves willingly gave up one chattick per day of ata.

The leper who for the first time in his life heard of One who loves the leper proved himself a happy and useful member. After getting a Hindu Bible, he read it and used to get a crowd around him as he would read aloud for an hour or two daily, and when he died he died believing that he would soon awake in His likeness.

In July cholera broke out, and out of forty two cases eleven died. Measures were taken and huts built outside so that the disease was stayed. The highest number on the roll has been 210, and the average for the year about 175.

ETAWAH STATION.

Mr. Enders has developed the district work of the Station most energetically, but broke down completely in health at the end of the year with three attacks of typhoid fever and has been ordered home.

FATEHGARH STATION.

The work of the Station has been carried on this year by five missionaries, two wives of missionaries and Dr. Fullerton, six Eurasian or European helpers, four ordained Indian ministers, four preachers and their wives, twenty-three preacher teachers and twenty-one wives, twenty-two teachers (men), thirteen teachers (women) and five other helpers.

Famine during the first part and an unusual amount of sickness during the latter part of the year have greatly added to the strain on all. More than that, the work in almost every department is growing perceptibly heavier each year. This growth has so added to some of our cares as to make it almost unwelcome, since aside from the fact that there has been no adequate provision for expansion in work, there has been constantly with some of us the distracting nightmare of not being able to figure out even in our finances.

The work of the Station is roughly catalogued as follows: English preaching and work among railway people. The care of a district in which there are 5,536 Christians, 939 communicants, in twenty-three organized churches and six other places which are not organized as yet; about fifty places of regular services, fifty-three Sunday-schools, forty Christian Endeavor Societies, besides the Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor Societies and Women's Societies in the central Station; forty-four district day-schools, the Training School, the High School for Boys, the Boarding School for Boys, the Girls' School and Orphanage, the Central City School for Girls, the Industrial Training School, the Christian Industrial Association, two dispensaries—more accurately, three dispensaries—a considerable weight of editorial work, some literary work, and last, but not to be despised, Presbytery, Mission and out-side committees too numerous to mention and some of them rather heavy.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Hindustani churches of the central Station have not quite held their own. During the year

371 have united with the churches of the district. Of this district work among the low castes Mr. Bandy writes:

We report this year but 679 baptisms, the smallest number in years. This is due to the fact that we have not had the men nor the money to push into new territory. Our already occupied field has been much more intensively worked this year. In spite of famine, our village churches have given Rs. 46 more this year than last.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Training School has had a very unsatisfactory term.

The Christian Boys' Boarding School.—The total enrollment for the year has been 175. The actual attendance has ranged between 140 in July and 122 in September. The Summer vacation attendance was 108. The variation in attendance during the school term is accounted for first by cholera. Following this was the fever epidemic. Village boys principally left us during this time. A large number of boys came to us from other Stations. The finances of the school continue to be most distressing. Good rains have come and still prices of grain hover very near to famine figures. India is becoming commercially linked up with all the world and it is not at all likely that we will have cheap grain in India till Europe and America have cheap wheat again.

The City Mission High School.—The enrollment has reached the record figure this year of 442. Of this number 110 are Christians. The average attendance of the school, also record, has been 346. In accordance with the hint from Government more or less regular instruction has been given on the subject of temperance.

The Industrial School.—During the year fourteen have been working in the shoe-making department, ten in the carpentering, six in the tailoring, and four in the blacksmithing, a total of thirty-four boys. Three shoemakers have gone out to make their own way. One of our carpenters, the last we heard, was making 20 rupees a month. Two tailors have left us, but they have not steady work and do not wholly depend on their trade for a living, and one of the blacksmiths ran away. The rest of the boys are still with us and are on their way to becoming from fair to good workmen. Shoemaking is our best trade; there the boys have made their best progress and with least cost to the management.

The Christian Industrial Association is again solvent. There was a time when its shares were below par, but during the year nearly one-half its stock exchanged hands at 100 per cent.

Rakha Girls' School and Orphanage.—Until July the whole school was drilled daily in breathing exercises. This with the improvement of sanitary conditions and an increase in the amount of food accounts for such improvement in health as has been seen. The girls were given a football which they kicked around with considerable vigor till it was kicked to pieces and a new one cost more money than the school finances would justify, so there was an end to that wholesome sport, about the only sport the girls have really taken to.

The City Girls' School.—Measles followed by smallpox, smallpox by cholera, and cholera by fever and malaria, and the last the worst and still raging. The general average daily attendance from December to July was seventy-four; from August to date it was fifty-six, and this with a total enrollment of 133.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Anna Fullerton has continued to give her invaluable assistance. The Medical Dispensary for Women and the branch dispensary for Christian boys and men cannot complain as do the schools this year of poor attendance nor of unfavorable conditions for full column statistics. The total number of visits to the two dispensaries has been 11,594; 3,514 have been in the men's and boys' branch. There have been 204 operations. Opportunities have been afforded for teaching that "salvation and sanitation are twins." When it is remembered that one out of every four children in this province dies before attaining one year of age, the need for talking to mothers on the care of children is easily recognized. Fever mixtures and quinine are made up daily by the quarts and the dispensary fever powder has come to be regarded as a cure-all.

JHANSI STATION.

Dr. Forman reports:

Our district work, which is chiefly among the weavers of Mau and Ranipur, has been largely moulded during the past year by the exigencies of famine relief. The weaver is doubly hit by famine. The price of food rises, and the price of the cloth he weaves falls. During the scarcity three years ago I had helped some of the weavers by providing them with yarn at a rate slightly lower than the market rate. A year ago, when faced by the famine, I proposed this plan to the Government, and asked for funds that I might help a larger number. The plan was approved by the Famine Commissioner, and the collector gave me charge of relief work for weavers in Mau, Ranipur and the surrounding villages.

I would visit a village, make inquiries on the spot concerning needy weavers, and give to those who were in need an order on our catechist in Mau or Ranipur. He would enter their names on our books, and give them an order on a local dealer for two bundles of yarn, for which the weaver would pay us, after he had made and sold his cloth, from fifteen-sixteenths to fourteen-sixteenths of the cost price. He would then get a second order on the dealer. The catechist every evening paid the receipts of the day into the hands of the dealer. Liability to mistakes was thus reduced to a minimum. Both Babu Sannu Lal and Babu Mul Chand Wilson worked most faithfully, the former especially giving himself in the most whole-hearted, self-sacrificing way to this work of relief. And the Summer's work passed off very satisfactorily. On closing operations on September 1, permission was given by the collector to give the last two bundles of yarn to each beneficiary, as a valedictory dole, for food prices were as high as ever, and it would be most difficult for the people to pay for their last bundles and also get a start on the old basis with the dealers. The gift was greatly appreciated by the people.

The advantage of this method consisted, of course, in the fact that men were kept at work at their own employment, in their own homes; and that instead of giving gratuitous aid, it only made it possible for them to earn their living in the normal way.

We gave out in all, to over 950 heads of families, a little over Rs. 51,200 worth of yarn, at a cost to Government of Rs. 9,600, including the cost of the valedictory doles. The total number of persons helped was 3,764; there being 1,116 men, 1,257 women, 1,391 children, living in seventeen towns and villages. The average cost to Government, aside from the valedictory doles, was a trifle under 6 annas (12 cents) a month for each person.

How much these poor low-caste people need friendship and help. Their ignorance, their poor and insufficient food, their insufficient clothing, their dirtiness, their needless sicknesses and sufferings, their petty deceits and suspicions, their constant strife among themselves, their harshness one to another, their frequent drunkenness, their gambling—all combine to make their lives pitiful. To bring healing into their diseased and suffering life, would indeed make one's own life not to have been in vain. Sometimes one is cast down with the seeming impossibility of it; at others, full of hope.

Whatever weakness of character and whatever social evils there are, the people have seen in Christianity a light that is lightening them. One night during last summer, we were having a meeting, and I asked if there were any who wished to be baptized. A serious-faced little boy of about eight years of age came forward. His father had been baptized some time before, and now the boy came forward of his own desire. A youth of sixteen or seventeen was there, and was urged to also take the step. After refusing and being still urged, he explained that if he became a Christian he could not return abusive language for abusive language, or give blow for blow, and he was not ready to undertake this. Thus repeatedly we have seen that the people recognize the higher moral demands of Christianity.

Our work in Mau has been carried on much the same lines as in Ranipur, only with a smaller staff. Mau is a city of about 20,000 inhabitants, and the weaver community is a very large one.

So far as we can judge, the famine relief work has opened to us many doors in and about Mau and Ranipur, if we had but the workers to enter in. It is distressing under such circumstances, to have difficulty in keeping up even our present staff.

Girls' School.—The average daily attendance in the school has been thirty, and the average number on the rolls forty-six.

In the sewing class they have learned to stitch, hem and overcast, and many of them to knit. There are two Bible classes held each day.

Zenana Work.—Miss Williamson reports:

During the past year I have visited and taught in thirty-seven homes and have fifty-four pupils. Together with the reading and writing that are taught, religious instruction is given in each home, some of the women and girls reading "The Life of Christ," others the New Testament, while some can receive only oral instruction.

May God's grace make us, in all we do and say, faithful witnesses of His love and power to save, and may many be born into the Kingdom, especially from among these poor, oppressed, helpless women, whose lives are so pitifully empty of all that is highest and best.

The church in Jhausi City is under the care of Rev. Prabhu Dutt. It has had a year of quiet steady work.

The church in Sipri Bazaar has had but a small attendance during the year, and for three months was closed. But regular services are now being held.

Babu Prabhu Charan has kept up his school for boys in Lal Kurti (Red Coat) Bazaar, one of the two regimental bazaars. There has been a good deal of opposition to meet, but it is of a kind that does not last many months, and already the school is regaining its members. One can hardly blame a teacher much for failing to keep hold of the boys who come to him in a regimental bazaar. It were almost as easy to hold wild asses' colts by moral suasion. But the school, with the daily Bible lesson during the week, and the Sunday-school on Sundays, is doing good among these boys.

MAINPURIE STATION.

Mr. Mitchell spent six weeks in special itinerating among the zemindars of the district, the object of which was to secure their interest in the high school and to get their help in building a hostel for the school. This was a new experience. It gave many opportunities for a personal word on religion. The cordial reception and financial help secured show that the people have a warm feeling of gratitude for what the Mission is doing in helping to educate their sons. The work among our baptized community of nearly 2,000 is encouraging in some places and discouraging in others. Some places where the most teaching has been done show the least signs of progress. These are the larger towns, where the major part of the community still engage in sweepers' work.

The Station centres of work have been Shikohabad, Jastrana, Bhongaon, Kuraoli, Bewar. There are thirty-nine Sunday-schools with an attendance of 786 in the district. During the year there were ninety-two baptisms in the Shikohabad and Jastrana fields; twenty-five in the Bewar field, and a total of 143 in the district.

The Mainpurie Church has had a prosperous year and is quite self-supporting. Twenty-nine have been added on confession of faith during the year.

The work of the Training School for Christian Teachers has gone on for eleven months of the year. We closed for the month of June, and most of the students went to their homes for all or a part of the vacation. During the year we have had an average attendance of forty men and thirty women in this school. Mr. Mitchell writes:

The school has been examined twice by the Presbyterian Committee, once in May and once in September. These examinations lasted seven days of eight hours each. Some students were examined in as many as twenty-four subjects, including twelve books of the Bible. There were very few failures. The most of these same people three to six years ago could not have told one letter from another. Understand, they have not been in school all this time, but have worked for various periods in their villages.

The unrest has not yet seriously affected our work. I believe now is an opportunity for Christian educational work such as has never before presented itself to this country. To meet it we must have more Christian teachers, from the village teacher who goes out from one of our training schools to graduates from our colleges and universities.

For half of the year there has been but one missionary family here. This has necessitated leaving the care of the nearly 2,000 baptized people wholly to the Indian helpers.

MORAR STATION.

It has not been possible to locate any missionary at Morar, the capital of the State of Gwalior. Dr. Forman has had charge of the Station and reports:

Almost nothing has been done by the Mission in Gwalior during the past year. The Rev. Sukh Pal is very old and feeble, and for much of the time has been unable to leave the house. We have no other worker there.

The Mission urgently asks help to enable it to occupy this unique field.

ETAH STATION

There are now thirteen churches in the Etah field, of which four have been organized this year by a Committee of Presbytery. The total membership is 469, of whom 249, or more than half, have been added by examination during the year.

There are twenty-six Sunday-schools reported in connection with these churches. There are ten Christian Endeavor Societies. Of the thirteen churches mentioned, only one, the Etah Church, has a pastor and is self-supporting.

The Evangelistic work has been much more extensive this year than before. A larger number have been under Christian instruction, a larger number have been baptized, a larger number have been brought into the communion of the churches than ever before. Over fifty new villages have been entered in our books and 1,161 have been baptized and thus brought into our Christian community. This fact does not, however, indicate that less attention than usual has been given to the older communities, but does indicate more time spent in the district by the missionaries than has been possible in previous years and that the efforts of an increasing force of Indian workers is bearing fruit to a gratifying degree.

The total community now connected with our Etah work, after a more careful record than has been made recently, is 4,652.

The low-caste work does not shut the doors of the higher castes. During the year among the converts are a Thakur, a Sonar, Dhobis and Mohammedans.

Of the Boys' Boarding School Mr. Lawrence writes:

Owing to the lack of money, it was necessary to allow the attendance to dwindle down, till at the close of last year there was an attendance of about thirty boarders, including the orphans.

The training classes were quite full last Winter and many were refused admission and of those received some were not able to prove themselves able to take the course and were recommended to follow other employment. Since the opening of the school in July the classes are the largest we have yet had. The enrollment reached forty-five, but the fever has reduced this to thirty-nine. Most of these are old students who have been engaged in the work for some time.

Mr. McGaw reports specially regarding the district work:

During the twelve months, 606 people renounced their idols and accepted Christ as their Saviour, the only one they knew about. In so far as they have been able to take in the new teaching, they have sincerely accepted it.

The poverty of these people is something not found in many countries. The carpenter caste is rather higher than these converts were and better off in a worldly way. From a Government text-book I have culled these facts about a carpenter of Etah district. The family consists of six persons, two of whom are girls to be married. (The cost of one wedding would be about $33.) The man has a debt of $24. His family expenses for the year are estimated at $35. His income for the year is estimated at $36, which leaves an unexpended balance of $1, and debt and daughters still on hand. A list of household articles and tools is given amounting to less than $5 for all. Our Christians are not better off. Laborers' wages just now are six cents a day, which is one cent more than usual. Some of our fellow-Christians work for the landlord of their village for $1 per month plus a few perquisites. It is from such wage-earners that we expect offerings and are not disappointed.

There is one thing that has often surprised us—it is the simple faith of these people in their God. They knew only the vain repetitions of the heathen before, but now they know that God hears and answers prayer. More is expected of some of these ignorant villagers than seems to be expected of elders of the church in some places. I mean in regard to praying in public.

I recently asked for evidences of the working of God's Spirit among the people and got among others the following answers: Knowledge of God, change of heart, preaching of Gospel to others, disgust for idolatry, singing of Bhajans under persecution, less cursing and swearing, effect of the observance of the Lord's Supper, less deception. Thus slowly and gradually a large community, "a nation," is being born and learning new ways. In this transformation, the pastor-teacher is the chief factor. Considering their past and the shortness of their present, and the lack of opportunity for securing what we regard as essential to the growth of our children's character, and the odds against them in this religious but immoral atmosphere, one can but marvel at what God has done through these young men and their wives from the training classes.

We rejoice in the "good hand of our God upon us," which has brought into our Etah Mission within nine years over 4,000 converts from the sweeper caste. During this time we have spent money, time and effort to develop those who were coming, intellectually and spiritually. Progress has been slow, but progress there has been. Education has been emphasized because of its vital connection with their spiritual uplift. Scarcely less important is their social standing. I am unable to see how it is possible to make of these submerged people a strong church until they have been raised above their present social and material condition.

At the tiptop of the Hindu skyscraper is the Brahman, while buried hundreds of feet below the surface of independence and respectability are the despised sweepers, the Bhungees. In the exalted brotherhood of Hinduism the Bhungee has not been permitted to think of himself as one of the brothers; indeed, his touch is more defiling by far than that of a dog. Some of them are village watchmen, employed by Government; some are employed by landlords to collect taxes and rents; a few are farmers; but honorable employment, education and a new religion do not avail to overcome the contempt heaped upon them because of their birth in that caste.

These sweeper Christians are unable to get away from this condition. Christianity is giving them ambition to get up and away from the past, but what avenues of escape offer themselves? A few of the young men are becoming teachers and still fewer will become pastors of country churches, employed as part of the Mission probably. A few will drift, or may be sent to Cawnpore to enter the mills, but what of the thousands that are growing up with no outlook but that of the old one of degradation?

We are taught by the past to expect great things and to attempt great things also. Ten years ago Etah was an out-station, occupied by two or three Indian workers, with a Christian community of about twenty. To-day it has 100 Indian workers, 4,652 Christians, 13 churches, 27 out-stations, 43 schools, and Indian contributions amounting to over $200. We expect and shall attempt yet greater things for the next decade.

CAWNPORE STATION.

The work of the Station has been much interrupted by Mr. Gillam's illness, but a better foothold has been gained in Cawnpore, where there are great multitudes of young men in the mills separated from their home restraints and free to listen and to act save for the abiding bonds of caste. Mr. Gillam writes:

Since returning I have done some work in villages, having made five or six trips in the mornings to villages nearby, and having gone but on two mornings in the city in company with a Christian preacher. We dealt with individuals or little groups of hearers. In some cases we met with an indifferent reception; in other cases we had an earnest and attentive hearing. On one occasion we had a group of potters who gave an eager hearing to what was said. Men here and there gave frank assent to the truth, but when pressed as to action gave caste and the brotherhood as a reason for not becoming Christians. One man in the city, a sweeper, agreed to the truth of what was said, but when told that mere assent was not enough, and when the illustration of a medical prescription was used and the point made that it was necessary to have it filled and to take it, he said that he couldn't become a Christian because of his brotherhood, and that it didn't matter what happened, he wouldn't take the prescription and with that he walked away. With many even though the question of caste is not raised, they raise it for themselves, and it forms probably the chief difficulty in the minds of those who in any wise contemplate becoming Christians.

FATEHPUR STATION.

A large part of Mr. Mattison's work during the year was in connection with the famine relief. He writes:

Out of the experiences of past famines there has been formed a definite policy of Famine Administration, which was brought into operation with great promptness and vigor. A strong and wise Government by its alertness and insistence made its determination felt clear down to the village watchman in the remotest hamlet. For the bare saving of life from actual starvation and epidemic diseases arising out of famine, Government has held its officers strictly responsible, and has poured out money as water for this purpose. As a result mortality statistics have been kept almost if not quite normal. The outstanding fact is that this Government has grappled with a great famine so successfully that there are no bone-strewn fields to photograph. Placards appeared on the trees even in the most remote villages and hamlets assuring the people that the Government would stand by them in every way and that they were not to give way to fear or abandon their homes, and that the Government would give loans of money for seed, for digging wells, for buckets, ropes and oxen for drawing the water and for various irrigation projects. Constant pressure was brought to bear upon every one to sow every field about whose yield there could be any hope at all based upon irrigation or upon the Winter rains. These vigorous and insistent measures secured the sowing of perhaps 57 per cent. of the available fields.

In addition to the above, the Government opened every available kind of work to enable laborers to earn at least enough to keep from actual starvation, and for those who could not labor provided a daily dole which was calculated to sustain life at least.

I was asked also to act as Honorary Superintendent of Weavers Relief. (I may say that all my official work has been as honorary officer.) We have 26,000 weavers in this district, of whom I am now aiding one-tenth directly. Government pays for the yarn and its transportation and gives me a clerk and a messenger. Yarn is advanced to the most needy on credit, at a reduced price. The weavers whom I have admitted to relief live in more than 200 villages scattered through 600 miles of territory.

Finding that in some of the most remote places large numbers of people were subsisting upon wild berries and leaves of shrubs, with very occasional supplement of worthless grain brought in by sharks and sold for five times the usual price, I purchased good grain in the Punjab and sent it in to them and sold it at about 30 per cent. loss. This form of relief has grown until we now have shops in all the most distressed spots.

Our grain shops will continue until the first coarse grains ripen, August 1 to 15, and weaver relief perhaps to September 1. The organizing of these grain shops, purchasing and transporting the grain, stocking and distributing the yarn, together with the inspecting work mentioned above have involved a lot of travel, and owing to the nature of the country have required an amusing variety of vehicles. In a single trip I pretty nearly compassed the catalogue—railway and bicycle, tom-toms, tongas, ekkas and bullock-carts in relays, elephants and a-foot, with an occasional spill for rice. Some of the experiences reminded me of what a civil surgeon said to me, "What a pity, Padri, that you cannot swear!" and they have fully convinced me that there is just one right vehicle for a missionary in the jungle, the airship.

A few have already been baptized and are leading happy Christian lives. There are large numbers of hopeful inquirers, and good ground for expecting a real movement in two if not three castes.

People of all classes are much more inclined to regard us as true friends of the people and not mere proselyters, and they listen to our message with greater respect and interest.

Our preachers and all Christians are more favorably received throughout the district, and the friendly relations with the Government have been made even more cordial.

WESTERN INDIA MISSION.

KOLHAPUR: 200 miles southeast of Bombay; 45,000 inhabitants; Station begun 1853; taken under care of the Board 1870. Missionaries—Rev. A. W. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall, Rev. E. W. Simpson and Mrs. Simpson, Miss Esther Patton, Rev. J. M. Irwin, Ph.D., and Mrs. Irwin, Miss A. A. Brown, Miss W. E. T. Heston, M.D., Rev. D. B. Updegraff.

RATNAGIRI: 82 miles northwest of Kolhapur, and 125 south of Bombay; Station begun 1873. Missionaries—Rev. A. L. Wiley and Mrs. Wiley, Miss Emily T. Minor, Miss Amanda M. Jefferson, Rev. H. A. Kernen and Mrs. Kernen.

KODOLI: 12 miles north of Kolhapur; Station begun 1877. Missionaries—The Rev. J. P. Graham and Mrs. Graham, Miss Isabelle Graham, Miss V. E. McArthur, M.D., Miss Sybil G. Brown, Dr. A. S. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Elizabeth O. Foster.

SANGLI: 30 miles east of Kolhapur; Station begun 1884. Missionaries—Rev. Edgar M. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Grace Enright, Mr. G. H. Alexander, Rev. Henry G. Howard, Miss B. G. Johnson.

MIRAJ: About 25 miles a little north of east of Kolhapur and 6 miles south of Sangli; Station begun 1892. Missionaries—William J. Wanless, M.D., and Mrs. Wanless, Rev. R. C. Richardson and Mrs. Richardson, Miss D. E. Patterson.

VENGURLE: About 70 miles southwest of Kolhapur; Station begun 1900. Missionaries—Rev. W. H. Hannum and Mrs. Hannum, Dr. R. N. Goheen and Mrs. Goheen.

ISLAMPUR: Village Settlement. Missionaries—Mrs. R. G. Wilder, Miss Grace Wilder, Miss M. C. Rebentisch, Miss Marie L. Gauthey, Miss Mabel I. Skilton.

RESIGNATIONS: Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Irwin, Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Kernen.

DEATH: Rev. J. M. Irwin.

TRANSFERS: From Sangli to Kodoli, Rev. Henry G. Howard, Miss B. G. Johnson.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Graham, Miss Isabella Graham, Miss V. E. McArthur, M.D., Miss D. E. Patterson, Miss W. E. T. Heston, M.D., Miss B. G. Johnson.

During the year there have been several changes in the Mission. Dr. and Mrs. Irwin left the Mission in June, 1908. Compelled by Mr. Irwin's ill health to relinquish the strenuous work of the High School, they accepted the invitation of the Maharaja of Kolhapur to act as guardians and tutors to his children. This gave them the responsible task of preparing for the throne Kolhapur's future ruler, second in importance to but few of India's princes. Dr. Irwin began this work with enthusiasm, but on November 28, 1908, he was called to his rest. He was a man of noble character, courageous temperament and a devoted servant of God. At his funeral there was a large concourse, not only of the lowly, but of the highest officials, and all joined in a common grief in the loss of one whom they called friend. The health of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall has not been sufficiently restored to warrant their return, although they hope soon to be able to start for India. Miss B. G. Johnson has also had to return home on account of her health, and Drs. Heston and McArthur have had to delay their return for the same reason. When these names are added to those on furlough it creates a situation that threatens the well-being of the work. It is a fortunate thing that Miss Clara Seiler, who spent her young life in India as the daughter of one of our former missionaries, has been appointed and will start for the field in the early Autumn. Action has also been taken by the Board looking to the closer affiliation of the Village Settlement and the Mission, with the thought that the work will eventually be carried on as a part of the regular work. As the matter is now in process of adjustment, no report of the Settlement appears herewith.

KOLHAPUR STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Kolhapur Church report shows no very startling facts, except, perhaps, a startling need for the prayer, "Revive us again." Shivramji, "faithful and beloved," has been at his post, and his sermons are earnest, strong and telling. Some of his illustrations are delightful, as for example one about the spirit of boastfulness and conceit. A little girl when told how God had blessed her all her life and how dependent upon Him she was, responded, "But just look what a big girl I am! Well, when the Lord made me I was just a little thing, and I grew all the rest myself."

Attendance at the regular Sunday afternoon services and midweek prayer meetings has been good.

Statistics for the year are as follows:

Baptized during the year—Adults	4
Children	7
Added by certificate	6
Received on confession and admitted to communion.....	12
Names dropped for various reasons.....	23
Names on absentee register	12
Total communicants September 30, 1908.....	228
Baptized children	86
Adherents	25
Total baptized Christian community	339

As to finances, there is not quite so much to boast of as there should be. The pastor's salary is in arrears by several rupees, a condition that the members, at any cost, should remedy. Tabulated, the finances show as follows:

Raised for pastor's salary	Rs. 320
Sunday collections	165
Sunday-school Christmas gift	14
Collection for Sunday-school papers	11
Monthly Home Mission collection	15
Sent to General Assembly's Fund	17

Wadgav Church has been without a pastor, but the teacher, Vithoba Bhople, has held Sunday-school and conducted preaching service there. He sends in an interesting report, telling how closely he is questioned as to the message he is giving the people, and what they ask. For example, "Is Christ the only Saviour, and why?" He adds, "I tell them to examine the evidences of Christianity with calm minds and impartiality, and get yourselves convinced that Christianity is the true religion."

Touring has been carried on in the Kolhapur District mainly by Mr. Simpson. At the beginning of the season he was accompanied by Mrs. Simpson for a time, and again by Mr. Graham, in December.

As illustrative of the kind of work done, this account of the methods pursued at Nipani is of interest:

Here, at the Nipani bazaar, and in every place where some event drew unusual crowds, advantage was taken of the opportunity to teach and preach, and to sell books to the Hindus. From Nipani camp sixteen towns and villages were visited, and a total of 741 persons received the message, some from the lantern lectures, some from the preaching, and to all and sundry books were sold to the number of 292. This is a fair example of how the work was carried on at Takari, Barvadi, Pattan, Kodoli, Janvad, Aksumba, etc., with stereopticon, literature and preaching. The idea is to preach the Gospel, in any way or manner, so that the hearts of the people are reached, let the channel be what it will—eye, ear or mind, and therein we rejoice—yea, and will rejoice!

The summary of the year's work, till the breaking of the rains, is as follows:

Camps made	14
Towns and hamlets visited	224
Day audiences—persons	6,194
Night audiences at thirty lectures	4,695
October to May—Scripture portions sold	2,055
Tract Society publications sold	1,826
June to September—Scripture portions sold	485
Tract Society publications sold	790
Total, 1907-1908	5,156
Total for same period, 1906-07	2,734

Sunday-schools.—In the main Kolhapur School the attendance was anywhere between 240 and 290. A large number of boys and girls appeared for the all-India examination, and it was counted a high honor when the big middle division silver medal was awarded to Vishram Shivramji, one of the Mission high school boys in Dr. Irwin's Sunday-school. Several of the scholars and teachers stood very high, and received certificates to that effect. The school subscribed for seventy-five weekly copies of Balshikshak. Again this year, one of the teachers, Meghsham, took the medal in the teachers' class.

A Sunday-school on the Mission compound is successfully carried on by Miss Patton with a membership of sixty-five. Mr. Simpson superintends a Sunday-school which has been opened in the Mahar Warda with a membership of forty and an attendance of thirty-one. Wadgav has twenty-five pupils in Sunday-school, of whom some sixteen are usually present. Savade has sixteen and twelve attend, and Herla fifteen and ten. It would appear that some 460 to 475 boys and girls in the district are being reached, and have at least heard echoes of the voice of God. The problem is to hold all these with an ever-strengthening grip.

With regard to the work of the Bible women, Punadai and Radhabai, Miss Patton writes:

Some homes have been closed against their visits and others opened. For two weeks they were in the neighborhoods of Kini and Wadgav, where they sought out the old pupils of our schools, many of whom had married and settled in that vicinity. Some had gone back into Hinduism, and these they tried to win back. All the old reasons were produced to excuse their conduct. It seemed that the Christian way was severe. Why, really, one could not steal comfortably, or even work on Sunday without reproof, to say nothing of making a profitable marriage for one's daughter! But in the last analysis, the true reason seemed to be that they could not endure the persecution and separation from their caste. Poor souls! Astonishing as has been their progress in some ways, in some others how small it seems! Yet we must remember that we are not called upon to suffer for the Name, and should not judge these poor deserters harshly. They are the lost sheep, the lost coin, the prodigal. Let us help search and find them.

EDUCATIONAL.—Mr. Simpson reports ten day-schools, Miss Brown two, and Miss Patton one.

The Shukrarav Boys' School, plague to the contrary notwithstanding, stood firm through the year, though reduced at one time to eleven. It is reported that of those who continued in the school, none was lost. We think we should have been allowed to guess that, but do not blame the one who told us. Vithoba Hazari and a Brahmin assistant have charge of the school. Vithoba and his boys are much in evidence in the Sunday-school. Total enrollment for the year of 309 weekdays, 166; average daily attendance, 36.6.

	Roll.	Days.	Boys.	Girls.	Average.
Mahar Vada School	33	71	20	13	24.4
Porale School	14	128	8.2
Mazgav School	19	132	9
Padal Reading School (taking the place of Panhala School)..	9	229	7.7
Heral School (now Mang only)	8	112	6.9
Wadgav Girls' School (and boys) (for caste children).....	27	145	17	10	8.6
Ambap Reading School.....	15	204	11.5
Kini Reading School (night)....	7	147	5.7
Savade Reading School	16	201	6.3

Putting these facts together we get these totals:

314 boys and girls are being taught in these 10 schools, which run an average of 167.8 days out of the year, and have 12.4 average attendance.

For Somvar School Miss Browne reports that it has taught a few non-readers to read; that the girls learn Scripture verses, and, she hopes, take them home.

The year, however, was not without anxiety. Miss Browne writes:

In May the exodus came. The little Princess of Kolhapur was married, so every other girl big enough to walk wanted to be married likewise. My best and biggest went. For two months and a half the school was closed on account of plague. The average attendance is only twenty-five, although eighty-nine names have been on the roll for shorter or longer periods.

Aiditvar School has kept open ten months of the year. Forty-nine names having been enrolled. Average attendance twelve.

Girls' Boarding School.—Miss Patton's report begins with the words:

There is nothing new or wonderful to write, unless it be a wonder that 227 girls, from almost as many different families, of different dispositions, and of different castes, and every one with a great deal left over of ancient barbarism—"just like me"—have been able to live and work together another year without biting and devouring one another.

The work in the three homes, with the exception of the washing, has been done by the work classes; all the older girls taking turns at cooking, washing dishes, grinding, carrying water, combing hair (there are no ladies' maids!), and cleaning the house and yards, while the little ones help wherever they can. Without calling this either an "Industrial School" or a "College of Domestic Science," Miss Patton sees to it that no girl leaves in ignorance of these important branches.

The girls have kept up their prayer and Missionary meetings and have promised to give, out of their fund, a rupee a month toward the support of the evangelist employed by Presbytery. They paid the expenses of a short evangelistic tour made during vacation by one of their teachers.

The Boys' High School is reported upon by Dr. and Mrs. Irwin. From the hostel the school returned to the city in November, the danger from plague being over. But in the meantime they had lost almost all the non-Christian students from town. Next, water troubles developed at the hostel. The Mohammedans, it seems, became caste people, and joined with Hindus in objecting to the use of the public well by low-caste Christians, "lest it be defiled and we could not use it."

For months a great effort was made in vain to secure a head master, but it was impossible to secure one for what the principal could offer. Beginning in October, tutoring work carried on for His Highness the Maharaja brought an income just sufficient to square the school's accounts. It has been most interesting work.

"In the middle of March," Dr. Irwin records, "we held our first graduation of the Theological School, and three good young men were licensed to preach, by Presbytery, which voted Rs. 25 for support of the school. The school-boys have done well in their Sunday-schools, Endeavor Society, Y. M. C. A., etc."

In the Alice Home for Widows there have been twenty-six women.

Two of them are now regularly employed as school teachers, and two as Ayahs. Three more, by turns, go with a Bible woman into town to visit. All take part in the home work and in the care of the twenty-five little ones in the nursery. Spending money is given to each woman every month—eight cents apiece—but this amount is subject to cut for quarreling. Out of this sum they give their regular Sunday contributions and their share toward the support of the pastor.

The widows, with their three children, were baptized in January. Of the twenty-two at present in the Home, only one is unbaptized. Ten passed the examinations in the Bible women's course.

The Nursery.—Whooping cough has been amongst us, leaving only ten out of the twenty-five babies not retired from duty on that account.

There is a chubby, round-faced one in the nursery, who is an untainted child of a leper woman at Mirja. It was a great wrench for the mother to give her up, but Shaou is happy here and has found another mother. We have Moses, Aaron and Jacob among our infants. Aaron seemed to be fading away, but two months in Kodoli Hospital almost made a man of him.

RATNAGIRI STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—The regular Church services, Sunday-school and midweek prayer meetings have been carried on throughout the year. Until he left the Mission, Mr. Kernan, together with the elders, conducted the services. Occasionally they were assisted by Mr. Sawarkar, the Government Educational Inspector.

Two of the widows have been baptized and received into full communion, and six children have been baptized.

The Young Women's Christian Association has held its meetings throughout the year. The women and girls have conducted the weekly meetings in turn.

Joshua Ramchandra Juigadi reports for the Young Men's Christian Association that there are thirty-five members. Of these six are honorary, seventeen are active, and twelve associate members. Some students from the Government High School are associate members.

The reading room is open daily, but there has been a decrease in the number of readers this year, because of the opening of two free reading rooms conducted on Swadeshi principles.

Bible Study.—Bible study classes for women have been held throughout the rainy season. Five women passed an examination on the third part of "What the Bible teaches about the Holy Spirit," and two "on the Acts of the Apostles."

Orphanage.—Mr. Kernén writes:

The health of the children has been unusually good this year, even during the rains. A few new children have been admitted. One little sober-faced lad, about four, was sent to us from Vengurle. He appears so much brighter that one can scarcely believe he is the same boy. At first he would speak to no one, except to the little ones of his own age. Then he took the Sahib into his intimate circle, and is now quite at home.

The two older girls, who have acted as assistant matrons, have done their work faithfully and well. Lately a woman of good education and ability has been secured as matron for the girls, and the two older girls have continued to do their work under her supervision.

Two of our Orphanage girls have been married. One of the bridegrooms had also been one of our boys, while the other had come in famine days, and although he had been away for a time, he subsequently returned to us. This was the first wedding to take place from among the children brought up in the Home. One of the Elders took the opportunity to point out the difference between the simple Christian wedding and the ordinary extravagant Hindu ceremony.

EDUCATIONAL.—Station School.—Concerning the Station School Mr. Kernén writes:

The results of another school year have been, on the whole, good, and improvement can be observed along various lines. The Inspector was specially pleased with the work of the drawing classes.

Two girls were sent to Sholapur last Fall for kindergarten training. Very encouraging reports of their progress have been received.

After the High School was closed in Kolhapur in June, the High School boys from Ratnagiri were sent to the American Mission High School in Bombay. This is one of the most excellent High Schools in this part of India. It is especially for Christian boys and girls. The masters are the best that can be had. A spirit of manly independence is characteristic of the boys. The whole burden of administration does not fall upon the missionary, but the masters and children assist. Our boys, who have been only in small classes heretofore, and have missed the enthusiasm which comes of larger numbers, cannot fail to be helped by the change.

Bazar School.—Miss Unsworth writes:

There are about thirty boys and girls coming to school at the present time. They are Hindus, Kojas and Goanese. Seventeen passed the examination held by the Inspector in August. God is blessing our school work, for several of the girls who are married and live in the village tell us that they read the Bible and pray in the name of Jesus in their homes. They often sing the hymns and tell others of Him.

The experiment has been tried of getting the mothers of the children to come to the school for an hour a week when the children were not there. Cloth was provided for them, and while learning to sew they were taught some of the hymns and told of Jesus. At our first meeting last Saturday twelve women came. Some were a little afraid at first, but gained courage after a time. Please pray that they may learn more than sewing.

There are eighteen widows in all, and they are employed in various ways. Four are engaged in the rice industry, six are engaged in sewing, and do drawn-thread work, one cares for a little baby in the Orphanage, two are working in Christian families, and others are employed about the compound, and one is a personal servant to Miss Unsworth.

Two of them have confessed Christ in baptism, and others are eagerly inquiring.

A Hymn of Praise.—One old woman has been very ill. The first day she felt that she was getting better she said, "Sing a praise hymn; Jesus has brought me here and saved me, and made me well again." One day she told Miss Jefferson that she would like the same to be done in her village that had been done in Ambe Shet; that is, a school opened, and in the future wants her grandson, Bhiwa, now a student in school, to go there and teach the school and teach the people how to be saved.

Lepet Hospital.—The Lepet Hospital has been visited regularly throughout the year. The women have been visited by Miss Minor or Miss Jefferson, accompanied by Koudubai, the Bible woman, while the two helpers have visited the men. There is great cause for praise to God, when one compares the condition of the leper women now with what it was a few years ago. The hard faces have softened and there is much more response from them. Koudubai says:

The Lord is surely working among them, and they gladly sit and listen to the story and like the pictures. Sometimes at Christmas they get sweets, and in the season have jack fruit and mangoes. One time they said, "Don't get any more sweets; but we have one special request, and that is we want sandals, because our feet are full of sores and the stones hurt them." Several of us prayed for the money and God out of the fulness of His grace sent it. The day the sandals were received was a great day at the hospital. The friends in America who made it possible to give the sandals would have been pleased to have seen the pleasure they gave and the added comfort to those who have so little to make them happy.

Touring.—Miss Minor, Miss Jefferson and three of the Bible women spent about five weeks in touring in the villages about Pali and Lauza. They visited all the villages about Pali that were accessible and a good number of those near Lauza. They found the people in various villages, who were formerly so much afraid, willing and attentive listeners.

"Patient Soul Winning."—At one place a gruff old man was not going to let us come in, but he finally did so, and we had a large company of women. Koudubai said that three years ago he flourished a stick and wouldn't let them come near. Last year he let them come and sing, but would allow no preaching. This year he let us do both, and she thinks that next year, if he is spared, he will sit and listen for himself, as God seems to be softening his heart.

The Sound of the Grinding.—Miss Jefferson writes:

The sound of grinding at a mill in a small cottage attracted my attention, and I ventured to call out to the unseen woman. The response was, "Yes, I am coming, but I cannot walk fast." Soon a partially paralyzed form, with a most pitiful face stood before me. Eagerly did she try to hear and understand the new and wondrous story. "What did you say was the name of the Saviour?" she questioned. Reverently the name "Lord Jesus" was uttered for the first time by those lips. Hopelessly she related her story thus: "I have been to Pandarpur (I was well in those days) and have seen Vithoba. I have called upon him. I have called upon Narayan, Rama and others, but all to no profit. I have sought death, but it would not come. I have tried to hang myself, but I did not die. I threw myself into a well, but I was not drowned." "The Lord Jesus has spared you that you might hear this story," replied Kondubai, the Bible woman. "Yes, it seems to me I have met God to-day, and if I were only able I should follow you and minister to you in the most menial ways. I did not know before that I should not worship idols, but I shall call only upon the name of the Lord Jesus after this." These and many more were the expressions of that heart so ready to believe and receive. Earnestly she poured out her heart in simple faith and prayer to the Lord to have mercy upon a poor sinner. After saying farewell and going to another house, I felt I must return and give an additional word of assurance. She met me at the back door, saying, "Yes, I have been praying while I was grinding. I have tried so many times to take my life, but the Lord Jesus has spared me that I might hear of Him. Tell Him my name is Paravatabia. Pray for a poor sinner."

A week later, before leaving our camping place, we again visited the town where this woman lived. To our great joy Paravatabia responded to our call and gladly listened as before. Turning to our Bible woman she said, "Tell me out of your Book when I shall find peace. I forgot to ask you when you were here before." Kondubai repeated the Saviour's promise, and assured her that through believing she would find peace. A group of men and boys gathered about the door. She will not dare confess her faith before them, my unbelieving heart suggested. But clear and true rang out her testimony that she no longer worshiped idols, and that she believed in Jesus Christ as her Saviour. "Say not, ye, there are yet four months and then cometh harvest. . . . Look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest."

OUT-STATION PALI.—The work of this out-station is in charge of two trusted helpers, Govindrao Malap as preacher, and Dagadaba as master of the school.

Govindrao's village is close to Pali and he frequently visits his old home and seeks to lead his people, the farmer caste, to a higher way. Years ago when he went back to his home for the first time after becoming a Christian, his father met him and gave him a thrashing for attempting to preach Christianity. Govindrao now says that the attitude of the people of the village is quite changed and they receive him in a friendly manner.

Dagadaba has been carrying on the school in an efficient manner. A lawyer, who came to the village in the hot season, preached against the school and succeeded in keeping the children away for a while. However, they are now all back again and at work. The Government Inspector speaks well of this school. Work has also been carried on at Ambe Shet and Patavane, with varying success, under the guidance of Miss Jefferson and Miss Minor.

OUT-STATION PATAVANE.—Miss Minor writes:

The work in the school at Patavane has gone on well throughout the year. The school was examined by the Government Educational Inspector last December. At that time, out of fifteen examined, twelve passed and were promoted into higher standards. The master and scholars were much encouraged by the results of this examination, and are now working hard to be prepared for the coming examination in November.

KODOLI STATION.

During the last part of the year the work has been divided as follows: Dr. Wilson has charge of the hospital and the dispensary and of the evangelistic work of the Station. Mrs. Wilson cares for the women's school and the women's prayer meeting, besides looking after the orphanage children in Christian homes. Miss Foster, besides her work as nurse in the hospital, visits in the villages and has a day-school and a Sabbath-school in her charge. Miss Brown has the industrial department of the boys' and girls' schools and attends to the clothing of the boys. Miss Johnson has charge of the Girls' School and Dormitory, conducts the children's C. E. Society, and has the care of an out-station school. Mr. Howard is Treasurer of the Brownie Orphanage and has charge of the boys' school.

EVANGELISTIC.—Dr. Wilson writes:

The spiritual condition of the indigenous Church is naturally the most important subject in a Mission or Station Report. Would that we could say that the churches in the Kodoli field were ready to assume their full evangelistic responsibility.

All of the services have been maintained regularly, of course, throughout the year, both in Kodoli and Ayatiwada. There has been a marked increase in interest in Bible study on the part of many, especially of the helpers, and as shown by the attendance on the women's Bible classes. Several of our young men have been led to take very seriously their responsibility for voluntary evangelistic work here and in the village communities around us. That this is a genuine interest is shown by the fact that since the 18th of May we have held, with their help, forty-four evangelistic services in the evenings in ten different towns, at which 134 addresses were made. These towns were from two to eight miles distant, but four to ten of these young men were present every time, walking, of course, both ways.

Sidramji reports:

In all, about fifteen or sixteen villages were reached by itineration. Besides that, in the dispensary, in the bazaar, at street corners and cross-roads, in the heathen public meeting house, in the tanners' quarter, in the potters' quarter, in the Mahar and Mang wards, and in other places, according to opportunity, Christ has been presented.

A Pointed Question.—In one village the chief officer of the district sought an interview with us. He said, "If your religion is true, then how is it that in England, America, Germany, and other places, there are strife, war, tumults and bloodshed? Your religion is holy is it not? Then how do such things arise? That Queen Bloody Mary beheaded many Protestants? Is that a holy religion?" Our reply was that she was not a true Christian; that not all the people in a country are true Christians; many are so only in name. Only those are real Christians whose disposition has been renewed by the Lord Jesus Christ, who have received a new mind from Him. Through His propitiation, His blood, everyone may become a real Christian. The officer answered, "Yes, that is true, for without blood there is no forgiveness of sin."

Village Work.—Miss Foster writes:

There is great pleasure in village work. We go out with the Bible women. The people ask us to sit down. Perhaps they have spread out a blanket for us to sit on, or it may be on the veranda of a house, or in the shade of the house in the street. A hymn is sung. During the singing the people gather around. Then, the same sweet Gospel message is told. Some have never heard; others have heard before—perhaps it was from some of our Christian workers, or in the hospital that they heard of Jesus. Sometimes we meet with opposition, but that does not discourage. Generally the people listen attentively. We meet many in these villages who have been to the hospital for attention; they are always glad to see us and they make us welcome. They seem to appreciate the kindness shown them.

Sabbath-school.—

The Sabbath-school has an average attendance of about 200. There are twelve classes. There is a men's Bible class of fifty or sixty men. Dr. Wilson conducts the weekly meeting of the teachers. He had been emphasizing the importance of teaching the Bible and not simply talking. A Sabbath or two after that, some of the men said to their Sabbath-school teacher, "Why do you continually quote the Bible and appeal to the Bible? Talk to us, preach to us, but don't give us the Bible." They were ready to listen to a long talk about nothing and pay no attention; but the truths of the Bible were beginning to call for obedience.

Mang Sabbath-school.—

The Sabbath-school in the Mang ward has been well attended during the year. Some of the mothers and fathers, as well as the children, attend. It is held on a veranda of a heathen home. The children have been taught hymns in the school, and they sing them sweetly. When they begin to sing the older people gather, though they cannot sing. They are taught the golden text, verses of Scripture and the catechism.

Besides the Christian Endeavor Societies under the care of Miss Johnson there is a woman's class, of which Mrs. Wilson writes:

A few more women have been enrolled this year than last. There has also been very real interest in Bible study, and growth in the spiritual lives of several women. Seventeen women took the Mission's Bible women's examination in September, fifteen passing.

There has also been considerable visiting in the homes by Miss Foster which has opened the way for much quiet evangelistic work, the fruits of which will only be revealed in time.

EDUCATIONAL.—Brownie Orphanage.—The number of children in care of the Brownie Orphanage has varied more or less during the year. At the close of September it was as follows:

Children in Christian homes under Mrs. Wilson's care.....	14
In girls' dormitory	38
In boys' dormitory	82
In Kolhapur Girls' School	58
In Sangli Trades School	31
In Pandita Ramabai's home	2
In American Mission High School, Bombay.....	1
	226
Boys	124
Girls	102
Total	226

Boys' School.—The average attendance for the year was eighty-three; for the last month (September) it was ninety-nine.

The boys' dormitory is the home for eighty-two of the school-boys. Many of these are orphans, many have parents. Sometimes the parents are unable to care for their children; often it is considered better for the boy's spiritual welfare to be in the dormitory than to be in his home. In many cases, too, the child would not be sent to school at all were he not receiving this help. The people do not yet appreciate the value of an education enough to sacrifice themselves much in order to give their children a schooling.

Girls' School.—Of this school Miss Foster writes:

When Miss Graham went on furlough in March, I took over the Christian Girls' School and the boarding department of the Brownie Orphanage in connection with the school, and though a new work, I enjoyed it. During vacation a number of the orphan girls had to be looked after in the dormitory. It kept me busy trying to find amusement for them, so as to keep them happy.

There are fifty-five pupils in the school. Thirty-eight of these live in the dormitory and seventeen come in as day pupils. They all seem to enjoy their studies, and are doing nicely in their school work.

In the Second Standard we have	9 pupils
In the First Standard, A Division, we have.....	15 "
In the First Standard, B Division, we have.....	7 "
In the Binetta, or Primary Division, we have.....	24 "

Industrial Department.—

From the beginning of the year the interest and progress in industrial work was as good as could be expected for the short time devoted to it. Since June 1, when double the time was allowed for every boy, the interest and efficiency increased accordingly. Another factor which is helping toward good work is that the boys receive marks for work done in Sloyd School, as well as for progress in book knowledge. Consequently, some boys who were slow in some of their studies, but good in their manual work, took a better standing. One class of the older boys have been encouraged to fill orders for small useful articles, for which they receive pay. Such work, however, must be done out of regular school hours, and does not entitle them to any extra marks. We are making our first crude attempts at chip carving, and when some boys become expert in this line, they will be able to make fancy articles for those who need them.

There are thirty-two classes a week under the care of two assistants.

High School Boys.—Besides the educational work carried on in Kodoli, the Station has sent seven boys to the American Mission High School in Bombay. It is hoped that these young men will come back prepared to take up work as teachers or other Mission helpers, and that the villages around may become a good field for their work.

MEDICAL.—Hospital and Dispensary.—There is nothing unusual to report in work of hospital and dispensary. The attendance has been fair and to all in-patients the Gospel has been faithfully presented. The exceedingly heavy rains of July and August so isolated Kodoli that the attendance of patients fell to a lower point than ever since the work was established. Dr. Wilson says:

There have been many happy features of the work. The gratitude of patients restored in health and able to take up again their place at home is sometimes very touching. Some days ago a mother brought her only child for operation. One of the leg bones, black and stinking, was protruding through the flesh. They had waited one year for nature to effect a cure. The little one is all right now and they go home to-morrow.

The following statistics are from the last Annual Report, as submitted to the Government of Bombay:

Dispensary, new patients	6,655
Dispensary, returning patients	3,374
Total	<hr/>	10,029
Visits to patients in their homes in Kodoli.....	229
Visits to patients in outside towns.....	13
	<hr/>	242
Hospital in-patients		213
Total surgical operations in 1907.....		10,484 478

In the ten years of work, since the dispensary was opened in 1898, the attendance has been 82,330, and there have been 2,154 operations.

SANGLI STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—The pastor reports additions to the church during the year as follows: On profession of faith, 27; by certificate, 3. During the year the church roll has been revised and the names of all non-residents dropped, with the result that in spite of the new members received, the total number on the church roll is less than last year.

An Interesting Case.—In our last year's report we referred to the case of a member of the Church, a schoolmaster, who had been beaten by a village officer and then accused of resisting the police. Unfortunately the case went against him, and he had to suffer four months' imprisonment and a fine. His brother at the same time being sentenced to two months' imprisonment and a fine. The members of the church showed their confidence in his innocence by electing him an elder while the trial was in progress. As soon as he was released he took up his work again with renewed energy, and it is not too much to say that the growth of the church this year has been due more to his efforts than to those of any one person.

House-to-house visitation has been carried on all the year among both Christian and Hindu women. The Christian women now number twenty-six, and there has been an effort to visit them in their homes each month. The new women in the Mangwada recently received into the church have, however, been visited almost daily, and every effort has been made, by the reading of the Word and prayer in these visits, to lead them on into a progressive Christian life.

Encouraging Incidents.—On one occasion, when visiting one of the younger women who had not seemed to understand as much as the others, in explaining the benefits of faith in Christ, the missionary was surprised and cheered when her listener suddenly leaned forward, and with clasped hands and shining face said, "I do believe in Jesus, I do believe." Often, if prayer or reading is omitted from the visit, it is asked for before the missionary leaves.

In connection with this work, one other little incident seems worth mentioning. Waiting one day at the railway station for the train, the missionary was accosted by a lad in the dress of a station peon, who asked for a book to read, which led to the following conversation:

"What sort of a book do you want? I can only give you a book about God."

"That will do very well."

"Have you heard about Christ?"

"Yes."

"Who is He?"

"He is the Son of God."

Surprised at the ready promptness of this last reply, the missionary asked:

"Who told you that?"

"You did."

As well as the missionary could ascertain, months before he had, in some outdoor audience, heard this truth and had never forgotten it.

EDUCATIONAL.—Industrial School.—The work of the industrial school has gone on without interruption. The general health of the school has been good. The routine of the day is described as follows:

A typical boy gets off the floor where he has been sleeping at 6 A. M., or as much later as he dares. At 6.30 he sits down to breakfast. At 7.15 the chapel bell rings and he hastens to chapel, for the monitors "will get you, if you don't watch out." At 7.30 work begins, half the school at their books and half in the workshop. At 11.30 books and tools are dropped and an hour and a half are given to lunch and rest. School opens again at 1 and the workshop at 2, the boys who worked in the morning studying in the afternoon and vice versa. At 5 the boy is free for play until 6.45, when dinner is ready. At 7.30 comes study hour—7.30 to 8.30 for the smaller boys, and 7.30 to 9.00 for the larger ones—and then to bed. Saturday morning is taken up with reviews; Saturday afternoon with washing of clothes and play, and on Saturday night each class in turn gives an exhibition, in which recitations, essays, dialogues and songs make a much enjoyed hour. Sunday, with its Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor meetings and church services, interspersed with time for rest and reading, and sometimes an hour of singing, completes the cycle of the week.

In addition to his school work, each boy has from two to four hours' work in some trade. A few of the boys give their whole time to work. Classifying the trades in the order of their success in fitting boys to earn their own living, the stone cutting class and the sewing class will compete for the first place. Carpentering comes next, and blacksmithing and metal hammering bring up the rear. In addition, we have made a successful beginning in the training of washermen. The boys of the sewing class made, during the last three months, two suits of clothing for each scholar in the school. They are now making garments for Europeans and are taking much pride in doing so. The shop has not turned out so much work as last year, for the reason that it has turned out workmen. Last year we had a number of boys who had completed their lessons and were perfecting themselves by doing miscellaneous work. This year nearly all of our boys have been engaged with their lessons. In addition, opportunities for the carpenters to work in Sangli town have come this year as never before, and we have been glad to send out the best trained boys to get a little practical experience along with other carpenters, while they continue to live in the school.

At the close of the year the number of boys in the school was 84, as follows: Carpentry, 35; masonry, 19; sewing, 18; metal hammering, 3; blacksmithing, 2; washing, 3; unclassified, 4.

Station School.—The Station School was inspected by the Government School Inspector in January and the work done by the boys was satisfactory to him except their writing. He also thought that they should have more practice in mental arithmetic. The first of February we had our examinations in the school and six boys passed into the Industrial School.

The average number of boys in the school was thirty-four.

Each Sunday, just after Sunday-school, the Junior Endeavor Society met on the veranda of Bungalow No. 1. The little boys took part well and the meetings never lagged. When the boys were transferred to the Brownie Orphanage, Kodoli, they had Rs. 4-1-10 in the treasury of the society. As all the members went, the money was also sent to Kodoli, to be used for a society there.

The day-school in the Mangwada (the section of the town where the Mangs, a low caste, live) has been kept up with a regular attendance of twelve. This comprises all the children of school age in the wada, with four or five exceptions. The school is steadily gaining ground and influence. A year ago it was hard work to get the children to attend. Now it is a common occurrence for parents to punish their children for not going to school. The missionary, who at one time almost feared to punish a child lest it should break up the school, now even dares to expel a pupil for bad behavior.

MIRAJ STATION.

The branches of work which have been carried on during the past year are the same as in the previous year. Along most lines there has been more successful work done and the members of the Station write in gratitude to God for the measure of good health that He has given them and for the joy they have experienced in His service. Dr. Wanless, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and Miss Thompson have been in the work throughout the year; Miss Patterson from the beginning of the year until she went on furlough in April, and Mrs. Wanless since the time of her marriage with Dr. Wanless in December, 1907.

The Medical School, Dispensary and Hospital.—Dr. Wanless, as formerly, has been in charge, assisted by Mrs. Wanless. The church (until the coming of the pastor), the schools, Leper Asylum and general evangelistic work have been in charge of Mr. Richardson, assisted by Mrs. Richardson, who has also had charge of two schools and the training of Christian women. The work of house-to-house visiting, in the town, with the Bible woman and the teaching in the villages around, was conducted by Miss Thompson from the beginning of the year until she took up Miss Patterson's work in the hospital. Miss Patterson, until she went on furlough, had the charge of the nursing work and the training of nurses. The work of the church may be seen from extracts from the pastor's report. He says:

The church is a cosmopolitan one—most of the members coming from different parts of this great country, and from different Missions, with different ideas and practices and speaking different languages. Though they are of such different places and circumstances, they are in this church of one mind and spirit. The total number of communicants is fifty-eight, and the whole baptized community, ninety-three. During the year six children were baptized, and there are fifty-four non-Christians under instruction. The spiritual condition of the congregation seems to be satisfactory, Sunday-schools, preaching services and prayer meetings being well attended, and the church members taking great interest in the Christian work, trying in their daily duties to do something for their Master. During the year the church has contributed Rs. 292 for the church, Presbyterial and Home Mission expenses, and is thinking of starting a fund for a new church building. In a word, the church is growing in grace and is trying to spread the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. The church has had its own pastor since last December and has paid the whole of his salary.

GENERAL EVANGELISTIC WORK.—This work has been carried on more systematically than ever before, so that there is scarcely a quarter in the town where the Gospel has not been preached, Khandoba and Laxnibai being most faithful in this work. In almost every place where the Gospel is preached opportunity is given to purchase Christian books, generally Gospel portions. Twice a day Khandoba preaches in the dispensary; three or four times a week at the railway station; three times a week at the Leper Asylum; twice a week at the bazaar, besides talking with patients in the hospital and preaching in the different parts of the town.

Opposing Forces.—During the last few months the evangelist has not always received the best of treatment. In the bazaar and at the railway station, Brahmins have displayed a very bitter spirit, interrupting the preaching and preventing the sale of Scriptures. Sometimes they have bought Bible portions and then, tearing them in pieces, have burned them before the preacher, saying, "We will soon burn you as we burn your books." This opposition has been met with in several quarters. One Sunday, Mr. Richardson, in company with Mr. Simpson, was preaching to a crowd at Chinchli, when two Brahmins joined the crowd and began in a most excited way to address the people. They got louder as they went on, and perspiration rolled down their faces. The missionary stood coolly watching them (although having difficulty to keep from smiling), both Brahmins, shouting at the same time in their eagerness to be heard, drowned out each other's voice. In their excitement and anxiety to accomplish their purpose, they seemed to lose their common sense. When they were tired Mr. Richardson quietly asked them if they had finished, and if they had any question to ask, and then began again to speak to the people. After awhile the same Brahmins came back with others and began to interrupt, shouting and doing their best (or worst) to excite the people, who began to press in on the missionaries. At this moment a burly Mahratta (drunk as the proverbial lord) and waving a big stick, stood in front of the missionaries and told Mr. Richardson to speak to the people, that he would protect him and would not allow a man to touch him. Afterwards, when the missionaries were ready to leave, he walked before them to protect them from any assault.

The Y. M. C. A. has conducted its weekly meetings throughout the school year and reports that there is marked spiritual progress. Members take part in the preaching in the wards of the hospital, in conducting a school at the Leper Asylum and in preaching in nearby villages. The Association has also organized a choir under the leadership of Mrs. Wanless for the Sabbath services in the church.

MEDICAL.—The Hospital.—There is little that is new to report in the work of the Miraj Hospital unless it be the increase in the multitudes of the lame, the halt and the blind who from increasingly remote villages seek relief in the hospital and dispensary.

Since Miss Patterson left for furlough Miss Thompson has rendered excellent service in the management of the nurses and general supervision of the Nursing Superintendent's Department. The Medical Staff remains unchanged. Dr. Powar, our senior Indian medical assistant, passed his examination in the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Calcutta. Two new nurses have been added to the nursing staff during the year, making a total of nine Indian nurses, all but one of whom are still undergraduates. There has been visible evidence of increasing efficiency on the part of all the workers connected with the hospital. The entire Indian staff of medical assistants and nurses has been trained in the institution and all are Christians. A day's program will perhaps give the best idea of the work done in the hospital.

A rising bell rings at 6.30 A. M.; a get-ready bell at 7, and a call to prayer at 7.10. The medical staff and students meet in the Y. M. C. A. hall for twenty minutes' service of exhortation and prayer. A scheduled passage of Scripture is read, and a brief exhortation given in turn by one of the medical staff or students. A text for the day is read, with comment thereon. Special requests for prayer are presented and use is made of two prayer cycles, including all the medical Missions in India and all the departments of work in our own Mission. The nurses, under the Nursing Superintendent, have a similar service. At 7.30 to 8 there is a Bible class for the medical students, conducted in turn by Mr. Richardson and the pastor of the church.

At 7.30 also Dr. Wanless begins his hospital rounds, the nurses are on duty, the dressing of cases begins. The taking of temperatures is begun by special nurses and students at 7 A. M., and is completed before the physician begins his rounds. By 9 A. M. the patients have all been visited and prescribed for; a compounder copies his directions, the nurses attend to theirs, the ward assistant looks to the carrying out of the directions given, and takes personal charge of aseptic dressings, and the doctor spends an hour with his medical class.

The first assistant, having taught the class from 8 to 9, attends the outdoor dispensary patients, a service having been conducted by the Station evangelist while the patients are waiting for the doctor. By 10.30 the morning's work in the hospital is usually completed, and by 11 the outdoor dispensary is finished. Operations begin by 12 o'clock. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays are devoted to ophthalmic operations and minor surgery, and from six to thirty (the average about ten) eye operations are performed on each of these days. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the operative work consists of general surgery, there being usually from four to ten operations, chiefly major, performed daily, and include in the course of a year operations in practically every department of surgery. On these three general operating days the staff is usually engaged in the operating theatre from three to five hours. At 3 P. M. one of the operating staff is released for afternoon dispensary work. On the ophthalmic operating days the physician himself, being free in the afternoon, conducts the dispensary from 3 to 5, and this afternoon clinic is also preceded by preaching service. Books and Scripture portions are offered for sale, and tracts are distributed by the Station evangelist. While all this is going on, a staff of two trained compounders and three student compounders are preparing medicines for hospital and outdoor patients, or lotions and preparations for hospital use. The Nursing Superintendent directs the preparation of dressings by the nurses, and the ward ayahs attends to the wards, ward nursing, hospital clothing, the administration of medicines by nurses, and keeps an eye on many other things too numerous for individual mention. A special diet nurse prepares diets for special cases. One of the medical assistants gives his morning to laboratory work. In the afternoon students in the medical class assist in operations, and perform other hospital duties assigned them. As the daylight fades a Gospel talk is given in the hospital wards, by a nurse in the women's wards and by a student or one of the medical assistants in the men's wards. Special mention should be made of the two night nurses, a senior and a junior, who have the entire care of the wards and the serious responsibility of nursing most serious cases. Without their faithful service in the hospital, mortality would doubtless be higher. Sunday is a day of comparative rest, only necessary duties being performed. A Sabbath-school for patients, nurses and medical students is conducted, under the superintendency of the physician-in-charge, who himself takes the Bible class for English-speaking pupils, and addresses all in Marathi at the close of their lesson. International Lessons are used, and are taught by the medical staff, senior nurses and Bible women.

An Illustrious Patient.—The most illustrious of our patients this year was His Highness the Maharajah of Kolhapur, who was brought to the hospital wounded by a spear while hunting wild boar. He came accompanied by some thirty of his followers, all of whom were accommodated over night. Three young princes were entertained at the doctor's table by the Madam Sahib, while the doctor and his assistants chloroformed His Highness and sewed up his wound. The Maharajah and staff left next morning for Kolhapur, taking the doctor with him to dress his wound. Several visits were subsequently made to Kolhapur, and later the Maharajah himself came to Miraj for the dressing of his wound, until it had entirely healed, which it did to His Highness' great satisfaction. The incident has served greatly to strengthen the existing friendship between His Highness and the Mission, and on his part to esteem and appreciate more highly the work of the Mission. Among other appreciative remarks which His Highness was pleased to make was, "I once had doubts about the work of the Mission, but I have none now. Is there anything I can do for the Mission?" On a Sunday, while at Miraj, His Highness asked for Christian books, and in other ways manifested an interest in the spiritual as well as the physical work being done by the Mission. We cannot but be thankful for the incident which providentially has served to secure the favor of those in authority.

Hospital Statistics.—The Medical School highly appreciated the several weeks of medical instruction given by Dr. Goheen in the school during the month of December.

Indoor patients	1,319
Surgical operations	1,913
Outdoor patients	24,220
Expenses	Rs. 12,708
Receipts	Rs. 9,994

The Medical School.—The present class is the largest to date, sixteen in the medical and three in the compounding class. All in all, they are a promising company of young men. Medical subjects are taught by the principal, Dr. W. J. Wanless, and the senior medical assistant, Dr. J. S. Powar. The religious subjects are taught by the Rev. Mr. Richardson and the church pastor. The medical curriculum approved by the physicians of the Mission is followed as closely as the teaching staff, which is inadequately small, permits. Effort is made to afford a maximum of practical training in laboratory, hospital wards, operating room and dispensary. The religious training consists of a regular course in vital truths.

The medical work has also been carried on through the dispensaries at Vila and Paulus. At the former there has been an increasing attendance. At the latter the work has not been so encouraging. The place is not desirable as a centre for medical work. Ashta, a town of about 12,000 inhabitants, in an adjoining Taluka (country), where for years the missionaries have been petitioned by the people to open medical work, will probably take its place.

EDUCATION.—The number receiving Christian education in the Miraj field is larger than in any previous year, a total of 210. Besides the three boys' schools, there is the Christian girls' school (which has more boys than girls and more non-Christians than Christians, the Christian girls, as soon as they are old enough, going to the Christian girls' boarding school at Kolhapur). There are also two night schools, one with a regular attendance of thirty and the other of fourteen, a reading school for women, the medical school, several classes at the Leper Asylum and the women taking the Bible women's courses.

From the several Sabbath-schools a goodly number took the

All India Sabbath-school Scripture examination and passed, and from among the Christian women six took the Mission's examination in the Bible women's courses, two in the first year, three in the second year and one in the fourth year's work. All obtained grades of over 90, two receiving 97.

THE LEPER ASYLUM.—

The past year at the Leper Asylum has seen a marked increase in the number of inmates. At the beginning of the year the roll showed twenty men and eleven women in attendance; the enrollment now is thirty-seven men and seventeen women, a total of fifty-four. The year has been one full of good things: 1. The dedication of the new chapel, 2d of January, 1908. 2. Completion of the large new building for women, thereby making possible the giving more room to the inmates generally and the housing the women in more comfortable quarters, more secluded from the men. 3. The cure of one of the inmates, Abba Kambale, who was first in Vengurle Orphanage, afterwards at the Sangli School, then, while serving as a hamal (house-servant) in a missionary's home at Miraj, he was discovered to be a leper. He has been in the asylum about two years, gradually improving in general health, and being examined about three months ago, he was declared to be free from leprosy and is now employed as a pati-walla at the hospital. 4. The success of seven inmates who took the All India Sunday-school Scripture Examination, all but one obtaining a grade of over 80 per cent. 5. The large number of visits the inmates have enjoyed from missionaries and other friends interested in their welfare. Daily at noon there is a prayer service with the study of the Old Testament; four afternoons a week a Gospel service, and on Sabbath Sunday-school.

VENGURLE STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—There have been a few changes in the membership of the Church. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper has been administered but twice during the year—once in December, when Mr. Edgar Wilson was visiting the Station, and once in April, when Pastor Shivranji accepted the church's invitation to come from Kolhapur to administer the sacraments of communion and baptism.

The Sunday-schools continue to be five in number. In each of our school buildings, a Sunday-school is held at 7 o'clock on Sunday morning, and at 8.30 the church Sunday-school meets at the bungalow. The average attendance at each of the Sunday-schools has been as follows:

Gabhivadi	20
Parabhvadi	20
Maharvadi	9
Church	20
	91

The evangelistic work of Tukaramji R. Kamble, who is clerk of the Session, bazaar preacher, clerk of the dispensary, and the most frequent speaker at the dispensary services, is perhaps best described by a translation of his own report for the year. It reads:

The work in Vengurle is growing. There are four schools and three of these are going on well, and in each school, Sunday-school is held each Sunday morning. The work of the dispensary is growing, and so many people are coming that Dr. Goheen has to give a great deal of his time there. The people come from many of the surrounding villages, and the Gospel is preached regularly in the dispensary. The people listen well and are beginning to discuss amongst themselves the life and works of Jesus Christ.

Miss Ferguson and Mrs. Goheen have given one afternoon in the week to the Christian women. At the meetings, after a simple little Bible talk, much time is spent in prayer. It has been a great comfort to the workers this year to see how some of the women have been learning to pray, and how earnestly they pray for the work of the Station. The opening of the hospital, the first case, the fear of the people that the hospital was haunted, all these have been earnestly prayed over, and as God has heard and answered, heartfelt praise has been given for each answer.

A Prayer from the Heart.—One dear old woman, who a little more than two years ago had never seen a white face, made the following touching little prayer one afternoon: "Oh, dear Lord, we do thank Thee that Thou hast taken away the fear of the people, and that they are coming to the hospital, where they can hear of Jesus. But, oh God, I never knew that so much money would be needed for the work of the hospital. Will you please make the people in America send money. We here in Vengurle have been giving only our tenth, but now, oh Lord, if you wish me to, I will give one-half. Amen." She now gives all that she can for the work, and is always the first one to offer her blanket to any sick person who may come, or for whom Dr. Goheen may have no hospital bedding.

Owing to lack of funds, touring has not been possible this year, but the visiting in the homes has been carried on regularly. In some homes the women really care to hear of the Saviour, because, as they say, their many vows and prayers to their own numerous gods have given them no peace, and they want to hear of One who we say gives peace. Some say the story "cools their hearts." Others will listen, but are seemingly indifferent. The most discouraging, heart-breaking visits are those made to the homes of the intelligent but usually bitter and flippant temple-women. This class is very prevalent in Vengurle, and, alas, it is a class that steadily increases in numbers, for the daughters of these temple-women are dedicated from birth to the same life of shame that their mothers have lived.

EDUCATIONAL.—The work in the four schools has on the whole been encouraging, and it is a great joy to see the marked improvement in Biblical knowledge of the children who have attended school all year. Miss Ferguson has charge of the school in the fishermen's quarter, and in the low caste and Maratha quarters as well. Of the school for fishermen's children she writes :

The number of the children on the roll of this school is forty, the average attendance being thirty. At the beginning of the year the Christian teacher left to take up work in Bombay, and it was some months before anyone could be found to take his place. Then the teacher who did come was at first not very tactful with the pupils, and a number of the older ones left school. In September, to our great disappointment, the Hindu master, who has been in the school since it started, gave up his position to take up a better-paying one in a Government school, and again at that time several of the older boys left to go to the other school. It has been hard for the Christian teacher to be left with what he terms the "refuse" of his second standard, but he is devoting himself to his work as never before, so what seemed a loss is really proving a gain. Seventy-five per cent. of the pupils passed the Government examination.

The Mahar school has been carried on all year as a half-day school by Sakhabai, Miss Ferguson's Bible woman.

Of the Parabh or Maratha School, Miss Ferguson writes :

The number on the roll is thirty-eight, the average attendance twenty-eight. Brahmin, Maratha, Roman Catholic and Protestant children attend the school. The school-room is the best we have, for it is large, airy and well lighted—in fact, it is a nicely-built cattle shed. Sometimes the bullocks are treading out grain at one end, but fortunately neither teachers nor pupils seem to be in the least disturbed. Seven and a half per cent. of the scholars passed the Government examination. This was the best record of any of the schools in the whole town.

The largest school, the Bhut School, of which Mrs. Goheen has charge, like the Parabh school, has all sorts and conditions of pupils. It is named the Bhut school because it is situated in the Bhut or priests' quarters and a number of the children of priests attend the school. The school suffered more than the missionaries realized at the time from the bad influence of the former master, who each morning had his scouts out to watch for and warn him of Mrs. Goheen's approach. But the new master is an earnest Christian and an earnest worker, and it is hoped that under his care things will be better.

MEDICAL.—"Growth" is the word that best describes the medical work of the year. Early in November, the medical work was greatly stimulated by the gift of Mrs. Mather, of Cleveland, who sent $300 for the repair of the old Cantonment Hospital and grounds, the Government grant of which was reported last Mission meeting. The Mission's Property Committee immediately visited the Station and inspected the site. They favored only the temporary repair of the old building, because it was feared that the site was too far from the bazaar to be a good one for the hospital. These repairs were made and early in July the first operation was performed in a partially finished room of a much unfinished building.

Removing of Obstacles.—The patient's father, believing the then widespread report that the building was haunted, refused to allow his son to stay in the hospital, and he had to be accommodated in a room on the bungalow compound. The case was a very serious one, and its slow but sure recovery seemed to those who watched its progress a definite answer to the prayers of many in the church for the lad, and that cure has been taken to be the first sign of God's favor and blessing upon the new work. It was a happy moment when on leaving the old father offered a prayer of gratitude to the Lord Jesus. The progress of the second case, although of a different nature, was equally encouraging. This lad, a Brahmin of the highest caste, was after the operation too weak to be removed from the hospital, and in this way God again answered prayer, and removed the very general superstition that the house was haunted. That boy to-day is the best possible advertisement for the hospital, for he who by reason of his disease had not stood on his feet for three years is to-day, to the great joy and wonder of his parents, hopping about everywhere on crutches.

Writing on the 15th of October, Dr. Goheen says:

Forty patients have been admitted. At present every bed is full, and several applications for admission have had to be refused.

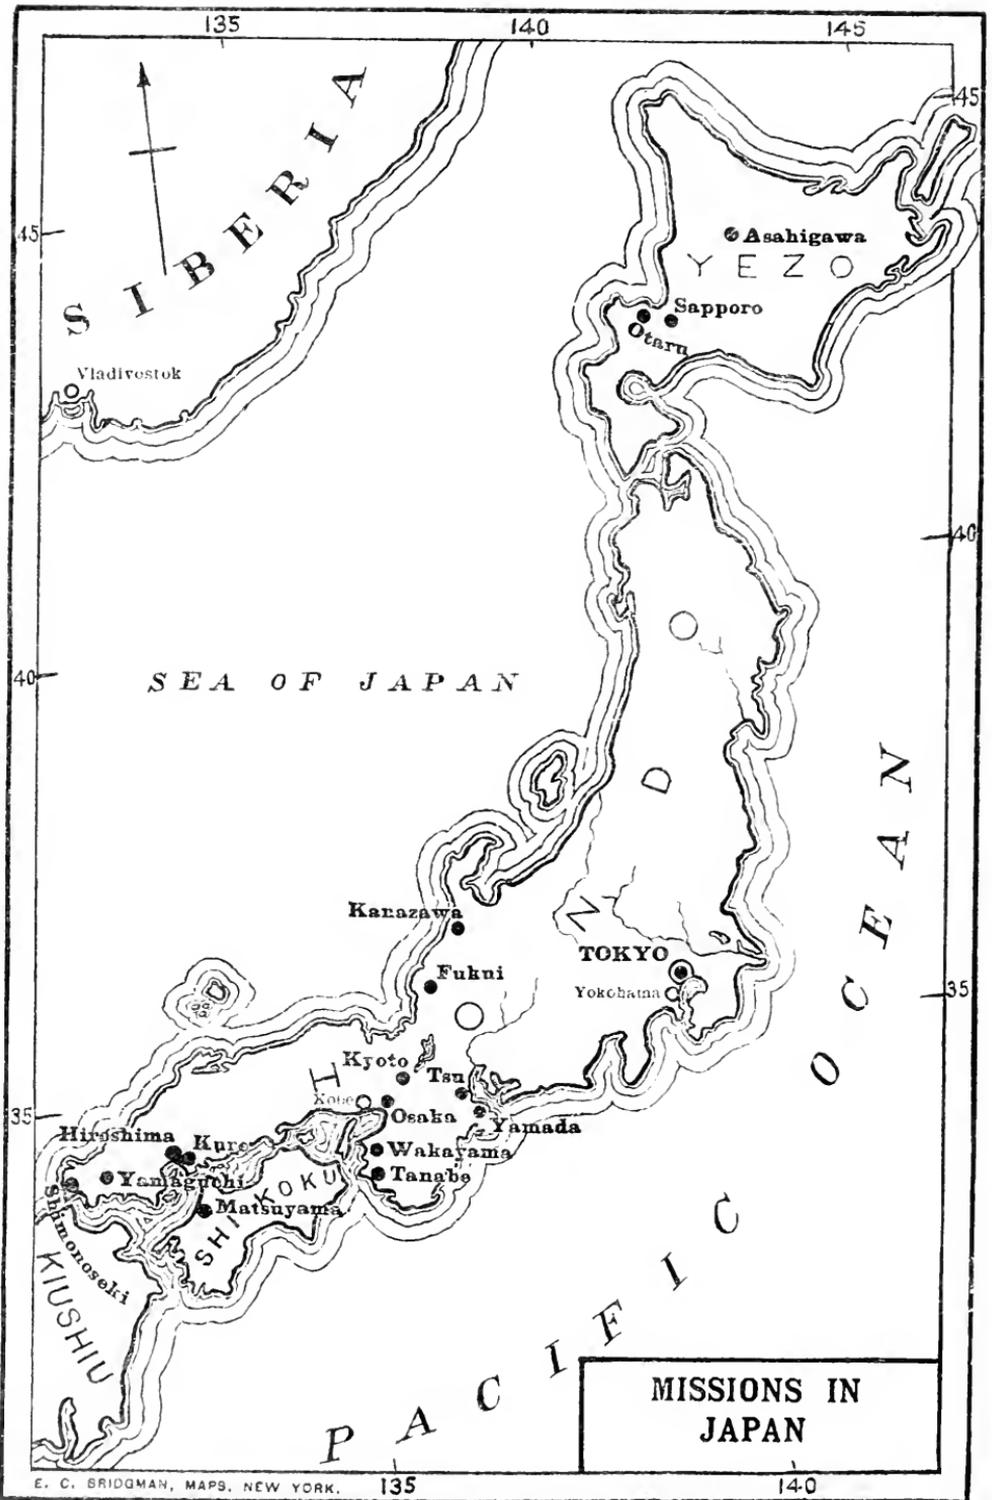

The surgical apparatus is very meagre, as only Rs. 300 could be spared from the funds for this purpose. But the gift of a ten-gallon water sterilizer from the Mission's faithful friend, Mr. Emerson, of Titusville, deserves grateful mention here.

Every Sunday evening at dusk a song-service with Bible talks and prayer is held in the wards of the hospital, and to this all the patients give earnest attention. One man who was dismissed on a Saturday morning begged to be allowed to stay until after the service on Sunday.

The enrollment of patients in the dispensary for the year is 11,440. Of this number, 6,433 were men, 2,962 women, and 2,045 children.

MISSIONS IN JAPAN.

In spite of continued foolish talk regarding the difficulties between the United States and Japan over the question of Japanese emigration, the relations of the missionaries to the Japanese have been uninterruptedly cordial. The idea that the Japanese were filled with a spirit of war was untrue and absurd. The following words from well-known Japanese, uttered within the last few months, are illustrative of the spirit and purposes of the nation:

"Before all other questions, the most vital question should be considered, namely, how to bring about the amity of international relations."—MAYOR OZAKI, quoted in the Jiji Shinpo.

"Wonderfully has mankind grown in political instincts from being a member of a village community to be a voice in the federation of the world."—DR. NITOE.

"I am sincerely convinced that the achievements of the (Hague) Conference are such as will mark an epoch in the history of the progress of humanity."—AMBASSADOR TSUZUKI.

"An international exhibition and warlike preparation can never be attempted at the same time and same place; therefore, the invitation of the Japanese Government to all nations to come together in the coming World's Fair is a sure sign of Japan's universal desire for peace."—VISCOUNT KANEKO.

"The Christian Movement in Japan," the annual report of the advance of Christian influence in the Empire, puts the matter succinctly, as follows:

Japan being at peace, and the Hague Conference having been kept before the world during the year, the thoughts of the people have turned naturally to the subject of peace. Conducive to this end has been the successful conclusion of the Franco-Japanese and the Russo-Japanese Conventions, and the Commercial Treaty with Russia, together with the reassuring visit of Secretary Taft and such utterances from Ambassador O'Brien as "There is room enough on the Pacific for all of the ships of the world."

Among the special delegates of Japan to the Hague Conference was one member of the Japan Peace Society, who has taken a genuine interest in the work of the society. Besides sending a cable to the conference and forwarding the petitions from the various Hague Day Meetings, the Society, at the request of the author, translated into English and printed Count Itagaki's "Open Letter to the President of the Hague Conference" and sent to representatives of the peace societies at the Hague a sufficient number of copies for each delegate. The above letter received the hearty approval of Mr. Tsuzuki, Ambassador to the Hague Conference.

The beginning of the peace movement in Japan, and its growth to the present time, have depended largely upon personal interviews.

The past year has witnessed much activity in this line. Members of the Japan Peace Society have interviewed, with good results, university professors, editors, business men, Buddhist and Christian leaders, consuls, mayors, judges, governors and members of Parliament. These personal interviews have all witnessed to the fact that the leading thinkers of Japan really love peace, and wish to demonstrate to the world that the nation's military career shall not be allowed to overshadow her victories in the arts and industries of peace.

Two other paragraphs from "The Christian Movement" are of interest as showing the general trend of thought in the Empire:

Baron Makino, Minister of Education, in addressing the Prefects assembled in Tokyo, made the interesting statement that complete success has attended the important change made last year when the compulsory course of instruction in primary schools was extended from four to six years. Out of 20,000 schools established throughout the Empire, the new system has been put into effect in every instance with the exception of 144. There can be no doubt that the people are earnestly bent upon providing good education for their children. On the other hand, the authorities are greatly embarrassed by the lack of instructors. This want is especially felt in the field of female education, and the Minister urges that no time should be lost in increasing the number of normal schools. His Excellency further recommends that the system of retiring allowances to teachers should be remodeled on a more liberal scale.

Mr. Soyeda spoke warmly about the difference between education in England and in Japan. He asserted that the great aim of English education was to produce men of character, but he could not discern that any such object was pursued by educators in Japan. He went on to say that the habits of leading men in Great Britain could not be too much admired—the respect they showed for religion and the upright lives that they led. The consequence was that the prominent figures in commerce and politics alike commanded a degree of public esteem which they did not at all possess in Japan, and such an institution as a Chamber of Commerce wielded wide influence. One very regrettable habit of the Japanese mind was the small value placed upon time. Even a pure business call had to be prefaced by comments about the weather and extraneous talk which materially shortened the moments available for transacting business. Then there was the still more objectionable custom of making tea-house entertainments an occasion for business consultations. This involved an immense loss of time and money, to say nothing of injury to health.

Although Dr. H. Kato, ex-President of the Imperial University, Tokyo, has made another violent attack on Christianity as hostile to the best interests of the State, another prominent educator and philosopher does not agree with him, as the following clipping shows:

"The Kirisutokyo Sekai (Congregational) refers to a speech bearing on Christianity in Japan made by Dr. Inouye Tetsujiro at a large meeting of Directors of Provincial Middle Schools held in Tokyo a few months ago. Dr. Inouye is reported to have made the following remark on that occasion: 'Formerly Christianity in this country was not in agreement with the State, but such is no longer the case.' This admission caused great surprise at the time it was made and has since been the subject of much comment. The Kirisutokyo Sekai asks what difference there is between the new and the old form of Christianity, and comes to the conclusion that the Christianity to which in former years Dr. Inouye so strongly objected was the Occidental Christianity which had been propagated here unchanged, whereas the Christianity of which the learned Doctor approves to-day is Japanized Christianity. Into the doctrinal changes which have taken place the organ we are quoting does not go, but simply lays stress on the significance of Dr. Inouye's change of attitude toward Christianity in Government schools. It seems now to be generally held, says the Kirisutokyo Sekai, that Christianity in schools can do no harm whatever to the Japanese State. This opens the way for Christian work in Government schools."

The numerical progress made by the Church has been steady but not unusual. In the Congregational Churches there were 2,304 adult baptisms during the year; in the Baptist Churches, 389; in the United Methodist Churches, 1,654; in the Church of Christ, or Presbyterian Churches, 2,127, and in the Episcopal Churches, 1,024. The largest Protestant body is the Church of Christ, with a total membership of 18,140.

The discussion on the subject of the relations between the Churches in Japan and the Foreign Missions was continued throughout the year. The West Japan Mission has entered into full co-operative relations with the Church of Christ in Japan, and is thus far the only one of the six Church Missions hitherto co-operating with the Church of Christ which has done so as yet. Plans of co-operation have been agreed upon between the East Japan Mission and the Board to be submitted to the Church of Christ, but before they had been so submitted a letter was published in the Fukui Shimpo, the leading paper of the Church of Christ, signed by four of the leaders of the Church and proposing a plan of affiliation, as follows:

Missions formerly known as Missions co-operating with the Church of Christ in Japan, which are unable to become co-operating Missions under the definition of the Synod, may apply to the Synod for recognition as affiliated (or related) Missions.

1. An affiliated Mission sincerely accepts the Confession of Faith, Constitution and Canons of the Church of Christ in Japan; and trains its converts accordingly.

2. Men desiring to engage in evangelistic work under the direction of an affiliated Mission may apply to Presbytery for licensure of ordination. Such licentiates and ministers shall be subject to the discipline of the Presbytery; but they shall not have the privileges of either full or associate members.

3. Dendo-kyokwai and kogisho of affiliated Missions shall have no ecclesiastical connection whatever with the Church of Christ in Japan; but they shall be included in the statistics of the Church as belonging to affiliated Missions.

4. Affiliated Missions do not organize churches (kyokwai); but when their dendo-kyokwai or kogisho are ready for organization as churches, they shall apply to Presbytery, and when so organized shall be churches of the Church of Christ in Japan.

This plan was presented at the meeting of the Synod in the Fall of 1908, but there was some difference of view among its promoters as to its scope and meaning, and the matter was withdrawn from consideration by the Synod. The idea of a relationship of affiliation, however, instead of co-operation, has been taken up for fuller discussion, and a plan based on this principle was submitted to the Board by the East Japan Mission as follows:

The Mission shall be known as an affiliated Mission and shall carry on its evangelistic work under the following arrangement.

1. The Mission accepts the Confession of Faith, Constitution and Canons of the Church of Christ in Japan; and will expect dendokyokwai and kogisho connected with it to do so also.

2. Men desiring to engage in evangelistic work under the direction of the Mission may apply to Presbytery for licensure or ordination. Such licentiates and ministers shall be subject to the discipline of the Presbytery. They may also be invited by the Presbytery to become permanent corresponding members. Such ministers, however, as are already full or associate members shall have the privileges of associate members.

3. Dendo-kyokwai and kogisho connected with the Mission shall have no ecclesiastical connection with the Church of Christ in Japan; but they shall be included in the statistics of the Church as connected with the Mission, and shall report to the Presbytery annually for its information regarding their financial and spiritual condition.

4. The Mission will not organize churches (kyokwai); but when dendo-kyokwai or kogisho connected with it are ready for organization as churches they shall apply to the Presbytery, and when so organized shall be churches of the Church of Christ in Japan.

It may be explained that dendokyokwai and kogijo are unorganized congregations and preaching places.

With the presentation of this plan to the Board, the following action was taken by the Board on the recommendation of its Committee on Policy and Methods:

In January, 1908, the Board took action, providing for a plan of co-operation between the East Japan Mission and the Church of Christ on the basis of the Synod's definition of a co-operating Mission. The Mission, on the basis of this action of the Board, adopted a plan of co-operation, and was about to submit it to the Board of Missions of the Church of Christ when there appeared the suggested plan of affiliation, which some of the Japanese ministers proposed to submit to the Synod as a possible alternative to the plan of co-operation. In view of the proposal, the Mission asked the Board to assent to its postponement of the presentation of its plan of co-operation until after the meeting of the Synod in October. To this the Board agreed. At the meeting of the Synod, however, the plan of affiliation was withdrawn and the sentiment of the Church was expressed strongly in favor of the policy of co-operation, and the time was extended during which the Missions might propose plans for the consideration of the Synod.

The East Japan Mission now requests the Board to allow it to propose to the Church of Christ a plan of affiliation modeled upon that which had been proposed to the Synod. This the Committee and the Council are unprepared to do. The withdrawal of the plan of affiliation by the Japanese and the discussions and actions of the Synod seem to us to leave the matter just where it was before the plan of affiliation was proposed, and all the considerations which led the Board to favor a policy of co-operation then appear to apply now, and with increased force. We recommend, therefore, that the Board advise the Mission that it is its judgment that the Mission should proceed to carry out the course previously agreed upon in the Mission action of June, 1908, and should propose the plans of co-operation then adopted to the proper Committee of the Church of Christ.

In advising this course, however, we would recommend also that the Mission be informed that the Board is entirely willing that the Mission should consider with the Church of Christ the plan of affiliation as proposed, and adopt such a plan in consultation with the Church, provided that it be found to be wholly acceptable to the Church.

The year 1909 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of Protestant Missions in Japan, and is to be observed by a joint evangelistic campaign carried on by the Japanese Churches and the missionary bodies jointly, and by a jubilee celebration in October.

EASTERN JAPAN MISSION.

YOKOHAMA: on the bay, a few miles below Tokyo; Mission begun 1859.

TOKYO: the capital of Japan, on the island of Hondo, at head of Bay of Yedo; Station occupied 1869. Missionaries—Rev. David Thompson, D.D., and Mrs. Thompson, Rev. William Imbrie, D.D., and Mrs. Imbrie, Mrs. J. M. McCauley, Rev. H. M. Landis and Mrs. Landis, Rev. Theodore M. MacNair and Mrs. MacNair, Mr. J. C. Ballagh and Mrs. Ballagh, Rev. A. K. Reischauer and Mrs. Reischauer, Miss Kate C. Youngman, Miss Annie B. West, Miss Elizabeth T. Milliken, Miss Lida S. Halsey, Miss Elizabeth R. Campbell, Miss Matilda H. London.

HOKKAIDO: Sapporo—Sapporo is the capital of the Hokkaido (Yezo), 350 miles north of Tokyo; Station occupied 1887. Missionaries—Miss S. C. Smith, Miss I. M. Ward, Miss Alice M. Monk. Otaru: 25 miles northwest of Sapporo—Miss C. H. Rose. Asahigawa: about 100 miles northeast of Sapporo—Rev. George P. Pierson and Mrs. Pierson, Rev. Weston T. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson.

TRANSFERS: Miss Moore, of W. Japan Mission, to Sapporo Girls' School for one year.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Miss Isabel M. Ward, Rev. Weston T. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Elizabeth P. Milliken, Miss S. C. Smith.

TOKYO.

EVANGELISTIC.—Dr. Thompson reports the continuance of his work in Tokyo and Tochigi and Utsunomiya, cities sixty miles to the north of Tokyo.

Mei Sei preaching place was at one time a church. It was one of those wrecked by the mob four years ago. It has had a hard time ever since in overcoming the difficulties it has had to meet. The acting pastor is Rev. Y. Ogawa, our oldest native minister, now in his seventy-seventh year and failing in health. He has, however, been able to keep the oversight of this flock during the past year, has preached regularly, and has received by baptism some twenty new members.

Tochigi: This, too, is a populous place like Utsunomiya, in the same general direction and about equally distant from Tokyo by rail. It differs from the latter place in one respect, viz., our Mission alone maintains work there now. A few church members of almost every denomination, as is the case elsewhere in Japan, may be found on search among the people.

Mr. MacNair's evangelistic work has been, as he writes, in the three country places, Matsuo, Hasunuma and Kisarazu, and, in Tokyo, with the Akasaka, Shinagawa and Koishikawa dendo Kyokwai or "mission churches," more especially the latter, where, besides preaching frequently, I meet a group of students for Bible study.

Mr. MacNair has worked steadily during the year on the new Union Sunday-school Hymn Book, which it is hoped will prove as great a success as the Union Church Hymnal, which has reached its fifth edition and 210,000. In spite of various illnesses Miss Youngman has gone forward with her work in the three Missions Ueno, Kamijima and Kamakwa. At the last point several thousand have heard the Gospel during the year.

EDUCATIONAL.—Meiji Gakuin, Academic Department.
—Mr. Reischauer reports:

The number of students, 360, is as large as present accommodations will allow and the fact that we can select by competitive examinations the best of many applications insures us a better class of students than we might otherwise have. Our graduating class of the Middle School Department is not quite as large as last year, but still we have sixty-six. Last year, March, 1908, seventy-one were graduated. In our upper department we have, however, a graduating class of eight, where last year we had none and the year before only two. Of these eight, five are baptized Christians and the other three are essentially Christians. In the two lower classes of the Koto department we have eleven candidates for the ministry. As a plant of secular education the future of the school is fairly bright. But to make it more and more a true and shining light is the thing that lies most heavily on our hearts. There are eighty Christians among the 360 enrolled, and in comparison with most Mission boys' schools this is not a bad showing, but surely the percentage can and must be raised. The chief difficulty lies in getting a thoroughgoing Christian faculty.

Theological Department.—Dr. Imbrie reports:

The Theological Department held its commencement in June. There were five graduates, all of whom are now doing evangelistic work in connection with either the Presbyterian or the Reformed Mission. At the beginning of the Autumn term seven new students entered for the regular and four for the special course. Those entering for the regular course were all graduates of the higher course of the Academic Department. There are now twenty-four students in attendance, and nine pursuing the higher course of the Academic Department with the expectation of entering the Theological Department.

Joshi Gakuin.—During the year there have been in all eighteen baptized, and there are now seventy baptized Christians out of 230 girls in attendance in our school. Several are only waiting for their families' permission and many others have a real faith.

At the commencement in March American Ambassador O'Brien gave the address. He spoke in a complimentary way to the class upon its ability in using English and congratulated the country upon having such good facilities for giving a foreign education to its youth. Eight girls received diplomas from the advanced department, while thirty-eight certificates were issued from the lower English department, and forty-two certificates from the lower Japanese department. It was an imposing sight to see such numbers of daintily dressed young women receive the mark of their school's approval from the hand of their honored principal, Mrs. Yajima, now seventy-six years of age. Four of the graduating class settled soon at work; three became teachers in Mission schools and one became a missionary's assistant. The other four girls are with their families.

The Sunday work of the older students in twelve churches has continued with the usual interest. In one Sunday-school the people appreciated the ability of their helper so much that they asked her to conduct children's meetings for a week at the time of their special revival services. At the three set feasts of the year, the Alumnæ Meeting, the Dosokai for all former students, and the Christmas entertainment, a goodly number of former students returned and a fine spirit of loyalty was shown. The non-Christian families of two girls who had died brought small presents of money at Christmas time in memory of their daughters' appreciation, and a graduate of this year made a gift of fifty yen in the same way. These, with a larger gift last year from a widowed husband in memory of his wife, start an endowment fund for the school, and show the spirit that such a school should provoke.

Joshi Gakuin has had an unusual privilege this year in receiving four new Chinese students and four new Korean students into its dormitories. These girls want the Christian influence and the education in English which the school affords to prepare them for a greater sphere of usefulness in their own lands. They are all womanly Christian girls.

Mrs. McCauley reports of the two primary schools, one in Tsukiji with an attendance of 280, and the other in Shiba with an attendance of ninety, with ninety-seven additional children in the Kindergarten, and also the Rescue Home at Okubo, as follows:

This last year we have twice had meetings for the parents of Kindergarten children. The last meeting we got out a number of the fathers as well, and we urged their having their little ones remain. One father got up and said, "Oh, for a shame, that we should have to be urged to let our little ones remain in this clean, safe, good school. I thank the great God that I can every day go about my work in peace, knowing that my little girl is in this school. We, every one, should be the suppliants for the privilege of sending them here." Ten or twelve parents filled out the papers to have their children entered in primary school in April. Others confessed that their child was not recorded, and on closer inquiry the marriage was not registered, so we are starting on a civic reform. The head teacher is visiting the homes, explaining the law, getting the child legitimized and then enrolled as a citizen.

I have superintended the Rescue Home, living in it, at Okubo, a suburb of Tokyo. Five young girls, rescued, have been placed in mission schools on scholarships; four have found work as domestics in Christian homes; five were restored to their parents; one went to Hawaii to become the wife of a Christian man there; four were baptized and received into Tsumohazu Church during the year; and three, after remaining for a short time, ran away. We teach the Bible morning and evening in the Home, one and a half hours secular book knowledge, cooking, sewing and knitting. There are at present seven girls in the Home. It is hard work, often disappointing, but the tendency is upward; and one of our rescued women is now contributing one yen a month to the Home, to help save others. She is a happy wife and a mother. One case like the above outweighs many failures.

Of the work in the Bible School for the training of Bible women and her important personal evangelistic work Miss West reports:

The Bible school has continued in the same lines of work and study. We have the same assistants with the addition of Mrs. Matsupama; we have about the same number of students who, beside their regular study, are working as usual in Sunday-schools, woman's meetings and visiting. During the last year one recent graduate and two students were married.

Of the other part of my life, it is almost impossible to write. There are certain fixed "meetings," but I do not count that my best work in them nor in the regular Bible class on Sunday morning: but rather in the work and prayer for individuals who as yet cannot come out to public meetings. My acquaintance has grown far beyond the limits of my time for visiting and the problem of my life, at present, is to know how best to help and to lead the many, many "friends" who have come in touch with my life and who are hungering for some comfort, and peace and hope. Some wonderful surprises have come which make my heart stand still with awe as I realize how God answers prayer.

THE HOKKAIDO.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The Hokkaido is an island of 30,371 square miles, i.e., one-fifth of the whole empire, with a present population of 1,500,000 Japanese and about 16,000 Ainu, and a possible population of 10,000,000, who might be sustained by the produce of the 7,250,000 acres of arable land, only 14 per cent. of which is cultivated, and find employment thereon, or, in mining the 600,000,000 tons of coal estimated as still dormant in the great coal fields, or in cutting the forests that cover the great mountain areas. In Tokachi Province there is a prairie so extensive that its boundaries have not yet been explored. Asahigawa is coming more and more into prominence, and may make a still more noted advance if the proposition to move the capital from Sapporo to our city is favorably considered by the Central Government. The Diet at present in session in Tokyo is even now deliberating thereon. The recent burning of the "Docho" (the capitol building at Sapporo) and offer on the part of the Asahigawa fold to build a new "Docho," if located in the latter city, make the proposition of removal to the centre of the island's life and wealth not an impossibility.

Mr. Pierson reports:

The Mission has hitherto worked in seven places. Five of these, to wit, the Asahigawa, Takigawa, Gakuden, Hokkosha and Mororan fields, are still its peculiar work. Of the remaining two, one Kushiro, was undertaken by the Dendokyoku (Japanese Board of Missions), but there has been difficulty in securing a pastor. Meanwhile the Mission has offered to do what it could in supplying the need and Mr. Sakamoto and I have visited the field monthly. The people there have built a combination church and parsonage on a commanding site, a constant reminder of the way of life to the people of the city and

"them that go down to the sea in ships." The other field that lies between the Dendokyoku and the Mission is the Nayoro-Piuka field. Through a series of events the Nayora part of this binary system has become the territory of the Dendokyoku, and we consented to their asking one of our faithful men, Mr. Yamaguchi, to take charge of this place. The other part of the territory, Piuka, of their own accord went into the Nevius Plan and now conduct their own affairs, still continuing in connection with the Nihon Kiristo Kyokai (Japanese Presbyterian Church), receiving no aid either from Dendokyoku or Mission. They go on as usual with the church services and work. They are reported as being most faithful in attendance, and they are leading inquirers. I spent several days there in November, was cordially welcomed, invited to preach, and asked to come again. It is a most interesting example of what can be, and in some cases must be, and in other cases ought to be done. There are other places in the Hokkaido where this system ought to prevail. Mororan is well named and in good condition. Seven hundred new houses went up last year and 1,000 houses are going up soon. The streets are filled with a procession of people, the cause of all being the new iron works and the new steel works, from both of which more is to be heard. When things get going in full blast Mororan will be a great city. Hills have been leveled and the shoals of the wide harbor filled in and things are going ahead as fast as an army of men can make them.

Last year's report spoke of the extraordinary work which had been done in the Obihiro Prison, whose chief was an earnest Christian and among whose officers and inmates there had been a great revival. The chief was removed by another person, and the new official was much less sympathetic with the Christian work. Mr. Pierson writes:

I write this letter at the Obihiro Prison, where we have just celebrated our Christmas for 1908. The Christmas celebration was held in the Fujinkwai Hall (Women's Hall) and the attendance was almost as large last year. I counted in the rough 60 men, 80 women, 120 children, 260 in all. The children sang and recited most impressively. I wish I could report as good things of the work among the prisoners as among the officials. Communicating the Gospel to the prisoners is cut off. Many are using the Buddhist prayer heads again. They have no chance of hearing the truth. The prison laws generally throughout Japan have become more strict. Intercourse with prisoners is almost impossible. However, much depends on the chief warden. In this case the new chief is not disposed to give access. So, "as faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word," it is not surprising if they degenerate. But there is much to be said on the bright side. Chief Kurogi is working for Christ in his new field, Aomori Prison. The Fujinkwai among the Aomori Prison officials' families has increased from thirty to sixty. Bibles and Christian books are being introduced among the prison people in Aomori. The chief is chief official over four prisons, so that his field is a wide one. Here in Obihiro, Mr. Usui is working hard in various ways and the Christmas gathering (at which the chief, a Buddhist, was present and who, after proposing Banzais for the Emperor and Crown Prince, added one for the Sunday-school) was an index. There is a faithful believing remnant, and others, too, among the officials who may be won by faithful visitation and prayer. "This kind cometh not out but by prayer and fasting." I am many "ri" (miles) remote from discouragement, although I do realize some things, among them the power of Satan.

Constant prayer should go up that the prisoners may have the Gospel preached to them. The Abashiri Prison is open to the Gospel. We had the joy of speaking before 400 prisoners there last October.

No report should go in without a grateful recognition of the changing attitude of the nation, particularly the educated people, toward Christianity. (By this, however, is not meant the educational authorities in Japan.) There are many even now standing at the gates.

Mrs. Pierson writes of the present work:

Mr. Pierson has since then waited on the head of the Prison Department for the whole country, in Tokyo, Mr. T., who himself a Christian, told Mr. Pierson that the Government per se did not object to Christian teaching in the prisons (though the official chaplains are always Buddhist priests), but that large latitude to decide this is left to the individual chiefs, the present chief being a Buddhist naturally does not favor Christian teaching. Mr. T. offered, however, to write the present chief of Tokachi and to urge him to permit this for the 600 Christian prisoners there.

We are all greatly interested in the "dai Keshin" (great resolve) of the one-legged Christian ex-prisoner Sugano. You know he was a gambling chief in Nemuro. Another gambling-chief invading his province and thus threatening the livelihood of his followers he challenged his rival and killed him. For this he was put in prison and sentenced to death. But on account of the death of the Dowager Empress at that time the sentence was commuted to life-imprisonment, and now for good behavior, which dates (I believe) from the revival, he has been released. If he went to Nemuro his grateful gang would gladly support him to the end of his days in wealth and luxury. But, like Moses, "esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt," he has chosen to go to Sendai and support himself by sock-making, at which he has become an adept during his long term in prison, but which is decidedly infra. dig. for an ex-gambling chief! As soon as he has established his livelihood he then means to go to Nemuro, search out his old gambling companions, and lead them every one to Christ. His "great resolve" he took pains to declare to the non-Christian Governor of the Prison before he started for Sendai, where he now is. So there is one of the Christian prisoners of Tokachi at least who has stood the test of isolation and temptation. And this man's test was a test indeed. Few have had such a "fiery trial," for his prison-mate (presumably the man he was chained to), who was not converted in the revival, determined to test the genuineness of the Christian religion by trying to tempt this man in every conceivable manner for one year. And according to the tempter's own testimony, Sugano didn't fail once! Now this man says, "If Christianity is that sort of a religion, I want to 'enter the faith,' too," and he has decided to become a Christian! Pray that brave Sugano may succeed in his "Great Resolve."

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Sapporo—Hokusai Jo Gakko.—Miss Monk reports a total enrollment in this school for girls of 175, with an actual attendance of 148. Thirteen graduated from the regular department after four years' work. Fifty-five of the pupils were Christians; nineteen were baptized during the year.

A large part of our teaching force is recruited from the ranks of our scholarship girls, who promise to teach for us two years, at a merely nominal figure. After that, they sometimes remain two or three years more, at a higher but still relatively low salary; in fact, about half the amount received by Government teachers of like training and experience.

Government inspectors who visited the school early in the year expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the school in every particular—management, light, ventilation, courses, and instruction. The increased registration shows that parents, also, are increasingly well disposed toward us. The entering class this year, eighty in number, was the largest but one in the history of the school. The exception was the year of the war with Russia, when, I believe, 100 new names were enrolled.

The "Violet Society," composed of dormitory girls, still continues its good work. During the year 2,019 bouquets, mostly of pansies and nasturtiums, were taken to the city hospitals. Each bouquet was fastened with a strip of paper on which had been written a Bible verse. This society also contributed to various church and Sunday-school enterprises the sum of yen 6.00. During the year, nineteen of our girls were baptized. Thirteen baptized Christians have left the school (upon graduation or otherwise) and forty-two are now enrolled.

Otaru.—The Seishu Jo Gakko.—Miss Rose reports :

The Otaru Mission School, the Seishu Jo Gakko, is a family school. It accommodates about fifty girls and 100 children in its Kindergarten. It registers these numbers year after year. It is both a residential and a day-school. Twenty-six girls live in the school and four teachers. The pupils work for board and tuition. We have no servants. Some students pay only in work, others also pay one yen a month, others two yen, a few can pay three or even four yen.

Four pupils have been baptized during the year, and there are inquirers among us. All the pupils study the Bible daily and attend family prayers.

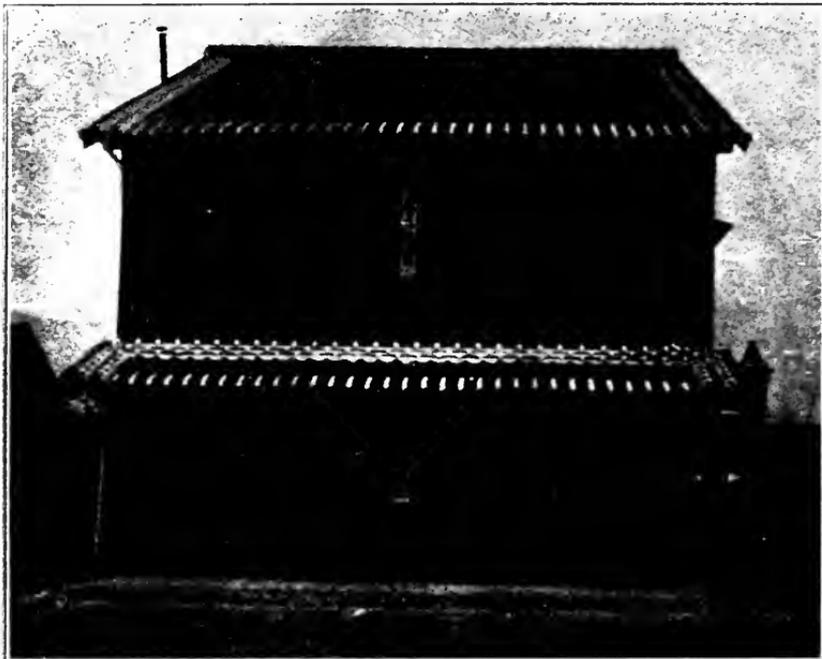

Most of the day pupils belonging to the upper school attend church and Sabbath-school, but the homes of our Kindergarten children are almost all unknown to us. Our native church here has a fine Sunday-school and the teachers of our Mission school carry on another in the busy market-place, in the house of a Christian baker. The oven is on one side, the baker's table and flour bags are on another, cake jars are in front, and our organ in the todana afield. But now I have to tell good news, for this long-time rented lot has recently been bought by our Board and Mission, partly with funds obtained by the sale of Tsukiji property, and partly with means raised on our Mission field.

TSU: on west coast of Gulf of Ise, about 200 miles a little south of west of Tokyo. Missionaries—Rev. John E. Hail and Mrs. Hail.

RESIGNATION: Miss Mary B. Cooper.

TRANSFERS: Miss Mary B. Sherman from Yamaguchi to Tsu; Miss Annie Hail from Osaka to Kanazawa; Miss Margaret Moore from Wakayama to Sapporo, of East Japan, for one year; Miss Evelyn Maguet to Osaka; Miss Ann E. Garvin from Osaka to Tsu.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. John E. Hail and Mrs. Hail, Rev. Harvey Brokaw and Mrs. Brokaw, Miss Mary H. Ransom, Miss Lillian A. Wells, Rev. W. Y. Jones, D.D., and Mrs. Jones, Rev. W. B. Langsdorf and Mrs. Langsdorf, Rev. G. W. Van Horn and Mrs. Van Horn; Rev. G. W. Fulton and Mrs. Fulton, Miss K. Anna Gibbons.

Under the plan of co-operation between the Mission and the Church of Christ, fully described in the last annual report, the evangelistic work of the Mission has been carried forward most harmoniously. The only addition to the Mission force during the year was Miss Annie Hail, daughter of the Rev. A. D. Hail, D.D., who returned to Japan with her father and mother under regular missionary appointment.

KANAZAWA STATION.

Mr. Fulton reports:

We had Evangelist Mr. Kimura Seimatsu with us for a short time in the latter part of September and early October. He is very earnest and straightforward in his preaching, and is very powerful in bringing people to decision. In all nearly 100 people expressed a desire to study Christianity or to lead a Christian life.

In October the twenty-fifth and twentieth anniversaries of the two churches in Kanazawa were celebrated by special efforts at evangelism. Messrs. Uemura and Kiyama were present and three or four days' meetings were held with crowded houses, resulting in about sixty inquirers.

Following the meeting of the National Convention of Christian Endeavor, two days' special meetings were held in all the places where work is being carried on, and the delegates to the Convention exerted themselves to give a forward impulse to the work as a whole. The meeting of the National Convention was quite a feature for the Hokurikudo, being the first meeting of its kind ever held in this section. It was looked forward to especially by the young people, and every effort was put forth to make it a success as well as a blessing. Certainly the attendance exceeded all expectations, and strong impressions were made upon all by the earnest addresses of the different speakers.

There have been baptisms at each of the out-stations of Daishoji, Komatsu, Takaoka and Toyama. Of Takaoka Mr. Fulton writes:

There have been five baptisms during the year. One an old man near seventy years of age, another a little girl of only nine years. The latter gave such clear evidence of having been born again, and at her examination her replies to questions asked her about her experience so deeply impressed the little company of Christians, that they all asked that she be received as a full member. Since becoming a Christian, she has won the admiration of her school-teachers by her conduct to such an extent that they have publicly commended her repeatedly, and on more than one public occasion have asked her to repeat Christian stories that she has learned at Sunday-school. I asked her how she showed that she was a Christian. She replied: "The other day I was walking up a hill and passed an old lady who had broken the thong of her wooden shoe and couldn't walk. She was greatly troubled, so I stopped and tore off a piece of my hand towel and tied the thong of her shoe. It made her very happy. Also, a few days ago, I was at a religious festival and found a little child crying there. She had gotten lost from her mother and couldn't find the way home. I knew where she lived, so I took her on my back and carried her home. That is the way I try to show that I love God." She said these things in such a simple earnest way, that among those who were listening there was not a dry eye, and when I asked them, "Shall we allow her to take the communion?" they all said "Yes." Just as I start for America she has sent me a letter, thanking me for teaching and baptizing her, and at the same time asks me to tell the Sunday-school pupils in America that she is trying to serve God among many who do not know Him, and asks them to pray for her.

The Yako now has a subscription list of 2,200. It continues to reach scattered inquirers in many places. Mr. Curtis finds it very useful in Korea, and Mr. Gorbald has a contingent of 800 around Kyoto.

The Kindergarten has been crowded with seventy children. The Kindergarten Mothers' Club, organized four years ago, has met twice a month. The cooking classes, Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor Societies have all done their work faithfully.

Hokuriku Girls' School.—Miss Luther reports:

Though ever since my return we have been planning for Government recognition and advertised our intentions, we regret to say the entering class in April was very small in comparison with those of several years back. About twenty-five entered, nearly all of them Kanazawa girls. Only three entered the dormitory. As a large number of the outgoing class were boarders, and as only these three new ones entered, we at present have only twenty students in the building. This is a disappointment, as we naturally have a stronger hold on the boarders than the day-pupils. Seventeen have been baptized since last Mission meeting. Four more have taken their examinations and are to be baptized as soon as they return in September. There are exactly 100 names on the roll and about one-third of them are baptized Christians.

Two years ago we reported a girl taken from the school because she became a Christian. She was baptized just before going home, as she feared she would never be allowed to either come back or attend a Christian service again. At first she was constantly ill-treated by her parents and an older sister. She took a position in a school as assistant teacher, going home every evening. By faithfully trying to obey parents, patiently enduring unkindness, and living a true Christian life both at home and in the school where she taught, she has now permission from home to come back and graduate. How happy she is, and what an encouragement to other girls who are afraid to take the step in opposition to those at home.

The brother of another student, through his sister's influence, has become so deeply interested in Christianity he has decided to go to Tokyo to study, hoping he may take up the ministry as his life's work. He wishes her to enter a Tokyo school, so they may be together, but she is begging to stay with us. Another result of the influence of a Christian life.

All the workers find as many opportunities as they have strength to embrace. Miss Gibbons tells of a visit to the Government primary schools in Fushiki, a fishing village near Takaoku, where she was invited to go to play for the children. She writes:

Of course the children were excited over the foreigner and crowded around, but when we reached the assembly room where the organ was, after I had played a few marches, they asked me to sing. I said, "English or Japanese?" and they replied "Either." I hardly thought I dared to sing hymns; but this teacher brought her hymn-book, handed one book to some of the other teachers and we all sang hymns for over an hour. There were over 1,000 children in the school, and they were allowed to come in by companies to hear us. Mr. Hayashi could not preach, of course, but he had a lot of tracts with him, and he went around talking with the teachers and gave them this literature. Although we were not allowed to preach, yet a great deal of Gospel can be taught by singing, and I am sure that we sang some that will be blessed to the good of some hearts some time. I don't think I ever had a harder time to get away from any place in my life before, and we had to rush in order to catch our train for our meeting in Takaoka.

OSAKA STATION.

The Ajikawa Church, Osaka, moved into its new building during the year. Mr. Van Horn reports of it and some of the country work:

Since the church was dedicated we have had three series of meetings with varying results. There were about 100 decided for the Christian life, i.e., Kesshin hito, and are ready for instruction.

The work in the province of Izumi is more encouraging than ever before in its history. At Sano, a town of some 10,000 people, we have had four baptisms in the last few months. After years of seemingly fruitless labor, the Lord has thus rewarded us. This may seem small to those unacquainted with the field. Six years ago, I was marched to the police station, half a mile away, hatless and shoeless, on a cold December night, at the head of a mob, because I was holding a Christian stereopticon meeting on the same night that there was a troupe at the theatre. Three young men and one young woman have broken away from the old conservative thought of their parents and come out on the side of Christ.

Dr. Murray and Dr. J. B. Hail conducted the Evangelists' Training School, teaching the young men especially by leadership in practical work. Dr. Murray writes:

The work in the school has gone steadily on, the number of students about the same as last year. As in the primitive church, our chief troubles have come through the "serving of tables." Some discipline has had to be exercised lately, but it has greatly cleared the atmosphere, and just at present the condition along all lines is very satisfactory. Five students were licensed at this Spring's Chukwai and all of them have been settled except one, who wishes to study somewhat longer in the school. Recently the course of study has been more thoroughly systematized; the students, hitherto all taught together as one class, have been divided into an upper and lower division of two years each, and a regular curriculum of study covering four years definitely laid out.

Dr. Hail writes:

One day when we started out on one of these house-to-house visitations I said to the young man who was with me, "How long a time do you propose to spend to-day in this work?" His reply was, "I do not know; I expect to stay in it until I have won a soul. I have asked God to give me at least one soul to-day."

On another occasion when I was out with another student, after we had been out from 2 until about 8 o'clock, he said to me on our way back to our homes, "Teacher, when I get to preaching Jesus to a man I forget that I am hungry."

Not only has this work given us an insight into the hearts of some of the students, it has also given us a greater confidence in the fact that the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation.

Hikata is one of our churches that has never had the services of a pastor. The elders of the church take on them all the work that usually falls on the pastor. They are supported by an earnest body of men and women who are all earnest workers. One night, after one of the theatre meetings, one of the elders telling about it said, "There was a man present who makes his living by gambling. The house was crowded, and the people were so quiet that you would not suspect that there was any one there. This gambler was sitting well up toward the front, and when he had listened to the sermons of the preachers he said, 'I intend from this on to live a different life.' Since that time he has opened his house for the meetings of the inquirers, and he has become a changed man. His conversion has had a great influence on the people and there are many inquirers."

At Kimiidera one day, as I was going from house to house, I called at the house of one of the Christian converts. I found the three Christian men of the place in earnest conference. I asked them what the subject of conference was. One of them answered, "As you know, the hymns that we teach at the kogisho are now sung by all the children in the school here." A Buddhist priest living in an adjoining village was very much incensed because his own boys were singing Christian hymns and has taken his children out of school. Not content with that, he made complaint both at the village headquarters and also at the school concerning the matter. As one of the teachers is a Christian and attends the meetings at the kogisho and conducts a class therein, he demanded that the teacher either be dismissed or that he be prohibited attending the Christian services.

One of the pleasant things we have met was a meeting we held just before starting for the Mission meeting. About three ri from Wakayama is the village of Miki. In the school here, where they employ ten teachers, eight of them are Christians. Two were baptized on the 8th of July. After the baptisms we adjourned to the house of the mayor of the village, where a preaching service was held. The mayor had called in all the leading men of the town and they listened patiently for three hours or more to the Gospel. Then, after partaking of a feast prepared for us, we returned to our homes.

Wilmina Girls' School.—Miss Morgan, who is at the head of the school, reports:

The enrollment during the last year was 254; average attendance about 200; new pupils 73. A class of thirty-six girls graduated from the academic department and five from the sewing department which is now closed. The opening of the new year in April was not as encouraging at first thought as we had expected, the enrollment of 195 being forty-six less than that of the year before, but the loss from the unusually large graduating class, the closed sewing department, and a smaller number of scholarship girls accounts for forty-four out of the forty-six, and we find that there are practically as many paying pupils in regular work as before.

Our records were not very closely kept for last year, but the following numbers are not overstated: Christians at opening April, 1907, 72; baptisms during the year, 33 (also two teachers and two of the March graduates were baptized); public decisions in Y. W. C. A., 15; making a total of 120 choosing the way of Christ out of the 254 enrolled. The whole graduating class of thirty-six took a public stand for the Christian life, three only being refused baptism by parents, and one of these has been baptized since.

Of the Young Women's Christian Association work in the school Miss Alexander writes:

The first thing to which I wish to call attention is the fact that our Y. W. C. A. is unique in that every student in the school is either an active or associate member of the organization. This means that every girl in school has openly committed herself to the recognized aim of the society—the attainment of a Christ-like character. No pressure was used to bring about this result. At the welcome meeting for the new students this Spring, the purpose of the society, its relation to the school, the duties of the members and the benefits to be derived from belonging to the organization were fully explained. A few weeks later, it was announced that new members would be received the following week. The younger girls were advised to consult their parents and gain their consent before uniting with the society. The result was the entrance of every new student.

Mr. Kimura was with us twice in June, and his Gospel talks were fruitful of immediate results. More than sixty girls signified their intention to be Christians, and these with the thirty who had already taken that step make ninety who are preparing for church membership. Some need more instruction, some are only hindered because they have not their parents' consent. It is with great joy that we report that all the girls in the five higher classes are either members of the Church or else preparing for the ordinance of baptism.

Another point of interest is worthy of mention—the quiet hour for Bible reading. For a period of fifteen minutes, just before the afternoon session begins, the girls repair to their class-rooms, where they have concert Bible reading in subdued tones. The readings, while under the oversight of the Y. W. C. A., are selected by the teachers of the various Bible classes with reference to the subjects being taught. The influence of this hour upon the school is very evident in its quieting effect upon the girls.

A training class for teachers in the primary department has had an average of twenty-five in attendance. I have myself had charge of two Sunday-schools out from the city a few miles With two assistants I have left the school Sunday morning, usually getting back by dark.

WOMAN'S WORK.—All the members of the Station have been busy in classes or schools or church work. Miss Garvin reports:

In Haze village the principal family is that of Yiobayashi. All that was left of it last year was three generations of widows. The oldest, a woman of sixty-two, had been a notoriously loud and wicked character, a sake-drinker, gambler, and home-abuser. But she was first to believe, the two younger women and four of the villagers following her example later. She opened her house for weekly services and for Sunday-school. Pastor Sudzuki, of Sakai, as well as the Bible woman, visits there once a week. When we went to Haze to attend their Christian services, I asked Mrs. Yiobayashi what words in the Bible had led her first to believe. Without a moment's hesitation she pointed to Pastor Suzuki and said, "He was my Bible." Then the daughter in turn pointed to her, saying, "And she was my Bible. The first thing that arrested my attention was the great change in my mother." In fact that whole country-side has been compelled to notice this change and to associate it with Christianity. Late in the Winter Mrs. Yiobayashi's earthly life suddenly ended, and a great company of people came to attend the first Christian funeral in that region. It was thought that this Christian death would have its fruit in yet more conversions there.

The number of house-to-house visits with open Bible which it is now possible to make in Osaka is so large that it is limited only by the time of the missionary.

HIROSHIMA AND MATSUYAMA STATIONS.

Dr. Langsdorf has had charge of both these fields since Mr. Bryan's removal to Manchuria. Through a generous gift of Dr. W. W. Atterbury the new church building has been erected in Matsuyama. Dr. Langsdorf writes:

The work connected with the Hiroshima Station has greatly prospered. Iwakuni: Two baptisms; over 100 in the Sunday-school; a flourishing young men's organization; good women's meetings, about fourteen or more present monthly; evangelist licensed at the Spring meeting of Presbytery; members somewhat discouraged because of many deaths and removals, but will be good for their faith; accepted as a Dendo Kyokwai by Presbytery last September.

The Hiroshima Fukuinkwan, which was established only a little over three years ago, is in a very flourishing condition—more so than any other organization in the Presbytery. Twelve baptisms in last year; total membership forty-nine, one of these an infant; fine young men's organization, fourteen members and all earnest, active Christians; at several special meetings for men only fifty to sixty present; about ninety-five in Sunday-school; fine women's meetings. I had German and Japanese Bible classes, too, attended by professors and teachers of Higher Normal College, Normal School, physicians and students. Mrs. Langsdorf had English and Japanese Bible classes; house-to-house visitation.

Miss Cooper reports:

At the request of seven of the students in the third year class of the Yamanaka Girls' School in Hiroshima, a Bible class has been opened in my home. The Buddhist influence in this school is very strong, owing to the fact that they have received money from that source for building purposes, and all but three members of the faculty are strong Buddhists. The opposition of the teachers and priests has prevented our doing any work in this school for about two years until now.

KYOTO STATION.

Mr. Gorbold's report covers an extensive, well-planned and well-administered work, including Bible schools almost every day in the week for children and students. He writes:

The preaching place in Nishijin (West Kyoto) and also the one at Ni Jo and Sakai Station are prospering and are a source of strength to the church and lights in the communities where they are located. More attend the meetings at these places than ever before. The careful distribution of 10,000 announcements and a personal invitation in almost as many homes has doubtless helped not a little in securing the attendance. By billboard advertising, of which I have made a specialty, the people come to realize that they are wanted at Christian meetings even though they are not members. The tent meetings have kept up interest as usual and bring to thousands the seeds of truth.

A small room in our house has an outside door to the porch, and in this I had matting laid and placed some good seats which were purchased from the Doshisha Hospital. A notice on the front gate for twenty-four hours brought a throng of bright girls and boys to a meeting in this room, but it soon overflowed and two classes for girls occupy two rooms in the other part of the house, while the two classes for boys are taught in this little baggage room. One hundred and forty are enrolled and half that number fill the rooms to overflowing. A man will be baptized next Sunday who was led through his little girl, who came to this Sunday-school and carried away now and then a tract which the father read and thus came to inquire more fully and to go to church. In this same room I have held the regular Saturday night Bible class, which is attended by teachers and students from many schools as well as by business men.

In all the ten English student Bible classes the American Revised New Testament is used. By special arrangement the students can buy a very good copy of this book for 20 sen or 10 cents gold.

As for the hundreds of children in the Sunday-school the matter of cards is a great problem. It is out of the question to give them Sunday-school papers on account of lack of funds. But they must have something to take home with them for study and to show to their parents and brothers and sisters, or one of the greatest opportunities for reaching these homes is lost. This great need and opportunity led to the adoption of a system which has already proved itself worthy of filling this great need. This plan is calculated to bring up a Bible-loving and Scripture-memorizing generation of children. The plan is as simple as it is effective. When a boy or girl comes for the first time he receives a small slip of paper (not so thick as a card). On this card is printed Gen. 1, 1 in both English and Japanese. The card is numbered "I." If the boy comes the next time (or some time) and repeats this verse, he receives No. "II." If he does not memorize the verse he receives nothing. The reciting of these verses is made the first order of each meeting. Each teacher records in a large book the names of the children and the numbers of the verses which they have memorized. After the lesson for the day has been taught, all the children together repeat all the verses learned to date. I have never heard sweeter music than the voices of a hundred children repeating these precious truths from God's Word.

Until we get the children we will not find stalwart life-long Christians in Japan. The children are the great evangelizing force in Japan to-day, and next to the little children come the older ones whom we call students. We hope to see a network of children's meetings spread over the city, until there shall be no street and no home which will not furnish children to swell the numbers of the great army of children who are so eager to sing the hymns and hear the Gospel story of our Christ.

The many callers and inquirers who come to our home opens a wonderful opportunity and one of the greatest encouragements in the work. The outlook along all lines of work is most marvelous and inspiring.

Thanks to the generosity of visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Gamble and Mr. Severance, provision has been made for a suitable headquarters for the student work.

Of the Kindergartens Mrs. Gorbold reports:

Both Kindergartens have had a flourishing year, with many on the waiting list at each place. Some parents turn away in tears because their children cannot be admitted. One woman wrathfully denounced Christianity because the Christian Kindergarten can't admit her child, who is at least on the waiting list.

During the year two of the children have gone to the upper fold. The truly Christian death of one whose last breath was spent in singing "Jesus Loves Me" led her parents to study Christianity, and they are now members of the Church.

We have many guests at the Marguerite Ayres Kindergarten and the almost universal verdict is, "This is the most interesting thing I have seen in Kyoto," or some similar expression of pleasure.

The Nishijin Sunday-school has had a more satisfactory year than usual on account of having a larger corps of teachers. There have been over 300 enrolled and a frequent attendance of 125 or thereabouts.

Dr. Jones has given as much time as he could, in view of the continued ill health of Mrs. Jones, to the work in South Kyoto, where there are 200,000 people, many of them in the immediate neighborhood of the head temples of the influential Buddhist sects, for whom relatively little is being done.

YAMAGUCHI STATION.

Girls' Boarding School.—In the Kojo Jo Gakuin seventy-five pupils were registered, twenty-two of them Christians. Eight pupils did not miss a day during the school year, and four have not missed a day for two years. The average attendance was the highest in the history of the school. During the Spring term the average was fifty-four.

The Morning Star Kindergarten has had thirty-five or thirty-six names on the roll during the entire year.

Of the EVANGELISTIC WORK in the Station, Miss Wells reports:

Last Fall some of the nurses in training at the Ken Hospital began coming to our house on Sunday afternoons. The matron of their department, not a Christian herself, gave the girls permission to go anywhere they wished on Sundays (their only rest day), provided it was where they would hear Christian teaching. Nine or ten availed themselves of the permission and went to church morning and evening and to our house in the afternoon. We filled up the time with singing and a short Bible talk. They bought Testaments and hymn books, and said they tried to sing the hymns whenever they had a little leisure. In February two or three of them made inquiries about baptism, but it was thought to be a little too soon. In March the class graduated and scattered. When the new class got fairly started, seven or eight of them began to come as the others had done, as often as they had the time. It is a pleasure to have them come on Sunday afternoons, for they enjoy the singing so much. One of them told me that whenever any of our Christians are sick, these nurses take their hymn-books to the sick one's room and they all sing, for they enjoy it so much. The matron comes with the girls to church sometimes, and I hope this class will not graduate before some of their number have given themselves to the Master.

The children's weekly meetings at Ogari (nine miles away) have been continued regularly through the year, but the preaching services have been very irregular. From the time cold weather began the attendance increased till our place was crowded, there being between eighty and ninety children seated and a dozen or more adults, and an equal number of children standing outside.

The preaching places at Mitajiri, Yanai and Tokuyama have all become "Dendo Kyokwai." We have been to each of these places for women's meetings, all of which have been pretty well attended. We have also been to Hagi, Tsuwano, Chofu, Moji and Shimonoseki for work. The work at Hagi is in a very discouraging condition, but it may be only the darkest hour before the morning. The church at Moji has been enlarged and fixed up generally and is much better than ever before. The women's meetings there are always well attended.

The church in Shimonoseki was without a pastor for several months, but recently they called some one and he is probably there by this time. Their Sunday-school has been reorganized, new methods tried, and they now have an attendance of over 100 children and seven teachers, and the attendance at church is better also.

Weddings, funerals, calling, callers, all these have filled the days. In Miss Nishi I have had a most efficient and consecrated helper and companion, and her forgetfulness of self in the interests of the work has been the means of influencing many to feel that the Christian life is not a sham nor a shame.

FUKUI STATION.

Mr. Dunlop writes:

In Fukui City there have been twelve baptisms since September, but there have been the usual number of removals, and the membership is actually little larger than before. It has grown, however, in the spirit of responsibility and in financial strength.

We have in our central chapel at Fukui a better Sunday-school than ever before, the attendance ranging from fifty to seventy, and the school well organized and with a good staff of volunteer teachers. I have had, besides a Bible class in Japanese in the Sunday-school, two Bible classes of Normal School students, in which the instruction is given in the usual way in such classes, partly in English and partly in Japanese.

Mrs. Dunlop resumed her cooking class last Fall, which has been well attended by wives of officials and others of the better-to-do class.

Upon returning to Fukui we found that many of our former friends of the official class had either left the city or were soon to leave. These changes include the governor of the prefecture, the mayor of the city, the principals of normal, middle, and agricultural schools, the chief of police of the city, the prefectural superintendent of police, the prefectural secretary, and the chief public prosecutor.

We never lack a fixed audience of fifteen to twenty, and recently I baptized three adults there, one of them being an old lady of ninety-two, great-aunt of Evangelist Kuchimura, the oldest person I have ever baptized or seen baptized. She said that she "did not understand the doctrine well, but she believed," and wished to be baptized, and upon examination I found that she certainly understood enough and that she had an intelligent and warm faith, and I counted it an unusual privilege to be allowed to admit such an one to the Church of Christ,

KURE STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Brokaw were obliged to come home for a part of the year on account of Mrs. Brokaw's health. They were on the field long enough to supervise the erection of the new Mission house at Kure. The out-station work is in better condition than a year ago.

WAKAYAMA STATION.

Dr. J. B. Hail reports:

The whole Wakayama field is divided into five circuits. The most central field is that which has for its centre Tanabe. Seven of these towns are on the coast road leading south from Tanabe. The farthest is fifty miles distant. Mr. Ito visits each of these places once in two months. The other three towns are on the mountain road that leads to Shingu. The farthest is forty-five miles from Tanabe. In all, the number of inquirers in this circuit, including the town of Tanabe, is about 100. The second circuit extends from Tanabe to Hikata. Twice during the year the whole field has been visited by the evangelist in company with another worker. The workers held street preaching services in all the towns, from three to five services being held each day. On these occasions the night services were full and the people were not wearied after three or four hours' services.

A third circuit consists of the towns of Hikata and Kimiidera and the city of Wakayama. The church at Hikata has had a year of steady growth. The present membership is seventy-five. Twice during the year they have held meetings in the theatre. On both occasions the house was filled to its utmost capacity. The order was perfect. The people came to hear the Gospel, and although on each occasion the services lasted over three hours, there was no manifestation of impatience on the part of the audience. Among the fruits of one of these meetings was the conversion of a notorious gambler.

In the city of Wakayama the church dedicated its new house of worship on the 3d of November and on the same day installed its pastor.

In all there have been thirty-three baptisms during the year.

A fourth field comprises the villages of Kokawa, Ozu, Nate and Karishiku.

Mrs. Hail reports:

Among our most faithful workers is an old lady over seventy years of age, who worships with us and devotes a large part of her time to the work. Her home is in a distant province and she is not a member of the Nippon Kinso Kiyokwai. She came to Wakayama two years ago, expressly to bring her son, who belongs to another house, to Christ. Two weeks ago the whole family, father, mother and four children, were baptized.

TANABE STATION.

Of the work in Tanabe Miss Leavitt writes:

I have no touring to report this year. Every day since our last Mission meeting has been spent in my Station, Tanabe, and all work done has been in connection with the church there. Its regular Sunday and week-day services I have attended regularly, giving such help as I could with the music. I have supplied Bible lessons on Sundays in the pastor's absence, and taught our English Bible class every Sunday evening. Lately, instead of the Bible, Mrs. Curtis' book, "The Story of Salvation," has been used in this class.

Four Sunday-schools are carried on in the town. My two helpers and I are responsible for one in a preaching place in the eastern suburb, and we teach in and feel almost as much responsible for the larger school in the church. The attendance here has not fallen below 100 in the past year and has gone up to 148, besides the six teachers and superintendent and the pastor of the church. The Sunday-school has an average of seventy.

There seems to have been an effort to secure Christian teachers in the public schools. In place of but two last year there are now seven in the town, besides one who teaches in a village near by.

The special evangelistic effort of the Dendo Kyoku last Spring, which gave us a visit from Mr. Kirjama and Mr. Baba, proved a blessing to the church. Very thorough preparation, both in prayer and arrangements, was made for weeks before the meetings, which were held but three days. Forty persons gave in their names as inquirers. These were divided into three classes—heads of families, young men and girls—and each class is still taught weekly according to its needs.

One Sunday afternoon four young men came to ask particularly about Sabbath keeping. It was an opportunity I had long wanted, so I tried to make the best of it. For three hours we talked—not disputing and arguing, but searching the Law and Gospel to find God's purposes toward us concerning the Sabbath. One man—a working-man—seemed to wish to evade its requirements; another, a teacher, found no difficulty in accepting them; another, a merchant's son, said he only wanted to find out what was right, whether it was hard or easy; but, according to his idea of the day as one of spiritual refreshment and peace of mind, his conscience wouldn't let him selfishly leave all the work of the house and shop to the rest of the family, after he himself had enjoyed the morning in Sunday-school and church. Feeling that there was still much for each one to learn, we had to leave the subject with prayer for enlightenment and courage to see and do God's will in this. It is a sorrow, shared doubtless by each one here, that the church keeps the day so indifferently, but their difficulties are many.

Last year one young man was dismissed from the church for immoral conduct. This case of discipline was the first for many years, but it had a wholesome effect on both the church and the town. The church certainly has gained a recognized influence in the place and is regarded as a helpful factor in it. This was shown when the pastor was planning to begin a kindergarten in the church building. Several men, not Christians, offered aid; the town office donated a quantity of supplies and money to pay for necessary repairs and changes in the building. A judge's wife, who had been a kindergarten teacher, freely gave her help and advice in getting it started. Only one teacher is regularly employed, with a young girl to help her. My two helpers give their time free of charge. None of them have had any previous training. As a kindergarten, it is absurdly imperfect in equipment; but as a way to make friends with the children and their parents and showing them the value Christians place on these little ones, it is a great success. The daily attendance is about seventy.

Miss Moore reports:

We have kept up two Sunday-schools, one on Sunday mornings and one in the afternoon. In the former we have ninety-nine enrolled, but often those present exceed that number. We have three teachers in this school. The latter, which is for the fishermen's children, can hardly be called a Sunday-school; it has been called "a spot on the 'hama,' " i.e., beach. And so it is, for we have no house, but hold our meetings out on the sand. But these have been held regularly and we have an enrollment of fifty-five.

YAMADA STATION.

Mr. Hereford reports regarding the new church building and other hopeful features of the work:

The Christians are taking great interest in the building, and we hope that it may prove a blessing to them and to many others. Some unbelievers have volunteered to help. The building is to be finished by the middle of September. We hope to see them become self-supporting pretty soon after the building is completed.

There were five young men in the graduating class of the Yamada Middle School who had been brought into the church through the English classes. The graduating class numbered fifty-six, and the first, second, and fifth men in the class were Christians. I invited the five to our home the night after their graduating for a farewell meeting with them. I talked to them about their life-work. I told them of the importance of their plans for life coinciding with the plans of God. I assured them that they would receive smaller salaries and have harder work to do in the ministry than in other professions, but told them that doing God's will meant peace of heart. One of them said that he had intended being a "rice merchant" and making a great deal of money, which he intended to use for the glory of God, but that now he was sure that he was called of God to the work of the ministry. He met strong opposition in his home, but was firm in his decision. The day before he left for school, he came to our home to make a farewell call, and while he was there his father came with a box of cakes and a string of thanks, as an offering to us for the teaching and help that we had given his son. Both father and son were surprised and confused when they met, but the son was glad to know that his father was thanking us and not cursing us for what we had done for him.

The visible results of the year's work in the whole Yamada field are sixty-three baptisms, one church repaired, one church now in course of construction, and considerable advance in self-support. In this work we have been helped by Miss Riker, four evangelists, two Bible women, and about 125 Christians.

Miss Riker writes:

In Yamada the smallest class and easiest work has been most fruitful in visible results. My girls' English class is small in numbers and irregular in attendance, but the five young ladies have all been baptized since last September.

Although the master of the Yamada Orphanage is an ex-Shinto priest, he allows us to go and teach the children.

TSU STATION

After the departure on furlough of the Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Hail, Miss Garvin took up the work at Tsu. Mr. Hail writes:

One of the men baptized at Kameyama was a large sake brewer, who gave up his whole business at a heavy financial loss in order to become a Christian. It had been the business of his house for generations. Among the vats which had been used by his family in brewing sake were some made of fine Keyaki wood several hundred years old. In destroying the vats it occurred to this man, Mr. Mori, that it would be better still to use that wood in making a pulpit for our chapel at Kameyama, so he is having that done.

I have continued the practice of speaking to the students of the Ueno Third Middle School in their school on "Religious and Moral Subjects" on every visit to the city, this being the request of the school authorities.

One of the men baptized at Haze was the son of the man who built the chapel at this place. He had been very wild and was accustomed to declare that when his generation came he would tear down the church and sweep Christianity out of the village. He is now treasurer of the fund which the Christians have started for enlarging the church building.

In Tsu alone there is much more than enough work to keep several missionaries busy. Once a week I have taught a class in Homiletics and Apologetics. The public school teachers' Bible class meets every Saturday afternoon, and the Normal School Bible class twice a week. I have also several classes in the Young Men's Club recently organized by the church. Besides this, there are several hundred inquirers secured at the Tsu Exposition last year, with whom I have carried on an irregular correspondence during the past year. In the special Taikyo Dendo meetings held here, covering about two and a half weeks in point of time, there were 117 or more decisions to accept Jesus the Christ as Saviour, some twenty-five Sunday-school children being included in this number. Among the remainder thirty-seven were Normal School students, several public school teachers, two or three of the younger men in the Appellate Court, and other prefectural officials.

Miss Garvin writes further of the work at Haze and of the converted brewer at Shano:

The Bible woman supplies the pulpit, keeps up the prayer meeting and Sunday-school, and acts as pastor to the Christian community. She is young, a graduate of the Kyoritsu Jo Gakko, Yokohama, and has served acceptably in Haze for one year. She said that she, like Samuel, was when a child given by her parents to the Lord for service. The meetings in Haze, I am told, have practically to be dropped for two months in Summer and again for two months in Winter, because the whole village has to give its attention to the silk-worm industry.

The leading Christian at Shano was a sake brewer. Upon becoming a Christian in February he at once sold all of his sake brewing outfit. Though offered a good price for it by other sake brewers, he sold it at less profit than it might not again be used for a bad purpose. He also sold his costly Buddhist shrine. The place where the sake vats once stood is now filled with looms for weaving flags. About thirty men and women are employed for the looms. On Sunday they are given a day of rest and are assembled in their employer's house to hear the Gospel.

The Drennan Memorial Church was dedicated March 4. Its tower lights can be seen afar. Its seating capacity is 500 and it stands on a lot of perhaps two acres.

About sixty young men from the Tsu schools continued their Bible study with Mr. Hail till he left, and I have undertaken to keep up these classes in his absence.

DAIREN STATION.

Mr. Winn reports of the work at Dairen in Manchuria, where he is acting as pastor of the Japanese church:

The organization of the church was effected, four excellent men being elected as elders. One was at the head of the police department of Dairen, while another had until recently been at the head of the hospital of the South Manchurian Railroad Company.

We had as guests on the occasion the Chief of the Civil Administration of Dairen, one of the Directors of the South Manchurian Railroad, the United States Consul, and the English Vice-Consul. The Chief of the Civil Administration made a speech of congratulation, in which he expressed the best wishes for the success of the work which the church is doing. As I listened to his words, and connected with them the fact that the "Kwantung Government" had aided in the erection of the beautiful building we were dedicating to God's glory, I could but marvel at the changed attitude of the Japanese Government toward the Church.

I am obliged to say that for the first of the time during the past year we felt something of discouragement.

After a special week of prayer the conditions changed greatly for the better.

The church Y. M. C. A. on two occasions rented the largest hall they could, and each time for three nights in succession held Christian lecture meetings. I was wonderfully impressed at the time with the fine spirit shown and the earnest efforts made to reach others with some knowledge of the Gospel. They had crowded houses every night.

Another unusual thing which occurred was a union day of sports. The union was that of the Church, the Sunday-school, the Charity Hospital, the International Y. M. C. A. night-school, and the Salvation Army Rescue Home. Early on the morning of April 3 there was a general concourse at the church, from which the procession took its way to the Tiger Park. Banners waved and Christian songs were sung as we moved through the streets. A large place in the Park had been partitioned off for our use, and flags of all nations were strung on ropes waving in many directions. The time from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. was filled with games and sports. At the noon intermission 1,200 lunches were necessary to supply the crowd inside the grounds. Outside there was a throng of several thousands, who from close by or from the hills at a little distance enjoyed watching the sports. With the exception of two or three times in deciding who were the winners in close contests, there was scarcely an excited word spoken during the day. The crowd saw how clean sports and recreation could be conducted. It was a splendid object lesson to the people of Dairen. A squad of policemen who were on duty said that it was the easiest day's work they had ever had on such an occasion: indeed that they had nothing to do that day. I stood in a booth with one of the elders, kept busy in distributing prizes the whole day. It was truly a grand day of its kind, far beyond any thought of mine as to what it would be. But the cost was beyond what I imagined it would be also. Over 300 yen were paid out, including the cost of the lunches. The exercises on the ground were opened with a hymn, Scripture reading and prayer. They were closed in the same way. Everybody felt repaid for the work done and the time given to the field day; and a few evenings later the church was filled with people that had gathered to give thanks for the success of the day.

Another very interesting evening was one which was devoted to meeting and encouraging a number who had signified their desire and determination to become Christians. These inquirers were guests of the evening. While tea and cake were enjoyed, they were encouraged to introduce themselves with a few words about their personal history. After the guests had spoken, the hosts of the hour gave one by one some things of their own personal history and told of the way in which they had been led to become Christians. These speeches were a succession of the most interesting and telling experiences that I remember to have heard on any occasion. The grace of God was magnified, and the blessings of the Gospel were illuminated. I was deeply thankful that I had not yielded to bodily weariness and gone home in the midst of the meeting. To one who feels the loss of regular sleep as I do, late hours are a horror. But I was glad enough to have stayed for that meeting, though it continued till nearly midnight. It was a meeting when remarkable testimony was given of God's presence and guidance of individuals.

The testimony of one was that he had heard that the true God was the Father in Heaven. He lost his father when a young boy and had not known what it was to have the love of an earthly father. The longing for a father's love led him to seek God. I never heard of a similar experience. Another said that he went to San Francisco, thinking that he would gain wealth in America and bring it back to Japan. But he found what he did not think of seeking, and yet which was more precious to him than many riches. Another said that he used to glory in his unbelief and had joined others in persecuting a man in like business with himself because he was a Christian. But the spirit of love which the persecuted man showed moved his own heart and led him to begin the study of the Bible in earnest. One more statement was that the speaker's mother was a Christian, and when he left home as a young man she gave him a New Testament. But he put it away and did not look at it. Several years after that he was walking along a stream during a tramp into the country. A friend who was with him, though not a Christian, began to sing a Christian hymn. That hymn made such an impression upon his heart that, soon after his return to his boarding place, he got out that New Testament, to find that it was interesting to him. He went to the Christian preaching place and, like an ordinary unbeliever and as if he knew nothing about the ways of Christians, stood outside to listen to what was said. When only the preacher and missionary were left, he went inside to ask for instruction in the truth. That was the beginning of the Christian life for him. Yet one other said that he went to Osaka to get an education and seek his fortune. He soon found himself without money and without friends. As a means for getting a living, he became a policeman. While in that employment he sought an introduction to a missionary, hoping to be taught English. But before he had courage to make his request, it was suggested to him that he should come on certain days to study the Bible. He agreed to it out of mere politeness. He had once seen a Bible, but on opening it at the first of Genesis and reading a few verses, he had slammed it down upon the floor with a feeling that he never wanted to see it again. He continued to read it this time for several weeks without any interest in it, till he read Matt. xxiii. 37, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem," etc. Those words went through his heart like a spear and led him to study the Bible with earnest desire to know its teachings.

Mr. and Mrs. Winn have visited also the Japanese communities at New Chwang, Liao-Yang, Mukden and Dai Sekkyo. Mrs. Winn writes:

During June we held the first union women's meeting ever held in Manchuria, to which the women's societies at Port Arthur and Kinchin were invited. It was an all-day meeting and our women worked hard to get it up. The morning meeting was a prayer meeting conducted by themselves; at noon all were provided with lunches, and in the afternoon we had two addresses, the first being on the care of young children by an elder of the church, who is a prominent physician, and the second on the subject of salvation by Mr. Yamamura of the Salvation Army, who was fortunately in Dairen at the time. These addresses were listened to with great interest by over eighty women, with a fringe of men around the edges who were curious to see a women's meeting. We had special songs by some of our best singers among the women and by Sunday-school children and a quartette of male voices. At the close of the meeting afternoon tea was served.

I have undertaken a little new work this year in writing, as I was urgently invited to do, for one of our daily papers a series of articles on hygiene, and for a mothers' magazine on training of children.

We have recently received into the church by profession of faith a Christian who had long been a special subject of prayer. He was the husband of a lovely Christian woman. He was so long in reaching a decision that I could hardly believe he ever would become a Christian, especially as his wife told me that he thought he could never give up the use of sake. But he was touched by the Spirit of God and it did not take him long to decide that he could and would live a Christian life. I think his wife could hardly have rejoiced more than we did when he made profession of his faith.

PORT ARTHUR.

Mr. Bryan reports:

My work has been largely that of English teaching in two night-schools in both the army and naval headquarters, as well as privately in the home. I have had an interesting Bible class in Japanese in my house Sunday evenings and have carried on a Sunday-school for children in the afternoon. The English teaching has given me an opportunity of reaching with the Gospel those who otherwise would not have listened.

The welcome given us in Port Arthur by Christians and non-Christians and the calls made on our time convince us that the Mission decided wisely in locating a family in Port Arthur.

Mrs. Bryan writes:

Our opportunities to present Christian truth in Port Arthur are far greater than I have ever found them in Japan, because they are so far from relatives and have little in the way of pastime.

WORK AMONG THE JAPANESE IN KOREA.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, while retaining their connection with the West Japan Mission, have been assigned to Korea for work among the 120,000 Japanese resident in the peninsula. Mr. Curtis' reports:

Of the ten months in Korea, I have spent six in touring and the remainder in Seoul. Almost everywhere we have found abundant opportunities for service. In nine of the eighteen places visited no Christian work had been previously done. We have looked up and recorded about 300 people. Of these 114 were Christians, 57 inquirers, and 123 others, many of whom may be classed as adherents or sympathizers. With nearly all these personal conversation has been had.

Among the points at which special work has been done were Kunsan, where there are 3,000 Japanese resident, where the Christians welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Curtis gladly and advertised meetings to be held in their own houses, and came night after night to about ten services, and where twenty-one Christians and fifteen inquirers, agreeing to contribute twenty yen monthly, had sent in a request to the Japanese Home Mission Board for a permanent evangelist. At Mokpo (3,000 Japanese) the unbelieving put to shame the nominal Christians, for the Town Hall was open to us for meetings, and the Resident called together the policemen and gendarmes for a meeting at the Residency. Yongpo, 500 Japanese; Kwangju, 500 Japanese; Taiku, 3,000 Japanese, which was the most unresponsive place of all; Masampo, 2,500 Japanese. The change in atmosphere between this place and Taiku, metaphorically and actually, was enormous, and our hearts took fresh courage. Here warm-hearted Christian workers, in a newly hired, modest little meeting room, welcomed us, and for several consecutive nights souls were led and prayed into the kingdom, and then we had several more nights for the instruction of the new believers. Some of these Christians seemed unable to tear themselves away from their beloved church home, and stayed on till 12 or 1 o'clock night after night, singing and praying. Fusan, 18,000 Japanese, with an evangelist of the Church of Christ in Japan; Yongsan, 3,000 Japanese; Seoul, 17,000 Japanese. The wife of the Resident and a judge and his wife, in high position, are professing Christians, and have now begun to attend the services. Chief Justice Watanabe, quiet and unassuming, but very pleasant and efficient, is a true help and his judgment and devotion to the Master makes his advice most valuable. While I was on my second trip he preached twice to the great gratification of the hearers. He gives time from his busy life for conference whenever needed.

The importance of Christian work at this crisis cannot be measured—not only as relates to the Japanese nation and people in Korea, but to the Japanese nation and to the Koreans as well. In every quarter of Korea the influence of the Japanese is being increasingly felt, and their influence on the future of the peninsula is immeasurable in its potentialities. Just what this influence shall be for moral and spiritual good or ill depends upon the measure of Christianity they possess.

THE KOREA MISSION.

The Korea Mission has had another great year. The remarkable movement which has challenged the attention of the world continues with unabated force. We have great reason for gratitude to God and yet reason too for humility of spirit. Last year's report amazed and delighted the whole Church, but this year's report is even more remarkable, as will be seen in the statistical table at the end of this report.

It is plain that the Holy Spirit is working in Korea on a vast scale, and that all should unite in special prayer and should at the same time redouble effort, that this unprecedented opportunity may be rightly utilized.

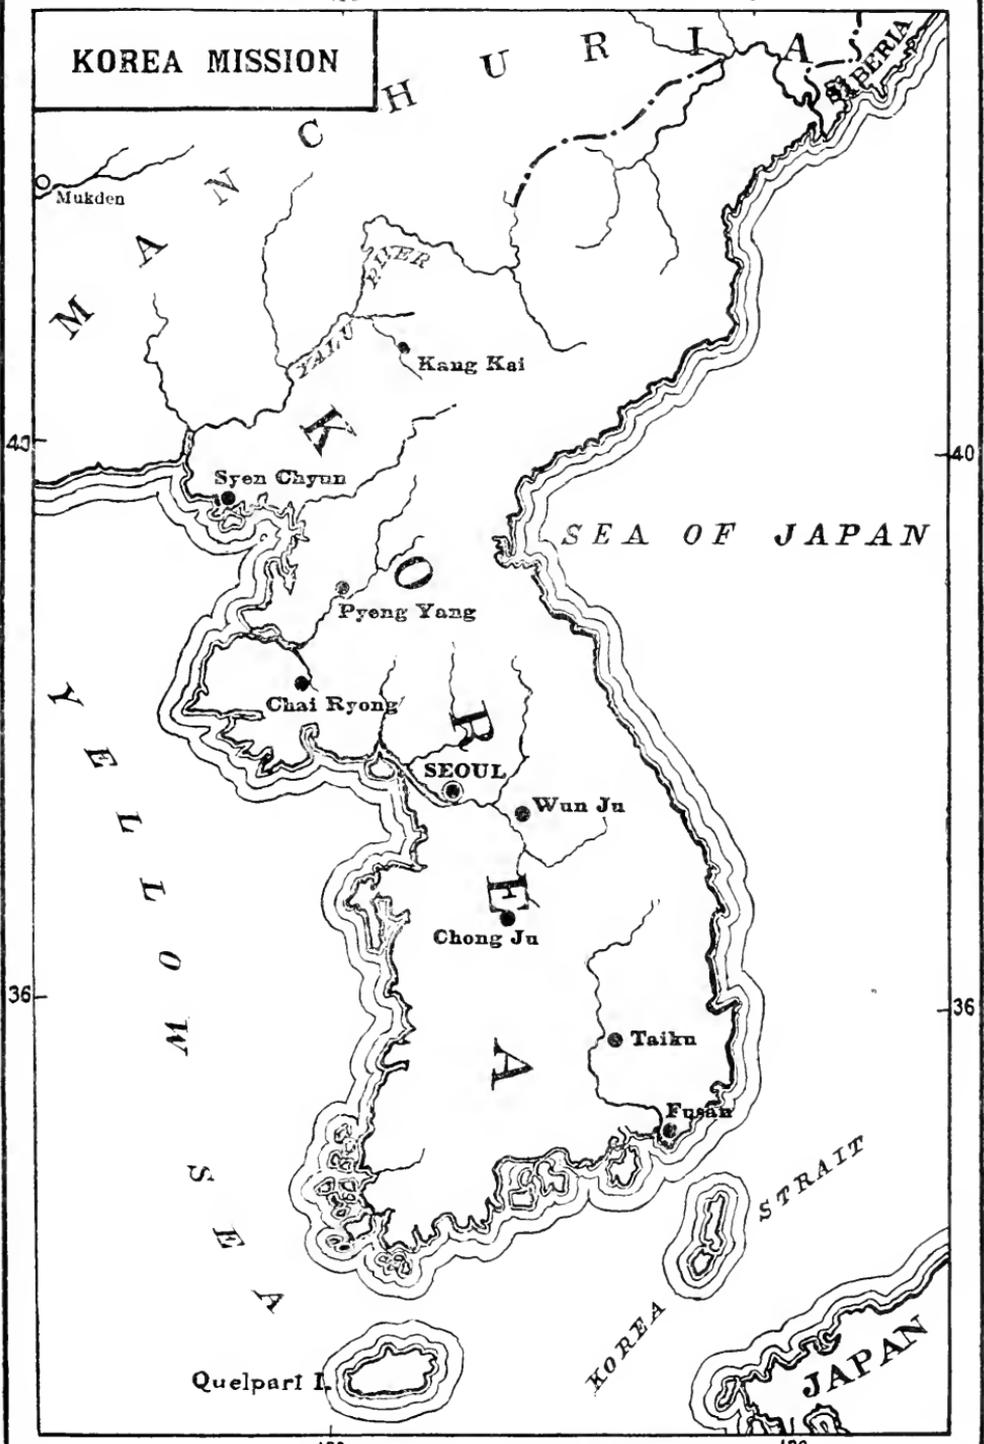

We are in the midst of an educational revolution. Schools spring up in a night, heathen and Christian. The Governor starts schools; the magistrate starts schools; the Myun officials start schools; the town officials start schools and the villages start schools. Seven school boards lay hold of the flowing coat tails of one poor teacher. Salaries have gone up, and the Pyeng Yang graduate is the man of the hour. Thanks to Dr. Baird, his boys stand like rocks, and by the valuable work they do repay him for all his careful toil. During the year four academies, as yet including only the lower classes, have been largely conducted by Pyeng Yang Academy graduates.

It has been interesting to see how the school ideals have changed, and how the demand for up-to-date teachers has made old Confucian scholars lose their proud seats, giving place to those who know both Chinese and the Western sciences. So strong has been the leadership of the Church that many unbelievers have sent their children to church schools. Schools financed by unbelievers have sought church officers to come and run them. The course of study used in the church schools has been the pattern for unbelievers' schools as well.

The year has not been free from anxiety, however. The unsettled condition of the country, due to the readjustments which the Japanese are inaugurating, has of course interfered to some extent with the work, though not as seriously as we had feared. The very interesting work among the Japanese in Korea by the Rev. F. S. Curtis is reported in connection with the West Japan Mission.

The movement to secure additional reinforcements and equipment, inaugurated by the Board December 2, 1907, and popularly known as "The Korea Propaganda," has been vigorously prosecuted during the year by the members of the Mission who were at home on furlough. The Rev. H. G. Underwood, D.D., gave practically his entire time to this work, speaking and traveling in many different States. He was ably assisted by the Rev. Ernest F. Hall, the Rev. R. H. Sidebotham, and Dr. A. M. Sharrocks; while other missionaries returning on furlough took hold as they arrived, notably Dr. O. R. Avison and the Rev. William M. Baird, D.D. Other missionaries have given material assistance and many friends have co-operated. The total receipts to the credit of the Korea Propaganda Fund to date are $90,170.42, and the number of new missionaries sent out during the year, including wives, was 13.

An unusual number of visitors cheered the missionaries during the year. The missionaries write:

Of all the visits this year from friends at home that of Mr. L. H. Severance and his companion, Dr. Ludlow, left the greatest impression on the Mission, especially along educational lines. The impetus which Mr. Severance gave us will last for years to come. He came, as we have long wished that the laymen leaders of our Church at home might come, to study our work with us, help us to see our mistakes and to correct them; and he stayed long enough to accomplish what he came to do. He did us good. The visit of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Gamble was another such blessing. We only wish we could have seen more of them. Their time was limited, but they made us feel their sympathy, and their helpfulness will long be remembered.

To the deep regret of all, ill health prevents the return to Korea of Miss Mary B. Barrett.

The sudden and tragic death of the Rev. R. H. Sidebotham, December 3, brought sorrow to the whole Church. He had been indefatigable in his labors in connection with the Korea Propaganda, and was about to return to the field when he was fatally burned by an explosion of gasoline. Mr. Sidebotham was a man of unusual vigor of mind and body, and a missionary of marked devotion and success. His loss is keenly felt, and the sympathies of a multitude of friends go out to the bereaved wife and the two fatherless children, as well as to Mr. Sidebotham's father, an honored and beloved member of the Synod of Michigan.

THE KOREA MISSION.

SEOUL: the capital, near the west coast on the Han River, 26 miles from the port Chemulpo, with which it is connected by railroad; population about 300,000; Station opened 1884. Missionaries—Rev. H. G. Underwood, D.D., and Mrs. Underwood, M.D., Rev. J. S. Gale, D.D., O. R. Avison, M.D., and Mrs. Avison, Miss K. C. Wambold, Miss E. L. Shields, Rev. A. G. Welbon and Mrs. Welbon, Rev. E. H. Miller and Mrs. Miller, Miss M. B. Barrett, Rev. C. A. Clark and Mrs. Clark, Rev. A. A. Pieters and Mrs. Pieters, J. W. Hirst, M.D., and Mrs. Hirst, Rev. M. W. Greenfield and Mrs. Greenfield, Miss S. A. Heron, Miss H. I. Taylor, Rev. Henry W. Lampe, Rev. R. O. Reiner and Mrs. Reiner, Mr. John F. Genso, Miss Anna R. Miller, Rev. John H. Winn.

FUSAN: 210 miles southeast of Seoul; nearest port to Japan, terminus of Seoul-Fusan Railroad; Station opened 1893. Missionaries—C. H. Irvin, M.D., and Mrs. Irvin, Rev. R. H. Sidebotham and Mrs. Sidebotham, Rev. W. E. Smith and Mrs. Smith.

PYENG YANG: ancient capital of the northern kingdom, 50 miles up Taitong River from Yellow Sea; 125 miles northwest of Seoul; largest church centre under the Board; population 60,000; Station opened 1894. Missionaries—Rev. S. A. Moffett, D.D., and Mrs. Moffett, M.D., Rev. W. M. Baird, Ph.D., and Mrs. Baird, Rev. Graham Lee and Mrs. Lee, Rev. W. L. Swallen and Mrs. Swallen, J. H. Wells, M.D., and Mrs. Wells, Miss Margaret Best, Rev. C. F. Bernheisel and Mrs. Bernheisel, Miss V. L. Snook, Rev. W. N. Blair and Mrs. Blair, Rev. G. S. McCune and Mrs. McCune, Miss A. M. Butts, Mr. Robert McMurtrie.

TAIKU: population 60,000; 77 miles inland from Fusan, and 155 miles southeast of Seoul; Station opened in 1899; work doubling every year. Missionaries—Rev. J. E. Adams and Mrs. Adams, W. O. Johnson, M.D., and Mrs. Johnson, Rev. H. M. Bruen and Mrs. Bruen, Rev. E. F. McFarland and Mrs. McFarland, Miss C. H. Cameron, Rev. W. C. Erdman and Mrs. Erdman, Rev. C. C. Sawtell and Mrs. Sawtell, Rev. John W. S. Toms and Mrs. Toms, Miss Mabel Rittgers, Miss Blanche Essick.

SYEN CHUN: in the northwest of Korea, 50 miles from Yalu River, about 225 miles northwest of Seoul; Station opened 1901; work shows unprecedented growth. Missionaries—Rev. N. C. Whittemore and Mrs. Whittemore, Miss M. L. Chase, Rev. Cyril Ross and Mrs. Ross, A. M. Sharrocks, M.D., and Mrs. Sharrocks, Miss Jennie Samuels, Rev. H. E. Blair and Mrs. Blair, Rev. S. L. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts.

CHAI RYONG: 140 miles northwest of Seoul, 60 miles southwest of Pyeng Yang; Station opened 1906. Missionaries—Rev. W. B. Hunt and Mrs. Hunt, Rev. C. E. Sharp and Mrs. Sharp, Rev. E. W. Koons and Mrs. Koons, Rev. H. C. Whiting, M.D., and Mrs. Whiting.

CHONG JU: about 50 miles south of Seoul; opened 1907. Missionaries—Rev. F. S. Miller and Mrs. Miller, Rev. Edwin Kagin, W. C. Purviance, M.D., and Mrs. Purviance, Rev. Willing T. Cook and Mrs. Cook, Miss Anna S. Doriss.

KANG KAI: about 250 miles north of Seoul; opened 1908. Missionaries—Dr. Ralph G. Mills and Mrs. Mills, Rev. Harry A. Rhodes and Mrs. Rhodes.

RESIGNATIONS: Miss M. B. Barrett, Mrs. R. H. Sidebotham, Miss C. H. Cameron.

DEATH: Rev. R. H. Sidebotham.

TRANSFERS: Rev. H. E. Blair and Mrs. Blair from Syen Chun to Kang Kai.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Underwood, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Sidebotham, Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Bruen, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Sharrocks, Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Avison, Rev. and Mrs. F. S. Miller, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Sharp, Rev. and Mrs. William M. Baird, Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Welbon, Miss Mary B. Barrett, Miss Velma Snook.

SEOUL STATION.

The year has been an epochal one in Seoul Station. In November, 1907, an arrangement for territorial division was consummated with the Southern Methodist Mission, by which we surrendered to them all of our work north of Seoul and all of our rights in the north two-thirds of Kang Won Province. We received in return their groups and exclusive territory in the country east and west of Seoul in Kyung Kye Province, and the whole south one-third of Kang Won Province.

This arrangement, desirable as it was in every way, has involved a making over of much of our Station field. Fully one-third of all our developed work in the country was of necessity turned over to the Methodists, and because of that it also became necessary to turn over to our own Chai Ryung Station all of our old-established churches around Pai Chun. In return we received some forty meeting places east and southeast of Seoul and several places in the counties west. The groups received from the Methodists had good members in them, but they were located where the war conditions of the last year have been most distressing. It had not been possible for a foreigner to visit them for months, and scarcely for a Korean helper to do so. Nominally the membership received was about equal to the active membership surrendered, but it was found necessary practically to deduct 60 per cent. everywhere as net loss, and our statistics this year must reflect this fact.

This year marks the final setting aside of another section of our territory, i.e., the Choong Chung Provinces south of us. That work and its statistics will hereafter be independently reported by Chong Ju Station. The first steps have also been taken toward setting apart yet another section of our territory for a Station in Kang Won Province at Won Ju.

It has been the greatest year evangelistically that we have ever had, for in spite of the giving up of such a large part of our territory, and the separate reporting by Chai Ryung and Chong Ju Stations of the Choong Chung and Pai Chun statistics, which were in our totals last year, and in spite of the fact that no examinations have been held in the new groups received from the Methodists, we still report more new churches, more new communicants, and more contributions than ever before in one year.

I. CITY EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Sai Moon An Church (Messrs. Reynolds, Welbon and Miller in turn acting as Superintendents).—Baptized total, 258; added during the year, 72; adherents total, 1,200; catechumens, 150; added during the year, 94; offering U. S. gold, $3,851.83.

During the year this people have built on a site provided by themselves a building 60 by 80 feet, seating 1,200, and for it they have paid $2,300 gold, over two-thirds of the total cost. The site cost $400 additional.

To make a comparison with things at home, using the price of unskilled labor in each place as a basis (20 cents here and $7\frac{1}{2}$ times as much at home, \$1.50), this equals over \$20,000 at home. Two branches of the church have flourished under a helper from the home church. Two helpers and five Bible women have been fully supported, and salary part of the year has been given to a third helper. Five school-teachers have been supported, making a total of $12\frac{1}{2}$ salaries paid by the church. Two boys' schools and one girls' school have been maintained; total pupils, 140. The church suffered a heavy loss in the month of May in the death of their beloved Korean pastor, Elder Ko Chan Ik, a man whom God had used wonderfully in winning the hearts of the people.

The Central Church (C. A. Clark, Superintendent).—Baptized total, 192; added during the year, 71; total adherents, 660; catechumens, 96; added during the year, 90; offerings U. S. gold, $517.47.

The Central Church has had the best year in its history, gaining over 50 per cent. in membership and fully 50 per cent. in attendance. One Bible woman and one colporteur have been employed, besides five school-teachers. The book-room at the church has not only become self-supporting, but is yielding a profit. Every line of the church work is flourishing, especially the work for children, there being an attendance of from 120 to 150 children every Sabbath. One day-school for boys and one for girls have been conducted by the Church, and two other private schools have been closely affiliated; total pupils, 240.

S. F. Moore Memorial Church at Tongmak (A. A. Pieters, Superintendent).—Baptized total, 48; added during the year, 18; total adherents, 100; catechumens, 18; added during the year, 18; offerings U. S. gold, $186.00.

This church has steadily grown in numbers and still more in zeal. The old building early in the year became utterly inadequate for the congregation and was sold. In two collections the people raised $150 gold. They intended to buy a site, but were offered free the site of what had been an old heathen temple. They are now putting up a building 32 by 32 feet, to cost $300 gold.

Evangelistic services at the hospital have been continued in charge of Drs. Avison and Hirst. This group has not been set aside as a separate church, although all regular church services are held, with an attendance of about 100. A church will have to be organized there before long.

A new work has been set aside outside the East Gate, centring in the village Tolkoji, and under the pastorate of Mr. E. H. Miller. A new church is being built. Ten have been baptized, making a membership of twenty. Contributions, $87 gold. This bids fair to become a large and important work.

II. COUNTRY EVANGELISTIC WORK.—West of Seoul (A. G. Welbon, Superintendent).—Groups total, 18; church buildings, 12; adherents total, 1,500; offerings U. S. gold, $524.71; baptized total, 494; new baptisms, 78; catechumen total, 163; new catechumens, 100.

This district has done very well, although it too has suffered the last two years from frequent changes in superintendents. The work has expanded by the addition of two counties, Pa Ju and Kyo Wha. Mr. Welbon has made two trips through this district. Two helpers are fully supported here.

South of Seoul (A. A. Pieters, Superintendent).—Groups total, 34; church buildings, 23; adherents total, 800; offerings U. S. gold, $721.50; baptized total, 272; new baptisms, 182; catechumen total, 391; new catechumens, 333.

The work in this district has been carried on under difficulties. In September, in addition to the care of these fourteen counties and Bible translation, Mr. Pieters was assigned the Mission Treasurership. It has been necessary to do the country work in many short trips instead of in one or two long ones, and there has been no time for country classes. Four new groups have sprung up, seven new church buildings have been built, and four old ones enlarged. The increase in the baptized membership is 200 per cent. Two men are supported by this people.

East of Seoul (C. A. Clark, Superintendent).—Groups total, 16; church buildings, 12; adherents total, 400; offerings U. S. gold, $493; baptized total, 77; new baptisms, 40; catechumen total, 115; new catechumens, 104.

This territory is largely new work, none of it being over three years old. Every group has made material gains; twelve new ones have sprung up; ten new church buildings have been built, and for two more material has been gathered; seven day-schools have been started, all self-supporting. The support of two helpers has been paid by this people.

S. E. of Seoul-Kang Won Circuit (C. A. Clark, Superintendent, assisted by Mr. Welbon).—Groups total, 35; church buildings, 21; adherents, 500; offerings, $187 gold; baptized total, 60; new baptisms, 1; catechumens total, 180; new catechumens, 24.

This territory, eleven counties, is largely composed of the groups received from the Southern Methodists.

Of all the thirteen provinces, this field has suffered the most from the disturbances the last year. The helpers have exerted all their influence to keep the Christians out of the troubles. Because the helpers have insisted on remaining neutral, they have met with great persecution, and sometimes for weeks at a time have actually been in danger of their lives.

Of course the work goes slowly under such conditions, yet the support of three colporteurs has been taken by this field this year, ten new groups have sprung up, six new church buildings have been bought, and four self-supporting schools have been opened.

This territory, with a few counties in Choong Chung and Kyung Sang Provinces, is the territory which is planned to be set apart for the new Station in Kang Won Province. It is roughly 130 miles east and west, by fifty miles north and south. The population is about 350,000; and it is exclusively our territory, no other Mission working in it. It is accessible by the Han River. Won Ju is a city of about 1,000 houses. It is the old capital of the province. Out from it in all directions radiate a number of excellent roads. North, east and south of the city the country is low rolling hills, thickly dotted with villages. The population of Won Ju County alone is 45,425. It is practically impossible to work this country to advantage from Seoul. It is fully 250 miles to the far end of it, and it takes nearly two weeks to get there. It is eighty miles to Won Ju, the centre of the present developed work, and it takes ten days to reach the farthest groups now existing.

III. TRAINING CLASS WORK.—The short-handedness of the Station this year has made the carrying on of Training Class work very difficult, but one has been held in the Kang Won Circuit by Mr. Welbon, and two in the East Circuit by Mr. Clark. Two others were held in the city, one a general class and one for helpers only. The attendance at the general class was the greatest ever had in Seoul, about 500. Mr. Lee, from Pyeng Yang, assisted the class, and Mr. Miller took Mr. Lee's place in Pyeng Yang as an exchange. Mr. Welbon assisted the Southern Presbyterians in a class at Kunsan in January.

IV. WOMAN'S EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The greater part of the woman's itinerating work has been done by Miss Wambold, she having spent a part of each of nine consecutive months in the country.

Mrs. Pieters has made one trip and Mrs. Clark two. In the city every woman has her part in the Sunday services. Week-day services have been taught by Mrs. Pieters, Miss Wambold, Mrs. Avison, Mrs. Hirst and Miss Heron. One regular large Bible class for country and city women was held in the city with an enrollment of 113, and two local classes later in the year. Mrs. Pieters made one visit to Chung Ju and one to Chai Ryung during the year, teaching in classes for women in each place. Mrs. E. H. Miller helped in a class in Pyeng Yang in March. Calling in the homes of the Korean women is one of the most valuable parts of our work. It has been participated in by Miss Wambold, Mrs. Pieters, Mrs. Avison, Miss Heron, Mrs. Greenfield and Mrs. Clark.

V. EDUCATIONAL WORK.—John D. Wells Training School for Christian Workers (Kyung Sin Hakyo).—We regret to report that the beginning of the school year saw the dissolution of the union in work which had been brought about two years ago. The Southern Methodists wished to withdraw from educational work in Seoul and concentrate their strength in Songdo. The Northern Methodists wished to change the character of their school, using English hereafter as the medium of teaching, instead of the vernacular; and so we were once more thrown on our own resources.

Mr. L. H. Severance came to our aid just as the financial problem was most pressing; and through his generosity the school has had the best year in its history. The greater part of the teaching by foreigners has been done by Mr. Miller, principal of the school. The needs are more teachers, more money, and more buildings. The total enrollment has been 126. Five were graduated. Much progress has been made toward self-support, every pupil paying a matriculation fee and a small tuition. It was not possible to conduct any self-help work department this year, but the attendance was not much affected thereby. The College Department was of necessity dropped this year for lack of teachers and money, but we hope that the coming year we shall be able to reopen it.

Women's Academy.—This school has taken a new lease of life this year. The old Industrial Department has been dropped, and cash has been charged for board and tuition. There have been no pupils whose parents or friends have not paid the full charge asked.

The school has taken in all the pupils that the buildings could hold, and many were turned away. The enrollment was fifty-eight, as against thirty-nine last year, and twenty-six the year before. Of these eighteen were young married women or widows. Five girls were graduated, and the graduation exercises were a marked event in the educational life of the city. Next year it is hoped that two new departments of the work may be pushed, a music department and a Bible women's department. Rates are to be raised to cover the extra cost of maintaining so many buildings. The bulk of the work of the school has been carried by Mrs. E. H. Miller, but Miss Heron has taught regularly, and Mrs. Pieters and Miss Wambold and others have assisted when possible. The great needs of the school are more buildings, as the present ones are full to overflowing.

Primary Schools.—Twelve primary schools were opened during the year, making a total of thirty-one, with an enrollment of 782. A departure in primary schools has been the boarding department in connection with the Central Church School. Six girls were in this department.

Normal Schools.—A normal class was held in August for two weeks, with an attendance of ten. Next year more will be made of this department.

VI. MEDICAL WORK.—Severance Hospital (O. R. Avison M.D., Superintendent; Dr. J. W. Hirst, M.D., Assistant Superintendent).—

The work of the year in and about the Severance Hospital has grown to such proportions that one can barely do more in a report of this size than enumerate the departments carried on. They are as follows: (1) Native Medical and Surgical Practice; (2) Native Dispensary Work; (3) Native Private Office Consultations; (4) Native Home Visitation Work; (5) Foreign Medical and Surgical Practice; (6) Foreign Office Consultations; (7) Foreign Home Visitations; (8) Pasteur Institute; (9) Contagious Diseases; (10) Optical Department; (11) Medical School; (12) Nurses' School; (13) Evangelistic Work; (14) Translation.

The ward practice of the hospital this year has increased 43 per cent. over last year. Medical cases numbered 316, surgical 332, and obstetrical 7, a total of 655.

The dispensary has been conducted in the basement as heretofore. The number of treatments this year is slightly less than last year, but the number of new cases was much greater. There were 5674 new cases, 3,638 return cases, and 1,241 minor operations performed in the dispensary.

The visiting of Korean patients in their homes has heretofore been discouraged, on account of the inability of the physicians to give the time to it. This year, with the graduating medical students to assist, much more has been done.

The foreign practice of the hospital is necessarily very large, totaling 657 office consultations and 605 outside visits; and besides this a number of patients have been received in the wards. The doctors feel their lack of equipment to care for this foreign ward practice, there being no arrangement for preparing foreign food or for isolating the patients from the Koreans, and they desire very much that the matter of sanitarium be taken up in connection with the future work of the hospital.

The Pasteur Department this year has treated seven persons bitten by mad dogs.

The Medical College connected with the hospital has rounded out a unique period in its history by graduating, on June 3, its first class, conferring on them the degree of Doctor of Medicine and Surgery. This was the culmination of fifteen years' work by Dr. Avison, and is something of which the whole Mission can be proud. These graduates have had exceptional opportunities for practical work. Some of them had before graduation successfully performed major operations in surgery, and all of them had done every kind of minor surgery. The commencement was an event in the city, and of great importance in the progress of modern civilization in Korea. Representatives of the royal family, the Resident General and his staff, and numbers of other prominent people, including the foreign diplomats, attended the graduating exercises. The Government formally recognized the value of the work done by presenting to the graduates Government certificates, the first of the kind issued in Korea. This act gives the doctors a recognized standing in the country. Prince Ito, the Resident General, gave public expression of his appreciation of the work done, and presented each graduate with his medical college diploma.

In the School for Nurses, Miss Shields has had seven pupils. June 12, capping exercises were held for them and five received their caps. In March, Miss Shields participated in the organizing of the Graduate Nurses' Association of Korea, whose object is to "advance the profession, and to learn the best ways of doing effective work in Korea."

Financially the hospital has had the greatest year in its history. Although no money was received from the Government, the total receipts were $9,344.35 U. S. gold, an increase of 50 per cent. over last year. No money was received from the Board except the salaries of the foreign staff, the hospital evangelist and Dr. Hirst's language teacher.

In May, Miss Burpee came to work among the foreign community as a private trained nurse and to assist in the hospital; Miss Babcock, who had been in this service, having gone home in April.

VII. LITERARY WORK.—Dr. Gale has acted as editor of the Church Herald, has worked all the year on the Korean-English Dictionary, and has spent much time on Bible translation, besides reading proof for the Tract Society's publications. Mr. Pieters spent part of one month on Bible translation. Mr. E. H. Miller reports progress on the Intermediate Arithmetic, and that he is reading proof on a Harmony of the Gospels. Mrs. Pieters has revised her Arithmetic. Mrs.

E. H. Miller has translated a Primary Geography. Dr. Avison has completed an Advanced Physiology, and reports progress on a Surgery, Practice of Medicine, and a Medical Dictionary. Mr. C. A. Clark has several times revised the translation of Dr. Herrick Johnson's "Notes on Homiletics," and has translated part of a Commentary on Matthew and most of Dr. Martin's "Evidences of Christianity."

FUSAN STATION.

In spite of the fact that the furlough of Mr. Sidebotham left only two families at the Station, the growth of the year has been most encouraging, no less than 1,019 catechumens being admitted. We have not had any serious disturbances within the Church, but many things have had to go by default, particularly special class instruction and timely discipline.

As the visits of the missionary have become less frequent, the influence of the helpers has increased. They have proven themselves qualified to meet the demands, and not only are the individual churches being educated to welcome the services of native pastors, but the men are being raised up who will eventually be called upon to be the responsible shepherds of their flocks.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—I. Miryang County, larger, more populous, and in wealth far outstripping any other county in the province, has not only continued in the front rank among our churches, but has shown far greater advances this year than any other county.

Last year there were 196 catechumens admitted and this year 443 have been admitted, a gain of about 200 per cent.

Last year fifty-three were baptized, this year 117; there were 121 communicants last year, this year 229, which would have been greatly increased if the missionary had been able to visit the groups again, or if Bible women could give some time to instructing the faithful but ignorant women. Last year there were twelve groups, this year eighteen; though as a number of these are in reality plural groups, twenty-one would more exactly represent the real number.

All of the new groups have either erected new buildings or purchased and repaired old buildings. A number of old groups have both enlarged and improved the appearance of their meeting places.

Educational work has also advanced. Two or three new schools have been started and old schools improved. One in particular, located at Chung Key, has made great progress. Twenty-nine boys and thirteen girls have attended in separate institutions.

The helper working among most of the churches of the county, an elder, will probably be entirely supported by native funds this year. One well-to-do brother in the county-seat, in addition to large help in the local work and throughout the county, has given $250 gold toward the Girls' School in Fusan.

Kim Hai County has done much better even than the statistics indicate. The helper who travels most widely in this county having been in the Theological Seminary for three months, superintendence has not been close, and many waiting catechumens have not been admitted or new groups organized.

Tong Nai County has been enlarged territorially and our work has grown. At Koopo, a river port newly attached to this county, we have a group of some thirty or forty people housed in a comfortable building. In the county-seat there is now a flourishing group, with an attendance of over 100. Two or three other places have somewhat disappointed our hopes and have as yet not been organized into groups. One place is a tiny island in front of the local port, with but fourteen houses, most of which have made some profession of religion.

The Deer Island congregation has grown most handsomely, and now threatens the primacy of the local church.

Special efforts have been made by the local Church to reach non-Christians through a class in English and a men's society, which though quite successful in their way have not yet produced much of the desired fruit.

Mrs. Irvin has given much of her time to the Sunday-school, with large classes of both infants and adults. The church will shortly elect two elders. Three leaders have practically been doing the work of elders throughout the year.

Through the growth of the port the Korean population also increases, though the nature of employment—political positions, inn-keeping, and day-labor—in addition to other worldly influences at work in a port, make it necessary that the Station be equipped for effective work. The floating population is also great; and while we cannot retain such members permanently on our rolls, the influence is good and wide.

In Chan Won County, where the church had not grown much, the rise of some new groups in close proximity to each other has given opportunity for holding union services in several localities. This seems to have made the desired impression. Many new people have come in and prospects for future growth are excellent. There were some 250 people at these meetings. They awakened the desire to perpetuate this union, and to build a large church in some central location and develop a united congregation. This is a big burden, as they must continue to support their local buildings for prayer meetings and other services.

Ku Chang and Hap Chun, our most extreme counties with established work, have made gratifying progress, notwithstanding perplexing political conditions and our inability to provide them proper oversight.

Ku Chang now ranks fifth in the counties having developed work. Two new groups are reported in Ham Yang County, the most distant of all, and one in Anwe, the extreme northwestern county, bordering on the North Chulla Province. There has been considerable of an uprising in these parts, making travel unsafe, and some colporteurs have been molested. Besides being so distant from other developed work, superintendence by a regular helper, whose guidance they require even more than a long established congregation, is difficult and expensive.

About twenty new meeting places in all have been provided this year, and while they are not elegant, when we consider how few Christians there may be in a group, or their place in society, one city group having been composed for a long time of a few boys, it is proof of their genuine interest and a guarantee of better things as soon as they are able.

MEDICAL WORK.—Junkin Memorial Hospital.—Dr. Irvin writes:

Ten thousand crossed our threshold this year, seeking relief from all sorts of afflictions, from itch to cholera, and from a cracked corn to a cracked skull. Many of them covered long distances and endured increased suffering while making the journey in search of help. Some were able to secure all the comfort that could be had for such a journey, while to others the trip involved great privations through lack of food and shelter.

Being here in the name of the Master, this latter class holds a greater claim on us than their more fortunate fellow-sufferers, and the physician who is not a disgrace to his high calling does not demand impracticable fees when confronted by such worthy objects of charity. Patients who are able to pay, however, are required to do so, and $900 gold were received in this way during the year.

In evangelistic work no lack of zeal has been shown. The Junkin Memorial Hospital and the Mary Collins Whiting Dispensary are medical-evangelistic workshops where neither soul nor body escapes needed care, and while we do not claim always to rescue the body from physical affliction, we do claim that the remedy for spiritual ills, if taken as directed, is infallible.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Two classes have been held for helpers and colporteurs.

Though supposed to be a triple union of Taiku, the Australian Mission and ourselves, the class through a misunderstanding included only the Australians and ourselves, and Mr. Engel being unable to assist because of illness, the conduct of the class was most difficult. With the prospect of a larger number of qualified men on the field the coming year, the class should exceed in rich results any of our past efforts.

The conduct of the annual Bible class for men was a matter for grave concern, with only one clergyman in the Station and probably over 600 to be instructed. As a consequence we were obliged to depend more largely than ever on the native helpers and colporteurs. This class was held, as in the past, at Kim Hai, taxing the generosity of that always kindly host almost to the utmost.

The class was attended by over 500 from a distance, and among them was a large proportion from the most outlying regions of our work. A number came 100 miles to attend.

As yet we lack accommodations in any one place for the large and constantly augmenting numbers who care to attend our classes, and until such time as such accommodations are provided we shall probably have to hold two separate classes, both of them far from the homes of the missionaries.

Had it not been that Mrs. Irvin found herself free at that time to help, the classes for women would have been more than ever neglected.

She, with some young ladies whom she has had under instruction more or less for a number of years, conducted a well-attended class at Miryang for a week, while Mr. Smith, assisted by a helper and a Bible woman, conducted contemporaneously a similar class at Yung Dong. The interest in both classes was maintained to the end.

The number of primary schools has increased among the churches, and though the people are painfully poor, through a wise co-operation and mutual effort they have done all they could to improve the quality of the instruction offered.

A new building for a boarding school for girls has been kindly provided by the gifts of Messrs. Severance, Gamble and a Korean, Mr. Ho, and will be ready for occupancy in the early Fall. Mrs. Irvin has already spent some months in strenuous efforts to equip her three Korean assistants, and we have every prospect of being able to supply a long-felt need.

PYENG YANG STATION.

The influence of last year's wonderful outpouring of the Spirit has continued. This year 2,206 baptisms are reported, while 1,106 were reported last year.

It has been a period of struggle with difficult problems growing out of changing conditions in the country, and consequent unrest among the people, and constant prayer has been made that God would keep the Church true to its first ideals.

If one thing has caused more anxiety than another it has been the difficulty of keeping the Church, and particularly the church schools, free from political agitation. If one thing has caused more joy and thanksgiving than another, it has been the steadfast loyalty and disinterested service of the leaders of the Church in conditions that might easily disturb men of much longer experience.

Dr. and Mrs. Baird and Miss Snook left on furlough in June, leaving our educational force for next year sadly crippled.

Dr. and Mrs. Moffett were joyfully welcomed back in August, 1907, bringing with them Miss Strang, who has rendered invaluable service in the foreign school. Miss Butts was assigned to our Station at annual meeting and Mr. McMurtrie reached us Christmas Eve. Both have already come to seem indispensable to the Station life.

EVANGELISTIC WORK IN THE CITY.—This shows another year of steady gain.

In the Central Church the congregation is so large, about 2,500, that the men and women are compelled to have separate services. Three new elders were recently ordained. The installation of Pastor Kil took place last October. This was the first service of its kind in the Presbyterian Church in Korea, and it marks an epoch in the growth of our work. Mr. Kil has proved his capacity as an ordained minister.

The South Gate Church, in charge of Mr. Swallen, has held its own in spite of changes in population due to the coming of Japanese. The congregation remains about the same, 500.

In the North Church, Mr. Blair in charge, the year has been one of testing due to a long-standing quarrel between a deacon and a leader. The quarrel resulted in the withdrawal of one from the church, and the removal from office of the other. New men have come to the front, and the church to-day appears to be rapidly recovering.

The Fourth Church, Mr. Bernheisel in charge, is the youngest of the swarms sent off from the Central Church, and has had a year of progress. The new building, costing $1,100, was first occupied September 1. The congregation averages 400. Two elders were ordained during the year.

Special mention should be made of the women in the city. Sunday mornings the Central Church women are divided into three Sunday-schools, which have been led by Miss Best, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. McCune and Mrs. Moffett. In each of the other churches the missionary in charge has had the woman's Sunday-school, and conducted week-day Bible classes.

A new feature of this year's work is the Korean Woman's Home Missionary Society, organized by the union Session of the four city churches. The Society has two women employed to work in non-Christian villages in Pyeng Yang territory, and these are assisted by others who go with them, receiving only their expenses.

The work of the Library Association has been largely under Korean control. A college student has acted as secretary, and has made the library very popular. There are now about 900 books, which are in constant demand. The night-school has been well attended and has graduated a class of four men.

EVANGELISTIC WORK IN THE COUNTRY.—The country work under direction of this Station consists of seven circuits in charge of missionaries, including three Korean pastoral charges. There are thirty-nine helpers supported by the churches where they labor, and 196 unpaid leaders, who, in the absence of the helper, preach and look after the needs of the people.

The Christians have continued to make good progress in numbers, in knowledge, and in spiritual life, as is manifested in the development of Christian character, activity in personal work, and earnestness in Bible study.

In one circuit, when a special effort was made during the New Year season to reach an uncivilized territory, forty-five men voluntarily gave themselves up to prayer and direct personal preaching for ten days at their own expense. This resulted in many being led to Christ and new groups being formed in a section where the Gospel had not previously taken hold. It also proved a great stimulus to the whole Church in that region.

In another circuit some of the Christians thought the tithe was not enough to show their gratitude to God for what He had given them, so they sold their rice and bought millet to eat, in order that they might have more to give to the Lord's work.

In some parts the larger churches are ambitious to support their own helpers. They are given permission to do so, as a rule, only after they are able and willing to contribute a tenth of their own helper's salary to aid the work of the weaker groups.

The work in charge of the three Korean pastors has kept pace with the rest. Each pastor has proved himself a worthy accession to the ministerial force in Korea. Of the total number of baptisms reported, 208 were by these men.

Throughout Pyeng Yang Station's territory the Korean Christians have worked faithfully; and as a result of their zeal and consecrated wisdom we have a strong, active, growing church. The following table gives a bird's-eye view of the whole work in the city and country.

Men's Bible Training Classes.—Men's Bible Training Classes continue to be an important feature of the work of the Station. The object is to have at least one such class in every church each year.

The way the Christians lay aside their work and attend these classes for Bible study is a constant wonder and delight. Those who study bear their own expenses; and in the city we assess each student a small amount to pay the running expenses of the class.

The Winter class in the city was attended by about 900 men from all parts of the province. While there was none of that terrible conviction and confession of sin of the year before, it was a time of deep consecration to the Master's service. The after-effects were very evident in the country churches.

At the Korean New Year, we always hold a class for local men only. Direct evangelistic efforts are then made for unbelievers; and this year, as before, several hundred made public confession of Christ.

One of the most important classes of the year is that for church officers in June. This year there were more than 250 from all parts of the province. Altogether there have been held 151 classes for men in the country churches, attended by 6,575 persons. The three city classes were attended by about 1,500 persons.

Women's Bible Training Classes.—A large number of Bible classes have been held during the year under the supervision of the native churches. This report concerns only those held under the direction of the Training Class Committee. Eighty-nine such classes have been held during the year. Of these ten were held in country churches by the missionary women, and were attended by 721 women. Seventy-five were held by Korean women, sent out two by two from our Workers' Class especially to the newer groups of Christian women in the country circuits, and were attended by 2,248 women.

Four classes were held in Pyeng Yang, taught by all the women of the Station and by Korean helpers, and were attended by 1,163 women. This makes the total number in attendance 4,132. The schedule of Bible classes and practical talks on hygiene, Sunday observance, etc., is designed to harmonize with our regular course of study in our local class for country women.

The four classes in Pyeng Yang consist of two distinct kinds: First, two general classes, one, for a week, open to all the women of the city churches, and one, for twelve days, open to all the women of the country churches. Second, two special classes, one a workers' class for two weeks in the early Fall, open only to a limited number of Bible women and others selected by the missionaries, and who are instructed in the schedule of studies taught by them in the country classes during the year. The other, a special class, open only to women especially invited by missionaries and their helpers, and by the Korean pastors, with a view to their better instruction and training to act as Bible women, pastor's assistants, and Sabbath-school teachers.

The classes all bear a close relation to each other and to all our woman's work. The strength of the work lies in its unity and the hearty co-operation of all the missionaries and native helpers with Miss Best, together with the rich blessing of God who said, "My Word shall not return unto me void." We were thankful for the assistance of Mrs. E. H. Miller, of Seoul, and Miss Samuels, of Syen Chyun.

The generous gifts of Mrs. Borden and Mr. Crowell, of Chicago, of $4,500 for a plant for Woman's Work in Pyeng Yang gives a beautiful and commodious building erected by Mr. Blair. It has two classrooms and an office in the lower story, and three classrooms above which can be thrown together into a chapel seating 650 people. The old schoolrooms have been repaired and fitted up as dormitories.

The training class system, with its activities reaching far afield, is now called "The Woman's Bible Institute of Pyeng Yang."

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—College and Academies.—The total enrollment for the college and academy in Pyeng Yang for the year was 441, of whom 19 were in the college and 422 in the academy.

Eighty-three were Methodists and 197 were Presbyterians. The falling off in attendance was due mainly to the fact that a number of the students became discontented and wanted to study other things than the subjects taught; and as the new students outnumbered the old, it was difficult to maintain order and discipline. Then, as Mr. Becker said in his report to this Mission: "Denominational differences were raked up and magnified by a few, and it was not long before all the Methodists struck in a body for a separate school."

The faculty, however, remained firm, and the best of the students returned and settled down to work, having learned that they were not running the school. Presbyterian students were in attendance from all over our Station's territory, also from that of Syen Chyun and Chai Ryung of our own Mission, from the Southern Presbyterian in the south and the Canadian Presbyterian in the northeast. The whole school was taught in sixteen sections, making an average of 112 hours per week taught by foreigners. Besides the foreign force, there were twenty Korean teachers and instructors who aggregated 330 hours per week.

The courses compare well with the colleges and academies at home. Chinese, Japanese and English take the place of French, Latin and Greek. Those who gave full time in teaching were Dr. and Mrs. Baird and Mr. McCune of our Mission and Mr. Becker of the Methodist Mission; Dr. Baird being President; others were taken out of evangelistic work for a few weeks each. All this work is carried on in two buildings, one furnished by the Methodists and one by us.

The first graduating exercises of the college were held in May and two men received diplomas. Twenty-one were graduated from the academy at the same time, making a total of fifty-nine since the first class of 1904. There is also another academy in Whang Ju, with an attendance of sixty, taught by Koreans. Plans are made for starting two more this Fall, one at Cha San and one at Pan Suk.

Pyeng Yang Seminary for Women.—This seminary, of which Miss Snook is Principal, opened October 5, 1907, and continued until January 30, 1908. One hundred and fifty were enrolled, thirty-three of whom were Methodists and 117 Presbyterians. There were thirty-eight girls in the Presbyterian boarding department, under the direction of Mrs. Lee.

This department is self-supporting, and conducted on the plan of a model Korean home. The purpose is not to foreignize the students, but to improve their own environment.

The girls took turns in cooking, sweeping, dusting, etc. In this way they were taught that it was possible to keep a Korean house clean; and many a girl who came to the school with untidy habits has gone back to her home an object lesson of neatness to her neighbors.

Every girl learned how to knit, and every spare moment out of study hours was spent in knitting, sewing and embroidery. It was a pleasure to go during the evening and find a busy happy circle gathered around the lamp.

May 27, the graduating exercises of the first class to complete the course were held. There were five in the class, all of whom have done faithful work throughout the course, and to-day are modest, sincere, Christian women. The desire for education on the part of Korean women is growing rapidly, as is shown by the fact that while there were eighty-two in attendance last year, there were 150 this year. At this rate of increase we must have more buildings and equipment.

Normal Classes.—The Union Normal Class for Women, of which Miss Snook of our Mission and Miss Haynes of the Methodist Mission were in charge, was held in April. The enrollment of ninety-five is not much larger than last year because of a more careful selection. We had four classes, each of which studied Bible, Chinese, arithmetic and geography. Besides these, there were practical talks given on hygiene and various other subjects.

The Union Normal Class for Men, in charge of Mr. McCune and Mr. Becker, was held in June, with an attendance of 172, of whom 141 were Presbyterians. The attendance is smaller, because the class was held earlier this year, and also because Chai Ryung had a class of its own, which was not the case last year.

A curriculum has been outlined, covering seven years' work, and so arranged that a teacher can study while teaching, and by taking examinations enter a more advanced division at the next Normal Class. In this way the whole seven years' course can be completed in a much shorter time. Throughout the class the teachers in attendance were treated as pupils, and thus were given a practical example in school government and discipline. Special emphasis was given to the spiritual development of the teachers. All except ten received certificates for remaining throughout the term and taking the examinations.

Entrance fees were charged for both the men's and women's classes.

Boys' Blind School.—This school, under the direction of Mrs. Moffett, has closed its fifth year. The attendance was seven. The chief time was given to the New Testament.

Woman's School.—This school, under the direction of Mrs. Wells, provides for women past school age, and who are limited in time to study. It has two sessions weekly from October to May. Out of the forty-eight enrolled, there was an average attendance of twenty-six. They were given instruction in geography, arithmetic, and the Gospel of Matthew.

Primary Schools.—The primary school question has become an important and difficult problem.

There are now one or more primary schools in nearly all of our groups. Since the missionaries have been so pressed with other work, these schools have not had proper oversight. Because of the fact that our church schools have been superior to others in Korea, as well as by reason of the peculiar position the Church now occupies in the country, they have been very popular with the general public. In many places the school committees have yielded to the popular demand, and boys from non-Christian homes have been admitted as students, while everywhere it is apparent that many are favoring the Church more because of its schools than from any interest in Christianity. This state of affairs constitutes a problem which will require great wisdom for its solution, if the Church is not to be overwhelmed with this secular spirit.

The case of the West Gate School at Pyeng Yang indicates the present danger. A party endeavored to make the school a centre of political agitation. Many boys from heathen families were admitted. Too much time was devoted to athletics and military drill, and when an effort was made by the school committee to check this, one of the most influential teachers refused to obey and was removed from his position. This brought to light all the bad spirit in the school and among the patrons. Many meetings were held by those in sympathy with the discharged teacher, and the school committee and church officers were abused and insulted. As a result an independent school has been started with the support of the disaffected parents. This case is reported as an extreme one, and indicates a danger rather than a general condition.

The condition of our schools in general is good, and this case of the West Gate School has served to awaken the whole Church to the danger in time to prevent it. At the recent leaders' class at Pyeng Yang a stand was taken, and our officers went back to their homes determined to place the schools completely under the control of the Church and to be carried on in its interests.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Wells reports an attendance of 13,094 patients at the Caroline A. Ladd Hospital during the year. If we add 2,925 friends who accompanied the sick, the widespread influence of the hospital work will be evident.

Thanks are due to Dr. Follwell, Mrs. Hall, M.D., and Miss Hallman, of the M. E. Mission, for much valuable help during the year. Services to missionaries have been constant, but the general health has been good. The physician made eight visits to Syen Chyun during the furlough of Dr. Sharrocks. Mr. Cho Iksun, who has served so well as superintendent, was compelled to leave on account of ill health, and his place was hard to fill. An officer in the Central Church has been secured to take his place, and he promises to become most valuable.

The evangelistic phase of the work is well conserved by the Christian staff. Thousands have gone back to their homes to witness for Christ, of whom they heard while at the hospital. Mrs. Wells has visited the hospital almost daily and she does much to soothe and comfort. Other missionaries have also visited the hospital from time to time. During the cholera outbreak the isolation wards of the hospital were used, in which twenty-seven patients were treated. It is evident that it is impossible for one foreigner to do all the work of such an institution. There is great need for a trained nurse.

Mrs. Moffett also reports seeing about 100 patients; and, in Dr. Wells' absence, she has looked after some cases among the missionaries.

THE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—

The ordination, September 17, 1907, of last year's graduates from the Theological Seminary put the stamp of approval of the Presbytery upon the work of the institution.

This year there is no graduating class. The other classes enroll respectively eleven, twenty-seven, twenty-seven, and thirty-three—a total of ninety-eight. They are a fine body of capable, consecrated men. Mr. Tate and Mr. Bell of the Southern Presbyterian Mission, Mr. Foote of the Canadian Presbyterian Mission, and Messrs. Ross, Clark and Sharp of our own Mission each taught half the term, while Dr. Moffett and Mr. Swallen taught practically the full term. Several other members of Pyeng Yang Station gave examinations on the reading of books of the Bible. The attendance from other sections of Korea was larger than heretofore. The death of Elder Ko of Seoul in the first term of the seminary was the one sad experience of the year.

The greatly needed building is now in process of erection. The cornerstone was laid by Dr. Gale, May 15, with appropriate ceremonies. It is to contain chapel, five recitation rooms and an office. The upper floor can be made into one large auditorium to seat about 1,000 people.

TAIKU STATION.

"And one woman gave her hair." That sentence from Mr. Adams' report of the thank-offerings of the Koreans toward building a new city church might well be the topic of a sermon. The act appeals at first to our sense of humor but its significance is more than superficial. It speaks of consecrated poverty, of doing what we can with limited resources. The blessing that comes from Him who looks upon spirit and proportion rather than upon amount is not small upon such a giver.

The Station force, already weakened by the inability of Mr. and Mrs. Barrett to return to the work on account of ill health, was further reduced by the furlough of Mr. and Mrs. Bruen.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Taiku City Church.—The church has had steady growth, both in spiritual life and in numbers. It now has a constituency of 859, of whom 247 are catechumens and 100 are communicant members. Twenty-five were added on confession, and 120 as catechumens. The church, in connection with the neighboring Satol Church, supports a helper and an evangelist.

They have outgrown their church building, and after many successive enlargements of it are now compelled to build a new one. This they have undertaken in the usual Korean way, more by faith than by sight. The building they had wished to put up would have cost about $2,250 and seated about 1,500 people. The building they are erecting will cost perhaps two-thirds of that amount and seat the same proportion. It will be left, however, so that a future enlargement may be made. It is doubtful whether it will accommodate the audience when it is completed. When the offering for the new church building was received there were many affecting scenes of zeal and consecration. From the men came money, rings, and one or two watches—much prized and recently acquired—while the women gave their silver ornaments, their bridal hairpins, and one woman her hair.

For congregational expenses during the eleven months the church has given $118.43; for its educational work $211.86; for church erection $1,098.65; and for missionary work $15.89.

An interesting feature of the Winter's work was an evangelistic campaign, starting with a house-to-house canvass in the city, and including daily afternoon and evening meetings in the City Church. The audiences averaged about 700, the majority of whom were non-Christians.

The Country Work.—Eastern Circuit (Mr. Adams in charge).

Four new groups have been established on this circuit, and a number of new centres developed. There are sixteen groups, of which four will hereafter belong to the northern circuit. The growth in numbers, organization and grace has been good. The helper, Mr. Whang, has done excellent work. There have been added during the year eighty-six communicants and 125 catechumens, while the number of adherents has grown from 1,302 to 1,556. During the Winter revival services were held in most of the churches, with a manifestly stimulating effect. The contributions on this circuit for eleven months were $482. It should be noted in all these statements that while the amounts quoted for the convenience of readers at home are in United States currency, the contributions represent a far larger sum (fully tenfold larger) to the Koreans, which would appear were the offerings stated in the terms of their currency.

The Far East and Southern Circuits (Mr. McFarland in charge).—

There have been two forward movements in the groups of this region. One has been the great interest aroused in educating the Christian children in almost every group. All the helpers are urging this work, and the people are taking hold of it in such a way that in a few years we shall have strong country church schools. The second movement is that of several groups joining in raising money for the support of a colporteur. The helpers' duties have become so heavy that they no longer have time for general preaching on the roadside, and as all colporteurs supported on Mission funds go into unevangelized regions, the Christians have felt the need of itinerant evangelists to do organized preaching to their non-Christian neighbors.

Eleven new groups have been established, 128 received on confession and 451 as catechumens. The enthusiasm of the Christians is shown by their contributions to support an extra helper and a local colporteur.

There have been a few cases of persecution, some from the simple hatred that heathenism has for the Christian religion, while some have been brought on by the foolish acts of new converts.

Some have their humorous side, as when a young colporteur, brought before a magistrate and told to prove that he was a Christian by singing a hymn, was interrupted and told that he might stop. He replied that there was no such custom in the church as that of singing a fragment of a hymn, and he detained the magistrate while he sang through all four verses of "Loving Kindness." Other cases have been more severe, and at least one terminated in actual martyrdom, as when a Christian returning from meeting preached to a Japanese soldier, and was beheaded by the enraged soldier, who considered himself insulted.

The total number of adherents among the groups in this section is 2,747, and during the year the church has contributed for evangelistic work $37.60, for congregational expenses $191.39, and for all other purposes $537.66.

The Western Circuits.—These circuits are in charge of Mr. Bruen, but owing to his absence on furlough they were divided for the year among Mr. Adams, Mr. McFarland and Mr. Erdman.

Mr. McFarland, though pressed with his own work, and not well much of the time, was able to visit the territories under three helpers. He reported lack of vitality in one group, so that he spent most of his time in "correction, reproof, and instruction in righteousness."

Conditions were more encouraging in the others. Two new groups were established and many catechumens received. The extreme northwest of the province was also visited, where the new work is developing. Things are in a disturbed condition at present, owing to the presence of insurgents, and also to rascals who pretended to have been sent by the Methodists to establish and rule churches. Many of their acts were outrageous, and made the Christian religion odious to many.

One of these pseudo-preachers was found to be in league with the insurgents and was killed by the Japanese, as a warning to all who are inclined to mix politics with religion. Only thirteen catechumens were received. Mr. Adams' work was such that he was able to visit but two of the groups in his share of Mr. Bruen's territory, while Mr. McFarland visited two others. The church in this district has made great progress in the support of evangelists. No new groups have developed, but, considering the fact that the majority of those existing have not been visited this year, they have held their own well. Contributions amounted to $173.59. The people support seven schools with eighty-five scholars.

Sun San and Kai Ryeng sections of this territory, which is in charge of the only elder thus far ordained in the country work of this Station, Kim Chai Su, was visited twice during the year by Mr. Erdman.

There are eleven groups in this district. The fidelity of Elder Kim is apparent in the satisfactory conditions and in the large amounts the people have given in great self-denial for local evangelization. No new groups were organized, though some are ready for it, and in one case the whole village is calling for a church. The total number of adherents on these western circuits is 2,557, among whom ninety-three were baptized this year. They have contributed to congregational expenses $380.28 and to evangelistic work $109.42.

The Northern Circuit (Mr. Erdman in charge).—

This is a fan-shaped territory with Taiku at its apex, stretching north for about 165 miles, and having for its base line a northern boundary of North Kyung Sang Province. There are twenty-six communicants as against twelve last year, 193 catechumens as against seventy-one last year, while five new groups have been organized, in addition to which there are ten regularly visited preaching places where there are catechumens in unorganized groups.

The growth is genuine and healthful. The helper in this circuit has been very faithful.

There have been many of the setbacks and problems incident to a new work. Part of the time also itineration was unsafe, owing to the presence of the insurgents. The report shows a total of 972 enrolled attendants, apart from catechumens or communicants, while there is an average Sunday attendance of 1,398. All groups have their church buildings. $85.26 have been spent on self-support, $101.86 on church erection, $25.34 on other objects.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Boys' Academy.—The attendance at the Fall term numbered fifty-two, all Christian young men and boys, recommended by the missionary in charge of their respective churches. All were self-supporting, work being provided for a few in order to help them stay in school.

The new academy building is now under construction and will be ready for occupancy in the Fall. The lower story is of stone and the upper story of brick, with the roof of Korean tile. It will contain five classrooms and a chapel. The gift of $5,000 will put up the building and equip it measurably with school furnishings, but it will not provide any dormitory buildings.

Many of the students are from the poorer class, who are ambitious to get an education, but who have to strain every resource to meet the bare expense of school fees and board bills. Room rent is often the decisive factor with them. Last term at the drawing for rooms one boy, who failed to draw, broke down and wept because he had not calculated on having to go out and rent a room, and had no money for it. A Korean gentleman in the city has offered to endow such dormitories as we may put up with sufficient to provide light, fuel and repair bills from the income. These students are Christians, many looking forward to Christian work.

The Primary Schools.—The church schools of the city have grown steadily. In the boys' primary there are now 120, while the girls' school enrolls forty-seven. The Mission assists the boys' school to the extent of about $1.50 per month, and $3 per month is given to the girls' school from private sources. The balance is raised by the City Church, which this year contributed $210.10 for educational purposes.

We have in our schools about one-third of all the Korean school children in this whole city. Throughout the province we have an aggregate of sixty-five schools, entirely self-supporting. The total enrollment is 842 scholars.

These schools are primary, and often lack competent teachers, but the Christians are doing the best they can to make them as good as circumstances permit. They have contributed in the past year $861.27 for this purpose.

TRAINING CLASSES.—The Second Annual Church Officers and Normal Class in November proved to be as useful in solidifying and unifying the Church as was that of last year.

Church officers from nearly every group in the Station territory were present, and the time was most profitably spent in Bible study, the discussion of questions of Church principles and leadership, and questions relating to Christian citizenship, social and personal life, and spiritual growth. There were present about 150 leaders in Christian work throughout the province.

The Midwinter Bible Class for Men in February had an attendance of 800, a gain of 300 over last year.

The men came from all the churches and remained for instruction ten days. Dr. Moffett's assistance was much appreciated by all.

After-effects appeared in a series of small classes held by the Koreans themselves at various places. The yearly growth of this mid-winter class, the interest of the students, and their zealous though laborious efforts at note taking attest the value that the Koreans themselves set upon them.

WOMEN'S WORK.—The Winter Bible Class for Women was held in March and more than doubled last year's record of attendants. There were 175 women in the first division alone, and a total of about 350. All the women of the Station had some part in the instruction, and Miss Samuels and her Bible woman from Syen Chyun and Dr. Moffett also helped.

Mrs. Adams conducts a weekly class in the Bible, in which about fifty women are studying Matthew. A Dorcas Society was organized by Mrs. Johnson last year to cultivate a missionary spirit among women of the church. This has been in charge of Miss Cameron, and of Mrs. Sawtell during the former's illness.

The Bible woman has done a good work not only in the City Church, visiting and praying with the sick and afflicted, and looking up the delinquent members, but she has made a number of long country trips, visiting church after church, and bringing cheer and encouragement. We were not able to conduct any country Bible classes this year, but one or two trips were made to the country by Mrs. Erdman, Mrs. Sawtell, Mrs. McFarland and Miss Cameron.

Mrs. Johnson has had charge of the bathroom for women, opened through the kindness of friends, an institution which has been much appreciated by those who have been able to avail themselves of it.

Mrs. McFarland conducted in the Spring a Tuesday afternoon Bible study class for the little girls of the day-school.

MEDICAL.—The Taiku Hospital.—The year has been a good one for medical work in connection with the hospital. More patients have come and more operations have been performed than before; and, better than either, more of the patients have become interested in the Gospel and confessed Jesus.

An average of twenty surgical cases required dressing daily, many of them tubercular bone diseases which, after operation, took from one to two months for recovery. Few men or women, unless exceptionally hardhearted or prejudiced, can be politely and kindly treated, have their wounds carefully washed and dressed and hear daily doctrine preached and taught by those so caring for them, without being convinced that the doctrine and the treatment are one, and being profoundly impressed thereby. Mr. Su, the evangelistic helper, has done earnest preaching and personal work. Three student assistants have been added to the two already employed.

Several times, when lifting the curtain that separates the consulting from the operating room, the doctor has found the waiting patient with head bowed in prayer.

Mr. Su keeps a book in which is noted the name and address of every patient who has become a Christian or expressed an interest in the Gospel, or who has even manifested a special friendliness. These names he gives to the missionary of the Station in whose territory the patient lives, and when that missionary takes an itinerating trip to the country, if possible, he looks up the ex-patient, or directs one of his helpers to do so. Thus the evangelistic work of the hospital is followed up and conserved.

SYEN CHYUN STATION.

The absence of Dr. and Mrs. Sharrocks on furlough materially affected the Station work during the year. Dr. Hirst, Dr. Whiting and Dr. Wells gave occasional assistance. In March Dr. and Mrs. Purviance came from America, and remained until Dr. Sharrocks' return. Business matters, house building, and much of the routine duties of Station life, which had been borne by Dr. Sharrocks, were added to the work of others. The coming of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts was a welcome event.

There has been almost constant sickness in the Station, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross had the sorrow of seeing their little child taken from them in December.

The completion of the Whittemore house and the Oliver Memorial Home, making five comfortable homes in our Station, has added much to our comfort. Many visitors have been with us, including the parents of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blair and Mrs. Whittemore's sister, Miss Anna Parsons. The railroad has brought us nearer the world, and made living easier; but with the change have come hosts of problems, making the past year the most difficult one in the history of the Station.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Sub-Presbyterial Committee is getting the Church on a better basis, all work becoming more thoroughly organized. There are now, besides one Korean pastor, ten organized churches, eleven ordained elders, three having been ordained during the year, and two elders-elect in the province.

It has been a privilege to get these men together to discuss the problems of the Church and to lay plans for the future. They are strong men, and their wisdom is consecrated. They have personal ambitions, but are wonderfully patient while the Church goes through its formative period. Their unselfish devotion is inspiring. The Church has become their sphere of life.

The helpers have traveled their circuits as usual. Last year we reported twenty-one helpers, each with a circuit. There are now twenty-five helpers, four new circuits having been formed during the year.

The local church has advanced strongly. The new building constantly increases in its usefulness. The debt is paid. There have been eighty-two baptisms and 130 catechumens admitted to the local church during the year, making a total of 447 baptized members and 400 catechumens.

At one time discipline for gross sin had to be vigorously administered. The men's Sunday Bible school, conducted by Mr. Blair, and the women's Bible school, in charge of Miss Chase, are still held separately, the men studying first and then going home to care for the babies while the women study. Miss Chase, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Whittemore and Mrs. Blair have all held special women's Bible classes during the year.

The Gospel's hold upon our little town grows deeper and deeper. Just above the town has long stood a high place, where animals have been sacrificed to demons. First word came that the building was for sale; then one day a group of Christian business men went up and took the images out of the shrine and burned them below the gate. Then the building was torn down, and at last the town, in a meeting, gave the whole mountain-side to one of the schools of the local church as an endowment. During the year the province has been nearly cleared of devil worship shrines.

The country churches throughout the province have grown stronger and new groups have sprung up in many places. We now have 122 groups in all where regular church services are held. There are in all 5,408 baptized Christians, 1,388 having been baptized this year, and 5,367 catechumens, 2,045 being added this year.

Many of the groups could be visited but once this year. We have been deeply distressed over the tendency of the Christians to lose sight of the highest spiritual ideals in the new awakening over national and educational affairs. We would not discourage patriotism or new zeal for larger things in education or in business, yet we feel that in the change zeal for preaching the Gospel, Bible study, and devotion to Christ have suffered, and that, though the Church has grown rapidly, educational and political interests move too many of those who come.

Some sections of our territory have become largely evangelized. Standing on the hills of southern Wiju or Nyong Chyun Counties and looking in almost any direction, one has before him the villages where from four to six churches are to be seen. Taking the Yang Tang Church in Nyong Chyun County as a centre, and describing a circle whose radius is ten miles, twenty churches enrolling over 3,000 believers will be included. The Yang Tang Church alone enrolls over 650 believers.

The trouble in the Tyul San Church, which was rent by unruly officers last year, has been healed, and the church is going forward with good spirit. One group in Wiju County refused to welcome the assigned helper because of the personal dislike of a wealthy leader. Upon his being deposed from his office in the church, the whole church followed him and cut loose from Presbyterian control.

In Ku Shung County the Nam Dang group suffered terribly in a fire which swept away more than half the town. The unbelievers blamed the Christians for the fire and damaged their remaining homes and the church. Hearing of their distress, sympathizing Christians throughout the province have taken up relief funds on their behalf.

The work in Tyung Ju, Ka San and Pak Chun Counties has been under the joint care of Mr. Whittemore and the Korean Pastor Nyang. Pastor Nyang has borne the responsibility and duties of the work and has performed his pastoral duties well.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Bible Study Classes.—The largest class ever held in Korea was held in February in the Syen Chyun Church. The presence of Mr. Sharp of Seoul and Pastor Pang of Pyeng Yang was a great help. Five Bible study classes for men were conducted by the men of the Station during the year, enrolling over 2,500.

The classes for women have been especially well attended. The two classes held in Syen Chyun enrolled 660. Miss Samuels held sixteen classes during the year, enrolling 2,458 women.

The home missionaries are still faithful to their tasks. The territory traveled by the missionary Cha has progressed so well that it was deemed best to have him give half his time to the organized groups, and only half his time to missionary work. The plan is to put on another man as missionary at once.

A new plan of raising the home missionary's salary was started last Fall by propositions from two of the counties to be responsible each for one missionary's salary. This work has been on a better basis since the Pyeng Yang Missionary Society and our Society separated. Our people take a more definite and personal interest in the work.

Missionary Whang, who works among the Koreans in Manchuria, has gathered a new group of believers together and reports rapid progress. His work has been somewhat endangered by malcontents who have found refuge in the China hills. We are still longing for the time when order may be brought out of the chaos that reigns along the Yalu River.

Colporteurs have largely become agents of private book firms which are in the business for money. Thus we lose the personal evangelistic help of the colporteurs to a large extent, even though the men who travel for the bookstores are all Christians. Mr. Whittemore has dropped the book business, and is now getting rid of the remnants of the old stock.

In the far north two colporteurs are working as in the past, but they will also probably be supplanted by agents for private bookstores in the near future. This turning over of the book business has on the whole been beneficial, in that it gets more Christian books sold; it is also a big step in advance along lines of self-support.

Theological Education.—Mr. Ross this year gave one and a half months' instruction in the Theological Seminary at Pyeng Yang, where twenty-nine students were from Syen Chyun. There are at present ten men desiring to study theology who are being held back for thorough testing.

The Syen Chyun Boys' Academy has enrolled eighty students with only three classes.

Mr. Ross was in charge till February, and since then the two Korean teachers have had charge. Good work has been done by the students, although a semi-riot occurred when the boys were not permitted to run the school and choose their own curriculum at the beginning of the Spring term. The expulsion of a few leaders brought them to their senses.

The Wiju Academy has enrolled fifty boys and the progress has been satisfactory.

In Yang Tang and Tuk Chyun two academies have been started, and, despite all endeavors of the Sub-Presbyterial Committee to unite them into one strong school, they are still separate, entailing a too heavy financial burden on the two communities.

The Syen Chyun Girls' Academy has been in Miss Chases' charge. Forty students were enrolled, and five months of school were held in the wards of the hospital made vacant by Dr. Sharrocks' absence. The students varied from women thirty-five years old to little girls who received their diplomas from the primary schools last Spring.

The Wiju Girls' Academy enrolled thirty students, and has made splendid progress. Miss Chase was in Wiju during their Spring term and taught only Bible classes.

Over 500 primary and night schools, claiming to teach western branches, have been started by officials and unbelievers in our territory. The church schools are in the lead of all, and influence all.

Normal Classes.—A group of teachers from the nearby counties has followed a normal course, gathering every Monday at Syen Chyun for recitation. In July the Annual Normal Class was attended by 144 teachers, 114 men and 20 women.

The teachers worked hard to the end, determined to master the course, which will be increased to four years next year, that they may not only get certificates, but may not have to give place to the young school boys who carry academy diplomas. They realize that it is a struggle for the survival of the fittest, and are determined to survive, though they have never studied in academy or college.

Endeavor has been made to enforce uniform curriculum, and we have been largely successful. Better methods of teaching and governing the children are urged with varied success. The magic uprising of athletic drill among the primary schools, while it has multiplied the strength and life of the schools, has tended to break up studious habits and make the boys headstrong. Yet, on the whole, we are satisfied that out of all the present tumult over education much good will result to the people and the Church.

MEDICAL.—After Dr. Sharrocks' departure, both Dr. Hirst and Dr. Whiting did work in the hospital. After annual meeting the buildings were closed, except while used for the Girls' Academy.

Dr. Wells cheerfully came to our assistance about twice a month, though very busy with his own work in Pyeng Yang. He was relieved by the arrival of Dr. Purviance in March; who, on account of language study, has tried to confine his labors to treating missionaries only, but has been unable to turn aside a great many Korean cases where it would have been cruel to have turned a deaf ear. We wish to express our gratitude to Miss Hallman, of Pyeng Yang, for her help in emergency.

The young Korean physician, Dr. Tang, who graduated last Spring from the Medical class, has opened a hospital in Wiju and has had continual calls for his services; he often treats as many as sixty cases a day and gives satisfaction. The coming and going of medical superintendence has made this a costly year in comparison with the native work done.

THE HUGH O'NEIL, JR., BOYS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL AND FARM.—Mrs. Hugh O'Neil's gift of $15,000 (gold) for a boys' school in Syen Chyun is bringing us great help in our school situation, and also puts upon us grave responsibilities and new problems.

We have felt all along that our Christians were able to finance their own educational work, but two very strong reasons have led us to feel that a school in Syen Chyun, run by Mission money and controlled by the Mission, is necessary. First, because we need a better grip on our educational situation; second, there are hosts of poor boys, the very best material for strong church workers, who cannot get an education unless some system of furnishing advantageous work, whereby they can earn money enough to live and study, is provided. We want a school, the best of its kind in our province, best taught, best equipped, best governed, graduating the best students, and we want it under Mission control. We also want to be able to say to worthy boys, no matter how many may come, that we can guarantee work that will enable them to get an education.

CHAI RYUNG STATION.

This comparatively new Station has reached a settled division of labor and organization. Dr. Whiting's eyes and general ill health have caused much anxiety, but we rejoice in his improvement.

We have been most fortunate in the visitors who have helped make the year pleasant. Mr. Eckerson, of China, was the first, followed soon by Mr. Severance, Dr. Avison, Dr. Ludlow and Mr. Kagin. After annual meeting came Bishop Harris, Mr. Noble and Mr. Critchet. Dr. Follwell helped nobly in the hospital during the December class, Miss Butts spent a month with us, and Messrs. Tate and Welbon taught at the same time. Mr. Kilborn, of East Orange, N. J., took in Chai Ryung on his way around the world. Miss Snook and Mrs. Bernheisel came for the Women's class, and later Mrs. Pieters and Miss Best for the Advanced class. Mr. Rufus, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Greenfield, and Miss Strang complete the list of visitors. Mrs. Sharp came to Chai Ryung shortly before leaving for America, and her husband has been with us as often as his work would permit.

Building.—The hospital and the residences of Mr. Koons and Mr. Hunt have been completed and Mr. Sharp's house begun during the year. The City Church has finished its new building, which has already held an audience of 1,000, and has begun a primary school building, 20 by 70 feet. The Mission property has been surveyed and a beginning made on wall and fence.

New Developments.—Pastor Saw Kyung Jo was placed in charge of a large country circuit, consisting of Chaing Nyun, Ong Jin and Kang Nyun Counties, comprising two-thirds of what was in Mr. Sharp's charge in past years.

Another change in organization was made by putting the special training of women for evangelistic work in charge of Mrs. Whiting, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Koons, as a Station Committee.

Three lines of work are to be done by this Committee: (1) The regular Training classes, held in Chai Ryung once a year or oftener, and open to all. (2) Special classes, two a year if possible, for a chosen few. (3) Private training for city and country Bible women. The General class in March was attended by 256, and the Special class in June by twenty-four. The teaching was done by friends from Seoul and Pyeng Yang, with help from the women of the Station, Mr. Hunt, and the City Church people. Our third experiment was the Normal class. This was held for a month, and enrolled 110, of whom fifty-six held out to the end. The teaching was done by eight Koreans, two being paid and the rest voluntary, Mr. Hunt, Dr. Whiting and Mr. Koons, with help from others in emergencies.

Chai Ryung City Church (Mr. Hunt and Mr. Koons in charge).—The congregation of 1,000 people, with its one helper, three leaders, seven deacons, eight "pang changs," and thirty-five or more Sunday-school teachers, became an organized church July 8.

Its vigorous campaign of personal work, and other forms of preaching Christ, its enthusiastic school work, the pastoral work of its officers and its splendid self-denial in church building, all speak of a life that comes from above working with the body of Christ. Bible study classes were held during the Winter four nights a week and prayer meetings the other two. For all Whang Hai Province the Church has called two Bible study classes for men and two for women. The total enrollment was about 1,300.

Mrs. Whiting's class for women Thursdays and Dr. Whiting's Sunday-school teachers' class Saturdays have been "channels of blessing." Systematic giving has been introduced. The new building has proved very satisfactory, but is already too small for the congregation. We await the completion of the new school building in which to begin the gathering of a second congregation. How great things God has wrought!

The following outline of beginnings should be preserved:

In 1895, Han Chi Soon, of Sinampo, received baptism in Pyeng Yang.

1896, Mr. Han and others preached Christ in Chai Ryung. A few believed, meeting in houses.

1897, eleven persons were baptized.

1898, Song Si bought a building in which the young church could meet, and Mr. Lee had a class which was hampered by jealousy without and lack of faith within the group. Mr. Hunt visited the group for the first time in the Fall of 1898, when it was all but extinct.

1899, the Roman Catholics wanted to buy our church building, and although the deed had been handed to the church officials, Song Si thought she ought to sell and receive back the money. Song Si's cousin bought the building, waited a year to get possession from its unscrupulous keeper, then left her Christian home near a Christian church, and for a year lived in the heathen city, preaching Jesus and seeing no result.

1901, she hired a man to teach school, and a few began to believe, one of whom is now an honored leader. During this year and the following year almost every Sunday two men came from Sinampo, six miles away, and helped her conduct Sabbath services.

1902, another teacher was hired for her "pauper school," and forty men from Sinampo came to repair the church.

1903, the group numbered twenty, and suffered persecution from the Roman Catholics.

1904, Russian-Japanese war. The congregation steadily grew. The building was again repaired. Opening of Chai Ryung Station practically decided upon. Several missionaries visited the city with this in mind.

1905, part of Station site and a temporary house bought. Kin Chang Il was appointed leader, the church building enlarged. First Bible training classes for men and women of all Whang Hai.

1906, Choi Ung Kwan appointed leader; An Ong Sik from Pyeng Yang helper for three months. First movement for a new church building. Dr. and Mrs. Whiting and Mr. and Mrs. Koons live in Chai Ryung.

1907, new church built; local helper secured.

1908, Chai Ryung Church becomes fully organized by the ordination of two elders.

Eastern Circuit (Mr. Hunt in charge).—The first and only visitation of the churches was begun in July of 1907, and completed in the latter part of January, 1908.

Every church save one reports growth. Many new groups have started. The salaries of the circuit's six helpers have been paid on time. Two new helpers and a local preacher were added, besides a woman worker employed for two months at Su Hoong. Six new leaders have been appointed, two elders ordained. Sixty-two Bible study classes for men were held and forty classes for women, having a total enrollment of 3,314. For Home and Foreign Missions $192.50 were gladly contributed.

There are eighty-four regular places of meeting, besides the fifty-three reported groups, many of which will be numbered as groups as soon as suitable leaders can be developed. The large proportions of the work have curtailed the development of leaders by cutting off personal work, personal supervision of leaders and helpers, the most rapid means of developing the same.

Southeastern Circuit (Mr. Sharp in charge).—The Mission has transferred Yunnan and Pai Chun Counties to this circuit.

Until April a co-pastoral relation with Saw Kyung Jo was maintained in the western part, which was then given into his sole charge, while Mr. Sharp cared for the three eastern counties. The year shows good results in four new groups, and an increase in the force of helpers, as well as an increasing desire to assume the support of those already employed. Enforced absence in Seoul and elsewhere makes the number of baptisms smaller than usual, but this has been a time of laying foundations, and another year will show its value.

Southwestern Circuit (Pastor Saw Kyung Jo in charge).—This work is distant and has no natural causes to bring its people toward Chai Ryung; but the people are becoming cordially affiliated and the work shows most gratifying growth in numbers, strength, and financial matters.

It now supports Pastor Saw, three helpers and a Bible woman. The fighting between Japanese soldiers and the insurgents has been particularly severe in this district, and Christians as well as others have had much to endure. At the time of the Summer class the situation was so grave that Pastor Saw and two of his helpers felt obliged to stay at home.

In April the military officer at Chaing Nyun Eup ordered the church there to be closed. Pastor Saw sent to Chai Ryung for advice, and Mr. Koons came. He took the matter up with the civil and military authorities, and the church was immediately opened, and the accusation that "the Christians are all the same as the insurgents" was officially withdrawn. Since this time, though the Christians have suffered with the rest of the people, there has been no action taken against the Church by either side.

Northwestern Circuit (Mr. Koons in charge).—This work includes six and one-half counties, in which about one in one hundred of the people are Christians. The year's work has been most encouraging, in spite of the fact that the pastor has been unable to give it the attention that it deserves.

Six new groups have been started in strategic points. Almost all the older groups show good gains. Two churches have increased their sessions by electing a second elder each, and the first elder has been chosen in the largest group, at Sam Sang. Seven helpers are regularly employed, and two others part of the time. One-fourth of one man's salary is paid from Board funds. The development of these helpers is an encouraging feature of this work.

Remarkable zeal for education is manifested by the people of Anak

Eup, both Christians and unbelievers. Elder Choi Quan Ok, of Pyeng Yang, is the leader, and is doing excellent work. Last Summer they had a Normal class of about 100, and this year there are 400 or more, with talk of an advanced school. There is no reason why this should not be of great benefit to all, both Christians and unbelievers, if it is kept to its business of education.

EDUCATIONAL.—This has been a year of crisis in educational matters, here as elsewhere. The effort has been to lead the Church to a sane position on the subject.

That the Presbyterian Committee, through the Sessions and pastors, should control our church schools has been laid down as a principle, and this has been generally well received and obeyed.

The Committee announced the following as essentials of a Christian school: (1) The local School Committee which may be appointed by the pastor or Session, or elected by the church with the consent of the pastor or Session, is to be composed of baptized Christians. (2) The teacher must be approved by the pastor, Session, or helper. (3) The school must have daily prayers. (4) The official curriculum is to be followed.

A proposition that the Presbyterian Committee found an academy was passed and preparations for beginning on a small scale are now making. The Normal class was in session during the Summer class, and at that time educational matters were taken up and discussed at length by both school-teachers and church officers, we believe with good effect.

MEDICAL.—

The medical work for foreigners has been light. The hospital, while not run to its full capacity, has done a large and excellent work. There has been an abundance of variety, from a man chewed up by a tiger to a girl who fell down a well, breaking both arms and both legs. It took most of a half-day to match the pieces and get her together again, but she is getting well, and will be as good as new in time. Both Japanese soldiers and Korean insurgents have been cared for, sometimes simultaneously.

Beside the Station medical work, Dr. Whiting gave six weeks to Syen Chyun. He has also taught a class of medical students part of the time, and began a class for personal workers, which is showing good results. The first assistant, Yu Mong Taik, has become a student for the ministry, and is now a leader in the city church.

CHONG JU STATION.

The members of the Station have had a busy year. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Miller, who so long toiled unaided, are now gladdened by seeing Mr. Kagin so far along in his language study that he can help in the work, while the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. Purviance gives the long desired medical missionary. Helpful visits from Mr. F. M. Brockman, of the Seoul Y. M. C. A., Dr. Eva H. Field, and Mr. G. S. McCune gladdened the Station.

THE FIELD.—The recent census gives the population of Northern and Southern Chung Chong Provinces as 1,200,000, and the population of Chong Ju County as 84,000. These 84,000 live in 900 villages within an average radius of about fifteen miles of Chong Ju. A division of territory is being made with the Northern Methodists, which we trust will soon be consummated, giving to each Station a clear and adequate field.

The Tillage.—The field is divided into three circuits, each of which should have a missionary in charge of it. A helper and a colporteur travel each circuit. These workers are, with one exception, men of long trial and good record. Two colporteurs from August to June sold 2,906 books, attending 140 markets. The usual average of each colporteur is 200 miles of travel per month and 300 people to whom they have explained the Gospel at length. We used about 60,000 leaflets during the year.

The Increase.—Part of the increase this year was due to division of territory with the Southern Methodists, which gave us ten groups and three meeting places, with fourteen full members and forty-two catechumens.

There are now under our care fifty-four groups and meeting places, with an average attendance of 975, including 176 members and 247 catechumens, who gave $434.90 gold or 2,898 days' wages during the year.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASSES.—Summer Classes.—A helpers' class was held during July, attended by the colporteurs also. At the close of this class one for leaders was held, but the insurrection and its attendant dangers greatly reduced the attendance.

Winter Classes.—The regular men's class was held in January. It was preceded by a week of special prayer, which prepared the city men to add extra love and zeal to their reception of the country brethren.

Sixty-five attended this class, double the attendance of last year. Some, including two boys, walked fifty-four miles, carrying on their backs the food needed during the class. Being too poor to bring rice, they brought millet. The daily conferences on spiritual and practical subjects were especially interesting.

Six other classes were held in the larger centres by the helpers, assisted by a home missionary supported by the Pyeng Yang Church. The attendance amounted to 170.

WOMAN'S WORK.—City.—The growth and development among the women in the Chong Ju Church has been encouraging. The average attendance has been sixty.

The Christian women often take a few tracts for non-Christians whom they visit in their homes. The year has added a goodly number of new faces.

Some visiting has been done in nearby villages, but as yet we have no one who can undertake this as regular work. In the city also a large work is waiting to be done. Several of the women are taking Sunday-school classes, and teachers are thus being developed. Mrs. Miller's Thursday class has drawn many hearts nearer to the Saviour.

Country.—A Mrs. O., who lives six miles from Chong Ju, has been responding to calls from the country churches to teach their women. She is doing an excellent work. Having known the power of the Gospel, not only to save, but to comfort in time of trial, her teaching is accompanied by a clear personal testimony to its saving and keeping power.

Midwinter Class.—Dr. Field and her Korean helper taught this class, the mornings being given wholly to Bible study.

It was during the Korean New Year, when evangelistic services were conducted every evening in the church. The city was divided, two of the women to a section; and, after special prayer for the evening service and for the non-Christians, these women went from house to house. Sometimes this was an opportunity for only a few words, with the giving of a tract and an invitation to the evening service. At other places they were invited to sit down in the house, where their message was heard with much interest, and they were urged to come again.

Girls' Day-school.—This was open during the Summer, when one of the advanced girls from the boarding school at Seoul came down and taught. Later it had to be closed for lack of a teacher.

CITY EVANGELISM.—For two weeks during the Korean holidays the city Christians, men, women and boys, made a canvass of the city and nearby villages. Leaflets and mimeograph invitations to the evening meetings were distributed. At these meetings the stereopticon was used, and won close attention to the Gospel. The Christians followed with a series of personal testimonies. Some evenings about 300 were present.

Market Preaching.—Chong Ju market is one of the large markets of Korea, being attended ordinarily by 6,000 people every fifth day. Mr. Kagin has built a preaching booth in the market, and has given much time to this work. Before the holidays, when the markets are largest, sixteen workers distributed 8,000 leaflets in less than an hour, and all were not supplied. The people at the market must have numbered 10,000. The helpers, colporteurs, and other Christians have taken good advantage of these opportunities.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Summer Schools.—During the Summer the city school-boys, of their own accord, organized night schools in different parts of the city for the "Wood Boys"; the latter paying the expenses.

Wednesday and Sunday evenings the pupils attended the prayer meeting and gave quiet attention to the services. This brought some thirty boys under the influence of the Gospel who would not have thought of coming to Church.

During the Summer, also an advanced school was taught by a Wells Training School graduate, and was attended by a group of the most promising young men in the city. It was self-supporting.

Chong Ju Day-school.—When the missionaries returned from the annual meeting, they found the school scattered and the schoolhouse turned into an outpost, as it stands partly on the city wall on the side toward the insurgent forces.

The country boys were afraid to attend all Winter; some of the city boys had fled with their families; those who had supported the school held fast to their ready cash, and the school ran all Winter with one teacher and twenty boys. In the Spring the school took a new lease on life. $17.00 gold a month was raised by the Koreans, and doubled by the missionaries, and an excellent teacher secured. He is an earnest Christian, formerly vice-governor of one of the provinces, and was well educated in Japan. The village deeded a tile building to the school, so we hope to have a good school in a well adapted building in the Fall.

Country Schools.—Schools are maintained by five of the churches, but as yet the work here is too young to have this form of activity pressed upon it.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Purviance spent the first months after his arrival in Syen Chyun caring for the missionaries and medical work there in the furlough absence of Dr. Sharrocks. On the latter's return, Dr. Purviance came to Chong Ju for his permanent residence; but this was at the end of the Mission year.

The Duncan Hospital.—Great encouragement has been afforded us by the gift of $5,000 gold from Mrs. John P. Duncan, of New York City, for a hospital in Chong Ju. Plans are being drawn for the hospital, and we hope soon to have medical work added to the activities of the Station for the salvation of this million people.

KANG KAI STATION.

One night, as the native helper was preaching in a village 300 miles north of Kang Kai, the innkeeper mentioned having known a Korean named Lee, a colporteur sent by Mr. John Ross, of Mukden, between 1880 and 1885, to distribute his Korean translation of the Bible. He laughed as he told how the colporteur threw great numbers of the Bibles into the Yalu River, or burned them in great piles, returning to Mukden for supplies and salary. Then the helper turned and asked him if he had not also known what Mr. Ross told the men who went complaining of the colporteur's dishonesty, that "Whoever then drinks the waters of the Yalu or lives in the houses on which fall the ashes of burning Bible, will believe in Christ?" Then the helper told how there were 600 Christians in Kang Kai, 100 in Tung Kang, 300 in Cho San, and so on down the Yalu to Wiju County, to where there are forty churches and 800 Christians in Wiju City alone; then of what he had seen in Pyeng Yang and even in the distant city of Seoul. Thus he showed him how Mr. Ross's words, spoken possibly before even Dr. Allen reached Korea, were coming true, and he urged the innkeeper to believe.

At the Cho San class last Winter, where 280 Christians were gathered, Leader Tyung, of the Ean Church, was urging us not to be afraid to cast all aside for Christ; and he told the following story: About twenty years ago a Korean merchant away up the Yalu sent a boatload of beans down to Wiju to market. The rainy season was on and unheard-of floods had covered all the lowlands. The boatmen could not find the proposed landing and drifted helplessly down among the islands. Men and women, clinging to trees and roofs, climbed on the boat as it drifted by, till it began to sink. Then the head boatman ordered the beans cast overboard. As the boat grew lighter other helpless people were taken in, till the boat was filled with those whose lives were being saved. Then all worked the oars and landed in safety a little below Antung.

A few weeks later, as the boatmen with great fear told their master how his cargo and wealth were lost, the good man wept as he thanked the men for doing such noble service for him. And as Leader Tyung told the story, a double interest fixed the hearts of all who heard, for all knew of that terrible year of the flood when so many thousands lost their lives, and there before him sat men who had lost homes and all in its waters and had gone up the Yalu to make a new start.

A great migration took place that year, and to-day as one goes along the upper Yalu he is surprised to find how many of the best families were once wealthy farmers in the Wiju bottoms. Their relatives are still in Wiju or Nyong Chyun, and several of the strongest groups of Christians up the Yalu were started by men who, while visiting their old homes in Wiju, heard the Gospel and returned to preach it to the salvation of their up-river friends.

Fourteen years ago Dr. Moffett walked into Wiju City and stopped in front of a shop to make a small purchase. A crowd gathered and he gave some Christian pamphlets to them and spoke to them of Christ. One of the men standing there was named Chay who lived in Potul Kol, 200 li north of Kang Kai. He took his pamphlets home, read them, and laid them in a box, where they remained for eleven years.

Three or four years ago Dr. Moffett and Mr. Lee sent a Christian named Tang up the Yalu River to get lumber for building in Pyeng Yang, and he put up at an inn at the mouth of the Potul Kol valley. One day the man Chay went down the valley on business and stopped at the inn, and Tang began preaching to him. Chay told how about eleven years before he had seen a man in Wiju called Ma Moksa, and had brought home some books and put them away. Then, to his surprise, Tang told how it was Ma Moksa who had sent him for lumber.

The result was that Chay accepted Christ and went back up the valley, got out his books and began preaching. For three years now his group has grown rapidly in one of the deepest, darkest mountain valleys in the North.

Christmas, 1907, ten strong men came down the valley, met the missionary, put his sleighs in charge of the innkeeper, for not even a pack pony could go up any farther, and, with the loads on their backs, started up the valley. Snow was three feet deep. Christmas Eve was spent at a Christian home, and the next morning, twenty li farther up, about sixty Christians gathered to spend a happy Christmas Day. They are now building a new church and more are believing.

All along the Yalu there are valleys like the Potul Kol, and one wonders if there are not as many people hidden away in each valley, and if some day they may not all know Christ and be building churches.

In 1899 a group of young men in Kang Kai began calling themselves Christians, but lived in sin. With the rising of the Boxer troubles in Manchuria, fleeing Koreans reached Kang Kai and told of the massacres. At Suppodong the refugees started a church which now enrolls eighty believers. But in Kang Kai the story of the Boxers ended the pretence of the band of young men to be Christians.

Meantime Kim Kwan Gun, a colporteur, went up to sell Bibles. Reaching Kang Kai during 1900, he could find no trace of the group. But a young boy, fifteen years old, followed him to his inn and asked him about the Gospel. So interested did the colporteur become in the boy that he remained in the inn for nearly a week, doing little else than teaching him. The boy's name was Lee Hak Myun. He brought all his money, bought a Bible and tracts and became a Christian.

It was about this time that Syen Chyun Station was opened, and in December, 1901, Mr. George Leek, who died at the American mines on his way home, made his trip to Kang Kai. In his diary of that trip, under date of December 7, he wrote: "Spent the day in gathering facts in the history of the Kingdom in the Kol. The first believer is a young man seventeen years old and is very active." The five whom Mr. Leek examined and admitted to the catechumenate that day were led to Christ by this boy.

Next year Mr. Whittemore visited Kang Kai and admitted thirteen more catechumens, but baptized only one, this boy, the first baptized man in Kang Kai, and made him deacon. Mr. Ross took the work during 1903 and 1904 and raised the young man to the office of leader. When Mr. Ross went to Kang Kai, in December, 1904, he found about 150 Christians, and Lee was still the life and power of the church, with groups starting up in other places.

The assignment of Mr. and Mrs. Blair and Dr. and Mrs.

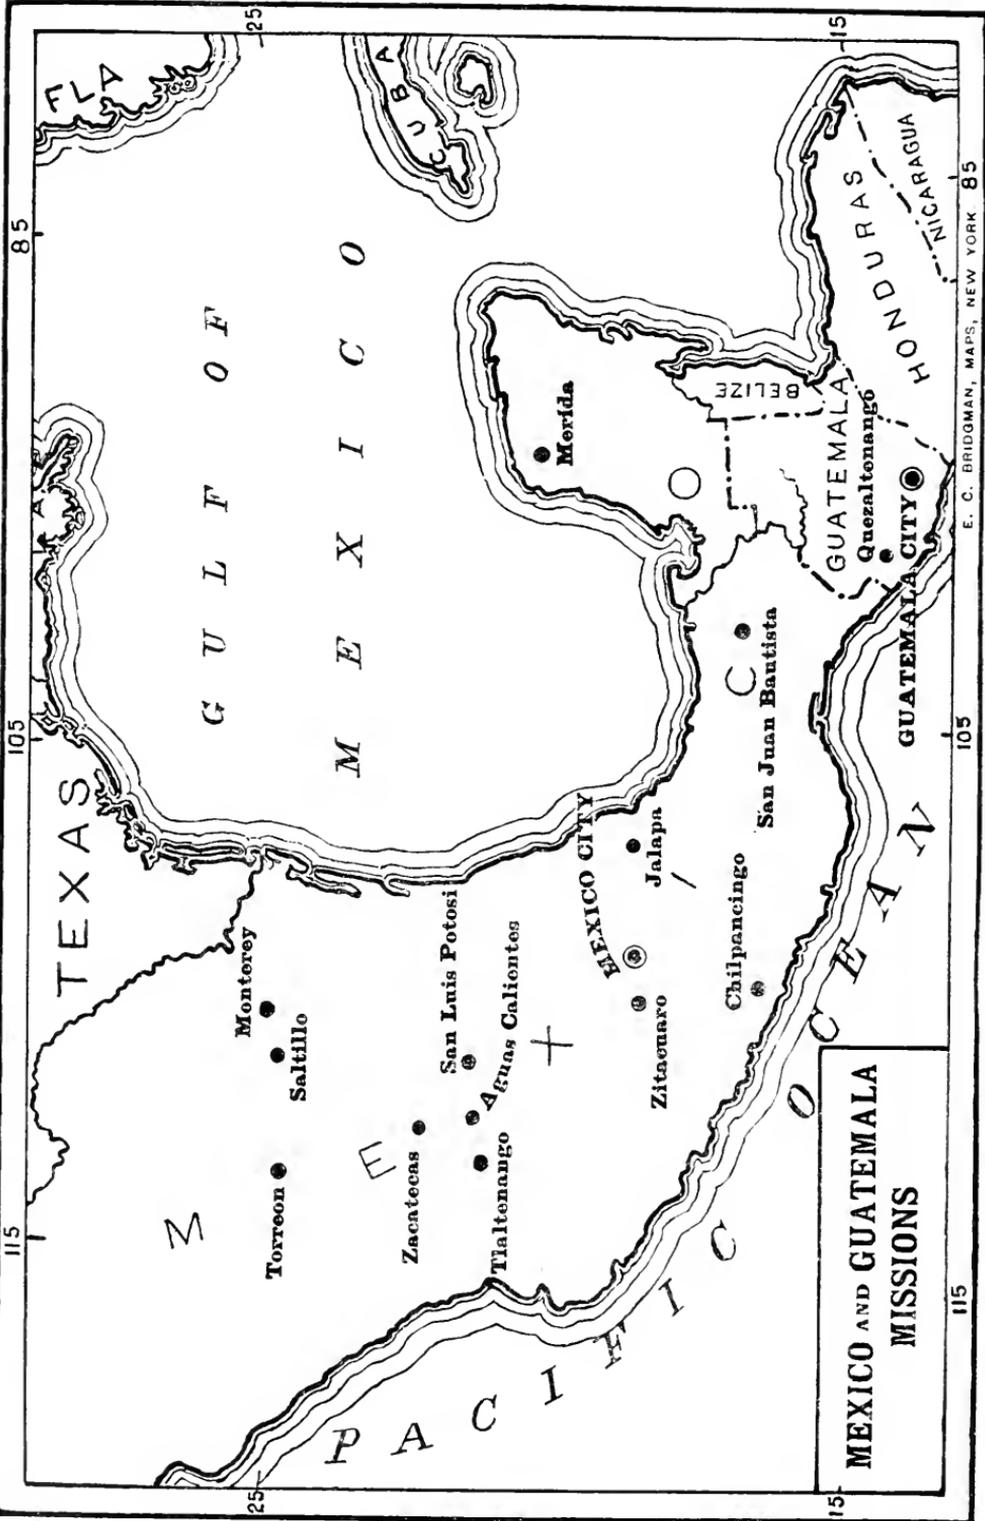

Mills to go with one other family and open Kang Kai Station ends a long period of waiting. The growth of the church, the need of more immediate guidance and discipline, made it imperative that something be done.

Land has already been purchased through the gifts of Mrs. Gamble, and other California ladies, for the main part of the compound in an attractive location. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kennedy, of New York, have generously given money for a hospital and two residences have been provided. Money given by the Tenth Church of Philadelphia for a launch for use on the river will be an important factor in the equipment of the Station.

STATISTICS.—Kang Kai territory extends from the Kwang Shung group 700 li straight north through Kang Kai to Tung Kang; from the Mama Hei Church on the east it is 300 li to the Chinese groups on the west. There are twenty groups in all, enrolling 862 believers. There are thirteen schools in the district, three of which are for girls. There were baptized during the year 101 Christians, making a total of 437 baptized Christians in the district. There are 425 catechumens. In all there are about 2,000 believers.

MEXICO AND GUATEMALA MISSIONS

MEXICO MISSION.

The annual meeting of the Mexico Mission held in the City of Mexico, January 20 to 28, 1909, was the twenty-fifth. No special exercises were held to commemorate this event. It is suggestive, however, that the Mission opened wide its doors to the native brethren. Delegates were present from the National Synod, from the Zacatecas Presbytery, and from the Presbytery of the City of Mexico. The Mission report states:

In view of the presence of these Mexican delegates, much of our conference and discussion drifted into the Spanish language; but in spite of the bilingual character of the meetings, we never felt more fully the unity of the Spirit as we sat in family fashion in the parlor of the Girls' Normal School, while the fire glowing on the hearth reminded us of the homeland, and the presence of the native brethren linked us closely and constantly to the native Church.

Many things were settled that possibly we would have had to postpone, or else expose ourselves to the danger of being misunderstood later on by the native Church; but with the presence of official delegates from the synod, we came to conclusions which we knew would be satisfactory to all. We think it is not too much to say that the last great obstacle to a sincere and frank understanding of general matters between missionaries and natives has been removed.

The spirit of independence and of self-support is growing in the native Church. During the year a communication was received by the Board from the Zacatecas Presbytery and the Merida Church regarding properties held by the Board in Mexico. Our fellow-Christians in Mexico wanted to be fully assured that the moneys which they had invested in churches and schools should not be diverted at any time to other purposes. The Board was more than willing to assure the members of these churches that the monies thus contributed should be sacredly held for the extension of the kingdom of God.

In view of the increasing emigration of Mexicans across the northern frontier, a committee was appointed by the Mission to consider this whole matter, and keep in touch with the Presbyteries in the United States which include Mexican congregations, as well as with pastors of English-speaking churches within whose neighborhood any large numbers of Mexicans are found.

It is of interest to note that the Mexico-Texas Presbytery, made up entirely of Mexican congregations in Texas, was recently organized. This Presbytery will be ready to cooperate with the Mexico Mission in caring for those who come to reside temporarily or permanently under the Stars and Stripes.

At the Mission meeting steps were taken looking to the union of the American Presbyterian Church and the Union Evangelical Church in Mexico City. The articles drawn up by a joint committee have been approved by both parties, assuring not only the evangelical character of the union, but the maintenance in the new organization of a living interest in the Mission work on the part of the members of these English-speaking churches.

The notable event of the year was the Upper Chamber meeting in San Luis Potosi, and the work of grace which followed this gathering. The need of a revival spirit had been deeply felt for a long time by many in the Mission, and not a few groups of believers had agreed to make it a matter of united, daily prayer. An attempt to stir up strife on the part of a small body of men had resulted in creating a very strong desire for union and for a larger blessing from the Spirit. After much prayer it was proposed that a group of earnest workers be gathered together to wait on the Lord, as did the disciples after the ascension, until the Holy Spirit should manifest His will. A committee was named to select representatives from the various Christian bodies at work in Mexico, and a list of twenty-three was prepared. These names were selected irrespective of their affiliation, and purely from the point of view of the most spiritually-minded men and women of the Church. The matter was brought to the attention of the whole Church, and a call was issued for a week of prayer in which all the churches joined during the time of the Upper Chamber meetings. The meetings were held at San Luis Potosi from October 13 to 15. Twenty-six representatives came from other cities, and there were present nine from San Luis Potosi. The motto chosen was "We would see Jesus." All the churches at work in Mexico were represented save one. The gathering was held in the parlor of a Christian home. There was no program, and no prepared addresses. Most of the time was spent in prayer and confession. It was not long before the presence of the Spirit became manifest. A great wave of enthusiasm and expectation came over all the delegates which broke out in the public meeting the first night, and in a great revival which continued throughout the sessions and was communicated by the delegates to many churches.

The good effects of this Upper Chamber meeting was manifest in many ways. There were conversions, backsliders were reclaimed, and a spirit of unity and aggressive evangelism was manifest in many places.

The changes in the Mission during the year have not been many. In September, the Rev. Lansing B. Bloom, who went to the field in 1907, and had given evidence of becoming an efficient and self-denying missionary, was compelled on account of severe illness to leave Mexico, and he and Mrs. Bloom have since resigned from the Mission.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vanderbilt were greatly afflicted in the death, on December 13, of their little daughter Katherine.

Miss Mary McDermid, who was appointed a missionary in 1897 and who for all these years has proved a most faithful worker, resigned, to become the wife of the Rev. R. M. Minton, formerly pastor of the Union Church of Mexico City.

Miss Anita Boyce, who was appointed in 1907, resigned February 1, and was married to Mr. George H. Billman.

MEXICO CITY.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Rev. Arcadio Morales, as in previous years, has had charge of the Church of Divino

Salvador. The work was more or less disturbed during the year on account of the decision of the Federal Government to widen Hospital Real, the street on which the church building is situated. In September the Government advised the Mission of its intention to purchase the property, and asked for the keys of the church in order that the proper measurements might be taken. At the time of the Mission meeting no agreement had been reached as to the price.

The relations with the Government have been most friendly in this matter, and the Mission will lose nothing by the transaction. As evidence of the spiritual life of the church it may be mentioned that the Christian Endeavor Society of the Divino Salvador Church gave $6,611.54 Mexican for the erection of Immanuel Chapel in Mexico City.

The Rev. William Wallace, who is President of the Coyoacan College and Seminary, during the school vacation, accompanied by Mr. Morales, took a ten days' trip into the Ozumba District, some sixty miles from the City of Mexico. He reports:

It is one of the most interesting fields that I have ever visited. We have there five congregations within a radius of eight miles and all of them, with one exception, made up of pure Indians, who have taken up the Protestant faith with hearty enthusiasm. In my whole district I am the only ordained man, and as a result there has been very little done in the way of organization. During this visit, however, Dr. Morales accompanied me during part of the time, establishing three Christian Endeavor Societies in two of the churches, and I had the pleasure of ordaining elders and deacons in three of the churches. In one little town of 1,200 we had audiences of 150, only about half of whom could crowd into the little chapel. Great interest was developed in the services, and after a whole day spent in careful examination and conferences with the candidates, thirty-two were received on baptism.

EDUCATIONAL.—Coyoacan College and Seminary.—The great event of the year was the revival growing out of the Upper Chamber meetings. With perhaps three or four exceptions, the revival reached and affected visibly every one of the students and all the faculty.

November 12, the day designated by the Mexican Churches as their national thanksgiving day, the students met for half an hour of prayer. They began to pray for their families; the names of individuals were presented in prayer amid sobs and broken utterances. The meeting was continued under the Spirit in the hands of the students for three hours, without any one being conscious of the lapse of time.

How they did pray for those at home! And the first answer came from away down in Yucatan. Antonio Ferraez came in one day a couple of weeks later, his frank, handsome face beaming. He had just had a letter from his mother, and she and her daughter "believed."

The changed lives of many of the students was the surest indication of the work of God's Spirit in their hearts.

Converse Hall was practically completed during the year. Part of the flooring and plastering was done most satisfactorily by the students.

As we have no graduating class this year we decided to close the school year by inviting the Presbytery of the City of Mexico to meet with us, extending them the hospitality of the college. There were present eleven ministers and eight elders, besides a number of visiting friends. Our sixty iron beds, secured through the liberality of friends at home, and our new dining-room service made it possible for students, ministers, and Indian elders to be our common guests; one brought his whole family to live with us.

Mrs. William Wallace, who has been untiring in her efforts to secure proper equipment for the seminary, writes:

The last payment on the beds has been made, though the last $25 was taken from the general fund. More than enough to pay for the beds has come in, but other things had to be had, and at once, so a part of the bed fund was used. The sixty beds have cost, with freight from Saltillo and hauling to Coyoacan, a little more than $1,200, but it is comforting to know that the seminary will never need new beds in our day and generation. The school dining-room is also substantially equipped.

There are nearly enough wardrobes to go around. One dozen washstands have been purchased and muslin curtains made for the dormitory windows and the wardrobes. Though much is still lacking, we are less ashamed of our domestic department than of yore, and the change upon the students is marked. They are much more orderly and take pride in keeping their rooms neat and clean. With the new baths and sanitary arrangements, they are a nice, clean, wholesome set of young fellows which make my motherly heart swell with pride.

Mr. R. A. Brown spent part of his time in the United States, and the rest of the year he attended to his usual duties in connection with the Coyoacan College and Seminary.

The Girls' Normal School.—During Miss McDermid's absence on furlough, Miss Hunt and Miss Cathcart had charge of the Girls' Normal School. After Miss McDermid's resignation the school was left in charge of Miss Hunt.

Our school has just closed its twenty-sixth year, a remarkable year in some respects.

Increased facilities in dormitory room and dining room enabled us to accept more boarders than ever before. Our primary department seems to have been popular in the neighborhood and has had a larger registration than formerly.

We have had three American missionaries and six Mexican young women on the faculty. The graduating class is the largest we have sent out.

These twelve young women come from representative regions of the Republic. Three come from the State of Guerrero, a whole region where the Gospel work is distinctively Presbyterian. We hope one of these will remain in her own State to teach for our Mission, one go to teach in a well-known Methodist school, and one go to a far distant coast town to teach for the Government.

Three come from the State of Michoacan, and will all go back to teach there for our Mission. Two of the class come from across the Gulf of Mexico, making the voyage on an ocean liner. Their positions have been awaiting them for months in the day-school maintained by our church in their own city.

Two of the class come from the State of Vera Cruz. The one from the State capital may be called to a position in her own alma mater, and the one from the great port of Vera Cruz will go to open an influential school in the region where our Mexico Home Missionary Society is spreading the Gospel.

One member of the class is from a little mountain town near here, but nearer the great snow-covered peaks. She was not a Christian when she came to our school years ago, but now she has brought her family into the church. The member of the class that I mention last is a Congregationalist girl who came to us for her last year of study, and who will go back to teach in the far north of Mexico for her own church.

There were forty-two enrolled in the Normal Department at the end of the first month. The attendance was almost perfect. Forty-one were boarders and one was a day pupil.

The attendance increased to forty-five during the year, and with five in the other two departments, primary and intermediate, the highest total number of boarders was 50; day pupils, 47; greatest total number, 97.

THE PRESS.—During the year Mr. Vanderbilt had the management of the Press, with Mr. Arelano in charge of the proof-reading. Mr. Vanderbilt also performed the arduous duties of Treasurer, and assisted the teaching force at Coyoacan College.

Mr. Arelano, in addition to his proof-reading, gave time to work in the seminary and assisted Mr. Morales in pastoral work.

Mr. Vanderbilt successfully launched the monthly, Presbyterian Work in Mexico, also secured the publication of El Evangelista Mexicano, and changed El Faro to a weekly edition. The editorial work was under the charge of the Rev. C. Scott Williams. Mr. Williams has devoted a great deal of time to this work. He has had the entire supervision of a staff of eight men who form a supplementary staff of writers, and who were appointed by the Executive Committee of the Synod. These with some six others constitute a group of men who are endeavoring to make the paper a great evangelistic power in Mexico.

The El Faro became a weekly paper with the first issue of 1909. It is too early yet to draw any conclusions as to the success of this change.

The Sabbath-school literature prepared by Dr. Isaac Boyce and Mr. Moises Saens has also been published by the Press. This literature is used in Chile, in Colombia, in Guatemala, in Cuba, Porto Rico, Spain and the Philippines, as well as in Mexico.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH.—On May 1, 1908, Dr. W. B. Minton resigned from the American Church. The members of the Mission in Southern Mexico felt responsible for the continuance of this English-speaking church. Rev. Newell J. Elliott was appointed by the Mission to take charge. In this service he was ably assisted by his wife. The report gives the following account of the year's work in this church:

The work of the American Presbyterian Church in Mexico City came under the care of the Mission on May 6, and I began my work as pastor of the church on this date. The condition I found the church in was far from encouraging and hopeful. It was not an old church, it was not a new church, but it was a discouraged, scattered and broken church which I found, and the task of building up a church in the face of such conditions called for the best of life and power and we gave it. Some said that the case was hopeless, but I was sure that the Lord would direct us and soon show us whether or not we had undertaken a vain work.

The conditions are even more opposing in this foreign city of 400,000 than in a city of the same population in the States. There is the lack of religious and moral sentiment which is so helpful in a Christian land. Our congregation numbers some 125 persons, although they are not all able to attend regularly for various reasons. The largest attendance has been forty-eight and the largest collection $43.50.

ZACATECAS.

Southern Zacatecas field was under the care of the Rev. Charles Petran, who was on furlough most of the year. He reports:

Last February the Zacatecas Church lost for the second time its pastor, Rev. Ventura Euresti. He was once called away by the Presbytery and now this past year by the Seminary. This left the church without a pastor and no available man in sight. Rev. Juan F. Márquez had been assigned a field in the Laguna District, but it seemed best to detain him in Zacatecas for the balance of the year. He entered the work heartily and by his pastoral work has gained the approbation of a large part of the congregation.

Five members were received into the church during the year and all the services were continued with regularity. The C. E. has manifested quite a little vigor in its work. The group of ranches about Zacatecas, lying in the district from Ojocaliente to Jerez, has been visited this year, as in previous years, during the seminary vacation by Antonio Senti, a Cuban student. I here include his report to Presbytery, to give an idea of what is being done from his point of view.

"This report includes the months of January, February, March and December, 1908. During this time I visited nine different villages and ranches, among them being El Moral, El Refugio, San Geronimo, and others, holding 82 services and making 175 pastoral visits and talking with 150 persons with a view of advancing the Gospel. I have sold $27.00 worth of Bibles and books from the Tract Society and have distributed 126 tracts.

My object has been as always to animate our members in these out-of-the-way places and work among the unconverted.

The student might have mentioned a very unique Christmas celebration at the same place, El Refugio. The exercises were held in the open air in a corral, where with the stalls and animals it would not be very hard in imagination to picture the first Christmas. There were about eighty people that filled the corral this last Christmas to listen to the songs, recitations and customary exercises.

Northern Zacatecas, Laguna and Saltillo fields have been under the care of the Rev. T. F. Wallace, D.D., and Rev. Lansing B. Bloom. Dr. Wallace is the veteran of the Mission. We regret that lack of space prevents giving the report in full. Dr. Wallace writes:

According to the distribution of work made at the last Mission meeting, the work of our Mission in the States of Coahuila, Nuevo Leon, Durango and Northern Zacatecas was assigned to T. F. Wallace and L. S. Bloom, with residence in Saltillo. The latter was not to be responsible for any of the itinerating work, but was to have charge of the English work at Saltillo, and, as might be found convenient, was to be inducted by me into the field work. On our way home from the last Mission meeting, Brother Bloom and I visited the congregations at Zacatecas and Fresnillo, although these were not on our field. We also visited the congregations on my field at Gomez Palacio, Lerdo and Torreon. Mr. Bloom and his wife did good work at Saltillo among the English-speaking people, visiting among them and keeping up regular preaching services for them. Mrs. Bloom also did work in connection with our native work there. But a sore disappointment for them and a sad one for the Mission came to them in August, when their labors were suddenly interrupted by the severe illness of Mr. Bloom, which compelled them to leave the country before my return from my annual vacation, early in September.

What has been known as the Saltillo field comprises three districts—the Saltillo, Monterey and Allende, and that of Monclova.

Saltillo.—In this district are the organized churches of Saltillo, General Cepeda, and Concepcion del Oro and small congregation at Parras, and one or two preaching points.

In the Saltillo Church there is an intelligent board of elders, and there are four or more graduates of our girls' school in the place. With the aid of these and the minister we understand that church services and Sabbath-school have been kept up pretty regularly, without any expense to the Mission, and little or none from themselves. Pastor and people seem satisfied to continue on in this way, showing no growth in numbers, spirituality or Christian giving. The church is as able to pay a quota towards a pastor's salary as are many others. There is no reasonable hope for any development, but rather the contrary, in the church until they have a pastor who can and is willing to carefully look after their spiritual interests, a thing that is now and has been for some time almost wholly neglected.

Allende.—Outside of Monterey the additions to membership in the different congregations have been very few and the total membership to-day is little above what it was twenty years ago. A larger number of girls from this district than from any other have been educated in our Saltillo School, and in great part at expense of the Mission. And although there is need for Mission day-schools among them, the people have been unwilling to co-operate with the Mission in keeping up even one good school. To allow things to continue there much longer as at present will prove a positive harm rather than good to the work in that district.

The visit to this place, as well as to two or three others in that district, had some peculiar incidents connected with them. Just thirty years before I had had my first experience in itinerating in Mexico, visiting these places in company with Rev. H. C. Thomson, then in charge of that field. So on this visit there was some pleasing and pathetic reminiscencing with some of the poorer and older ones whom I had not met during all these years. One was a feeble old man who had gone blind since that first visit, and his expressions of joy and thankfulness at meeting me and hearing my voice once again were most gratefully touching. Such experiences are part of the hundred fold promised, and certainly make another chapter in the romance of Missions, such as only the "veteran" missionary is permitted to relish and record.

It will be noticed that Dr. Wallace's report is full of light and shadow. The charge is sometimes made that missionaries only present the encouraging side of their work. A reading of Dr. Wallace's report would prove the falsity of this charge, so far as he is concerned. For a man who during the year passed his seventy-fifth birthday he seems to have clear visions of what is required of a foreign missionary.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Girls' Normal School at Saltillo, under the care of Miss Wheeler, was opened in 1889. There have been 931 boarders and 110 graduates. Of this number seven have died, thirty-four are married and sixty-two are teachers. The report shows a prosperous year.

There were seventy-seven boarding pupils and twenty-six day-pupils, making a total of 103 in attendance. Two missionaries and seven regular Mexican teachers constitute the faculty. Our graduating class, numbering nineteen, attracted a great deal of attention. Eighteen of the girls were boarders and had been in the house on an average of six years. The one other was a day-pupil and had never attended any other school, but had been with us twelve years. She was given a position in the Saltillo city schools a week after her graduation. Another member of the class was given a position in the city the 1st of January. We now have three teachers in the Saltillo city schools.

It was not difficult for the girls to obtain work and all are already teaching, the majority in official schools.

Financially the year has been a very difficult one. The promises to pay tuitions were given in good faith, but many people were not able to fulfill them. Northern Mexico has felt very keenly the financial crisis. Our motto has ever been forward and not backward.

SAN LUIS POTOSI.

EVANGELISTIC.—In addition to his large editorial work, Mr. Williams has had charge of the San Luis Potosi and Guerrero fields. He was away from home attending to editorial and evangelistic duties 170 days.

The work in this field is divided into four parts, the first a very small portion to the north of San Luis on the National Railroad, where the Mission has had three preaching places; then in San Luis itself; also in and around Rayon; and lastly the Huasteca. It should be borne in mind that since 1899 the Mission has had but two workers employed in this field besides myself, one acting as pastor in San Luis, the other at Rayon, so that it is not to be expected that any great development should have been accomplished outside of these two points.

In San Luis the work has been more encouraging, though at the beginning of the year it was far from being so. Twenty new members were received during the year, and all the members engaged actively in the religious work of the church. The work at Rayon has been better than hitherto. At Rayon seven new members have been received, one of them a man with his family who are quite a substantial addition, as he is a man of earnestness and good life. The people have revived their C. E. Society and Sunday-school and as many as thirty gather to the preaching service.

It remains to speak of the work in the Huasteca. As I give my last report on what has been attempted in this section, it is with great regret that so little can be said or given as a fruitage of so many labors and for so many years. I do not know as it is a particularly hard field. It looks like a place where much could be done, as the people are not so intensely fanatical as in the interior. But they are far more indifferent to religion of any sort, and as there is less of law and order, being remote from the centre of Government, there is also less of moral restraint, and a general laxness that makes it hard to show the people that a religious life is worth while.

THE GUERRERO FIELD.

Mr. Williams made two visits to the field, one in May and the other in November. He writes:

I feel that I have obtained a pretty fair notion of the kind of work that has been done, the places where we can do most and the best way of employing the men who are engaged with me in the work. I am certainly ready now to make a strong effort to redeem some of the waste places in this widely extended district, and to begin a thorough evangelistic movement in all our stations.

The Field.—The seventy or more preaching stations in Guerrero are spread out over nearly the whole State, and can be divided into five groups which I will proceed to name:

1. Atoyac, with its adjoining stations, on the coast of the Pacific—Tecpan, Aguas Blancas, San Geronimo, Santa Barbara, San Vicente, Acapulco.

2. Chilpancingo, the State capital, with Tixtla, Xochipala, Zumpango, Chichihualco.

3. Iguala, point nearest Mexico, with Platanillo, Tuxpan, Zacuapa, Temazcalapa, Apipilulco, Totoapa, Aguacatitlan, Teloloapan, Mohonera, Balsas.

4. Tlacotepec, to the west of Chilpancingo, with La Reforma, Tezcal Huertas Viejas, San Miguelito, San Nicolas, Tetela del Rio

5. Ajuchitlan, on the lower Balsas, with Totolapan, Tlapahuala, Arcelia, Coyote, Poliutla, Coyuca de Catalan, Llano de las Huertas, Coyol Quseria, Placeres del Oro.

At present we have in this field five men, but I am not sure whether they are competent to do the work.

The problem has been how to distribute these men to the best advantage over this tremendously big field of mountains without valleys, and towns a day's ride apart. At Chilpancingo the church is doing fairly well, has its Session, its Sunday-school and C. E. Society, and a really earnest attempt is being made to carry on evangelistic work. Quite a number of the congregation have moved away in the last year. The day-school has been kept up, and while there is no financial support for it, it is a great help to the congregation and is a really evangelistic agency reaching many new families. But much remains to be done in this and the other fields.

JALAPA.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Station was in the charge of the Rev. Isaac Boyce and Mrs. Boyce and Rev. Newell J. Elliott and Mrs. Elliott. The Station work embraces a large field, including Yucatan, Campeche, Tabasco and Hidalgo. Some idea of the extent of the territory covered can be gained by reading Dr. Boyce's itinerary of travel by rail, 6,800 miles; by steamer, 1,500; by canoe, 125; by stage, 100; by horseback, 450.

In company with Dr. Boyce, Mr. Elliott left Jalapa early in February. The first night was spent at Vera Cruz, where services were held and the Mission work visited. The following day they sailed for Yucatan.

The work in the town of Progreso is advancing slowly though firmly. The new frame church is nearing completion, in spite of the fact of the severe financial depression which has been upon the State the past year. This port town is not without all the customary difficulties which such towns have to contend with, yet a good spirit seemed to be manifested in the work and the congregation has been very generous in their giving to the work.

In the city of Merida, which we next visited, the enthusiasm in Christian work which cheers the heart is to be found. Should any doubt exist as to the progress of the work in Mexico, the attendance at one service in the Merida Church will quickly dispel any idea of defeat. The church is a veritable beehive every day in the week. A well-equipped and well-conducted day-school is part of the institution. They truly follow the familiar slogan of "Every Christian a member, and every member a worker." The Sabbath-school is large and well conducted and the church services are crowded, which means an audience of 300 to 400 people. It is refreshing to look at the clean appearance of this congregation, and you cannot help but feel that the Gospel has found a worthy people, for we often say "cleanliness is next to godliness." Several representatives of other nations are to be found in this church, namely, Americans, Syrians and Koreans. One can realize, after a visit to this church, the truly wonderful power of an active evangelistic church. Protestantism is respected in Merida, and the power of the church can scarcely be estimated in the community at large. We next visited Ticul, which is several hours' ride by train from Merida. In this town the services are well attended and the interest is very strong. The pastor, Placido Lope, is doing fine work, and the people are growing into strong workers. During our visit meetings were held every evening, and though a carnival celebration was in progress on the plaza the church was crowded with earnest listeners. A new church is also nearing completion, although the work has been greatly delayed by the financial panic. We visited some little villages near this town. One place, which is about a league distant from Ticul, we visited one Sabbath afternoon and held a service.

One of the most interesting occasions on the trip was the visit to the town of Muna, which is some leagues on the other side of Ticul on the road to Merida. Muna is noted for its fanaticism and also jealousy of long standing with the town of Ticul. But the workers from Ticul were undaunted and found a small entrance into this place. We visited the town two months after the work was started and were greatly pleased at the outlook.

At Frontera we took the river steamer for San Juan Bautista and arrived in that city the next morning. The work in San Juan exerts a good influence, although the conditions are not the most encouraging for the pastor, Mr. Granados. He is highly respected by the entire city, from the Governor to the poorest peon. He is truly a pastor and his people are very loyal. An incident occurred which is hopeful in showing the respect in which Mr. Granados and his people are held. A rich ranchman, who is not a believer but is friendly to the work, invited the Presbytery to spend the day at his home near the city. He was giving a party for the graduates of the Normal School, of which his daughter was a member. A special table was arranged for us on the porch, and the waiters seemed rather astonished when the offer of wine was declined by us. Such a class of priests were strangers to them. Such friendly recognition of the evangelistic work betokens, I hope, great things for the future. Birthday greetings were carried to the Governor from the Presbytery and he appreciated them very much. From San Juan Bautista we set out on the trip to the coast and interior churches. The first day's trip by canoe brought us in the evening to the Indian village of Hidalgo. This place had been visited for the first time by the pastor from Paraiso a few weeks before. Our coming was cordially received, although we were looked upon with rather curious eyes. It seemed well to hold a meeting the following evening, after visiting some of the homes. There were present some 100 men and only a few women, for, strange to say, the women are classed with the cattle and do not have many privileges. The place seems very near barbarism in some regards, because of the abbreviation of dress of both women and children. The visit was well repaid in not only helping with the work, but also in gaining from that little village the son of the chief for the Coyoacan College. The chief, after much Indian hesitation and consideration, finally consented to allow the boy to come to Mexico City with us, and he agreed to pay all of his son's expenses. If you could visit the little village you would understand better the future of that place and how, in many ways, it depends upon the education of the chief's son. Another canoe journey brought us to Paraiso. We traveled mostly during the night to avoid the extreme heat of the day. In Paraiso the work is very strong. At the ordination service of the pastor the church was filled, numbering some 300 inside and some fifty who preferred to stand outside and look on. The regular evening services, which were carried on while we were there, were well attended, and the communion service, when eight members were received, was attended by a very large number, some of the people coming a long distance down the rivers. From this village of Paraiso three boys agreed to return to Mexico City with us to enter Coyoacan College. A horseback trip brought us to some of the groups of believers and congregations in the jungles. The genuine faith of the people was always inspiring to me, and though the scope of their life is not very broad, the Gospel of Christ seems to be the best thing they have and truly makes their life worth living. Brief services were held along the way where it was possible to gather a group together.

Our departure from San Juan Bautista was one to be remembered with more than passing interest. We had said farewell before going on the boat, and since it was quite probable this was to be the last visit of Dr. Boyce to their city for some time, almost the entire congregation was at the pier to say and wave good-by. It was in the early evening and the high bank was lined with the people of the city. As the large river boat turned its prow down stream in the centre of the river, we could see a large group of people a little distance from the pier waving us farewell. It made us feel that where the heart beats true, there one may find sympathy and friendship in all its grandeur.

In the Hidalgo field, even as diligent an itinerator as Dr. Boyce finds himself in new territory:

This part of Mexico was entirely new to me, and I knew nothing of the character of the inhabitants of the State of Hidalgo until August last when I visited the work. I had never come in contact with the Otomic Indians, and was interested in studying them while on the visit. I found them different from any other Indians I have met; and they do not strike me as a people likely to exist for more than a generation, or at most for two generations. They are poorly developed physically, low in intellect, and generally a degenerate people. They do not extend down into the hot country, and the inhabitants in and around Pisaflores are very different in character and in physical condition from the Otomics of the higher regions.

A new mining enterprise is being developed in Flojonales, some twenty miles to the east of Zimapan. Mr. Sturgiss, the general manager, has shown a most cordial spirit, and his house, 9,000 feet above sea level, is open and warm for the missionary and native preacher whenever they reach the mines. The work being done so far in the mines is development. If they get the ores they hope to find a very large plant will be at once established, and an electric road will be built from the Nacional to Flojonales. In that case this will become the most important town in all the section where we have work. Already a number of believers have moved to the place for work, and Mr. Verduceo holds services in the camp. In case the work is continued, it is Mr. Sturgiss' intention to open schools for boys and girls; and he told me he would look to our Mission for the very best teachers we could furnish him, and with full liberty to teach religion, as he says he sees the need for it.

AGUAS CALIENTES.

At the close of the school year Miss Spencer and Miss Turner took a few months for a much needed furlough, and Mr. and Mrs. Molloy were compelled to spend a few weeks in the States on account of the ill health of Mr. Molloy. This, however, did not interfere with either the evangelistic or educational work of the Station. In Mr. Molloy's absence Mr. Petran and Dr. Dodds had charge of the pulpit.

EVANGELISTIC.—

The past year has been rich in blessings. The work of the Aguas Calientes Station has gone well in all respects. The English work has suffered quite seriously on account of the change of administration in railroad affairs, causing an unusual exit of those who were regular attendants and helpful supporters of the church. Despite the changes that have taken place the spiritual and financial condition of the church are very encouraging, and we enter the new year with high hopes and sincere thankfulness.

The organized Mexican work has gone on in peace and prosperity. This church is blessed with two good ruling elders, a good deacon and a goodly number of young men and women of which any congregation might well be proud.

After the "Upper Chamber" meeting in San Luis Potosi some ten of the brethren who had attended that "feast of Pentecost" spent a day at Aguas Calientes. We held three services, and it was a glorious day—such a day as the church had never seen. Not less than a score were added to the church, the larger number of whom were pupils of the college, though many others were deeply moved.

Cosio.—Our little congregation at Cosio has not grown, but we feel thankful that the few members that we have there appreciate the monthly visits of the native pastor, who holds three services at each visit.

In the new Mission, in the streets, in the jails and in private homes we work against this king of vices—Intemperance.

The opening up of new Missions in Cholula and Teran has aroused much opposition. The Teran Mission was broken open, although the door was double locked, and about $200 (gold) worth of property (including the magic lantern) was stolen.

EDUCATIONAL.—Colegio Morelos.—The severe illness of Miss Turner during the year put much extra work on Miss Spencer and the Mexican teachers. Miss Spencer assumed full responsibility during Miss Turner's illness and the work of the school went on as usual. The report of the year is encouraging:

Two hundred and ten pupils were enrolled in Colegio Morelos during 1908. Nine grades and the kindergarten were taught. In all grades fair work was done, and in almost all of them excellent results were obtained. The sixth year was noticeably fine in all branches, and the little folks of the first grade did so unusually well that all the other years willingly conceded the palm.

We were really gratified with the results of the year's Bible study. All grades did more than average work. Even the baby kindergartners learned many precious gems during the year, and could recite them on their examination day.

The English department did its usual good work.

The dressmaking department was greatly appreciated by many of the girls, and proved profitable.

The work in the physical training classes was of a high grade,

We have not yet brought the curriculum up to the mark that we have set for it, but we have made some progress toward it.

Some may remember that at our farewell prayer service at Mission meeting last year, Miss Spencer requested all to pray for a revival in Colegio Morelos during 1908. This thought was uppermost in all our work during the year. We were not disappointed in results. We have never seen a more powerful manifestation of the Spirit of God in our girls than during the year just closed. Catholics and Protestants alike were converted, and showed fruits of the Spirit. We have rarely seen the Gospel of Christ so honored, and never have we seen the Spirit in so great power, not only on the great day of the meeting with the Mexican brethren, who came direct from the Upper Chamber reunion, but long after. The letters from the pupils to their home people, who were Catholics, breathed of a change so vital that only the Spirit could have wrought.

§ Partial report.

MISSIONS IN PERSIA.

No country in the world has been more disturbed by the play of the new forces which are operating in Asia than Persia. The introduction to the report of last year gave some account of the beginning of the Shah's rupture with the Parliament. On Tuesday, June 23, 1908, his troops bombarded the Parliament buildings. A number of the leaders of the Constitutional party were killed and the Constitution itself was withdrawn. Since then the Shah has remained master of the situation in Teheran, and, in spite of the pressure brought to bear upon him, has refused to restore the Constitution or to reconvene the Parliament. The situation has been much strained between him and the people, and the newspapers have one day reported his acquiescence in the popular demand for a restoration of the Constitution, and the next day have reported his refusal.

Distant sections of the land, however, have been in open revolt. The city of Tabriz, the most important city in the country after the capital, refused to acquiesce in the destruction of the Constitutional regime and civil war ensued, the Popular Party being led by Satar Khan. After fighting which lasted throughout the Summer of 1908, the Royalists were driven out of the city of Tabriz and a good part of the Province of Azerbaijan was held by the Constitutionalists. At the date of the preparation of this report, in March, the Royalist troops were closing in afresh upon the city, and fighting has been renewed with outrages against which Russia and Great Britain had protested, perpetrated by the Royalist troops in their effort to cut off all communication between Tabriz and Russia, the Royalists already holding the Eastern roads to the city and the road from the South which has been the special road for the food supplies of the city. Throughout all the fighting the missionaries have remained at their posts, although last Summer bullets fell on the compounds and even came in through the windows of the Mission houses, and throngs of refugees pressed in upon the missionaries. It is still uncertain whether the missionaries will be able to continue in Tabriz during the coming Spring and Summer.

The work has been kept up even in Tabriz, though, of course, evening meetings were impossible, and as soon as the fighting was over the schools were more crowded than ever with pupils, especially Mohammedans. In all the Stations of Persia now, large numbers of Mohammedan pupils, both boys and girls, are thronging the schools and creating a need which, without additional help, the missionaries are unable to meet. The presence of these young Mohammedans in the schools furnishes an opportunity which must not be allowed to pass unimproved.

Some account of the special conditions in Urumia are described in the detailed report of the Urumia Station, but the following general statement may be added:

In Urumia we have been living at the meeting place of two storms, and this has mitigated the force of the tempest. The internal disturbances have been kept somewhat in check because of the fear of Turks and Kurds. Last Fall, as I then reported, the control was in the hand of the local assembly or "anjuman" and of the "mujahidin" or organized patriots. In November these latter forced the governor, Imam Kuli Mirza, to throw up his governorship and leave. A few weeks later the arrival of the Persian Boundary Commission brought in an element of stability, and a few months later (in March) Muhtisham es Sultaneh, the head of this Commission, assumed the governorship. Meantime rival factions in the city threatened one another with dire destruction, rival camps fired off rifles, and things seemed threatening. The storm blew harmlessly over. Muhtisham es Sultaneh organized his administration with bureaus of justice, military affairs, taxes and police. The old anjuman was incorporated in the government as a sort of court of appeal, with high honor but no authority. The general result was good and order was kept. The administration of the Kargozar was not reformed, and the Christians were unblushingly governed in the good old way of bribes and intrigues.

The border question between Persia and Turkey was the subject of negotiations here and elsewhere during the year. Last September H. B. M. Consul General Wratishaw came here from Tabriz in order to assist in the negotiations of the joint commission. In December the Persian Commission arrived and a month later the Turkish Commission. After a month or so of fruitless negotiations the Turkish Commission returned to Turkey, but they were compelled by the pressure of foreign governments to return in June. They left again in August and there is no prospect of a resumption of negotiations here. In October, Mr. Wratishaw returned to his post in Tabriz. The joint commission failed to find even a basis for discussion, there being no agreement as to the force and interpretation of treaties. The status quo for the last century more or less is not allowed any weight by the Turks and appeal is made to treaties several centuries old and to the possession of territory by them even longer ago. The presence here of responsible Turkish officials was a blessing in enabling the British and Russian consuls to bring pressure to secure relief from Kurdish depredations.

Petty depredations occurred continually last Fall and Winter and culminated in a large raid in June. The number of villages that have been attacked and robbed by the Kurds of a considerable amount of property is hardly less than fifty, at least fifteen of them being Christian villages; while as large or a larger number have been compelled to pay blackmail. The number of persons killed from the Christians has been perhaps fifteen to twenty. These attacks have been from one end of the plain to the other and even down to the edge of the lake, whence at one time 800 sheep were taken up through the plain and within two or three miles of the city gates.

The revolution in Tabriz, resulting in the possession of that city by the nationalists under Satar Khan and in the occupation later of Khoi, Salmas, and other regions by the nationalists, has brought about the re-establishment of the anjuman and the reappearance of the fidai. The open union of the Armenians with the Persian nationalists has brought a new element into the whole problem, and makes more difficult than ever the neutral position maintained by the Syrians in all of these civil disorders in Persia. The killing of an Armenian revolutionist in a skirmish with the Kurds was made the occasion, on December 18, of a remarkable demonstration in the city. His funeral was attended by thousands, including the principal nobility of the city, and speeches were made, such as the streets of Urumia never heard before. After making large allowance for insincerity and fear, the public preaching of equality without regard to religion, and the fraternizing of Christians and Moslems were enough to make one think. Among the speakers were two nullahs and a Sayyed. Meantime the general breakup of the government has started the Kurds again to robbing. Among the losers is our pastor in Gavilan, who was stripped on the road of everything, even his clothing. Urumia is isolated and we hope that the serious revolutionary disturbances may not extend here, but all is doubtful. Meantime the Turks are in possession, though with very small garrisons, of the border territory from Sardasht to Salmas, with Sulduz, part of Baranduz and part of Anzal.

We have great reason for gratitude that in the midst of all these changes and disorders no danger has come near us.

In the midst of all the confusion, which has been in some ways so much greater in Tabriz and Teheran than here, whither is Persia drifting? One answer can be given, and perhaps only one. It is drifting away from the past. Anarchy or foreign occupation may ensue. We may be under Russian or under Turkish rule. In any case, the old order has gone forever. Disappointment in the new regime has not increased the longing for the old autocracy. The revolutionary party in Tabriz has also shown more force and more self-control than was expected.

The worst conditions, however, have been in the Turkish Mountains in Mr. McDowell's field, where raids by the Kurds upon the Christian villages have brought immense suffering and loss. Special relief funds were sent out, but these, at the best, allowed but a few coins to each needy family. Mr. McDowell has carried forward his courageous work among the mountains unflinchingly, in spite of all the discouragements and dangers that have surrounded it. In a letter of December 17 he describes the worst of the Kurdish raids and the general conditions which prevail:

The purpose of my visit to Tiary was to distribute relief. In July, some 5,000 Kurds descended on one of their valleys and plundered and burned some ten of their villages, killing a few of their people and destroying their crops. Most of the fighting men of the valley were two days' distance away in their Summer pastures, as it was thought their flocks would be the point of attack. It was therefore as a surprise that the army of Kurds appeared early in the morning on the top of the mountain at the head of the valley. Our young preacher, who also by birth is the chief of the valley, at the head of a small band, met the Kurds on the mountain, and by skillful fighting held them in check until the women and children had time to cross the Zab to a place of safety. Khoshaba and his men then crossed the bridge, and held it against the Kurds; thus preventing a massacre of the people. But while they were safe they had to witness the burning of their homes and fields, and the plundering of their goods. One incident in the fight deserves mention. While opposing the Kurds on the mountain, one of Khoshaba's men was mortally wounded. He begged to be left on the field, as his case was hopeless, but a younger brother refused to listen to this. He got him on his shoulders and succeeded in carrying him, under fire, down the mountain and to the bridge; but there he himself fell wounded beside the body of his brother, who had died on the way.

It was sad to see the blackened walls of the villages, and to see the women walking among the ruins of their homes, beating their breasts and bemoaning their loss. I visited all the burned district, comforted them the best I could, and took a census of the villages and of the supply of food on hand for the Winter, as a basis for the distribution of relief. While I was there a small band of the same Kurds made another raid on their sheep, only an hour or two from the village. The Kurds were driven off, but one of the shepherds lost his life. Is it strange that these Christians become warlike and sometimes take the law into their own hands, and by counter-raids, punish the Kurds for such crimes?

EAST PERSIA MISSION.

TEHERAN: capital of Persia, 70 miles south of the Caspian Sea; population 300,000; work begun in 1872. Missionaries—Rev. J. L. Potter, D.D., and Mrs. Potter, Rev. Lewis F. Esselstyn, D.D., and Mrs. Esselstyn, J. G. Wishard, M.D., and Mrs. Wishard, Rev. S. M. Jordan and Mrs. Jordan, Rev. Charles A. Douglas and Mrs. Douglas, Miss Cora C. Bartlett, Miss Mary J. Smith, M.D., Miss Rosa Shoenhair, Miss Annie W. Stocking and Miss Flora G. Bradford.

KAZVIN: 100 miles northwest of Teheran. Missionaries—E. T. Lawrence, M.D., and Mrs. Lawrence.

RESHT: 170 miles northwest of Teheran, near the Caspian Sea; occupied 1904. Missionaries—Rev. H. C. Schuler and Mrs. Schuler and J. Davidson Frame, M.D.

HAMADAN: 200 miles southwest of Teheran; population 40,000; occupied in 1880. Missionaries—Rev. James W. Hawkes and Mrs. Hawkes, Rev. N. L. Euwer and Mrs. Euwer, Rev. F. M. Stead and Mrs. Stead, J. A. Funk, M.D., and Mrs. Funk, Miss Annie Montgomery, Miss Ada C. Holmes and Miss Clara H. Field, M.D.

RESIGNATION: Miss Flora G. Bradford.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. J. L. Potter, D.D., and Mrs. Potter, Miss Annie Montgomery, Mrs. L. F. Esselstyn, J. G. Wishard, M.D., and Mrs. Wishard.

The Mission, which last year lost of its reinforcements Mr. Moore, has now lost also Miss Bradford, who has been unable to endure the strain of acclimatization. Dr. and Mrs. Wishard, however, have been able to return to the work in Teheran, enabling Dr. Frame to resume his work in Resht. Mr. and Mrs. Schuler were required on account of ill health to spend the year in Teheran, while Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and Miss Stocking took up the work in Resht.

TEHERAN STATION.

Persia is sharing in the general awakening that is sweeping over Asia. It is not possible to estimate to what extent missionary work in Teheran has been affected by the struggle on the part of the people to loose themselves from Oriental despotism, and to secure for themselves religious liberty and greater freedom of thought, but it is undoubtedly true that in no time in the history of the Station has there been such wide and extended opportunity for making the religion of Jesus Christ known to this people.

CHURCH WORK.—Dr. Esselstyn reports of the work and the difficulty of the missionary doing it faithfully:

The clergyman must keep on preaching Sunday after Sunday, without having sufficient opportunity for preparation. In order to preach to the glory of God and the edification of the people, one should have time not only for private worship and communion, but also for Bible study and general reading bearing upon one's pulpit preparation. It is quite true that sometimes simple sermons can be preached on the mission field that would not be appropriate to a home audience, simply because the home audience is educated as well as the preacher. Nevertheless even these simple or familiar themes require careful preparation. Mere exhortation would be no more acceptable to our average Armenian or Moslem congregation than to an audience at home. The older one grows in the ministry of preaching the more one realizes the necessity of "keeping the cask full," and the difficulty of doing it, because of lack of time and opportunity for reading and study.

There has been no wrangling or expression of discord among the church people. There has been a large degree of harmony and co-operation.

The attendance at all these services has been the largest we have had for a number of years. The average attendance at Sunday-school has been 123 plus, and at the Persian preaching which is held immediately after Sunday-school 108 plus.

The Bible class for men throughout the year was taught by Dr. Potter and, excluding the primary, had the largest attendance of any class, it not infrequently happening that from three to four rows of seats were filled with men of all ranks, who attentively listened to the truth as it was earnestly and most faithfully taught.

Six converts from Islam have been baptized. These converts from Islam are not enrolled in the membership of the Protestant Armenian Church, but are baptized and admitted to the sacraments, and pastorally watched over by different missionaries of the Station. Of the six converts one is a young artisan who was led into the light by another Christian; one is a Prince; one came a journey of twenty days especially to be instructed and baptized, and after getting what he came for returned to his home; one is a man who graduated from the boys' school and is now a teacher in it; one a girl from the girls' school, and the other a woman well known to some of the ladies of the Mission.

The English service was conducted as usual, beginning October 6, 1907, and ending May 17, 1908; the average attendance for the 33 Sundays and Christmas service being 44 plus. The total collections amounted to Krans 6,919.55. The entire British and American Legation as a rule attended regularly, and occasionally the German and Holland Ministers were present.

A class for the training of young men for Christian service has been conducted with an attendance of from three to fifteen. Two of the young men have offered themselves for Christian work.

Mr. Schuler made two evangelistic tours during the year, one a forty-five days' tour to Simnan in company with Bodvillie Dombouragin, and one to Kasvin when he was absent from the Station forty days. In the former twelve villages were visited.

EDUCATIONAL.—American Boys' School.—Mr. Jordan in his report of the American Boys' School says:

Every year at the opening of school there is plenty to do, but this time it was augmented by the strike of the preceding year, when about 100 of the Moslem pupils and some of the teachers went out. The most trying thing that fell to our lot was the interviews with these excluded men, who would first plead their innocence of any fault, then announce their willingness to accept any amount of blame and any punishment that we might mete out to them, if only we would readmit them to "the only school in the city worth the name." It was as hard for us to give as for them to hear the reply which, as some of them said, "shut the door of hope" for them: "You have had your opportunity, you did not appreciate it, you threw it away; it has been decided that the best interest of the school forbids your readmittance." In a few weeks practically all of those whom we would receive were back, and the only vacant places were those of the twenty-two whom Mr. Douglas, by vote of the Station, had permanently excluded. Of the five remaining in the Senior Class, two left in the middle of the year to accept good positions, one failed to pass his examinations and will remain another year. The graduating exercises for the other two were held, in connection with the Armenian literary entertainment, the evening of May 29. One delivered an oration in Armenian, the other in Persian. Each acquitted himself with credit.

The new German school which opened last Fall half a square from us, backed by the German Government for commercial and political reasons, and which received annually $12,000 allowance from the Persian Government, started off with a rush and was soon full. As it does not aim to exert any Christian influence but teaches the Moslem prayers to its pupils, it is free from religious objections. The large attendance well illustrates how much the Persians desire education, for there is no present demand for German. They study it merely as a means by which they may acquire the coveted education. We think the school has been an advantage rather than a hindrance to ours, for it is another opening wedge breaking down the fanaticism and exclusiveness. As soon as the people feel free to send their children to a foreign school, they will send them to any foreign school they will choose. They do not want German; they do want English; so if we continue to maintain a better standard than they, we shall have all the pupils we can care for, in spite of the well-known Christian character of our school and the Bible lessons which are a required part of our course. The enrollment for the past year was 226.

Iran Bethel Girls' School.—Miss Bartlett reports:

Persian girls are waking up to the desirability of an education, and now attractions and accommodations should be greatly multiplied. They are opening schools for themselves. We ought to have teachers ready for them. A teacher of one of these schools visited us and said she had two daughters helping her, but that she wanted to send them to us to be taught arithmetic (all of it), geography and English. As she went over the school she was overcome by the blackboards that did not rub off, the nice desks and clear maps, and went away exclaiming, "If this school in its perfection was known, you would have a thousand girls begging for admittance. I have visited every school in this city, and only here have I found real learning." We were glad of her good opinion, but really we are not half what the needs of the capital city demand.

We enrolled 180—97 Armenians, 62 Moslems, 9 Fire Worshipers, 6 mixed, 4 Jewesses, 2 Russians.

The special word for this past year has been "shiluk" (disturbance, disorder). It has been frantically shouted, frightenedly whispered, and constantly repeated. We have had white-faced women come running so fast after their girls that they could only pant, "Shiluk! Give me my girl, quick! Good-by! forgive the trouble. Shiluk!" Several times our lessons were rudely interrupted and the house cleared in a very short time. It was trying, for the wolf never really came, but we were too afraid he might to keep the girls when sent for.

We had a tiny little six-year-old niece of the Shah's for a month or so. Such an independent, sturdy specimen of royalty I had never seen before, marching in and out alone and simply laughing when told that she must not go unattended, even if she was our next-door neighbor.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Frame, who superintended the work at the hospital during Dr. Wishard's absence, makes grateful mention of the valuable services rendered to this department by the English physicians of the city, namely: Dr. Neligan of the English Legation, Dr. Lindley of the Shah's staff, and Dr. Scott of the English Telegraph. He speaks with regret of Mirza Ayub, who, after ten years' connection with the hospital as pupil and assistant, left the work in November, to throw in his lot and influence with the Bahais.

All through the year the dispensary was comparatively small, running from as low as fifteen patients to as high as seventy or eighty in a morning, i. e., in the men's department, with perhaps an average of thirty or thirty-five. There were about twenty fewer admissions in the men's ward this year than last, the total being 197.

The women's department, with Dr. Smith on hand as usual, shows a much better record. The admissions to the wards were practically as last year, sixty-four, and she had a large dispensary all through the Winter.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Mrs. Jordan in reporting on this work says:

With both real and imaginary disturbances in city and state, with rumors galore and many a groundless panic, we are glad to be able to report that the interest and attendance during the year at all the special meetings for women and children have been unusually good.

A great cause for encouragement is the liberal spirit found on all sides. The Moslem husband of the woman baptized was very willing that she should be baptized. The parents of the school-girl not only consented but the father and little brother were present at the baptism, her mother being sick at the time. A Moslem mother at the wedding of her son informed us that it was because of her having a pupil in our school that the little bride had obtained so good a husband. Perhaps the most gratifying feature of all this work for women is the very great increase in the attendance of Moslem girls in our school, nearly one-half of the total number enrolled being of Moslem and mixed parentage.

Dr. Smith's widely extended work in ward, dispensary, and individual medical visits in their homes is a great factor in the uplifting of the women. The women at the crowded dispensaries Wednesday and Friday mornings were most patiently taught by Mrs. Potter. The Persians are awakening to the need of trained women nurses and are discussing establishing a school for such training. One of our Moslem friends, an unmarried girl of nineteen, is studying nursing under a Persian woman physician who got her medical knowledge from her husband, a graduate of a Paris school. This seems wonderful to us, who are so used to the shut-in condition of the women and their consequent helplessness.

HAMADAN STATION.

Notwithstanding the state of political unrest and confusion through which Persia has been passing recently, Hamadan and the region around about has been quiet. There has been no evident result, either favorable or unfavorable, of the political events on the mission work in the city.

Yet in our work there are changes to note, not brought about by Shah or Council. In a large open space, just outside the city, with the beautiful mountains in view, Dr. Funk has opened the Lily Reid Holt Memorial Hospital, while conveniently near is the physician's new residence. In the building in the city formerly occupied as a men's hospital, Dr. Field has recently reopened the Whipple Memorial Hospital for women. The new Boys' School building at this writing is almost ready to receive the boys, whose numbers have increased beyond the capacity of the old building. The home at the Faith Hubbard School for the first time in its history is closed, as Miss Holmes and Dr. Clara Field have a home in common in the dispensary property.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Mr. Hawkes, in reporting the church work, writes:

From St. Stephen's Church it is reported that three Communion services were held, when twelve members were added to the church and ten children baptized. Moslems, men and women, attend almost every service, but most of the men have acquired the habit of leaving when the text is being announced.

The pastor in charge of the Kamara District has made us two short visits, at the beginning and end of the past summer, coming up to take his children home at the close of the school year and to bring them up here again. He reports nineteen Communion seasons at the four preaching places during the year, when nine new members were received and fifteen infants were baptized.

EDUCATIONAL.—Boys' School.—Mr. Euwer, in reporting the work of the Boys' School, writes:

The roll-book of the American Boys' School for the year ending June 26, 1908, shows an increase in attendance of more than 32 per cent. over last year, and an increase in tuition collected of more than 55 per cent. At one time during the year the enrollment of Moslems was 33. During the year one Armenian and two Jewish boys united with the church. On March 26 a class of four boys, three Armenians and one Jew, was graduated. Work was begun on the new school building February 17.

The graduates from the Boys' School numbered four. Notwithstanding a pouring rain the Armenian Church was crowded. The Khalif was present and desirous of making amends for his opposition of a year or two ago and was given opportunity to speak. He talked for more than a quarter of an hour in Armenian. Those who understood him said his address was a eulogy of the Americans and a call for gratitude from his people to the missionaries who had helped them so much.

Faith Hubbard School.—Miss Holmes reports in the absence of Miss Montgomery on furlough:

Of the Junior and lower classes ten Armenian girls during the year have confessed Christ as a personal Saviour and have been received into St. Stephen's Church. Two others, Moslems, confessed Christ, but because of existing circumstances were not baptized, though the father of one of them was recently baptized. Because of insufficient appropriations to meet the expense of the school, the boarding department was closed at the beginning of the Easter vacation. Out of the seventy-eight enrolled before the change, forty-five remained enrolled in the school after the Easter vacation. Two of the former teachers and two of the graduates, residents of Sheverine, are now carrying on that school of thirty-five pupils.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Mrs. Hawkes writes:

Woman's special work is her life. Her life for Christ among a people where women have never known the dignity they are entitled to, the joy they have a right to, her freedom, her work as a teacher or physician, the comradeship existing between husband and wife—all these are object lessons that cannot fail to have an effect.

There are two weekly prayer meetings in different parts of the city, besides one in Sheverine. Moslem women come to them, as well as Jews and Armenians.

Most of the ladies have Sunday-school classes, in which are gathered women and girls or boys and young men. In these classes are representatives of the three nationalities among which our work is carried on. In one class on a recent Sunday a former pupil of the Jewish Girls' School came in, and when warmly welcomed she said, "I'm coming all the time now. While my baby lived I could not, for it was my special duty to take care of it. But now it is gone and I am coming." Then she went on to tell how she kept reading the Bible, because she did not want to forget what she had learned at school, and how she had many a talk with her brothers-in-law who are either strict Jews or Bahais.

That Jewish Girls' School is, as for several years back, a very small plant, but now and then we gather such a blossom, and it seems better not to uproot the plant yet.

Work among the women gathered at the dispensary has been full of interest. They listen; they ask questions. An Eliat woman from over the mountains one day tried to quiet a lady who was making a disturbance. "Listen," she said, "she wants to pray for you." When asked how she knew prayer was to follow she said, "I was here last year." Another time a woman said, "What is the perfume on the book? Is it willow-blossom water?" "Let me smell," said another. "No; it is only the smell of the Koran. The odor of prayer." One day a mullah's wife came on a donkey, accompanied by her husband. The next day a porter came when she was ready to leave. "Where is the donkey she had yesterday?" was asked. The ragged, scarcely human-looking man smiled and said, "The donkey cost ten shihces. What is the difference between me and a donkey? It has four feet, and I have two hands and two feet." So he took her on his back and departed.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Funk writes:

The past year marks a new era, in a way, in the medical work for Hamadan—at least as far as the work for men is concerned. The Lily Reid Holt Memorial Hospital was occupied, as well as the new physician's residence.

The first patients were received in the new building on November 29. Up to the 1st of August there were 44 in-patients and 33 surgical operations in the hospital. Besides these there were 33 operations outside. For the period covered by this report there have been 8,240 patients in the men's dispensary with about 5,000 additional attendants. In March two students were graduated at the time of the Boys' School Commencement, this being the first class graduated in about ten years.

Dr. Field reports:

On the last of January, 1908, the Whipple Memorial Hospital was opened and the first patient received.

We are all becoming attached to a dear little waif of seven years, who was picked up on the Sheverine and in need of just such a place and such treatment as the hospital can give. Dr. Funk, Miss Holmes and the writer were returning from speeding a departing guest, when a crowd was noticed surrounding a little unconscious bloody body. We alighted and learned that the child had been thrown from her frightened donkey and ran over by a heavy cart. A leg was broken and her face was badly mutilated. The men told us that a Seyid was driving the cart; that he had condescended to return and very graciously to give four krans (forty cents) to the distracted father. This is the estimate placed on the value of a girl! However, according to Moslem law, should the child not survive, the horses and cart would be paid the father as indemnity for the child's life.

Anna Hoseph, my assistant and medical student, and now matron of the hospital, is fluent in Turkish, and she spends time every day in reading to the patients from the Gospels and teaching them habits of cleanliness and industry and truthfulness (an element rarely found in Persian character). They are always interested, and often beg her to read on, while the chapter most frequently requested is the Fourth of Mark—they having come from homes of "tillers of the soil."

It may seem incredible to one familiar with the religious habits of good Moslems, especially to one who has seen the water jug dashed to the ground because touched by a Christian, to see in a Seyid's home the bride of that Seyid deliberately drink from the same water bowl from which a Christian had just drunk. The superstitious sneeze, however, still hinders us in our work. For instance, the father of a sick child came for medicine and was told to report the following day. The afternoon of that same day he returned the medicine, securely tied in a dirty handkerchief, and demanded his ten cents. Why? Some one had sneezed!

The dispensary's record of attendance for the year ending September 31 is 7,378 women. The number of operations done under chloroform in the hospital and in homes is twenty-nine, including two major cases. In the Spring a new medical class of six members was formed.

KERMANSHA.—Mr. and Mrs. Stead continued their residence in Kermansha, although a large part of the year they were moving about on itinerating trips, especially caring for the work at Sahneh. Of the Woman's work in Kermansha Mrs. Stead writes:

By means of Bible readings and conversations in connection with medical work, by visits in Moslem homes with a Bible and Kashi

Mooshi's hymns, by visits in Jewish homes where all the neighbor women always gather, and by receiving in our own home I have succeeded in reaching a large number of women of all classes. One day I was invited to the home of a patient to drink tea. She had made a great spread and invited a whole roomful of friends. A dancing woman had been invited to furnish entertainment. From the turn the conversation took the dancing woman seemed a little abashed, and I encouraged her unwillingness. When two or three attempts at music on a little instrument like a zither had failed, I suggested a hymn. Everybody wanted another, and as I did not know the words of the one I wanted most to sing, I sent for my book of Kashi Mooshi's hymns and a Bible. Everybody was enthusiastic over the hymns, and all listened attentively to the reading and exposition of the chapter. I have been at the same house several times since, but no dancing woman has been called in to entertain. The Kermansha women are friendly. There are always invitations to their homes. There is no setting of a separate place and cup, for fear they will be defiled by contact with their guest. There is no apparent fanaticism among them. Their hearts respond to the message of salvation, and many are the ejaculations of admiration and expressions of belief as I read to them. They weep at the sufferings of Jesus, they clasp their hands over their breasts and raise their eyes to heaven at the hope of His coming again. Let not any one of those who are working and praying for the redemption of Persia think that because conversions and baptisms are few the work here is hopeless. There are hundreds who believe, and one of these days there is going to be a break, and we will come rejoicing bringing in the sheaves.

Of Kermansha Medical Work Mrs. Stead writes:

Since it was not my plan to sit down to medical practice in Kermansha, I did not ask for any rooms for dispensary, but undertook to see any cases that should come in during our short stops in the city in one of the rooms in our own house. This proved a very awkward and unsatisfactory arrangement when the disturbances arose that forced us to spend the greater part of the year in the city, one little room, twelve by fifteen, having to serve the purpose of waiting room, consulting room, operating room, dispensary and storeroom. If in point of numbers my medical work has been small, in point of importance as an evangelistic agency it has been much greater than if I had had a rushing medical work, for I have had time and opportunity for long quiet talks with one, two or three, and a good morning reading with the first roomful each day, neither of which I could have had without either Bible woman or assistant, if I had allowed my hands to get too full of the medical work.

Of the Evangelistic Work from Kermansha as a centre Mr. Stead reports:

There have been five baptisms in the Kermansha Church this year. On January 5 Kashi Mooshi baptized Hatun, the wife of a Jew who was baptized about two years ago, and Moorad, a Jewish pedler, who had been an inquirer for a number of years. On April 16 I baptized Hosein Khan Garusee, a member of the custom house force at Ghasr Shirin, who became interested during a trip we made there in the Autumn. He bought Scriptures and renounced his loose habits of life, and became an earnest student of the Word. Since his baptism he has had some trouble in finding work, but he has remained faithful to his confession and seems to be growing in grace and spiritual power. On May 31 and June 21 respectively I baptized Habil and Mushi, sons of Mullah Hatan, the principal Bahai preacher among the Kermansha Jews. The former of these, Habil, has shown a remarkable ability and aptitude for discussion with the Jews.

We have made twenty-one journeys. In addition seventeen special trips were made to Sahneh. In all, separately or together, we spent 174 days in the villages and on the road; 101 days were spent in Sahneh. The Kermansha pastor, Kashi Mooshi, went with us to Sahneh on three occasions. In October he stayed for twenty-six days. He also accompanied us on a week's trip to Ghasr Shirin. In addition to this Azizullah spent July and twenty days of August, 1900, in the villages of Kermansha. The main results of the year's work appear in Sahneh.

Throughout the year the environment in Sahneh has become increasingly favorable to Christianity; people have become accustomed to the idea and possibility of men and women accepting Jesus Christ as their Saviour and openly confessing Him. As the number of Christians increased the whole village, with a few exceptions, became openly tolerant of Christianity. No attempts were made to deprive Christians of their means of livelihood.

Nineteen were baptized in Sahneh during the year.

By increasing the present force of native workers several fold at once, and locating them individually or in pairs in the most favorable points, a movement will certainly take place that will result in scores of converts in a few months and hundreds or more, probably thousands, in a little longer time. Even a few months of well-organized and adequately supported work may see so many souls brought into the Kingdom as to startle the faith of Christians throughout the length and breadth of the Moslem mission field.

KAZVIN STATION.

Dr. Lawrence reports:

In many respects this has been the richest, fullest, best year we have had in Kasvin, due mainly to the fact that the evangelistic work has been pushed to the front. It has required some firmness to adhere to the rule of first giving the Gospel and then treatment. Some have refused to listen to the truth, preferring to leave the house rather than wait until the close of services for treatment. Our custom is to open dispensary every morning with devotional services, in which we have endeavored to hold up Christ as the only Saviour from the guilt and power of sin, and the interest and attention with which many have listened have been most encouraging. Our little dispensary continues in favor with a great many, and we are truly grateful for the success we have had in treating many cases. Through it we are able to reach many with the Gospel who without it would not give us a hearing at all. It furnishes an excuse to those who through curiosity or otherwise desire to hear our message; for Persia, notwithstanding many changes in the past few years, is still a land of religious tolerance.

One of the most interesting, although the least profitable in my opinion, of the year's work has been my debates with the Mollahs. These men came in crowds of five or six, usually one spokesman with four or five "rooters."

Kasvin has been very conservative during all the excitement in Teheran and Tabriz. The Royalists are in the great majority, and the news of the overthrow of Parliament was received with the greatest joy.

RESHT STATION.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Mr. Douglas reports:

Morning Sabbath worship perhaps averaged twenty persons, and in the evening fifteen, with not much variation above or below that number. There was, however, a constantly changing personnel of those present; some who could not come in the forenoon came at night, but nearly every service saw some present never there before, and likely never there again. It was a constant challenge to our faith to find people, in all kinds of weather, appearing at these services, keeping up the attendance to so steady a standard.

Moslems themselves always have plenty of time and are always ready to talk about religion—nothing suits them better than a religious fray.

One intelligent, thoughtful man, a rice merchant, years ago bought a Bible from a colporteur in a bazaar, studied it despite the taunts of his friends, has thoroughly saturated his mind with it, and by drawing water from the well of its wisdom has confounded by his answers some of the chief Moslem ecclesiastics, before whom his business has taken him. Although not yet a professed Christian, the astonishing skill and boldness of this man in witnessing to the Scriptures makes us hope that he may become an Apollus when instructed in the more perfect way.

One attractive young teacher, a probable Behaee, came saying, "I am alone at night in a great hall of forty columns, trying without a light to discover which one is gold. Can you furnish any light to direct me to the truth?"

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Miss Stocking writes:

If anyone wants to really live with the people let him rent a Persian house in Resht, reserve four rooms for the family, and give over the rest of the house and the entire small courtyard to the education, recreation and sanctification of threescore and ten youngsters. Let not the tenant entertain any vain delusion that he will be quite alone until fifteen minutes before school-time. On a Winter's day there is a goodly assemblage by seven-thirty, and when the days grow warm and sunny the gate may swing open at six o'clock to let in some bright-faced lad with his hands full of flowers from his sunrise walk in a Persian garden. Nor let our lessee comfort himself with the thought that he can escape the gaze of shining brown eyes while he eats his lunch in the brief noontime intermission, for it may be that the dining-room will be full of "prisoners" serving time for badly prepared lessons. One of the songs popular with Mothers' Clubs in America is "Oh, come let us live with our children." In Resht the children come and live with the missionaries and it makes the school a big family—for most of the children the only true home life they have known.

We opened school in September with 24 pupils; in January we numbered 55, and by the time school closed in June the total enrollment was 71. Of this number 33 were Armenians, 25 Moslems, 8 Jews, 2 Russians, 2 Greeks and 1 French. The total figures include 16 girls, of whom 13 were Armenians and 3 Jewesses. The final enrollment was nearly double that of the previous year.

The most significant increase was in Moslem pupils, there having been but five the year before. The Jews were also new pupils, but only a few new Armenian names were added to the list. The year witnessed the opening of the fine new Armenian school in Resht, built by a wealthy Armenian at a cost of 30,000 tomans ($30,000), and presented to his people in memory of his son. Although this school has forty rooms and five teachers and tuition is practically free, as far as we know only three pupils left us last Fall to attend the Armenian school.

We were much impressed with the reverence of the children who had been longest in the school, and their gentle manners were a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Schuler's influence. It was good to see the boys carry their sisters' books, especially good in a country where chivalry is an unknown grace of manhood. One day when several little boys had just entered, we asked some of the boys who had come to us a few weeks before to tell the newcomers our special rules. The reply, "You must not tell lies or take an oath or use bad language," was quite correct.

If there were time we would like to give you the pleasure of meeting all of our children and want to introduce a few right now. Samson is a round, fat Armenian boy of fifteen who lords it over the other boys like a general at noontime. His best friend, Mourteza, is a sensitive, shrinking lad, only two years in the school, but showing a grasp of Christian truth and a love for Christ that seems really marvellous. If you do not see Seyid Jaffar you will surely hear him, for his voice rises high in many a controversy and many are the bitter tears with which he has dampened his coat-sleeve. Then there is Aristotle, the jolly little Greek who might have been a good scholar if he ever studied; and Yesha, a pinched little Russian lad, the oldest of five brothers, who works so hard in school and then goes home to hold the newest baby for his tired mother. You would like to meet Esau (which is the Persian name for Jesus), whose strange old father of Moslem stock brought him around and whispered softly that he wanted us to make a Christian of his little boy, and to get the child started in the Way. He had not allowed him to wear a hat, as all Mussulman children do. Esau cannot be seen without Musa, his beloved colleague and the most hugable, lovable little lump of humanity. We would be failing to honor you properly if we omitted to introduce our most distinguished pupil, the tiny son of the Vizier, the deputy governor of Resht. The Vizier, with a train of servants behind his Excellency, paid the school a formal visit, examined the terrified, quaking boys, expressed himself as much pleased with our work, and asked us to take his son, saying he was six years old. The boy turned out to be about four, bright, handsome, winning, a little rogue, but quite too much of a baby to learn even his letters. His coming gave the school added prestige—and added cares.

It was hardly to be expected that our work would meet with no opposition whatever during the year. In April we began to hear that there was objection to our teaching the Gospel and "Questions and Answers Concerning the Christian Religion" to Mussulman boys. Later we heard that the matter was to be taken to the City Council, and that Persian boys were forbidden to attend the school. However, this did not affect the attendance. For a week men kept coming to our door to request a list of our Moslem pupils, which of course we refused to give. When things looked blackest the Easter vacation intervened, and on resuming school after the week's holiday the trouble seemed to have blown over, largely perhaps because our chief opponent, the leading Moslem ecclesiastic of the city, was having troubles of his own with the people.

MEDICAL WORK.—For a good part of the year Dr. Frame was in Teheran, but of the work in Resht he reports:

For some weeks after our return we were hampered by limited quarters and had to turn away several patients. The Persians can understand how a man may be absent and will wait a long time for him, but they cannot understand why a physician should refuse to treat a case because of limited room. They think his excuses a confession of incompetence, and so most of these cases whom we asked to return a little later have failed to show up. In spite of this hindrance our reception was most flattering. Almost the first case to appear was a former patient, upon whom I had operated for a cancerous ulcer of the face. I was glad to see that a year after the operation there was no recurrence. He was glad also, for he brought a friend upon whom I have since done a similar operation.

In August we had 47 new cases and 83 return visits, while in September we had 98 new cases and over 180 return visits, making a total of over 278 consultations in the month. This remarkable increase was due partly to the fact that the Persians believe Autumn is the most favorable time to take treatment, but also to two cases upon which I operated.

According to the accounts of those who have been longer in Persia, the most remarkable feature of our work is the freedom with which Moslem women come to the dispensary. It is now the exception rather than the rule for a woman to object to a proper examination of her features.

In July we began some medico-evangelistic trips to neighboring bazaars which we have long planned.

The country here is entirely different from the table-lands. It is low lying, with an abundance of rainfall, a damp heavy atmosphere, and rank vegetation. Rice swamps abound everywhere. The people and their habits are different also. They are more peaceable and I think less bigoted. Their lack of bigotry is somewhat offset, however, by their ignorance and slowness to comprehend religious truth and inconsistencies. They accept their own religion as a matter of course, and never seem to dream that there is a possibility of changing their faith, although they are ready to admit the beauties of the Christian teaching. These people live in isolated farmhouses or in small groups of houses, and would be hard to reach except for the fact that they collect in weekly markets called bazaars and at teahouses along the road. Here and there, too, there are bazaars which are open every day. It has long been our desire to try to reach these people by medico-evangelistic work at these bazaars. One difficulty that confronts us is that the people use a dialect of Persian which is not widely spoken, so that it is very hard for them to understand us or an ordinary Bible passage. We must choose our language very carefully to reach their thoughts and understanding.

I began visiting some of these bazaars in July. We chose for our first effort a Wednesday bazaar called Kuchef Isfahan. It is located about ten or twelve miles east of us. The first day we found a large crowd of people, but a quiet place under some trees near the entrance. I was scarcely seated when a man recognized me, and reminded me that I had seen him on a visit Mr. Schuler and I paid here two years ago. He recalled our leaving Bibles, which gave me the opportunity of bringing out my Testament and reading some of the stories. Before long three or four priests joined the circle. They listened quietly to the reading and joined in a friendly conversation. Meanwhile a number of patients had turned up, and between reading, talking, and prescribing we did not have time for lunch. We bought a little bread and cheese, which we ate at a little teahouse on the way home.

A couple of days later we went to another bazaar west of town called Junch bazaar. Here patients were slow in coming, and it was some time before we got an opportunity to read or talk. Almost immediately we were interrupted by some Sayids who were evidently bent on making trouble. They considered our medical work merely a ruse to get the people to listen to the Gospel. We tried our best to get them into a friendly discussion on almost any topic, but as they merely waxed more violent we finally yielded to their demand that we confine ourselves strictly to medical work. This was merely the action of a few bigots. The crowd had shown decided sympathy with us and several remained afterward to express their regret. On the way home we stopped at a teahouse for lunch, and had an interested audience of ten or fifteen while we read and talked from the Gospel.

WESTERN PERSIA MISSION.

URUMIA: a fortified town, 480 miles north of west from Teheran, the capital. Station begun under the American Board, 1835; transferred to this Board in 1871. Missionaries—Rev. F. G. Coan D.D., and Mrs. Coan, Rev. W. A. Shedd, D.D., and Mrs. Shedd, Rev. Robert M. Labaree and Mrs. Labaree, Rev. C. E. Sterrett and Mrs. Sterrett, Rev. E. W. McDowell and Mrs. McDowell, Miss M. K. Van Duzee, Miss E. T. Miller, M.D., Miss Mary E. Lewis, Miss E. D. Lamme, Harry P. Packard, M.D., and Mrs. Packard.

TABRIZ: nearly 360 miles north of west from Teheran. Station begun 1873. Missionaries—Rev. J. N. Wright, D.D., and Mrs. Wright, Rev. S. G. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, William S. Vanneman, M.D., and Mrs. Vanneman, Rev. Charles R. Pittman and Mrs. Pittman, Rev. F. N. Jessup, Miss G. Y. Holliday, Miss M. E. Bradford, M.D., Miss Lillie B. Beaber, Mrs. L. C. Van Hook.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. C. E. Sterrett and Mrs. Sterrett, Miss E. T. Miller, M.D., Miss G. Y. Holliday, Miss M. E. Bradford, M.D., Miss Lillie B. Beaber.

As already stated in the preceding general introduction to the reports of the two Persia Missions, no section of the country has been more disturbed than the province of Azerbaijan. In Tabriz for months civil war raged between the Royalist and the Constitutionalist parties, and in the Urumia plain the Kurds continued their depredations upon Moslem and Christian villages alike.

In spite of all the disturbances the missionaries were kept in security, and while the schools in Tabriz were closed for a time and all night meetings were given up, the work in both Stations has gone on more prosperously than ever, and there has been an unprecedented access to the Mohammedans.

URUMIA STATION.

The work has gone on without any serious interruptions and without mishap to the missionaries. The force consists now on the field of five clergymen and one physician with their wives and four single ladies. During the year Dr. Emma T. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Sterrett have gone to America on furlough, the latter having joined the Mission this year from Van Station of the American Congregationalist Board.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The statistics of the church work in the Persian part of the field show 162 additions, a total membership of 2,804, attendance on services of 3,720, total contributions to church and school work of 3,255 tomans. The disturbed condition of the country has had an adverse effect on the church work, and the number of new members is 95 less than last year, while the net increase in membership is only 27. The decrease of 898 tomans* is mainly due to special causes, partly to special gifts included in last year's report and partly to the scarcity of cash already referred to. In addition to the gifts reported, a legacy of 400 tomans was left to the city church, but has not yet been paid.

DEDICATION SERVICES OF COCHRAN MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, UROMIA, PERSIA.

The following extract from Mr. Labaree's report gives some of the lights and shades of the work.

There are a few places which are worthy of special notice. It is with pleasure that I report that the Labaree Memorial Church, the home of the city congregation, is proving none too large. Under the able leadership of its pastor, Rabi Pera Mirza, the attendance upon the church services has largely increased, and the people have shown a zeal for their church and a spirit of harmony which is most refreshing.

. . . Geogtapa, too, has caused us considerable encouragement. Last year at this time the church was in an ugly humor, feeling as it did that we were responsible for the sending of their beloved pastor, Rev. Abraham Moorhatch, to Tiflis. Rev. Babilla Shimon, however, agreed to undertake the work, and entered on it with some misgivings on the part of us all. He has been surprisingly successful and the church has lost nothing during his pastorate; indeed, it has advanced in giving. . . . Poor little Aliawa Church, in daily danger from the Kurds and suffering much at their hands; at the same time bereft of its pastor, has kept up the services all these months; there being no man sufficiently intelligent to take the lead, a graduate of Fiske Seminary conducted the services each Sunday until the dangers dissipated and some one could be sent to look after them.

Outside the church work for Syrians, mention should be made of the growing opportunities for reaching Moslems, Jews and Armenians. Work for them is in Turkish, and the amount done in personal conversation, home visits, and more or less formal instruction is increasing constantly. A regular preaching service in Turkish is held in the city church each Sabbath. In Soujbulak we have had an earnest worker for Moslems, who reports good opportunities for work in that city. In the Moslem villages about Urumia more visits have been made than in the past. Weekly Bible lessons with classes of Jewish boys and young men are a part of Miss Van Duzee's regular work. Mr. Moorhatch has kept up the very important work in Tiflis with much encouragement, although the industrial conditions for the Syrians in Tiflis have been very discouraging. Mention should be made of the Christian Endeavor, which is a very useful branch of our Church work. It was formally recognized by the Synod and pastors were enjoined to be faithful in cultivating it. There are about 50 societies with 1,500 members.

In the mountains Mr. McDowell has done considerable touring, though the disturbed condition of the country kept him at home more than he had planned. The progressive attitude of Mar Shimon, the Nestorian Patriarch, gives a ray of hope for this ancient Church. The Mission has continued its policy of co-operating with the old Church, made more imperative by the inroads of the Roman Catholics on the Nestorian Church. This policy carries with it an increasing amount of co-operation with the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission. In Bohtan the faithful body of Protestants zealously uphold the truth and are steadily growing in numbers. They now number 170 members, of whom a large number have been fugitives from their homes most of the time for several years from fear of the Kurds. No other part of our field has had so large a growth in membership the past ten years as Bohtan.

Two were graduated from the medical course, seven from the academic class of the college, and eight from Fiske Seminary. The high school in Baz is gaining wide influence. In the Moslem boys' school the improvement in the grade of work done has been marked. With the new year both college and seminary have opened with increased attendance. We are doing all we can to co-operate with the Syrians in the effort to establish national schools. In general the desire for education is increasing and the call is for wise guidance and for inspiration to high ideals. The amount received in fees was:

Fiske Seminary.—Miss Lewis reports:

Conduct and general department were so satisfactory that the dis-

Discipline was a comparatively easy matter. The older teachers, who have been with us many years, said that they had not known a time when the girls gave so little trouble and were so faithful and obedient. We tried in small ways to put the responsibility of discipline upon themselves and found them trustworthy, but I fear the time to introduce the "Honor System" among a people so swayed by their prejudices and personal feelings and so lacking in self-control and fairness of judgment is a long way off.

A Week of Prayer for the girls alone was conducted by Mr. Labaree. There was much spiritual interest, a turning away from old sins and a real longing after holier living. I believe the meetings meant to many of the girls a new start and a forward step in the Christian life. One evening, rather late, a girl came to me and asked me to go down to her room, as the girls were in great distress and could not go to bed. I went down and found ten or eleven girls seated in a circle on the floor, around the lamp, each one with her Bible, and several of them in tears. There were many earnest, thoughtful questions asked, and many heartfelt prayers offered, each one praying for herself and making vows of new obedience before we separated.

On June 18 a class of eight girls were graduated. The baccalaureate sermon was preached in the church by Dr. Coan under considerable difficulty, for, while in the midst of the service, word was brought that a party of men who had gone out of the city on a tour of inspection had been surrounded and captured by Kurds. The congregation became panic-stricken and rose up and left the church. The report proved to be false and the sermon was preached in the afternoon. The Commencement exercises were held in the new church for the first time, before an orderly and appreciative audience of 800 people, although the country was in such a state of terror and excitement over the Kurdish raids that we greatly feared that we might not be able to have a Commencement.

The statistics for the MEDICAL WORK show 103 in-patients, 4,308 dispensary patients, 1,812 patients seen in the city and villages, and 1,175 seen on tours, total 7,408. Fees received were 1,419 tomans. Last year there were 70 in-patients and 6,000 out-patients, and the fees received were 582 tomans. The growth, however, is not all represented by the figures, for Dr. Packard's reputation, especially as a surgeon, has been growing steadily. During the current year both the number of patients and the fees received are increasing very decidedly. The equipment of the hospital has been improved by the new building erected in memory of Dr. Cochran by S. M. Clement, Esq., of Buffalo, N. Y., who is such a faithful friend of the medical work. This building connects the two older buildings, making an imposing front. We have room now for 75 in-patients, besides far better equipment for surgical work than ever before. The dedication of this building was the occasion of a very notable gathering. The nobility of the city, the chief Mohammedan ecclesiastics, the Government officials, Turkish Boundary Commissioners, the foreign Consuls in Urumia, Hon. W. F. Doty, U. S. Consul at Tabriz, members of the different Missions, and representatives of the different Christian and the Jewish community made up the audience. Among the speakers were Dr. Wilson of Tabriz, Mr. Doty, and the Governor of Urumia, who as chief boundary commissioner is one of the leading statesmen in Persia. The assembly was a remarkable tribute to the position occupied by the Mission, due in so large a degree to the life and character of Dr. Cochran. The tributes to his memory were hearty and fitly expressed, and the recognition of the good work of the hospital was most cordial.

The work of the PRESS has gone on steadily, though much hampered by lack of funds. The pages printed were 1,295,900 compared with 1,051,945 last year. Of this total amount 320,000 were for outside parties, but of this 270,000 pages were for The Star, a very good Syriac paper published by Syrians and doing very excellent missionary work without cost to Mission funds. The sales were:

Our own books and other school books:

It is encouraging that the editions of new good books, such as "Three Great Missionaries" and "Poor Boys Who Have Become Famous," are sold much more rapidly than used to be the case. Among the recent issues are a Persian and a Syriac biography of Dr. Cochran, made possible by the generosity of Mr. S. M. Clement.

To estimate what is being accomplished by this varied machinery of missionary work is beyond human knowledge. The Mission is a Christian institution, touching the life of the people in innumerable ways and preaching the Gospel through many agencies. Other methods of work might be enumerated besides those already mentioned, such as relief work for the needy, help to the oppressed, co-operation in educational and social efforts. It may perhaps be instructive to compare the statistics now and ten years ago. It should be remembered that these ten years mark the period since the Russian movement, which changed the circumstances of work among the Syrians and for a time restricted that work.

* A kran is $1.02 gold

The church membership in Persia was 2,158 in 1898, and in 1908, 2,804, an increase in ten years of 30 per cent. This is not satisfactory, but some allowance must be made for the hindrances just mentioned. During the same period the number of preachers has diminished from 46 to 25, a change for the better as making for consolidation and better organization rather than retrenchment.

The number of village schools was then 70 with 1,585 pupils. It is now 48 with 1,460, or in 1907, 63 with 1,787 pupils. There is real growth here, for the average per school has increased from 22 to 30. In the college there were reported then 89 pupils, and now 67. In Fiske Seminary there were only 20 pupils in 1898, the school being closed, but in 1896 there were 77 pupils; now there are 92. The two Moslem schools with 152 pupils have almost entirely grown up since 1898.

In giving the growth has been marked (reckoned in tomans):

	Church Expenses.	Schools (Village).	Buildings.	Home Missions.	Poor and Miscellaneous.	Total.
1898	1,036	310	72	361	135	1,914
1908	1,638	874	130	285	326	3,253
1907	1,815	941	300	696	391	4,143

This shows a general increase of the gifts given through the agency of the churches for 1908 of 70 per cent. and for 1907 of 110 per cent. As explained above, special causes have operated to diminish the gifts this year, and 90 per cent. would be a fairer figure than 70 per cent. for the growth. The greatest growth, about 300 per cent., has been for village schools. During the same period the receipts in the schools under direct Mission control has increased as follows: Fiske Seminary, from some 200 tomans to 900 tomans, and in the college from 13 or 14 tomans for each paying pupil to above 20. The medical fees in 1898 were 450 tomans, and in 1897 for 15 months 950 tomans, while last year they were 1,419, and the current year promise to be near 2,000.

The pages printed in 1898 were 203,100 and in 1899 1,264,100, and this year 1,295,900, showing no real increase; but sales of books have increased: in 1898, Scriptures 120 tomans and other books 168, while this year Scriptures 174 tomans and other books, etc., 456 tomans.

Moslem Boys' School.—Dr. Shedd reports:

The 67 pupils enrolled were 57 Moslems, 8 Syrians, 1 Jew and 1 Armenian. The teachers have been the same as last year, viz., Rev.

Jacob David, Rabi Yosep Issa, and Lisan ul Hizour. I think that in another year we shall be able to give diplomas to several students for a course of study fully equivalent in amount and value of work to the academic course in the college here, and nearly equivalent to the preparatory course in Beirut College. Such a course would include a practical knowledge of Persian, English and French, a good grounding in arithmetic and geography, and some knowledge of history, physiology and elementary ethics. It is also highly desirable to include as much instruction in the Scriptures as may be practicable. Prayer and reading the Bible have been a regular part of the daily program.

I was interested not long since in attending by invitation the exhibition given by one of the Persian schools. The scene was interesting and significant as illustrating the real change that is going on and the transitional state of things. The school is taught by a sayyid, and the audience was made up largely of sayyids and mullahs, some of them people of prominence. The lessons included English, and it sounded very strange to hear English poems recited in that audience, the elements of the religious faith of the Moslems including the Mohammedan cosmogony, and geography including the Copernican theory. The Tiflis paper, Mullah Nasr ed Din (conducted by Moslems), had recently a cartoon representing the examination of a school, in which the chief visitor, a mullah, and his companions were holding up their hands in holy horror at the explanation by a pupil of the earth's revolution about the sun, and exclaimed, "Not a word is said about the ox, and that in the presence of the Kazi!" But in my friend's school pupils are taught both—that the earth rests on the horns of an ox, and that it revolves about the sun. In the examination we heard only the latter, and yet the teacher received the compliment of a gift of a cloak from one of the principal mullahs of the city. It is hard to realize that even the simplest scientific ideas raise a conflict with the teachings of religion, though it is not so many centuries since the persecution of Copernicus. The conflict of science with teachings connected with the name of Christianity may help us to realize what the conflict will and must be between science and Islam. Schools will help on this ferment, a process full of peril as well as hope, but infinitely more perilous in irreligious or ill-informed schools than in Christian schools of a good standard. Moreover, nothing can take the place of schools in bringing us missionaries in touch with a very influential class of persons in the community, the most open-minded of all, and in many ways the ones whose influence will mold the future.

TABRIZ STATION.

The evangelistic work in the city has been less interfered with than one would believe to be possible in a city in which civil war was raging every day, but large companies have attended the preaching services, with a far fuller attendance of Mohammedans than ever before, and for a good part of the year the country work has gone forward, Mr. Jessup and Mr. Pittman having spent no little time especially in the Salmas region.

Dr. Wright reports of the evangelistic work in the city:

I never saw a greater willingness to hear the Word of the Kingdom, but political distractions and worldly cares, I fear, may often have choked it and made it unfruitful. A goodly number of persons, however, have shown marked interest. One of these was a teacher of geography in a Moslem school. He became so much interested in the Turkish hymns that he was moved to compose some himself. He has handed in to me three hymns which are thoroughly evangelical, and I hope they will be included in the next edition of the Hymnal. He also wrote a tract on "The Guide to Life" which is full of gospel truth and spirit.

Another young man became so absorbed in spiritual inquiry that his father, a mullah, threatened to poison him, so he fled to Urumia. Not understanding the formal requirements for church membership and feeling that he was a Christian, when communion occurred he partook of the sacred emblems of the broken body and shed blood. He soon afterwards called upon me. He was filled with almost ecstatic joy at the thought of having thus made his confession of faith and having obeyed the command, "Do this in remembrance of me." He believed he had joined the church, and so reported when he fled soon after to Urumia. This youth had a great desire to become an evangelist, and seems to have done considerable good work in that way both here and elsewhere.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Memorial School.—Dr. Wilson reports:

On July 4, 1907, processions containing 15,000 volunteers marched through the streets of Tabriz, rejoicing in their constitutional liberty, and filled with patriotic love for their newly awakened country. On July 4, 1908, the city was divided into opposite camps in internecine strife. One party, consisting largely of mullahs and officials, landlords and pensioners, supporting the Shah, were confident that they would crush the Liberals, even as the Shah had scattered the Parliament in Teheran. The other was crying out, "Down with absolutism!" "Long live the Constitution!"

In Tabriz the intervening year has been one of progress in popular government. In the administration of justice, the regulation of the police, the improvement of the streets, the promotion of education, the curbing of avaricious landowners and wheat speculators, and in the exemplification of the principles of civil and religious liberty, the new régime was manifesting its superiority.

The Memorial School felt the quickening impulse. While the attendance of Armenians showed no diminution, the number of Persians doubled, the classes filled up, the regularity of the grades was perfected. The political unrest made the attendance irregular and distracted the minds of the larger pupils from their studies, so that the year was trying to the teachers. A disappointment, mingled with satisfaction, arose from the demand for teachers in the new Persian schools, which drew away a number of our best pupils and interrupted their course of study.

The enrollment of the school was: Armenians 133, Syrians 6, Persians 124, of whom 92 were classified and 32 special pupils. At no time did the Persians exceed 100. Total enrollment 263, at the end of the year 230. Of these 24 were boarders from Maragha, Khoi, Salmas, Urumia, Resht, Kurdistan and the Van Orphanage.

The closing exercises were on June 24. Besides declamations and essays, there were a dialogue in Armenian, well representing Oriental life, and a scene from the "Merchant of Venice" well performed. Seven Armenians and seven Persians passed from the common to the High School. The High School pupils were kept for further study the course being prolonged another year. On the day previous the Persian pupils were dismissed consequent on disturbances due to the coup d'état in Teheran, the bombardment of the Parliament, and the imprisonment of its members. We had intended to continue their lessons several hours daily during the summer. But soon the war broke out between the Royalists and the Constitutionalists. A hundred days of bloodshed and pillage followed. All business was suspended, the bazaars and factories closed, travel interrupted. At times the city was surrounded, provisions cut off, and thousands on the verge of starvation. Fifteen hundred houses were looted and destroyed, 500 shops pillaged, more than 1,000 people killed. Thousands abandoned their homes for security in other parts of the city. After a long and bitter struggle the Royalists were defeated and the Nationalists remained in possession of the city.

When on the withdrawal of the Shah's troops the Nationalists took possession of the whole city, at the end of Ramazan, we allowed our Persian pupils to return. From 90 to 100 have been enrolled, and these are more regular and better graded than ever before. Yet quite a number are still in the villages where they fled to escape the ravages of war.

Saddest of all is the story of Sayid Hasan Sharifzada, our teacher of Persian and Arabic, and our most advanced pupil of the Persians. A son of a prominent mullah, when he came to us to study five years ago he concealed his coming from his own family. As one of the "Intellectuals" of the new movement, a writer, editor and eloquent speaker for the Constitutional party, he was on the proscribed list of the Royalists, and his house was attacked and his library destroyed. He took refuge at the French Consulate. Later on he left his refuge under a safe conduct to act as peace envoy, and as he was returning from a Popular Assembly, in which he advocated reconciliation, he was shot down by the Consulate gate. He was greatly admired and is deeply mourned. His equal as a teacher cannot be found among the Persians in the city. His training reflected great credit upon our school.

Present conditions affect us even financially. Several months' tuition were cut off, and many of the pupils returning are in great financial stress. Owing to the disturbed condition of the province, fewer boarders could come in from a distance. Instead of them, however, Persians of a higher class are applying to come as boarders. We are charging them what we hope will be a full support, i.e., sixty tomans for board and five tomans for tuition. It doubtless marks a new era in the development of our school and of Moslem education in this part of Persia. It shows how prejudice has lessened and bigotry decreased. It shows the confidence of the Moslems in our moral and intellectual training.

Girls' Boarding School.—Mrs. Van Hook took charge of the school on Miss Beaber's return on furlough. It was like returning to old and former days for Mrs. Van Hook, who years ago was in charge of the school. She writes:

We hear sometimes of the ingratitude with which missionaries meet, but for myself I have had a cup running over of faithfulness and devotion on the part of those for whom I have spent my life, and only wish I had another to give to their children and grandchildren.

I received 64 pupils from Miss Beaber—14 boarders and 50 day scholars.

Seven girls publicly received Bibles as a reward for reciting the Shorter Catechism perfectly, which they do without the questions being asked.

About a month before school closed, visiting, in company with the other ladies of the mission, the Nusrt-i-Dovleh, a cousin of the Shah, and wife of a man of high rank, the conversation turned upon the subject of schools, as this lady is wealthy and public-spirited and much interested in the question of education for Moslem girls. In the course of the conversation she remarked that she did not know we had a school for girls. I determined I would show her the school, and so Thursday, the 18th of June, I invited a company of Moslem ladies, arranging a program of such exercises as I thought would be interesting and show the work of the school as far as possible in another language, for the language of the school is Armenian. Those who could read Turkish read portions of Scripture and songs that were recited or sung by the school in Armenian. The one class in Persian and the classes in Turkish read selections, there was some singing in Turkish, and the exercises were enlivened by some kindergarten pieces which were explained, and then was shown the calisthenic drill which Miss Beaver has made a point of, and the pretty evolutions were enjoyed, as they always are, by all who see them. At the close of the exercises one of the ladies presented an address, which she read gracefully as follows:

"I am proud that to-day we have realized that wish which, from our earliest time until now, we have talked about day and night with earnest longings for its accomplishment, which is that there might be opened for the noble daughters of our native land a blessed and happy door of emancipation, and that there might shine forth for the children of our own land the light of knowledge and excellent training.

"Thanks be to God, this wish has been realized to-day, and we have the honor to be present and participate in this great assembly. It is the first time in history that we have had the honor of being present at the examination of a girls' school, and it is the fruit of the labors of these lady teachers that we have attained to this honorable distinction. However much we may express our thankfulness, it will be but a small compensation for the trouble they have taken. We ask God to give us the grace and ability to understand more fully the worth of their beneficence, that we may become able to guide, like them, the children of men from the darkness of ignorance into the enlightenment of knowledge. Perhaps in this way we may be able to right the wrongs of the past. In reference to these honorable ladies, knowledge is the light of the world, and this is the light they have lighted for us.

"IFTA HAR ZADA."

Some of the ladies asked her if she had been in the school, that she expressed herself so warmly. She replied no, but her father owed all that he was to us.

MEDICAL WORK.—There has been a great deal of sickness in the city and among the missionary children during the year and Dr. Vanneman has been overburdened with work, especially in the absence of Dr. Bradford, the health of whose mother has continued to prevent her return to the field.

THE PHILIPPINE MISSION.

The Philippine Mission has completed the first decade of its history. April 21, 1899, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James R. Rodgers arrived in Manila, just one year after the declaration of war by the United States against Spain. Their knowledge of Portuguese enabled them to acquire Spanish with ease, and Dr. Rodgers preached his first sermon on the first Sunday of May, the anniversary of Commodore Dewey's victory. The Presbyterian Church may take a pardonable pride in knowing that it sent the first permanent resident American missionary to the Philippine Archipelago, though missionaries of other churches soon followed.

The formation of the Evangelical Union of the Philippines was a notable event in practical missionary comity, the representatives of the various Protestant Missions making a territorial division of the field so as to avoid overlapping, and permit the most economical and efficient use of men and money.

We have great reason to be thankful to God for the record of this first decade. In Tripoli, Syria, the missionaries toiled six years before they saw the first convert, and nine years more before they saw the second. In Japan, seven years passed before one convert was enrolled. The missionaries in Korea were cheered because after seven years of hard work twenty-three Koreans partook of the Lord's Supper, and because the end of the first decade saw 100 converts. Carey in India waited seven years for his first convert. Tyler labored fifteen years before a single Zulu accepted Christ. Gilmour, in Mongolia, was visibly rewarded by only one convert in twenty years; and seven years passed before Morrison's heart was gladdened by the sight of a Chinese convert. But though the full ten years of work in the Philippines will not be completed until six months after the making out of our statistical report, the figures show that Presbyterians alone have approximately 10,000 adult communicants in the Philippine Islands, and that, including the members of other Missions, there are now approximately 40,000 members of Protestant Churches. This is a remarkable record. It cannot be explained by interested motives on the part of the Filipinos, for the American Government officials early gave the people to understand that Americans separated Church and State, and that no Filipino would gain credit with the Government by leaving the Roman Catholic Church. Yet the interest of the people in the Gospel is constantly increasing, and this Mission has become one of the most fruitful fields in the world. Being a young Mission, its missionaries are, of course, young also, and while the success of the work is the Lord's doing and is marvelous in our eyes, great credit is due to them for the wisdom and energy with which they formulated their plans, adopted themselves to the peculiar conditions and speedily developed a great and prosperous work.

Many in this country ignorantly imagine that Protestants are in the Philippines to fight the Roman Catholic Church. Perhaps they have been deceived by the frequent claims of Roman Catholics that the Filipinos belong to that communion. As a matter of fact, the sixteen tribes of Indonesians were never Roman Catholic; they are Mohammedans. Nor are the twenty-one tribes of Negritos Roman Catholics; they are Pagans. Of the approximately 6,000,000 Malays, Bishop Brent of Manila said about a year ago that more than 4,000,000 had left the Roman Catholic Church and followed Aglipay, that able Filipino priest who has taken advantage of the popular revolt against the Roman Catholic Church to found an independent Catholic Church, a Church which has no real spiritual basis, but is animated largely by hatred of Rome and the furtherance of Filipino national feeling. Thus the Roman Catholic Church to-day is reaching less than half of the population of the Islands.

The Protestant Churches are therefore called to the Philippines, not only by the general missionary summons to preach the Gospel to all men, not only because it is as unthinkable as it is un-American that any section of American soil should be denied religious freedom by making it the exclusive preserve of any one Church, but by the fact that a majority of the people of the Archipelago are now actually as accessible to the Protestant missionaries as to the Roman Catholic, and that we can do for them what urgently needs to be done. Indeed, the Protestant missionaries, so far from forcing themselves upon the Philippines, have thus far been able to do but little aggressive proselyting, the Filipinos voluntarily flocking to them in such numbers that all their time has been required for instruction and organization.

THE PHILIPPINE MISSION.

MANILA: on the Island of Luzon; occupied 1899. Missionaries—Rev. James B. Rodgers, D. D., and Mrs. Rodgers, Rev. Lewis B. Hillis and Mrs. Hillis, Rev. George W. Wright and Mrs. Wright, Rev. John H. Lamb and Mrs. Lamb, Miss Clyde Bartholomew, Rev. S. B. Rossiter, D. D., and Mrs. Rossiter, Miss Theresa Kalb.

LOILO: on the Island of Panay; occupied 1900. Missionaries—J. Andrew Hall, M. D., and Mrs. Hall, Rev. Paul Doltz and Mrs. Doltz, Mrs. Brinton.

DUMAGUETE: on the Island of Negros; occupied 1901. Missionaries—Rev. David S. Hibbard and Mrs. Hibbard, William H. Langheim, M. D., and Mrs. Langheim, Rev. Walter O. McIntire and Mrs. McIntire, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Glunz.

CEBU: on the Island of Cebu; occupied 1902. Missionaries—Rev. Fred Jansen and Mrs. Jansen, James A. Graham, M. D., and Mrs. Graham, Rev. George Dunlap and Mrs. Dunlap.

LAGUNA: on Laguna de Bay, Luzon; occupied 1903. Missionaries—Rev. Charles R. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton.

LEYTE: on the Island of Leyte; occupied 1903. Missionaries—Rev. Charles E. Rath, Dr. Robert Carter and Mrs. Carter.

ALBAY: in the southeastern part of the Island of Luzon; occupied 1903. Missionaries—Rev. and Mrs. Roy H. Brown, Rev. Kenneth P. MacDonald.

TAYABAS: 80 miles southwest of Manila, on the Island of Luzon; occupied 1906. Missionaries—Rev. Charles H. Magill and Mrs. Magill.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Dr. and Mrs. Langheim, Mrs. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Glunz, Dr. and Mrs. Rossiter, Dr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. McIntire, Mr. and Mrs. Doltz.

MANILA STATION.

The work of Manila Station has been divided as formerly. Dr. Rodgers has had responsibility for evangelistic work; Mr. Lamb for books and printing and business matters, being Mission and Station Treasurer; Mr. Wright, educational work among men, and Miss Bartholomew, educational work among women; Dr. Rossiter and Mr. Hillis have shared the responsibility for the American Church. Each, however, has assisted the other, but definite responsibility has been as stated.

Dr. and Mrs. Rossiter were home on furlough from April until December; otherwise there were no absences from the field during the year. There has been, however, considerable ill health among the women of the Station, Mrs. Hillis, Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Wright each having undergone surgical operations from which they are now happily recovering. Mrs. Lamb has not been robust at any time. Despite ill health, however, it has been a very happy and blessed year.

EVANGELISTIC WORK (Dr. Rodgers, Superintendent).—Pastors Estrella and Zarco and Evangelists Juan Estrella and Gil Domingo have worked in different fields. Sr. Estrella's salary has been provided by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Church of Manila and Sr. Domingo's by the Mission to the Lepers of England. Sr. Estrella died November 26 of beriberi. His death was a great loss. He had been an officer in the Constabulary, but felt himself so called to the spreading of the Gospel that he resigned and became an evangelist. He had the spirit of God in great measure and was blessed in the conversion of many souls.

The churches in this field include one in Laguna, that of Binan, two in Rizal, sixteen in Cavite, and five in Batangas, as well as the two Filipino churches, with their various branches. They have suffered little or no persecution. There was a little flurry over the arrest in Cawit of two of the local evangelists for preaching in the street without permission. They were subjected to some insult and unfairly condemned by the justice of the peace of the town, but an appeal to the Court of First Instance brought their prompt release.

The Tondo Church had an excellent year under the guidance of Pastor Estrella. The people have not yet reached the point of paying his salary; we trust that they will do so ere long.

The provincial churches have had their ups and downs. Some of the mothers are weaker than their daughters. Kawit, after a period of discouragement, has been greatly blessed through the ministry of Pastor Adriano of Antique, who while on a visit to this island was greatly used in Kawit and San Roque. The Imus Church has continued its excellent record.

New chapels are slowly progressing in Kawit and Binan. The slowness of their growth is due to the higher ideals on the part of the people in the matter and manner of construction than funds warranted. When the buildings are done, however, they will be substantial and attractive in every way.

The churches on the back hills of Cavite, especially that of Amadeo, have been greatly prospered. They have had four pastoral visits during the year.

Dr. Rodgers accompanied Sr. Zarco in October on a visit to the Batangas churches. The work in Bawan, Batangas City and Lipa has prospered and under Sr. Zarco's enthusiastic guidance has progressed. Two new churches have been opened during this year in Batangas Province, one at Cuenca near Lipa and the other at Nasugbu in the extreme northwest of the province, through the influence of a member of the Bacoor congregation. As this is being written reports arrive telling of the opening of work in Taal and Kalek through Sr. Zarco's efforts, and in Talisay by the people from Amadeo in Cavite.

The Province of Batangas, with its 260,000 people, offers a field for service that must be occupied. It is too much for one man to handle, and we strongly urge the appointment of a missionary to reside in Batangas.

Evangelistic work this year has been rendered easier by the opening of the Cavite and Laguna lines of the railroad, saving much time and strength. In another year this benefit will be extended to some points in Batangas and Tayabas.

The Presbytery has appointed a Committee on Home Missions, consisting of four Filipinos and Dr. Rodgers. Members of the Committee visited the various churches of the Presbytery, and urged upon them self-support and the necessity of a regular pastorate in the churches and of contributing of their means to the work of evangelization. The Committee has already visited five churches and has been received with marked attention and with enthusiasm.

The congregations support themselves in large part now, but they have untrained men to guide them. When they awaken to the fact that a man of larger knowledge will help them more, we believe that they will provide themselves with more efficient shepherds. The Committee is asking each congregation to contribute in money or rice at harvest time such amount as may be possible.

EDUCATIONAL.—Ellinwood Bible Seminary (Mr. Wright, Principal).—The work in Ellinwood is divided into three classes. First, the Bible Seminary work from June to December, conducted in English and Spanish; second, the provincial classes, from February to May, carried on in Tagalog; and third, the dormitory work among the students of the Government Normal School, which runs through the school year from June to March inclusive, and to which is joined a like work among the Filipino Government teachers gathered each year in the Normal School buildings during the vacation time for from four to six weeks in the Teachers' Vacation Assembly. This report deals with these classes of work separately.

Seminary Work.—The training of Christian workers has gradually evolved from conception through experiment into definite courses and curriculum.

In 1907 a happy combination was entered into with the Methodist Mission, whereby the seminary of that body and our own brought both students and faculties into a union school. This year, 1908, we have pleasantly and successfully carried forward the same plan, and the students and work have been so identified as to eliminate any narrow interpretation of denominationalism, while at the same time each Mission has controlled its own students in practical work and has financed its own institution. The United Brethren Mission, operating in Northern Luzon, have had two students in attendance and expect to send several more next year, and we are hoping will be able also to add one member to the faculty. If they are able to do so the Union Seminary work will be thus thoroughly shared by the three denominations.

Of the fifty-three students, forty were Methodists, eleven Presbyterians, and two United Brethren. In December we graduated our first class, which numbered six, all of whom we believe will prove satisfactory men in the ministry. Next year we feel assured that the number of students will be considerably augmented, although it will be wise to continue for a time the policy of receiving those only for whom a reasonable assurance is felt that work will be found.

The two upper classes have for the most part been engaged in some definite work as regularly appointed evangelists. Such others as have not been able to pay board at the seminary have made some return in work. They have worked very satisfactorily. Those who are unwilling to work would hardly be fit pastors for congregations which must necessarily be largely composed of poor people, while those who will work thereby develop resourcefulness which will make for their larger usefulness in the ministry.

The regular teaching force among the Methodists has consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Farmer and Mr. Koehler, and among the Presbyterians Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Mr. Lamb. Mr. Hamilton gave two months to teaching, and Dr. Rodgers, Mr. Hillis and Mrs. Hamilton all helped at different times.

The courses have been made up in about equal parts of Bible, Homiletics, History, Theology and English. Music has also been taught. In the Bible work we have aimed at a thorough study and analysis of each book taken up. During the three years of the course each book of the New Testament is studied in this way, and many books of the Old, the balance being covered in a more general way by introduction.

As before stated, many of the students were already in charge of churches and most of the Presbyterian students were used in meetings conducted by the Malate congregation in the neighborhood. The students worked with this congregation in the development of six weekly evening meetings and in helping at their five Sunday-schools. These schools have been developed by the Ellinwood Girls' School working with the Malate congregation.

Provincial Classes.—The work of the seminary has been carried on both in Spanish and in English; the regular courses will probably have to be all in English. The students represented three separate dialects, Pampangan, Pangasinan and Ilcano, and were obliged to use English for conversation among themselves. Hence during the vacation four conferences or institutes were held in as many provinces, where the teaching was all done in Tagalog.

One of the principal churches in each province sent invitations to the neighboring churches. Representative workers were thus brought together for several weeks and endeavor was made to give them, mornings and afternoons, as much instruction as possible. Note-books were used and mimeograph copies of the lesson distributed, and the echoes of these classes are still heard. Evangelistic meetings were held evenings, and the town inviting the conference not only thereby profited in spiritual results, but an evangelistic impulse was given to the entire province.

At the Laguna conference at Pagsanhan, fifty-seven students were enrolled, the Cavite conference at Imus registered eighty, the Tayabas conference at Lukban had sixty, and a final conference at Manila, to care for those who wished to attend a second conference, as well as those who had not been able to attend elsewhere, gathered in forty-eight, making a total of 245 in attendance upon the four classes.

We have invitations to conduct six of these conferences the coming year, and we shall again hold classes in the four provinces mentioned, another in Batangas at Lipa, and still another at Albay in Mr. Brown's field.

In all but the Laguna conference of last year Miss Bartholomew had classes for women, and plans so to do in all the 1909 conferences. Dr. and Mrs. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Magill and Mr. Lamb, as well as the Rev. Monico Estrella and Rev. Guillermo Zareo and Sr. Gil Domingo, all have assisted at one or more of the conferences.

Dormitory Work.—The dormitory work was opened up with the building and has continued with increasing satisfaction ever since. Nearly all of our dormitory residents are students of the Government Normal School, although a few attend the trade and medical schools.

The life is that of a large family where each has interest in the other and the finest of friendship rules. We have chapel together from 6.30 to 6.45, when a hymn is sung, the Bible read and prayer offered, all of course in English, as these young men come from places all the way between Mindanao and Northern Luzon.

Chapel attendance is required of all, and the opportunity of having the first fifteen minutes of each day with thirty-five young men, the Gospel in hand and each life committed to God's keeping for the day, is one which the writer appreciates with his whole soul. From chapel we go to the morning meal, where God's blessing is asked upon the bounty of His hand. Attendance upon a Sunday morning service at 7.30 for all Filipinos understanding English is not required, but the invitation extended is usually accepted by a large number. When these services were begun they were attended by only four or six of the students, while at the last service of 1908 there were less than six absent.

Our building has been full during the year, sometimes overcrowded, a number having at times slept upon cots on the porches or on the dining-room floor.

We could not accommodate all who applied, as so many of our Bible school students also shared the building; but as far as capacity would allow we admitted those who came, regretting only our inability to receive 200 or 300 of them.

Before leaving for Mission meeting, Mr. Wright asked the boys to appoint a committee of three, with whom Mrs. Wright might take up any question of discipline during his absence. They elected excellent men. One was a theological student who has been working his way through school, and who has been willing to do any kind of service from pounding the typewriter to cleaning bathrooms, thereby proving that his willingness to work at any honest toil had not in any sense degraded him in the eyes of his fellows whose board was paid from home.

During April and May vacation the Teachers' Vacation Assembly is held in the Normal School buildings, and both the men's and women's buildings are thrown open to all that they can accommodate. These teachers coming from all parts of the Islands, a splendid opportunity for acquaintance and friendship is presented. They, too, attend daily chapel and are invited and come to the Sunday services.

Mr. Wright says that no one ever hears a word against his own religious convictions, but on the other hand he does hear the Gospel in all the depth and fullness and sweetness that he can present it.

ELLINWOOD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS (Miss Bartholomew, Principal; Miss Kalb, Associate).—The year has been one of marked progress in women's work and filled with blessing. The regular Bible school work opened in June, but before that women's work was carried on at three of the vacation institutes, at Imus, Lukban and Manila.

At Imus about thirty-five women and girls attended the classes, Miss Bartholomew conducting a class in the Sunday-school lessons and a woman's training class in Tagalog and Mrs. Rodgers a class in Spanish and in music. At the institute at Lukban there was a small but very interesting class of women, largely new members just beginning active work.

Most of the girls who had studied at the school the previous year taught classes of women or children in their home Sunday-schools during vacation, and several taught additional classes in Catechism and special lessons for children which had been prepared for them at the school.

Youth is sometimes precocious in these tropical regions, but not all precocious girls are like the one described below:

One girl of fourteen opened a Bible school for more than 50 children in the chapel at Anuba in Cavite Province. She carried it on five hours a day, five days a week, for six weeks. The course of study consisted of the life of Christ from the Gospel by Matthew, the book of Genesis and other Old Testament stories, the Catechism, an outline of fundamental Bible teachings, hymns and the memorizing of passages from the Bible. She held an examination at the end, and dismissed the class for two weeks' vacation before the regular schools opened again. In addition to this, she taught a women's class twice a week and two Sunday-school classes in different towns. This girl is one of the most promising we have yet found.

The regular school session was held from June 11 to December 5, with sixteen students enrolled in the Bible classes. This was a great improvement over last year, and it made possible much more satisfactory work. The girls came from the provinces of Cavite, Laguna, Tayabas, Rizal and Iloilo. In addition to the regular Bible students, five girls who were students at the Normal School boarded at the dormitory part of the term, making a total of twenty-one.

Other ladies of the Station assisted Miss Bartholomew as far as other duties permitted. Mrs. Wright taught English classes, Mrs. Rodgers instrumental music, and Mrs. Lamb vocal music. Dr. Hamilton lectured on physiology. His lectures have been translated into Tagalog for use as a text-book in the school, and as a means of spreading information among the Tagalog women as to how to take care of their health. The arrival of Miss Kalb in October was a great relief and encouragement. She taught one of the classes in English and a Bible class, besides leading morning prayers for the English-speaking students.

Considerable advance was made in payment of board by students. About half the girls paid a part, but only one was able to pay more than half the amount necessary. The need of providing scholarships, if we are to get and train the most promising girls in the congregations, is as pressing now as it was a year ago. The sewing classes earned enough for the board of one girl, and one other paid her own way by copying lessons on the typewriter.

The new Sunday-schools and evening services, started by the Malate congregation in the districts near the school, afforded opportunity for practical work by the students. They attended three evening services a week and assisted in the singing; furnished teachers for children in four Sunday-schools and two Saturday afternoon classes in Catechism and singing. The girls showed great enthusiasm in this work, and it was a great blessing to them in developing their own spiritual life. All but three of the regular students had been baptized before they entered school, and these three are now ready for baptism.

The gifts of the Philadelphia and the New York Women's Boards have furnished the building more adequately, though several needs are still urgent. As in the previous year, the girls did all the work of housekeeping, preparation of their own food, and their own laundry work. That they continue to do this is highly desirable, not only from the point of view of expense, but also of the practical training of the girls in sanitary methods of housekeeping and living.

The closing exercises of the school were held December 5. Many of the friends and relatives of the students attended and were favorably impressed. The girls returned to their homes in time to train the children in the Sunday-schools for the Christmas program, and good reports of their work have already been received.

During the vacation five institutes are to be held in the provinces, through which we hope to develop and more fully organize the women's work. The girls are forming classes for women and children in their home towns, and we expect to spend as much time as possible in developing and superintending these classes.

The Tondo Women's Society has been doing excellent work in conducting women's prayer meetings in the districts near the Tondo Church, and we hope that the girls may be able during this vacation to start similar work in each town. We need the earnest prayer and co-operation of the missionaries and evangelists in each province for the girls who are undertaking this important work.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH (Dr. Rossiter and Mr. Hillis, Pastors).—The American Church gives thanks to God for an unusually prosperous year. Dr. and Mrs. Rossiter were absent in America part of the year, but Mr. and Mrs. Hillis carried on the work with energy and success. They made about 2,000 calls this year, and entertained over 700 callers in their home, 300 of them at meals. Mrs. Hillis was treasurer of the Ladies' Memorial Society and an active member of the Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary. A series of lectures were delivered to the young officers of the Constabulary School on the Preservation of the Moral Health of the Young Officer. These lectures have been published by the Constabulary and sent to each officer.

The Sunday-school has prospered finely. Collections were 600 pesos. Enrollment is 180 as against about eighty last year. The increase is largely due to the genius and energy of Mr. H. S. Alexander and Mr. George F. Unmacht, the superintendent and secretary respectively. The library now numbers 1,000 volumes.

The Ladies' Aid Society has grown in spite of the absence of the president and vice-president. Twenty-two new members have been added, making a membership of over fifty. Attendance has been gratifying, averaging about twenty-five at each meeting during the hot and rainy season.

They have worked to increase interest in missions. Over 100 were at the missionary tea, where reports were given by missionaries of various denominations. Five hundred pesos worth of cash and merchandise were donated to the Presbyterian Hospitals in Iloilo and Dumaguete, and contributions were made to the Ellinwood Schools in Manila. Six well-attended socials were given during the year.

The Christian Endeavor meetings have increased in attendance and interest.

The Baraca Class under Mr. C. W. Hubbell has developed 100 young men and women, who have learned that there are other ways to have a good time in Manila than dancing and card playing. The Baraca Class socials have been of great influence in the church work.

The Pastor's Aid has quietly kept up its work. The monthly sermon has been published under its care. Seven hundred copies of this publication have been sent to Americans in places distant from Manila, or those who have been confined to homes or hospitals in the city. The Invitation Committee has sent invitations to all the Americans in the city.

The Quiz Society suspended meetings during the rainy reason and cholera time, but is now well organized and ready for work. Some of these meetings have been among the most interesting public meetings in the city during the past year.

The Sunday-school has opened a day-school for children of kindergarten age, conducted by Mrs. Hillis. This has filled a real want. Fifteen children are in attendance.

Congregations have been about as last year, except in the rainy reason. The average morning attendance during the year has been about 100, but the number of people who have been regular and conscientious in attending when they could has been about 300. The evening services have averaged about eighty, the difference being largely due to the increased number of showers in the late afternoon and evening during the rainy season. Scarcely a half dozen Sunday evenings have been clear and pleasant since the latter part of June. Deaths have been unusually numerous, and many have been seriously ill from cholera and serious operations. Funerals, letters of condolence and visits to the sick and bereaved have occupied much of the pastor's time during the past six months.

The Treasurer, Mr. C. H. Sleeper, reports:

General Fund—Balance from previous year offerings, P. 42.31; offerings, P. 1,980.48; subscriptions, P. 3,471.58, a total of P. 5,452.06; disbursements, P. 5,449.76.

Building Fund—Balance previous year, P. 482.24; disbursements, P. 479.10, leaving P. 3.14.

Mission Fund—Balance previous year, P. 135.05; receipts, P. 54.33, a total of P. 189.38; disbursed, P. 189.38.

Parsonage Fund—Receipts, P. 3,935.00; disbursements, 549.71, leaving P. 3,385.29.

Music Fund—Balance previous year, P. 957.85; disbursements, P. 7.00, leaving P. 950.85.

The Church is especially thankful for one of the largest accessions in its history. The following table may be interesting:

The whole Church is in excellent working condition, united in spirit and ready to do things for Christ.

ILOILO STATION.

It has been a year of faithful work and, we believe, of growth, but comparatively few have been added to the Church, especially in the district where the Gospel has been longest established, and the Station feels that there is little of special interest to report.

One evangelist said: "Formerly the people had nothing to say against our arguments for the Gospel, and were forced to admit the truth of what we told them; but now they are being instructed to combat these arguments and are ready with counter arguments in favor of Roman Catholicism." This is not true of any large number, but it affects some

In Antique Province, where work has but recently begun, there has been much greater growth and now there are little congregations scattered over the country from one end to the other, both on the coast and in the mountains. As there is less opposition in this province, there is every probability that the work will be more extensive than in Iloilo Province, where Catholicism has greater hold.

Last April we added a pleasurable and profitable feature in the form of a general convention at Iloilo of all the members of the province during Holy Week. About 600 assembled. Practically every village where we have converts was represented and the visitors were entertained by the city brethren, to whom it was a new experience. It was not an easy thing for many whose earnings hardly maintain them, and yet they did and were blessed in the experience which brought them into closer acquaintance with the people of the villages, and with the conditions under which the Gospel spreads in rural districts. The morning sessions of the convention were occupied with addresses and discussions on "The Necessity and Profit of Bible Study," "Personal Work," and "Self-support." The afternoons of Friday and Saturday were taken up with reports from the villages, and on Sunday afternoon all united in celebrating the Lord's Supper.

The evening services were evangelistic and attracted the unconverted. Special music was prepared and the speakers presented the Gospel in the clearest, briefest and most powerful way. The meetings were held in an open space between the chapel and hospital, where a temporary shade was made of bamboo, covered with tarpaulins borrowed from the Quartermaster and lighted with electric lights. It was close enough to the hospital so that the patients could hear the music and the speakers. Everyone was pleased with the convention, and many expressed the hope that it might be repeated next year.

In two villages evangelists have made an effort to enlist the children in a sort of day-school, with considerable success. If the children can be interested no doubt the parents will become so also.

There has lately joined the church at Iloilo one who in Spanish days was probably the most influential Filipino in the province.

He was treated in the hospital, became interested in hearing the Gospel at morning prayers and in seeing the nurses go about their humble duties in a way that attracted his attention. One morning he said to Dr. Hall: "I see these girls, though ignorant and of the lower class, have something in their life that others have not." Day after day he had a question or two for the doctor when making his rounds and frequently conversed with the nurses, being willing to learn of them also. On leaving the hospital, he attended regularly all the services at the chapel, sitting quietly in the back seat, mingling with the people as one of them, and lately became a member, confessing his faith in Jesus Christ as his Saviour. This man has the respect and the confidence of the whole community, and on Thanksgiving and at Christmas, when it became known that he would speak, large numbers of his friends and acquaintances gathered to hear his humble confession of the Master.

The Chinese work has been maintained throughout the year with little change. Many of the members have been absent in China or elsewhere for a great part of the year.

Mr. Wong, the evangelist, has spent the year in Amoy at college, being maintained there by the Iloilo congregation. He returned in January after having finished his second year in study, and later we hope will be sent back for a third year and ordination, in order that he may become the pastor of the congregation permanently. Though few in number, the members of the Chinese congregation have maintained their allegiance to the Church, and have given liberally of their means to support its work.

Since Mr. Doltz' departure on furlough in June, the remaining missionary has been assisted in the care of the American work by two of the Baptist brethren, who have each taken service a month at the chapel and also helped at the Y. M. C. A.

The question of union church was discussed by the Baptists in conference a few weeks ago, but Secretary Barbour, of Boston, who was present, expressed the opinion that it would be better to continue it as a strictly Presbyterian work, and he felt sure that if a suitable man could be found to take charge of the work, the Baptist Union would support it financially.

Training classes with village workers were held in March and October as usual. March was devoted to teaching evangelists, and October was spent in studying with the Sunday-school teachers the lessons for the ensuing year. The classes were well attended and are of great benefit to the workers in the villages, who find it hard to study the Bible alone.

MEDICAL WORK.—Union Hospital, Sabine Haines Memorial.—The medical work has kept Dr. Hall busy during the year. It is not only the Mission hospital, but also the city hospital and the hospital of the provinces. The difficulty has been to convince the city and province of this in a financial way, and as yet we receive no support from either city or province. Still it has been liberally supported by the community, which has shown an ever increasing interest in its maintenance and an admiration for its work.

The hospital was built with two private wards, but in order to meet the needs and also to meet current expenses, it has been necessary to utilize some of the rooms intended for other purposes and at present we are using five rooms for private patients, and even then we have had to turn some away. Our free wards are overcrowded, and should have more room as soon as possible, for there is no chance to isolate patients and all have to be put in together irrespective of their disease. We urgently need more dormitory space for staff and more wards for both private and free patients, as well as washhouse and other conveniences.

Improvement in the financial condition of the hospital has been most gratifying and we are glad to report a reduction in the deficit of over 3,500 pesos, and the rest should be wiped out in the near future. Of this amount 2,228 pesos have been contributed. In 1907 the receipts were over 10,000 pesos and the expenses 13,800 pesos. This year the receipts thus far have amounted to over 14,900 pesos and the expenses nearly reduced to 10,000 pesos. We are grateful to God who has answered our prayers and sent us help in this as in all other respects, and we pray that the remaining deficit may be cleared off before the end of the present fiscal year, so that we may begin to plan for some much needed additions to our plant.

We have had the assistance at various times of Col. L. A. LeGarde, Chief Surgeon U. S. A. at Iloilo; Drs. Bruns and Richardson, Post Army surgeons; Dr. Carson, of the railway hospital, and Dr. Carter, of our own Mission, who kindly took charge during the month of November, in order that Dr. Hall might make a visit to the congregations in the provinces.

The union with the Baptists, proposed last year, has been happily consummated. The Baptist Missionary Union has purchased a half interest in the hospital and has assigned Dr. Thomas as associate with our Presbyterian Dr. Hall. Statistics for the year are as follows: In-patients: private ward cases, 48; semi-private cases, 74; free ward cases, 251; total, 373; aggregate in days, 7,624. Out-patients: number treated, 2,200; total number of treatments, 5,542; total treatments, in-patients and out-patients, 13,066.

The Filipino nurses have done good work, but we must look for students with greater capacity before we can send out nurses capable of really efficient work. Those we have do good nursing under supervision, but it must be constant and careful.

Scarce a patient who is in the hospital for any length of time but becomes interested in reading the Gospel, and many voluntarily attend morning prayers and ask permission to attend services in the chapel when able to go. Several have joined the Church as a result of their stay in the hospital.

DUMAGUETE STATION.

Dr. and Mrs. Langheim returned from furlough May 19. The medical work of the Station for the preceding five months of the year was in charge of Dr. Carter, and a large number of patients were treated by him, though exact figures are not at hand. After Dr. Langheim's arrival, 3,515 were treated at the hospital and dispensary, 217 visits were made to the homes of patients and 400 were vaccinated.

Mrs. Langheim spends several mornings each week at the hospital and attends to many of the surgical cases.

Five hundred portions of Scripture have been disposed of at the dispensary. The efficiency of the hospital has been increased during the year by the addition of several hundred dollars worth of supplies and equipment, made possible by increased receipts and the generosity of friends.

A few trips away from the Station were made, including the visiting of the congregation at Guijulugan, eighty miles north.

In addition to the medical work, Dr. and Mrs. Langheim have assisted with the Institute work. Since the opening of the school year, June 1, Mrs. Langheim has had three regular classes. Dr. Langheim has four classes at the college, a class of twenty-five students in the Sunday-school, and is Station Treasurer.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Silliman Institute (Dr. Hibbard, President).—The enrollment has increased to 130 internos and 204 externos, while 54 entered and for various reasons have left the school for the present, making a total enrollment of 388. This will probably increase to 400 by the end of the year.

Twenty-nine students have publicly confessed Christ and have been baptized during the year; among these are some of the brightest and best boys. A few of the new converts are looking forward to the ministry. About thirty in all are expecting to become ministers of the Gospel.

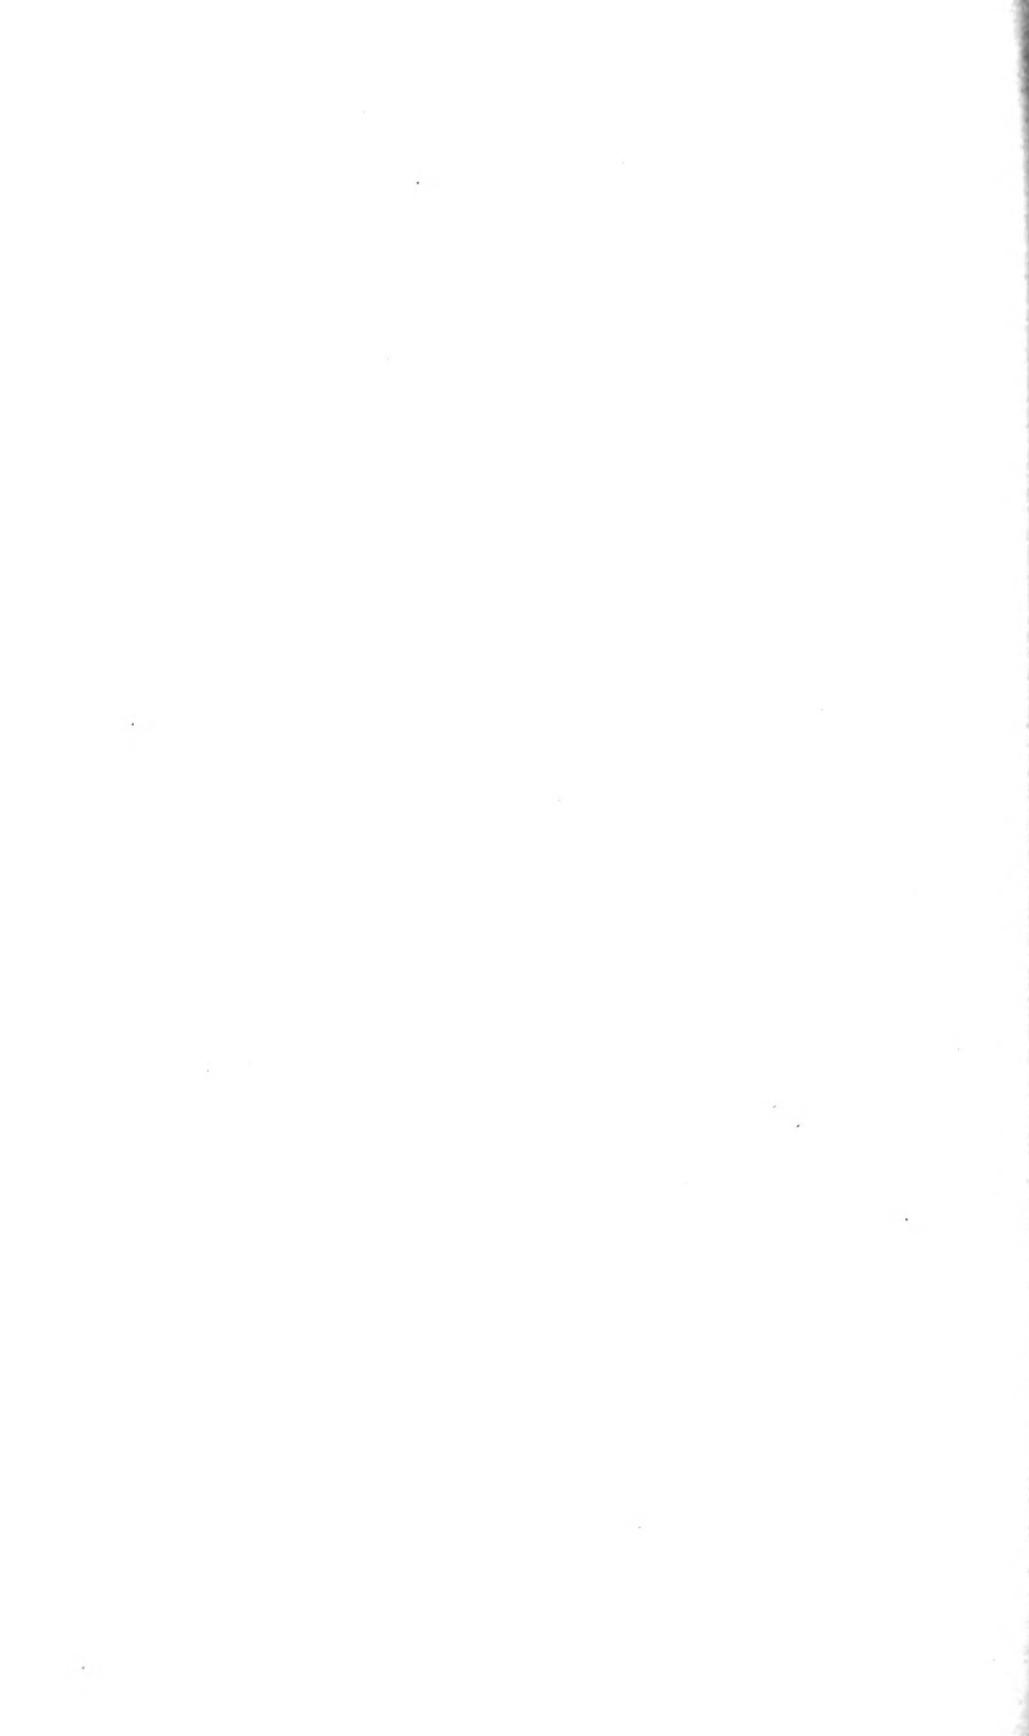

The school is becoming more popular with the people and prospects of larger growth and influence are bright. The port of Dumaguete has rapidly increased in importance during the last four years. There is seldom a day when less than two steamers make it a port of call, and more and more travelers are stopping to see the school and become acquainted with its workings.

The new addition is being pushed to completion and students were expected to be in it by the beginning of the school year in June. Architecturally, through the efforts of Mr. Glunz, the addition will transform the building into one that will be a credit to the city and the Mission. The shop is done and is being used to its fullest capacity, though the number of students compelled us to use one of the rooms as a dormitory.

Mr. McIntyre's furlough forced the school to ask the Mission for aid, and Cebu Station shouldered the burden and allowed Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap to come to Dumaguete, where they have labored most faithfully and successfully. Under the direction of Mr. Dunlap a great interest in athletics has been aroused, to the advantage of the school and the moral and physical benefit of the students.

Our course of study will meet the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, which will probably be demanded by the Government.

The support given by the entire Mission has contributed largely to the attendance from other provinces and the popularity of the school.

Industrial Department.—During the absence on furlough of Mr. and Mrs. Glunz the work fell more on the students, who stood the test well.

They did considerable work, finishing the workshop, getting out material for the shell windows of the new building, constructing a Station launch, and making articles for outside parties. Practically all the machine work and a large part of the work on the new building are being done by them. Two of them have left school for this term and are regularly employed as overseers, while five or six others are employed two or three days a week; these are keeping up with their classes.

A large part of the demand by the Industrial Department could not be supplied owing to building operations. An idea of what the students and equipment are earning may be secured when we state that we are putting up a building of reinforced concrete and first and second group wood for the price that Manila contractors would ask for a building for third and fourth group woods.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Preaching outside of Dumaguete has been carried on by Mr. Restituto Malahay in Dumaguete and Guijulugan, Mr. Enrique Malahay in Guijulugan, and Mr. Angel Sotto in Amblan. In addition students have carried on street services in the neighboring towns. Sibulan, Dauin, Bacong and Lizuriga have thus been reached. During the school year Mr. Dunlap went to Dauin and baptized three as the result of this work and found some others interested. There are people waiting for baptism in several towns where the missionary has not been able to go.

In March, Mr. McIntyre visited Guijulugan and baptized those who were waiting there, while in November, Dr. Langheim and Dr. Hibbard spent two days there, healing the sick and baptizing those who were ready. The Church there has been troubled by Spiritualism and questions concerning the Divinity of Christ, so much so that the congregation was threatened with disruption. The trouble is now passing away and the majority are united in finishing their chapel.

The island of Siquijor is still asking for an evangelist, and the students who have gone there have opened the way for a good work. There have been 144 baptisms during the year, and more are waiting at Amblan and at Himalalud, when a missionary can go.

CEBU STATION.

This year followed one of unusual increase in membership, several new and large congregations having come into existence, and many and severe persecutions being endured.

Dr. Graham had his hands full treating patients in the dispensary at home, but during the furlough of Mr. Jansen cheerfully took over both the English work and the charge of the Filipino Church in Cebu City for a number of months. Mrs. Graham, in addition to assisting the doctor at the dispensary and doing evangelistic work among the patients, did valuable translating of Sunday-school lessons, Christian Endeavor topics, timely tracts and hymns.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap were asked, at the beginning of the year, to help out in Silliman Institute, where they served on till the end of the school term; after which they returned, and for two months took part of the work at Cebu; then they once more were required at Silliman Institute, where they continued to serve throughout the remainder of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jansen, on returning from furlough, made a long itinerating trip to nearly all the congregations connected with the Station. Mr. Jansen writes:

We had for years longed to be set free from the English and Philippine city work of Cebu, that we might devote some time to Bible study among the congregations at large. We visited the following congregations: Oslob, Santander, Badian, Dumanjug, Cebu, Opon and Compostella in Province of Cebu, and Tacbilaren, Matabao, Pampang, Getafe, Ubag and Monoc in Bohol. We spent from six weeks to two weeks in each place, visiting some of the places different times during the year. Aside from this, we did opening evangelistic work in connection with Pastor Alonzo in two near towns on the west coast of Cebu, Alcatata and Moalboal.

Our principal efforts this year have been to strengthen and deepen the work, and it is on that account there are a less number of new members recorded this year. As it is we have received several hundred, and if we had been free to engage in more evangelistic work we would have had hundreds more to report. But the seed sown this year will bear abundant harvest in the coming year; of that we are confident.

Three new places have been opened in the Province of Cebu, and Pastor Ricardo Alonzo has done faithful work at them. Two new out-stations have been opened in Bohol, but the people have not yet shown much interest in them.

The launch "El Heraldo Cristiano," generously donated by The Christian Herald of New York, has already proved of inestimable blessing. It has far exceeded expectations and has taken an indispensable place in the Station equipment.

Mr. Dunlap made two trips to Opon for baptisms and conducted the Lord's Supper. A week's itineration in the mountains followed, during which he visited the congregations and conducted services with them. The distance covered was about seventy miles. Fourteen services were held, including baptisms and communion. Two English couples were married.

In July Mr. Jansen and Mr. Dunlap started for another itineration, going part way on the launch. Services were held at Santandar, and then Mr. Jansen took Mr. Dunlap to the west coast of Cebu and went on. Mr. Dunlap secured a guide and men for carrying his luggage. For over twenty-four hours we waded water up to our waists, and had the delightful sensation of being lost about 10 o'clock at night. As you see, I was found, and God gave me a blessed time among those simple-minded people. Many of them know Christ. Their possessions are limited, but they have the gift of the Spirit of God in their hearts.

The trip was one of about 130 miles on the launch and seventy miles on foot.

In June we had a conference of native workers and church officials, in which Dr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. Jansen took part. It was a blessed season and served to knit our hearts and unite our efforts as never before. On that occasion, as on many others, we were also privileged to listen to the wise counsel and loving exhortations of Mr. Joseph Holmes, the father of Mrs. Graham, who in two years' stay with his son and daughter impressed all with the reality of God's abiding peace. The Lord called him to higher service October 18, and we mourn his loss.

The number of pay students from Cebu in Silliman Institute at Dumaguete has increased and reports from them have been excellent. Mr. and Mrs. Jansen have also accepted responsibility for three orphaned children, whose care is to them a labor of love.

The question of a church building becomes pressing this year as our present chapel, at the expiration of our contract this year, belongs to the owner of the land on which it is built and which was given us rent free for five years. The contributions of Cebu promise a more suitable building for the rapidly growing metropolis of the Visayan Islands. It ought to be a building suitable for the English-speaking people to worship in as well as the Filipinos.

Sunday services in English have been held during the entire year, Dr. Graham, Mr. Dunlap and Mr. Jansen each having charge at various times.

LAGUNA STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton write they have reason to thank God for the blessings of the year. While nothing remarkable has occurred, the progress has been such as to bring gratification. Being their first year on the field, it has naturally been one of language study and of adjustment and forming acquaintance with the people, the field, and the work.

English services have been conducted in the native chapel every two weeks, which is usually attended by the dozen Americans in Pagsanhan, as well as a few from Santa Cruz. These services have been much appreciated and have grown in interest from the first.

Five itineration trips have been made, the first two in company with Pastor Zarco and Dr. Rodgers respectively of Manila. Mr. and Mrs. Magill with Dr. Rodgers cared for Laguna's work after the departure of Mr. Snook. To the service of these friends, who shouldered Laguna's work in connection with their own, is due the satisfactory condition of the field at the time of the arrival of the new missionaries.

Mr. Hamilton assisted at Ellinwood Bible Seminary during July and September, taking some classes in English. Mrs. Hamilton gave a series of lectures at Ellinwood School for Girls, besides teaching a class in music in the Bible Seminary. Mr. Hamilton has prepared studies on the Christian Endeavor topics published in the Ang Bagong Araw for the last three months of the year.

A helpful institute for the native evangelists and helpers was conducted by Mr. Wright in January, which was attended by representatives of almost all the churches of the province. Another institute was held in March for ten days.

At the time of the Teachers' Institute of Laguna Province in Pag-sanhan, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton opened their home Thursday nights for social evenings to the native school-teachers, and the social touch with them thus gained had good effect.

At a meeting of Manila Presbytery, held in connection with the institute last January, ten men were given temporary license as evangelists after due examination by Presbytery.

A beginning has been made in self-support and an advance is expected during the coming year. The visit of the representatives of the Presbytery's Home Mission Committee has in several places aroused a sense of their duty in this regard. All the congregations are learning to pay for literature, supplies for the Sunday-school, etc., instead of looking for these things as gifts from the Mission.

At two places where services had been held for some time, the congregations have been formally organized with officers. Four new chapels have been built, and several congregations expect to build during the coming year. Several new preaching places have been opened up, and a number of places are waiting for the coming of the missionary and the evangelist; but as yet we have not had men or means to enter these open doors.

One hundred and three new members have been baptized and received into the churches.

Mrs. Hamilton, who is a physician, has opened a dispensary and, amid many interruptions from language study, home duties and some lectures at Ellinwood School for Girls in Manila, she managed to treat 768 patients at the dispensary and to make 600 visits in homes, a total of 1,368 patients for the year.

LEYTE STATION.

Never before has the work been so encouraging as it is at this time; never has the interest been so manifest as to-day.

Better days seem to be in store, for the field is ripening unto harvest and we are beginning to garner in the grain. The headquarters of the Leyte field were at Baybay a year ago, but the city of Maasin was found to be a better centre, and the Station centre was therefore removed to Maasin on the 28th of April. To the great joy of Mr. Rath, who had been the solitary missionary on the whole island, Dr. and Mrs. Carter were added to the Station the 20th of May. They were welcomed by the members of our church and the friends of Maasin in the missionaries' rented house and a dinner was served, after which some speeches were made, the Presidente of the town giving the first one. The welcome was sincere and everyone enjoyed the occasion. That the people needed a physician and wanted one was soon demonstrated by the fact that even before the doctor was able to get his trunks unpacked patients began to arrive.

Tacloban.—Since we have removed Station headquarters to Maasin, it has been difficult to continue the meetings at Tacloban, because of its inaccessibility from the south and the lack of a suitable Filipino helper to carry on the work. No one of our members there seemed able to conduct meetings.

Baybay.—The work here is not encouraging. There seem to be a number who are inclined to Protestantism, but they have not the strength of their convictions. The street meetings when held are always well attended, but the attendance in the chapel is poor. Until recently there was no burial place in the town where Protestants could be buried; but this difficulty no longer obtains, since the Council has granted permission to bury in the municipal cemetery.

Malipog and Consolacion.—In the town of Malipog, four Filipinos were recently baptized. There are other believers who are not yet ready for church membership.

Consolacion, a municipality on the northern end of the Malipog Bay, has shown great signs of interest in the Gospel and it is our intention to push the work here after the rainy season.

Maasin is by far the most flourishing town we have, perhaps because our work is centred here. The church services are well attended, and the members take an interest in the meetings. The attendance of the women has increased since the coming of Dr. and Mrs. Carter, largely due to the many friends which Dr. and Mrs. Carter have won for us by their work. Mrs. Carter has a fine Sunday-school in her home. Dr. Carter conducts a Sunday-school class in English for those who understand it. Two other classes are held in the Visayan language. The Christmas entertainment drew a large crowd of people, who were curious to see how Protestants celebrated the birth of Christ. Some of them are still attending the meetings.

Macrohon, which is to become a municipality the first of the year, is very open to the Gospel. The street meetings are gratifying and we are anticipating a large addition to our membership from this town.

Another thing which has contributed to the spreading of the Gospel is the New Testament in Visayan, for which we have waited so long. In two months the Station placed 300 copies in the hands of the Filipinos. The fact that these were bought shows desire for the truth. Thousands of tracts and 1,500 selected portions of the Bible in Visayan have also been distributed. God will surely give the increase this coming year.

Thirty were received into the church during the year, of whom twenty-two were in Maasin, one was received at Baybay, four in Malitbog and three in Balod, a barrio of Carigara. Five children were baptized. We could have made the list larger, but we preferred to wait until the believers were more firmly grounded. Our great need is evangelists. Our only hope seems to be the three students that we have in training in Silliman Institute.

Dr. Carter had charge of the medical work at Dumaguete for four and a half months during the furlough of Dr. Langheim. While there he treated 1,626 patients. After removing to Maasin, May 20, he treated 2,084 patients, making a total of 3,710 for the year. Receipts from patients in Maasin were 312 pesos. This work, with necessary language study, kept him busy. All general anæsthetics were given by Mrs. Carter, and both she and Mr. Rath helped in the dispensary and hospital in many ways. The illness of Mrs. Carter caused much anxiety for a time, but she has fully recovered.

ALBAY STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were absent on furlough eight months of the year. On their return they were rejoiced to find evidences of the fidelity which the Filipino Christians had manifested during their absence.

To the best of our knowledge, not one person proved recreant as a member of our church. It has been demonstrated that the work is of God, and that it is not out of the novelty of new doctrines but from deep convictions that these people follow Christ.

We do not forget to thank those of Manila Station who during our absence sacrificed their convenience to look after our field. The people were greatly edified by the helpful visits of Pastor Zarco and Dr. Rodgers and speak of the visits of these brethren with keen appreciation.

New Buildings Erected in the Province Last Year.—Three new chapels were built during the year and another is in course of erection. One of these was the rebuilding of a house that had been burned down by enemies of our work. At the second, the people decided that the old house of worship was not fitting and they built a better one at their own instigation. The third edifice Mr. Brown dedicated before his departure for Mission meeting. It was erected in the city of Guinobatan, where there was formerly great opposition. Now we have a congregation of over 150. They built this neat church at their own expense without outside help. This church is full of earnest workers.

One bright young lad of twenty walks to Albay every Saturday afternoon, a distance of thirteen miles, to study Bible lessons with Mr. Brown, so that he may impart to others in the ensuing week the things he learns in the class. Lately he has been bringing others with him. He complains that two hours at a stretch is not long enough for him; he wants the whole afternoon.

This church raises money for its own supplies and the local preacher never thinks of asking any aid from the Mission. We are proud of the interest and the self-sacrifice our two regular helpers and our occasional assistant take in the work. When we have trips for them to make they almost never put in a bill for expenses, walking sometimes fifty miles to save money for the Station.

Since our return the congregations have elected new officials, and in every case with new life and new leaders there has been a renewal of interest and enthusiasm. We are endeavoring to place responsibility for services and direction of affairs in the hands of the natives, and expect that they give a reason for spiritual condition and lack of results.

One plan we have inaugurated for the different congregations and workers is a system of monthly reports. We send out a series of questions, which church officials and workers are expected to answer. In this way we hope to keep tab on what they are doing, what they need and have hint at what to suggest to them. Also by comparing one congregation with another, we hope to spur the backward on to greater endeavor.

New work has been opened in Don Sol, Nueva Caceras and Calabanga, the two latter in the province of Ambos Camerines, where we have forty inquirers and the work seems most encouraging.

In the same district, we have preached and worked to some extent in Iriga, where we have fifteen believers. Some have been waiting for some time to be received, but it seemed unwise to form a regular congregation until we had a few more to adhere, thus being a mutual help to each other.

We also have a good opening in the town of Camalig, which we intend to take advantage of immediately. Here the Presidente and his wife are deeply interested and promise to build a chapel at their own expense. We have here some fifteen waiting to be received.

We hope for good results in the Island of Raporapo, where for two weeks Rev. Pablo Dia worked. Many were intensely interested and manifested great desire to receive Christ. But we were unable to reach them now.

There is not the wholesale entering of the people to listen to the Gospel as in some other centres. Being away from Manila, people are more dominated by the priest than in the provinces adjacent to ports of entry. However, Mr. Brown hears constantly of places where people are interested and ready to learn more of the Gospel. Reports of this kind are now coming in from Sorsogon, where we have done no work.

We report a numerical increase of 109 the past year, but real progress has been made which is not embraced in mere figures. We have in our province ten regular preaching places, which we have visited five or six times in the past four months. With the aid of the motorcycle, I intend to establish weekly instruction classes in all these places and go regularly to break the Bread of Life to them. Besides these established places, we have six others where we preach from time to time, and which will ultimately be made into permanent stations.

Self-support.—The churches provide their own expenses. They are not able to hire evangelists as yet, but one church pays one-fourth of the salary of their district evangelist, and all the churches buy their own supplies, pay for leases where their chapels are built, and pay for running expenses.

Our members are not wealthy, but twice every Sunday they religiously give their penny, and I know that even this much means a large sacrifice for most of them. It is the case of the widow's mite. Furthermore, in some of the congregations there is a monthly contribution other than the regular offering. This is used to meet special needs as they arise.

Mr. Brown traveled the last four months about 800 miles. This could not have been done except through the aid of the motorcycle which Milwaukee friends kindly gave.

All our congregations celebrated Christmas, following a special program prepared by the missionaries. Albay had a big supper.

One of our mountain congregations had a special program and supper and invited all the surrounding villages to participate. The people whom they invited were not believers, but in this way they hoped to gain their interest and friendship. The officials of the church report a splendid time and that the plan succeeded even beyond their hopes. Thus by every means our people are trying to win some to the Master. We have a class of fifteen children which meets every Saturday to study the Life of Christ. This class was a star performer in our Christmas program.

American Work.—Services for the Americans in and near Albay have been well attended and the Americans take great interest in the work. Attendance has varied from 50 to 125 on special occasions.

TAYABAS STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Magill report that the work has made progress and that encouragements have far outweighed discouragements.

The congregation at Lucban has grown faster than any other congregation in the province. Here we have a membership of eighty-one, seventy-one of these having been received this year.

Some of them, who once gambled, drank and kept fighting cocks, have left their vices and are now regular attendants at church. Most of them are poor, uneducated people, and at first they were very backward about taking part publicly in our services. But the Bible conference last March marked the beginning on the part of about twenty in taking part in the services by reading, praying or speaking.

Bible classes and Sunday-school have added to their Biblical knowledge, and the Christian Endeavor Society has been a good training school in public expression. Two or three young men have a view to the ministry. Within a few months we hope to have a chapel of our own in Lucban. About 700 pesos have been sent for this purpose, and this, with what we can raise in Lucban will build a neat chapel.

At Lucban a Bible class was conducted in March by Mr. Wright, Pastor Estrella, Miss Bartholomew, and Mr. and Mrs. Magill. About fifty local evangelists and workers from ten towns attended and studied the Gospel six hours daily for eight days. Evangelistic services were held every night with large attendance and interest. Other smaller classes were conducted in six other congregations, in two of which, Mauban and Louisiana, Miss Bartholomew rendered valuable assistance. Also in our regular visitation of the churches, we usually devote from two to three hours daily to Bible classes, besides the regular evening services.

Outside of Lucban, we have thirteen churches and preaching places, most of which are widely separated.

Some are reached by horse or on foot, some may be reached by vehicle or steamer, while others can only be reached by sailboat or canoe. Most of these have been visited by your missionary and his wife an average of four times a year. Sometimes we spend as many as ten days in a town, while at other times we spend only three or four days.

We have spent 150 days visiting churches and itinerating (outside of Lucban), have journeyed about 1,600 miles on land and water, traveling on foot, on horse, in caranata, in buggy, on steamer, in sailboat, and in canoe. Besides our visitation, two evangelists have traveled separately, and have held services somewhere almost every night in the year. Our evangelists are Hilarian Cruz and Francisco Beltran, the latter a native of Lucban, whose life God spared from all but fatal sickness last January.

Mrs. Magill accompanied me on most of these trips. She held Bible classes for women and children, taught domestic science classes which aroused the interest and friendship of many women. She preached everywhere the principles of hygiene and the importance of fresh air, sunshine, pure water, the lack of which is the direct or indirect cause of two of the commonest diseases in the Philippine Islands, viz., consumption and dysentery.

She has tried to teach the people how to care for the sick, of which they know so little, and how to clothe, feed and care for infants, of whom an alarming percentage die for lack of proper care, and not for the lack of their mothers' love and affection.

We have made a special effort to give the people the Word of God, selling 250 Sunday-school Quarterlies, and giving to those who were deserving. We have disposed of 500 New Testaments in Spanish, 2,400 portions (Piniling Bagay) of Scripture in Tagalog, and 500 portions in Spanish, all of which were generously contributed by the Bible House of Los Angeles, through the American Bible Society. We have also distributed about 14,000 Tagalog tracts and papers.

Thus the seed has been sown and we believe that it will not return void.

During the year Mr. Magill officiated at eight weddings and seven funerals, baptized twenty-five infants and 175 adults. Three churches have been regularly constituted with elders and deacons at Mauban, Sanguiren and Louisiana. Seven men have been granted local licenses to preach the Gospel.

New work has been opened in Boac, Santa Cruz (both of which are on the island of Marinduque, which has a population of 50,000), Lopez, Unisan, and Tayabas (the town, not the province). Evangelist Beltran has been stationed on Marinduque since June, and has conducted services in Boac, Santa Cruz, Gasan and various barrios. He has found many interested in the Gospel. A congregation has been organized in Boac and money and materials have been collected for a new chapel.

At Santa Cruz a congregation was organized in September and a movement is on foot to build a chapel. At Unisan thirty are waiting for baptism, are holding regular services, and are building a chapel. The congregation has been visited several times by evangelists. Though they have been persecuted, yet they are faithful. Lopez has been visited several times by our evangelists, and a number, including two good councilmen, are thoroughly interested and seem ready for organization. A place of worship has been secured and regular services are being conducted in the old town of Tayabas, the former capital of the province, which was once noted for its rabid Catholicism and bitter anti-American feeling. From the indications and from the large number of people that attend the services, and from the number of Bibles and hymn books that have been bought, we believe that a congregation will soon be organized.

Services have been conducted in Lucena three times during the year and many have listened to preaching. Like the Athenians of old, some mocked, others promised to hear us again, but there may be found a Dionysius, a Damaris and others with them. Lucena is the most important town in the province, being the capital and seat of the High School, an important port, the terminus of the coming railroad, and a battalion post of the Scouts. It has telegraphic communication with the outside world. We hope to open permanent work there before a great while.

The following information regarding the field of this new Station will be of interest: Tayabas Province is large, with long distances and extended coast line. It has high mountains and bad roads. The population is 214,000.

It has three natural divisions, and our work has been providentially opened in each. The first division is "Central Tayabas," including the towns of Luchan (population 10,227), Tayabas (14,740), Lucena (9,375), Pagbilao (6,085), Sariaya (12,453), Tiaon (9,527), Sampoloc (2,482), a total of 64,889, a little less than one-third of the population of the province.

The second division is "Marinduque and Tayabas Bay," with the towns of Boac (22,799), Santa Cruz (16,350), Gasan (8,270), Torijoas and Malanay (5,980), all on Tayabas Bay, a total of 82,687.

The third district is the "Pacific Coast," with Maubaun (12,021), Baler (4,084), Polillo (2,164), Infanta (10,283), Antimonan (11,203), Gumaca (5,324), Lopez (8,549), Kalawag (3,185), Alabat (5,000), and Guiniangan (3,870), a total of 66,023. All of the towns in the second and third districts can be reached by water, and all in the first or Central can be reached by vehicle.

Mr. Magill's desire is to put an evangelist in each of these grand divisions, for time and money are wasted in having an evangelist travel the long distances from one district to another. Each church should maintain its own work as far as possible, but there should be one good evangelist to visit them occasionally and he must help to open up new work in each district.

Either of the grand divisions mentioned is a large and encouraging field for one missionary, especially since encouraging work is already started in each of the divisions. The Pacific Coast is separated from the other two by high mountains, which are traversed by roads and trails that are next to impassable during part of the year. Hence this is a field of importance and bright prospects to itself.

SIAM AND LAOS MISSIONS.

SIAM MISSION.

BANGKOK: capital of Siam; on the Menam River, 25 miles from its mouth; occupied as a Mission Station, 1840. Missionaries—Rev. E. P. Dunlap, D.D., and Mrs. Dunlap, Rev. J. B. Dunlap and Mrs. Dunlap, Rev. F. L. Snyder and Mrs. Snyder, Mr. Robert O. Franklin and Mrs. Franklin, L. C. Bulkley, M.D., Miss Edna S. Cole, Miss L. J. Cooper, Miss Annabel Galt, Miss M. C. McCord, Rev. W. G. McClure and Mrs. McClure, C. C. Walker, M.D., and Miss B. Blount.

PETCHABURI: on the western side of the Gulf of Siam, 90 miles southwest of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station, 1861. Missionaries—E. B. McDaniels, M.D., and Mrs. McDaniels, Rev. J. A. Eakin and Mrs. Eakin, and Miss Ednah Bruner.

RATBURI: on the Po River, 60 miles west of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station, 1889. Missionaries—Rev. Egon Wachter, M.D., and Mrs. Wachter.

PITSANULOKE: on the Menam River, 200 miles north of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station, 1898. Missionaries—Rev. A. W. Cooper and Mrs. Cooper, Carl Shellman, M.D., and Mrs. Shellman, Rev. R. C. Jones and Mrs. Jones.

NAKAWN: on the eastern side of the Malay Peninsula, 320 miles south of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station, 1900. Missionaries—Rev. C. E. Eckels and Mrs. Eckels, W. J. Swart, M.D., and Mrs. Swart, and Rev. R. W. Post and Mrs. Post.

TRANSFERS: Dr. L. C. Bulkley from Bangkok to Petchaburi; Miss L. J. Cooper from Bangkok to Nakawn; Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Cooper from Pitsanuloke to Ratburi.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. E. P. Dunlap, D.D., and Mrs. Dunlap, Rev. Egon Wachter, M.D., and Mrs. Wachter.

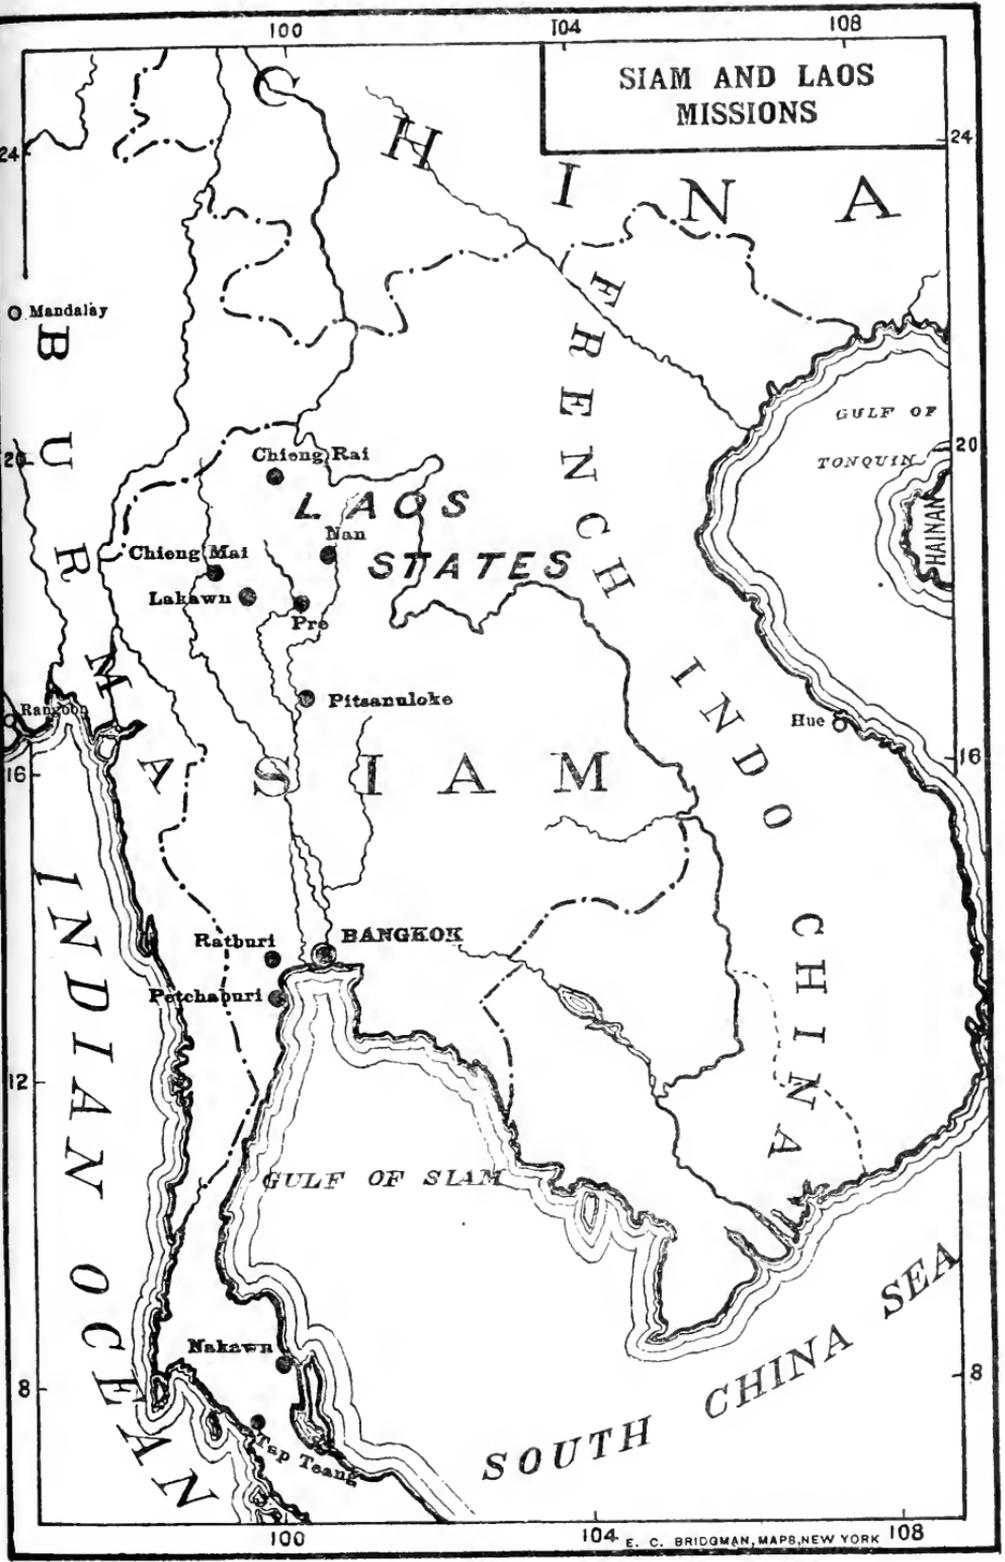

BANGKOK STATION.

The missionaries write:

As we survey the work of the past year our first thought is one of gratitude to God for health, for God's blessings upon us through the year, and for the privilege of witnessing in this place.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Early in the year Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Dunlap, with Dr. L. C. Bulkley, left for an extended tour in the Puket region, on the Bengal side of the Malay Peninsula. Here the missionaries have always found a welcome, and to-day we have a band of earnest Christians who are anxious to have a Station among them. At each visit Dr. and Mrs. Dunlap have planned to spend several weeks among them. Through Dr. Bulkley the benefits of modern medicine are brought into their homes. Much good is accomplished in this way every year. The missionaries are so well liked that the Christians have decided to build a rest-house for them.

During the last visit Dr. E. P. Dunlap, while visiting the sick, climbed into the home of a sick man, and while on the bamboo ladder it broke, Dr. Dunlap falling and severely injuring his knee. Painful weeks followed, but in spite of his infirmity the good Doctor preached daily from his bed to the many sympathizing native friends who visited him. At last, with the help of crutches, he was able to proceed to Penang, from whence he sailed for America on the 17th of March. Kind friends received him in New York and carried him to the home of Dr. Bulkley's father, where the knee was reset. The injury is still troublesome, but Dr. Dunlap hopes to be able to return to Siam this Spring.

After Dr. and Mrs. Dunlap's departure for America, Dr. Bulkley made an extended tour through the interior of the Malay Peninsula and up the coast to Chumpon.

Since the arrival of Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Snyder from furrough, Mr. Snyder has made several short tours—two to Ayuthia, one to Lopburi, one to Patriew and one to Paklat. A longer trip was made to Patriew to visit a community of about a dozen old Christians, belonging to a church organized by Dr. Dean, of the American Baptist Mission, over thirty years ago. It was the first preaching service held in that Church for twelve years. Sixteen people were present. Mr. Snyder, in company with Dr. Bulkley and two Siamese helpers, made a tour of three weeks to Bang Pla Soi and Muang Panat, by means of launches, ponies and on foot. At Bang Pla Soi they were entertained at the home of a Chinese adherent whose house is built upon piers about a half mile from shore. The sea breeze and cool nights were much enjoyed. The days were spent in the town in a rented chapel, where preaching and dispensary work took up most of the time. Dr. Bulkley treated a great many people who came to him for medicine. Nearly 700 tracts and portions of Scripture were sold. The two helpers rendered valuable service.

From Bang Pla Soi the party went to Ang Hin and then on to Muang Panat, where they were welcomed by a community of twenty or more Christians. This field also was worked by Dr. Dean nearly thirty years ago. The fact that there is still found, after these many years of loneliness, a strong body of Christians speaks well for Dr. Dean's faithful work. In the words of Mr. Snyder:

An old man, Cheen Toa, died early the next morning after our arrival, ignorant of our presence. Three months ago, while disputing with another as to God's faithfulness, when twitted: "See how the missionaries have never visited us these twenty years; surely God has forgotten us," replied, "God never forgets His own. I am now seventy years of age. I may never see a missionary with my own eyes, and yet I trust that God will send a missionary from Bangkok to officiate at my burial." I buried Cheen Toa, and it seemed as I looked into his dead face that I could see a smile of triumph, for his great faith in God was not in vain. This remark of Cheen Toa made a profound impression upon the Christians and their neighbors. We held an all-day service the following Sabbath and received two new members into the church, placed five on probation and baptized three children.

Mr. Snyder, besides his touring work, has charge of the Third Church in Bangkok, which took in twenty-five new members during the year.

Chapels.—Services at the Ban Moh Chapel are conducted by Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Dunlap. Mr. Dunlap has also charge of the Second Church at the Harriet M. House School for girls. Services at the Conference Chapel were conducted throughout the year by Rev. W. G. McClure and Dr. G. B. McFarland.

During the year the number of Sunday-schools in Bangkok has risen to eight, with an average attendance of 450. Mrs. J. B. Dunlap furnishes the different schools with picture cards and lesson leaflets.

Boys' School.—The opening of the term was preceded by the Conference meetings, in which the school was concerned in several ways. Most of the Conference meetings were held in the High School hall and were attended by the teachers and many of the pupils. A profound impression was made upon all. The spiritual lives of the Christians were deepened and several of the non-Christian pupils came to a decision for Christ. Some of the pupils and one teacher offered themselves for Christian work, and were afterward received under the care of Presbytery as candidates for the ministry. The Conference has had a distinct influence on the spiritual life of the school throughout the year.

This does not mean, however, that there has been an unusual turning of pupils toward Christianity. In fact it has been a year of great spiritual struggle, more noticeable during this term. During last term the boys' evening prayer meeting was organized into a College Y. M. C. A. The present year has been a trying year, in a sense unfruitful spiritually; still we feel encouraged for the future, believing that spiritual struggling is better than passive acquiescence, and that it gives the promise of greater and better results.

The Sunday-school has been regularly held in the High School hall. The membership has consisted largely of boarding pupils and others, the attendance averaging over 100. Aside from the teachers in the school, Miss Lucy Dunlap, Miss Dunlap, Mr. King, Dr. Walker and Dr. Bulkley have given assistance.

A prayer meeting for young Christians and inquirers has been held each week after the Sunday-school, with an encouraging attendance and considerable interest. All the boys that board at the school are required to attend Sunday afternoon preaching services at the Sampantawong Memorial Chapel. Daily prayers in the school chapel and instruction from the Bible and other Christian books, together with individual work with the pupils, indicate what we are trying to do for the spiritual good of the pupils.

The total enrollment for the school year was 293, and the average monthly enrollment 235. The attendance during the early part of the present school year has been a little less, averaging 215. Several reasons can be given to account for this smaller enrollment:

1. A New Curriculum: Our curriculum was revised and enlarged, making it conform more closely to the Government code of Siam, and adding another year of study as a requisite to graduation. A few dropped out of the higher classes on this account.

2. Higher Fees: The increase of expense of living and the growing cost of maintaining the school made an increase in fees seem imperative. No objection was offered to this increase by our patrons, but no doubt it influenced a few to drop out.

3. School Uniform: The school, having adopted a uniform a few years ago, in accord with the practice of other schools, fixed upon the beginning of this year as the time to require all pupils to wear the uniform. No objection was offered to this, but a few pupils were slow to provide themselves with the uniform and dropped out when finally pressed in the matter.

The loss from these causes has been less, in fact, than we feared, and we have had no reason to regret the steps taken. The changes have become imperative in order to keep our school abreast of the growing demand for educational work and the improvement in other schools.

The temporary arrest in growth has its advantages also. It gives time to consider economic questions relating to financial support, opportunity to plan for improvement in instruction, and in general to take our bearings and settle matters of policy in our educational work. The school was outgrowing its clothing in more than one sense, and while we would like to see a larger growth, it may be questioned whether we could do justice to a larger school than we now have under present conditions.

Our teachers, both American and Siamese, have shown great interest in their work and in general have done well. A course of lectures by friends outside the school has been very popular. Under Mr. Franklin's skillful management the course netted 1,054 ticals.

The school is in great need for additional buildings and more equipment. Much growth in any direction will be impossible until we can secure larger accommodations.

Girls' School.—When school opened this year we had to turn many applicants away for want of room. Miss Edlefsen's loss as a teacher through her marriage to Dr. W. B. Toy was very keenly felt. Miss McCord and Miss Cole, together with six Siamese teachers, have carried the burden of a work that calls for at least three missionaries.

One of our graduates was married at the school and a large company of friends attended the wedding. We are always glad to have the school give a wedding such as this to a graduate, as it helps to emphasize the importance of the home-life which we desire to uplift.

In November the school joined with other schools in the grand reception given by the Siamese people to the King in honor of his return from Europe. The girls, dressed in pink and white, were proud to be allowed to do their little part in this great celebration to their King. Each pupil received a silver medal bearing the portrait of His Majesty in honor of the occasion. The beauty and novelty of this demonstration by a loyal people to their beloved King will never be forgotten. Elaborate preparations were made on every hand.

The year has been marked by heavy school work. The normal work for the teachers, which was begun last year, has been increased. They have had two hours of lecture work every day, for which they are obliged to study outside of school time. This is a decided step in advance, the result of which is already telling in improved work.

As usual the pupils have taken the Government examinations, and the teachers are preparing to take the Government teachers' examinations.

The two King's Daughters' Circles have met each month, and a great deal of interest was shown in the meetings throughout the year.

Mrs. J. B. Dunlap has rendered valuable assistance as teacher of music, and her enthusiastic work has gone far to awaken a musical interest in the school.

The school for boys has had a successful year. The enrollment is 94. Two Siamese teachers give their whole time to the school, while a third divides his time between this school and the Christian High School. Mr. Franklin pays weekly visits of inspection to the school.

There are three day-schools in different parts of Bangkok open to boys and girls, and conducted by some of our Christian graduates of the Harriet M. House School. The combined enrollment in these schools is about 120. They are doing a good work, as they offer an opportunity to Christian families to send their children to school at greatly reduced rates.

MISSION PRESS.—The work of the Press has steadily continued.

For the American Bible Society we have reprinted four books, totaling 25,000 portions or 1,630,000 pages. To our own list of tracts we have added the four Conference papers of last annual Conference and "Titus," translated by Nai Boon Serm, in memory of Miss Bissell. This is by far the best addition to our literature in many years. Another addition to our helps for native workers is a translation of Dr. Munhall's "Manual for Christian Workers," made by Dr. J. A. Eakin. Dr. George B. McFarland continued as editor of the Daybreak until his furlough to America. Miss Cole very ably edited the magazine during the six months Dr. McFarland was away in America.

Since finishing the Siamese-English Dictionary for one of the masters in the Government educational service, the Press has done considerable other work for the Royal Library. This same man has been translating old Siamese history into English, and other records of the early intercourse of Western and Eastern nations as it affected Siam and its nearest neighbors.

The Press has printed several papers from the oldest "Malay Annals," and they are now in the Royal Library in book form. The Siamese history translation is still in the Press. The most modern intercourse of Siam with the West, namely, "Far from Home," being a series of letters from His Majesty the King during his late tour of Europe, written to one of his daughters, is now in elegant English in the Royal Library. This was printed at our Press. But equally or more important than these are the "Siam Penal Code" and the "Customs and Trade Regulations," both of which our Press has printed in good shape. For our own stock of tracts we have just reprinted a new edition of "Peep of Day," and at the present time we are printing a new edition of "Siamese Arithmetic" for our schools.

The keen competition between the other four foreign Presses in Bangkok, and the many native and Chinese Presses in Bangkok, makes the management of our Mission Press on self-supporting lines no easy task. Hitherto the Press has aimed to secure only the proceeds of sales from the distribution of tracts and school books, and not their actual cost price, and during this fiscal year it has not asked or received any returns from the publication of the Daybreak. But, in addition to new editions which the Press has produced this year, the plant has been kept up and slightly improved by the addition of a three-feet cutting machine, besides additional English and Siamese type.

Go-down.—During the year 1,268 boxes have passed through our Mission go-down and the customs, not including local purchases, for which we do not have to account to the customs authorities.

When not touring Mr. Snyder has given valuable assistance. Since the Opium Farmer has given up his contract with the Government and the latter has taken over the direct management of the opium traffic, more stringent regulations for importing all drugs, especially those containing any percentage of opium or spirits, such as essences or tinctures, have been made, and Mission dispensaries and hospitals are no exception. They must all be produced and examined at the Custom House.

Boon Itt Memorial Young Men's Institute.—At last we are able to report this building nearly finished. Unexpected delays were experienced. A long time elapsed before clear title to the site could be secured, and of course building operations had to be deferred until we had title. Then it is not as practicable to push work in Siam as in America. Loss in exchange diminished the amount of money available and the cost of labor and materials rose, so that a further sum is needed. Dr. E. P. Dunlap has been authorized by the Board to raise this.

The Institute is planned after the work of the Y. M. C. A. movement in America, and has for its object the improvement of the spiritual, mental, social, and physical condition of young men in Siam. A Board of Directors has been appointed and the officers of the Institute are: President, Dr. E. P. Dunlap; Vice-President, Dr. George McFarland; Treasurer, Rev. J. B. Dunlap; Corresponding Secretary, Nai Boon Serm, and General Secretary, Dr. Charles C. Walker.

MEDICAL WORK.—The opening of our medical work in Bangkok has been watched with considerable interest.

The Mission had no organized medical work of any kind in this great centre until Dr. Walker's arrival from Pitsanuloke. The first to appreciate the presence of a Mission Doctor was our community of Siamese Christians. They soon brought their sick to him. Soon the Doctor was called into their homes and in this way many friendships were made. Two hundred and thirty-three visits were made to the homes of the sick, and 850 visits were made by patients to the Doctor's house. The compound was kept filled by in-patients who needed operations and treatment. Over 80 in-patients were received in this way. These in-patients are the most promising part of our medical work. They are receptive and open to Christian instruction. Each patient has one or more attendants, making the total number under instruction about 200. Out of this number three accepted Christ and two are on probation. The work has been self-supporting from the start, and can easily be kept so. The poor of Bangkok, of which there are a great many, as well as the rich have sought the benefits of our medical work.

And now, to crown all, His Excellency Phya Pipat Kosa, Vice-Minister of the Department of Foreign Affairs, of his own accord offered a row of tenement houses, fitted up, rent free, for the use of a hospital. This splendid gift, together with free artesian well water, and another gift of ten free beds, have all come without any personal solicitation. God's hand can be seen clearly in the work thus far. He will carry it on so that it shall become a blessing to multitudes in this great city. Dr. C. C. Walker is to have charge of the hospital, and a new man will be sent to take his place in the Boon Itt Memorial.

Sanitarium.—During the year a beautiful site on the coast, about sixteen hours by steamer from Bangkok, was selected for Sanitarium purposes. The Government granted us the land at a nominal rental of twelve ticals. On this spot, surrounded by mountain scenery, the Sanitarium building is being erected. Mr. Snyder is superintending the construction. It will be large enough to accommodate four families at one time, will have spacious verandas on all sides and the floor will be six feet from the ground. Facing the sea, it will look out over a beautiful sandy beach ideal for bathing purposes. Such a retreat has long been needed for our Mission in this tropical land, so that our workers can escape the trying weather during the hot season.

Gymnasium.—Through the generous gifts of the Hon. Hamilton King and Pra Monthri, combined with the proceeds of the successful Lyceum Course, enough money was raised to erect and furnish a fine open building for a gymnasium on the Boys' School compound. Mr. Franklin, director of the gymnasium, writes: "It is thoroughly equipped with hand rings, trapeze bars, horizontal bars, parallel bars, vaulting horse, climbing ladder, punching bag and basket ball rings." The students manifest eager interest in the gymnasium and rapidly develop physically under its training.

Lyceum Course.—Several visitors from America gladdened the workers of this far-off land. Mr. J. A. McClure, a member of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and a brother to our Mr. McClure; the Rev. Dr. John Fox, of the American Bible Society; the Rev. Roswell H. Bates, of the Spring Street Church of New York City; Mr. Norman Thomas, whose grandfather worked for many years in Siam; the Rev. Dr. Harlan P. Beach and Mrs. Beach, of Yale University; Dr. and Mrs. Edward W. Capen, of Boston, and Prof. Bradley, who was born in Siam, but is now in the Faculty of California University, were among those who visited Siam during the year and greatly cheered the usually lonely missionaries.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Snyder and Miss Cooper were welcomed back from furlough.

We wish to express our appreciation of the very valuable help and kindly interest of the Hon. and Mrs. Hamilton King in our work; to Dr. and Mrs. George McFarland for their painstaking efforts upon the Daybreak and their help in many other ways, and also to Miss Lucy Dunlap for her unselfish service and devotion to the work.

The famous old schooner "Kalamazoo," used for so many years by Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Dunlap in the Gulf of Siam, had to be sold, as Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Dunlap were appointed to work in Bangkok, and as the boat was fast deteriorating from the effects of the weather without and white ants within.

The Station report concludes:

We are impressed by our responsibility toward the large and growing population of Bangkok. With our present force of workers it is impossible to set aside a man to work exclusively among the Chinese, of whom there are about 300,000 in Bangkok. From 1,000 to 4,000 more arrive every month. Some go to other parts of Siam and Laos, but many remain in Bangkok. Our Station has been undermanned for years, but we earnestly hope that we shall soon have an adequate force to do a larger evangelistic work in this great city of large opportunities.

PETCHABURI STATION.

The little company at Petchaburi feel that there is abundant reason for gratitude to God. Health has been generally good. Mr. Eakin was disabled for some time by being thrown and trampled upon by a runaway horse; but he is now fully recovered. There have been manifest tokens of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Miss Ednah Bruner has had charge of the Boys' School, ably assisted by Kru Noon and Maa Kru Cham; Mrs. Eakin gave a half hour a day to kindergarten songs and games for the little ones, and Dr. McDaniel assisted with accounts and reports.

After the midyear vacation the tuition fee was raised to three ticals a month, and the study of English was made compulsory for all pupils. This change required courage; for tuition fees are not popular here and no charge is made at any other school. But the result fully justified the confidence of the Principal. The receipts are greater than ever before and the general interest has increased, while there has been no falling off in attendance. The religious interest in the school has been good, though confined mainly to the children of Christian families. There is one Christian pupil who comes from a non-Christian home. Several of the older pupils, who are members of the church, are committing one verse of Scripture each day.

MEDICAL WORK.—This has been greatly hindered by the absence of Dr. McDaniel, caused by the severe illness of Dr. Bulkley and afterwards of Dr. Shellman, each of whom was brought through a protracted attack of fever and then taken to the Sanitarium by Dr. McDaniel. Their restoration to perfect health without the need of leaving Siam was a great benefit to the work at large, and the Station, while regretting the necessity, was willing to sacrifice its work for the sake of the greater need elsewhere.

Since Dr. McDaniel has been able to give his whole time to the work here it has prospered greatly. Many difficult cases have been treated successfully in the hospital, and several have accepted Christ as the healer of their souls. One patient, a Chinese Christian, has been diligent in trying to bring others of his own nationality to a knowledge of the truth, with a fair degree of success. Patients who have been healed and converted in the hospital have returned to their homes at a distance and told how the Lord has blessed them. This testimony will advance our work, both medical and spiritual, in the future.

The efficiency of the hospital has been increased by some new equipment and furnishings, and it is now better prepared to care for the sick than before. Dr. Eakin gave assistance in the religious services and during a long tour vaccinated about 400 persons. On the whole, the condition of this branch of the work is more encouraging than for several years past. The statistics are as follows:

Sales and prescriptions.....	979
Visits.....	75
Operations requiring a general anæsthetic.....	12
In-patients.....	23
Out-patients.....	10
Receipts from all sources, Ticals.....	1,103.10

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Progress in the Petchaburi Church has been slow. Services and Sunday-school have been kept up without interruption, with a gradual increase in attendance. Only one new member has been received, but two others are candidates on probation.

Mrs. Eakin has a midweek prayer meeting for women which is an important feature of our work. The attendance varies a good deal, but in the course of the year about forty women who do not attend church are thus brought under religious instruction. Sometimes one or two wait after the meeting to talk about affairs of personal interest, and in this way the bridge of friendship is formed.

Miss Bruner has been carrying on work among the women and children in two Laos villages near by, and a good degree of interest has been awakened.

A Sunday-school has been started at the market chapel, with an attendance of about fifty. This was made necessary by the large attendance at the preaching service of children, who did not understand the preaching and could not be kept quiet. Now room is left in the small chapel for an audience of adults.

The country church at Ta Rua Ban Pai has had service every Sunday morning for some months. The attendants are few, but they usually come out well and seem to be in earnest in their desire to build a new chapel. They are now worshipping in an open sala, which is a common rest-house for all passers-by. It is expected to raise the money for the new chapel on the field, and a small sum is in hand to begin the work as soon as the rainy season is over. The scattered membership has been gradually gathering in ever since it was known that there would be a regular service there.

The members of the church at Bangkokboon seem to be so much estranged among themselves that they are unwilling to meet for public worship, although they all make the missionary welcome to hold a service in their houses. One new member was recently received on examination. This may be the first drop of a coming shower of blessing.

There are only three families remaining of the church at Paktalay, and the members of one of these are not on speaking terms with the other two. There is little promise of a blessing there.

Touring.—Our chief encouragement is in connection with itinerating. A tour up river of nineteen days by Dr. McDaniel and Dr. Bulkley, and a tour of twenty-eight days down through Prah province by Dr. Eakin, with short tours of a few days each in various directions, has covered our field fairly well from the border of Ratburi province to Koh Lak, and from the sea coast on the east to the western mountains.

In the up-river tour two Karen villages were visited, and the people listened with interest to the Gospel story which they had never heard before. In other villages people were found who had heard the Gospel from missionaries on former tours ten or twelve years ago, but the work had not been followed up. We hope to work this inviting field more thoroughly.

Some of the experiences of this touring work were more interesting than pleasant at the time.

Once we were lost in the thick jungle on a dark night with the prospect of having to camp out, exposed to tigers or robbers, with no water for our cattle or ourselves; but the distant barking of a dog directed us to a house where we found a guide to the nearest village. Once we were crossing a swift stream when only the noses and horns of the swimming oxen were visible, and we wondered whether they would be able to pull the cart out of the strong current. Or sitting on a folding chair, for example, with open vaccinating "kit," surrounded by fifty or sixty children, mostly babies, and as many grown people; forty babies crying at once, and the mothers looking as if the situation was getting on their nerves.

At the time of the long tour to Koh Lak, which involved more than 200 miles of tramping, an English surveyor in the Siamese Government service was shot at so often by the country people that he had to leave his work unfinished and return to the city. Highway robbery and murder were no uncommon occurrences. But the missionary, passing through the same region with books and medicines, was welcomed everywhere; and he could sleep undisturbed wherever night came on.

In many of these country villages we left little groups of from one or two to half a dozen people who gave their names as candidates for baptism. They must be left for months without a visit, to bear the brunt of ridicule and social ostracism on the part of former friends, without a human teacher to guide and encourage them. We ask an interest in your prayers for these few sheep scattered in the wilderness.

A tour down the west coast of the Gulf of Choompon was made by Dr. Eakin. All the Christians in the province, so far as known, were visited. Nearly all of them met for a preaching service. There is a strong nucleus of Christians at the mouth of the Choompon River, but in the capital town the impression made seemed to be slight. One country village was visited for the first time by a missionary. Dr. Eakin continues:

We have not many sheaves to bring home at this ingathering, but we are not discouraged at the result of the year's work. We have visited fifty villages and large towns, many of them more than once, preaching the Gospel and healing the sick. We have enrolled sixty-two persons as candidates for baptism. We have recently baptized one of these after four months' probation, the first-fruits of the coming harvest. These have all been pledged to keep the Sabbath and to tell their neighbors the story of redeeming love. In one case we have seen three converts in a few weeks win over five others to the new faith. In another case we have seen the father of a family win over his wife, son, two daughters, son-in-law, nephew, and a girl friend of the family, who all at one time declared their intention to join him in the Christian life.

We have four Siamese preachers and evangelists who are growing in grace and knowledge and experience in work. One of these is using his spare time in learning Chinese, that he may be able to preach to the Chinese people. We have a Chinese colporteur who is taking hold vigorously of the work of selling the Scriptures in both languages; and we hope, by divine help, to meet the responsibilities of the coming year.

RATBURI STATION.

It has been deemed wise to consolidate this Station with Petchaburi, and the united fields will hereafter be reported under Petchaburi. The two towns are only thirty-five miles apart and are connected by railroad, so that Ratburi and its neighborhood can be easily reached. Petchaburi is the more important city and we have a larger plant there. One family, however, will continue to reside at Ratburi to superintend the local work, but as members of Petchaburi Station. The work centring in Ratburi therefore is not to be abandoned, but simply consolidated with that at Petchaburi, in the interest of economy and efficiency.

The work at Ratburi has suffered during the past year from a dearth of competent native helpers, and from the fact that some departments of the work have been almost continually changing hands, both as regards native helpers and missionary supervision. For a time Dr. and Mrs. Wachter were the only members of the Station.

This left Mrs. Wachter in sole charge of the girls' day-school, and Dr. Wachter of all the other Station work, including preaching, Bible class, medical work, the Suriwong day-school for boys, and until May the Mission treasury, in addition to his regular weekly trips to Bangkok to lecture in the Government Medical Training School, which during Dr. George B. McFarland's absence of several months in the United States occupied two full days of each week. Before the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, June 26, health conditions had compelled Mrs. Wachter to anticipate her furlough, so that for three months Dr. Wachter had been left quite alone. He sailed for home in August. His departure left no one in charge of our medical work save a young native assistant.

There being no one to take Mrs. Wachter's place in the girls' school, it reopened May 1 under Siamese management, with two Christian teachers, Maa Muan and Lahp. Thus far there has been no falling off in the average attendance, while the monthly shortage in revenues is their loss, not ours.

The other departments of work, viz., the Sabbath services and the Suriwong school (for boys only), were turned over July 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

In spite of adverse conditions the year has brought its share of encouraging results. Touring was of course impossible, but not every Station, even with a better equipped hospital and a medical missionary's undivided time, can report a larger work than our little dispensary with its 1,800 out-patients and ticals 1,560 of medical revenue.

But the work that now seems most prosperous is naturally that which has been given most attention, viz., the school work.

Forty-two girls and 96 boys, or 138 pupils in all, were enrolled in both schools during the year. The monthly rolls averaged just 20 girls and 40 boys; but the enrollment for last month (August) shows 23 girls and 55 boys, or 78 pupils in all, which is a decided gain since the beginning of the year.

Last month's tuition fees in the boys' school showed an increase of more than fifty per cent. The native helpers are all working faithfully, and putting their whole hearts into the work.

So with grateful recognition of divine help and blessing in the past year, we hope and pray and plan for larger and better things in the year to come.

NAKAWN SRI TAMARAT STATION.

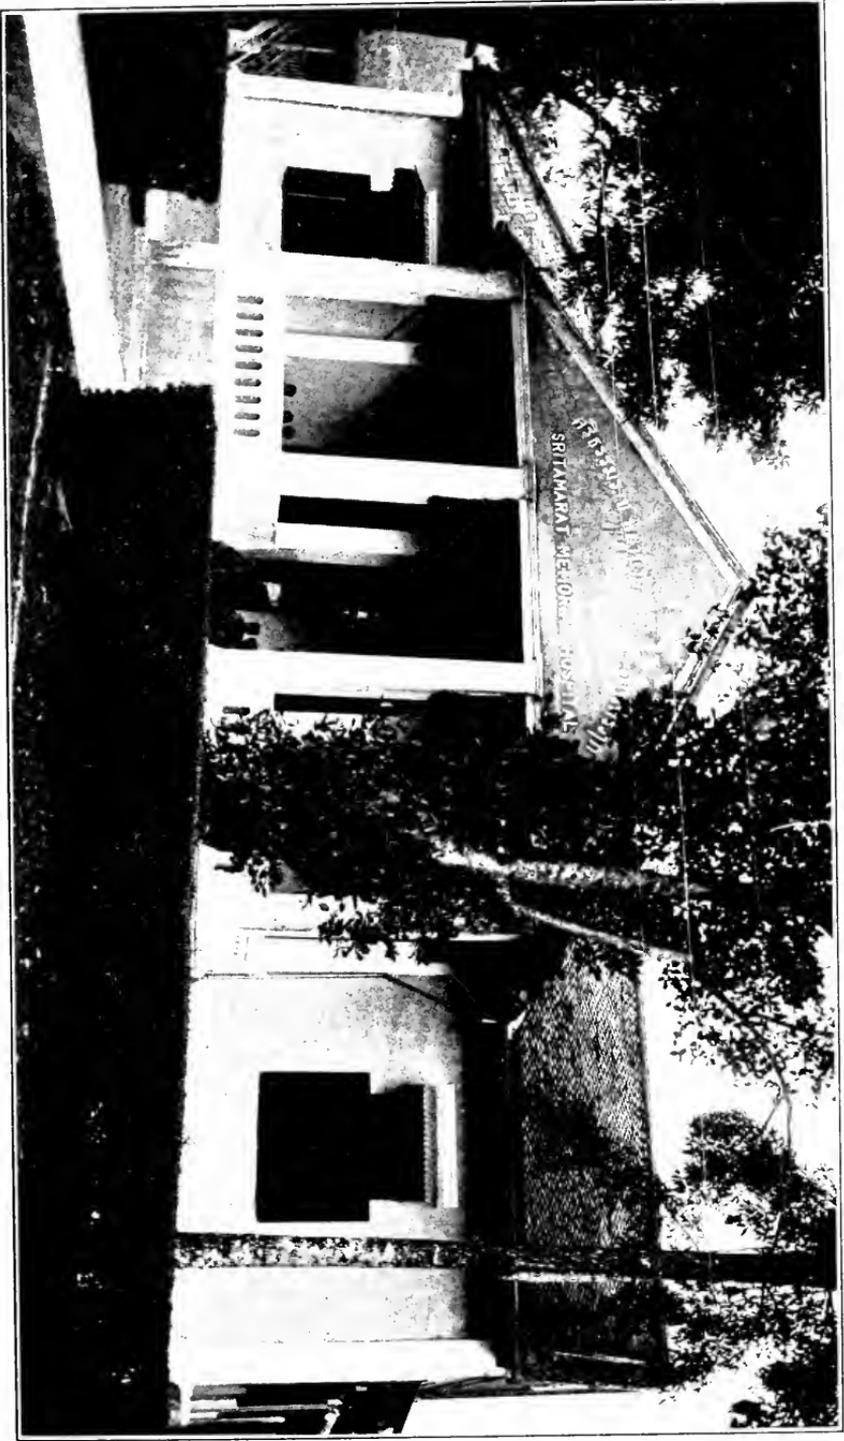

For the first time we are able to report three families at the Station during the entire year.

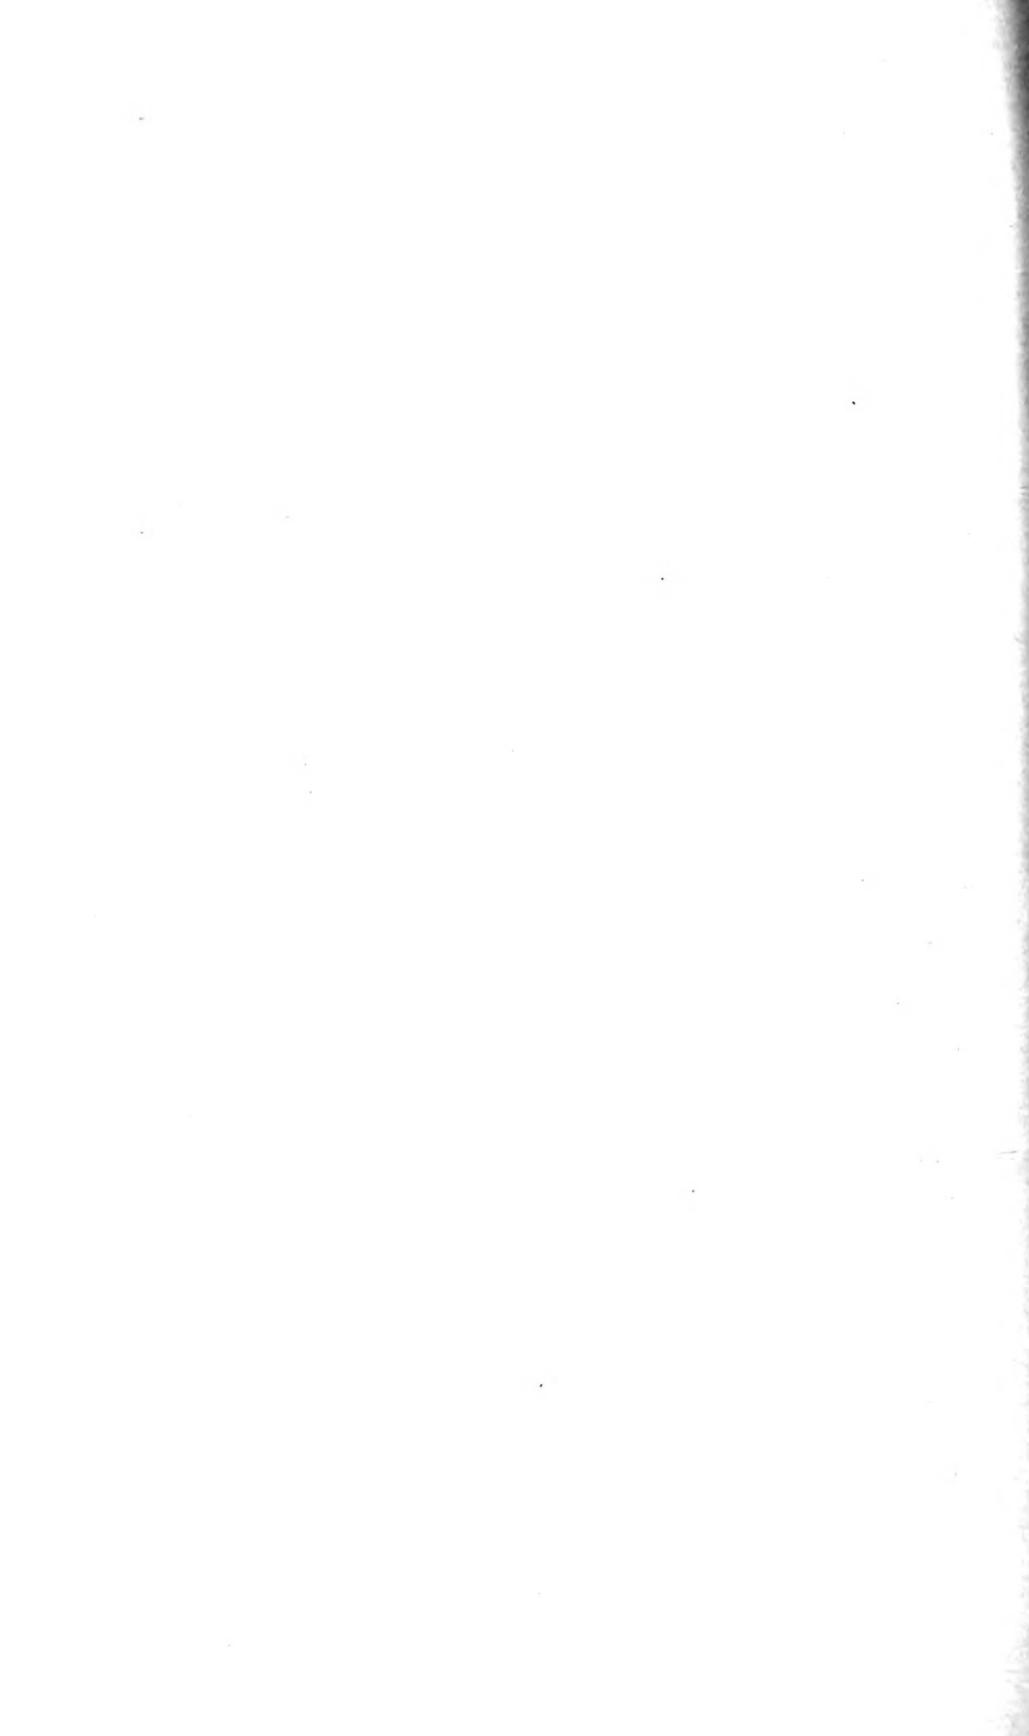

We had hoped to be able to report that there were three houses for the three families to occupy, but the Government is still keeping us waiting for a site for one building. Meanwhile loss in exchange will make our appropriation of $2,500 secure ticals 6,750, instead of ticals 7,500, as originally estimated. The two families whose lot it has been to occupy one house are thankful they have had protection from rain and sun; glad they have been enabled to live together in harmony and end the year as good friends as they began it. There have been advantages as well as disadvantages in the situation.

EVANGELISTIC.—Regular services have been continued. The Sunday-school has been under the direction of Elder Chang.

The second service, taken over by the medical work at the opening of the new hospital, is conducted by Dr. Swart and his first and second assistants, with occasional help from the ordained missionaries.

SRI TAMARAT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, NAKAWN, SIAM.

Touring has included two trips to the Ta Nak region, two trips to the Island of Samooie, and one of about two weeks by Mr. Post to the Pak Penung region. On these trips seven communion services were held at five places. A man and his wife were baptized at a point "beyond the mountains," and at another place a young girl baptized in infancy was admitted to full membership. A woman at Pak Penung was baptized at her home by Mr. Post. She had been a former in-patient at the hospital.

At the home church eight persons, all patients or helpers in the hospital, have been baptized. These, with two reported by Dr. Dunlap from the west side, three from the Island of Samooie, baptized two years ago but only enrolled this year, and the student baptized at last year's conference and enrolled with us, bring the additions to our roll for the year up to eighteen. Our losses from death and suspension have amounted to twelve. We now report a roll of 164 communicants.

Of this number only fifty-two live in or within less than ten miles of the city. Three more live from fifteen to twenty miles away. One each resides in Bangkok, Singora and Pata-loong.

In the Soo Chone District (Ta Mak), thirty miles distant, are the homes of twenty-one; while sixteen live on Island of Samooie and a neighboring island. Thirty-one are from "beyond the mountains," where they are scattered all along the valley of the river Looang, with five different centres, the nearest of them three days' journey afoot from us. The remaining thirty-eight are over in the Puket circle of provinces, on the Bay of Bengal side, and we have never had the privilege of meeting even one of them. They are the fruits of the labors of Dr. E. P. Dunlap and others who have toured in that region.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Station prepared to reopen the Boys' School soon after return from annual meeting.

The little cottage, which had already served in turn as a residence, quarters for school-boys, guests and servants, then as a hospital and dispensary for four years, was again changed to suit the demands for a schoolroom. It now accommodates with crowding about thirty pupils and supplies a small classroom and a room occupied by the assistant teacher.

Mr. Post was appointed to the work. He reports for the nine months the school has been in session an enrollment of 28. Present enrollment, 19. Average attendance, 15.89. Receipts, ticals 301, atts. 5. Expenses, ticals 269, atts. 49.

Valuable assistance has been given by the Inspector of Schools for these provinces, the Buddhist Bishop of the diocese, and Elder Chaang Kroo Fong, a teacher furnished by the Government school, has rendered faithful service from the beginning; and Nai Taam, who came asking to study English half the time, helped for six weeks.

MEDICAL.—This is the first time the medical work reports for an entire year in its new quarters.

The figures for the year are as follows: Dispensed 10,432 prescriptions and portions of medicine; treated 7,965 dispensary or out-patients; vaccinated 1,855 persons. The in-patients have numbered 171. There were 205 visits made to the homes of 91 patients. Major operations in the hospital have been 77, while 7 more were done in the homes. About 100 minor operations have been performed in the dispensary.

The falling off in the number of vaccinations has been due in part to the fact that for the greater part of the year the hospital has not been supplied with free vaccine lymph, and for the past four months has been obliged to charge a small fee to cover the cost.

The receipts for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1908, were totals 9,376, all of which was expended in the work.

With the constantly increasing number seeking free treatment and board, the question of the finances is becoming more serious. It is difficult to maintain the large corps of assistants and servants necessary for care of patients and buildings and still continue self-supporting.

In August the hospital was visited by His Royal Highness Prince Benya, a son of His Majesty, and by His Excellency Phya Sri Sabadeb, Vice-Minister of the Interior. Both expressed satisfaction at what they saw of the work.

The religious side of the work has been encouraging. Chapel services are held every morning except Sunday, when nearly all patients able to leave the wards attend the Sabbath morning service and Sabbath-school. Others, unable to cross the road to the chapel, are present at the afternoon service in the hospital chapel.

Nine persons, including the fourth assistant, have during the year publicly confessed Christ and been baptized from among those coming under the influence of this branch of the work.

PITSANULOKE STATION.

Pitsanuloke Station has been engaged in work that has made progress, but it has also had some anxious periods.

The first of these was the illness of Dr. Shellman, which kept him out of the work about two months; but all were made happy by his recovery, and since that time he has been as strong as ever. The second anxious period was when little Margaret Jones became seriously ill.

The assistance of Dr. McDaniel and Dr. Walker in these trying experiences was greatly appreciated.

MEDICAL WORK.—There has been at least one sign of progress in that the foreign doctor has been called in several cases before the native doctor had exhausted his alleged skill and rendered a cure more difficult.

Usually the most discouraging feature about the medical work is the way the doctor must wait till the Siamese doctor has done all he can. A few days ago a woman was brought in with a tumor on the neck, where an operation would be dangerous on account of the proximity to large blood-vessels. When her relatives were asked why they waited so long before coming for an operation they replied: "We have tried every Siamese doctor in Pitsanuloke, thinking that perhaps one of them could cure her." In spite of the second place that we are called on to fill we have been able to send many away happy, healed as we believe by a greater Physician than man.

Daily prayers have been conducted in the hospital throughout the year, and many have heard the Gospel story for the first time, and some for many times.

Our fourteen hospital beds have been filled nearly every day, and many times we have had patients in the servants' quarters and many in their own house-boats. The cramped condition of the hospital wards has been relieved by the completion of a new ward holding six beds. Further improvement that has been started is an extension of still another ward that will accommodate four beds, dressing room and an operating room. Both the latter will add greatly to the convenience in treating patients, as formerly our dressings and operations have had to be done in a small dark room, not at all suitable for the work.

Statistics for the year are as follows: In-patients, 94; out-patients, 302, major operations, 28; visits to homes of sick, 201; total receipts, ticals 6,036.85.

Dr. Bulkley gave welcome aid for two months. The greater part of this time he took charge of the medical work, allowing Dr. Shellman to oversee the new addition to the hospital and to take a trip up the river.

Two tours were made in which medicines were sold. For nearly seven months there was no competent assistant at the hospital, making the work unusually hard on the doctor. But he has two in training that we hope will soon relieve that difficulty.

BOYS' SCHOOL.—School work has progressed more favorably than we had expected, especially as there is a good Government school in Pitsanuloke. Our advantage is in teaching English, and in being able to get students from families near our compound.

Forty-three students were enrolled, besides ten night students. There is no regular boarding department, as the few boarders in attendance can be provided for in other ways. The average attendance has not been above thirty, since the population here is continually shifting.

Kroo Soon See has given another year's valuable assistance to the school, and in acting as personal teacher to Dr. and Mrs. Shellman. He recently described himself in a conference of Christians as being the weakest of all who are in the Christian fold. We wish there were more such humble Christians as he in this region.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Regular preaching and Sunday school has been conducted in the compound chapel and also the Wednesday night services.

The average attendance on Sunday has been 60, and the Wednesday evening service has had a varied attendance of from 25 to 100. This variation is explained by the presence of soldiers from the barracks at some of the services. The Wednesday meetings have had a very large attendance since we secured a stereopticon for use at times.

Three adults have been baptized here during the year and two children.

Several tours have been made, one to Utradit and way points by Mr. and Mrs. Jones, having Kroo Soon See along to sell medicines and books.

Services were held and tracts and Scriptures to the amount of 560 portions sold or distributed. Medicines were sold and a few in-patients found for the hospital. We think some good was done, as the Gospel news was made known to many hundreds of people.

The second tour was made to Suco Tai by the hospital assistant and the head teacher of the school. This trip was undertaken with some misgiving, but we believe good was done as they sold some medicines and over 400 Scriptures and tracts. Other short trips were taken by train down as far as Pechit and way stations where many tracts and some medicines were sold.

The missionaries hope to do more extended touring the coming year, and hope also that they may before many years have a launch, for much more touring can then be done and important distant points can be reached once or more every year.

A distance of 400 miles on three rivers, all within the bounds of our Station, in addition to several canals, can be traversed by a shallow draft launch. Along these water-courses about 540,000 people live. This is eminently a touring field, but with our present force there is enough work in and around Pitsanuloke to keep us busy. Another family and a steam launch would make our force something like what we would consider sufficient to do reasonably efficient work for this field.

The railway will be of some assistance of course, but it follows only one branch of the river, and if we are to do extensive work at all seasons we must have better arrangements, such as a launch would provide.

The river has overflowed badly this year, and the compound has been flooded as deep as four feet in many places, doing injury to the hospital buildings, school building and to the shade trees. The Station hopes to guard against such an overflow in the future, but it will be quite a task, as the water seems to have entered our place from several directions this year.

We have not been able to obtain a suitable place in the market for a chapel and dispensary, but hope to succeed a little later, as all the officials approached on the subject appear to be favorable to our securing such property; the apparent difficulty is the uncertainty as to the amount of land the Railway Department will require.

THE LAOS MISSION.

CHIENG MAI: on the Me Ping River, about a month and a half by Laos boat, or 500 miles north-northwest of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station 1867. Missionaries—Rev. Daniel McGilvary, D.D., and Mrs. McGilvary, Rev. D. G. Collins and Mrs. Collins, J. W. McKean, M.D., and Mrs. McKean, Rev. Howard Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, Rev. J. H. Freeman and Mrs. Freeman, Rev. William Harris, Jr., and Mrs. Harris, Rev. M. B. Palmer and Mrs. Palmer, C. W. Mason, M.D., and Mrs. Mason, Miss E. M. Buck and Miss Mabel Gilson.

LAKAWN: on the Me Wang River, 320 miles northwest of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station 1893. Missionaries—Rev. Jonathan Wilson, D.D., Rev. Hugh Taylor, D.D., and Mrs. Taylor, C. C. Hansen, M.D., and Mrs. Hansen, Rev. Roderick Gillies and Mrs. Gillies, Miss Elizabeth Carothers, and Miss E. Van Vranken.

PRE: on the Me Yom River, 280 miles north of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station 1893. Missionaries—Rev. C. R. Callender and Mrs. Callender, Dr. E. C. Cort.

NAN: on the Me Nan River, 380 miles a little east of north of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station 1894. Missionaries—Rev. S. C. Peoples, M.D., and Mrs. Peoples, Rev. David Park and Mrs. Park, Rev. Arthur Barrett and Mrs. Barrett.

CHIENG RAI: on the Me Kok River, 460 miles a little west of north of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station 1897. Missionaries—Rev. W. A. Briggs, M.D., and Mrs. Briggs, Rev. Howell S. Vincent and Mrs. Vincent, Rev. Henry N. White and Mrs. White, C. H. Crooks, M.D., and Mrs. Crooks, Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Dodd, Rev. L. J. Beebe

RESIGNATIONS: Mr. and Mrs. Park

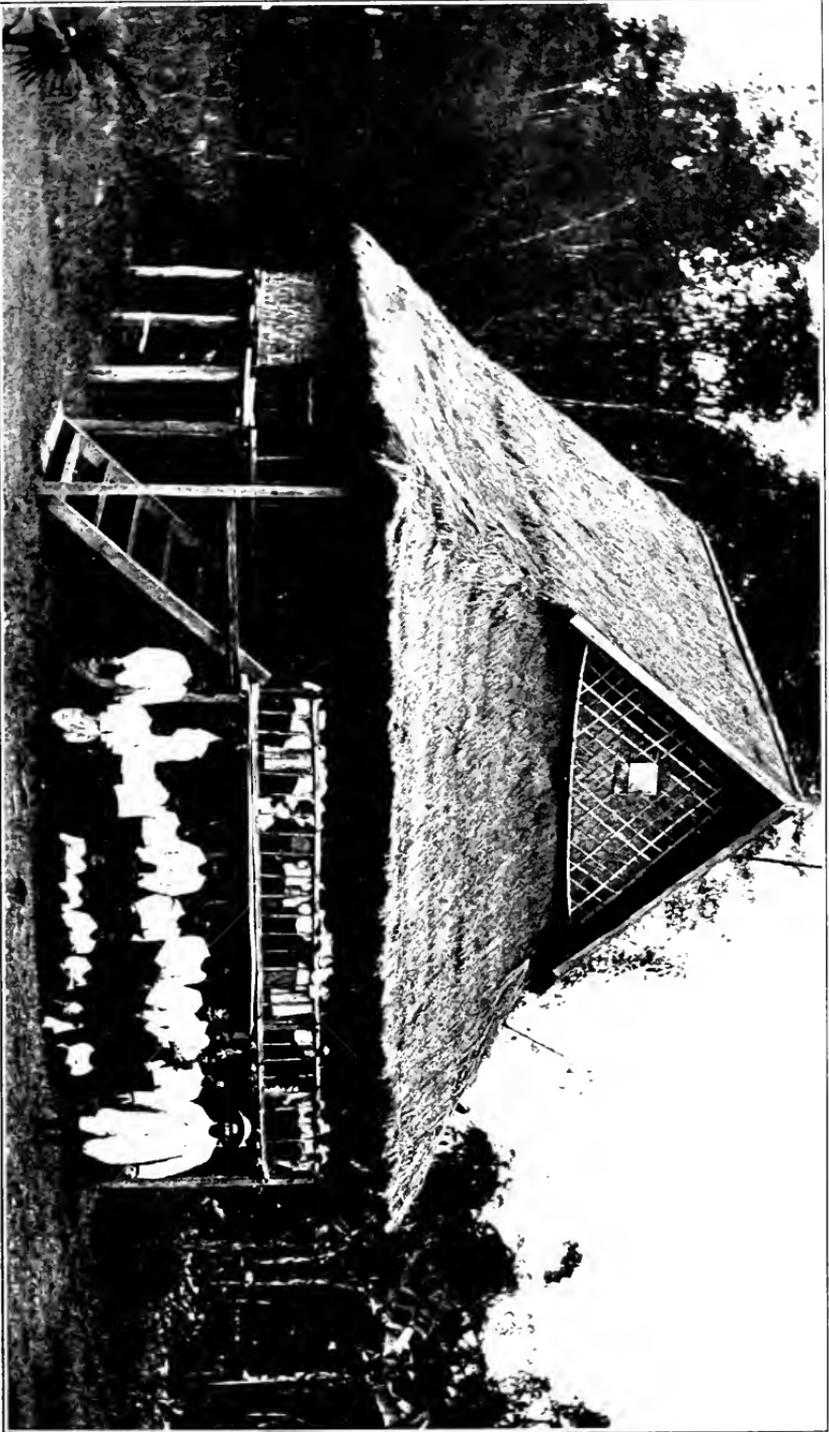

TRANSFERS: Mr. Callender, Dr. and Mrs. Crooks, from Chieng Rai to Lakawn; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent, from Chieng Rai to Lakawn; Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, from Lakawn to Nan.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Mr. and Mrs. Callender, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, Dr. and Mrs. Hansen, Miss Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

CHIENG MAI STATION.

Great anxiety was felt when Mrs. McGilvary, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. McKean and Mrs. Freeman were all seriously ill at one time. The first has greatly improved in health in spite of her advanced age, but the others have been compelled to return to America. There is good hope that all three of these devoted missionaries will be restored to health in due time, though full recovery in one or two cases may be slow.

The Station feels encouraged by the signs of the Spirit working in the hearts of the Laos Christians. There is gradual advance in all departments of the work. It is not rapid, but it is steady and healthy.

During the first six months of the year the Station had the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, of Chieng Rai. Mr. White made a six weeks' tour to Pre and several short trips in the Chieng Mai districts.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Station continues the custom of dividing the entire field among the members of the Station, each man being responsible for the oversight of the Christians living in a certain district. After Mr. Campbell and Mr. Freeman left on furlough a rearrangement was made, and in addition to the regular assignment the Chieng Mai City Church was given to Mr. Harris; all east of the river excepting Maa Dawg Church, including Lampoon substation, to Mr. Collins and Dr. McKean; all west of the river to Mr. Palmer and C. W. Mason, and all the city or any other place at his discretion to Dr. McGilvary. Dr. McGilvary writes:

My plans for more extensive village work by weekly visits in the country were first interrupted by the illness of my wife. It is less to be regretted as the city is always accessible, and has been relatively more neglected by most of the Mission than any other part of our field. For immediate results the country is more productive, but for wide and ultimate influence work among the upper classes and the priests, soon to become the educated business men in the country and government, is no less important

Mr. Collins, although busy every day in the week with the multitudinous duties of the Mission Press, has given much time to his two country churches and one country district, spending all told twenty-seven Sundays in these three places.

Mr. Campbell reports that in caring for the numerous out-stations of Chieng Mai Church he made eight tours, varying in length from three to eight days each.

On five of these tours Mr. Palmer accompanied me and gave very effective assistance with the organ, singing and in other ways. Frequent visits to the out-stations of this church have also been made by Kroo Pook, Ai Pan and Elder Nan Chack. Kroo Pannya has also made a few visits to the out-stations. I have made Chieng Dao Church two visits of a week each and it has also been visited by the helpers. One tour of ten days was made to the district of Muang Pao Church.

Mr. Freeman, before leaving for home on furlough, spent much of his time touring among his people in the Bethel and Wang Moon churches.

Mr. Palmer, in company with Mr. Campbell, visited five of the country districts, and since Mr. Campbell's departure has visited each district west of the river at least once and some several times. Altogether he has spent fifty-six days touring.

Miss Gilson made an eighteen-day tour. She brought back with her twenty scholars for the schools—fourteen for the Girls' School, five for the College and one for the Phraner Memorial School.

THE CHURCHES.—Chieng Mai First Church.—The care of this the mother church with its seventeen country districts, covering a territory from ten to twenty-five miles east and west and about 100 miles north and south, was practically borne by Mr. Campbell, though other members of the Station assisted, especially in the oversight of the country districts. Since his departure this oversight has fallen to Mr. Harris.

Mr. Campbell writes:

Kroo Pannya and Elders Kawt and Nan Chai have given valuable and effective assistance in the work in and near the city; Kroo Pook, Ai Pan and Elder Nan Chack in the out-stations. I have devoted much time to the supervision of these workers, holding frequent conferences with them. I have also done much house-to-house visitation. About half of the preaching at the city has been done by the native brethren and the remainder by the missionaries of the Station. The excellent work done by the college and the girls' school and the music furnished by the students for the church services has done much to advance the work of the First Church. The vaccinators and the general medical and hospital work are also a strong agency for the spread of the Gospel and its permanency in this church as well as elsewhere.

The marked development in the character and Christian activity of several of the leading members of the church has been very encouraging. The work of the native brethren who have acted as my assistants deserves the highest commendation.

The accessions on confession of faith this year were 113, eighty-six infants were baptized. There was a net gain in membership of ninety-six members. The total membership is now 1,312.

The city Sunday-school has been efficiently superintended by Elder Nai Semo. Sunday-schools were also held in twelve of the country districts.

Maa Dawk Dang Church.—Mr. Harris, as for many years past, has been superintendent of this church, which is about twelve miles northeast of the city. He reports:

I have made the usual number of visits, but daily attendance at the college ten months of the year has made longer stays impossible. Eleven have been added to this church, seven of whom were unbaptized persons; thirteen have been dismissed to other churches and two have been dropped; so that there is a net loss. Interest and attendance are good.

One event made a great impression upon the people.

A Buddhist, who was also a great spirit worshiper, married a Christian woman many years ago. Many efforts were made to lead him to Christ, and at one time he decided to be a Christian, but before taking a decided stand he again lapsed into spirit worship. He was suddenly stricken with acute Bright's disease; his body and face became terribly swollen; he spent all his money in spirit charms to no avail and his life was despaired of. Then he decided to forsake the spirits and live or die a Christian. The spirit charms were disposed of, the Christian elders were called in and offered prayer in his behalf. From that day the man began to improve rapidly and was soon restored to health. One can of course find a natural explanation of this sudden recovery; but may we not see in it also, as our native brethren do, the hand of God?

Bethlehem Church.—This has been the charge of Mr. Collins for several years, and is about twelve miles south of the city. He has made regular monthly visits except when prevented by floods.

The spiritual condition of the church is good and the membership is faithful. Fifteen were admitted during the year, fourteen of them unbaptized persons. Five infants were baptized. Considerable work has been done in Ban Ta, a village about three miles north of the chapel, and most of the accessions have been from that village. Several more are studying and we hope that they will soon take a stand.

San Sai Church.—This also is under the care of Mr. Collins, and is about six miles northeast of the city. His monthly visits to this church have also been interrupted by floods, the roads being at times absolutely impassable.

Attendance at the services is good. Five were added on confession during the year. The San Sai Christians have the framework of their new chapel up and are hoping to complete the building during the next dry season. Building chapels in Laos requires both time and patience.

Maa Poo Kah Church.—This church is situated about twelve miles east of the city and is under the care of Dr. McKean.

The year has been discouraging in that no accessions were made. Many of the strongest Christians have moved away and the year has been marked by many deaths. But with an unusual rice crop for that region, we look for spiritual blessings as well.

Muang Pao Church.—This church consists of several scattered villages about sixty miles north of the city and is one of Mr. Campbell's charges. He reports:

I have endeavored to maintain as close an oversight as possible through visits by Kroo Pook, Ai Pan and Elder Nan Chack, and by frequent conferences with the elders when in Chieng Mai on business and by frequent letters. Kroo Chai Ma, the native minister, although advanced in years, has done a large amount of effective work. The new teak chapel has been completed and dedicated and sixteen have united with the church on confession of faith in Christ. Forty children have been in attendance at the Mission and parochial schools. Of these twenty were local pupils who took an active part in the dedication of the new chapel and were reviewed in their studies in the presence of 1,250 spectators.

Chieng Dao Church, also under the care of Mr. Campbell, is about fifty miles north of the city. Only two have united with this church, but the Christians have subscribed for the erection of a new house of worship and are much encouraged.

Lampoon Church, Bethel Church, Wang Moon Church.—All three of the churches which constitute Lampoon sub-station are under the care of Mr. Freeman, who reports:

The year has been fairly prosperous. Thirty-one have been received on confession in the three churches. In addition some who had been indifferent have returned and twenty infants have been baptized. The revision of the rolls dropped some who had long shown themselves indifferent. We have dismissed more by letter than we received. The churches are all contributing to keep evangelists at work in our absence, and we look to see the work fairly maintained, even though no missionary can give it close supervision. Elder Pan is a conscientious worker.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Prince Royal's College.—Mr. Harris reports that the college has held three sessions this year, aggregating ten months.

The Spring attendance was 122 as against 105 last year; the Autumn attendance 95 as against 102 last year. There was a large increase in attendance from the city during the Autumn, but this was more than offset by the small attendance of country boys on account of floods and late rice planting. The disposition of parents to take boys out to work is one of the serious problems we have to face. We are trying to get the parents to surrender their children to our schools as the boys are surrendered to the Laos temples, allowing no outside influence to detract from their regular attendance until they finally complete their course.

Receipts were rupees 2,180 as against rupees 1,226 the previous year, a gain of 77 per cent. But the college is constantly embarrassed for lack of funds. The following estimate shows approximately how matters stand:

Board appropriation.....	Rs.	1,429
Receipts on field.....		2,180
To balance.....		591
	Rs.	4,200
Salaries native teachers.....	Rs.	1,800
Food for average forty boys.....		1,200
Wages coolie and cook.....		300
Incidentals.....		300
Books and supplies.....		400
	Rs.	4,200

From this it will be seen that on the present basis the college is seriously embarrassed. But this is not all: the present wage paid our teachers is so low that few if any of them look upon this as a permanent employment. We need now a higher class of teachers, not mere boys but trained men, and to have them we must pay a fair wage. This will mean an expenditure of 2,000 rupees. Part of this will doubtless be met by the increasing attendance of wealthy boys from the city, but the balance must be met by an increased appropriation or, better still, by a permanent endowment. Again there is the problem of the poor country boys. We should be able to take in all that come, for they are the hope of the country churches. But as things are now, we can take only a few. To take in any considerable number would bankrupt the college.

The year's work has been satisfactory. The course of study has been again enlarged. All the teachers received normal instruction throughout the year. During the Summer the native teachers from Lakawn, the Mission and parochial schools in Chieng Mai were invited to convene for four weeks' instruction at the college. Forty responded. In this work Miss Gilson and Miss Carothers ably assisted. We hope hereafter to extend the scope of this work, extending the invitation to native teachers in all our Stations.

Religious interest in the college has been good. The majority of the boys are young, but some of the older ones give promise of large Christian influence. The Y. M. C. A. is now entirely in the hands of the students. The weekly meetings are well attended, and at their own suggestion a weekly collection is taken up, half of which they have pledged to evangelistic work. As usual the great majority of our scholars come from Christian homes, and almost invariably unite with the Church on arriving at the proper age.

Chieng Mai Girls' School.—Miss Gilson reports that sickness among pupils and teachers shortened both the first and second terms and diminished the attendance. One hundred and twelve were enrolled, of whom sixty-six were boarders. Tuition fees were Rs. 612.62. Floods, poor rice crops, difficulty of securing competent teachers for the wages we can pay, and keeping girls at home on slight pretexts affect this school as well as the college. In spite of these difficulties, however, good work is being done and progress made.

Day-schools.—Six primary day-schools have been in session with an enrollment of about 230. The most important is The Phraner Memorial Primary School, which has had an enrollment of 105, the largest in the history of the school. Mrs. Campbell was in charge the first term and Mrs. Palmer the second. This school is doing an important work. Two native teachers do faithful work. The school is self-supporting.

A day-school was held at Maa Dawk Dang with forty-three pupils. Rs. 61 were raised for its support.

A day-school was held for three months at both Bethlehem and San Sai, the Christians employing their teachers and assuming full support of the schools. Maa Poo Kah and Muang Pao also have self-supporting day-schools with twenty-three and twenty pupils respectively.

Lampoon City has a good day-school and several smaller schools have been maintained in the outlying villages. All self-supporting.

The Training School for evangelistic workers was convened as usual for a two weeks' session. Mr. Harris reports:

This year the class met at the Prince Royal's College. Forty men were in attendance. The opening services each morning were attended by the college students and were conducted by the leading men of the church, who made some splendid addresses. The instructors were Messrs. McGilvary, Collins and McKean. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer gave instruction in music and the Sunday-school lessons.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. McKean reports that growth of this work has been steady and that he and Dr. Mason are kept busy.

For many years the missionary physician was the only person who practised Western medicine and surgery in all this vast region. But for four or five years past there has been in Chieng Mai a Government European medical officer and three Siamese medical graduates. Still there is a great abundance of work for all.

For more than twenty years the medical work of Chieng Mai has not only drawn no funds from the Board, but in addition to paying all expenses has contributed many thousands of rupees toward the purchase of land and the erection of buildings for missionary use. The receipts for the last fiscal year were Rs. 24,923.58, including Lampoon Dispensary receipts of Rs. 1,450.

The Dispensary Clinic is not very large in numbers, if we eliminate the considerable number of persons who come to buy medicines for use at home.

The knowledge of common household remedies is becoming more widespread year by year.

The dispensary issued its fourth annual calendar in April. As in former editions, it contains four pages of religious matter. The people appreciate the calendar and many ask for the issues of previous years, to have them bound together for reference.

The medical work of Lamphoon substation has been under the care of Mr. Freeman. Dr. Mason has made fortnightly visits most of the year, both for the care of the missionaries and those who come for treatment at these stated intervals. This is a valuable adjunct to the work of Lamphoon substation. Receipts were Rs. 1,450 last year.

The Hospital.—The total number of in-patients this year was 155, but members of the family or other friends almost always accompany the patient to the hospital and remain through his illness as his nurse, and the number of persons who remain in the hospital for a varying period throughout the year is at least two or three times the number of recorded patients. All come under Christian instruction and many of the relatives and friends also receive medical attention. Dr. Kao, the head nurse, continues his unwearying services, and Dr. Chanta, who for twenty years has been chief assistant, is still a power for good.

The foreign ward was occupied during four months of the year.

The hospital chapel is conveniently located in the centre of the main building. The daily evening services are fairly well attended by the patients, as well as by the hospital servants and their families. The stereopticon with Bible pictures is often used. Evangelistic work in the wards is carried on in a systematic manner. A short morning prayer service for the physicians and the attendants is immediately followed by religious visits to the wards, a certain person being assigned that duty for a certain day.

The Christian Endeavor Society has met weekly throughout the year. This is one of the best meetings of the week both in attendance and in general interest. Aside from their regular offering which has been taken for several years, all the members have this year agreed upon a monthly subscription for the support of an evangelist. Every member of every family has a share in this.

Vaccine Work.—The Vaccine Laboratory has furnished lymph for the Government vaccinators throughout all the northern provinces, besides our own trained vaccinators.

As in previous years, the vaccinators were called in for monthly instruction during the vaccinating season. Dr. McGilvary, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Palmer gave valuable assistance at these sessions. The men are instructed in the Scriptures and Christian duties and are urged to evangelistic effort in connection with their vaccinating work. In spite of the fact that the Government has introduced free vaccination, there are still many in remote districts who prefer to pay the Christian vaccinator the one rupee fee than take free Government vaccination. These men reach many distant places and some of them are faithful in presenting the Gospel.

Receipts were Rs. 1,906 and vaccinations 3,812.

Lepers Work.—Dr. McKean has faithfully continued his self-denying efforts for these pathetic outcasts. He writes:

The year has seen some progress in the work for the lepers. The hindrances to the inauguration of any work in this land are so numerous as to be very trying, and work among lepers is no exception. We record with gratitude the prompt exercise of authority by His Excellency the High Commissioner several times during the year to restrain those who were greatly hindering us and resenting the occupation of the land which the Government had given us.

There has been a considerable portion of the arable land cleared for rice cultivation, and had not our neighbors secretly cut away a dam by night and flooded us hopelessly, we should probably have had something of a rice crop. We hope to forestall this danger in the future.

There have been nine lepers under our care. These people seem happy in their new home. Those who are not already Christians are learning to read and pray. At their own request, a bamboo chapel was built in the midst of their circle of bamboo huts. The funds have been sufficient thus far.

MISSION PRESS.—Mr. Collins, Superintendent, reports a busy year. From eighteen to twenty-two men and boys have been employed. The great bulk of the Mission work is in the Laos language, while most of the work done for the Siamese Government is in Siamese. The number of pages printed shows an increase of over 600,000 pages over the preceding year.

The year's printing for the American Bible Society and the Mission was as follows: Exodus, 1,500 copies; First Samuel, 1,500 copies; Life of Christ, completed, 500 copies; Child's Catechism, fourth edition, 5 000 copies; Manual for New Christians, 500 copies.

In addition to this list, the Laos Christian newspaper and Sunday-school lessons combined have been issued every month. More than 7,000 copies of this publication have been distributed to every part of the land. The Laos News, printed in English and issued quarterly with almost 1,000 names on our subscription list, is mailed to every part of the United States and some fifty copies are sent to almost a dozen other foreign countries.

Number of pages printed for Bible Society and Mission, 1,045,400; number of pages printed for outside parties, 1,757,600; a total of 2,803,000 pages.

The following is a condensed list of books of all kinds sent out from the Press during the year.

Bibles.....	95	Last year....	116
Bible portions and Mission publications.....	24,677	“ “	32,918
All others.....	16,783	“ “	13,136
Total.....	41 555		46,170

The Press is not only self-supporting, but during the year several thousand rupees of surplus funds have gone to other departments of the Mission work.

LITERARY WORK.—Before Mrs. McGilvary's illness she had revised nearly one-half of the Gospel by Matthew. Dr. McGilvary's autobiography, urged upon him by the Board, has made fair progress, and Dr. McGilvary hopes to have it well toward completion by the end of another year.

Mr. Campbell has completed the translation of First Samuel and has prepared the Sunday-school lessons on Exodus.

Mr. Freeman also prepared Sunday-school lessons throughout the year.

Mrs. McKean until her illness continued to edit the monthly native newspaper and prepared a manual for the instruction of new believers.

BUILDING.—

A residence for Mr. and Mrs. Mason is nearing completion, and a dormitory accommodating twenty-four boys has been built at Prince Royal's College. This building is designed for the well-to-do boys and will materially augment receipts. During the year Rs. 1,340 have been subscribed to the building fund, which now shows an overdraft of Rs. 663, half of which has been pledged.

Work on the Phraner Memorial School building has been continued during the year and marked progress has been made.

CHIENG RAI STATION.

The year has been one of strenuous service, rich blessing, and marked growth in Chieng Rai Station, with its twenty-three out-stations. The missionaries are all thankful for work to do and strength to do it, for unbroken harmony and for the evidences of divine approval.

Chieng Rai gained largely in the closing of Keng-tung, largely in territory to be covered (which gain was not sought for, inasmuch as our field was already sufficiently extensive), and largely in the acquisition of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. Clifton Dodd, which gain is heartily welcomed.

Dr. Dodd was assigned to the Moderatorship of Papau Church, and also to the oversight of the work among the hill people until the return of Dr. Briggs, in addition to the Moderatorship of the Keng-tung Church and the oversight of Keng-tung substation.

As soon as he could do so, he made a tour of the Papau Church district lying at a distance from the city, viz., Muang Fang, Muang Nawng Kwang and Muang Papau. In the Muang Fang district there is apparently a good spirit among the Christians of one village, Ban Sop Mao which is wholly Christian. Sunday-school was reorganized here, and the people seem greatly heartened by the visit. During this tour and the visits in Me Kawn, eight who had been straying, some of them for years, were brought back.

The Papau Church as a whole has this year received seventeen members on confession of faith, fourteen by letter, has restored three and suspended one. Five adults and seventeen children were baptized. The total membership is now 274.

Dr. and Mrs. Briggs have been in America on furlough. Their work at home resulted in securing two new missionaries for Laos and funds for their support, together with $10,000 for a hospital plant at Chieng Rai, the last the generous gift of friends in the church at Overbrook, Pa.

Rev. Henry White, during the first half of the year, had charge of the Weing Papau Church. He visited Muang Pan and Weing Papau and Ban Me Kawn early in the year. At annual meeting Mr. White was detailed by the Mission to tour in Pre Province, Mrs. White remaining at the sanitarium near Chieng Mai while Mr. White was absent on this tour and in other work. In May, Mr. and Mrs. White left for America on furlough.

Mr. Vincent has had charge of the Chieng Rai City Church, also the Nang Leh and the Chieng Sen Churches. He has toured his widely scattered field and visited Keng-tung, in addition to house building. Mrs. Vincent has had charge of the Chieng Rai day-school. All of these labors have yielded good results, especially that of the day-school.

Chieng Rai during the year added to its day-school courses in English and Siamese; two qualified teachers being secured in addition to faithful Elder Ta and Boon Ta. Humanely speaking, it is principally through schools and trained Laos workers that we shall be able to evangelize Laos land. The enrollment in the Chieng Rai day-school has now reached fifty-two. Expenses have been 384 rupees, of which 100 were furnished by the Board. Phra Bhakdinarong, the Siamese Commissioner here, is not only encouraging this school work, but he sends his son and pays five times the regular tuition fee. He assures us that he wants to aid us financially and by his good offices to build up a boarding school in Chieng Rai.

Mr. Vincent made a tour to Muang Tung in March, and in October a tour by boat touching French territory and visiting Wieng Kok and Chieng Sen and Ta Kow Puach. This tour was most encouraging.

Into the Chieng Sen Church while on this tour fourteen were received upon confession of faith, and one elder who had been disciplined was restored to communion and office. We rejoice in the 66 per cent. increase in that little struggling church which has endured much persecution at the hands of the French Government.

During the year the Session received into the Chieng Rai City Church thirty members, an increase of almost 37 per cent., making in all at present 112 members.

The church has purchased a site for its permanent church building, and has fitted up a chapel and a school on its ground. The offerings for the year are 242 rupees. Mr. Vincent has had two vexing cases of discipline in the Chieng Rai Church, but they have worked out for good.

Mr. Vincent received into the Nang Leh Church thirty-two members, which is an increase of 30 per cent. upon the former membership, and making a total of 137 members. A fourth elder was ordained. Nang Leh Church has been organized less than three years. It has supported schools in three villages at different times during the year, and has contributed for all purposes during the year 137 rupees, or exactly 1 rupee per member.

Mr. Vincent reports in summing up his year's work that he has received into the three churches under his charge seventy-six members, fifty-five of these upon confession of faith.

Dr. and Mrs. Crooks, who came to this Station to take up Dr. Briggs' work during his furlough, have done efficient work in the dispensary and hospital and also extensive touring and evangelistic work. During the first half of the year they had charge of the work among the hill tribes.

In January, Mrs. Crooks toured ten days among the villages to the north of the city, in the Nang Leh district. In February she visited the Musu Christians. A three days' trip through a wilderness brought her to their camp where she was joyously welcomed. Classes were held daily. Services were held every evening with all the village in attendance.

In March, Dr. and Mrs. Crooks went out to the villages south of the city where they had opened up work the year before. In the village of the Ngow Tree lives the widow of one of the charter members in the Chieng Rai City Church. She and her daughter being the only Christians in the village and neither of them able to teach, they could only live before the natives, but this they did and mightily did it testify to the power of Christ. On Dr. and Mrs. Crooks' visit last year they found others who were interested, so behold their joy this year when they found several ready to confess Christ.

In the new adjustment of work after the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. Dodd, Dr. and Mrs. Crooks took charge of the work in the Me Kawn District, where there is a large Christian community. Dr. Crooks reorganized the Sunday-school and a great interest has been awakened. Over sixty gather each Sunday. Mrs. Crooks kept up her work the first part of the year as assistant editor of the native paper, and the latter part of the year the work of editing the paper fell to her.

MEDICAL.—The Chieng Rai medical department closes the year with a showing of marked advancement along all lines.

Fever was very prevalent at the beginning of the rainy season, and our work reached many homes and villages that had never before asked for foreign medicines and aid. The buildings, mere sheds, which we call a hospital have been much overtaxed and we have been forced to put patients in the homes of servants and on the dispensary veranda. The hospital patients have increased 25 per cent over last year and the out-patients and calls 10 per cent. The Government is using our medicines more than ever before. Our dispensary furnishes the entire supply of medicines to the Civil and Gendarmes Departments and considerable of the Military Department's annual supply. The dispensary chapel work has been kept up throughout the year. This has served as a training class for our assistants, as well as a teaching class for the patients and travelers who stop at our chapel-sala for rest or to listen to the teachings. The new hospital and dispensary buildings (for which Dr. Briggs has secured funds in America) are assuming material form in the way of saw-logs and bricks. Thus Dr. Briggs will be enabled to begin building operations immediately upon his return.

In February, Chieng Rai was favored by a visit from H. B. M. Consul Mr. H. T. Lyle, and the Station tenders its hearty thanks to Mr. Lyle for his generosity in allowing Dr. Dodd and family to occupy the consulate, rent free, until a Mission house could be prepared for their habitation.

Within the jurisdiction of Chieng Rai Station there are five churches with a total membership of 575 communicants. Of these 109 were added during the year, that is 23 per cent. gain.

KENG-TUNG SUBSTATION.

The year opened with Keng-tung still a regular Station of the Mission, having two resident families, and its work in a promising condition. The church roll contained forty-seven names, and was soon increased by two baptisms; and a dozen or more new converts were awaiting baptism. With the re-erection of the bazaar chapel after the fire, bazaar preaching was prosecuted with renewed vigor, and interest was visibly increasing.

But December saw the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Callender for America on account of the serious ill health of Mrs. Callender. This left but one family, Mr. and Mrs. Dodd. Meantime negotiations had long been in progress between the Board and the Baptist Missionary Union and between the missionaries of the two churches as to relative rights to the field. It being evident that agreement could not be reached, that the field was not large enough for both Boards, and that the Baptists greatly desired to remain, our Board voluntarily withdrew its one remaining family, transferring it to Chieng Rai, and making that part of the Keng-tung field which it was our duty to supervise an out-station work of Chieng Rai. The decision was very hard for Dr. and Mrs. Dodd, for they had toiled hard at Keng-tung; but they accepted the decision like good Christians and moved to Chieng Rai.

People of all ranks tried to invent some way by which the Station could be saved, and Christians and non-Christians wished the missionaries to allow a monster petition to be sent to America, signed by the Sawbwa, or Chief of the State, the members of the Keng-tung Court, officials of all ranks, and hundreds of other friends. But Dr. and Mrs. Dodd discouraged such a petition as useless, and accepted the situation.

A feature of the eleven days' journey was the regret everywhere expressed by the people living on the route that our Board was abandoning its Keng-tung Station. A number of non-Christian friends accompanied the party for the first half day's stage and then bade a tearful farewell. Usually the regret was not based so much on personal ties, but was rather felt on account of losing missionaries who understood and spoke their own language.

The removal of the missionaries took away from the infant Keng-tung Church twenty-five of its members, large and small. Most of these have since been received into churches in Chieng Rai Station proper. Of the twenty-three remaining members, ten live in the Yawng District, seven live in or near Keng-tung City, three in Chieng Hkang, two are down in Chieng Rai, and one, an Indiaman, is studying in the United States.

Regular Sunday services are reported in two places in the M. Yawng Circle, and one each in Keng-tung, M. Yu (where we have only inquirers), and in Chieng Hkang. So we may say that Keng-tung substation of Chieng Rai consists at present of five out-stations. The number of believers reported as awaiting baptism is about a dozen.

Since removal of the missionaries one tour has been taken covering a part of the field. Other tours will be made from time to time by Dr. Dodd and his native helpers.

NAN STATION.

When the year opened the missionary company comprised Dr. and Mrs. Peoples, Mr. and Mrs. David Park, and Mr.

and Mrs. A. P. Barrett. March 25 native boats took away Mr. and Mrs. Park on account of the prolonged illness of Mrs. Park. July 8 other boats carried away Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, and with a very great load of sorrow in Mrs. Barrett's sufferings. Both women are improving in health as this report goes to press, but with no present prospect of being able to return to Laos. We sorrow for these two fine young missionary families and for the work which loses them.

As soon as the sad tidings reached the other Stations, nearly every missionary in Lakawn and Chieng Mai volunteered to come to the relief of stricken Nan.

August 10, Dr. and Mrs. Taylor and their two young daughters, riding four elephants, came plodding through mud and water into Nan. By the end of the week the floods came down in good earnest, and thereafter for days we called upon one another in boats riding over fences. These friends left their important work at Lakawn in the hands of substitutes to come and fill the breach in Nan.

The various departments of work—church, evangelistic, school and medical—were carried on with all the energy that the circumstances permitted, but such conditions must cut in seriously upon a year's work and modify to a large extent the results that might otherwise be expected.

THE CHURCH.—The Church at Nan, in spite of frequent changes of leadership, has maintained a good degree of activity and spiritual life. It has raised forty-eight ticals to send an evangelist into outlying villages. Fourteen children and twenty adults have been received, making the adult membership 190, not including four who have died.

Two hundred and forty ticals have been contributed for church purposes, not including the sum mentioned above for evangelistic work. No report has yet been received from the colony in Chieng Kam under the care of assistant pastor Kam Ai.

The beautiful Hyde Park Memorial Chapel has afforded the congregation a delightful place of worship. The building and the site have passed out of that state in which they were adjudged by the Siamese Judge of the International Court to be a disgrace to the Christian community. When the weather is cold the doors may be closed, admitting abundant light for the conduct of service; and when it is hot they can be thrown open, giving as much comfort as though there were no walls. The congregation assembles with the sense of being an establishment.

ITINERATING.—Little itinerating could be done, as no one was available for this work but Mr. Barrett, who was enabled, however, before he left to visit all the Christian communities throughout the province, except Chieng Kam, and to consummate the work of the medical evangelist, Nan Punya, and Ai Pun, a medical assistant, in the establishment of a fine new Christian community at Soap Sai, twenty miles north of the city. Twenty-three persons were gathered into this little company, with a number of others whose faces are turned toward them. They are planning to build a house of worship after harvest.

Elder Nan Punya has repeatedly visited all the Christian colonies and has been the means of arousing interest in several new remote villages. Some only await the visit of a missionary to be confirmed in their purpose to enter upon a new life. Notable among these is a fine old P'ya (official) whose heart seems to have been ripe for the message the evangelist brought him, but who is being hard pressed by his relatives and prominent neighbors to turn him aside from his purpose.

During his journeyings back and forth, the elder one day turned aside to visit some Kamooohs, a hill tribe clustered into small villages scattered over the hills of the province. He found them very ready to listen to his story, and anxious to escape from the bondage of spirits, if only the elder could assure them of the victory. Very few of these people can read; but they can all understand something of the Laos language. They say that if they break off their allegiance with the spirits, they must do so as villages and not as individuals. The elder's plan is to put up a temporary tabernacle at one of these centres, and call as many of the Laos Christians as may be available to bring their rice and come for a week or ten days, to teach and give them a living example of what it is to be the free subjects of the Lord of spirits.

Dr. and Mrs. Peoples visited the little community at Muang Chung, ten miles up the river, several times during the year. They were stimulated to make an effort to secure a house of worship. Ninety ticals were raised by subscription from the members of the city church and a building was procured for the purpose.

SCHOOLS.—Mr. Park was actively pushing plans for school work, enlarging the Mission compound to ample proportions for school purposes, enlisting the interest of friends in America, and procuring practical industrial appliances to be established in connection with the school.

The Siamese Commissioner of the province was vitally interested, and he proposed that Mr. Park take over the higher departments of the Government schools of the city in connection with the Mission school, and he would provide a competent salary for himself and the necessary assistant teachers, and would secure him the means to erect suitable buildings for the beginnings of the enterprise. But within a few weeks Mrs. Park's illness compelled Mr. Park to leave, and P'ya Amoraridhi was succeeded by another ruler "who knew not Joseph," and the plan was not consummated.

Upon the departure of Mr. Park, Mr. Barrett took charge of the school. He quickly got hold of the boys. Admirable progress was being made and Mr. and Mrs. Barrett were beginning to realize that they had found their real place, when the calamity befell them that broke off their missionary careers and cast a gloom over the school.

Several of the pupils are the sons of officials and nobles. These joined the school for the sake of English, the study of which is very popular just now; but they soon discovered that there was a notable difference in their progress in other departments as well, from being under the care of men whose instincts for study and discipline had been a matter of inheritance for generations.

At the urgent request of their mothers, Mrs. Park undertook the care of a small class of girls from the families of the ruling classes. This class was the pride of the city. Though Mrs. Park was able to continue it but for a short time, the effort awakened enthusiasm in the community for the education of girls.

MEDICAL WORK.—Besides the medical work at the dispensary, the hospital and the care of the missionaries, Dr. Peoples has the care of the Army Post of 400 soldiers in the north city, the Gendsarmery, the prisoners of the city jail, and the civil officials of the Government. The medical interests of the post involve a visit about every alternate day, or as often as he can find time to make the journey of two miles. In compensation for this service the Government pays a small salary, and Dr. Peoples furnishes, at ordinary dispensing prices, the necessary medicines, except those that are supplied to the army by the Government.

Last season six men were trained in vaccinating, and also in the use of simple medical remedies. These men were employed by the Government for seven weeks and they, with the assistants at the dispensary, vaccinated 1,500 children. A larger force of men will be employed next year.

The hospital building contains three large wards, 20 by 21 feet, one of which has to be used as an operating room. The two wards were full, sometimes to overflowing, except for about six weeks during the heaviest rains. Some deaths frightened the people for a time, and the place got the reputation of having too many loose spirits knocking about. Now that the rains are over and the sun has come out, courage is reviving and the hospital is filling up again.

The work of the dispensary is growing from year to year. The new building has been occupied since May.

The evangelistic influence of this department is substantial. The four medical assistants are of the leading men in the church; two of them are elders and one a deacon. The major part of the time of one of these men, Nan Punya, is given to direct Christian work. His services are the special contribution of the medical department to evangelism. When out on tours he makes excellent use of his medical skill. At the present time he is at work, with his coat off, his loin cloth up tight, in the water up to the knees, directing the excavation of a small island in the river that deflects the current so as to endanger the compound of the church, and that of the International Court, as well as of several other properties. The gravel from this work he is having deposited at the foot of the landing, to be drawn up by a road scraper attached to a buffalo, to improve the roads about the Mission compounds.

The library of Laos Christian literature stands in a conspicuous place in the dispensary, and these books with magazines and illustrated papers are on the table for patients and visitors. A number of the good men in the church have been brought to Christ through the influence of the medical department.

LAKAWN STATION.

The Station writes of the pleasure of welcoming back in February "dear Father Wilson," who had been absent for several months on a health trip. The missionaries say that if the Lord will, they desire that his presence, his prayers and his fellowship may be with them to the end.

The year brought much sickness to the Mission as a whole and Lakawn Station experienced a full share of it. In February, Mrs. Taylor had to undergo a serious surgical operation. It was entirely successful, but her health has not yet fully recovered. Dr. Taylor too has been in poor health during most of the year. He has indeed struggled on, doing full work, but doing it often when he should have been in bed. In August, Dr. and Mrs. Taylor left for Nan, as noted in the report for that Station. In April, Miss Van Vranken was laid aside by illness, and when convalescence came in July she went to Chieng Mai for change and rest. Dr. Wilson was also in poor health for several months.

In October Dr. Hansen left on furlough. Mrs. Hansen was in America already, and her health is so impaired that she will probably not be able to return.

Thus the work has been very much broken, and the results of the year's labor appear much smaller than we could have wished to report.

CITY CHURCH AND OUT-STATIONS.—The city church was under the care of Dr. Taylor until he left, aided when need arose by Dr. Wilson and Mr. Gillies. Dr. Wilson has regularly taught his Bible class since his return. In the preaching services also and in other parts of the church work he has been enabled to assist. The regular services of the church have been maintained throughout the year. The Sunday-school in large part and the afternoon service wholly has been conducted by the natives. During part of the rainy season Mr. Gillies taught on Sunday afternoons a class of men in Old Testament history. The attendance on church services has on the whole been fairly good.

The Lakawn Church includes three out-stations—Muang Nyow, Chaa Home and Lampang Kang. The first of these was in charge of Dr. Taylor, the latter two under Mr. Gillies. All three have been visited both by missionaries and elders. Each has had a few additions to the membership. Chaa Home and Muang Nyow are ready to be organized into distinct churches, and as Presbytery has already given its sanction, the organization will soon be effected. Both are preparing material to build chapels.

In connection with Lakawn Church are also a number of scattered isolated Christian families, living in various districts remote from any Christian communities. All these have been visited and we are grateful to report they have nearly all, in the midst of many temptations and discouragements, maintained their Christian life.

Miss Carothers has been doing evangelistic work among both Christian and non-Christian women in the city and neighborhood. She reports that eighty-one women were enrolled in classes and taught in their own homes by three Bible women under her supervision.

Several of the women learning to read are non-Christian wives of Christian men. A number by the very fact of learning to read have been led to take an interest in the Gospel. Several applicants could not be received into the classes, because the Bible women had already as much work as they could do. During the coming year Miss Carothers hopes plans may be made for definite instruction of the Bible women and for enlargement of the scope of this form of evangelizing. The work has been hitherto supported by the Van Santvoord Hospital and Dispensary.

There is everywhere and always some opportunity for doing evangelistic work among the Laos people. Every member of the Station therefore has had some part in this work. However, the only member of the Station who was able to give any large amount of time to it was Mr. Gillies. The bulk of this work has been done by native evangelists.

From two to eight men have been busy with evangelistic work in various parts of the province. Most of these men have shown a true evangelistic spirit. One particularly—Elder Noi Wong of Muang Nyow—has been pre-eminent in his devotion. In hours of discouragement, the thought has often come to the touring missionary, were it only the faith, the prayers, the unflinching devotion and perseverance of Elder Noi Wong, Lakawn's day of salvation must surely come.

Mr. Gillies made two long tours of about three months each in the course of the year.

These tours included work among the out-village Christians, but a large part of the time was given to preaching the Gospel to the Buddhist community, in conjunction of course with native helpers who were at the same time under instruction of the missionary. In the midst of many ups and downs in this work of carrying the Gospel from village to village among the non-Christian people, the missionary was cheered by one fact in particular—never before had he been able to preach so clearly and fully the cross of Christ; never before had he heard so many expressions on the part of the hearers indicating an intelligent apprehension of this great central fact of the Gospel.

Before the opening of the touring season there was a spirit of prayer and expectancy.

One of the evangelists went to a district where he had formerly lived and where he had found his wife. He is a young man, converted in the Lakawn Hospital about four years ago. He now carried the Gospel to his wife's relatives and his former acquaintances in that district. Struck with the remarkable change in the man's own life, they gave heed to his message. Six families—the parents and all their children—accepted Christ, the father in each case being able to read and write. When the young evangelist arrived among them he had already exhausted his supply of books. So he took his own Bible, tore off the binding, and divided it among the various households. Returning to the city he gave a joyful account of this new work to the missionary; among other things he related that some of the converts had possessed magic books which had cost in some cases as high as 60 ticals ($23 gold); but these they cheerfully consented to destroy. One man had agreed with a neighbor to work a rice field. Having become a Christian, he informed the owner of the field that he was still prepared to carry out the bargain, but that he could not work on Sundays. The latter insisted that he should work on Sundays and rest on Buddhist sacred days. The new Christian promptly surrendered the field, but was soon able to secure another which he could work under Christian conditions.

This little body of new converts have been under the care and instruction of Nan Pan, the evangelist, since their conversion, and he sends most cheering accounts of their progress. We regard them as part of the fruit of many prayers, and we hope that the work here commenced is destined to grow to large proportions.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The boys' school was seriously interfered with by work of construction on the Kenneth MacKenzie Memorial building and the lack of anything like decent accommodation in the old schoolhouse.

The Spring term included both day-school and boarding departments, the number enrolled being fifty-eight. During this term, Miss Van Vranken had charge of the teaching. She got good hold of the boys and did excellent work. The Fall term consisted of a small day-school for Christian lads in and around the city. Twenty-three little boys were enrolled and an average attendance of seventeen was maintained. Four of the more advanced boys were sent to the Prince Royal's College, Chieng Mai.

In the girls' school, Miss Carothers reports an enrollment for the Spring term of eighty-five and for the Fall term of sixty-five.

For the first time in the history of the school, all books and slates have been sold to the pupils. It is a great improvement over the old system of loaning and giving away. Almost no books have been destroyed and the girls find it a pleasure to own their books and other school material.

Tuition was raised and the parents have responded fairly well. The receipts have been larger than ever before. Three weaving looms have been kept at work.

There is an increasing demand for instruction in English and Siamese. We have an excellent Siamese teacher. About half of the girls studied English.

Ten girls have confessed Christ during the year. One Christian parent wrote saying he was pleased above expression that his daughter had been taught much of the Bible and also taught to pray. A non-Christian father of rank begged to have his children taught the Child's Catechism in Siamese, because, he said, he "wished them to learn how to pray to our Saviour Jesus Christ."

Hitherto in Lakawn the boarding schools have been the only schools. Last March, however, committees were appointed by Presbytery to organize primary schools in the out-stations. The committee appointed at Chaa Home started a school this year. There was an attendance of about twenty. Several of the pupils came from non-Christian homes.

MEDICAL WORK.—The medical department continued in care of Dr. C. C. Hansen until his departure in October. He reports successful work in the Van Santvoord Hospital wards, clinics and outvisiting departments. He writes:

Every hour of the day and many hours of the night have been given to the work for which I was appointed. The hospital wards have been crowded with patients at nearly all times. Two hundred and twenty-one operations have been performed, and, roughly estimated, the number of patients seen reaches 10,000 during the year.

"The story of my medical and surgical service is written in the lives of those to whom I have been given the opportunity to bring healing and relief from suffering. The remembrance of grateful hearts and smiling faces will always remain with me. I thank the Board for this opportunity of service, my fellow-workers for their courtesy and encouragement, the friends at home for their generous support, and finally I thank God for the privilege of giving my life in this service."

Daily worship and Bible study have been carried on in the hospital by Miss Carothers. The dispensary and hospital assistants have done steady, faithful work in preaching the Gospel to the patients.

Statistics: Added on examination, 10; added on certificate, 1; deceased, 4; total membership, 295; adult baptisms, 10; infant baptisms, 23; catechumens, 31; Sunday-school membership, 210; contributions to Home Missions, Rs. 362; contributions, congregational, Rs. 189; contributions to education, boys' school, Rs. 56.50; girls' school, Rs. 292.59, a total to education of Rs. 349.09.

PRE STATION.

This Station has been virtually closed this year also, as depletion of the Mission force made it impossible for the Mission to assign resident missionaries to it. The work, however, has been continued as well as possible by native helpers, superintended by Lakawn Station, one of whose members has made occasional visits. We are glad to report that since the close of the year the Mission has been enabled to assign two missionaries to this field, the Rev. C. R. Callender, formerly of Chieng Mai Station, whose reappointment we are very happy to announce, and E. C. Cort, M.D., the newly appointed medical missionary who went out during the year. It will be a great satisfaction both to the Mission and to the Board to see Pre Station formally reopened.

The question of property still presents many serious difficulties, as the present compound is on the river bank, which is washed away by every flood.

MISSIONS IN SOUTH AMERICA.

BRAZIL.

The well-informed authority on affairs in Brazil, whose annual survey of the field has been quoted in previous reports, writes regarding the present conditions as follows:

As never before, the attention of the political and commercial world has been attracted to Brazil and other South American States. Brazil, by its size, its rich natural resources and easy approach, naturally receives the largest share. Latin Europe has sent us during the past year some of her cleverest politicians, scientists and financiers, some of whom have delivered courses of lectures on a great variety of subjects in the principal cities of the republic. The American millionaire has touched here with his yacht, Cook's excursions have invaded the country and the globe-trotter has included Brazil in his itinerary. Representatives of some of our great universities have visited us officially. The great industrial firms of Germany, France and Belgium have established agencies here and send their drummers through the country. Large sums of money have been and are being invested by English, French, German, Belgian and American capitalists in long lines of railways through an unpeopled country and in the not distant future we may expect to see the valley of the Amazon and the La Plata system connected by rail. It has been a year of feverish activity. Under a high protective tariff native manufactures have come into an unnatural existence, usually with foreign capital, oppressing the consumer and rendering life more expensive. The large exports of rubber and coffee give to Brazil an apparent balance of trade in her favor. The enormous external debt, however, makes a real balance against her.

In the middle Southern States and to some extent in the extreme North there is an increasing tide of emigration, most noticeable in S. Paulo; but in the middle coast States and those of the interior, like Goyaz and Matto Grosso, there is extreme poverty and a diminishing population, especially in Bahia, Sergipe and Ceara, where they have the prolonged droughts. So we may say that Brazil progresses, but as a whole does not prosper.

S. Paulo is the "banner" State and attracts more attention than any other. Its growth in wealth and population is greater than that of any other State of the republic. It possesses more manufacturing establishments than all the other States combined. The development of its agricultural and mineral resources is also in advance of all others.

The valorization scheme with the fixing the rate of exchange at 15*d.* depends chiefly upon S. Paulo; though Rio and Minas were included in the deal. The attempt to protect the coffee planter by buying and holding 8,000,000 bags of the surplus, while against all notions of sound finance and political economy, was really only a choice of evils. It saved temporarily the great coffee planting interest and will be carried out at whatever cost. The heavy loss, if there be one, which no one doubts, will fall upon the whole State, which is able to stand it. This is an outline of the economic status.

Politically, there is little progress toward a real republic. The country is still in the hands of political "bosses" and cliques, inherited from the Empire. The people are not consulted as to who shall represent them. There is usually only one candidate indicated by the bosses. No great man has yet arisen to give shape and character to a true democracy, where the people are consulted.

The most notable movement and the one that most profoundly affects society is the activity of the Roman Church. The larger parishes of this State have been made into bishoprics, and no less than nine new bishops have been sent to Rome for consecration. An archbishop has been made for S. Paulo—a learned Brazilian who made an excellent translation of the New Testament, but loaded it with notes. He is an excitable, intolerant, ultramontane Jesuit, whose despotic rule is something S. Paulo has never before seen, and which is sure to bring a second reaction.

The following reports of the two Missions cover the work that is under the direct supervision of the Board, but the relations of the Mackenzie College and the educational work in São Paulo, which are under separate Boards of Trustees, are so close to the work of the Missions and so bound still to the Board by the financial aid given by it, that some account of the College should be included. The President reports:

We are the only institution of Higher Education, Protestant or Roman Catholic, in all Brazil, wholly independent of government supervision or patronage, standing entirely upon the merits of our work and the character of the men and women who go out from us. We are outspoken as to the Protestant Christian principles that underlie all our work; at the same time we endeavor to give a scientific character to the course of study, accentuating the mathematical side and keeping pace, as far as our means will permit, with educational methods and processes in the United States. Our system is closely graded and the parts correlated so as to educate as well as instruct cultivating the whole individual, doing our best to produce in the finished product well-informed and disciplined, God-fearing, liberty-loving men and women. The fierce anger and bitter opposition of the ultramontane priesthood is rather flattering to us and does us no harm.

Now as to our work. The College has had a most prosperous year with a total enrollment of 154, but has been beset with difficulty to adjust the large number of students to the limited space we have, and to supply the missing units in our teaching force.

This year's enrollment in school and college was 797. From the college we graduated a class of seven in civil engineering, nine from the commercial course, and thirty-two from the gymnasial course, ten being young women from the American School. The first place was held by one of our Protestant girls.

In the day-school the total registration for the year was 505 pupils of the following nationalities: Brazilians, 305; Italians, 92; Germans, 26; Portuguese, 19; English, 18; French, 10; Syrians, 13; Americans, 8; other nationalities, 14. Of these 96 were free pupils, 49 paid at reduced prices, and 360 paid the full price, 365 were boys and 140 girls; 219 primary pupils, 68 intermediates, and 218 were in the grammar grades; 305 were of declared Catholic parents, 148 Protestants, and 52 of different faiths.

CENTRAL BRAZIL MISSION.

BAHIA: founded 1871. Missionaries in school work—Mr. B. G. Eells and Mrs. Eells and Miss Belle McPherson.

VILLA NOVA DA RAINHA, Estado da Bahia: founded 1900, 250 miles northwest of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. Pierce A. Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain.

ESTANCIA: founded 1902, 180 miles north of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. C. E. Bixler and Mrs. Bixler.

LENÇÓES, Estado da Bahia: founded 1906 at a farm called Ponte Nova, 230 miles west of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. W. A. Waddell, D.D., and Mrs. Waddell, Rev. William G. Johnson. Substation: São João do Paraguassú, Estado da Bahia—Miss E. R. Williamson.

PARISHES OF THE BRAZILIAN PRESBYTERY: Aracajú, vacant; Bahia, Rev. Mattathias Gomez dos Santos; Cannaveiras, Rev. Salomão Barbosa Ferraz; Cachoeira, Rev. José Ozias Gonçalves.

RESIGNED: Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Eells.

TRANSFERRED: Miss McPherson.

IN THIS COUNTRY DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Chamberlain, Mrs. McCall, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Waddell.

The Central Brazil Mission has suffered heavily from resignations in recent years. First, Mr. and Mrs. Finley were obliged to return on account of Mrs. Finley's health and the necessity of the education of their children; then Miss Cory was called home; then Mr. and Mrs. Eells were obliged to leave on account of the health of Mrs. Eells; Miss McPherson was transferred to the Southern Brazil Mission—the transfer to take effect on her return to Brazil from furlough, in May, 1909—and lastly Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain have had to leave the field on account of Mr. Chamberlain's health and the serious illness of the children. Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Waddell also have remained temporarily in the United States, while their husbands have gone back to the field alone. It is hoped that the new furlough arrangements which have been adopted will help to preserve the health of the missionaries in what is practically a tropical climate. The report states:

The many burdens laid upon the hearts and time of the missionaries cut seriously into their working power, and though the work of grace going on in the field at large shows no signs of diminution, but rather extends in area and intensifies in force, the harvest gathered has been limited by the sheer inability of the workers to reach all the points and to receive those waiting to profess their faith. At the same time lack of sufficient oversight has led to disorders and irregularities in some groups and opened the door to some cases of backsliding. The Mission needs at once three evangelists to replace the workers who leave the field. As these will all work from the first in the interior where health has ordinarily been good (the coast stations having become Brazilian parishes), it is felt that they will take no special risk.

In spite of the depletion of its force the Mission has been obliged to extend its stakes.

Insufficient rains have resulted in a general shortage of crops, with high prices, so that there has been much suffering. The relations between the Presbytery and the Mission of the Brazilian Church have been excellent. There has been no friction, but much mutual aid and support. The Brazilian ministers have cared actively and efficiently for the work in the parishes under their charge. The Church in Bahia has made improvements in its buildings during the year, putting in a good ceiling and electric lights, and has now an excellent audience room and is nearly free from debt. Canniveiras is the strongest congregation of the Presbytery, and is rapidly approaching self-support. In Cachoeira the church has been rebuilt and paid for, and the pledges of the congregation all met.

VILLA NOVA DA RAINHA.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Mr. Chamberlain has traveled during 203 days of the year a total distance of 3,915 miles. The number of days includes the delays of from one to ten days with the various outlying congregations.

He has baptized thirty children, performed three marriage ceremonies, celebrated the Lord's Supper with different groups on eleven occasions, and received by profession of faith twenty-four adults. Throughout the 109 days and 1,690 miles he reports varied experiences. He was repulsed in two places which had already been visited several times, but for the most part found a general awakening and seeking after the truth where work had already been done, and the usual distrust of our motives where our work is entirely unknown.

ESTANCIA.

This field has had a most prosperous year. It was the most difficult field in the Mission—a region whence all the young and active emigrated. The families, long settled in the same homes, were all intermarried, and the whole clan influence could be brought to bear on anyone who seemed to lean toward Christ's people. For years, with untiring patience, Mr. Bixler rode and visited, preached and conversed all through the district. By and by the "Living Epistle" became known and read of all men, and confidence took the place of hatred and distrust. Then the harvest began. This year thirty-nine have professed their faith—good solid citizens, people of worth.

The spiritual condition of the members, taken as a whole, is good, and the promise of future progress encouraging. Preaching services were held during the year at thirty different places. Some of these were visited once, some twice, some three times, and where the work was older as high as four times.

LENÇÓES.

This field had but four months' work during the year. Mr. Waddell spent December, 1907—January, 1908, in visiting some of the congregations and especially in a trip to a new district on the Rio de Contas, and Mr. McCall spent October—November, 1908, in a visit to part of the field. They received twenty-three members by confession of faith, and the Rev. José Ózias Gonçalves on two visits to São João do Paraguassú received six more. Mr. McCall writes:

A sad thing happened at Pão de Pilão, where we have three members. I delayed there several days to rest up the animals and found some interest. I preached four nights to small but interested audiences. On the last night we had some sixty-five present, and while the attention on the part of many was all that could be desired, one young man caused some disturbance by his remarks and general misdemeanor during the service. At the close of the service he remarked to one of the believers that I might be able to mesmerize and deceive the crowd, but he at least would not be taken in by me. He had not gone 400 yards from the house when he shouted for help, saying he had been bitten by a snake. Some ran to his aid, but he died in their hands a few minutes later. It must have been some heart affection, as there were no signs of a snake-bite to be found on the body. I tried to explain it from natural causes, and said I did not believe it was a punishment from God, but it is difficult to get these superstitious people to view it in any other light.

SÃO JOÃO DO PARAGUASSÚ.

Miss Williamson's work in São João do Paraguassú is most noteworthy. It may be considered, especially on the side of the work among women and children, as equivalent to the work that would be done by a resident Brazilian pastor. Her fine presence, excellent Portuguese and care as an expositor make her a most acceptable teacher of audiences, while her friendliness and courtesy have "taken the town." The foundations of this congregation are most solid. One of the boys, the son of a leading merchant, who was studying in Bahia, professed his faith there, and has gained his father's consent to study for the ministry.

Miss Williamson reports:

In September we opened a church missionary society, each member keeping a mite bag. Begun among the members and no invitation being given to anyone, to my astonishment by the second meeting five new members were received at their own request, among them the two principal merchants, each bringing his contributions. Within safe margins, the society has pledged itself to a small monthly contribution to Missoes Nacionaes and some other branch of the home work.

During the year one of the Church members, Sr. Americo, because of his absolute refusal to support himself and by his reckless conversation on the subject of religion, was so severely criticised by the people of the town that he left, saying that religion was proving injurious to his lungs, and that if a doctor should corroborate this view of the case he would immediately abandon religion. In a letter to me later he professed himself still a Christian, and has been heard of at Catulis as directing services.

Mr. Chamberlain visited the San Francisco field, going to that part of the field which contained groups of believers. Of these groups he found ten, all growing in grace and numbers, despite the fact that none had been visited for the past sixteen months and the greater part not for two years. Several members were received and many inquirers enrolled.

SCHOOLS.—Dr. Waddell reports:

Of all the old mission supported schools, only four remain this year. Of these one is the Mission's Central Normal School at Ponte Nova. Besides these we count a roll of nineteen schools, mostly small but entirely supported by the patrons. Our effort is to put a school of the primary grade within the means of every group of believers, and to put high school and normal training within reach of every "lad and lass o' pairts." This we are accomplishing. When it is realized that an expenditure of less than $1,400 on the part of the Mission called out an expenditure of $7,000 on the part of the patrons, it will be admitted that the new system produces results. Most of these schools are ephemeral, but each one trains a group of children and creates new aspirations in some neighborhood. Several new schools were founded during the year. None stopped.

The 23 schools report 29 teachers and 414 pupils.

PONTE NOVA.

During Dr. Waddell's absence, Mr. Johnson, though still working on the language, took charge. During Dr. Waddell's visit home the financial arrangements were made for the purchase of the Faxenda. The plantation is ten miles long, by about three-fourths of a mile in width, containing 4,600 acres of excellent land, 500 in fine pasture, the rest in woodland. A river with a low-water prism of fifty feet and three miles of current crosses the plantation which extends to the water-shed on both sides. One hundred acres of land is irrigable. There is a fine water-power. The house accommodates our present household of twenty-five to thirty. Fences, corrals, etc., are good. The plantation has limestone, timber, firewood, sand, and brick clay in abundance. The Brazilian Church will stock it with cattle. When stocked the monthly cost per pupil will not exceed three dollars. All needed buildings can be built with student labor.

Here it is proposed to conduct a general training school with industrial features, and to send out from it the helpers needed for the various departments of the work in the great itinerating of the Central Brazil Mission.

The Bahia School, after Mr. Eells' departure, was closed. The schools at Aracajú and Cachocira are parochial schools, aided by the Mission to strengthen old centres of Mission work from which missionaries have been withdrawn. Both have been great aids to the stability of the native church. That of Aracajú especially has been the sheet anchor of our work there.

The changes in the Mission staff during the year have made it impossible for the missionaries remaining on the field to furnish full statistics. The data as available are as follows:

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. J. M. Kyle and Mrs. Kyle, Rev. G. A. Landes and Mrs. Landes, Miss Mary P. Dascomb, Mrs. J. B. Kolb.

The ill health of Dr. Kyle has prevented his return to the field and necessitated his resignation from the work.

EAST RIO STATION.

Dr. Porter writes of his work in the Rio field, where he succeeded Dr. Kyle.

At Mission meeting there was read a letter from Rev. Henrique Louro, of São José de Ribereirão, which told us that on New Year's Day a man from the mountains to the east had visited him, to ask for a minister to preach in the district of Sanna. I answered the call and have continued to care for the fruitful and ever-widening work in "the Switzerland of Brazil," and have pushed on down to the sea at the beautiful Barra de São João's. Over the portal of the cemetery in that city, where the poet Casimiro de Abreu is buried, there is cut the stern legend: "We were what you are. You will be what we are." Redeeming the time, for the night cometh, we have wrought the year through.

As to the people, a few of them blacks, little better than the slaves they once were; many mulattoes, hewers of wood and drawers of water; but most of the inhabitants are descended from the old enterprising Portuguese, who colonized Brazil, and the patient thrifty Swiss and German immigrants of the last century. A very few are Italians and Syrians. The State of Rio is "Old Brazil," where old families abound, titles of nobility survive from the time of the Empire, and life centres in the great farms of a thousand to seven thousand acres, with their gangs of laborers who resemble the retainers and servants of the medieval barons of Europe. The primitive fertility of the soil has been weakened, the price of coffee has gone down and the cost of politics has gone up, so that this State is poor and, among other forced economies, has diminished her public schools from 1,200 to 300 and cut in half the teachers' salaries. High railway rates provoked a mob to destroy much property in Campos last April. The orders of the Roman Church aim to control schooling in the educational centres of Niteroy, Friburgo and Campos, but the priests and monks have almost abandoned large sections of the State, or only visit them once in six months to baptize children. Spiritualism, materialism, facile morals are in vogue. Since the coming of the Republic very few farm people have any religious instruction whatever. In our cities a persistent effort is made to teach the Papal Catechism to every child.

Social betterments there are in abundance, such as these: (a) Reasonable discussion in the newspapers of the problem of railroad rates; (b) the effort of many of the best people of Friburgo to prevent religious intolerance; (c) the able articles in the Rio papers for and against the reunion of Church and State anent the social fruits of Romanism and the Gospel, the continuance of the Republic's official representative at the Vatican, and similar themes, have been widely read; (d) another sign of promise is that our evangelical churches everywhere in this State are asking for schools and teachers and ministers. They are paying the pastors better salaries. They are praying for a sufficient ministry and a militant church; (e) in Rio two new churches have been organized within a year, Botafogo and Caju. During the year the baptisms of adults in our Friburgo field by me number 160; by Rev. Henrique Louro, 80; by Rev. Manuel de Brito, 110. This field now counts 1,250 to 1,300 adult Presbyterians.

Of the work in Sanna, subsequently disturbed by adverse influences, Dr. Porter writes:

The Gospel entered the valley of the Sanna, fifty miles east of Friburgo, on the eastern slope of the mountains, through Bibles sent out from our Church of Barra Alegre three years ago. Soon hundreds were baptized by two of their neighbors in sign of repentance, and a house was built for divine worship. But they did not well understand the Gospel. Many fell into Spiritualism. The chief baptized, sinned and lost prestige. The more evangelical began to build another house of prayer, and I answered their Macedonian call for a minister. On my first visit thirty-one were baptized in the Gospel, and many were declined because of unforsaken sin in their lives. On my next visit forty were baptized. The work has grown and spread, and on November 8 the congregation of 120 baptized adults was called to the sacrament in the church, which is as yet unfinished, but is built and paid for by the converts without aid from others.

FLORIANAPOLIS.

Mr. Lenington has continued to care for this field. He writes:

I have visited the church at Jordão seven times during the year, and the work there is picking up again. Several have been received during the year and a number are preparing themselves. Alterations are being made in the building to better accommodate the growing congregations, and the brethren are taking their part in the wider interests of the Church.

Four visits have been made to São Francisco, where the only elder died just at the close of last year. The new elders were elected and ordained and they have done good work during the year.

Five visits have been made to Camboriu, our new field, where the most signal manifestations of the Spirit of God have been made. The interest seems constantly on the increase. At every service, no matter what the weather, the people would come long distances on foot, carrying their little children. And how they do listen and take part in the singing! A night school has been started, taught by one of the members of the church, and every night you will find even gray-haired men learning to read and write, that for themselves they may study the Word of God. Do you wonder that the work goes forward? The Communion services are occasions which appeal to the heart. You see the tears in the eyes of many as they remember their Saviour's love, and hear the suppressed sobs of others who have not been able to join the church as yet because of sad complications in their lives. I feel very sorry for several of these persons, for I see how hopeless are their conditions, and yet it is impossible to allow them to join the church. Forty persons have been received there during the year, and the work is reaching into all the surrounding districts. So large are the crowds which attend the services that there is no house in the neighborhood which can hold them, and the brethren have taken hold with vim to build a church. They are busy at work and hope to inaugurate their building very shortly. It has been a great pleasure to me to see the way in which the churches of the Presbytery responded to the appeal for funds to help these brethren. Everyone responded. The Presbytery has appointed a committee to organize a church there during the coming year.

I have baptized during the year forty-eight persons on profession and sixty-four children.

CASTRO.

Mr. Bickerstaph writes of some points in his field:

At Chapeco, I held a series of meetings in the comfortable hall which the congregation bought and paid for without outside help. There was great interest manifested, the hall being crowded to its utmost capacity and many eagerly listening about the door and windows. Twelve professed their faith and eight children were baptized.

I wish to call particular attention to the excellent work done by laymen in this part of the State. At Antas, Chapeco and Passo dos Índios meetings are held regularly and the strong help bear the burdens of the weak. At Chapeco the brethren have realized their responsibility as the central congregation and have worked accordingly.

Although nearly all live from two to four miles from the post, they resolved to have their meeting in the "Praca," in order to facilitate the spread of the gospel. On Saturday afternoon the families begin to arrive on horseback and on foot. Some have houses in the "Praca," some stay with friends, and some bring food with them and sleep in the meeting house or elsewhere. Meetings are held on Saturday evening and twice on Sunday, and on Monday all return to their homes.

In my entire field I have received on profession of faith forty members and baptized thirty-two children. There has been a very decided growth in the southern part of the state and in the vicinity of Espigão Alto, about forty-five miles from Castro.

GUARAPUAVA.

Mr. Kolb reports:

We have had opportunities to preach the Word in localities not hitherto reached. The opposition to the Gospel is, in some respects, in a state of change. While the liberties of the individual are being more clearly recognized and respected, other influences are at work whose tendencies are to enslave and vitiate.

The chief antagonism has come from the Spiritualists.

CURITYBA.

Miss Kuhl reports of the Eschola Americana:

Two hundred and fifty-two pupils were enrolled, beside eight who came for special lessons. Nine nations are represented. The name of one of our pupils is written in Arabic. The father did not know how to write his son's name in Portuguese, so we told him to write it in his own language.

A very important part of the work in this cosmopolitan school is to have the children taught the language of the country.

The primary rooms were overflowing. The hall and veranda were used for classes. When the seats were all filled we put in little tables and chairs. Soon there was no more space and we had to refuse pupils.

In our home we have had fifteen boarding pupils and four teachers. We also had three day boarders the first term. Four teacher-pupils have had their home in the house that accommodates our primary school. We have refused many boarding pupils this year for want of room. Some of these found homes in private families and became day-pupils; some went to other schools.

Eight of our girls wished to unite with the church, but as they did not have the consent of their parents we thought it best for them to wait until later.

The school has had the invaluable help during the year of Miss Kuhl's niece Miss Angie S. Kuhl, and her friend, Miss Gertrude Lukens, graduates of Wellesley College, who have spent the year in Curityba.

CHILI MISSION.

SANTIAGO: capital of Chili; connected by rail with Valparaiso, which is 90 miles west, on coast, at the foot of the Andes Mountains. Missionaries—Rev. W. H. Lester, Jr., D.D., and Mrs. Lester, Rev. W. B. Boomer and Mrs. Boomer, Rev. W. E. Browning, Ph.D., and Mrs. Browning, Rev. J. F. Garvin and Mrs. Garvin, Rev. F. Diez and Mrs. Diez: four American teachers in the English Institute and eight other teachers; one sub-station.

• VALPARAISO: the principal port of Chili, on the coast, 90 miles east of Santiago. Missionaries—Rev. C. M. Spining and Mrs. Spining, Miss F. E. Smith, one American lady teacher, Miss Beattie, and five other teachers in the school. One out-station, Viña del Mar.

COPIAPO: capital of the Province of Atacama, about 440 miles north of Santiago. Missionaries—Rev. J. S. Smith and Mrs. Smith. One native preacher, three out-stations and many other groups. Out-stations: Tocopilla, Taltal, Chanaral.

CONCEPCIÓN: in province of Concepción, 500 kilometers southwest of Santiago. Missionaries—Rev. James H. McLean and Mrs. McLean. One native preacher and out-stations, Chillan, Talca, Traiguén and three other sub-stations.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Boomer.

The report which follows covers the Chili field as divided above. During the past year Rev. R. B. Elmore and Mrs. Elmore have gone to the field, Mr. Elmore to act as vice-principal of the Santiago Institute. Mr. James Oxford has also been appointed a teacher in the Institute. For the new year an additional Station has been created, extending from Linares to Rancagua, including San Fernando. It will be called the San Fernando Station. The assignment of workers will be as follows:

Beginning with Traiguén, in the south, the church is held by the Rev. Miguel Martí; in Concepción, Mr. Boomer will have general charge of the work and will have associated with him the Rev. Tulio Moran; in Chillan, the Rev. Alberto Moran continues in charge of the church; in Talca, the Rev. Federico Figueroa supplies the local church; in San Fernando, Mr. McLean will have charge and Sr. Valdebenito, a student helper, will assist him; Sr. Juan Enrique Reyes continues in Rancagua; in Santiago, Dr. Lester will be in charge of the Union Church as pastor; Mr. Garvin, superintendent of the Station and in charge of the evangelistic work; Dr. Browning, principal of the "Instituto Inglés," and Mr. Elmore as assistant principal; the Rev. Francisco Diez, pastor of the Trinity Church, and the Rev. Juan de Dios Leiton, in charge of the Church of the Redeemer; in Valparaiso, Mr. Spining and Miss Smith continue in charge of the evangelistic and educational work of the Station, while the Rev. Manuel Herrera will have charge in Viña del Mar, and Sr. David Rey in Mira Mar, and also Sr. Efrain Martinez. Mr. Smith is the superintendent of the North field and will have associated with him the Rev. Ramon Olivares in Taltal, the Rev. Enrique Krauss in Tocopilla, one or two workers in the interior, and one in Copiapó.

SANTIAGO STATION.

This field the past year included Santiago, Rancagua, San Fernando, Curicó, Talca and Linares as places in this territory where work has been done during the year.

In general the year has been one of progress. There has been one less paid worker than in 1907, but a numerical gain in membership in several of the churches.

There has been a gain in attendance in Curicó and Rancagua, and in Av. Brazil since the enlargement of the building. In Av. Matta there has been a healthy and steady increase all along the line. San Fernando is asking us to take up work there again. Linares is showing signs of new life, and Talca is bravely holding its own.

While there has been no special revival, there is a marked gain in fraternal spirit in most of the congregations and between the churches.

SANTIAGO.—Of the Santísima Trinidad the report says:

This church has suffered severely from its cramped quarters. On this account no aggressive work could be undertaken with prospect of success until almost the end of the year. There has been a net loss of three in membership. But there has been a distinct and notable gain in the spirit of the membership, a gain which has required time to bring about. It is not too much to say that this change is due in great part to the initiative and influence of Mrs. Garvin, who has given her time and effort chiefly though by no means exclusively to this congregation.

Pastor Diez has also given most cordial aid in every effort to advance the interests of the church.

Church Building (Av. Brazil 753, Santiago).—Work was begun August 1 on the enlargement of the temporary makeshift of a hall into a church which can seat over 500 and give standing room to 200 more. This work was started just as soon as word came allowing us to mortgage the property of the Instituto. Up to the end of December 12,000 pesos have been spent, and it looks as though another 2,000 pesos would be required to finish it.

With the 7,000 left after the building is completed the Av. Matta building will be begun. How much can be done with this remains to be seen. Possibly it will allow the remaining walls to be built and a roof to be put on. Surely nothing more.

REDENTOR.—Señor Leiton has been efficient as pastor of this church. He is a good organizer and manager of the general work of the church. While not a theologian, he thinks for himself, is conservative in his beliefs, but aggressive in his preaching. He is a man of the people and is liked by them and respected. He is a good counselor and modest. He does faithfully whatever he undertakes and is always willing.

The congregation has grown in numbers and their enthusiasm for the evangelistic meetings keeps up well. There is a class on Tuesday nights most of the year for those of the men who conduct these meetings, and for such others as wish to attend. This class has varied from ten to twenty.

The Sunday-school has increased in numbers, running about 160 now. They are working for 200, but the present room is insufficient for such a number with any division of classes.

Mention should be made of the work of Doña Isabel Muñoz, the Bible woman, who has continued to discharge faithfully the duties given her. She visits and reads the Bible, getting in new families, and also does some colporteur work. Partly at least to her work is due the attendance of twenty-eight women at the services who never came before this year.

RANCAGUA.—Of the work there the report says:

Since February Señor Reyes has worked with no little degree of success in this place, building up the congregation from a half a dozen to some twenty or more regular attendants. There have been two additions, but there are a number who will probably come in soon. Not a little persecution has been suffered by the attendants at our services, sometimes losing employment, or being turned out of their houses, just because they came to a Protestant service. Some who were quite eager at first were deterred by this persecution. Were it not that we have our own place of worship it would be exceedingly difficult to rent a place in Rancagua. Reyes has also done well in colporteur work, for which he has a great liking. He has visited a number of the neighboring towns, and finds that it would be quite easy to start meetings in several of them.

TALCA.—

Señor Figueroa has had charge of the work here and at Curicó since February, and at this place there have been six additions on confession and five by letter. These have been offset by reductions of the roll of persons who for a long time have not attended and whose whereabouts are not known. There are almost none to whom the services can be entrusted while Sr. Figueroa is away. Although his wife's health does not allow her to do all that her spirit prompts, she has taught a number of the children and held a children's band once a week. The usual services are maintained, and besides Sr. Figueroa goes once a week to Curicó and every other week to Linares, each trip requiring him to reach home after midnight.

SAN FERNANDO.—

For the past three months there has been manifested a growing desire on the part of a majority of members and directors of the church that our Mission should take up the work there again, and finally an official request has been sent to the Mission and Presbytery to this effect. This is an inviting field, where we should have a worker who can reside here and supply Curicó.

At the Mission meeting the plea was answered by making San Fernando a Station and putting Mr. McLean in charge.

COLPORTAGE.—Mr. Garvin writes:

During the year something over 10,000 pesos of books have been put into circulation. I can only hazard a guess as to the number of books which this sum represents, as prices range from 20 cents to $8. But I should say that not less than 20,000 books, including Bibles and Testaments, have been sold. In addition to the agencies of last year where a stock of books has been maintained, namely, Tocopilla, Chañaral, Caldera, Copiapó, Valparaiso, Viña, Santiago, Rancagua, Talca, Concepcion and Traiguén, there have been added those of Antofagasta, Chillan, Victoria and Temuco.

On the whole the situation is favorable, not as a business enterprise, since there is no gain in money, but in the fact that such an amount of literature, mostly of a direct evangelistic character, and the rest of an uplifting educational character, has been put into the hands of people, the most of whom would have had nothing of the kind. This has been done without any expense to the Board, nor to the Mission.

VALPARAISO STATION.

The report says:

We closed last year grateful for material blessings—the completion of the Mission plant and the Viña del Mar Church. We close this year with gratitude for spiritual blessings—the larger life which the work has taken on in all its departments and the promising outlook for the future. While far from perfect, yet we can say that in organization and efficiency the work in Valparaiso approaches more closely the ideals of those in charge than at any time in its past history.

The year began with the meetings held by the evangelist, Mr. Fransen. We had often spoken of the churches being ready for such a visitation and it came as unexpectedly as lightning from a clear sky. A good number professed conversion, many of whom have been received into the church; many members were quickened in their spiritual life and received an impulse to better service.

The catechumen class has become a permanent feature of the church work. It has had between thirty and fifty enrolled during the entire year. No communion season has passed without some of its members being received as members. Mr. Martinez has had this class in charge and has done thorough work with it. The Session has also been very conservative about receiving new members, so we believe that it rarely happens that an unworthy person is admitted to church membership. In all forty-four were received into the church, thirty-six on profession of faith, eight by letter. Thirty-five adults and eight children were baptized. Two members died, two were suspended and five dismissed to other churches, so that our present membership is 149.

The church service has been better attended, although the increase has not been as marked as desired. Two hundred and twenty-five would be a conservative estimate of the average attendance. The workers' class has been larger and more enthusiastic than in the past.

From this class three men are named for each preaching place; one leads, the second preaches and the third takes part in the meeting and distributes tracts at the door. It is no little sacrifice to come down these hills in Valparaiso after a day's hard work to attend this class, then to help in some meeting place on another night, yet there has never been any difficulty to supply men for all the places. From between fifteen and twenty attended the class and were available for the work each week.

The church prayer meeting has had an average attendance of over 100.

Finances.—The church has received from collections and contributors $2,418.20. The Sunday-schools have contributed $1,603, $490 were given for the Deacons' Fund, $145 contributed by the Liga de Señoras, $300 were contributed for special objects. The Organ Fund received $930, making a total of $5,883.20. All obligations were promptly met, and the small surplus remaining at the end of the year was divided among several worthy objects. The Organ Fund has in hand $2,000, and another $1,000 in good subscriptions. We would not feel justified in purchasing so expensive an instrument if it caused a drain on the resources of the church, but that has not been the case; not one cent has been solicited. All this money has simply come in from friends interested, or from concerts organized by English friends for this purpose. The Sunday-school gave $200 of its surplus, and the young ladies of the church, who have made candy under the direction of Miss Smith, have contributed a like sum. All the rest has been from outsiders. The organ-makers have promised to ship the instrument at the end of this month, and we are hoping to have it in use by Easter, and we are sure that it will be a great help in bringing in new people.

The music of the church has continued to improve, and is undoubtedly an attraction and a power for good. The music for the Christmas entertainment was more difficult than anything we had previously attempted, but was very creditably rendered. Several of the girls are learning to play and their services have been invaluable in the preaching places.

Sunday-school.—The principal school has an enrollment of 380. Its average attendance, including rainy Sundays, has reached 200 per Sunday, an increase of 12½ per cent. over last year, and of over 30 per cent. of the attendance of two years ago. The Infant Department has 118 enrolled, and has been provided with six dozen native stools, which gives more room and better seating arrangement. There are forty-nine teachers and officers in all our schools. The teachers' meeting has been maintained all the year, with a very satisfactory attendance.

Schools have also been maintained as follows: At Cerro Carretas, with an enrollment of sixty-two and an average attendance of forty. The Escuela Popular Sunday-school, with eighty-one enrolled and an average attendance between forty and fifty. At Las Palmas, the school meets under the trees in the yard belonging to our enthusiastic worker, Manuel Lillo. It has forty-seven enrolled and an average attendance of thirty-five. At Miramar, with about thirty enrolled.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Along this line there has been the most marked development. We have five regular preaching places outside of the church and the Escuela Popular. The work in Cerro Carretas reported last year has been continued, and has become quite a centre of propaganda. There has been an average attendance of about fifty.

Las Palmas.—The work here is very promising. The Tuesday evening preaching service, like the Sunday-school, is held in the open air. There is always a good crowd of respectful hearers. The magic lantern with views of the life of Christ attracted large audiences, but without that special attraction between fifty and a hundred generally attend. Some fruits have already been garnered from this work, and a number of attendants are in the catechumen class.

Pasaje Quillota.—Here the corner of Sr. Lillo's wagon shop is cleared on Thursday evenings for a meeting. It has had a varying attendance of sometimes twenty and thirty, and at others three or four hundred.

Cerro Cordillera.—A small meeting has been maintained by the Workers' Training Class on Thursday evenings. Recently an entire family has been brought to the church whose interest was awakened there.

Villa Seca.—This is a very thickly inhabited part of the city near the Arsenal. Land has been purchased and a building is to be erected which can be used as a chapel and school, if so desired. When the new works in the harbor are begun this will be the nearest point to the new breakwater that is to be built, and means that this district will be rapidly built up and become even more densely populated.

Miramar.—In Miramar meetings in the new chapel were begun six weeks ago. The first meetings had an attendance of from eighty to ninety, and although we have had no nucleus of believers there, the meetings have continued with very satisfactory results. This is one of our most promising fields.

In Viña del Mar, aside from the church, we have the new local in Santa Inez, which is the extreme district of Población Vergara. Here an interested member offered land and the work if we would give him materials with which to build. About $250 (pesos) of special funds were loaned him for that purpose, and soon we will have a chapel 16 by 30 feet, the use of which will be given us free of rent. Workers from the Viña Church conduct a Thursday evening meeting and a Sunday-school there, with an attendance of from thirty to forty. This, like the Miramar Church, has been developed in a few weeks' time.

Chorillos.—This is a district of Viña del Mar where many of the sugar refinery workmen live. A Sunday-school is being maintained in the house of a member, conducted by Sra. Olivares. From twenty-five to thirty children attend.

Viña del Mar.—This will be mentioned in a separate report, but in order to make the Station report complete a few data will be given here.

Sr. and Sra. Olivares have continued to do good work, but the church has lost members on account of hard times, a third of them having been obliged to go elsewhere in search of work. But the increase has just about balanced the loss. The church has a membership of sixty-four, sixteen of whom were received during the present year. The Sunday-school has an enrollment of 125, which with Chorillos and Santa Inez gives them a total membership in their Sunday-schools of 165, omitting duplicates. About $2,500 were raised by the church and Sunday-school.

The summary of our Station is as follows:

Communicants.....	214
In catechumen classes.....	30
Sunday-school enrollment.....	719
Preaching places.....	10
Raised on the field for all purposes, approximately.....	$8,300
Members received during the year.....	60

Miss F. E. Smith writes:

Missionary work in Valparaiso during 1908 has been such a joy that one has scarcely noted length of days or weariness of body. To have one's prayers answered day by day, to see church and preaching halls filled with eager listeners night after night, to watch Chilean men and women develop into earnest and efficient personal workers, to see souls saved all through the year, to watch the work moving forward in all its departments surely and steadily in a continuous atmosphere of sane revival—this has been our privilege in Valparaiso and Vina del Mar. Our Station meetings on Monday afternoon have been a continued song of rejoicing and a yearning for still greater blessings, both for ourselves personally and for all those who look toward us as leaders.

The year has been beautifully and unexpectedly crowned by the dedication of himself to the native ministry of one of our most spiritual and efficient young men. At the last Consecration Service of our Endeavor Society, this young Chilean arose and in simple words that went straight to every heart told how the Sunday-school lesson as taught in Teacher's Meeting the evening before, on the failure of Saul's life because he preferred his own life-plan to God's, had revealed a like rebellion in his own heart. Although he will be sorely missed from our own ranks we are deeply grateful for this last manifestation of the grace of God.

STRATEGIC PLANNING.—You are now invited for a moment to glance at the geographical formation of Valparaiso. It is in the form of a semi-circle around the bay. At one extreme there is Santa Inez, then the Viña del Mar Church and Chorillos, then the Miramar Chapel. These cover the ground fairly well as far as Recreo. In Recreo, Placeres and Baron the Methodists are at work. Our preaching places in Las Palmas and Pasaje Quillota come next. The new Methodist plant is in the centre of the Almendral. There is a large gap here on the hills between Cerro Polanco and Cerro Bella Vista, where at least three chapels should be planted. Then comes our central plant, Cerro Carretas, and Villa Seca will represent the other extreme of the semi-circle. We have only to open this last place and fill in the gap to have the city surrounded. $1,000 American gold would buy the land, build a chapel and two small rooms for a worker in each of these places. The chapel could also be used as a school, and thus become a centre of light to a large district 365 days in the year. Since the earthquake the people have flocked to the hills because there was no place else to go. If we reach them with the Gospel, we must take it to them. Our new plant in the port and the new Methodist plant in the Almendral are well located where they are most needed, but we must not neglect these forty-seven hills where the masses live. The climbing is hard. Legs, heart and lungs soon weary of it, but the view from the top is grand, and the work is too interesting and too promising to be neglected. A special effort was made with the magic lantern during November and December. In the twelve special meetings there was a total attendance of not less than 3,000 people. The thing that amazes us most is the changed attitude of the people toward the Gospel. We have preached in the open air, we have opened work in new districts, but there have been no stones thrown, no cat-calls, no insults, but respectful, often eager, attention. Formerly we were accustomed to work months, even years, in a place without being able to gather much of a congregation; now we have only to open the door, and from the first there is a crowd large enough and interested enough to inspire one to new zeal. Congregations and Sunday-schools are formed in a day. The development of the work is to be measured only by the physical strength of the staff. What does it mean? I believe it means that the prayers of Dr. Trumbull and Mr. Merwin and those who afterward followed them in the work here are being answered. The dream of the day when the Chilians would turn to Christ is dawning. To us these conditions and these open doors are "the sound of the going in the tops of the mulberry trees," announcing that the Lord is near, and ready to lead His people on to victory.

COPIAPO' STATION.

The Copiapó Station of the Chili Mission comprises, beginning on the north, the port of Tocopilla and the interior in connection with it; Taltal and interior, Chañaral and interior, and the district surrounding Copiapó itself.

Copiapó, receiving its entire support from the mining industry, has not progressed much for some years, on account of the low prices that have been paid for copper ore. Yet, notwithstanding this, there has not been any notable lessening in the population of the town itself. In some of the mines where work has been stopped, where once there was a group of Christians, now there are none. But there are many very hopeful points where there are large groups who attend with regularity when meetings are held. In Punta del Cobre we have the most promising work in the interior of Copiapó. For some time there had been regular visits made there every week, but on account of the reduced room where the meetings were held, and the distance from it to the other parts of the town, there were but few who attended; but early in the year it was determined to look for a room which might be rented that would be more central and where more people might be reached. Soon after this was done a gain in the attendance was noted, and very soon with the help of the collections it was possible to pay the entire rent, thus making the work in so far self-supporting. Once in a while an exhibition with the magic lantern helped to attract attention, and so from the little that was in the beginning of the year things have gone on till now the regular attendance is from 80 to 100. David Rey, from Copiapó, makes one visit a week and that on Sunday, and as a rule some one also goes up to help in the Sunday-school and to preach in the evening, though Juan de D. Molina, one of the elders of the Copiapó Church, is responsible and with his faithful wife are the real workers in the place. About the middle of the year a fund was started for the construction of a building for the better accommodation of the meetings, as the rented room was not large enough, and at present the sum collected is nearing $500, which, with the gift of the ground made by Mr. Dale, is nearly half enough to finish the work. When all needed is on hand the work will be pushed through at once. The place chosen is more or less half way between Punta del Cobre and Tierra Amarilla, and will serve for as long as the mining industry continues in that part. From Copiapó Mr. Rey also visits various places in the surrounding mining districts.

At the Transito mine the work has become promising through the sympathetic coöperation of Mr. Thomas Peddar, the manager of the mines.

In the Puquios District there has also been success and much interest, notably at the mine Descubridora, where almost the entire population of the place attend the meetings.

A Typical Visit.—One visit was made in company with Rey to the San Antonio District early in the year. The trip is by no means an easy one, as since the year when the flood in the Copiapó River destroyed so much of the railroad the line lacks about ten miles of reaching San Antonio itself, and that part of the journey must be made in whatever vehicle may be at hand. On the day that we made our visit it happened that the stage did not come, and we by good luck found a cart going that way that had come down with baled hay. Had we not found this one we would have had to remain in the open for the night, but the cartman was willing, and so after about three hours of jolting such as we had never passed before we arrived in sight of our destination. When we were within about a mile of the town the cart stopped, and the man said that he could not take us any farther as his "patron" would be very angry, and that we must remain there till we could go into the town and get some conveyance. Rey, after about an hour, was able to get a small cart with a balky mule, and after some little trouble we at last reached the famous San Antonio. We found that the place consisted of one street, with the property of two men on either side of the street comprising the entire place, and the inhabitants all employed by one or the other of the farmers. One of these, a Señor Rowe, gave us a good reception and in the evening, after having canvassed the place in the afternoon, he also gave us a large storeroom where we could put up our lantern. Most all the people in the town were present and were much pleased with what they saw and heard. A few books were sold and some subscriptions for El Heraldo taken, but for the most part the people were very poor.

In Copiapó the church is one of the first that was established in Chili, but the many who have been received as members have in large part gone to other parts, but with all that the church is slowly progressing. The Society of Christian Endeavor organized by Mrs. Garvin continues to flourish, and has been the means of helping many to learn to take some part in the prayer meeting. By the study of the subjects brought before the society for consideration the Bible becomes better known. Especially have the younger members of the society been improved; there is hope that many of them will soon see their way clear to become members of the church. The young ladies of the church have worked most faithfully in the preparation of the program for the Christmas celebration, showing such a willingness as is a real stimulus to those who have the work in hand. As the old attendants go away that have begun their spiritual life in Copiapó new ones are found who take their places, and so the work goes on.

Visits were made to Tocopilla and Taltal. Of the latter Mr. Smith writes:

More than a year had passed since the last visit and they were anxiously waiting for the dedication of the new church building built by Mr. Garvin a little more than a year before. It was now all finished and in order and the dedication service took place the second Sunday in the month. At the service some ninety were present, no more being there on account of the hour at which it was held, which was 1 P.M. In the evening at the Communion service there were 125 present, and it was difficult to find seats for them and many had to remain standing.

After a Sunday full of good meetings, with Señor Manuel Herrera, the pastor, in charge of Taltal, a visit was made as usual to the Pampa. In the Taltal Pampa there are many establishments. There is the saltpeter industry and many mines of copper as well. In most all the "Oficinas" we have free entry, and it is not possible to attend to the places where we are invited to go, so the ones that do not show any inducements are left alone. Some belonging to French companies and others to Chilians are not so open as those of the German and English companies.

Among other places visited was Santa Luisa, of which Mr. Smith writes:

We arrived at 7 in the evening, our hands and faces burned almost to blisters by the sun and the hot wind that we had to face for the greater part of the distance. We were most graciously received and given rooms in the house of the employees. In this place is Nicanor Mora, a very good man and one who has shown by his generous spirit and determination to forward the progress of the Gospel among his fellow-workmen, that he is truly converted. He has made a part of his house into a meeting room for the meetings in the Oficina, and holds a Sunday-school every Sunday and preaches as best he can in the evening. Here we made a canvass of the Oficina with the books and invited the people to see the views of the lantern. Then, after showing them to a crowd of 300 in the schoolroom, I took the lantern to the Administration Building and, having fixed up with the electrician a connection with a cluster of lights in the lantern, we had them again for the employees and manager. They were very much pleased and showed their appreciation by the way in which we were encouraged in the work that we were attempting to do among the men in the place.

CONCEPCIÓN STATION.

TRAIGUEN.—Of the work at Traiguen the report says:

Words seem inadequate to convey a due sense of what marvels the Lord has wrought among the little company of believers during the past twelvemonth. They ended the old year and began the new in the throes of dissension. A scandal was followed by a schism and the very life of the congregation was threatened, but this has been largely overcome by the devotion of the pastor, Sr. Martí. He submitted to indignities without a murmur. He rallied a few faithful members about him and besieged the throne of grace. He laid every personal consideration aside, and with heroic selflessness addressed himself to the task of glorifying the name of the Lord where it had been blasphemed. He was ever ready to co-operate, to accept counsel and to encourage fellowship. The response of the Master in whom he trusted has been wonderful. The Sunday-school attendance arose by leaps and bounds from 40 to 108, until the chapel was overcrowded and they were compelled to pray for a larger building. Within the same week they had secured subscriptions for the amount required, and within three weeks they had erected an addition to the building which enlarges it to almost three times its original capacity. At their Christmas entertainment even the new building proved too small to accommodate the number that sought admission. Within the past four months sixteen have united with the church and there is scarcely a meeting without some visible result of the Spirit's efficacy. They have adopted the method of Christ for winning disciples—personal friendship and fellowship in prayer—and have commended this mode of procedure to us all. This year they hope to improve and extend their chapel still further and to devote all their ransomed powers to the erection of a monument to God's faithfulness. There is also the prospect of opening a school for the younger children of the congregation in the course of the year.

All these improvements have been realized without any financial aid from the Mission treasury and they have agreed to increase their contributions toward the salary of the pastor.

LOS SAUCES.—

The past year has been a good one in this little village of 1,000 souls. The "Escuela Popular" conducted in the home of Sra. Jara has been unprecedentedly successful, more applications having been received than ever before. The attendance reached forty-five and was limited only by the capacity of the room at the disposal of the teacher. A larger and better room has been rented for the services and a larger number of the neighbors have attended. A building of their own will probably be procured before long.

CHILLAN.—

The church of Chillan has shown signs of vitality, for all departments of their work have improved to some extent. Nine new members were added on profession of their faith, a campaign of publicity was undertaken and the work of Christ has been advertised through the open-air meetings and the distribution of tracts. About 3,000 copies of the latter have been circulated during the year. They opened a show-window where Bibles and evangelical literature have been displayed and have attracted the attention of large numbers of passers-by. The pastor concludes his report to me in these significant words: "It is curious that, neither in the open air nor alongside the Bible counter, have I been able to find a single person who has ever read the Bible or even the New Testament!" This denotes that there is yet much land to be possessed in Chillan.

Their contributions show an increase over last year. They pay $10 per month toward the salary of the pastor, besides the rent of the building. They have also established a fund for the erection of their own chapel. The actual membership is twenty-nine. According to the annual report, the average attendance at the Sunday evening services has been sixty-five, at the Sunday-school sixty-two.

PARRAL.—The work at Parral, which was hampered by a poor location, has greatly improved by being moved to a more suitable and central location, where it is surrounded by the homes of workmen who are free to attend evening meetings. This was purchased for $600 without any call upon the Mission. The lot is six yards wide and twenty-two deep, affording ample room for the construction of a large chapel. Meanwhile they are using the building which stood on the land when we bought, an adobe structure 15 by 23 feet, with accommodation for fifty or sixty persons. The immediate effect of the transfer was to double the attendance and increase the Sunday-school, and the local evangelist writes that the results of the change have exceeded even his most sanguine hopes.

CONCEPCIÓN.—Concepción is the centre from which missionary activity radiates to the surrounding towns. In April a new work was opened in Penco, which is about seven miles distant from the centre of Concepción. It has a population of about 4,000 and has been dominated by the clergy and the orders for centuries. As a result the people are densely ignorant and bigoted. Mr. McLean writes:

Here I received my initiation into pioneer work. for although Sr. Moran had conducted services there some years ago, not a vestige of the work remained. There has been stubborn persecution and attempts at violence from the beginning, and we continue under threatenings from the Roman Catholic Superior. About six weeks ago we were attacked by an organized mob led by a Dominican friar, who stationed himself at the door and forbade entrance under penalty of excommunication and anathema. The two helpers who accompanied me were dragged out into the street, thrown to the ground, trampled upon, cuffed and flogged, but nobody offered to attack me.

Since this episode we have not been molested and the two meetings of the week are orderly. Ten men have promised to contribute to the cost of the chapel—men who were not even sympathizers six months ago—and it is probable that they will henceforth provide their place of meeting.

The midweek meeting usually brings out twelve to twenty men and two or three women and there is a very encouraging prospect for the year 1909.

There are a number of evidences of growth in the mother church this year. We have received fourteen members on confession and nine from other bodies, making the actual membership ninety-nine. Of this number fully as many as twenty-five reside in other towns, but maintain occasional fellowship through correspondence and small contributions.

The finances of the church are encouraging and the evangelistic fervor continues.

COLOMBIA MISSION.

BOGOTA: on the San Francisco River, the capital of the country; situated on a plateau about 8,800 feet above the sea level and four degrees north of the equator; climate cool; occupied as a Mission Station in 1856. Missionaries—Rev. T. H. Candor and Mrs. Candor, Miss Mary L. Freeman and Rev. C. S. Williams and Mrs. Williams.

BARRANQUILLA (Bar-ran-keel-ya): capital of the Department Del Atlantico, on the Magdalena River; 17 miles by rail from the sea, 500 miles north of Bogota; about twelve degrees north latitude; climate hot as the thermal equator passes through; occupied as a Mission Station in 1888. Missionaries—Rev. W. S. Lee and Mrs. Lee, Miss Jessie Scott and Miss L. W. Quinby.

CARACAS, VENEZUELA: capital of the country; situated at an elevation of 3,500 feet above the sea level; about 10 degrees north latitude; 23 miles by rail from the sea; climate like late Spring; population 75,000; occupied tentatively 1897. Missionaries—Rev. T. S. Pond and Mrs. Pond.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Miss Jessie Scott, Miss Mary L. Freeman.

BARRANQUILLA STATION.

The year covered by this Report began with the Rev. Walter Scott Lee and Mrs. Lee, the Rev. Malbone W. Graham and Mrs. Graham, Miss Jessie Scott and Miss Lelia Wiatt Quinby on the field. Mr. and Mrs. Graham left in April, their resignation having been accepted by the Board. Miss Scott went home in July for a much-needed furlough, returning to the field in December. During her absence Miss Quinby was given charge of the girls' school.

CHURCH AND EVANGELISTIC WORK.—This was in charge of Mr. Graham until he left, when Mr. Lee took it in connection with his own work as principal of the boys' school. Miss Quinby assumed the church music, which had been under Mrs. Graham's direction.

Attendance and attention have steadily increased. The Sunday-school attendance rose from 40 or 50 in the early months to 60 and 80 in the last Sundays of the year, the Sunday-school roll increasing from about 130 to 168. Sunday evening services increased in attendance from 50 or 60 to 80 and sometimes over 100, and the Wednesday night prayer meeting increased from 25 or 30 to 60 and 80.

A feature of the work of growing importance is cottage meetings, of which thirty-three were held during this year.

From May until the end of the year these meetings were held weekly, but one being omitted.

These cottage meetings have been under Mr. Lee's direction, with Miss Quinby always present to play the baby organ and sing. The two elders, Sr. Coll and Sr. Cortez, take turns in helping, speaking from fifteen to twenty minutes. The room, doors, windows, yard and street are always filled with listeners; the company inside is respectful and attentive, the crowd outside sometimes noisy and disturbing at the beginning, but usually quiet and listening before the meetings close, when tracts are distributed and eagerly accepted. These meetings are held in any home that is offered, and are often at points remotest from our schools as a centre. Much enthusiasm has been aroused and usually several houses are offered for the same meeting.

It is our policy to present nothing but the Gospel and salvation through Christ. It is early to estimate results, but it seems to the missionaries that the Holy Spirit has at last come to Barranquilla and has begun his work, for none of us have ever seen here such sustained and growing enthusiasm among the people over the evangelistic work. We earnestly and humbly implore the churches in the homeland to pray for Barranquilla, that none of us, missionaries or native Christians, may become an obstacle to the working of the Holy Spirit, but that He may through us all accomplish His wonderful will.

Inquirers' classes have been faithfully held weekly from May to December.

Mr. Lee taught the men and older boys on Thursday nights, and Mrs. Lee the women on Saturday nights and the younger boys and girls on Monday afternoons after school. No new members are received until they have been on probation at least six months, and at least three months of that time in regular attendance at an inquirers' class. But eight have been added to the church roll since May, making with two received in February a total for the year of only ten. At the end of the year the total number under actual instruction in the inquirers' classes is twenty, of whom twelve will probably be received at the January communion.

But two special services were held, the Christmas Eve program, which brought out the usual crowded house, and the Watch Night service, with fifty-five of the more consecrated Christians present at this solemn meeting. This meeting would probably have been larger but for a heavy rain.

Mention should be given the two faithful elders, who have shown their accustomed cheerful willingness to speak whenever asked, each one leading the prayer meeting once a month, alternating with Mr. Lee, who leads every other week, and also speaking whenever asked to do so at the afternoon cottage Sunday-school and the weekly cottage meetings on Friday nights.

Elder Coll has been continued by the British and Foreign Bible Society as its only colporteur in Colombia, and is holding truly wonderful meetings in some of the large inland villages and cities in his itinerary. At some of these meetings he has had 300 and 400 in attendance, and brings back appeals for missionaries to establish mission churches and schools. Indeed, open doors are everywhere. The only apparent discouragement in the work is lack of workers. God grant that our own Board or some other Board may soon send them! Across the missionary map of Colombia might be printed in large letters the one word "OPPORTUNITY."

From May to October Mrs. Lee and Miss Quinby held cottage Sunday-schools Sunday afternoons. The attendance varied from 10 or 12 to over 60, depending upon the locality in which the school was held. These are to be reopened during the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee and Miss Quinby have made as many pastoral visits as their limited time allowed, and this was supplemented by frequent pastoral letters, typewritten copies of which were sent to every church member. Elder Coll also makes calls on the church families and tries to inspire more faithfulness in service and greater consistency in the Christian life.

In September, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. A. Lange, of London, came to Barranquilla for temporary residence as sub-agent for Colombia and Venezuela of the British and Foreign Bible Society. For several months Mr. and Mrs. Lange gave assistance in the English services.

Girls' Boarding and Day-school.—School opened with eighteen girls. They were bright and promising though few in numbers. Some came from wealthy Catholic families and several of the free pupils were received from the worthy poor of our congregation.

Our school has many odds to combat. All that a girl is supposed to need to know in this land is to read and write and sew and embroider. Many have never seen the inside of a school and cannot read or write. The public schools have no attraction because of disorder and Romish influence.

Our girls come for a few months or at most a few years, and take more interest in embroidery than in their books. We lose many because of the Bible lesson required every day. The school is graded, making two teachers necessary for primary and grammar grade work.

Miss Scott is the missionary in charge, and she ran the boarding department, supervised the teaching and taught two hours daily herself. In July she left for a much-needed rest, leaving Miss Quinby in charge. The enrollment for the year was fifty-three, and the average attendance about thirty.

The school closed with an all-day programme of songs, recitations, dialogues and model classes. The chapel was thronged with fond parents and friends, who perhaps heard recitations from the Bible for the first time. The display of embroideries and drawn work was fine. To win Colombia for Christ we must first win the future mothers of her citizens.

The Station makes special mention of the efficiency of Miss Quinby in the girls' school during the last half year, beginning that work with its heavy responsibilities after having been in the country less than a year.

Boys' Boarding and Day-school.—This school has been steadily regaining the numbers lost during Mr. Lee's furlough. In a year and a half the registration was raised from 30 to 111, and the attendance from 17 to about 80, besides employing one teacher less and regaining and maintaining the school's record of entire self-support. This was done in the face of such opposition as this school has never before had.

A so-called Government school, supported by business men, native and foreign, was opened in July, with a German of no mean local fame at its head. Over $1,000 in gold was monthly contributed to pay the salaries of teachers and running expenses. It was free to boys, and especially advertised to attract boys of the better class for a High School or commercial education. The boys of humble birth were discouraged, though not actually refused admission. This movement threatened to draw from our school the paying element and leave only the free pupils. Nearly all of our boys remained loyal to our school, very few were lost, and quite a number of new pupils were matriculated during the last half year, so that the school's financial standing remained firm, though it was put to the added expense of a teacher's salary to fill the time Miss Qumby had given to the boys' school.

Our school was the largest in the city, exceeding its chief rival by six boys. About 40 per cent. of the boys were free pupils, children of the worthy poor. Daily Bible lessons continued to be required of every pupil, and several pupils were lost because of this; but this was partially offset by a new regulation giving one hour daily to all classes except the primary for the study of English, double the time devoted to that study formerly.

The closing exercises were held November 17. The crowning features of the day were the orations of the graduating class of five boys in the Scientific course of the High School department and the presentation of diplomas, the first in the history of the school, now completing its first decade.

In the school family there were but eight boarding pupils and one native teacher besides the missionary family. Of breakfast pupils (those who eat the midday meal in the school) there were but six, but about thirty-five boys had their midday meal sent from home. These ate in the school dining room at the same time with the school family, and for them tables covered with white cloths were prepared.

Mr. Lee finished the translation of Milne's Plane Geometry into Spanish, and corrected and bound eight copies of type-written MS. of it for class use, Mrs. Lee writing them out on the typewriter.

BOGOTA STATION.

Bogota, the capital of the Republic of Colombia, has been occupied as a Mission Station of the Presbyterian Church for more than half a century, and while from a human viewpoint there has been no very marked success, it will take more than human wisdom to make anything like a just estimate of the results. This remark may apply very well to the work of the past year. The work of the Station consists as before of an evangelical church, a boarding and day-school for boys, and a like school for girls. The first was under the care of the Rev. T. H. Candor, his wife being absent the greater part of the year on a visit to the United States; the second under the care of the Rev. C. S. Williams and his wife, and the third was under the care of Miss Mary L. Freeman, who is now in the United States.

The Church.—The church worships in a building that was bought some years ago and fitted up for church purposes, and although it is not all that could be desired, it furnishes a place for services and is large enough for present purposes.

In general the work is such as would have been carried on in a church of the same size in the United States, and while no special services in addition to those indicated have been held, there were some additions at each of the quarterly communions of the year.

There is a very small foreign colony in Bogota, but it includes some persons who desire at least one service a month in English, and Mr. Williams, in addition to the special work of the boys' school, has taken charge of this work. The attendants have expressed their appreciation and have asked to have the services continued during the new year.

Efforts have been continued to develop the abilities of the Colombian Christians, and induce them to take up the work of extending a knowledge of the Gospel to their own people.

We cannot say that this has been very successful, and yet we ought not to say that we are discouraged about the final outcome. There are some very marked difficulties in the way of any Colombian who enters this work. The strongest is the fact that such a person becomes at once the target for all kinds of unjust criticism, and is suspected of being moved only by the hope of securing employment that will give him financial income, thus making his work a money-making venture.

The Station has never employed any one in this work in the past, and has not held out the hope that we would do so in the future, yet members of the Church who have taken any active part in the work have been called place-seekers. The utter injustice of this is only equaled by the injury that it does to the men who would willingly do more than they do if they were not so rudely and unjustly attacked.

We have tried to inculcate the idea that Colombians owe it to their fellow-men to do all that is in their power to give them the Gospel, and that if their fellow-Colombians do not think it possible to set them apart from their daily work and have them ordained as ministers and support them, so that they can give all their time to the work of the Gospel, this does not relieve them from the responsibility of doing what they can in the station of life in which they live. We are inclined to think that the time will come when they will consider it a privilege and duty to do this, though thus far we have not found men who were bold enough to make the effort.

Of course this difficulty exists in almost every mission field in the world, but it has been overcome elsewhere and it can be overcome in Colombia.

The Boys' School.—Mr. and Mrs. Williams had been in Colombia only a few months when they moved into the boys' school building and began to prepare for the year's work.

Although the school meets with competition and opposition, it has been continued in one or another form from year to year. It does the work from the primary grades up to what would be called high school work in the United States, and is divided into three departments. For primary work Miss Bertilda Lozano was employed. She is a graduate of the girls' school and a member of our church. She did excellent work with the little ones. In the intermediate room Miss Widelmina Reick continued her work. She is also a member of the church and heartily in sympathy with the work.

The superior department was taught by M. Echeverria, who has been in this same place for two years, and although he retires this year to enter into other business, his place will be filled by an experienced teacher who is in sympathy with the work for which the school and church stand. Though the school is not large it has an important place in the work of the Mission.

Girls' School.—

Mrs. Candor, who has given years to this school, was in the United States on furlough most of the year. This left the girls' school in charge of Miss Freeman, who had been working in the school for more than three years and fully understood its necessities. This school does about the same grade of work as the boys' school, and has its primary, intermediate and superior departments, each under the care of an experienced teacher.

The close of the year finds Mrs. Candor again in Bogota and Miss Freeman leaving for the United States.

The work of this Station has its dark aspects, as when a pastoral from the Roman Catholic Archbishop, issued several years ago, was republished and circulated through the city. It warned the people not to attend our church services or patronize the schools.

On the other hand there are bright features. The two boarding schools, one for boys and one for girls, are doing excellent work. The church, though small, has faithful members. When the gladness that lives in the hearts of some of those who have understood the message we carry is shown in their faces and their conversation, we feel that we are not here in vain; and when others show their ill feeling toward us, it is consoling to know that there are hearts that beat with true friendship and hands that are willing to uphold.

The little company in the olden time that gathered in the city of Jerusalem may have recognized that the powerful and influential in Church and State were not with them, as we recognize that they are not with us here; but they did not for that reason falter and fail to bear their testimony to as many as would listen to them, and we do not intend to falter and fail to bear testimony here because there are those who oppose. We know that His Word is necessary for the happiness, the comfort and the well-being of the nations, and so far as in us lies we will try to make it known to our fellow-men here.

One of the members of the little Mission church said recently that it was a surprise to him that the Presbyterian Church in the United States is willing to keep up the Mission here, when so few show their appreciation of the work and even openly attack it. The natural answer was given at once by another, that it is the real Christian spirit to work for those who do not care for us and do not understand what we are trying to do for them, and although this may be hard to do, it is the Master's spirit.

Here is a place where work can be done without very much hope of triumphing in numbers, and yet we are sure that he who labors and he who gives will not be wholly disappointed when the end comes.

CARACAS STATION.

The nine years' dictatorship of Castro, which has ended in his departure for Europe, has left deep marks on all life in Venezuela.

The Station also has thus been called to pass through experiences rare, although not unique, in the history of Missions. Yellow fever and bubonic plague have been more or less prevalent during the year, yet not one of our flock has been touched, and not a hair of our heads has been harmed. For this and many mercies we bless the Lord. A bloodless revolution—an event unique in the history of this land of earthquakes and revolutions—has brought back from exile nearly all the refugees from the wrath of the autocrat, and apparently a community of adversity and suffering have bound Venezuelans of all parties not only to seek peace, but to join hands in support of the new régime.

In the midst of conditions by no means favorable the Gospel work has not lost ground, save apparently in the market value of the native contributions. But in the scale of Him who sits over against the treasury the people have given more than usual. More than the customary number of services and visits have occupied time and strength of the missionary, more casual hearers just within or without the door, all of whom receive papers and tracts. Two young men have come out on the Lord's side, two more are on probation, others are seriously seeking the truth. Two members have emigrated to Cuba on account of scarcity of employment and uncertainty of the political situation. Many others would gladly have gone if they had been able. The distribution of the Scriptures and Christian literature has gone steadily forward. The Sunday-school has been well sustained, and with day-school gave proof of progress at the fiesta of the Nativity. The young helper—still a student—has advanced in his studies in a most satisfactory degree, and proves to be a man of steady Christian character and growth in general usefulness.

The former prejudice against us as Evangelicals has waned considerably. The utmost order in the public services prevails, whereas at one time we were subjected to annoyance at the door or in the street, instigated by the priests. But this clerical company has received of late—three days before the revolution—such a crushing, public castigation in a "pastoral" from the Archbishop of Caracas and Venezuela, exposing their shortcomings and scandals so realistically and microscopically in twelve columns of the principal daily, that they are as still and modest as church mice. The much-moved prelate might have chosen his own official organ or have administered the discipline in private, but he chose the most widely circulated secular newspaper, and filled two and a half solid pages—the greater part of its space—to mirror forth the hidden(?) shames of the black-robed culprits. The effect upon the general public has been marked, and would have been more apparent had not the already low estimate of the clergy prepared the way for revelations however sensational in other conditions than those of civil convulsion throughout the country

This act of the prelate, in language and form, is equivalent to the act of degradation of a military officer and his expulsion from the army. In the case of the priest, we should look for the cleric to be unfrocked and sent about his business. But nothing of this kind is done. He goes through his formal tasks at the altar as usual.

Now is the day of emancipation for the continent of practically one language. In all parts liberty of worship; liberty for a Christian Press; liberty to open schools of all grades; liberty for hospitals, for orphanage and training schools and kindergartens. "Behold! I have set before you an open door!" Here is the "Continent of Opportunity" to lay the foundations of many generations—a continent whose riches are attracting every year more immigration. We need to do more for the founding of Christian institutions, the forming of national character, for the elevation of a mighty continent, now in the making, and waiting for the molding of the Gospel of God and the inbreaking of the Spirit Creator.

MISSIONS IN SYRIA.

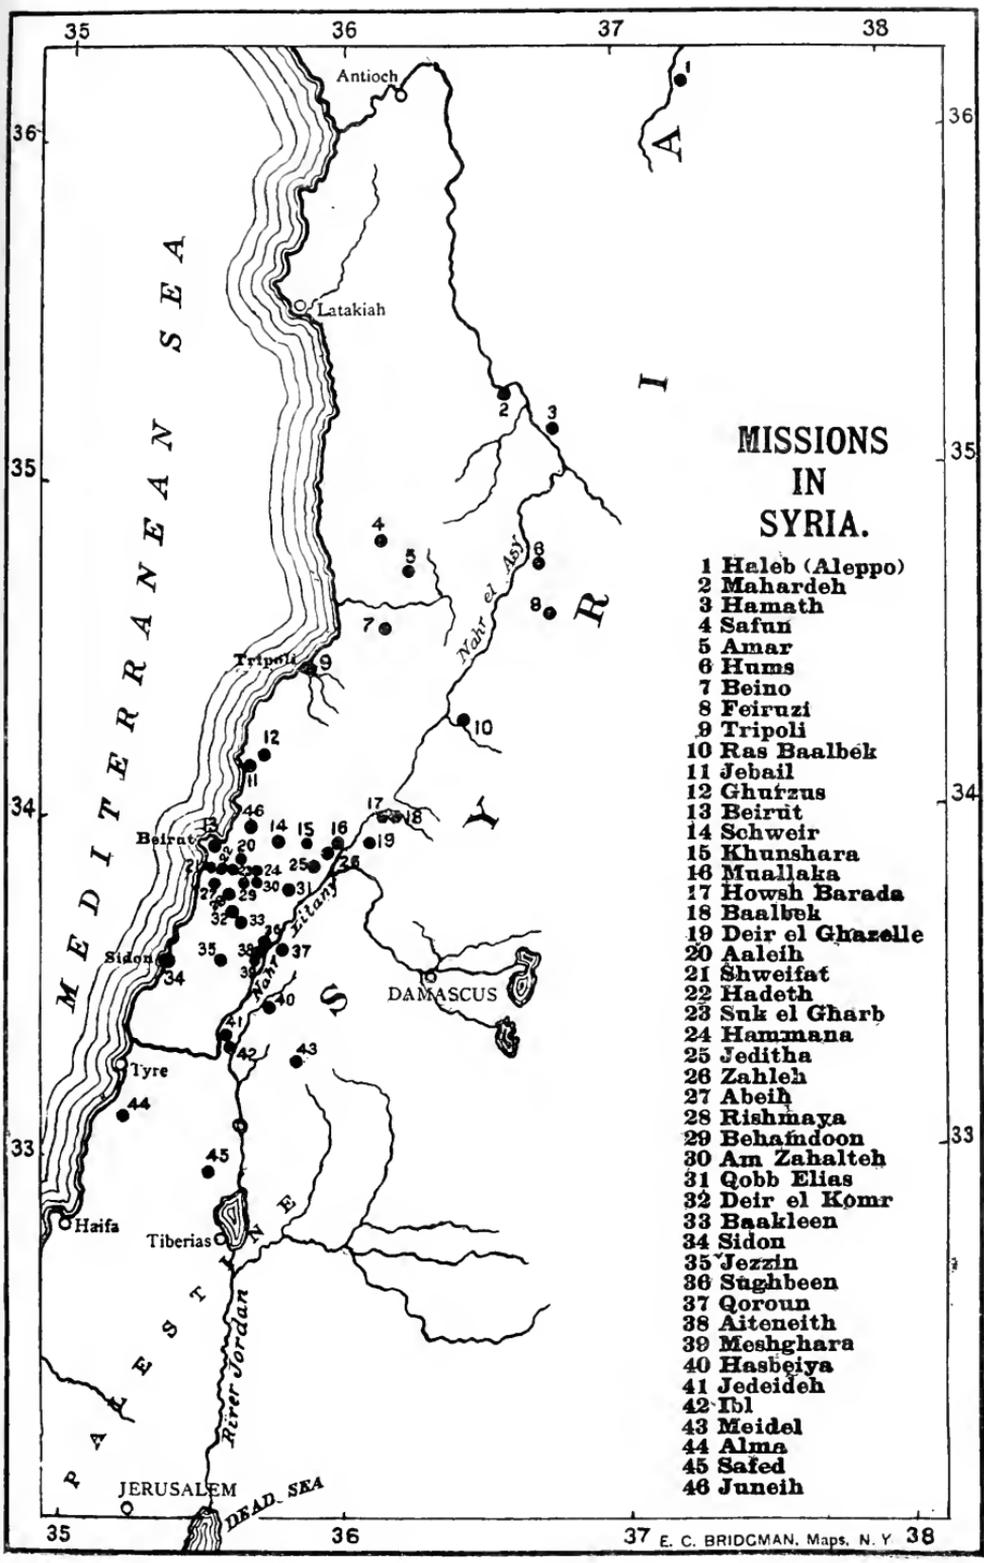

Not only Syria Missions but the whole Christian world has been interested in the great events that have taken place in Turkey during the past year. On the 23d of July, 1908, Said Pasha, representing the army corps, appeared before the Sultan and demanded the restoration of the Constitution of 1876, which had been granted, only to be withdrawn after a short trial. The Sultan in his perplexity called in the astrologers and assistants and asked for light. After a time they replied that it was contrary to the doctrine of the Koran that any ruler by his action should cause war between two bodies of Mohammedans.

The Sultan immediately dismissed his Cabinet, leaving only Said Pasha. After waiting an hour he told him he could go too. He refused, and said he must have an answer. Five minutes passed by in silence, when the Sultan turned and yielded to the inevitable. This was late in the night, and at sunrise of the next morning the guns announced that the long-desired Constitution was granted. As the news flew from one end of the land to the other the scenes beggared description. Dr. H. H. Jessup wrote from Beirut:

We seem to be in dreamland. Had any one told me six months ago that the word liberty could be breathed in the streets of Beirut, I would have laughed him to scorn. To-day the city is full of the cry, "Hurrah for Liberty! Hurrah for Justice! Hurrah for the Sultan!"

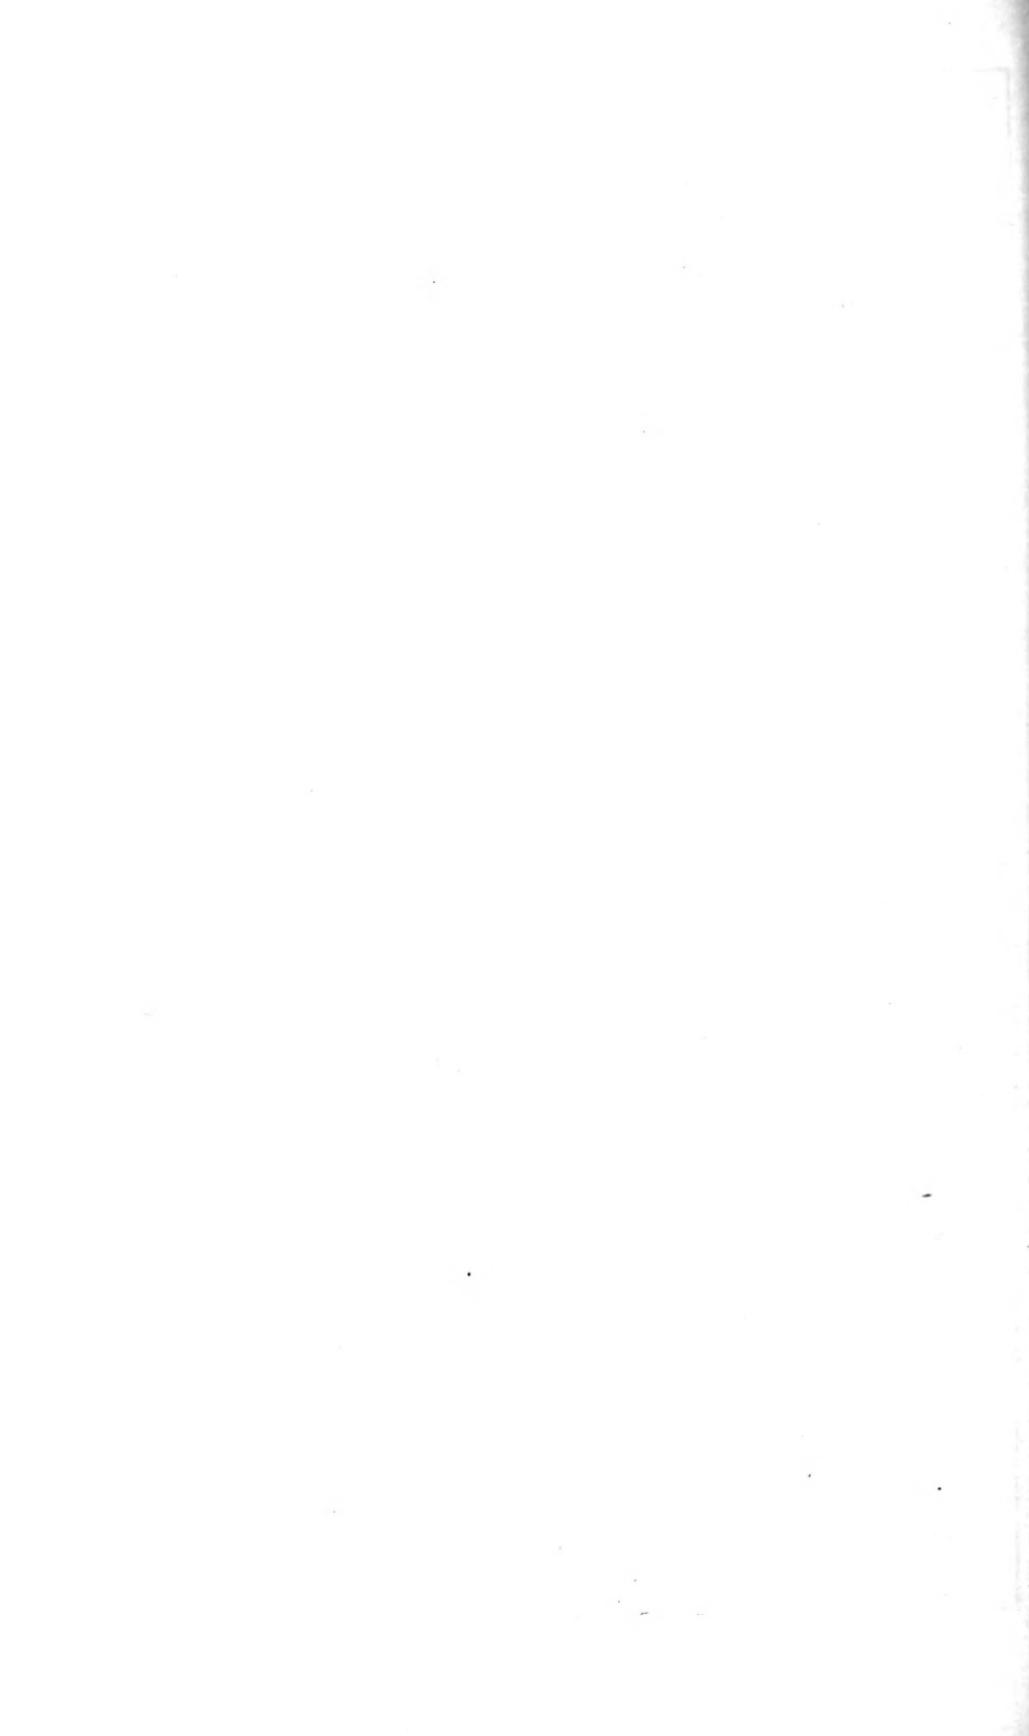

Two Moslems called on Dr. Samuel Jessup, one an orthodox Sheik, a learned man, who was in Constantinople at the time of the revolution, and has only now returned. He spoke of the wonderful way all these extraordinary changes came about and said: "This thing was not of man or men, but only of God. No hand but His divine hand could have wrought all this. Praise be to His great name!" The other, a Moslem Effendi of the Persian or "heretical" sect, of his own accord said just about the same thing, but added pessimistically: "Only the hand of God can keep up this state of things and transform the corrupt rulers into honest men."

The latter voiced the real situation. The movement is undoubtedly of God. It is His hand that has turned the key and granted for the first time freedom of the Press, freedom of speech and freedom of travel. Not for a moment can one doubt that God's voice is calling the Church to enter the new door of opportunity in Syria. The approach to the heart of the Mohammedan has been cleared of obstacles; but already there are signs that the new wine of liberty is turning the heads of the party of progress and reform, that powers suddenly granted may be misused, and that young Turkey is in danger of rushing headlong into the peril of revolution. John Fiske, in referring to the five years that succeeded the American Revolution, called them the critical period of American history. Turkey is entering on the same stage. No blood has been shed in gaining liberty; may none flow in maintaining it.

Just what part the Christian missionary has had in bringing about this change may be subject for debate, but that he is destined to have a large share in making the new Turkey there can be no doubt. If to the patience and gentleness of Christ be combined a persistent and determined faith and loyalty to the teachings of Jesus, He is certain in the end to prevail and share a large part in establishing in the Turkish Empire and the hand of the Master a permanent and beautiful civilization. A reading of the following report will show that in the faithful work of the past year the members of the Syria Mission have not been unmindful of the chance and are alert to assume the new responsibilities that the new crisis has made.

MISSIONS IN SYRIA.

HISTORY.—The Mission was first started in Palestine about 1820, by missionaries of the American Board. Owing to the state of the land, and interruptions from wars, pestilence and massacres, growth was slow at first, and the main work was confined to Syria. In 1870 the Mission was transferred to the care of the Presbyterian Board. During these eighty-five years less than 150 Americans, male and female, have been employed, the present number being respectively fifteen and twenty-five.

BEIRUT: on the Mediterranean. The Syrian port for European merchandise; occupied in 1823. Missionaries—Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D.D., Rev. F. W. March and Mrs. March, Rev. Franklin E. Hoskins, D.D., and Mrs. Hoskins, Mr. E. G. Freyer and Mrs. Freyer, Mrs. C. V. A. Van Dyck, Miss Emilia Thomson, Miss Mary Pierson Eddy, M.D., Miss Rachel E. Tolles, Miss Ottora M. Horne.

LEBANON: occupied (Abeih, 10 miles south of Beirut) in 1843 and (Zahleh, about 20 miles southeast of Beirut) 1872. Missionaries—Rev. O. J. Hardin and Mrs. Hardin, Rev. William Jessup and Mrs. Jessup, Mrs. William Bird, Miss Emily G. Bird, Rev. Paul Erdman and Mrs. Erdman.

TRIPOLI: on the seacoast, 50 miles north of Beirut; occupied 1843. Missionaries—Rev. William S. Nelson, D.D., and Mrs. Nelson, Ira Harris, M.D., and Mrs. Harris, Miss Harriet La Grange and Miss Bernice Hunting, Rev. James H. Nicol and Mrs. Nicol, Rev. James B. Brown and Mrs. Brown, Dr. A. Elsie Harris.

SIDON: on the seacoast 30 miles south of Beirut; occupied 1851. Missionaries—Rev. Samuel Jessup, D.D., Rev. George A. Ford, D.D., and Mrs. Ford, Miss Charlotte H. Brown, Miss M. Louise Law, Rev. Stuart D. Jessup and Mrs. Jessup, Rev. George C. Doolittle and Mrs. Doolittle.

ON FURLOUGH DURING THE YEAR: Miss Charlotte Brown, Rev. W. S. Nelson and Mrs. Nelson, Rev. William Jessup and Mrs. Jessup.

SYRIAN PROTESTANT COLLEGE.—The Syrian Protestant College, situated at Beirut, is not connected with any missionary society or helped by its funds, but it is a direct outgrowth of the Mission in Syria, and is closely affiliated with the Mission and related to its work. It has a magnificent location, and in its Preparatory, Collegiate, Commercial, Pharmaceutical and Medical departments it has 870 students. A Training School for Nurses was established in 1905 in connection with the College Hospitals. Catalogues may be had by applying to the President, Rev. Howard S. Bliss, D.D.

The corps of instruction and administration numbers 74; of these 63 devote all or some of their time to teaching, and 11 are engaged in the conduct of the business affairs of the institution. Thirty-five are from America; 25 are Syrians; 2 are Greek; 4 British; 2 are Italians; 2 are Swiss; 3 are Armenians; 1 is Austrian.

The College was opened in Beirut in the Autumn of 1866. The first class was graduated in 1870. The Medical department was organized and opened in 1867, the Preparatory department in 1871, and the School of Commerce in October, 1900.
